Hebraic Roots Bible

Introduction

Since I started my international humanitarian mission work over 16 years ago, it became apparent to me that many bible translations are flawed at best, or absolutely corrupted at worst. As African Brethren would read to me the scriptures that were written in their native tongue, I found it difficult to believe biblical scholars could be so deficient when translating the written word into the vernacular of these peoples.

I will say upfront that I am neither a Hebrew or Aramaic scholar, and don't claim to be one. I have lived in the land of Israel for at least half of the year over the last 15 years, and have been a true covenant believer in Yahshua Messiah for over 32 years and also have been a Pastor and teacher of the word for more than 20 years. I will also publicly state that I am firmly convinced that it was the Holy Spirit's inspiration and not the intellectual knowledge of myself that has put this Hebraic Roots Bible together. I have fervently prayed and asked our Heavenly Father for guidance throughout the five years that I have been working on this project. I can also tell you that many times while doing this work I felt the spirit of YAHWEH directing and guiding me to the finished work of this translation. This work is to the glory of YAHWEH for the end time remnant to have the closest manuscript possible to the original scriptures that were inspired for the Congregations of YAHWEH.

Eventually, I conceded that it was not in ignorance that most bible translations have many flaws. Since the invention of the printing press and the Protestant Reformation when the Holy Scriptures were translated from the original Hebrew and Aramaic languages respectively, translators in almost every case have used an anti-Torah and anti-Hebrew premise during the production of their particular translations.

I have studied and perceived that some translations are third and forth generations away from the original language. Each translation strays farther from the original text and becomes watered down and more distant from the truth. An example is you could start with the word couch and then, translate it into sofa, and from there to love-seat, then to chair, bench, plank etc. So you can see if you are not using the original language and meaning you can stray from the truth very quickly. It is very clear from the historical, archeological and biblical evidence in the world today that the original Tanach, known to many as the Old Testament was indeed first written in the ancient Paleo Hebrew language.

It is also proven beyond a shadow of a doubt that the New Testament was not originally written in Greek, but was written in Aramaic (the everyday spoken language of our Savior Yahshua) and later translated into Greek. It is not the purpose of this manuscript to try to prove this fact with countless details and examples to the skeptic, but to simply put the original Hebrew and Aramaic manuscripts together for the true body of Messiah. (This is another prophetic point of "all things being restored" in the last days.) The following are a few examples:

Hebraic Roots Bible

The New Testament is filled with Aramaic words such as "Talithaqumi" in Mark 5:41, and "Corban" in Mark 7:11, or "Ephatha" in Mark 7:34 as well as many other places. What is most interesting is that in the Greek manuscripts where these Aramaic words are, it states directly after the Aramaic phrase the words "which is being translated as". What is quite striking is you never see these words in the original Peshitta Aramaic New Testament manuscripts. So which came first, the Greek or the Aramaic? The answer is self evident by the manuscript that is clearly identifying itself as the translation.

Also, there are several instances in the translated Greek manuscript where the translator transliterated an Aramaic phrase into the Greek copy, with a transliterated word that does not exist in the Greek language. One such example is in Mark 3:17 where Yahshua has nicknamed two of His apostles as "B'nai Ragshee", which in English means "S*ons of thunder",* but this phrase is transliterated into the Greek as "Boanerges", which is not a word or phrase in Greek. The fact that an Aramaic phrase is transliterated into Greek with no identical translation clearly proves that the original was the Aramaic. So very distinctly, when you do a scientific primacy test, as scholars have done, in every case the Aramaic Peshitta manuscript comes out as the original over the Greek and other Aramaic manuscripts.

This is not to say that the Greek Textus Receptus manuscript on which the King Good News Bible is translated is a flawed or ingenuous translation. On the contrary, I believe that the Greek Textus Receptus is generally a very good translation from the original Aramaic Peshitta, but as in any translated work, there are mistakes and things that were missed in the translation from one language to another.

When putting together this Hebraic Roots Bible, I took the Peshitta text for the New Testament and its translation by several predominant scholars, such as George Lamsa, Murdock, Paul Yonan, Janet M. Magiera, and compared passages from both the Khabouris Codex, and from Gabriel Roth's Ruach Qadim book. In checking with these various Aramaic translations of the Peshitta text, I also closely compared them to the Greek translation and prayerfully tried to give a literal translation of what the original intent was of each books writer from the original language and circumstances. I do believe that the Greek translation helped much in this regard.

You will be much surprised to find that contrary to the translations of most Greek manuscripts today, the original Aramaic manuscripts do NOT have an anti-Torah (law) bias, and clearly shows that not only did our Savior Yahshua uphold the Torah perfectly, but that the Torah was also a prerequisite for His disciples that followed after Him. You will also notice something most striking in this translation that has never been done before. Close to 100 times in the Tanach (Old Testament) you find the personal name of our Savior Yahshua personified in the Holy Scriptures and yet because most translators do not recognize the true Hebrew name of our Savior Yahshua, they do not translate these references about our Messiah into the English language.

In Hebrew every word goes back to a two or three letter root word, and originally Hebrew was actually 22 pictures or characters and not letters to which it later developed. The root letters in Hebrew of our Saviors name, Yahshua, is Yod, Shin, Ayin. In the Hebrew language according to whether a word is a verb or noun or adjective, it reflects in the grammatical structure of the root word with the proper prefix or suffix added to show what form the word is in the sentence.

I find it most amazing though that whether the root word Yod, Shin, Ayin, is in the noun form or verb form, adjective form, or even at times as the personal pronoun "He", it still always means the same as our savior's name Yahshua, which is "salvation'. So I have translated the root word Yod, Shin, Ayin, as I believe it was intended, in the personal name of our Savior Yahshua. Since I know that some others may differ, I have marked each one of these references with an asterisk * so as to let the reader know each time one of these occurrences appears. The fact that these references in the Tanach are clearly inspired by the Holy Spirit and are indeed references about Yahshua Messiah can easily be seen by the following scripture comparison.

Is 49:6 And He said, It is too little that You should be My servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved ones of Israel; I will also give You, my Yahshua* (salvation), to be for a light of the nations, to the end of the earth.

Luk 2: 26 And it happened to him, having been divinely instructed by the Holy Spirit, he was not to see death before he would see the Messiah of YAHWEH. 27
And by the Spirit he came into the sanctuary. And as the parents were bringing in the child Yahshua for them to do according to the custom of the Torah concerning Him, 28 even Simeon received Him into his arms. And he blessed YAHWEH and said, 29 "Now dismiss your servant in peace, Adonai, according to your word. 30 because my eyes saw Your Salvation (Yahshua), Luk 3: 5 All the valleys will be filled and all the mountains and heights will be leveled. And the rough will become smooth, and the difficult land a plain 6 " and all flesh shall see the salvation of YAHWEH." (Isaiah 40:3-5)

Now can anyone deny that "the salvation" that was seen by Simeon in verse 30 of Luke the second chapter and Luke 3:5 is indeed referring directly to Yahshua? And if that is the case than I believe I can just as strongly argue that the somewhat 100 references to Yahshua in the Old Testament also do indeed most certainly personally infer to Him, even when the grammatical form may be a verb or adjective, as Yahshua is all living and created all things and is all things. Also, our Savior clearly calls himself the Aleph and the Tav (Alpha and Omega in the Greek text) in Rev 1:8, and also Rev 22:13. The Aleph and the Tav are the first and last letter in the Hebrew alphabet. Interesting enough is the fact that in the Hebrew language an aleph and tav are inserted in certain places to show possession, however it is not translatable. Since some of the places could not be coincidental, as they are extremely important messianic scriptures, such as Zechariah 12:10, I have left the pertinent aleph/ tavs in place for the reader to see, even though they don't translate into English.

I would also like to say that although I do believe the Hebrew Masoretic text of the Tanach or Old Covenant is indeed the oldest and overall most reliable source of scripture that we have, I also want to caution that the lying pen of the scribes has not kept the Masoretic text without fault. There has been several areas where the translators of the Masoretic text purposely changed scripture to fit their own theology. So what I did was to check and reference each discrepancy with the Masoretic text with at least two other witnesses of written ancient scriptures, which in most cases would have been the Septuagint Greek translation from the second century B.C., or the Brit Hadashah (New Testament writings)and also the Dead Sea Scrolls, written between the 1st and 2nd century B.C. I will list some of the scribal errors of the Masoretic text below.

1) The personal name of YAHWEH was changed 113 times to Adonai in the Masoretic Text from the original Hebrew manuscripts.

2) The Masoretic text takes the word for pierced in Psalm 22:16 (a clear crucifixion Psalm) kaaru and changes the last letter from a vav to a yud. The change of letter changes the meaning from pierced my hands, and feet, to lion, as in as a lion they are at my hands and feet. The Septuagint has pierced from the original Hebrew karu not kaari. According to the Dead Sea Scrolls dated about 100 BCE, the Hebrew Word in verse 16 is kaaru pierced and not lion. Not only that but the Aramaic Peshitta also agrees with the Septuagint.

3) In Isaiah 53 the Masoretic is missing a key word in verse 11. After the word "see", there should be another word "light" qualifying what the Suffering Servant sees. But the missing word LIGHT is found in the Septuagint, and the Dead Sea Scrolls.

4) In the Masoretic text Exodus 1:5 and Gen 46:27 states that 70 souls came to Egypt from Canaan. But the Septuagint and Dead Sea Scroll say 75 souls.

5) In Genesis 10:24 the Masoretic text is missing generations. The New Testament in Luke 3:36 inserts Canaan as does the Septuagint and the Dead Sea Scrolls, leaving 3 biblical witnesses.

6) In Deuteronomy 32:8 the Masoretic text uses the term "children of Israel." The Septuagint uses the term "Cherubs Of Elohim" as do the Dead Sea Scrolls.

7) In Isaiah 61:1 the Masoretic does not contain the phrase "recovery of sight to the blind." Yet Luke 4:18 does as does the Septuagint.

8) In Psalm 40:6 the Masoretic text has purposely changed the phrase "a BODY you have prepared for me", as properly quoted again in Hebrews 10:5, and verified by the Septuagint and also the Dead Sea Scrolls to the phrase "you have opened up my ears."

The original names of our Creator, YAHWEH, and his Son, our Savior Yahshua, are also used throughout. The name YAHWEH or 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 is in the original Paleo Hebrew manuscripts 6,823 times. Almost every translation on earth, including the King James, takes out the Creator's personal name and replaces it with the name "Lord", a generic title that means 'Baal or Master'. Also, our Savior's true given Hebrew name, Yahshua, which means "Yah is salvation" is changed to a Greek hybrid of Jesus, which is a poor transliteration from the Greek IE-Zeus. The English transliteration of Yahshua would be the equivalent to Yahoshua. There was no letter "J" in any language until the 16th century. So the Greek name "Jesus" would not be the name of our Savior.

The third commandment strictly forbids taking the name (of) YAHWEH in vain. In vain literally means to 'change, falsify, or make common'. Taking the name YAHWEH or Yahshua and changing it to 'Lord or Jesus' is definitely going against the clear instruction of the third commandment. So we will use the original, true Hebrew names of the Father YAHWEH and the Son Yahshua throughout this bible translation.

We will also use the original Hebrew word, Elohim, instead of the incorrectly translated "god". God is the personal name of the Babylonian deity of fortune. Please see the note on Is 65:11. We will keep all Hebrew titles for our Heavenly Father such as El Shaddai, Adonai, El Elyon, etc exactly as they appear in the original manuscripts. Also, the Catholic Church changed the original Hebrew book order, so we have arranged the book order back into its original place. In the 1st covenant we have the Torah, the prophets and the writings, which make up the Tanach, and in the New Testament we have the 4 Good News messages and Acts, and then, the 7 epistles by the early congregational leaders, and then, the Apostle Paul's epistles ending with John's Revelation. This was the original book order. The epistle of Jacob, which was changed to James by the King has been restored to the original name. The book order of scripture is extremely important as if you were reading a book you would not read chapter 8 before chapter 5.

I pray that this work, which has been blessed by YAHWEH Almighty will be as much of a blessing to each one reading it, as it was to me putting it together. You can download this bible for free at www.coyhwh.com .

Book of Genesis (B'rasheet)

Chapter 1

1 In the beginning Elohim created the heavens and the earth;[1]

2 and the earth being without form and empty, and darkness on the face of the deep, and the Spirit of Elohim moving gently on the face of the waters,

3 then Elohim said, Let light be! And there was light.[2]

4 And Elohim saw the light, that it was good, and Elohim separated between the light and darkness. (Joh 1:4)

5 And Elohim called the light, Day. And He called the darkness, Night. And there was evening, and there was morning, day one.[3]

6 And Elohim said, Let an expanse be in the midst of the waters, and let it be dividing between the waters and the waters.

7 And Elohim made the expanse, and He separated between the waters which were under the expanse and the waters which were above the expanse. And it was so.

8 And Elohim called the expanse, Heavens. And there was evening, and there was morning, day two.

9 And Elohim said, Let the waters under the heavens be collected to one place, and let the dry land appear. And it was so.

10 And Elohim called the dry land, Earth. And He called the collection of the waters, Seas. And Elohim saw that it was good.

11 And Elohim said, Let the earth sprout tender sprouts, the herb seeding seed, the fruit tree producing fruit according to its kind, whichever seed is in it on the earth. And it was so.

12 And the earth bore tender sprouts, the herb seeding seed according to its kind, and the fruit tree producing fruit according to its kind, whichever seed is in it. And Elohim saw that it was good.

13 And there was evening, and there was morning, day three.

14 And Elohim said, Let light sources be in the expanse of the heavens, to divide between the day and the night. And let them be for signs and for seasons[4], and for days and years.

15 And let them be for light sources in the expanse of the heavens, to give light on the earth. And it was so.

16 And Elohim made the two great light sources the great light to rule the day, and the small light and the stars to rule the night.

17 And Elohim set them in the expanse of the heavens, to give light on the earth,

18 and to rule over the day and over the night; and to divide between the light and the darkness. And Elohim saw that it was good.

19 And there was evening, and there was morning, day four.

20 And Elohim said, Let the waters

1 "In the beginning" The first words of scripture and also the Hebrew name for Genesis called "B'rasheet". Elohim, a generic term used for deity in scripture roughly 2,500 times. The word in Hebrew is plural and shows the duality of the Yahweh family at creation, Gen 1:26.

2 Due to YHWH's great and awesome power all He needs to do is to speak and creation occurred, Joh 1:1-3, Mk 4:39-41.

3 In scripture evening precedes morning and the new day begins and the old one ends at sunset, Lev 23:32, Deut 21:23.

4 The Hebrew word here "moed" literally means the Holy Days of YHWH. The sun rules the day and the day begins at sunset, and the moon rules the month and the month begins at the conjunction of the moon. In both cases there is nothing to watch or visually site not to entice Israel later to worship as the pagans did, Deut 4:19. swarm with swarmers having a living soul; and let the birds fly around, over the earth, on the face of the expanse of the heavens.

21 And Elohim created the great crocodiles, and all that creeps, having a living soul, which swarmed the waters, according to its kind; and every bird with wing according to its kind. And Elohim saw that it was good.

22 And Elohim blessed them, saying, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas; and let the birds multiply in the earth.

23 And there was evening, and there was morning, the fifth day.

24 And Elohim said, Let the earth bring forth the soul of life according to its kind cattle, and creepers, and its beasts of the earth, according to its kind. And it was so.

25 And Elohim made the beasts of the earth according to its kind, and cattle according to its kind, and all creepers of the ground according to its kind. And Elohim saw that it was good.

26 And Elohim said, let Us make mankind in Our image, according to Our likeness; [1]and let them rule over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the heavens, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over all the creepers creeping on the earth. (Gen 9:6)

27 And Elohim created the man in His own image; in the image of Elohim He created him. He created them male and female.

28 And Elohim blessed them; and Elohim said to them, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the land, and subdue it, and rule over the fish of the seas, and over birds of the heavens, and over all beasts creeping on the earth.[2]

29 And Elohim said, Behold, I have given you every plant seeding seed which is on the face of all the earth, and every tree in which is the fruit of a tree seeding seed; it shall be food[3] for you.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to all birds of the heavens, and to every creeper on the earth which has in it a living soul, every green plant is for food. And it was so.

31 And Elohim saw everything that He had made and behold, it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning, the sixth day.

Chapter 2

1 And the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their host.

2 And on the seventh day Elohim completed His work which He had made. And He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had made.[4]

3 And Elohim blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because He rested

[1] Man was made in the image of Yahweh as he has 2 hands and feet and 2 eyes etc. However, to be made in His likeness, denotes to have the character that He has and that does not come by instantaneous fiat but by a life-long commitment to conquer ones fallen human nature, to build patience and self-control and to 100% fully submit to the spirit of YHWH and His Torah on how to love and worship Him and how to love our neighbor as ourselves.

[2] Yahweh promised man "rulership" not ownership over the earth. Nowhere in scripture is heaven ever promised as the reward of the saved, but always dominion over the earth, Ps 115:16, Is 66:1. Also, we see from the very beginning that the command given by Elohim was for man to "be fruitful and multiple". Adam was to teach the Torah of YHWH to others but failed. Yahshua who was the second Adam gave the same command in the New Covenant, Joh 15:1-8.

[3] The Hebrew root for the word food can also mean destruction and shows that if you allow the physical things to control your life it could destroy you.

from all His work on it, which Elohim had created to make.

4 These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created in the day of the making of YAHWEH Elohim's earth and heavens.

5 And every shrub of the field was not yet on the earth, and every plant of the field had not yet sprung up; for YAHWEH Elohim had not sent rain on the earth, and there was no man to till the ground.[1]

6 And mist went up from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And YAHWEH Elohim formed the man from the dust of the ground, and blew into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living soul.[2]

8 And YAHWEH Elohim planted a garden in Eden to the east; and He put the man whom He had formed there.

9 And out of the ground YAHWEH Elohim made to spring up every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food. The Tree of Life was also in the middle of the garden; also the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil.

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it was divided and became four heads.

11 The name of the first was Pishon; it is the one surrounding all the land of Havilah where gold is;

12 the gold of that land is good; there is bdellium gum resin, and the onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon. It is the one surrounding all the land of Cush.

14 And the name of the third river is Hiddakel; it is the one going east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 And YAHWEH Elohim took the man and put him into the Garden of Eden, to work it and to keep it.[3]

16 And YAHWEH Elohim commanded the man, saying, Eating you may eat of every tree in the garden;

17 but of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil you may not eat, for in the day that you eat of it, surely you shall die.[4]

18 And YAHWEH Elohim said, It is not good, the man being alone. I will make a helper suited to him.

19 And YAHWEH Elohim formed every animal of the field, and every bird of the heavens out of the ground. And He brought them to the man, to see what he would call it. And all which the man might call it, each living soul that was its name.

20 And the man called names to all the cattle, and to the birds of the heavens, and to every animal of the field. But for a man, no helper suited to him was found.

21 And YAHWEH Elohim caused a deep sleep to fall on the man, and he slept. And He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh underneath.

22 And YAHWEH Elohim formed the rib which He had taken from the 4 Clearly, the setting apart of the Sabbath day as holy time goes back to creation week and was there from the very beginning. The Hebrew word for "rested" is "Shabbat".

1 It is interesting to note that Adam was not in the garden yet.

2 Man "became" a living soul, he does not "possess" a soul. A soul can die and is not immortal as the soul that sins it will die, Eze 18:4, Ro 6:23. Please see lesson 17 on the immortal soul in the bible on line course at www.coyhwh.com in the study section.

3 "Keep it"- the Hebrew literally means to guard and protect it.

4 The tree of life signifies 100% faith and trust in YHWH unconditionally, as where the tree of the knowledge of good and evil represents man's free choice to make his own decision apart from the word of YHWH.

man into a woman, and brought her to the man.

23 And the man said, This now at last is bone from my bones, and flesh from my flesh; For this shall be called Woman, because out of man this has been taken.

24 Therefore, a man shall leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave to his wife and they shall become one (echad, unified) flesh.[1]

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and they were not ashamed.

Chapter 3

1 And the serpent was cunning[2] above every beast of the field which YAHWEH Elohim had made. And he said to the woman, Is it so that Elohim has said, You shall not eat from any tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said to the serpent, of the fruit of the trees of the garden, We may eat,

3 but of the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden, Elohim has said, You shall not eat of it, nor shall you touch it, lest you die.

4 And the serpent said to the woman, surely, you shall not die,

5 for Elohim knows that in the day you eat of it, even your eyes shall be opened, and you shall be as Elohim, knowing good and evil.

6 And the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and the tree was desirable to make one wise. And she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave to her husband with her, and he ate.

7 And the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked. And they sewed leaves of the fig tree, and made girdles for themselves.

8 And they heard the sound of YAHWEH Elohim walking up and down in the garden at the breeze of the day. And the man and his wife hid themselves from the face of YAHWEH Elohim in the middle of the trees of the garden.

9 And YAHWEH Elohim called to the man and said to him, Where are you?

10 And he said, I have heard Your sound in the garden, and I was afraid, for I am naked, and I hid myself.

11 And He said, Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?

12 And the man said, The woman whom You gave to be with me, she has given to me of the tree, and I ate.

13 And YAHWEH Elohim said to the woman, What is this you have done? And the woman said, The serpent deceived me, and I ate.

14 And YAHWEH Elohim said to the serpent, Because you have done this, you are cursed above all beasts, and above every animal of the field. You shall go on your belly, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life.

15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed; He will bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel.[3]

16 He said to the woman, I will

[1] The word "echad" is a Hebrew word that although could denote the number one can also denote (as in this case) a unified state between 2 things or people.

[2] The word for "naked" in verse 25 and the word for "cunning" are derived from the same root word in Hebrew.

[3] This is the very first messianic scripture promising redemption directly after the sin of the man and woman. It is interesting that the prophecy is for a redeemer to come from the seed of a woman when most times in scripture legal genealogies come through a man. This is a hint to the virgin birth, Is 7:14.

greatly increase your sorrow and your conception; you shall bear sons in sorrow, and your desire shall be toward your husband; and he shall rule over
you.[1]
17 And He said to the man, Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and have eaten of the tree about which I commanded you, saying, You shall not eat from it, the ground shall be cursed because of you; you shall eat of it in sorrow all the days of your life.
18 And it shall bring forth thorns and thistles for you, and you shall eat the plant of the field. (Mk 4:18-19, Is 5:6) 19 By the sweat of your face you shall eat bread until your return to the ground. For you have been taken out of it; for you are dust, and to dust you shall return.[2] (Job 7:21, Ps 146:4) 20 And the man called the name of his wife, Eve; because she became the mother of all living[3].
21 And YAHWEH Elohim made coats of skin for the man and his wife, and clothed them[4].
22 And YAHWEH Elohim said, Behold! The man has become as one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put forth his hand and also take from the Tree of Life, and eat, and live forever, 23 YAHWEH Elohim sent him out of the Garden of Eden to till the ground out of which he was taken.
24 And He drove the man out. And He lodged the cherubs at the east of the Garden of Eden, and the flaming sword whirling around to guard the way of the Tree of Life.

Chapter 4

1 And the man knew his wife Eve. And she conceived and bore Cain, and said,
I have gotten[5] a man, YAHWEH.
2 And she continued to bear his brother, Abel. And Abel became a shepherd of flocks. And Cain became a tiller of the ground.
3 And it was in the end of days, it happened that Cain brought an offering to YAHWEH from the fruit of the ground.
4 And Abel brought, he also, from the firstlings of his flocks, even from their fat. And YAHWEH looked to Abel and to his offering.
5 And He did not look to Cain and to his offering. And Cain glowed greatly with anger, and his face fell.[6]

1 A very clear scripture showing in Yahweh's judicial order the wife's desire should be toward her husband as a helpmate and not toward her own independent private goals. Due to the rejection of Yahweh's judicial order today divorce is at an all time high.

2 This scripture is very clear that man is mortal and will die, (Heb 9:27, Eccl 9:5). After this there will be a first and second resurrection for all those who ever lived (Rev 20:4-15) and those who have done good will receive eternal life and those who have done evil will go to the lake of Fire and cease to exist.

3 When Eve was created she was simply called eshah or woman, but now since it was prophesied that the messiah would be born from her lineage in verse 15, she has become the mother of all living through the coming messiah.

4 Here, Yahweh Yahshua the High priest of the Melchizedek order does the first sacrifice and since death came through man, we see that also restoration of life would also come through man, and the seed of Adam Ro 5:12-16.

5 This Hebrew word for gotten "Kanati" also means to purchase and the root can mean to fix, repair or restore. Understandably, Adam and Eve thought that Cain was the prophesied messiah of Gen 3:15, and he would repair the covenant that they had broken.

6 In chapter 3:21 YHWH already set the precedent that sin brings the shedding of innocent blood. Here, Cain was trying to bring a bloodless sacrifice without a true heart for YHWH.

6 And YAHWEH said to Cain, Why have you angrily glowed, and why has your face fallen?

7 If you do well, is there not exaltation? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door; and its desire is toward you; but you should rule over it.

8 And Cain talked with his brother Abel and said let us go out into the field; And it happened as they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel, and killed him.

9 And YAHWEH said to Cain, Where is your brother Abel? And he said, I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?

10 And He said, What have you done? The voice of the blood of your brother cries to Me from the ground.

11 And now you are cursed more than the ground which opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

12 When you till the ground, it will not again give its strength to you. You shall be a vagabond and a fugitive on the earth.

13 And Cain said to YAHWEH, My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold! You have driven me out from the face of the land today. And I shall be hidden from Your face. And I shall be a vagabond and a fugitive on the earth. And it will be that anyone who finds me shall kill me.

15 And YAHWEH said to him, If anyone kills Cain, he shall be avenged sevenfold. And YAHWEH set a mark on Cain, so that anyone who found him should not kill him.

16 And Cain went out from the presence of YAHWEH. And he settled and married in the land of Nod, east of Eden[1].

17 And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And he built a city, and he called the name of the city according to the name of his son, Enoch.

18 And Irad was born to Enoch; and Irad fathered Mehujael And Mehujael fathered Methusael; and Methusael fathered Lamech.

19 And Lamech took two wives to himself the name of the first was Adah; and the name of the second was Zillah.

20 And Adah bore Jabal; he was the father of those living in tents, and raising livestock.

21 And the name of his brother was Jubal; he was the father of all those playing the harp and the organ.

22 And Zillah also bore Tubalcain, the hammerer of every engraving tool of copper and iron. And the sister of Tubalcain was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said to his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice, you wives of Lamech; listen to my words; for I have killed a man because of my wound, and a young man because of my hurt.

24 For Cain is avenged sevenfold, and Lamech seventy seven.

25 And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son. And she called his name, Seth, for Elohim has appointed to me another seed in place of Abel because Cain killed him.

26 And a son was also born to Seth, and he called his name, Enos. Then it

1 It is widely assumed that Cain married his sister but that is nowhere ever mentioned in scripture and is clearly against the Torah (Lev 18:9) and abominable in the eyes of Yahweh. Incestuous marriages was a Canaanite practice (Lev 18:3,24) and clearly not ordained by YHWH. From this verse and also verse 14, we can see that there were other human beings on the earth.

was begun to call on[1] the name of YAHWEH.

Chapter 5

1 This is the book of the generations of Adam in the day that Elohim created mankind, He made him in the likeness of Elohim.
2 He created them male and female, and blessed them, and called their name "Adawm[2]" in the day when they were created.

20 And all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty two years. And he died.
21 And Enoch lived sixty five years and fathered Methuselah.
22 And Enoch walked with Elohim three hundred years after he fathered Methuselah. And he fathered sons and daughters.
23 And all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty five years.
24 And Enoch walked with Elohim. Then he was not, for Elohim took him.
25 And Methuselah lived one hundred and eighty seven years and fathered Lamech.
26 And after he fathered Lamech, Methuselah lived seven hundred and eighty two years. And he fathered sons and daughters.
27 And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred and sixty nine years; and he died.
28 And Lamech lived one hundred and eighty two years and fathered a son.
29 And he called his name Noah, saying, This one shall comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands because of the ground which YAHWEH has cursed.

[1] This word can also mean to curse

[2] Although, also, the personal name of the first human being, here "Adawm" means mankind.

30 And after he fathered Noah, Lamech lived five hundred and ninety five years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

31 And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy seven years. And he died.

32 And Noah was five hundred years old. And Noah fathered Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Chapter 6

1 And it came about that men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them.

2 The sons of the Elohim saw the daughters of the men, that they were good, and they took wives for themselves from all those whom they chose.

3 And YAHWEH said, My Spirit shall not always strive with mankind; in their going astray he is flesh. And his days shall be a hundred and twenty years[1] (times).

4 The nephilim[2] were in the earth in those days, and even afterwards when the sons of the Elohim came in to the daughters of the men, and they gave birth to them; they were the heroes who existed from ancient time, men of renown.

5 And YAHWEH saw that the evil of man was great on the earth, and every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil all the day long.

6 And YAHWEH sighed with sorrow that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved to His heart.

7 And YAHWEH said, I will wipe off man whom I have created from the face of the earth, from man to beast, to the creeping thing and to the birds of the heavens; for I repent that I made them.[3]

8 And Noah found grace in the eyes of YAHWEH.

9 These are the generations of Noah. Noah, a righteous man, had been without blemish in his generations. Noah walked with Elohim.

10 And Noah fathered three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 And the earth was corrupt before the Elohim, and the earth was filled with violence[4].

12 And Elohim looked on the earth, and behold, it was corrupted. For all flesh had corrupted its way on the earth.

13 And Elohim said to Noah, The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them. And behold, I will destroy them along with the earth.

14 Make an ark of cypress timbers for yourself. You shall make rooms in the ark; and you shall cover it with asphalt inside and out.

15 And you shall make it this way; The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.

16 You shall make a window in the ark, and you shall finish it above to a cubit. And you shall set the door of the ark in its side. You shall make it with lower, second, and third stories.

17 And behold, I, even I, am bringing a flood of waters on the earth in order to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life from under the heavens.

1 The Hebrew word for years can also mean "times" and may be referring to 120 jubilees or 120 x 50= 6,000 yrs allotted to man until YHWH would bring His kingdom, 2 Pe 3:8.

2 The Hebrew root for Nephilim is to fall down, so they were fallen ones.

3 Truly a sobering scripture for all humans to see the fallen nature of man and the sadness of the Creator in making him, Ro 3:10-23.

4 The Hebrew word used for violence here is "H*amas*", the same as the terror group today.

Everything which is on the earth shall die.

18 And I will establish My covenant with you. And you shall come into the ark, you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you.

19 And you shall bring into the ark two of every kind, of every living thing of all flesh, to keep alive with you; they shall be male and female;

20 from the birds according to its kind, and from the cattle according to its kind, from every creeping thing of the ground according to its kind. Two from each shall come in to you to keep alive.

21 And take for yourself all food that is eaten, and gather to yourself. And let it be for you and for them for food.

22 And Noah did so, according to all that Elohim appointed him to do, so he did.

Chapter 7

1 And YAHWEH said to Noah, You and all your house come into the ark, for I have seen you righteous before Me in this generation.

2 You shall take to yourself from every clean animal by sevens, male and female, and from the animal that is not clean by two, male and female.

3 And take of the fowl of the heavens by sevens, male and female, to keep alive seed on the face of the earth.

4 For after seven more days I will cause it to rain on the earth forty days and forty nights and will wipe away every living substance that I have made from off the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did as to all that YAHWEH commanded him.

6 Noah was a son of six hundred years, and the flood of waters was on the earth.

7 And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him into the ark, because of the water of the flood.

8 And they went in to Noah into the ark, male and female of clean animals, and of animals that are not clean, and of fowl, and of everything that creeps on the earth,[1] (Lev 11:1-47, Gen 8:20)

9 two by two, as Elohim had commanded Noah, they went into the ark, male and female.

10 And it was after the seven days, the waters of the flood came into being on the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, in the seventeenth day of the month, in this day all the fountains of the great deep were risen, and the windows of the heavens were opened up. (Gen 5:32)

12 And the rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights.[2]

13 In this same day Noah and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, went into the ark;

14 they, and every animal according to its kind, and every beast according to its kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth according to its kind; and every fowl according to its kind, every bird of every wing.

15 And they went in to Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, in which is the breath of life.

16 And those going in went in male and female of all flesh, as Elohim had commanded him. And YAHWEH shut the door behind him.

17 And the flood was on the earth forty days. And the waters increased,

1 The fact that Noah distinguished between clean and unclean animals undoubtedly shows that the clean and unclean laws of Leviticus 11 existed from creation.

2 Forty is the number of trial but also of overcoming.

and bore up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were greatly increased on the earth. And the ark floated on the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed, exceedingly violent on the earth, and all the high mountains under the heavens were covered.

20 The waters prevailed, fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh that moved on the earth died the fowl, and cattle, and beast, and every swarming thing that swarms on the earth, and all mankind.

22 All died in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land.

23 And every living thing which was on the face of the earth was wiped away, from man to cattle, and to the creeping things, and the fowl of the heavens. And they were wiped off from the earth, and only Noah was left, and those who were with him in the ark.

24 And mighty were the waters over the earth a hundred and fifty days.

Chapter 8

1 And Elohim remembered Noah and every living thing, and all the cattle which were with him in the ark. And Elohim made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided.

2 And the fountains of the deep and the windows of the heavens were stopped, and the rain from the heavens was restrained.

3 And the waters retreated from the earth, going and retreating. And the waters diminished at the end of a hundred and fifty days.

4 And in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested on the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters were going and falling until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.

6 And it happened, at the end of forty days, even Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made.

7 And he sent out a raven, and it went out, going out and returning until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 He also sent out from him the dove, to see if the waters had receded from off the face of the earth.

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned to him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of all the earth. And he put out his hand and took her, and pulled her in to him into the ark.

10 And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark.

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening. And, behold! In her mouth was a newly plucked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the waters receded down from off the earth.

12 And he waited another seven days and sent forth the dove. And she did not return again to him any more.

13 And it happened in the six hundred and first year, at the beginning, on the first of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth. And Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked. And, behold! The face of the earth was dried.

14 And in the second month, on the twenty seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

15 And Elohim spoke to Noah, saying,

16 Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons' wives with you.

17 Bring out from you every living thing that is with you, of all flesh, of fowl, of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creeps on the earth; and let them swarm on the earth, and bear, and multiply on the earth.

18 And Noah went out, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him;
19 every animal, every creeping thing, and every fowl; all which creeps on the earth. They went forth out of the ark according to their families.
20 And Noah built an altar to YAHWEH, and took of every clean animal, and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.
21 And YAHWEH smelled the soothing fragrance, and YAHWEH said in His heart, I will never again curse the ground for the sake of man, because the imagination of the heart of man is evil from his youth. Yea, I will not again smite every living thing as I have done.
22 While the earth remains, seed-time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.[1]

Chapter 9

1 And Elohim blessed Noah and his sons. And He said to them, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth[2].
2 And your fear and your dread shall be on all the animals of the earth, and on every bird of the heavens, on all that moves on the earth, and on all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hands.
3 Every creeping thing which is alive shall be food for you. I have given you all things, even as the green plant.[3]
4 But you shall not eat flesh in its life, its blood.
5 And surely the blood of your lives I will demand. At the hand of every animal I will demand it, and at the hand of man. I will demand the life of man at the hand of every man's brother.
6 Whoever sheds man's blood, his blood shall be shed by man; For He made the man in the image of Elohim. (Gen 1:26-27)
7 And you, be fruitful and multiply. Swarm over the earth and multiply in it.
8 And Elohim spoke to Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,
9 Behold! I, even I, am establishing My covenant with you, and with your seed after you,
10 and with every living creature which is with you, among fowl, among cattle, and among every animal of the earth with you, from all that go out from the ark, to every animal of the earth.
11 And I have established My covenant with you, and all flesh shall not be cut off again by the waters of a flood; nor shall there ever again be a flood to destroy the earth.
12 And Elohim said, This is the sign of the covenant which I am about to make between Me and you, and every living soul which is with you, for everlasting generations.
13 I have set My bow in the cloud, and it shall be a sign of a covenant between Me and the earth.
14 And it will be when I gather the clouds on the earth, then the bow shall be seen in the clouds.
15 And I will remember My covenant which is between Me and you, and every living soul in all flesh. And the waters shall not again become a flood to destroy all flesh.

[1] In Israel there are only 2 seasons, winter and summer. The sun makes its revolution around the earth and when it passes the equator at the spring equinox, (called "tekufah" in Hebrew) the next new moon is the first month of the new year.

[2] The same command given in Gen 1:28.

[3] Of course this is with the already given instructions on clean and unclean animals, Gen 7:2, Gen 8:20

16 And the bow shall be in the clouds, and I shall see it, to remember the everlasting covenant between Elohim and every living soul, in all flesh on the earth.

17 And Elohim said to Noah, This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth.

18 And the sons of Noah that went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And Ham is the father of Canaan.

19 These are the three sons of Noah, and the whole earth was overspread from them.

20 And Noah, a man of the ground, began and planted a vineyard.

21 And he drank from the wine, and was drunk[1]. And he uncovered himself inside his tent.

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father. And he told his two brothers outside.

23 And Shem and Japheth took a garment and put it on both their shoulders. And they went backward and covered the nakedness of their father, their faces backward. And they did not see the nakedness of their father.

24 And Noah awoke from his wine. And he came to know what his younger son had done to him.[2]

25 And he said, Cursed be Canaan. He shall be a slave of slaves to his brothers.

26 And he said, Blessed be YAHWEH, the Elohim of Shem; and may Canaan be his slave.

27 Elohim shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall live in the tents of Shem, and Canaan shall be their slave.

28 And Noah lived three hundred and fifty years after the flood.

29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years. And he died.

Chapter 10

1 And these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. And sons were born to them after the flood.

2 The sons of Japheth: Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And Gomer's sons were Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 And Javan's sons were Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5 By these the coasts of the nations were divided in their lands each by his tongue[3], by their families, in their nations.

6 And Ham's sons were Cush, and Mizraim, and Put, and Canaan.

7 And the sons of Cush were Seba and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtecha. And Raamah's sons were Sheba and Dedan.

8 And Cush fathered Nimrod[4]; he began to be a mighty hero in the land.

9 He was a great hunter before YAHWEH; so it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before YAHWEH.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 From that land he went forth to Assyria and built Nineveh, and Rehoboth the city, and Calah, 12 and Resen between Nineveh and Calah, which is a great city.

13 And Mizraim fathered Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, 14 and Pathrusim, and Casluhim, from whom came the Philistines and Caphtorim[1].

15 And Canaan fathered his first-born Sidon, and Heth, 16 and the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite,
17 and the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite,
18 and the Arvadite and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. And afterward the families of the Canaanites were dispersed.
19 And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as you come to Gerar, as far as Gaza, as you go in towards Sodom and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even to Lasha.
20 These were the sons of Ham, according to their families, according to their tongues, in their countries, in their nations.
21 And to Shem was born, even to him, the father of all the sons of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder.
22 The sons of Shem were Elam, and Asshur, and Arpachshad, and Lud, and Aram.
23 And Aram's sons were Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.
24 And Arpachshad fathered Cainan and Cainan fathered Salah; and Salah fathered Eber.
25 And two sons were born to Eber; the name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.
26 And Joktan fathered Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 27 and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,
28 and Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,
29 and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab. These all were the sons of Joktan.
30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as you go to Sephar, an eastern mountain.
31 These were the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their tongues, in their lands, according to their nations.
32 These were the families of the sons of Noah, by their generations, in their nations. And from these the nations were divided in the earth after the flood.

Chapter 11

1 And the whole earth was of one lip and of one speech[2].
2 And it happened, as they traveled from the east, they found a level valley in the land of Shinar. And they lived there.
3 And each one said to his neighbor, Come, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar.
4 And they said, Come, let us build a city and a tower with its top the heavens, and make a name for ourselves, that we not be scattered on the face of all the earth.
5 And YAHWEH came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of man had built.
6 And YAHWEH said, Behold, the people is one, and the lip one to all of them, and this they are beginning to do,

1 Caphtorim- Crete, which was anciently known as Caphtor was the home to several Philistine groups (Jer 47:4, Amos 9:7). The Philistines were an Indo-European maritime people who invaded Egypt in the 12th century B.C. And were driven out and went to southwest Canaan, and other parts of the land.

2 This can mean they were united in language, speech or purpose.

and now all which they have determined to do will not be restrained from them.

7 Come, let Us go down and mix up their language so that they cannot understand man's evil speech.[1]

8 And YAHWEH scattered them from there, over the face of all the earth. And they ceased from building the city.

9 On account of this its name is called Babel[2], because YAHWEH mixed up the speech of all the earth there. And YAHWEH scattered them abroad from there on the face of all the earth.

10 These are the generations of Shem: Shem was a son of a hundred years and fathered Arpachshad two years after the flood.

11 And after he fathered Arpachshad, Shem lived five hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

12 And Arpachshad lived thirty five years and fathered Salah.

13 And after he fathered Salah, Arpachshad lived four hundred and three years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years and fathered Eber.

15 And after he fathered Eber, Salah lived four hundred and three years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

16 And Eber lived thirty four years and fathered Peleg.

17 And after he fathered Peleg, Eber lived four hundred and thirty years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years and fathered Reu.

19 And after he fathered Reu, Peleg lived two hundred and nine years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

20 And Reu lived thirty two years and fathered Serug.

21 And after he fathered Serug, Reu lived two hundred and seven years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

22 And Serug lived thirty years and fathered Nahor.

23 And after he fathered Nahor, Serug lived two hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived twenty nine years and fathered Terah.

25 And after he fathered Terah, Nahor lived a hundred and nineteen years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

26 And Terah lived seventy years and fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 And these are the generations of Terah: Terah fathered Abram, Nahor, and Haran. And Haran fathered Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldeans.

29 And Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai. And the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah.

30 And Sarai was barren; there was no child to her.

31 And Terah took his son Abram, and Lot, Haran's son, his grandson and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife.[3] And he went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldeans to go into the land of Canaan. And they came to Haran and lived there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years; and Terah died in Haran.

5 And Abram took his wife Sarai, and his brother's son, Lot, and all their substance that they had gained, and the persons they had gotten in Haran. And they went out to go into the land of Canaan. And they came into the land of Canaan.
6 And Abram passed through the land as far as the place of Shechem, to the Oak of Alon-Moreh. And the Canaanite was then in the land.
7 And YAHWEH appeared to Abram and said, I will give this set apart land to your seed. And he built an altar there to YAHWEH, who appeared to him.
8 And he moved from there to a mountain on the east of Bethel, and stretched his tent with Bethel toward the sea, and Ai on the east. And he built an altar there to YAHWEH, and called on the name of YAHWEH.[2] 9 And Abram setting forth and going on toward the Negev.
10 And a famine was in the land, so Abram went down into Egypt to stay there. For the famine was severe in the land.
11 And it happened when he had drawn near to come to Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, Behold, please, I know that you are a beautiful woman to look upon.
12 And it will be, when the Egyptians see you, then they will say, This is his wife, and they will kill me, and they will save you alive.
13 Please say that you are my sister, so that it may be well with me for your sake, and my soul shall live because of you.
14 And it happened, when Abram had come into Egypt, the Egyptians saw the woman, that she was very beautiful.
15 And Pharaoh's princes saw her,
and they praised her before Pharaoh.
And the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.
16 And he did good to Abram because of her. And he had sheep, and oxen, hedonkeys, and male slaves, and slave-girls, and she-donkeys, and camels.
17 And YAHWEH touched Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife. (Deut 11:25)
18 And Pharaoh called for Abram and said, What is this you have done to me?
Why did you not tell me she is your wife?
19 Why did you say, She is my sister?
And so I took her for my wife. And now, behold your wife. Take her and go.
(Gen 20:12)
20 And as Pharaoh ordered his men as to him, they sent away him and his wife and all that he had.

Chapter 13

1 And Abram went up out of Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot being with him into the Negev.

1 Yahweh's first promise of covenant blessing to Abraham and a prophecy for all time that all nations should support Israel if they want to be blessed.

2 Bethel is 20 miles south of Shechem and Abraham built an altar here and called on YAHWEH.

2 And Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver and in gold.

3 And he went on his journeys from the south, even to Bethel, to the place where his tent had been there at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai,

4 to the place of the altar which he had made there at the first. And Abram called there on the name of YAHWEH.

5 And Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents.

6 And the land was not able to bear them, for dwelling together, for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. And the Canaanite and the Perizzite lived then in the land.

8 And Abram said to Lot, Please let there be no strife between me and you, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are men, brothers.

9 Is not all the land before you? Please separate from me. If you go to the left, then I will go to the right. Or if you go to the right, then I will go to the left.

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes and saw all the circuit of the Jordan, that it was well-watered before YAHWEH destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of YAHWEH, like the land of Egypt as you come to Zoar.

11 Then Lot chose all the circuit of the Jordan for himself. And Lot set forth eastward. And they were separated, each one from his brother.

12 And Abram lived in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived in the cities of the circuit, and tented as far as Sodom.

13 And the men of Sodom were evil and sinners before YAHWEH, exceedingly so.

14 And after Lot had separated from him, YAHWEH said to Abram, Now lift up your eyes and look from the place where you are there, look northward and southward and eastward and westward.

15 For all the land which you see I will give to you, and to your seed always.

16 And I will make your seed as the dust of the earth, so that if a man can count the dust of the earth, then your seed also will be counted.

17 Rise up! Walk through the land, in its length and in its breadth, for I will give it to you.[1]

18 Then Abram moved his tent and came and lived among the oaks of Mamre, which were in Hebron; and he built an altar to YAHWEH there.

Chapter 14

1 And it happened in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, and Tidal king of the nations;

2 they made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha[2] king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar.

3 All these were joined together to the valley of Siddim, which is the Salt Sea.

4 They served Chedorlaomer for twelve years, and the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year Chedor-Laomer and the kings that were with him came and struck the giants in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh Kiria-Thaim,

6 and the Horites in the hills of Seir, as far as the oak of Paran, which is by the wilderness.

1 Verses 14-17- YHWH gives His confirmation to Abraham to give the Promised Land to him and his descendants forever, 1 Chron 16:15-18, Gen 17:8.

2 Ra from Bera means evil and rasha from Birsha is a perpetrator of evil.

7 And they turned back and came to Enmishpat which is Kadesh, and struck all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who lived in Hazazon Thamar.

8 And the king of Sodom went out, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar. And they set the battle with them in the valley of Siddim, 9 with Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal the king of the nations, and Amraphel the king of Shinar, and Arioch the king of Ellasar; four kings with the five.

10 And the valley of Siddim was pitted with asphalt pits, and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there. And they that remained fled to the mountain.

11 And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their food, and went away.

12 And they took Lot, the son of Abram's brother, and his goods, and left; and he was living in Sodom.

13 And one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew; for he was living among the oaks of Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol and Aner. And these were possessor of a covenant with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that his brother was captured, even then he led out his trained men, born of his household, three hundred and eighteen. And they pursued as far as Dan.

15 And he divided against them by night, he and his slaves, and he struck them, and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is on the left of Damascus.

16 And he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother, and also the women and the people.

17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him, after he returned from smiting Chedorlaomer and the kings which were with him, to the valley of Shaveh, it being the valley of the king.

18 And Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought out bread and wine; and he was the priest of the most High El[1].

19 And he blessed him and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high El, possessor of Heaven and earth;

20 and blessed be the most high El, who has delivered your enemies into your hand. And he gave him a tithe of all.[2]

21 And the king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the persons and take the goods for yourself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lifted up my hand to YAHWEH, the most high El, the possessor of Heaven and earth,

23 that I will not take from all that is yours, from a thread to a shoe latchet, and that you may not say, I have made Abram rich.

24 Nothing for me; only what the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.

Chapter 15

1 After these things the Word of YAHWEH came to Abram in a vision, saying, Do not fear, Abram; I am a shield to you, your reward will increase greatly.

2 And Abram said, Adonai YAHWEH, what will You give to me? I am going childless and the son of the

1 Melchizedek is a title for Yahshua Messiah who is the king of peace and king of Jerusalem (Heb 7:1-2). Most High El- In Hebrew is "El Elyone".

2 Abraham tithed to Melchizedek knowing that He was Yahshua, Heb 7:1-10.

inheritance of my house is Eleazar of Damascus?

3 And Abram said, Behold! You have given no seed to me; and lo, the son of my house is inheriting of me!

4 And behold! The Word of YAHWEH came to him saying, This one shall not be your heir. But he that shall come forth out of your own bowels shall be your heir.

5 And He brought him outside and said, Look now at the heavens and count the stars, if you are able to count them. And He said to him, So shall your seed be. (Luk 16:22)

6 And he believed in YAHWEH. And He counted it to him for righteousness.[1] (Ro 4:3, Gal 3:6, Jac 2:23)

7 And He said to him, I am YAHWEH who caused you to come out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, Adonai YAHWEH, by what shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 And He said to him, Take for Me a heifer three years old, and a she-goat three years old, and a ram three years old, and a turtledove, even a nestling.

10 And he took all these for Him, and he divided them in the middle; and he laid each piece opposite its neighbor, but he did not divide the bird.

11 And the birds of prey came down on the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.

12 And it happened, as the sun was setting, and a deep sleep fell on Abram. And behold, a terror of great darkness was falling on him!

13 And He said to Abram, surely you must know that your seed shall be an alien in a land not theirs; and they shall serve them. And they shall afflict them four hundred years;

14 and I also will judge the nation whom they shall serve; and afterward they shall come out with great substance.

15 And you shall come to your fathers in peace. You shall be buried in good old age.

16 And in the fourth generation they shall come here again; for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full until now.

17 And it happened, the sun had gone down, and it was dark. Behold! A smoking furnace and a torch of fire that passed over between those pieces!

18 In that day YAHWEH cut a covenant with Abram, saying, I have given this land to your seed, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates,

19 the Kenite, and the Kenizzite, and the Kadmonite,

20 and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Rephaim,

21 and the Amorite and the Canaanite, and the Girgashite, and the Jebusite.

Chapter 16

1 And Sarai, Abram's wife, did not bear to him; and to her belonged a female slave, an Egyptian, and her name was Hagar.

2 And Sarai said to Abram, See, now, YAHWEH has kept me from bearing; go in now to my maid-servant; perhaps I may be built up[2] from her. And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai, Abram's wife, took her slave-girl, Hagar, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be

[1] "He believed YHWH" the Hebrew word for "believe" comes from the verb "aman" which is literally to confirm, and where the word "amen" comes from at the end of a prayer, confirming what was prayed for in faith.

[2] The Hebrew word here is Baneh and is where the word ben or son comes from, so Sarai is saying she will be completed by the son from her handmaid, the reality was just the opposite.

his wife, after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan.

4 And he went in to Hagar and she conceived; and she saw that she had conceived, and her mistress was despised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said to Abram, My injury be upon you; I gave my slave-girl into your bosom, and she saw that she had conceived, and I was despised in her eyes. Let YAHWEH judge between me and you.

6 But Abram said to Sarai, See, your slave girl is in your hand. Do to her what is good in your eyes. And Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she fled from her face.

7 And the Messenger of YAHWEH found her by a well of water in the wilderness; by the well in the way of Shur.

8 And He said, Hagar, Sarai's slave-girl, where did you come from? And where do you go? And she said, I am fleeing from the face of my mistress, Sarai.

9 And the Messenger of YAHWEH said to her, Return to your mistress and submit yourself under her hand.

10 And the Messenger of YAHWEH said to her, I will exceedingly multiply your seed, so that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 And the Messenger of YAHWEH said to her, Behold! You are with child and shall bear a son; and you shall call his name Ishmael, because YAHWEH has listened to your affliction.

12 And he shall be a wild donkey of a man, his hand against all, and the hand of everyone against him; and he shall live before all his brothers.

13 And she called the name of YAHWEH, the One speaking to her, You, a El of vision! For she said, Even here have I looked after the One seeing me?

14 On account of this, the well was called, The Well of the Living One Seeing Me. Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.

15 And Hagar bore a son to Abram, and Abram called the name of his son whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.

16 And Abram was eighty six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

Chapter 17

1 And when Abram was ninety nine years old, YAHWEH appeared to Abram and said to him, I am El Shaddai! Walk before me and be perfect;

2 and I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will increase you very greatly. (Gen 12:2-3, 15:18)

3 And Abram fell on his face. And Elohim spoke with him, saying,

4 As for Me, behold, My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations.

5 And your name no longer shall be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham. For I have made you a father of many nations.[1]

6 And I will make you very fruitful, exceedingly. And I will give you for nations. And kings shall come out of you.

7 And I will establish My covenant between Me and you, and your seed after you in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a Elohim to you and to your seed after you.

8 And I will give to you and to your seed after you the land of your sojourning, all the land of Canaan, for an ever-lasting possession and I will be their Elohim.

9 And Elohim said to Abraham, You

1 Abram means "exulted Father", referencing Elohim, but Abraham means "father of many" and gives great significance to Abraham's new name from Yahweh.

shall keep My covenant, you and your seed after you in their generations.

10 This is My covenant which you shall keep, between Me and you and your seed after you: Every male child among you shall be circumcised.

11 And you shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin. And it shall be a token of the covenant between Me and you.[1]

12 And a son of eight days shall be circumcised among you, every male in your generation, he that is born in the house, or bought with silver from any son of a foreigner who is not of your seed.

13 The child of your house and the purchase of your money circumcising must be circumcised. And My covenant shall be in your flesh for a perpetual covenant.

14 And an uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, his soul shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.

15 And Elohim said to Abraham, You shall not call your wife Sarai by her name Sarai, for Sarah shall be her name[2];

16 and I have blessed her and have also given to you a son from her. Yea, I have blessed her and she shall become nations; kings of people shall be from her.

17 And Abraham fell on his face and laughed. And he said in his heart, Shall one be born to a son of a hundred years? And shall Sarah bear a daughter of ninety years?

18 And Abraham said to Elohim, Oh that Ishmael might live before You!

19 And Elohim said, Your wife Sarah truly shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Isaac. And I have established My covenant with him for a perpetual covenant with his seed after him.

20 And as to Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him and will make him fruitful and will multiply him exceedingly. He shall father twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.

21 And I will establish My covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this set apart time next year.

22 And He finished talking with him. And Elohim ascended up from Abraham.

23 And Abraham took his son Ishmael, and all the ones born of his house, and all that were bought with his silver, every male among the men of the house of Abraham. And he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins in that same day, even as Elohim spoke to him.

24 And Abraham was a son of ninety nine years when being circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And his son Ishmael was a son of thirteen years when being circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the same day that Abraham was circumcised, Ishmael his son also was.

27 And all the men of his house, born in the house or bought with silver from a son of a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Chapter 18

1 And YAHWEH visually appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre. And he was sitting at the door of the tent in the heat of the day.

2 And he lifted up his eyes and looked; and, behold, three men were standing by him. And he saw, and he ran to meet them from the entrance of the tent. And he bowed to the ground.

3 And he said, YAHWEH, if now I have found favor in Your sight, I beg

1 Circumcision was not the covenant itself but a sign of the covenant with YHWH.

2 Both names means princess, but the later name shows she will be a mother of nations and kings.

You, do not leave from near Your servant.[1]

4 Please allow a little water to be taken and You wash Your feet, and rest under the tree.

5 And I will bring a bite of bread and will sustain Your heart. Then You may pass on, for this is why You have passed over to Your servant. And they said, Do so, as you have said.

6 And Abraham ran into the tent to Sarah and said, Hurry, prepare three measures of fine meal, knead it and make cakes.

7 And Abraham ran to the herd and brought a son of the herd, tender and good, and gave it to a youth. And he hurried to prepare it.

8 And he took curds and milk and the son of the herd which he had prepared, and he set before them[2]. And he stood by them under the tree. And they ate.

9 And they said to him, Where is your wife Sarah? And he said, See, in the tent.

10 And He said, Certainly I will return to you at the time of life; and, Behold! A son shall be to your wife Sarah. And Sarah was listening at the entrance to the tent, and it was behind Him.

11 And Abraham and Sarah were aged, going on in days. The custom as to women had ceased to be to Sarah.

12 And Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After my being old[3], shall there be pleasure to me; my master also being old?

13 And YAHWEH said to Abraham, Why has Sarah laughed at this, saying, Indeed, truly shall I bear, even I who am old?

14 Is anything too difficult for YAHWEH? At the appointed set apart time I will return to you, at the time of life, and there will be a son to Sarah.[4]

15 And Sarah denied, saying, I did not laugh; for she was afraid. And He said, No, but you did laugh.

16 And the men rose up from there and looked on the face of Sodom. And Abraham was going with them, to send them away.

17 And YAHWEH said, Shall I hide from Abraham that which I am doing?

18 And Abraham shall surely become a great and powerful nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

19 For I have known him, so that whatever he may command his sons and his house after him, even they may keep the way of YAHWEH, to do righteousness and justice; to the intent that YAHWEH may bring on Abraham that which He has spoken of him.

20 And YAHWEH said, The cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and their sin is exceedingly heavy.

21 I will go down and see if they have at all done according to the cry coming to Me. And if not, I will know.

22 And the men faced around from there and went toward Sodom. And Abraham was still standing before YAHWEH.

23 And Abraham drew near and said, Is it so? Will You cut off the righteous with the wicked?

1 This is quite an interesting story as first we see Yahweh appear as a man with two cherubs (Gen 19:10) who also appeared as men. Then, we see that Abraham recognized Yahweh, as he met Him in Gen 14:18 using the title of Melchizedek.

2 Abraham prepared meat and milk together for Yahweh and the two messengers, so clearly they can be eaten together.

3 "Old" to be withered, or past nursing age

4 This is Aviv and passover time, that is why verses 5-6 state about passing over and also about quickly making bread without yeast. Gen 19:3 confirms that this is the time of Passover and the time prophesied when Isaac would be born, who was a type of Messiah, Gen 22:1-17.

24 Perhaps there are fifty righteous within the city; is it so You will cut off and will not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous ones that are within it?

25 Far be it from You to act in this way, to put to death the righteous with the wicked. Far be it from You. The Judge of all the earth, shall He not do right?

26 And YAHWEH said, If I find fifty righteous within the city, in Sodom, then I will spare all the place because of them.

27 And Abraham answered and said, Behold, I pray, I have undertaken to speak to YAHWEH, and I am dust and ash.

28 Perhaps there will be lacking five from the fifty righteous, will You destroy all the city for the five? And He said, If I find forty five there, I will not destroy.

29 And he continued still to speak to Him and said, Perhaps forty will be found there. And He said, I will not do it because of the forty.

30 And he said, Please YAHWEH do not be angry, that I may speak; perhaps thirty will be found there. And He said, I will not do it if I find thirty there.

31 And he said, Behold, I pray, I have undertaken to speak to Adonai; perhaps twenty will be found there. And He said, I will not destroy because of the twenty.

32 And he said, I pray, let not YAHWEH be angry that I may speak only this time; perhaps ten will be found there. And He said, I will not destroy because of the ten.[1]

33 And when YAHWEH had finished speaking to Abraham, He left. And Abraham returned to his place.

[1] This is where the idea came from that to have a minion to start a synagogue you must have at least 10 able men.

Chapter 19

1 And the two cherubs came into Sodom at evening. And Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. And Lot saw, and he rose up to meet them and bowed his face to the earth.

2 And he said, Behold, now, my masters, please turn in to your servant's house and lodge, and wash your feet; and rise early and go to your way. And they said, No, for we will lodge in the street.

3 And he much urged them, and they turned in to him and came into his house. And he made a feast for them. And he baked unleavened matzos, and they ate.

4 Before they had laid down, even the men of the city, the men of Sodom, circled the house; from the young to the aged, all the people from its limits.

5 And they called to Lot and said to him, Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may have sex with them.[2]

6 And Lot went out to them, to the door, and he closed the door behind him.

7 And he said, My brothers, please do not act evilly.

8 Behold, now, I have two daughters who have not known a man; please let me bring them out to you and do to them as you see fit; only do not do a thing to these[3] men, on account of this they came into the shade of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back! And they said, This one came in to visit, and must he always judge? Now we will do evil to you rather than to them. And they pressed on the man, upon Lot

10 But the men put out their hands and brought Lot in to them, into the house, and shut the door.

11 And they struck the men at the door of the house with blindness, from the small to the great; and they struggled to find the door.

12 And the men said to Lot, Who still is here to you? Bring out of this place your sons and your sons-in-law and your daughters, and whoever belongs to you in the city.

13 For we are about to destroy this place, for the cry of them is great before YAHWEH, and YAHWEH has sent us to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out to speak to his sons-in-law, those taking his daughters. And he said, Rise up, go out from this place, for YAHWEH is about to destroy the city. And he seemed as one joking to his sons-in-law.

15 And when the dawn rose, then the cherubs urged Lot, saying, Rise up, take your wife and your two daughters who are found, lest you be consumed in the perversity of the city.

16 And he lingered. And the men lay hold of his hand and his wife's hand, and on the hand of his two daughters, YAHWEH having mercy on him. And they caused him to go out, and they put him down outside the city.[1]

17 And it happened as they led them outside, he said, Escape for your life! Do not look behind you, and do not stay in all the plain. Escape to the mountain, lest you be swept away.

18 And Lot said to them, Please, no, my master!

19 Behold, now, Your servant has found grace in Your sight, and You have magnified Your mercy which You have done to me in saving my life. And I am not able to escape to the mountain lest some evil overtake me and I die.

20 Please, now, this city is near, to flee there, and it is a little one. Please let me escape there! Is it not a little thing, that my soul may live?

21 And He said to him, See, I have lifted up your face also as to this thing, without overthrowing the city for which you have spoken.

22 Hurry, escape there, for I am not able to do anything until you have come there. So the name of the city was called Zoar.

23 The sun had gone forth on the earth, and Lot came into Zoar [2].

24 And YAHWEH (on earth) rained fire and brimstone on Sodom and Gomorrah, from YAHWEH out of the heavens[3].

25 And He overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all those living in the cities, and the produce of the ground.

26 And his wife looked back with pleasure from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

27 And Abraham started up early in the morning, going to the place where he had stood there before YAHWEH.

28 And he looked toward the face of Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain. And he saw. And, behold, the smoke of the country went up like the smoke of a furnace.

29 And it happened when Elohim destroyed the cities of the plain, Elohim remembered Abraham; and He sent Lot out from the overthrow when overturning the cities in which Lot lived.

30 And Lot went up out of Zoar and

1 A great lesson that when YHWH is bringing judgment you don't want to linger.

2 Zoar means little

3 No man has ever seen Yahweh the Father (Joh 1:18, 1 Joh 4:12) so this is Yahweh the Son and this scripture shows that Yahweh is a family name consisting of two Yahweh beings, Is 44:6, Ps 110:1-2, Jer 23:6.

lived in the mount. And his two daughters were with him. For he feared to live in Zoar. And he lived in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the first-born said to the younger, Our father is old, and there is no man in the land to come in to us as is the way of all the earth.

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and let us lie with him, that we may keep alive seed of our father.

33 And they caused their father to drink wine that night. And the first-born went in and lay with her father. And he did not know when she lay down nor when she rose up.

34 And on the next day it happened, the first-born said to the younger, Behold, I lay with my father last night. Let us cause him to drink wine tonight also. And you go in and lie with him, so that we may keep alive seed of our father.

35 And they caused their father to drink wine that night also. And the younger rose up and lay with him. And he did not know when she lay down, nor when she rose up.

36 And both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father.

37 And the first-born bore a son and called his name Moab; he is the father of Moab to this day.

38 And the younger also bore a son and called his name Ben-Ammi; he is the father of the Ammonites to this day.

Chapter 20

1 And Abraham pulled up stakes from there to the land of the Negev, and lived between Kadesh and Shur, and stayed in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said with regards to his wife Sarah, She is my sister. And Abimelech the king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

3 But Elohim came to Abimelech in a dream by night and said to him, Behold, you are about to die because of the woman you have taken, she being married to a husband.

4 And Abimelech had not come near to her. And he said, YAHWEH, will You slay even a righteous nation?

5 And did he not say to me, She is my sister? And she, even herself said, He is my brother. In the honor of my heart and the purity of my hands I have done this.

6 And Elohim said to him in a dream, Yes, I know that you did this in the honor of your heart, and I also withheld you from sinning against Me. On account of this I did not allow you to touch her.

7 And now return the wife of the man, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you shall live. And if you do not restore her, know that surely, you shall die, you and all that are yours.

8 And Abimelech rose up early in the morning and called for all his servants. And he spoke all these words in their ears. And the men were greatly afraid.

9 And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, What have you done to us? And in what have I offended you that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done things to me that ought not to be done.

10 And Abimelech said to Abraham, What did you see that you have done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of Elohim is not in this place, and they will kill me for my wife's sake.

12 And yet she really is my relative, daughter from my father; only not daughter from my mother. And she became my wife. (Gen 11:31, 12:11-20)

13 And it happened when Elohim made me wander from my father's house, even I said to her, This is your kindness which you do to me: at every place where we come there, say of me, He is my brother.

14 Abimelech took sheep and oxen, and male slaves, and slave-girls, and gave to Abraham. And he returned his wife Sarah to him.

15 Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before you. Live where it pleases you.

16 And he said to Sarah, I, behold, I have given a thousand of silver to your brother. Behold, it is for you a covering of the eyes to all who are with you. And with all this you are reproved.

17 And Abraham prayed to Elohim, and Elohim healed Abimelech and his wife and his concubines, and they gave birth.

18 For YAHWEH had completely closed up every womb of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, the wife of Abraham.

Chapter 21

1 And YAHWEH visited Sarah as He had said. And YAHWEH did to Sarah as He had promised.

2 And Sarah conceived and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the appointed time, that which Elohim had spoken with him.

3 And Abraham called the name of the son who was born to him, whom Sarah had borne to him, Isaac.

4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac, a son of eight days, as Elohim had commanded him.

5 And Abraham was a son of a hundred years when his son Isaac was born to him.

6 And Sarah said, Elohim has made laughter for me; all who hear will laugh with me.

7 And she said, Who would have said to Abraham, Will Sarah suckle sons? For I have borne a son to his old age.

8 And the child grew and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the day Isaac was weaned.

9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking.

10 And she said to Abraham, Drive away this slave-girl and her son, for the son of this slave-girl shall not inherit with my son, with Isaac. (Gal 4:22-26)

11 And the thing was very evil in the eyes of Abraham, on account of his son.

12 And Elohim said to Abraham, Let it not be evil in your eyes because of the boy, and on account of your slave-girl. All that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice, for in Isaac your Seed shall be called.

13 And also I will make a nation of the son of the slave-girl, for he is your seed.

14 And Abraham started up early in the morning and took bread and a skin of water and gave them to Hagar, putting them on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away. And she left and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-Sheva.

15 And the water from the skin was finished, and she put the boy under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went and sat down opposite him, about a bow shot away. For she said, Let me not see the death of the boy. And she sat opposite and raised her voice and wept.

17 And Elohim heard the voice of the young boy. And the Messenger of Elohim called to Hagar out of the heavens. And He said to her, What ails you, Hagar? Do not fear, for Elohim has heard the voice of the boy, there where he is.

18 Rise up, lift up the boy and make your hand strong on him, for I will make of him a great nation.

19 And Elohim opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. And she went and filled the skin with water, and gave drink to the young boy.

20 And Elohim was with the boy. And he grew up. And he lived in the wilderness and became a great archer.
21 And he lived in the wilderness of Paran. And his mother took a wife for him out of the land of Egypt.
22 And it happened at that time Abimelech and Phicol, the general of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, Elohim is with you in all that you do.
23 And now swear to me here by Elohim, that you will not lie to me, and to my son, and to my heir, according to the kindness which I have sworn to you. Do to me and to the land in which you have lived in.
24 And Abraham said, I will swear.
25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech on account of a well of water which the slaves of Abimelech had seized.
26 And Abimelech said, I do not know who has done this thing; and also you have not told me; even I have not heard, except today.
27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave to Abimelech, and both of them cut a covenant.
28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.
29 And Abimelech said to Abraham, What are these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves?
30 And he said, You shall take the seven ewe lambs from my hand so that it may become for me a witness that I dug this well.
31 On account of this that place is called Beer[1] Sheva, because the two of them swore there.
32 And they cut a covenant in Beer-Sheva. And Abimelech and Phicol, the general of his army, rose up; and they returned to the land of the Philistines.
33 And Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beer-Sheva, and there he called on the name of YAHWEH El Olam (Everlasting).
34 And Abraham lived in the land of the Philistines many days.

Chapter 22

1 And it happened after these things,
The Elohim, testing[2] Abraham said to him, Abraham! And he said, Behold I am here.
2 And He said, Now take your son, Isaac, your only one whom you love, and go into the land of Moriyah. And there offer him for a burnt offering on one of the mountains which I will say to you.[3] (2 Chron 3:1) 3 And Abraham rose up early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and he took two of his youths with him, and his son Isaac. And he split wood for a burnt offering, and rose up and went to the place which Elohim had said to him.
4 And on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place from a distance.
5 And Abraham said to his young men, You stay here with the donkey. I and the boy will go over there that we may worship and may return to you.[4]

1 The Well of the oath, and also means seven; Hebraic wordplay

2 The Hebrew root word here means to lift up, and was a test for others to see. The same root is used in Num 21:8 when Moses was commanded to make a Seraph on a pole to lift up the sin of Israel.

3 What a test to try Abraham but what faith he shows in obedience to YHWH. The Hebrew word for "only" son, is "yachid" and can only mean "one", whereas the word "echad" is a unity word denoting plurality, Gen 2:24, Deut 6:4. Also, YHWH states to Abraham to take his only son, when he also had Ismael as a son, but this shows that Isaac was the son of promise (Gal 3:16).

4 Even though Abraham was fully intent on sacrificing Isaac, he also believed that Yahweh would raise him up, Heb 11:17-19.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac, his son; and he took the fire and the knife in his hand. And the two went together.[1]

7 And Isaac spoke to his father Abraham and said, My father. And he said, Behold I am here. And he said, see, the fire and the wood! But where is the lamb for a burnt offering?

8 And Abraham said, My son, Elohim will see for Himself, the lamb for a burnt offering. And the two of them went together.

9 And they came to the place which Elohim had said to him. And Abraham built there the altar, and arranged the wood. And he bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar[2], on the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.

11 And the Messenger of YAHWEH called to him from the heavens and said, Abraham! Abraham! And he said, I am here.

12 And He said, Do not lay your hand on the boy, nor do anything to him. For now I know that you fear Elohim and you have not withheld your son, your only one, from Me.

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked. And behold! A ram behind him was entangled in a thicket by its horns. And Abraham went and took the ram and offered it for a burnt offering instead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place YAHWEH Yireh [3]; so that it is said until this day, In the mount of YAHWEH it will be seen.

15 And the Messenger of YAHWEH called to Abraham out of the heavens a second time.

16 And He said, I have sworn by Myself, declares YAHWEH, that on account of this thing you have done, and have not withheld your son, your only son,

17 that blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply your seed as the stars of the heavens, and as the sand which is on the lip of the sea. And your Seed shall possess the gate of His enemies. (Ex 32:13, Gen 26:5)

18 And in your Seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have listened to My voice. (Gen 12:2-3)

19 And Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-Sheva. And Abraham lived at Beer-Sheva.

20 And it happened after these things it was told to Abraham, saying, Behold! Milcah, she also has borne sons to your brother Nahor:

21 Uz, his first-born, Buz, and his brother Kemuel, the father of Aram, 22 and Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel.

23 And Bethuel fathered Rebekah. Milcah bore these eight to Nahor, the brother of Abraham.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, she also bore Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maachah.

Chapter 23

1 And the life of Sarah was a hundred and twenty seven years, the years of the life of Sarah.

2 And Sarah died in Kirjath Arba, it is

[1] Abraham laid the wood on Isaac, and the two went together. This is clearly showing the unity with both the father Abraham and the son Isaac in this sacrifice. It parallels beautifully the Son of Yahweh, Yahshua who also took the wood (cross beam) on His back (Joh 19:16-17) as He also willingly went to the tree of crucifixion to die for the penalty of the sins of the people.

[2] Isaac's age indicates that he had to be willing to be a sacrifice, as he easily could have fought against Abraham in his old age if he desired.

Hebron, in the land of Canaan. And Abraham went in to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

3 And Abraham rose up from before his dead and spoke to the sons of Heth[1], saying,

4 I am an alien and a visitor with you. Give to me a possession among you, so that I may bury my dead from before the eyes.

5 And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him,

6 Hear us, my master. You are a prince of Elohim among us. Bury your dead in the best of our burying places. Not a man of us will withhold his burying place from you, from burying your dead.

7 And Abraham rose up and bowed himself to the people of the land, to the sons of Heth.

8 And he spoke with them, saying, If it is your desire to bury my dead out of my sight, hear me. Ask for me of Ephron the son of Zohar,

9 that he may give to me the cave of Machpelah which he has, which is in the edge of his field. In full silver let him give it to me among you, for a possession of a burying place.

10 And Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite replied to Abraham in the ears of the sons of Heth, to all those entering the gate of his city, saying,

11 No, my master, hear me. I have given the field to you; also the cave that is in it. I have given it to you. Before the eyes of the sons of my people I have given it to you. Bury your dead.

12 And Abraham bowed before the people of the land,

13 and spoke to Ephron in the ears of the people of the land, saying, Only if you would hear me. I have given the silver for the field; take it from me, that I may bury my dead there.

14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him,

15 My master, hear me; the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that between me and you? And bury your dead.

16 And Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver of which he had spoken in the ears of the sons of Heth, four hundred silver shekels which passes with the merchant.

17 And was certified the field of Ephron in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the cave and the field in it, and all the trees in the field, which were in all its borders around it,

18 to Abraham for a purchase before the sons of Heth, with all entering the gate of his city.

19 And after this Abraham buried his wife Sarah at the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre; it is Hebron, in the land of Canaan.[2]

20 And the field was certified, and the cave in it, to Abraham for a burial possession from the sons of Heth.

Chapter 24

1 And Abraham was old, going on in days, and YAHWEH had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said to his slave, the oldest in his house, the one who ruled in all that was to him[3], Please put your hand under my thigh.[4]

3 And I will cause you to swear by

[1] The sons of Heth were Hittites (Gen 23:10) and descendents of Ham and Canaan (Gen 10:15).

[2] This cave located in Hebron is still there today with the bones of Abraham and Sarah, Rebecca and Isaac and also Leah and Jacob.

[3] This was Eleazar, (Gen 15:2)

[4] In ancient times this represented the reproductive organ and the symbolism was that any unborn children would avenge the oath if violated.

YAHWEH, Elohim of the heavens and Elohim of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanite, among whom I dwell.
4 But you shall go to my country and to my kindred and take a wife for my son, for Isaac.
5 And the slave said to him, Perhaps the woman will not be willing to go after me to this land; shall I indeed bring back your son into the land from out of which you came?
6 And Abraham said to him, Take heed for yourself that you not take my son back there.
7 YAHWEH, Elohim of the Heavens, who took me from the house of my father and from the land of my birth, and who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, I will give this land to your Seed; He shall send His Messenger before you, and you shall take a wife from there for my son.
8 And if the woman will not be willing to go after you, then you shall be clear from this oath of mine; only do not take my son back there.
9 And the slave put his hand under the thigh of his master Abraham and swore to him concerning this thing.
10 And the slave took ten camels from his master's camels and left. And all his master's goods were in his hand. And he rose up and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor.
11 And he made the camels kneel outside the city, by a well of water at the time of the evening, the time that women go out to draw.
12 And he said, YAHWEH, Elohim of my master Abraham, I pray, cause her to meet before me this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham.
13 Behold! I am standing by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.
14 And let the girl to whom I shall speak this: Please let down your pitcher that I may drink; and she will say, Drink and also I will water your camels;
let it be her You have approved for Your servant, for Isaac. And by this I shall know that You have shown kindness to my master.
15 And it happened before he had finished speaking. Behold! Rebekah came out, she who was born to Bethuel
the son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, the brother of Abraham, with her pitcher on her shoulder.
16 And the girl was very good of form[1], a virgin, a man not having known her. And she went down to the well and filled her pitcher and came up.
17 And the slave ran to meet her and said, Please let me sip a little water from your pitcher.
18 And she said, Drink, my master.
And she hurried and let down her pitcher on her hand and gave him a drink.
19 And she finished giving drink to him. And she said, I also will draw for your camels until they have finished drinking.
20 And she hurried and emptied her pitcher into the trough. And she again ran to the well to draw, and drew for all his camels.[2] 21 And watching her, the man kept silent in order to know if YAHWEH had prospered his way, or not.
22 And it happened when the camels had finished drinking, the man took a

1 This was not signifying beauty but that she was a functional hard worker.

2 A camel can hold up to about 150 liters of water. There were 10 camels and the traditional bucket would have held 5 liters with each pull from the well. This means that Rebecca pulled the bucket of water from the well about 30 times for each camel or 300 times total. This was why Eleazar had such a test to see how much of a functional hard worker Rebecca truly would have been.

golden ring, its weighing a half shekel, and two bracelets for her hands, ten of gold their weighing.[1]

23 And he said, Whose daughter are you? Please tell me, is there room for us to stay in your father's house?

24 And she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.

25 And she said to him, Both straw and fodder are plentiful with us, also a room to pass the night.

26 And the man bowed and worshiped YAHWEH.

27 And he said, Blessed be YAHWEH, Elohim of my master Abraham, who has not left off His kindness and His truth with my master, I being in the way, YAHWEH guided me to the house of the brother of my master.

28 And the girl ran and told these things to the house of her mother.

29 And Rebekah had a brother, his name being Laban. And Laban ran out to the man, to the fountain.

30 And it happened when he saw the ring, and the bracelets on his sister's hands, and when he heard his sister's words, Rebekah, saying, So the man spoke to me, then he came to the man and saw him standing by the camels at the fountain.

31 And he said, Come in, blessed of YAHWEH! Why are you standing outside? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels.

32 And the man came into the house. And he unloaded the camels and gave straw and fodder to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.

33 And food was set before him to eat, but he said, I will not eat until I have spoken my message. And he said, Speak.

34 And he said, I am the slave of Abraham.

35 And YAHWEH has blessed my master much, and he is great. And He has given to him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and male slaves and slave-girls, and camels and donkeys.

36 And my master's wife bore a son to my master when she was old, and he has given to him all that is his.

37 And my master caused me to swear, saying, You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanite, in whose land I live.

38 But you shall go to the house of my father and to my family and you shall take a wife for my son.

39 And I said to my master, Perhaps the woman will not go after me.

40 And he said to me, YAHWEH, before whom I walk, will send His Messenger with you and prosper your way. And you shall take a wife for my son from my family, from my father's house.

41 Then you shall be released from my oath, when you have come to my family, and if they do not give one to you; then you shall be released from my oath.

42 And today I came to the well. And I said, YAHWEH, Elohim of my master Abraham, I pray, if You will, prosper the way in which I am about to go.

43 Behold! I stand at the well of water, and when the virgin comes out to draw water, and I say to her, Please let me drink a little water from your pitcher,

44 and she says to me, Both you drink and also I will draw for your camels, may she be the woman whom YAHWEH has approved for my master's son.

45 Before I had finished speaking within my heart, even behold, Rebekah was coming out, her pitcher on her shoulder. And she went down to the well and drew. And I said to her, Please let me drink.

46 And she hurried and let down her pitcher from her and said, Drink, and I also will water your camels. And I drank, and also she watered the camels.

47 And I asked her and I said, Whose daughter are you? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel the son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him. And I put the ring on her nose[1], and the bracelets on her hands.

48 And I bowed and worshiped YAHWEH, and I blessed YAHWEH, Elohim of my master Abraham, who had guided me in the true way, to take for his son the daughter of the brother of my master.

49 And now, if you are going to do kindness and truth with my master, tell me. And if not, tell me so that I may turn to the right or to the left.

50 And Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing has come from YAHWEH; we are not able to speak to you good or evil.

51 Behold! Rebekah is before you, take her and go. And let her become the wife of the son of your master, as YAHWEH has spoken.

52 And it happened when the slave of Abraham heard their words, he bowed himself to the earth to YAHWEH.

53 And the slave brought out vessels of silver and vessels of gold and garments, and he gave to Rebekah. And he gave precious things to her brother and to her mother.

54 And they ate and drank, he and the men who were with him; and they stayed the night. And they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away to my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the girl stay with us, perhaps ten days. Afterwards she may go.

56 And he said to them, Do not delay me, for YAHWEH has prospered my way. Send me away that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, we will call the girl and inquire of her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekah and said to her, Will you go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away their sister Rebekah, and her nurse, and Abraham's slave and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said to her, Our sister, may you become myriads of thousands, and may your seed possess the gate of the ones hating them.

61 And Rebekah and her maidens rose up, and they rode on the camels and went after the man. And the slave took Rebekah and went.

62 And Isaac had come from the gate Lahai-Roi [2]. And he was dwelling in the land of the Negev.

63 And Isaac had gone out to meditate in the field as it turned evening. And he raised his eyes and looked. And behold, camels were coming.

64 And Rebekah lifted her eyes and she saw Isaac. And she dismounted from the camel.

65 And she said to the slave, Who is this man walking in the field to meet us? And the slave said, It is my master. And she took the veil and covered herself.

66 And the slave told Isaac all the things that he had done.

67 And Isaac brought her into the tent of his mother Sarah. And he took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her. And Isaac was comforted after his mother.

Chapter 25

1 And Abraham added and took a wife, and her name was Keturah.

2 And she bore to him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

3 And Jokshan fathered Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim and Leummim.

4 And the sons of Midian: Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoch, and Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the sons of Keturah.

5 And Abraham gave all that was his to Isaac.

6 And to the sons of the concubines who were to Abraham, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away eastward, from his son Isaac, while he was still alive to an eastern land.

7 And these are the days of the years of the life of Abraham, which he lived, one hundred seventy five years.

8 And Abraham breathed out and died in a good old age, aged and satisfied, and was gathered to his people.

9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him at the cave of Machpelah, at the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite which is before Mamre,

10 the field which Abraham bought from the sons of Heth. Abraham and his wife Sarah were buried there.

11 And it happened after the death of Abraham, Elohim blessed his son Isaac. And Isaac lived by The Well of the Living One, My Seer.

12 And these are the generations of Ishmael, the son of Abraham, whom Hagar the Egyptian, the slave-girl of Sarah, bore to Abraham.

13 And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the first-born of Ishmael was Nebajoth; then Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

14 and Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,

15 Hadad, and Tema, and Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

16 These were the sons of Ishmael, and these their names in their settlements and in their camps, twelve chiefs according to their nations.

17 And these were the years of the life of Ishmael, a hundred thirty seven years. And he breathed out and died, and was gathered to his people.

18 And they lived from Havilah to Shur, which is facing Egypt as you come toward Assyria; he settled facing all his brothers.

19 And these were the generations of Isaac, the son of Abraham: Abraham fathered Isaac.

20 And Isaac was a son of forty years when he took Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Padan-Aram, the sister of Laban the Aramean, to him for a wife.

21 And Isaac prayed to YAHWEH on behalf of his wife for she was barren. And YAHWEH was entreated for him, and his wife Rebekah conceived.

22 And the sons struggled together within her. And she said, If this is right, why am I this way? And she went to inquire of YAHWEH.

23 And YAHWEH said to her, Two nations are in your womb; even two peoples shall break from your body. And one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger.

24 And her days were fulfilled to bear. And behold! Twins were in her womb.

25 And the first came out, all of him red like a hairy robe; and they called his name Esau.

26 And afterward his brother came out, and his hand was holding to the heel of Esau; and his name was called Jacob. And Isaac was a son of sixty years when she bore them.[1] 27 And the boys grew up. And Esau became a man knowing hunting, a man of the field. And Jacob was a simple man, living in tents.

28 And Isaac loved Esau, for game was in his mouth. And Rebekah loved Jacob.
29 And Jacob boiled soup. And Esau came from the field, and he was faint.
30 And Esau said to Jacob, Please let me eat of the red, this red soup, for I am faint. On account of this his name is called Edom.[2]
31 And Jacob said, Sell me your birthright today[3]. (Deut 21:17)
32 And Esau said, Behold, I am going to die, and what good is this, a birthright to me?
33 And Jacob said, Swear to me today. And he swore to him and sold his birthright to Jacob.
34 And Jacob gave bread and soup of lentils to Esau. And he ate and drank, and rose up and left. And Esau despised the birthright[4]. (Heb 12:16, Mal 1:2-3)

Chapter 26

1 And a famine was in the land besides the famine in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, to Gerar.
2 And YAHWEH appeared to him and said, Do not go down into Egypt; but dwell in the land which I shall say to you.
3 Stay in this land, and I will be with you and bless you, for to you and to your seed I will give all these lands. And I will cause to rise My oath which I swore to your father Abraham.
4 And I will increase your seed like the stars of the heavens, and I will give to your seed all these lands. And all the nations of the earth shall bless themselves in your Seed,
5 because Abraham listened to My voice and heeded My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My Torah.[5] 6 And Isaac lived in Gerar.
7 And the men of the place asked about his wife. And he said, She is my sister, for he was afraid to say, My wife, lest the men of the place kill me on account of Rebekah, for she was beautiful of form.
8 And it happened when his days were many to him there, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked through the window and saw; and, behold, Isaac was sporting with his wife Rebekah.
9 And Abimelech called Isaac and said, See, surely she is your wife, and how have you said, She is my sister? And Isaac said to him, Because I said, lest I die on account of her.
10 And Abimelech said, What is this you have done to us? One of the people had in a little lain with your wife, and you would have brought on us guilt.
11 And Abimelech commanded all the

1 Isaac was 40 when he married Rebecca (verse 20) and sixty when Jacob was born).

2 Edom comes from the word "adom" which means red after Adam who came from the red earth.

3 Jacob realized the great blessing of the birthright promise.

4 Esau despised the birthright because it rightfully belonged to his brother Jacob and he wanted the blessing from it, not because he had true remorse or repentance for the grave sin he committed by selling it.

5 The reason stated here why Abraham was blessed to be the heir of the everlasting covenant was that in faith he kept the Torah and commandments of YAHWEH. This proves that the Torah was present here at the beginning of the covenant and was not added at Mount Sinai 430 yrs after the covenant was made with Abraham. Only the Levitical priesthood was added later, see note on Gal 3:17, 19.

people, saying, Anyone touching this man and his wife surely shall die.

12 And Isaac sowed in that land. And a hundredfold was found in that year, and YAHWEH blessed him.

13 And the man grew great, and he went on, going on to be great, until he became exceedingly great.

14 And possessions of flocks and possessions of herds, and many slaves were his. And the Philistines envied him.

15 And all the wells which the slaves of his father dug in the days of his father Abraham, the Philistines had stopped them and filled them with dirt.

16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, Go from us, for you are stronger than we.

17 And Isaac went from there and camped in Gerar Valley, and lived there.

18 And Isaac returned and dug the wells of water which they dug in the days of his father Abraham; and the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham. And he called names to them like the names which his father had called them.

19 And Isaac's slaves dug in the torrent bed, and they found there a well of flowing water.

20 And the shepherds of Gerar[1] fought with the shepherds of Isaac, saying, The water is ours; and he called the name of the well, Contention, for they had contended with him.

21 And they dug another well, and they also fought over it; and he called its name, Opposition.

22 And he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not fight over it; and he called its name, Broad Places. And he said, For now YAHWEH has broadened for us and we shall be fruitful in the land.

23 And he went from there to Beer-Sheba.

24 And YAHWEH appeared to him in the same night, and said, I am the Elohim of your father Abraham; do not fear, for I am with you; and I will bless you and increase your seed, because of My servant Abraham.

25 And he built an altar there and called on the name of YAHWEH. And he pitched his tent there. And the slaves of Isaac dug a well there.

26 And Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and his aide Ahuzzath, and Phicol the general of his army.

27 And Isaac said to them, Why have you come to me, since you hate me and sent me away from you?

28 And they said, Since we plainly have seen that YAHWEH has been with you, and we have said, let there be an oath now between us, between us and you, and let us cut a covenant with you,

29 whether you will do with us evil, as we did not touch you, and as we did only good with you, and we sent you away in peace you now being blessed of YAHWEH.

30 And he made a feast for them, and they ate and drank.

31 And they started up early at dawn, and each swore to his brother. And Isaac sent them away, and they left him in peace.

32 And it happened on that day Isaac's slaves came and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, We found water.

33 And he called it Sheba; so the name of the city is The Well of Sheba until this day.

34 And Esau was a son of forty years. And he took a wife, Judith, the daughter of Beeri the Hittite; also Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite.

1 Garar is located about 10 miles south of Gaza.

35 And they were a grief of spirit to Isaac and to Rebecca.

Chapter 27

1 And it happened when Isaac was old and his eyes were dim for seeing, he called his elder son Esau and said to him, My son! And he said to him, I am here.

2 And he said, Behold! Now, I am old; I do not know the day of my death.

3 And now please lift up your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go to the field and hunt game for me.

4 And make for me savory meat, such as I love, and bring to me, and I will eat; so that my soul may bless you before I die.

5 And Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to his son Esau. And Esau went to the field to hunt game, to bring it in.

6 And Rebekah spoke to her son Jacob, saying, Behold, I heard your father speaking to your brother Esau saying,

7 Bring game to me and make delicious meat that I may eat, that I may bless you before YAHWEH before my death.

8 And now my son hear my voice, that which I command you.

9 Go now to the flock and bring me from there two good kids of the goats. And I will make them into delicious things for your father which he loves;

10 and you shall bring it to your father and let him eat, so that he may bless you before his death.

11 And Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, Behold, my brother Esau is a hairy man, and I a smooth man.

12 Perhaps my father will feel me, and I shall be like a deceiver in his eyes, and I shall bring a curse on me, and not blessing.

13 And his mother said to him, Your curse be on me, my son; only listen to my voice and go, take for me.

14 And he went and took and came to his mother. And his mother made savory meat, such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took the clothing of her elder son Esau, the costly ones which were with her in the house. And she dressed her younger son Jacob;

16 and she put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands, and on the smoothness of his neck.

17 And she put the savory meat and the bread which she had made in the hand of her son Jacob.

18 And he went in to his father and said, My father. And he said, I am here. Who are you, my son?

19 And Jacob said to his father, I am your first-born[1], Esau. I have done as you said to me. Rise up now, sit and eat of my game, so that your soul may bless me.

20 And Isaac said to his son, How then have you so quickly found it, my son? And he said, Because YAHWEH your Elohim made it come to me.

21 And Isaac said to Jacob, Come near now and let me feel you, whether then you are my son Esau, or not.

22 And Jacob came near to his father Isaac. And he felt him, and he said, The voice is the voice of Jacob and the hands are Esau's hands.

23 And he did not know him, because his hands were like the hairy hands of his brother Esau. And he blessed him.

24 And he said, Are you then my son Esau? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring to me and let me eat of my son's game, so that my soul may bless you. And he came near to him; and he took and he ate. And he came to him, and he drank wine.

[1] Although Jacob lied about being Esau, he did not lie about being the firstborn as he rightfully bought the right from Esau earlier.

26 And his father Isaac said to him,
Now come and kiss me, my son.
27 And he came near and kissed him.
And he smelled the smell of his clothes.
And he blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which YAHWEH has blessed.
28 And may Elohim give you of the dew of the heavens, and of the fatness of the earth, and much grain and wine.
29 May the nations serve you and peoples bow to you; be a ruler to your brothers, and may your mother's sons bow to you, and cursed be those who curse you, and blessed be those who bless you.
30 And it happened that when Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, then it came about that Jacob had hardly left his father Isaac, and his brother Esau came in from his hunting.
31 And he also made savory meat and came to his father. And he said to his father, Let my father rise and eat from the game of his son, so that your soul may bless me.
32 And his father Isaac said to him,
Who are you? And he said, I am your son, your first-born, Esau.
33 And Isaac was terrified with a very great anxiety. And he said, Who then was the one who hunted game and came to me; and I ate from it all before you came; and I blessed him? Yea, he shall be blessed.
34 When Esau heard the words of his father he cried out a great and very bitter cry. And he said to his father, Bless me, me also, my father.
35 And he said, Your brother came with deceit and took your blessing.
36 And he said, It is because his name is called Jacob, and this twice he took me by the heel and defrauded me; he took my birthright and, behold, now he has taken my blessing. And he said, Have you not reserved a blessing for me?
37 And Isaac answered and said to Esau, Behold, I have set him over you as a ruler, and I have given him all his brothers for servants; I have girded him with grain and wine. And what then can I do for you, my son?
38 And Esau said to his father, Is one blessing left to you, my father? Bless me also, my father. And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.
39 And his father Isaac answered and said to him, Behold, your dwelling shall be from the fat of the earth and from the dew of the heavens above; 40 and you shall live by your sword, and you shall serve your brother; and when it shall be that you have the dominion, you shall break his yoke from your neck.
41 And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him. And Esau said in his heart,
The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob.
42 And the words of her older son Esau were told to Rebekah. And she sent and called her younger son Jacob.
And she said to him, Behold! Your brother Esau is going to ease himself on you, to kill you.
43 And now, my son, listen to my voice, and rise, flee for yourself to my brother Laban, to Haran.
44 And stay with him some days until your brother's fury turns away, 45 until your brother's anger turns back from you, and he forgets what you have done to him. And I will send and take you from there. Why should I also be bereaved of two of you in one day?
46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life from the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth, like these from the daughters of the land, what is my life to me?

Chapter 28

1 And Isaac called Jacob. And he blessed him and commanded him, and said to him, You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan.

2 Go up, go to Padan-Aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother's father. And take a wife for yourself from there, from the daughters of Laban the brother of your mother.

3 And may El Shaddai bless you and make you fruitful, and multiple you; and may you become an assembly of people.

4 And may He give to you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your seed with you, for you to possess the land of your travels, which Elohim gave to Abraham.

5 And Isaac sent away Jacob. And he went to Padan-Aram, to Laban, the son of Bethuel the Aramean, brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

6 And Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and had sent him away to Padan-Aram to take a wife for himself from there. In his blessing he had commanded him, saying, You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan;

7 and that Jacob listened to his father and his mother, and went to Padan-Aram.

8 And when Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan were evil in the eyes of his father Isaac,

9 then Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, the son of Abraham, Nebajoth's sister. To his wives he added her for his wife.[1]

10 And Jacob went out from Beer-Sheba and went toward Haran.

11 And he came on a place and stayed the night there, for the sun had gone. And he took stones of the place and placed them at his head; and he lay down in that place.

12 And he dreamed. And, behold, a staircase was placed on the earth, its top reaching to the heavens.[2] And, behold, the messengers of Elohim were going up and going down on it!

13 And, behold, YAHWEH stood above it and said, I am YAHWEH the Elohim of your father Abraham, and the Elohim of Isaac; the land on which you are lying, I will give it to you and to your seed.

14 And your seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and you shall spread to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your Seed. (Gen 12:3, Ro 4:13)

15 And, behold, I will be with you and will guard you in every place in which you may go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not forsake you until I have surely done that which I have spoken to you.

16 And Jacob awakened from his sleep, and said, Surely YAHWEH is in this place, and I did not know.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How fearful is this place! This is nothing except the house of Elohim, and this is the door to Heaven.

18 And Jacob started up early in the morning and took the stone which he had placed at his head, and he placed it as a pillar; and he poured oil on the top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place, Beit-El [3]. And yet the name of the city was at first Luz.

20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If Elohim is with me and keeps me in this way which I am going, and gives to me bread to eat and clothing to wear, 21 and I return in peace to the house of my father, then YAHWEH shall be my Elohim, 22 and this sandstone which I have placed as a memorial pillar shall become the house of Elohim; and all which You shall give to me, I will tithe the tenth to You[1]. (Pr 3:9, Mal 3:8-10)

Chapter 29

1 And Jacob lifted his feet and went to the land of the sons of the east.
2 And he looked, and, behold, a well in the field. And, behold, three flocks of sheep were lying by it; for from that well they watered the flocks, and the stone on the mouth of the well was great.
3 And all the flocks were usually gathered there, and they rolled the stone off the mouth of the well and watered the sheep, and replaced the stone on the mouth of the well, to its place.
4 And Jacob said to them, My brothers, from where are you? And they said, We are from Haran.
5 And he said to them, Do you know Laban the son of Nahor? And they said,
We know him.
6 And he said to them, Well-being to him? And they said, Well-being. And, behold, his daughter Rachel is coming with the sheep.
7 And he said, Behold, the day is still high; it is not time to gather the livestock. Water the sheep and go feed
them.
8 And they said, We are not able until all the flocks are gathered and they roll the stone from the mouth of the well;
then we water the sheep.
9 He still was speaking with them, and Rachel came with the sheep which were her father's; for she was feeding
them.
10 And it happened when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban, brother to his mother, and the sheep of Laban, his mother's brother, Jacob came near and rolled the stone from the mouth of the well and watered the sheep of Laban, his mother's brother.
11 And Jacob kissed Rachel and lifted up his voice and wept.
12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother, and that he was the son of Rebekah. And she ran and told her father.
13 And it happened when Laban heard the report of Jacob, his sister's son, he ran to meet him and embraced him and kissed him. And he took him to his house. And he told Laban all these things.
14 And Laban said to him, Truly you are my bone and my flesh. And he lived with him a month of days.
15 And Laban said to Jacob, are you not my brother? And should you serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall be your wages?
16 And Laban had two daughters, the name of the older, Leah, and the name of the younger, Rachel.
17 And the eyes of Leah were weak, and Rachel was beautiful of form and beautiful of appearance.
18 And Jacob loved Rachel, and said,
I will serve you seven years for Rachel,
your younger daughter.
19 And Laban said, It is better for me to give her to you than to give her to another man; live with me.
20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they were in his eyes like a few days, in his love for her.
21 And Jacob said to Laban, Give my wife, for my days are completed. And let me go in to her.

[1] The vow of tithing came long before the Torah was given to Moses on Mount Sinai.

22 And Laban gathered all the men of the place and made a feast.
23 And it happened in the evening, he took his daughter Leah and brought her to him; and he went in to her.
24 And Laban gave to her Zilpah, his slave-girl, to his daughter Leah as a slave.
25 And it happened in the morning;
behold! She was Leah. And he said to Laban, What have you done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? And why have you tricked me?
26 And Laban said, It is not done this way in our place, to give the younger before the first-born.
27 Fulfill the week of this one and we will also give you this other one, for the service which you will serve with me, yet another seven years.
28 And Jacob did so, and he fulfilled the week of this one, and he gave to him his daughter Rachel, to him for a wife.
29 And Laban gave his slave-girl Bilhah to his daughter Rachel, to her for a slave-girl.
30 And he also went in to Rachel, and he also loved Rachel more than Leah.
And he served with him yet another seven years.
31 And YAHWEH saw that Leah was hated. And He opened her womb, but Rachel was barren.
32 And Leah conceived and bore a son. And she called his name Reuben; for she said, Surely YAHWEH has looked on my affliction, for now my husband will love me.
33 And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, Surely YAHWEH has heard that I am hated and has given this one to me also. And she called his name Simeon.
34 And she conceived again and bore a son. And she said, Now, this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne to him three sons. So his name was called Levi.
35 And she conceived again and bore a son. And she said, This time I will praise YAHWEH. So she called his name Judah. And she ceased from bearing.

Chapter 30

1 And Rachel saw that she did not bear to Jacob, and Rachel was jealous of her sister. And she said to Jacob, Give me sons; and if there is none, I shall die.
2 And Jacob's anger glowed against Rachel, and he said, Am I in Elohim's place, who has kept you from the fruit of the womb?
3 And she said, Behold my servant Bilhah! Go in to her and let her bear on my knees; yea, let me be built up from her, me also.
4 And she gave her slave-girl Bilhah to him for a wife. And Jacob went in to her.
5 And Bilhah conceived and bore a son to Jacob.
6 And Rachel said, Elohim has judged and has also heard my voice, and has given me a son. So she called his name
Dan.
7 And Bilhah, Rachel's slave-girl, conceived again, and bore a second son to Jacob.
8 And Rachel said, With struggles of Elohim I have struggled with my sister; yea, I have prevailed. And she called his name Naphtali.
9 And Leah saw that she had ceased from bearing. And she took Zilpah, her slave-girl, and gave her to Jacob for a wife.
10 And Leah's slave-girl Zilpah bore a son to Jacob.
11 And Leah said, With fortune. And she called his name Gad.
12 And Zilpah, Leah's slave-girl, bore a second son to Jacob.
13 And Leah said, In my happiness;

for the daughters shall call me happy.
And she called his name Asher.
14 And in the days of wheat harvest
Reuben went out and found mandrakes in the field. And he brought them to his mother Leah. And Rachel said to Leah, Please give to me from the mandrakes of your son.
15 And she said to her, is your taking my husband a little thing? Will you also take my son's love-apples? And Rachel said, So he shall be with you tonight, for your son's mandrakes.
16 And Jacob came in from the field at evening. And Leah went out to meet him. And she said, You must come in to me, for surely I have hired you with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her during that night.
17 And Elohim listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore a fifth son to Jacob.
18 And Leah said, Elohim has given my hire; I gave my slave-girl to my husband. And she called his name Issachar.
19 And Leah conceived again and bore a sixth son to Jacob.
20 And Leah said, Elohim has given me a good present. This time my husband will live with me, because I have borne six sons to him. And she called his name Zebulun.
21 And afterwards she bore a daughter and called her name Dinah.
22 And Elohim remembered Rachel; and Elohim listened to her and opened her womb.
23 And she conceived and bore a son.
And she said, Elohim has taken away
my reproach.
24 And she called his name Joseph, saying, May YAHWEH add to me another son.
25 And it happened when Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, Send me away so I may go to my own place and to my land.
26 Give my wives and my children, for whom I have served you, and let me go. For you know my service with which I have served you.
27 And Laban said to him, Please, if I have found favor in your eyes, stay. I have seen omens, also YAHWEH has blessed me because of you.
28 And he said, Set your wages on me and I will give.
29 And he said to him, You know how I have served you and what your livestock has become with me.
30 For little was yours before my presence, and it has spread out into a host. And YAHWEH has blessed you at my foot. And now when shall I work for my house, I also?
31 And he said, What shall I give you?
And Jacob said, You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will remain. I will feed your flock and keep it.
32 I will pass among all your flock today, taking from there every speckled and spotted sheep, and every black sheep among the lambs, also the spotted and speckled goats; these shall be my wages.
33 And my righteousness shall testify for me in the day to come. When you come in about my wages, before your face everyone that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and black among the lambs, it is stolen with me.
34 And Laban said, Yes, if it be so let it be as you speak.
35 And he turned out in that day all the striped and spotted lambs, and all the speckled and spotted goats, every one which had white, and every black one among the lambs. And he gave them into the hands of his sons.
36 And he put three days journey between himself and Jacob. And Jacob was feeding the remaining flocks of Laban.
37 And Jacob took for himself rods of a fresh white popular tree, and the almond and plane tree. And he peeled white stripes in them, laying bare the white on the rods.

38 And he set the rods which he had peeled by the troughs, by the water troughs where the flocks came to drink, across from the flocks. And they were in heat when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks were in heat before the rods and bore striped, speckled and spotted offspring.

40 And Jacob separated the lambs, and he set the faces of the flock toward the striped, and every black one in the flocks of Laban. And he put his own droves by themselves, and did not put them with the flock of Laban.

41 And it happened that whenever the strong flocks conceived, Jacob placed the rods before the eyes of the flocks, before the troughs, that they might conceive by the rods.

42 And the flocks being feeble, he did not set them. And usually it happened that the weak were for Laban, and the strong for Jacob.

43 And the man increased very much, and many flocks were his, and slave-girls, and male slaves, and camels and donkeys.

Chapter 31

1 And he heard the words of the sons of Laban, saying, Jacob has taken away all that was to our father, and from that which was to our father he has gotten all this wealth.

2 And Jacob saw the face of Laban, and, behold, it was not toward him as before.

3 And YAHWEH said to Jacob, Go back to the land of your fathers and to your kindred. And I will be with you.

4 And Jacob sent and called for Rachel and for Leah to come to the field, to his flocks.

5 And he said to them, I see your father's face, that it is not toward me as before. But the Elohim of my father has been with me.

6 And you know that with all my power I have served your father.

7 And your father has cheated me and has changed my wages ten times. And Elohim has not let him do evil to me.

8 And if he said this: The speckled shall be your wages, then all the flocks bore speckled. And if he said this, The striped shall be your wages, then all the flocks bore striped.

9 And Elohim has taken away the livestock of your father and has given to me.

10 And it happened at the time the flock was in heat, I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream: And behold! The rams leaping on the flock were striped, speckled, and spotted.

11 And the Messenger of Elohim spoke to me in a dream, Jacob! And I said, I am here.

12 And He said, Lift up your eyes and see all the rams leaping on the flock; they are striped, speckled and spotted. For I have seen all that Laban is doing to you.

13 I am the El of Bethel, there where you anointed the pillar, where you vowed a vow to Me. Now rise up; go out of this land and go back to the land of your kindred.

14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, Is there yet to us a portion and an inheritance in the house of our father?

15 Are we not counted strangers by him. For he has sold us, and selling he has sold us for silver.

16 For all the wealth which Elohim has taken from our father, it is for us and for our sons. And now all that which Elohim has said to you, do.

17 And Jacob arose and set his sons and his wives on camels.

18 And he drove all the livestock, and he took all his goods which he had gotten, livestock of his property which he had gotten in Padan-Aram, to come to his father Isaac, to the land of Canaan.

19 And Laban went to shear his sheep. And Rachel stole the terafeen [1] idols which were her father's.

20 And Jacob deceived the heart of Laban the Syrian, for he did not tell him that he was about to flee.

21 And he and all that was to him fled. And he rose up and crossed the River and set his face to Mount Gilead.

22 And on the third day Laban was told that Jacob had fled.

23 And he took his brothers with him and pursued him, seven days journey. And he overtook him in the Mountain of Gilead.

24 And Elohim came to Laban the Syrian in a dream of the night, and said to him, Watch out for yourself, that you not speak with Jacob from good to evil.

25 And Laban overtook Jacob. And Jacob had pitched his tent at the Mount. And Laban with his brothers had pitched at Mount Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What have you done? And you have deceived my heart and have taken my daughters like captives of the sword.

27 Why did you hide so as to flee, and have deceived me and have not told me. And I would have sent you away with rejoicing and with music, with tabret and with harp.

28 And you have not let me kiss my sons and my daughters. Now you have been foolish to do this.

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you harm. But the Elohim of your fathers spoke to me last night, saying, Watch out for yourself that you do not speak with Jacob from good to evil.

30 And now surely you have gone because you have longed after your father's house. Why have you stolen my gods?

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid. For I said, Lest by force you take your daughters from me.

32 With whomever you find your gods, he shall not live before our brothers here.[2] See for yourself what is with me, and take it to you. For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent and into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two slave-girls; and he did not find. And he went out of Leah's tent and came into Rachel's tent.

34 And Rachel had taken the household idols and put them into the camel's saddle; and she sat on them. And Laban felt around all the tent, but did not find.

35 And she said to her father, Let no anger be in the eyes of my master, for I am not able to rise before your face, for the way of women is to me. And he searched for and did not find the household idols.

36 And Jacob was angry, and he argued with Laban. And Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my transgression; what is my sin that you have hotly pursued me?

37 For you have felt around all my articles; what have you found from all the articles of your house? Set it here before my brothers and your brothers and let them decide between the two of us.

38 Now I was with you twenty years. Your ewes and your she-goats have not failed to bear, and I have not eaten the rams of your flock.

39 I did not bring to you the mangled; I replaced it. From my hand

---

[1] A terafeen was a household idol

[2] Rachel who stole the idol (vs 19) died later in chapter 35:18-19 according to this word.

you exacted it, that stolen by day and that stolen by night.

40 I was there; by day the heat consumed me, and the cold by night. And my sleep fled from my eyes.

41 Now I have been twenty years in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flock. And you have changed my wages ten times.

42 Except the Elohim of my father, the Elohim of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had been for me, truly now you would have sent me away empty. Elohim has seen my affliction and the toil of my palm, and last night He judged.

43 And Laban answered and said to Jacob, The daughters are my daughters and the sons my sons. And the flocks are my flocks; yea, all which you see, it is mine and my daughters'. What can I do to these today, or to their sons whom they have borne?

44 And now come, let us cut a covenant, you and me; and let it be a witness between you and me.

45 And Jacob took a stone and set it up as a memorial.

46 And Jacob said to his brothers, Gather stones. And they took stones and they made a heap and they ate there upon the heap.

47 And Laban called it, Heap of the Testimony. And Jacob called it in Hebrew, Galeed [1].

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between you and between me today; so he called its name Galeed (Heap of Testimony);

49 also, Mitzpah [2]; for he said, May YAHWEH watch between you and me, for we are hidden, when we are out of sight, each from his neighbor.

50 If you will not afflict my daughters, and if you will not take wives above my daughters, no man is with us. Behold! Elohim is a witness between you and me.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold the pillar which I have set between you and me.

52 This heap is a witness, and the pillar is a testimony. As for me, I will not pass over this heap to you; and as for you, you will not pass over this heap and this pillar for evil to me.

53 The Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Nahor, the Elohim of their father, let judge between us. And Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac.

54 And Jacob sacrificed a sacrifice on the mountain, and called his brothers to eat bread. And they ate bread and lodged on the mountain.

55 And Laban rose up early in the morning and kissed his sons and his daughters and blessed them. And Laban went away and returned to his own place.

Chapter 32

1 And Jacob went on his way, and the cherubs of Elohim met him.

2 And when he saw them, Jacob said, This is the camp of Elohim. And he called the name of that place, Mahanaim [3].

3 And Jacob sent messengers before his face to his brother Esau, to the land of Seir, the field of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, You shall say to my master, to Esau: Your servant Jacob says this: I have sojourned with Laban and remained until now.

5 And it is mine to have oxen, and donkeys, flocks, and slaves and slave-girls. And I have sent to tell my master, to find favor in your eyes.

6 And the messengers came back to Jacob, saying, We came to your brother

[1] Galeed means Heap of Testimony
[2] Mitzpah means Watchtower
[3] Mahanaim means Two Camps

Esau, and also he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him.

7 And Jacob was afraid, and he was very distressed. And he divided the people with him, and the flocks, and the herds, and the camels, into two camps.

8 And he said, If Esau comes to the one company and strikes it, then it will be, the company that is left shall escape.

9 And Jacob said, Oh Elohim of my father Abraham and Elohim of my father Isaac, YAHWEH, who said to me, Go back to your land and to your kindred and I will deal well with you.

10 I am not worthy of all the mercies and all the truth which You have done for Your servant, for I passed over this Jordan with my staff, and now I have become two companies.

11 Deliver me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, lest he come and strike me, mother to sons.

12 And You said, dealing I will deal well with you, and I will make your seed like the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude. (Gen 22:17)

13 And he remained there that night. And he took a present from what came into his hand, for his brother Esau:

14 two hundred she-goats, twenty he-goats, two hundred rams,

15 thirty nursing camels with their thirty colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty she-donkeys and ten young donkeys.

16 And he gave into the hand of his slaves every drove by itself. And he said to his slaves, Pass over before my face and put a space between drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the first ones, saying, When my brother Esau meets you and asks, saying, Whose are you, and where do you go, and whose are these before your face?

18 Then you will say, Your servant Jacob's. It is a present sent to my master, to Esau; and, behold, also he is behind us.

19 And he also commanded the second, also the third, even all the ones going after the droves, saying, You shall speak this word to Esau when you find him.

20 And you shall also say, Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will cover his face by the present, the one going before my face, and afterward I will see his face; perhaps he will lift up my face.

21 And the present passed before his face, and he remained in the camp that night.

22 And he rose up that night and took his two wives, and his two slave-girls, and his eleven children. And he passed over the ford Jabbok.

23 And he took them and sent them over the stream, and sent over that which was his.

24 And Jacob was left alone. And a Man wrestled with him until the rising of the dawn.

25 And He saw that He had not prevailed against him. And He touched on his hip socket, and Jacob's hip socket was unhinged as he wrestled with Him.

26 And He said, Send Me away, for the dawn has ascended. And he said, I will not let You go unless You bless me.

27 And He said to him, What is your name? And he said, Jacob.

28 And He said, Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, because you have struggled with Elohim and with men, and have prevailed.

29 And Jacob asked and said, Please reveal Your name. And He said, Why is it that you ask about My name? And He blessed him there. (Hos 12:4-5) 30 And Jacob called the name of the place Peni'El [1], because I saw Elohim face to face, and my life is delivered.

31 And the sun rose on him as he passed over Peniel, and he was limping on his thigh.
32 On account of this the sons of Israel do not eat the sinew of the thigh that is on the hip socket until this day, because He struck on Jacob's hip socket, on the sinew of the thigh.

Chapter 33

1 And Jacob lifted up his eyes and looked. And, behold, Esau was coming, and four hundred men with him. And he divided the children to Leah, and to Rachel, and to the two slave-girls.
2 And he put the slave-girls and their children first; and Leah and her children behind: and Rachel and Joseph last.
3 And he passed over in front of them and bowed himself to the ground seven times until he came even to his brother.
4 And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him. And they wept.
5 And he lifted up his eyes and saw the women and the children. And he said, Who are these with you? And he said, The children with whom Elohim has favored your servant.
6 And the slave-girls came near, they and their children; and they bowed.
7 And Leah and her children also came near and bowed. And afterward Rachel and Joseph came near and bowed.
8 And he said, Whose is all this camp which I met? And he said, To find favor in the eyes of my master.
9 And Esau said, I have much, my brother. Let what you have be to yourself.
10 And Jacob said, No, please, if I now have found favor in your eyes, take my present from my hands. For I have seen your face, like seeing the face of Elohim; and you are pleased with me.
11 Please take my blessing which has been brought to you, because Elohim has favored me, and because I have all things. And he urged him; and he accepted.
12 And he said, Let us depart and go,
and I will go with you.
13 And he said to him, My master knows that the children are tender, and the flocks and the herds with me are suckling. And if they overdrive them one day, all the flocks will die.
14 Please let my master go before the face of his servant, and I will move on by stages at my ease, according to the feet of the livestock which are before me, and according to the pace of the boys, until I come into my master to Seir.
15 And Esau said, Please let me place with you some of the people who are with me. And he said, Why, then? Let me find favor in the eyes of my master.
16 And Esau returned on his way toward Seir that day.
17 And Jacob traveled to Succoth.
And he built himself a house, and made booths for his livestock. For this reason he called the name of the place Succoth.
18 And Jacob came in peace to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, as he came from Padan-Aram.
And he camped in front of the city.
19 And he bought that part of the field where he had pitched his tent, from the hand of the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for a hundred pieces of money.
20 And he set up an altar there. And he called it, El, the Elohe of Israel.

[1] Means Face of El, it was Elohim the Son who Jacob wrestled, Hos 12:3-6.

Chapter 34

1 And Dinah, the daughter of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 And Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her, and took her, and lay with her, and humbled her.[1]

3 And his soul clung to Dinah, the daughter of Jacob. And he loved the girl, and spoke to the heart of the girl.

4 And Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, Take this girl for me for a wife.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled his daughter Dinah. And his sons were with his livestock in the field. And Jacob kept silent until they had come.

6 And Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard, and the men were furious, and they were very angry, because he had done folly in Israel, to lie with the daughter of Jacob, and it should not be done in this way.

8 And Hamor spoke with them, saying, My son Shechem's soul has longed to your daughter. Please give her to him for a wife.

9 And you intermarry with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves.

10 And live with us, and the land is before you; live and trade in it, and get property in it.

11 And Shechem said to her father, and to her brothers, Let me find favor in your eyes, and what you say to me I will give.

12 Heap on me ever so much bride-price and gift, and I will give as you say to me; but give me the girl for a wife.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and his father Hamor, speaking with deceit because he had defiled their sister Dinah.

14 And they said to them, We are not able to do this thing, to give our sister to a man who is uncircumcised. For it is a reproach to us.

15 Only on this condition will we consent to you; If you will become like us, to have every male of yours circumcised.

16 Then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us; and we will live with you and will become a united (echad) people.

17 And if you do not listen to us, to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter, and we will go.

18 And their words were good in the eyes of Hamor and the son of Hamor, Shechem.

19 And the young man did not hesitate to do the thing, for he delighted in Jacob's daughter. And he was more honorable than all the house of his father.

20 And Hamor and his son Shechem came to the gate of their city. And they spoke with the men of their city, saying,

21 These men are peaceable with us; and, Let them live in the land and trade in it. And, behold, the land is wide on both hands before them. Let us take their daughters for ourselves for wives, and let us give our daughters to them.

22 Only in this way will the men consent to us to live with us, to become a united people: that every male of us be circumcised as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not their livestock, and their property, and all their beasts of burden be ours? Only let us consent to them, and let them live with us.

24 And all those going out of the gate of the city listened to Hamor, and to his son Shechem. And every male was circumcised, all those going out of the gate of the city.

25 And it happened on the third day,

[1] Verses 1-2 show the dangers that happen when a woman goes out without a covering.

they being pained, that the two sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword. And they came on the city in its security, and killed every male.

26 And they killed Hamor and his son Shechem by the edge of the sword. And they took Dinah from the house of Shechem, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came on the slain and looted the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their flocks and their herds and their donkeys, and whatever was in the city, and whatever was in the field.

29 And they took all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives, and looted all that was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to Simeon and to Levi, You have troubled me, to make me stink among those living in the land, among the Canaanites, and among the Perizzites. And I being few in number, and they gathering against me, they will strike me, and I and my house shall be wasted.

31 And they said, Should he treat our sister like a harlot?

Chapter 35

1 And Elohim said to Jacob, Rise up, go to Bethel and live there. And make an altar there to El, who appeared to you when you fled before your brother Esau.

2 And Jacob said to his house, and to all those with him, Put away the strange Elohim in your midst, and purify yourselves, and change your clothing.

3 And let us rise up and go up to Bethel. And I will make an altar there to El, who answered me in the day of my distress. And He was with me in the way in which I went.

4 And they gave all the strange Elohim in their hand to Jacob, and the earrings which were in their ears. And Jacob hid them under the oak which was near Shechem.[1]

5 And they pulled up, and there was the terror of Elohim on the cities all around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.

6 And Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan; it is Bethel, he and all the people with him came.

7 And he built an altar there and called the place El Bethel; because there the Elohim revealed Themselves[2] to him when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 And Deborah died, the nurse of Rebekah, and she was buried below Bethel, under the oak. And he called its name, Oak of Weeping.

9 And Elohim appeared to Jacob again when he came out of Padan-Aram, and He blessed him.

10 And Elohim said to him, Your name is Jacob; your name will not anymore be called Jacob, but Israel will be your name. And He called his name Israel.

11 And Elohim said to him, I am El Shaddai [3]; be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations shall be from you. And kings shall go forth from your loins.

12 And the land which I gave to Abraham and to Isaac, I will give it to you; and after you I will give the land to your seed. (Gen 13:15, Gen 17:7-8)

13 And Elohim went up from him, in

[1] Verses 2-4- In showing commitment to YHWH for the covenant he was entering, Jacob wanted to sanctify himself and his family from any idolatry that they possessed. Earrings were used as amulets in pagan worship, Hos 2:13.

[2] Here, it is distinctly indicated showing more than one El and another indication of Yahweh the Father and Yahweh the Son, Yahweh being a family name.

the place where He had spoken with him.

14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where He had spoken with him, a pillar of stone. And he poured out a drink offering on it; and he poured oil on it.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place, there where Elohim had spoken with him, Bethel.

16 And they pulled up stakes from Bethel. And there was yet a length of land to come to Ephrath. And Rachel bore; and she had hard labor in her bearing.

17 And it happened, when she had hard labor in her bearing, even the midwife said to her, Do not fear, for this also is a son for you.

18 And it happened, when her soul was going forth (for she died) even she called his name Ben-Oni (son of my sorrow). But his father called him Ben-Yamin[1] (son of my strength).

19 And Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath, that is Bethlehem.

20 And Jacob set up a pillar on her grave; it is the pillar of Rachel's grave until today.

21 And Israel pulled up and pitched his tent beyond the Tower of the Flocks.

22 And it happened after Israel lived in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah, his father's concubine. And Israel heard. And the sons of Jacob were twelve.

23 The sons of Leah: Reuben, Jacob's first-born; and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun.

24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's slave-girl: Dan and Naphtali.

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's slave-girl: Gad and Asher. These were Jacob's sons who were born in Padan-Aram.

27 And Jacob came to his father Isaac, to Mamre, to the City of Harba; it is Hebron where Abraham and Isaac resided.

28 And the days of Isaac were a hundred and eighty years.

29 And Isaac gave up the breathe and died and was gathered to his people, old and satisfied of days. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Chapter 36

Chapter 37

1 And Jacob lived in the land of his father's travels, in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the generations of Jacob: Joseph, a son of seventeen years[1], was feeding the flock with his brothers, with Bilhah's sons and with Zilpah's sons, his father's wives. And he was a youth. And Joseph brought an evil report of them to their father.

3 And Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was a son of old age to him. And he made a coat of many colors reaching to the feet.[2]

4 And his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, and they hated him. And they were not able to speak to him for peace.

5 And Joseph dreamed a dream, and told it to his brothers. And they increased to hate him still more.

6 And he said to them, Now hear this dream which I have dreamed:

7 And, behold! We were binding sheaves in the middle of the field. And, behold, my sheaf rose up and also stood up. And, behold, your sheaves came around and bowed themselves to my sheaf. (Gen 42:6, 43:26)

8 And his brothers said to him, Shall you indeed reign over us, or shall you really rule over us? And they hated him still more because of his dreams, and because of his words.

9 And he dreamed still another dream, and told it to his brothers. And he said, Behold, I have dreamed another dream: And, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars were bowing themselves to me. (Rev 12:1)

10 And he told it to his father, and to his brothers. And his father rebuked him, and said to him, What is this dream which you have dreamed? Shall we indeed come to bow ourselves to the earth to you, I, your mother, and your brothers? (Gen 27:29)

11 And his brothers envied him. But his father was attentive to the word.

12 And his brothers went to feed the flock of their father in Shechem.

13 And Israel said to Joseph, Are not your brothers feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them. And he said to him, I am here.

14 And he said to him, Now go, see the welfare of your brothers, and the welfare of the flock, and bring word

[1] Joseph is named first because he retrieved the right of the first-born as he was the first born of Rachel, the rightful covenant wife of Jacob, 1 Chron 5:1-2.

[2] The Hebrew here is a rare archaic word "pas" which indicates a long robe. Also, the root of this word means the palm of the hand indicating the coat was made of many small palm like patches that could have been different colors. In any case the coat was beautiful and rare and is indicative of a royal garment, Ex 28:4, Luk 15:22, Joh 19:23-24.

back to me. And he sent him out of the valley of Hebron. And he came to Shechem.
15 And a man found him. And, behold, he was wandering in the field.
And the man asked him, saying, What do you seek?
16 And he said, I am looking for my brothers. Please tell me where they are feeding the flock.
17 And the man said, They have left here, for I heard them say, Let us go towards Dothan. And Joseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan[1].
18 And they saw him from a distance.
And before he came near to them, they plotted against him, to kill him.
19 And they said, each to his brother, Behold, this master of dreams is coming.
20 And, Come now, and let us kill him, and throw him into one of the pits.
And let us say, An evil beast has eaten him. And let us see what will become of his dreams.
21 And Reuben heard, and he delivered him from their hands, and said, Let us not strike his soul.
22 And Reuben said to them, Do not shed blood. Throw him into this pit in the desert, but do not lay a hand on him; so that he might deliver him from their hands, to return him to his father.
23 And it happened when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped his robe which was on him, from Joseph,
the long robe reaching to the feet.
24 And they took him and threw him into the pit, the pit being empty, no water in it.
25 And they sat down to eat bread.
And they lifted up their eyes and looked. And, behold, a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead! And their camels were bearing spices, and balsam gum, and sticky gum, going down to take them to Egypt.
26 And Judah said to his brothers,
What gain is it that we kill our brother and conceal his blood?
27 Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and do not let our hand be on him. For he is our brother, our flesh.
And his brothers listened.
28 And men, Midianites, traders, passed. And they drew up and took Joseph out of the pit, and they sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they brought Joseph into Egypt. (Acts 7:9)
29 And Reuben came back to the pit.
And, behold, Joseph was not in the pit;
and he tore his clothes.
30 And he returned to his brothers and said, The child, he is not. And I, where shall I go?
31 And they took Joseph's long robe, and killed a ram of the goats, and dipped the robe in the blood.(Rev 19:13)
32 And they sent the long robe reaching to the feet, and they took it to their father, and said, We have found this. Now look, is it not your son's robe?
33 And he knew it, and said, My son's robe! An evil beast has eaten him.
Surely Joseph is torn to pieces.
34 And Jacob tore his clothing and put sackcloth on his loins. And he mourned many days for his son.
35 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him. And he refused to be comforted, and said, I will go down to Sheol mourning for my son. And his father wept for him.
36 And the Midianites sold him into Egypt, to Potiphar, a eunuch of Pharaoh, the chief of the executioners.

Chapter 38

1 And it happened at that time that

[1] Dothan is about 20 miles north of Shechem.

Judah went down, away from his brothers, and turned aside to a man of Adullam named Hirah.
2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a Canaanite man named Shuah. And he took her, and went in to her.
3 And she conceived and bore a son.
And he called his name Er.
4 And she conceived again and bore a son and called his name Onan.
5 And she continued still and bore a son. And she called his name Shelah.
And he was at Chezib when she bore
him.
6 And Judah took a wife for his firstborn, Er, and her name, Tamar.
7 And Er, Judah's first-born, was evil in the eyes of YAHWEH. And YAHWEH killed him.
8 And Judah said to Onan, Go in to your brother's wife and marry her, and raise up seed to your brother.
9 And Onan knew that the seed would not be his. And it happened when he went in to his brother's wife, he wasted his semen to the ground, not giving seed to his brother. (Deut 25:5-10) 10 And what he did was evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, and He also killed
him.
11 And Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, Live as a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah is grown. For he said, Lest he also die like his brothers. And Tamar went and lived in her father's house.
12 And the days were many, and the wife of Judah, the daughter of Shuah, died. And Judah was comforted, and he went up to the shearers of his flocks, he and his friend Hirah of Adullam, to Timnah.
13 And Tamar was told, saying, Behold, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his flocks.
14 And she took off her widow's robes from her, and veiled herself with a veil, and disguised herself. And she sat at the entrance of Enaim, which is on the way to Timnah. For she saw that Shelah had grown up and she had not been given to him for a wife.
15 And Judah saw her. And he thought her to be a harlot, because she had veiled her face.[1] 16 And he turned aside to her by the roadway, and said, Come now, let me come in to you. For he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said, What will you give me that you may come in to me?
17 And he said, I will send a kid of the goats from the flock. And she said, Will you give me a pledge until you send it?
18 And he said, What pledge shall I give to you? And she said, Your signet ring, and your bracelet and your staff in your hand. And he gave to her, and came in to her.[2] And she conceived by
him.
19 And she rose up and left, and took off her veil from her face. And she put on her widow's robes.
20 And Judah sent the kid of the goats by the hand of his friend, the Adullamite, to receive the pledge from the woman's hand. And he did not find her.
21 And he asked the men of her place, saying, Where is the harlot that was at Enaim, by the roadway? And they said,
There was no harlot here.
22 And he returned to Judah and said, I have not found her. And also the men of the place said, There was no harlot here.
23 And Judah said, Let her take them

---

[1] In ancient times harlots wore veils and used them to cover their faces not to be recognized. The practice of wearing a veil still prevails today in Islamic countries.

[2] The signet ring, the bracelet and the staff were all signs of Judah holding the right of the scepter and it was a serious mistake to use such an important blessing as collateral for such an immoral act.

for herself, that we not become a laughing stock. See, I sent this kid, and you did not find her.

24 And after three months, it happened. It was told to Judah, saying, Your daughter-in-law Tamar has committed adultery, and also, behold, she is pregnant by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her out and let her be burned.

25 She was being brought out, and she sent to her father-in-law, saying, I am pregnant by a man to whom these belong. And she said, Note now whose are these, the signet ring, the bracelet, and the staff?

26 And Judah knew and said, She is more righteous than I, because I did not give her to my son Shelah. And he never knew her again.

27 And in the time of her bearing, behold, it happened! Twins were in her womb.

28 And in her bearing, it happened that one put forth a hand, and the midwife took it and tied crimson on his hand, saying, This one came out first.

29 And it happened as he withdrew his hand, behold, his brother came out. And she said, How have you broken a break for yourself? And one called his name Pharez [1].

30 And then his brother came out, on whose hand was the crimson. And one called his name Zarah.

Chapter 39

1 And Joseph was carried down to Egypt. And Potiphar, a eunuch of Pharaoh, the chief of the executioners, an Egyptian man, bought him from the hand of the Ishmaelites who had carried him down there.

2 And YAHWEH was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man. And he was in the house of the Egyptian, his master.

3 And his master saw that YAHWEH was with him, and Joseph was prospering in his hand everything which he did.

4 And Joseph found favor in his sight, and served him. And he appointed him over his house, and he gave all he owned into his hand.

5 And it came about that from the time he appointed him over his house and over all he owned, YAHWEH blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake. And the blessing of YAHWEH was on all that he had, in the house and in the field.

6 And he left all he owned in Joseph's hand. And he did not know anything that he had, except the bread which he was eating. And Joseph was beautiful in form and beautiful of appearance.

7 And after these things, it happened that his master's wife lifted up her eyes to Joseph, and said, Lie with me.

8 And he refused, and said to his master's wife, Behold, my master does not know what is in the house with me, and all that he owns he has given into my hand.

9 No one in this house is greater than I, and he has not withheld anything from me except you, because you are his wife. And how should I do this great evil and sin against Elohim?

10 And it happened, as she spoke to Joseph day after day, he did not listen to her, to lie beside her, to be with her.

11 And it happened on this day, that he went into the house to do his work. And none of the men of the house were there in the house.

12 And she caught him by his robe, saying, Lie with me! And he left his robe in her hand and fled, and went outside.

13 And it happened, when she saw

[1] Pharez Means "divider"

that he had left his robe in her hand, and had fled outside,

14 she called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, Behold! He has brought to us a Hebrew man in to mock at us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice.

15 And it happened when he heard that I raised my voice and cried, he left his robe by me and fled, and went outside.

16 And she kept his robe beside her until the coming of his master to his house.

17 And she spoke these same words to him, saying, The Hebrew slave whom you brought in to us came in to mock at me.

18 And it happened at my raising my voice and crying out, he left his robe beside me and fled outside.

19 And it happened, when his master heard his wife's words which she spoke to him, saying, According to these words your slave did to me, his anger glowed.

20 And Joseph's master took him and put him into the prison house, the place where the king's prisoners were bound. And he was there in the prison house.

21 And YAHWEH was with Joseph, and extended kindness to him. And He gave him favor in the eyes of the warden of the prison house.

22 And the warden of the prison house gave all the prisoners in the prison house into Joseph's hand. And all which they did there, he was doing.

23 There was no looking of the warden of the prison house to anything in his hand, in that YAHWEH was with him, and YAHWEH was prospering what he was doing.

Chapter 40

1 And after these things, it happened, the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt sinned against their master, against the king of Egypt.[1]

2 And Pharaoh was angry against his two eunuchs, against the chief of the cupbearers and against the chief of the bakers.

3 And he gave them into custody, in the house of the chief of the executioners, into the prison house, the place where Joseph was bound.

4 And the chief of the executioners appointed Joseph to be with them, and he served them. And they were in custody many days.

5 And they dreamed a dream, both of them, each his dream in one night, each according to the interpretation of his dream, the cupbearer and the baker who belonged to the king of Egypt, who were bound in the prison house.

6 And Joseph came in to them in the morning. And he looked at them, and, behold, they were sad.

7 And he asked the officers of Pharaoh who were with him in custody, in the house of his master, saying, Why are your faces sad today?

8 And they said to him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is not one to open it. And Joseph said to them, Do not interpretations belong to Elohim? Now tell it to me.

9 And the chief of the cupbearers told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me.

10 And in the vine were three branches. And at its budding, it went up into blossom, its clusters ripened into grapes.

11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes and press-

[1] This story is very symbolic as Joseph is a type of Messiah and suffering servant and here the cupbearer tasted the wine for the king and the baker made bread signifying the bread and wine of the last Passover.

ed them into the cup of Pharaoh; and I gave the cup into the hand of Pharaoh.

12 And Joseph said to him, This is the interpretation: the three branches, they are three days.

13 Yet within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and will return you to your place. And you will give the cup of Pharaoh into his hand according to the former custom when you were his cupbearer.

14 But make mention of me along with yourself, when it is well with you; and please do kindness with me and mention me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house.

15 For truly I was stolen from the land of the Hebrews; and here also I have not done anything that they should have put me into the dungeon.

16 And the chief of the bakers saw that the interpretation was good. And he said to Joseph, I also in my dream saw three baskets of white bread on my head.

17 And in the top basket some from all the food of Pharaoh, the work of a baker. And the birds were eating them from the basket off my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days.

19 Yet within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head from you and hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh off you.

20 And it happened, on the third day, the day of Pharaoh's birth, he made a feast for all his servants. And he lifted up the head of the chief of the cupbearers and the head of the chief of the bakers in the midst of his servants.

21 And he restored the chief of the cupbearers to his cupbearer office; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

22 And he hanged the chief of the bakers, as Joseph interpreted to them.[1]

23 And the chief of the cupbearers did not mention Joseph, but forgot him.

Chapter 41

1 And it happened at the end of two years of days, Pharaoh was dreaming. And, lo, he was standing by the River.

2 And, behold! Seven cows were going up from the River, beautiful of appearance and fat of flesh; and they were eating in the reeds.

3 And, behold, seven other cows were going up after them from the River, evil of appearance and lean of flesh. And they were standing beside the cows on the lip of the River.

4 And the evil-appearing and lean-fleshed cows were eating the seven cows of beautiful and fat appearance. And Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed a second time. And, behold, seven ears of grain were coming up on one stalk, fat and good.

6 And, behold, seven ears of grain, being lean and blasted by the east wind, sprouting forth after them.

7 And the seven lean ears were swallowing the seven fat and full ears. And Pharaoh awakened; and, behold, it was a dream.

8 And it happened in the morning, his spirit was troubled. And he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt,

[1] Three being the number of the resurrection for those who believe in it (Math 12:38-40). The cupbearer was restored after 3 days and the baker hung on a tree. This typifies the 2 thieves who died with Yahshua, one came to faith on the tree of crucifixion and one did not. Also, you can equate this parable with the two goats on Yom Kippur, one went alive into the wilderness and one was killed, Lev 16:8-10.

and all its wise men. And Pharaoh told them his dream, and there was no interpreter of them to Pharaoh.
9 And the chief of the cupbearers spoke with Pharaoh, saying, I mention my sin today.
10 Pharaoh was angry against his servants, and gave me into custody in the house of the chief of the executioners, me and the chief of the bakers.
11 And we dreamed a dream in one night, he and I; we each dreamed according to the interpretation of his dream.
12 And a Hebrew youth was with us, a slave to the chief of the executioners.
And we told him, and he interpreted our dreams to us; he interpreted to each according to his dream.
13 And it happened, as he had interpreted to us, so it was; he returned me to my position, and he hanged him.
14 And Pharaoh sent and called Joseph; and they rushed him from the dungeon. And he shaved and changed his clothing and came in to Pharaoh.
15 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one to interpret it; and I have heard about you, saying, you hear a dream to interpret it.
16 And Joseph replied to Pharaoh, saying, Not I! Elohim will answer the peace of Pharaoh.
17 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, In my dream, lo, I was standing on the lip of the River.
18 And, behold, seven cows were going up from the River, fat of flesh and beautiful of form, and were feeding in the reeds.
19 And, behold, seven other cows were going up after them, poor and very evil of form, and lean of flesh; I have not seen any like them in all the land of Egypt for badness.
20 And the cows, the lean and the evil, ate the first seven fat cows.
21 And they went into their stomachs, and it could not be seen that they had gone into their stomachs; and their appearance was as evil as at the beginning. And I awakened.
22 And I looked in my dream. And, behold, seven ears of grain were coming up on one stalk, full and good.
23 And, behold, seven ears, withered, lean, blasted by the east wind, sprouting forth after them.
24 And the lean ears were swallowing the seven good ears. And I spoke to the magicians, but not one is making known the meaning to me.
25 And Joseph said to Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one. Elohim has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do.
26 The seven good cows, they are seven years and the seven good ears, they are seven years; the dream is one (echad).
27 And the seven thin and evil-appearing cows going up after them, they are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted by the east wind will be seven years of famine.
28 This is the word that I spoke to Pharaoh: what Elohim is about to do,
He has made Pharaoh see.
29 Behold! Seven years of great plenty are coming in all the land of Egypt.
30 And seven years of famine will arise after them and all the plenty of the land of Egypt will be forgotten; and the famine will consume the land.
31 And the plenty in the land will not be remembered because of that famine afterwards; for it will be very severe.
32 And as to the dream being repeated to Pharaoh twice, the thing is settled because it is from Elohim, and Elohim is hastening to do it.
33 And now let Pharaoh look for a man who is intelligent and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh act and let him appoint rulers over the land and take a fifth of the land of Egypt in the seven years of plenty.

35 And let them gather all the food of these coming good years. And let them heap up grain under Pharaoh's hand as food in the cities, and let them keep it.

36 And let the food be for a store for the land, for the seven years of famine which will be in the land of Egypt and let not the land be cut off by famine.

37 And the word was good in Pharaoh's eyes, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 And Pharaoh said to his servants, Can we find any man like this, in whom the Spirit of Elohim is in?

39 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Since Elohim has taught you all this, there is no one wise and intelligent like you.

40 You shall be over my house, and at your mouth shall be ordered all my people. Only in respect to the throne will I be greater than you.

41 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Behold, I have set you over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand and put it on the hand of Joseph; and he clothed him with fine linen robes, and put a golden chain on his neck.

43 And he caused him to ride in a chariot which was the second to him. And they cried before him, Bow the knee! And he put him over all the land of Egypt.[1]

44 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without a word from you not a man shall lift his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaoh called Joseph by the name of Tzaphnath-Paaneah. And He gave him Asenath the daughter of Potipherah, priest of On, for a wife. And Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

46 And Joseph was a son of thirty years as he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the face of Pharaoh and passed over in all the land of Egypt.

47 And the land produced by handfuls in the seven years of plenty.

48 And he gathered all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and he put food in the cities, the food of the field which is around each city he put in among it.

49 And Joseph heaped up grain like the sand of the sea, exceedingly much, until he ceased to count it, because it was without number.

50 And two sons were born to Joseph before the year of the famine came in, whom Asenath the daughter of Potipherah, priest of On, bore to him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the first-born Manasseh; for Elohim has made me forget all my toil, and all the house of my father.

52 And the name of the second he called Ephraim; for Elohim has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 And the seven years of plenty which were in the land of Egypt were ended.

54 And the seven years of famine began to come, according as Joseph had said. And the famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And all the land of Egypt hungered and the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said to all Egypt, Go to Joseph; what he says to you, do.

56 And the famine was on the face of all the land. And Joseph opened all which was in them, and sold to the Egyptians. And the famine was strong in the land of Egypt.

57 And all the earth came to Egypt to buy, to Joseph. For the famine was strong in all the earth.

Chapter 42

1 And Jacob saw that grain was in Egypt. And Jacob said to his sons, Why do you look at each other?

2 And he said, Behold! I have heard grain is in Egypt. Go down there and buy for us from there, that we may live and not die.

3 And Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt.

4 And Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with his brothers, for he said, Lest harm happen to him.

5 And among those coming, the sons of Israel came to buy. For the famine was in the land of Canaan.

6 And Joseph was the governor over the land, the one selling to all the people of the earth. And Joseph's brothers came in and bowed to him, face down to the earth.

7 And Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them; but he remained a stranger to them and spoke harsh things to them, and said to them, From where have you come? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food.

8 And Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him.

9 And Joseph remembered the dreams which he had dreamed about them. And he said to them, You are spies! You have come in to see the bareness of the land.

10 And they said to him, No, my master, but your servants have come to buy food.

11 We are all of us sons of one man; we are honest; your servants are not spies.

12 And he said to them, No, but you have come to see the bareness of the land.

13 And they said, Your servants are twelve brothers; we are sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, lo, the youngest is with our father today; and one is not.

14 And Joseph said to them, This is that which I have spoken to you, saying, You are spies!

15 By this you shall be tested. As Pharaoh lives you shall not go out from here except your younger brother comes in here.

16 Send one of you and let him bring your brother; and you be bound, and let your words be proven, whether truth is with you. And if not, as Pharaoh lives, surely you are spies.

17 And he gathered them into custody three days.

18 And on the third day Joseph said to them, Do this and live. I fear Elohim.

19 If you are honest, let one of your brothers be bound in your prison house, and you go bring grain for the famine of your houses.

20 And you bring your youngest brother to me, and let your words be true, and you shall not die. And so they did.

21 And they said each to his brother, We are truly guilty because of our brother whom we saw in distress of his soul, when he begged us, and we did not hear. So this distress has come to us.

22 And Reuben replied to them, saying, Did I not speak to you, saying, Do not sin against the youth, and you did not listen? And, behold, his blood is also required.

23 And they did not know that Joseph heard, for the interpreter was between them.

24 And he turned away from them and wept, and returned to them and spoke to them. And he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.

25 And Joseph commanded, and they filled their vessels with grain and returned their silver, each into his sack, and gave to them food for the way; and he did so to them.

26 And they lifted their grain on their donkeys and walked from there.

27 And one opened his sack to give fodder to his donkey in the camp, and he saw his silver. And, behold! It was in the mouth of his sack!

28 And he said to his brothers, My silver has been put back, and also look in my sack. And their hearts went out, and they were each terrified, saying to his brother, What is this Elohim has done to us?

29 And they came to their father Jacob to the land of Canaan. And they told him all that met them, saying,

30 The man, the master of the land, spoke harsh things to us and considered us as spies in the land.

31 And we said to him, We are honest; we are not spies.

32 We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; the one is not, and the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan.

33 And the man, the lord of the land, said to us, By this I shall know that you are honest; leave your one brother with me, and take and go for the famine of your houses.

34 And bring your youngest brother to me, and I may know that you are not spies, but you are honest. I will give your brother to you and you may trade in the land.

35 And it happened. They were emptying their sacks, and, behold, each one's bundle of silver was in his sack; and they saw the bundles of their silver, and they were afraid.

36 And their father Jacob said to them, You have bereaved me. Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and will you take Benjamin? All of these are against me.

37 And Reuben spoke to his father, saying, You may kill my two sons if I do not bring him to you. Give him into my hand, and I will return him to you.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. And if harm should happen to him in the way in which you go, you would bring down my gray hair in sorrow to the grave.

Chapter 43

1 And the famine was severe in the land.

2 And it happened, when they had finished eating the grain which they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, Go back; buy a little food for us.

3 And Judah spoke to him, saying, The man fiercely repeated and gave warning, saying to us, You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.

4 And if you are sending our brother with us, we will go down and buy food for you.

5 And if you are not sending, we will not go; for the man said to us, You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.

6 And Israel said, Why did you do evil to me to tell the man you still had a brother?

7 And they said, The man keenly asked about us and about our kindred, saying, Is your father still alive? Is there a brother to you? And we said to him on the mouth of these words. Could we know certainly that he would say, Bring down your brother?

8 And Judah said to his father Israel, Send the youth with me, and let us rise up and go, and we may live and not die, both we, and you, and our little ones.

9 I will be surety for him; you may require him from my hand. If I do not bring him to you and set him before you, I shall be a sinner against you all the days.
10 If we had not delayed, truly now we would have returned this twice.
11 And their father Israel said to them, If it be so, then do this: take from the produce of the land in your vessels and bring down a present to the man, a little balm, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts and almonds.
12 And take double silver in your hand, and the silver they put back in the mouth of your sacks, take back in your hand; perhaps it was an oversight.
13 And take your brother and rise up; return to the man.
14 And may Elohim Almighty give mercy to you before the man; and may he send your other brother to you, and Benjamin. And if I am bereaved, I am bereaved.
15 And the men took this present, and they took double silver in their hand, and Benjamin. And they rose up and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.
16 And Joseph saw Benjamin with them. And he said to the one over his house, Bring the men into the house and slaughter and prepare an animal; for the men shall eat with me at noon.
17 And the man did as Joseph said. And the man brought the men into Joseph's house.
18 And the men were afraid because they were brought into Joseph's house. And they said, Because of the silver that was returned in our sacks before, we are being brought in, to throw himself on us and to fall on us, and to take us and our donkeys for slaves.
19 And they came near to the man who was over Joseph's house and spoke to him at the door of the house.
20 And they said, Oh my master, surely we came before to buy food.
21 And it happened, when we came to the camp and opened our sacks, behold, the silver of each one was in the mouth of his sack; our silver in its weight. And we bring it back in our hand.
22 And we have brought other silver in our hand to buy food. We do not know who put our silver in our sacks.
23 And he said, Peace to you; do not fear; your Elohim and the Elohe of your father has given a treasure to you in your sacks; your silver came to me. And he brought Simeon out to them.
24 And the man led out the men to Joseph's house. And he gave water, and they washed their feet. And he gave fodder for their donkeys.
25 And they prepared the present for the coming of Joseph at noon. For they had heard that they would eat bread there.
26 And Joseph came into the house. And they brought the present in their hand to him, into the house. And they bowed to him, to the earth.
27 And he asked them of their welfare, and said, Is there peace to your father, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?
28 And they said, Peace is to your servant, to our father; he still lives. And they fell down and bowed.
29 And he raised his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, the son of his mother. And he said, Is this your youngest brother of whom you spoke to me? And he said, May Elohim favor you, my son.
30 And Joseph hurried, for his emotions were deeply moved toward his brother. And he sought a place to weep; and he came into the inner room and wept there.

31 And he washed his face and controlled himself, and went out and said, Set out bread.

32 And they set out for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians eating with him by themselves. For the Egyptians cannot eat bread with the Hebrews; for it is an abomination in Egypt.

33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the younger according to his youth. And the men were astonished, each to his neighbor.

34 And one carried portions from before him to them, and Benjamin's portion was greater than the portions of all of them, five times as much. And they drank and were drunken with him.

Chapter 44

1 And he commanded the one over his house, saying, Fill the sacks of the men with food, as much as they are able to carry; and put the silver of each one in the mouth of his sack.

2 And put my cup, the cup of silver, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and the silver for his grain. And he did according to Joseph's word, that which he spoke.

3 At the morning light, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.

4 They had gone out from the city, not having gone far, and Joseph said to the one over his house, Rise up, pursue the men and overtake them, and say to them, Why have you repaid evil for good?

5 Is this not that in which my master usually drinks in, and surely he divines by it? You have done evil in what you have done.

6 And he overtook them and spoke these words to them.

7 And they said to him, Why should my master speak according to these words? Far be it from your servants to do according to this word.

8 See the silver which we found in the mouth of our sacks, we returned to you from the land of Canaan. And how should we steal silver or gold from the house of your master?

9 With whomever it may be found, with him of your servants, he shall die; and we also will become slaves to my lord.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according to your words; with whomever it is found with him, he shall become a slave to me, and you shall be innocent.

11 And they hurried, and each one brought down his sack to the earth. And each one opened his sack.

12 And he searched, with the oldest first, and with the youngest last, and the cup was found in the sack of Benjamin.

13 And they tore their clothes; and they each one loaded his donkey and returned to the city.

14 And Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there. And they fell before him to the earth.

15 And Joseph said to them, What is this deed which you have done? Did you not know that a man like me would practice divination?

16 And Judah said, What can we say to my master? What can we speak, and in what can we justify ourselves? Elohim has found out the iniquity of your servants; behold, we are slaves to my master, both we and he in whose hand the cup was found.

17 And he said, Far be it from me to do this. The man in whose hand the cup was found, he shall become a slave to me; and you go up in peace to your father.

18 And Judah came near to him and said, O my master, please let your servant speak a word in the ears of my master, and let not your anger glow on our servant, for you are like Pharaoh.

19 My master asked his servants, saying, Is there a brother or a father to
you?
20 And we said to my master, An aged father is to us, and a young child of his old age; and his brother is dead;
and he alone is left of his mother; and his father loves him.
21 And you said to your servants,
Bring him down to me, and let me see
him.
22 And we said to my master, The youth is not able to leave his father; and if he should leave his father, he will die.
23 And you said to your servants, If your youngest brother does not come down with you, you shall not see my face any more.
24 And it happened, when we had gone up to your servant, my father, we told him the words of my master.
25 And our father said, Go back, buy a little food for us.
26 And we said, We cannot go down.
If our youngest brother is with us, we will go down. For we cannot see the face of the man if our youngest brother is not with us.
27 And your servant, my father, said to us, You know that my wife bore two to me.
28 And one went out from me. And I said, Indeed, surely, he is torn in pieces; and I have not seen him until now.
29 And if you take this one also from my face, and harm happens to him, you will bring down my gray hair to the grave in sorrow.
30 And now when I come to your servant, my father, and the youth is not with us and his soul being bound to his soul, 31 it will be when he sees that the youth is not, he will die. And your servants will bring down the gray hair of your servant our father to the grave in sorrow.
32 For your servant was surety for the youth with my father, saying, If I do not bring him to you, I shall be a sinner against my father all the days.
33 And now please let your servant remain as a slave to my master instead of the youth; and let the youth go up with his brothers.
34 For how can I go to my father, and the youth not be with me, lest I look on the evil which will find my father?

Chapter 45

1 And Joseph was not able to control himself in regard to those standing beside him. And he called out, Cause every man to go out from me. And no man stood before him as Joseph was making himself known to his brothers.
2 And he wept aloud; and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.
3 And Joseph said to his brothers, I am Joseph. Is my father still alive? And his brothers were not able to answer him, for they trembled before him.
4 And Joseph said to his brothers,
Now come near to me. And they came near. And he said, I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt.
5 And now do not be grieved, and let no anger be in your eyes because you sold me here, for Elohim sent me before you to save life.
6 For the famine has been in the midst of the land for two years. And there are still five years in which no plowing and harvest will be.
7 And Elohim sent me before you to put a remnant in the land for you, and to keep alive for you a great deliverance.
8 And now you did not send me here, but Elohim. And He has placed me for a father to Pharaoh, and for a master in all his house, and a ruler in all the land of Egypt.

9 Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, So says your son Joseph, Elohim has placed me as a master to all Egypt. Come down to me, do not delay.

10 And you shall live in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near to me, you and your sons and sons of your sons, and your flocks, and your herds, and all you have.

11 And I will nourish you there, for there are still five years of famine; lest you be made poor, you and your house and all which abides with you.

12 And behold, your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that my mouth is speaking to you.

13 And you tell my father of all my honor in Egypt, and all that you have seen. And hurry and bring down my father here.

14 And he fell on the neck of his brother Benjamin and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck.

15 And he kissed all his brothers, and wept on them. And afterwards his brothers spoke with him.

16 And the report was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, The brothers of Joseph have come. And it was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants.

17 Pharaoh said to Joseph, Say to your brothers, Do this; load your animals and depart; go to the land of Canaan.

18 And take your father, and your houses, and come to me. And I will give to you the good of the land of Egypt; and you shall eat the fat of the land.

19 And you are commanded; you do this: Take for yourselves wagons from the land of Egypt, for your little ones, and for your wives. And take your father and come.

20 And your eye, let it have no regard for your vessels, for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.

21 And the sons of Israel did so. And Joseph gave wagons to them according to the mouth of Pharaoh, and he gave provisions to them for the way.

22 He gave to all of them, to each one, changes of clothing. And he gave to Benjamin three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of clothing.

23 And to his father he sent this: ten donkeys bearing the good things of Egypt, and ten she-donkeys bearing grain, and bread, and food for his father for the way.

24 And he sent his brothers away; and they went. And he said to them, Do not quarrel along the way.

25 And they went up from Egypt and came into the land of Canaan, to their father Jacob.

26 And they told him, saying, Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler in all the land of Egypt. And his heart froze up, for he did not believe them.

27 And they spoke to him all Joseph's words which he had spoken to them. And he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him; and the spirit of their father Jacob revived.

28 And Israel said, It is enough! My son Joseph is alive; I will go and see him before I die.

Chapter 46

1 And Israel and all which were to him departed, and he came to Beer-Sheba. And he sacrificed sacrifices to the Elohe of his father Isaac.

2 And Elohim said to Israel in visions of the night, and He spoke, Jacob! Jacob! And he answered, I am here.

3 And He said, I am Elohe, The El of your fathers. Do not fear to go down into Egypt, for I will make of you a great nation there.

4 I will go down with you into Egypt, and I will also surely return you. And Joseph shall put his hand on your eyes.

5 And Jacob rose up from Beer-Sheba; and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob, and their little ones, and their wives in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their livestock and their property which they had acquired in the land of Canaan. And they came into Egypt, Jacob and all his seed with him.

7 His sons and the sons of his sons were with him, his daughters and his sons' daughters, and all his seed he brought with him into Egypt.

8 And these were the names of the sons of Israel, those coming into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: the first-born of Jacob was Reuben.

9 And the sons of Reuben: Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.

10 And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanitess.

11 And the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

12 And the sons of Judah: Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zerah. And Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez: Hezron, and Hamul.

13 And the sons of Issachar: Tola, and Phuvah, and Job, and Shimron.

14 And the sons of Zebulun: Sered, and Elon, and Jahleel.

15 These were the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Padan-Aram, and his daughter Dinah. All the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty three.

16 And the sons of Gad: Ziphion, and Haggi, Shuni, and Ezbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.

17 And the sons of Asher: Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Ishvi, and Beriah, and their sister Serah. And the sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.

18 These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah; and she bore these to Jacob, sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rachel the wife of Jacob: Joseph and Benjamin.

20 And Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph in the land of Egypt, whom Asenath the daughter of Potipherah, priest of On, bore to him.

21 And the sons of Benjamin: Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, and Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard.

22 These were the sons of Rachel which were born to Jacob; all the souls were fourteen.

23 And the son of Dan was Hushim.

24 And the sons of Naphtali: Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shillem.

25 These were the sons of Bilhah whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel; and she bore these to Jacob, all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls belonging to Jacob coming into Egypt, those springing from his loins, besides the wives of the sons of Jacob, all the souls were sixty six.

27 And the sons of Joseph which were born to him in Egypt, two souls. All the souls belonging to the house of Jacob coming into Egypt were seventy-five.

28 And he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to give directions before him to Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 And Joseph prepared his chariot and went up to meet his father Israel to Goshen. And he appeared to him, and fell on his neck and wept on his neck a long time.

30 And Israel said to Joseph, This time let me die after seeing your face, because you are still alive.

31 And Joseph said to his brothers, and to the house of his father, I will go up and report to Pharaoh. And I will say to him, my brothers and the house of my father, who were in the land of Canaan, have come in to me.

32 And the men are shepherds of flocks for they have been men of cattle. And their flocks and their herds, and all which belongs to them they have brought in.

33 And it shall be, when Pharaoh calls to you and says, What is your occupation?

34 You shall say, Your servants have been men of livestock from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers. This is so that you may live in the land of Goshen. For the abomination of Egypt is every shepherd of flocks.

Chapter 47

1 And Joseph came in and made known to Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brothers, and their flocks and their herds, and all which is theirs, have come in from the land of Canaan.

2 And, behold, they are in the land of Goshen. And he took five men from among his brothers and set them before Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said to his brothers, What is your occupation? And they said to Pharaoh, Your servants are shepherds of flocks, both we and our fathers.

4 And they said to Pharaoh, We have come in to stay in the land, because there is no pasture for the flocks which belong to your servants, for the famine is heavy in the land of Canaan. And now please let your servants live in the land of Goshen.

5 And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, Your father and your brothers have come in to you.

6 The land of Egypt is before you; cause your father and your brothers to live in the best of the land; let them live in the land of Goshen. And if you know men of ability among them, make them chiefs of livestock over what is mine.

7 And Joseph brought in his father Jacob and placed him before Pharaoh. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

8 And Pharaoh said to Jacob, How many are the days of the years of your life?

9 And Jacob said to Pharaoh, The days of the years of my camps are a hundred and thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life and they have not reached the days of the years of the life of my fathers, in the days of their camps.

10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 And Joseph caused his father and his brothers to live, and gave them a place in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Ramses, as Pharaoh commanded.

12 And Joseph nourished his father and his brothers, and all his father's house with bread for the mouth of the little ones.

13 And no bread was in the land, because the famine was exceedingly severe. And the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan were completely burned up from the famine.

14 And Joseph gathered up all the silver found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan in return for the grain they were buying. And Joseph brought in the silver to the house of Pharaoh.

15 And the silver failed from the land of Egypt, and from the land of Canaan. And all Egypt came in to Joseph, saying, Give us bread; and, Why should we die before you? For the silver has failed.

16 And Joseph said, Give your livestock, and I will give to you for your livestock, if silver has failed.

17 And they brought in their livestock to Joseph. And Joseph gave bread to them for the horses, and for the livestock of the flocks, for the livestock of the herds, and for the donkeys. And he satisfied them with bread in that year for all their livestock.
18 And that year ended, and they came in to him in the second year and said to him, We cannot hide from my master that the silver and the livestock of the animals have failed, going to my master. Nothing is left before my master except our bodies and our lands.
19 Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread; and let us, we and our land, become slaves to Pharaoh. And give seed so that we may live and not die, and the land not be desolate.
20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, because each one in Egypt sold his field, because this famine was severe on them; and the land became Pharaoh's.
21 And as for the people, he caused them to pass over into the cities, and from the end of the border of Egypt to its other end.
22 Only he did not buy the land of the priests; for Pharaoh had appointed a portion for the priests, and they usually ate their appointed portion which Pharaoh gave to them. For this reason they did not sell their land.
23 And Joseph said to the people, Behold, I have bought you and your land today. Behold! Here is seed for you; and you sow the land.
24 And it shall be, as you gather you shall give a fifth part to Pharaoh; and four parts shall be yours, for the seed of the field and for your food, and for those in your houses, and for food for your little ones.
25 And they said, You have saved our lives; let us find favor in the eyes of my master, and we will become slaves to Pharaoh.
26 And Joseph made it a law until this day on the land of Egypt, the fifth part is for Pharaoh; only the land of the priests being excepted; it did not become Pharaoh's.
27 And Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen. And they owned in it, and were fruitful, and multiplied exceedingly.
28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. And the days of Jacob, the years of his life were a hundred and forty seven years.
29 And the days of Israel to die drew near. And he called to his son Joseph and said to him, Now if I have found favor in your eyes, please put your hand under my thigh, and do kindness and truth with me. Please do not bury me in Egypt;
30 but let me lie with my fathers, and carry me from Egypt, and bury me in their burying place. And he said, I will do according to your words.
31 And he said, Swear to me. And he swore to him. And Israel bowed on the head of the bed.

Chapter 48

1 And after these things it happened, one said to Joseph, Behold, your father is sick. And he took his two sons with him, Manasseh and Ephraim.
2 And one spoke to Jacob and said, Behold, your son Joseph has come to you. And Israel took strength and sat on the bed.
3 And Jacob said to Joseph, El Shaddai [1] appeared to me in Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me, 4 and said to me, Behold, I will make you fruitful and will multiply you, and will give you a multitude of peoples. And I will give this land to your seed after you as a continual possession.

[1] El Shaddai means El Almighty

5 And now your two sons, those born to you in the land of Egypt before my coming to you in Egypt, are mine, Ephraim and Manasseh, like Reuben and Simeon, even they shall be mine.

6 And your offspring which you father after them, they shall be yours. According to the name of their brothers they shall be called in their inheritance.[1]

7 And I, when I came from Padan, Rachel died on me in the land of Canaan in the way, with only a little way to come to Ephrath. And I buried her there in the way to Ephrath, it being Bethlehem.

8 And Israel saw the sons of Joseph, and he said, Who are these?

9 And Joseph said to his father, They are my sons, whom Elohim has given to me here. And he said, Now bring them to me and I will bless them.

10 And the eyes of Israel were heavy from age, he not being able to see. And he brought them near to him. And he kissed them and embraced them.

11 And Israel said to Joseph, I did not think to see your face, and, behold, Elohim also causes me to see your seed.

12 And Joseph brought them out from his knees; and he bowed his face to the earth.

13 And Joseph took both of them, Ephraim in his right hand, to the left of Israel; and Manasseh in his left hand, to the right of Israel. And he brought them to him.

14 And Israel sent forth his right hand and put it on the head of Ephraim; and he was the younger. And he put his left hand on the head of Manasseh, crossing his hands; for Manasseh was the first-born.

15 And he blessed Joseph and said, The Elohim before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the Elohim who has fed me since I was born until today;

16 The Messenger that redeemed me from every evil, may He bless the youths; and may my name be called on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and may they like fishes grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 And Joseph saw that his father was putting his right hand on the head of Ephraim; and it was evil in his eyes. And he took hold of his father's hand to turn it from Ephraim's head to the head of Manasseh.

18 And Joseph said to his father, Not so, my father! For this one is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head.

19 And his father refused and said, I know, my son, I know. He also shall be a people, and he shall become great. But his younger brother shall become greater than he, and his seed shall become the fullness of the nations.[2]

20 And he blessed them in that day, saying, In you shall Israel bless, saying, May Elohim make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh.

21 And Israel said to Joseph, See, I am dying; and Elohim will be with you, and will return you to the land of your fathers.

22 And I will give to you one spur of land beyond your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

[1] Ephraim and Manasseh were literally adopted by Jacob and became Joseph's double portion for his birthright now having 2 tribes out of 13.

[2] Ephraim would go into captivity and lose his identity and his calling back into covenant relationship from his Diaspora in the last days would be the fullness of the nations. See Ro 11:25-26.

Chapter 49

1 And Jacob called his sons and said, Gather yourselves and I will tell you what will happen to you in the latter days.
2 Gather yourselves and hear, sons of Jacob; yea, listen to your father Israel:
3 Reuben, you are my first-born, my strength and the first-fruit of my power; excellence of dignity and excellence of might.
4 Like boiling water you shall not excel, for you went up to the bed of your father; then you defiled it; he went up to my couch.
5 Simeon and Levi, brothers; their weapons are instruments of violence.
6 Let not my soul come into their counsel; let not my spirit be joined to their company. For in their anger they killed a man; and in self-will they lamed an ox.
7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel. I will divide them in Jacob, and I will scatter them in Israel.[1]
8 Judah, may your brothers praise you, your hand be on the neck of your enemies. May the sons of your father bow themselves to you.[2] (Zech 12:6)
9 Judah is a lion's whelp. My son, you have risen up from the prey; he stoops, he crouches like a lion; and like a lioness, who can rouse him? (Rev 5:5)

1 Simeon wound up getting a portion from the land of Judah that was mostly desert and later mostly assimilated into the other tribal regions.

2 The kingship in Israel came from Judah fulfilling this verse.

3 Verses 9-10 show that the kingly line was promised to come through Judah and so the Lion of Judah (Yahshua) would be born from this tribe and have universal rule, Ps 2:8, Dan 7:13-14, is 42:1-4, Rev 5:5,9.

4 Verses 11-12- show the bountifulness of blessing promised to Judah. Wine is a rare commodity used for feasts and special times of celebration but Judah will wash clothes in good wine showing the continual blessing that would be afforded to them.

5 Samson came from the tribe of Dan, Ju 13:2 The tribe of Dan also officially brought idol worship into Israel, Jud 18:30-31.

6 Because Gad was located on the eastern side of the Jordan, they were vulnerable to attack by the Moabites to the south of them.

23 And the masters of arrows harass him, and shoot, and an archer lurks for
him.
24 His bow abides in strength, and the hands of his arms are made agile by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, from the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel.
25 From the El of your father, may He help you. And may the Almighty bless you with blessings of Heaven from above, blessings of the deep that lies beneath, blessings of the breasts

26 The blessings of your father are above the blessings of my offspring, to the limit of everlasting hills; may they be for the head of Joseph and for the crown of the one separated [2]of his brothers.

the morning he devours the prey, and at evening he divides the spoil.[3] 28 All these were the tribes of Israel, two and ten. And this is what their father spoke to them. And he blessed them, each one with what was according to his blessing, he blessed
them.
29 And he commanded them, and said to them, I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me beside my fathers, at the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite, 30 in the cave in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, the field which Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite for a burying place.
31 They buried Abraham and his wife Sarah there, and they buried Isaac and his wife Rebekah; and I buried Leah
there;
32 the purchase of the field and the cave in it, from the sons of Heth.
33 And Jacob finished commanding his sons, and he gathered his feet into the bed. And he expired, and was gathered to his people.

Chapter 50

1 And Joseph fell on the face of his father and wept on him, and kissed
him.
2 And Joseph commanded the physicians, his servants, to embalm his father; and the physicians embalmed
Israel.
3 And forty days were fulfilled, for so are fulfilled the days of those embalmed. And Egypt wept for him seventy days.
4 And the days of his weeping passed by, and Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, Now if I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,
5 My father made me swear, saying,
Lo, I am dying; you shall bury me there in the grave which I have dug for myself in the land of Canaan. And now please let me go up and bury my father, and return.
6 And Pharaoh said, Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear.
7 And Joseph went up to bury his father; and all the servants of Pharaoh went up with him, the elders of his house, even all the elders of the land of Egypt,
8 and all the house of Joseph and his brothers, and the house of his father.
Only, they left their little ones and their flocks and their herds in the land of Goshen.
9 And both horsemen and chariots

[1] Joseph had the double blessing of the birthright and his son 's name Ephraim means fruitfulness.

[2] The word separated here is the Hebrew word "nazeer" which is a form from Nazerene.

went up with him; and the company was very great.

10 And they came as far as the threshing floor of thorns, which is on the other side of the Jordan. And they mourned there with a great and very heavy mourning. And he made a heavy wailing for his father seven days.

11 And those living in the land, the Canaanites, saw the wailing in the grain floor of thorns. And they said, This is a very great wailing to Egypt; for this reason its name was called Abel Mizraim [1], which is on the other side of Jordan.

12 And his sons did to him as he had commanded them.

13 And his sons carried him to the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah; the field which Abraham bought for a burying place from Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 And after he buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers, and all those going up with him to bury his father.

15 And Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead. And they said, What if Joseph should bear a grudge against us and surely should repay us all the evil which we did to him?

16 And they sent a message to Joseph, saying,

17 Your father commanded before his death, saying, So you shall say to Joseph, Please lift up now the rebellion of your brothers, and their sin; for they did evil to you. And now please lift up the rebellion of the servants of the Elohim of your father. And Joseph wept when they spoke to him.

18 His brothers also went and fell down before his face. And they said, Behold, we are your servants.

19 And Joseph said to them, Do not fear. For am I in the place of Elohim?

20 And you, you intended evil against me, but Elohim meant it for good, in order to make it as it is this day, to keep a great many people alive.

21 And now do not fear; I will nourish you and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spoke to their hearts.

22 And Joseph lived in Egypt, he and the house of his father. And Joseph lived a hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph saw the sons of Ephraim to the third generation. Also the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh were born on Joseph's knees.

24 And Joseph said to his brothers, I am dying, and Elohim visiting will visit you and bring you up from this land to the land which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

25 And Joseph made the sons of Israel swear, saying, Elohim surely will visit you, and you will bring up my bones from here.

26 And Joseph died, a son of a hundred and ten years. And they embalmed him, and put him in a coffin in Egypt.

The Book of Exodus (Shemoth)

Chapter 1

1 And these were the names of the sons of Israel who came into Egypt with Jacob; they each one came in with his house:
2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,
3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,
4 Dan, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.
5 And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy-five souls, Joseph being in Egypt.
6 And Joseph died, and all his brothers and all that generation.
7 And the sons of Israel were fruitful and increased very much, and multiplied, and became very strong; and the land was filled with them.
8 And a new king arose over Egypt, who had not known Joseph.
9 And he said to his people, Behold, the people of the sons of Israel are many and stronger than we.
10 Come, let us deal craftily towards them, lest they multiply and it shall be that when war occurs they will also add to our enemies, and will fight against us and go up from the land.
11 And they put over them slavemasters in order to afflict them with their burdens. And he built store cities for Pharaoh: Pithon and Raamses.
12 And as much as they afflicted them, so much they multiplied and so much they spread. And they were afraid before the sons of Israel.
13 And Egypt made the sons of Israel to serve with harshness.
14 And they made their lives bitter by hard service, in clay, and in bricks, and in all work in the field; all their work which they made them do with harshness.
15 And the king of Egypt said to the midwives of the Hebrews, of whom the name of one was Shiphrah, and the name of the second, Puah;
16 and he said, When you midwife the Hebrew women, and look on the birth-stools, if it is a son, you will kill him; and if it is a daughter, it shall live.
17 And the midwives feared Elohim, and they did not do as the king of Egypt said to them. And they kept the male children alive.
18 And the king of Egypt called to the midwives and said to them, Why do you do this thing and keep alive the male children?
19 And the midwives said to Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women, for they are vigorous. Before the midwives come to them they bear.
20 And Elohim dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied and became exceedingly strong.
21 And it was, because the midwives feared Elohim, He made houses for them.
22 And Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, Every son that is born, you shall cast him into the river. And you shall keep alive every daughter.

Chapter 2

1 And a man went from the house of Levi and took a daughter of Levi.
2 And the woman conceived and bore a son; and she saw him, that he was beautiful. And she concealed him three months.
3 And she was not able to hide him any longer, and she took a basket[1] for him made of papyrus, and she daubed it with bitumen and with pitch. And she put the child in it, and placed it in the reeds by the lip of the Nile.
4 And his sister took her stand from

[1] The Hebrew word used here is "tebah" and was used in Gen 6:14 for the word for ark. The mother used bitumen and pitch as Noah did to make his ark. (Gen 6:14)

a distance, to know what would be done to him.

5 And the daughter of Pharaoh went down to bathe at the Nile. And her slave women were walking on the side of the Nile. And she saw the basket in the midst of the reeds, and sent her slave-girl and took it.

6 And she opened it and saw the child, and, behold, a boy crying! And she had pity on him and said, This one is of the children of the Hebrews.

7 And his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call a woman for you, a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the girl went and called the child's mother.

9 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give your wages. And the woman took the child and nursed him.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him to the daughter of Pharaoh. And he became a son to her, and she called his name Moses, and said, Because I drew him out of the water.

11 And it happened in those days, when Moses was grown, and he went out to his brothers and looked upon their burdens. And he saw an Egyptian man strike a Hebrew man of his brothers.

12 And he turned here and there and saw that no man was there. And he struck the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.

13 And he went out on the second day, and, behold, two men, Hebrews, were fighting. And he said to the guilty one, Why should you strike your neighbor?

14 And he said, Who appointed you as a man, a ruler and a judge over us? Are you saying to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely the thing is known.

15 And Pharaoh heard this word, and he sought to kill Moses. And Moses fled from before Pharaoh, and lived in the land of Midian. And he sat down by the well.

16 And the priest of Midian had seven daughters. And they came and drew and filled the troughs to water their father's flocks.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away; and Moses rose up and saved them, and watered their flocks.

18 And they came to their father Reuel; and he said, Why have you hurried to come today?

19 And they said, An Egyptian man rescued us from the hand of the shepherds, and he even drew for us and watered the flock.

20 And he said to his daughters, And where is he? Why then have you left the man? Call him, and let him eat bread.

21 And Moses consented to live with the man; and he gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses.

22 And she bore a son, and he called his name Gershom; for he said, I have become an alien in a foreign land.

23 And it happened after many days that the king of Egypt died, and the sons of Israel groaned from the slavery. And they cried, and their cry went up to Elohim from the slavery.

24 And Elohim heard their groaning, and Elohim remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25 And Elohim saw the sons of Israel, and Elohim understood them.

Chapter 3

1 And Moses was tending the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. And he led the flock behind the wilderness and came to the mountain of the Elohim, to Horeb.

2 And the Messenger of YAHWEH[1] appeared to him in a flame of fire from the middle of a thorn bush. And he looked, and behold, the thorn bush was burning with fire, and the thorn bush was not burned up! (Acts 7:35)
3 And Moses said, I will turn aside now and see this great sight, why the thorn bush is not burned up.
4 And YAHWEH saw that he turned aside to see, and Elohim called to him from the midst of the thorn bush, and said, Moses! Moses! And he said, I am here.
5 And He said, Do not come near here. Pull off your sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.
6 And He said, I am the Elohim of your fathers, the Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Isaac, and the Elohim of Jacob. And Moses hid his face, for he feared to look upon the Elohim.
7 And YAHWEH said, Surely, I have seen the affliction of My people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their cry from before their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows.
8 And I have come down to deliver them from the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land to a good and broad land, to a land flowing with milk and honey[2]; to the place of the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Jebusite.
9 And now, behold, the cry of the sons of Israel has come to Me, and I also have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians are oppressing
them.
10 And now, come, and I will send you to Pharaoh, and you bring My people out, the sons of Israel out of Egypt.
11 And Moses said to the Elohim,
Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring out the sons of Israel from Egypt?
12 And He said, I will be with you, and this shall be the sign for you that I have sent you, when you bring out the people from Egypt: You shall serve Elohim on this mountain.
13 And Moses said to the Elohim,
Behold, I shall come to the sons of Israel and say to them, the Elohe of your fathers has sent me to you; and they will say to me, What is His name?
What shall I say to them?
14 And Elohim said to Moses, EHYAH ASHER EHYAH (I AM THAT I AM); and He said, You shall say this to the sons of Israel, EHYAH (I AM) has sent me to you.[3]
15 And Elohim said to Moses again[4],
You shall say this to the sons of Israel,
YAHWEH, the Elohe of your fathers, the Elohe of Abraham, the Elohe of Isaac, and the Elohe of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My name forever, and this is how I should be remembered from generation to generation[5]. (Deut 6:13, Ex 20:7) 16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel and say to them, YAHWEH, the Elohe

[1] As we know from the Brit Hadashah (New Testament) no man has ever seen Yahweh the Father and clearly the Messenger of YHWH is Yahshua His Son.

[2] Israel went as shepherds in Egypt to farmers in Israel. Here, showing a land of "milk and honey" is showing the abundance of food and drink for both them and their animals, a shepherds dream.

[3] Literally, I will be what I will be. This verse used the past, present and future verb tense, showing who was, who is and who is to come, the Eternal Yahweh.

[4] The fact that in Hebrew it mentions Elohim speaking again indicates that possibly 2 different people are speaking. Elohim the Father and Elohim the Son.

of your fathers has appeared to me, the Elohe of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, visiting I have visited you and have seen what is done to you in Egypt.

17 And I have said, I will bring you up from the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite; to a land flowing with milk and honey.

18 And they shall listen to your voice; and you shall come in, you and the elders of Israel to the king of Egypt. And you shall say to him, YAHWEH, the Elohe of the Hebrews has met us; and now, please let us go for a journey of three days into the wilderness, and let us sacrifice to YAHWEH our Elohim.

19 And I know that the king of Egypt will not permit you to go, not even by a strong hand.

20 And I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My wonders, which I will do in its midst, and afterward he will send you away.

21 And I will give this people favor in the eyes of Egypt; and it shall be, when you go, you will not go empty.

22 And each woman shall ask of her neighbor, and from the stranger in her house, articles of silver, and articles of gold, and garments; and you shall put these on your sons and on your daughters. And you shall plunder Egypt.

Chapter 4

1 And Moses answered and said, And, behold, they will not believe me and will not listen to my voice. For they will say, YAHWEH has not appeared to you.

2 And YAHWEH said to him, What is this in your hand? And he said, A staff.

3 And He said, Throw it to the ground. And he threw it to the ground, and it became a hissing creature. And Moses fled from its face.

4 And YAHWEH said to Moses, reach out your hand and take it by the tail. And he sent out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his palm;

5 so that they may believe that YAHWEH the Elohe of their fathers has appeared to you, the Elohe of Abraham, the Elohe of Isaac, and the Elohe of Jacob.

6 And YAHWEH said to him again, Now put your hand into your bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom, and he brought it out, and, behold, his hand was leprous like snow.

7 And He said, Put your hand back into your bosom. And he put his hand back into his bosom, and he brought it out from his bosom; and, behold, it had returned like his flesh!

8 And it shall be, if they will not believe you and will not listen to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the latter sign.

9 And it shall be, if they will not believe these two signs also, and will not listen to your voice, you shall take of the water of the Nile and pour it on the dry land. And the water which you take from the Nile shall become blood on the dry land.

10 And Moses said to YAHWEH, O YAHWEH, I am not a man of words, either from yesterday or the third day,

5 The Heavenly Father reveals His name to be YHWH pronounced as YAHWEH. This name is listed almost 7,000 times in the Tanach (Old Testament) alone and yet almost every bible translation on earth exchanges the sacred name of Yahweh for generic titles and even pagan names such as god and lord. Deut 28:58, 32:3, Is 12:4, Is 25:1, 42:8, 51:15, 59:19, Jer 10:6, 33:2, 2 Chron 6:32, Ps 102:15,21, 124:8.

nor since You have been speaking to Your bondslave. For I am heavy of mouth and heavy of tongue.[1] (Ex 6:10)

11 And YAHWEH said to him, Who has made man's mouth? Or who makes the dumb, or the deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? Is it not I, YAHWEH? (Joh 9:1-3, Ps 94:9)

12 And now go, and I will be with your mouth, and will teach you what you shall speak.

13 And he said, O YAHWEH, please send by the hand of him whom You will send.

14 And the anger of YAHWEH glowed against Moses. And He said, Do I not know your brother, Aaron the Levite, that he can speak well? And, behold, he also is coming out to meet you, and he will see you and be glad in his heart.

15 And you shall speak to him, and you shall put the words in his mouth. And I will be with your mouth, and with his mouth, and I will teach you what you shall do.

16 And he shall speak for you to the people. And it shall be, he shall be a mouth for you, and you shall be a Mighty One[2] for him.

17 And you shall take this staff in your hand by which you do the signs.

18 And Moses went and returned to his father-in-law Jethro, and said to him, Please let me go and return to my brothers who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

19 And YAHWEH said to Moses in Midian, Go! Return to Egypt. For all the men are dead, those seeking your life.

20 And Moses took his wife and his sons and made them ride on a donkey.[3] And he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the staff of the Elohim in his hand.

21 And YAHWEH said to Moses, As you go to return to Egypt, see all the wonders which I have put in your hand, and do them before Pharaoh. And I will harden his heart, and he will not send the people away.

22 And you shall speak to Pharaoh, So says YAHWEH, My son, My first-born is Israel.

23 And I said to you, Send My son away, and let him serve Me; and you refused to send him. Behold, I am about to kill your son, your first-born![4]

24 And it happened on the way, in the lodging place, YAHWEH met him and sought to kill him.

25 And Zipporah took a stone and cut off her son's foreskin, and caused it to touch his feet. And she said, You are a bridegroom of blood to me.

26 And He pulled back from him. Then she said, A bridegroom of blood, for the circumcision.[5]

27 And YAHWEH said to Aaron, Go to the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went and met him in the mountain of The Elohim; and he kissed him.

28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of YAHWEH with which He

1 Moses stuttered.

2 The Hebrew word used here is "Elohim" a generic title for deity and this title is used for YHWH around 2,500 times in scripture and with YHWH's great power behind Moses he would look as if he were an Elohim to Aaron.

3 The donkey is a sign of humility, Zech 9:9, Math 21:1-9.

4 It was decided back with Noah and Abraham that salvation (Yahshua) would come out of the seed of Israel, who is the firstborn to YHWH, Amos 3:2.

5 Verses 24-26 Yahweh's judicial order was that Moses' son should have been circumcised. Elohim had mercy to spare the boy, however Zipporah did not understand the covenant being a Midianite.

had sent him, and all the signs which He had commanded him.

29 And Moses and Aaron went on and gathered all the elders of the sons of Israel.

30 And Aaron spoke all the words which YAHWEH had spoken to Moses. And he did the signs before the people.

31 And the people believed. And they heard that YAHWEH had visited the sons of Israel, and that He had seen their affliction. And they bowed and worshiped.

Chapter 5

1 And afterward Moses and Aaron came in and said to Pharaoh, So says YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel, Send away My people, and they shall feast to Me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharaoh said, Who is YAHWEH that I should listen to His voice to send away Israel? I do not know YAHWEH, and I also will not send Israel away.

3 And they said, The Elohim of the Hebrews has met with us. Now let us go a journey of three days into the wilderness and sacrifice to YAHWEH our Elohim, lest He fall on us with plague or with sword.

4 And the king of Egypt said to them, Moses and Aaron, why do you loose the people from their work? You go to your burdens.

5 And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land are many now, and you make them cease from their burdens.

6 And Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people, and their overseers, that day, saying,

7 You shall not go on giving straw to the people to make bricks, as yesterday and the third day. They shall go and pick up straw for themselves.

8 And the fixed number of bricks which they were making yesterday and the third day you shall put on them. You shall not diminish from it. For they are idle; so they are crying, saying, Let us go, let us sacrifice to our Elohim.

9 Let the bondage be heavy on the men, that they may work in it, and may not trust in the lying words.

10 And the taskmasters of the people, and their overseers went out and spoke to the people, saying, Pharaoh has said this, I will not give you straw.

11 You go take straw for yourselves from wherever you may find it. For not a thing will be reduced from your work.

12 And the people scattered in all the land of Egypt to pick up stubble for straw.

13 And the taskmasters were demanding, saying, Finish your work, the matter of a day in its day, as when there was straw.

14 And the overseers of the sons of Israel were beaten, those whom the taskmasters of Pharaoh had put over them, saying, Why have you not finished your appointed task, to make bricks as a day ago and the day before, both yesterday and today?

15 And the overseers of the sons of Israel came in and cried to Pharaoh, saying, Why do you do this way to your slaves?

16 No straw is given to your slaves, and they are saying to us, Make bricks. And, behold, your slaves are beaten, but your people are at fault.

17 And he said, You are lazy and idle. So you are saying, Let us go, let us sacrifice to YAHWEH.

18 Therefore, go now and work. And straw will not be given to you; and a certain number of bricks you shall deliver.

19 And the overseers of the sons of Israel saw themselves in affliction, saying, You shall not diminish from your bricks, the matter of a day in its day.

20 And they met Moses and Aaron standing to meet them when they came from Pharaoh.

21 And they said to them, May YAHWEH look on you and judge, you who have made our odor to stink in Pharaoh's eyes and in the eyes of his servants, to give a sword in their hands to kill us.

22 And Moses returned to YAHWEH and said, YAHWEH, why have You done evil to this people? Why then have You sent me?

23 And since I came in to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has done evil to this people. And You did not certainly deliver your people.

Chapter 6

1 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh. For he will send them away with a strong hand, yea, he will drive them out from his land with a strong hand.

2 And Elohim spoke to Moses and said to him, I am YAHWEH.

3 And I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as El Shaddai, and by My name YAHWEH have I not been known to them[1].

4 And I also established My covenant with them to give to them the land of Canaan, the land of their travels, in which they traveled in it.

5 And I also have heard the groaning of the sons of Israel, whom the Egyptians are enslaving. And I have remembered My covenant.

6 Therefore, say to the sons of Israel, I am YAHWEH, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of Egypt, and will deliver you from their slavery. And I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments.

7 And I will take you for Myself for a people, and I will be for you a Elohim. And you shall know that I am YAHWEH your Elohim, the One bringing you out from under the burdens of Egypt.

8 And I will bring you into the land which I raised My hand to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. And I will give it to you for a possession. I am YAHWEH! (Gen 15:18, 17:7-8)

9 And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel. And they did not listen to Moses, from anguish of spirit and from harsh bondage.

10 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

11 Go, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he may send away the sons of Israel from his land.

12 And Moses spoke before YAHWEH, saying, Behold the sons of Israel have not listened to me. And how should Pharaoh hear me, I being of uncircumcised lips? (Ex 4:10)

13 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses and to Aaron and He directed them as to the sons of Israel, and as to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt.

14 These were the heads of the houses of their fathers: The sons of Reuben the first-born of Israel: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi; these were the families of Reuben.

15 And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar and

1 The thought in the Hebrew is not that Abraham never heard the name of Yahweh, but that Yahweh revealed Himself to Abraham as El Shaddai (El Almighty), however, now He was revealing Himself by His family name of Yahweh, the all existent one.

Shaul, the son of a Canaanitess; these were the families of Simeon.
16 And these were the names of the sons of Levi by their generations: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Levi were a hundred and thirty seven years.
17 The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, by their families.
18 And the sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath were a hundred and thirty three years.
19 And the sons of Merari: Mahli, and Mushi. These were the families of Levi according to their generations.
20 And Amram took his aunt Jochebed to him for a wife. And she bore to him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Amram were a hundred and thirty seven years.
21 And the sons of Izhar: Korah, Nepheg and Zichri.
22 And the sons of Uzziel: Mishael, Elzaphan and Zithri.
23 And Aaron took Elisheba the daughter of Amminadab, the sister of Nahshon, to him for a wife. And she bore to him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.
24 And the sons of Korah: Assir, Elkanah and Abiasaph. These were the families of the Korahites.
25 And Aaron's son Eleazar took of the daughters of Putiel for his wife. And she bore to him Phinehas. These were the heads of the fathers of the Levites by their families.
26 That is the Aaron and Moses to whom YAHWEH said, Bring out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, according to their armies.
27 Those were the ones speaking to Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring out the sons of Israel from Egypt; it was Moses and Aaron.
28 And it happened on the day YAHWEH spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt:
29 YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying, I am YAHWEH! Speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all which I am about to speak to you.
30 And Moses said before YAHWEH, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips. How could Pharaoh listen to me? (Ex 6:12)

Chapter 7

1 And YAHWEH said to Moses, See, I have made you a Elohim to Pharaoh; and your brother Aaron shall be your prophet.
2 You shall speak all that I command you, and your brother Aaron shall speak to Pharaoh. And he will send away the sons of Israel from his land.
3 And I will harden the heart of Pharaoh. And I will multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt.
4 And Pharaoh will not listen to you. And I will put My hand on Egypt, and will bring My armies, My people, the sons of Israel, from the land of Egypt with great judgments.
5 And the Egyptians shall know that I am YAHWEH when I send forth My hand on Egypt and bring out the sons of Israel from their midst.
6 And Moses and Aaron did as YAHWEH commanded them, so they did.
7 And Moses was a son of eighty years, and Aaron was a son of eighty three years when they spoke to Pharaoh.
8 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
9 When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, Give a miracle for yourselves, you shall say to Aaron, Take your staff and throw it before Pharaoh; and let it become a crocodile.
10 And Moses and Aaron came to

Pharaoh, and they did so, as YAHWEH had commanded. And Aaron threw his staff before Pharaoh and before his servants. And it became a crocodile[1].

11 And Pharaoh also called wise men and the sorcerers. And they, the priests of Egypt, also performed by their secret arts.

12 And they each one threw down his staff, and they became crocodiles. But Aaron's staff swallowed their staffs.

13 And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as YAHWEH had said.

14 And YAHWEH said to Moses, The heart of Pharaoh is heavy; he refuses to send away the people.

15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning. Behold, he is about to go out to the water. And you stand to meet him on the lip of the river. And you shall take in your hand the staff that was turned into a hissing creature.

16 And you shall say to him, YAHWEH the Elohim of the Hebrews has sent me to you, saying, Send away My people, so that they may serve Me in the wilderness. And, behold, you have not listened until now.

17 So says YAHWEH, By this you shall know that I am YAHWEH: Behold, I am about to strike the water in the river with the staff in My hand, and it shall be turned to blood.

18 And the fish in the river will die, and the river will stink, and the Egyptians will become weary of drinking water from the river.

19 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Say to Aaron, Take your staff, and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over the rivers, over their canals, and over their pools, and over every body of their waters, so that they may become blood. And blood shall be in all the land of Egypt, both in wooden and in stone vessels.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as YAHWEH had commanded. And he lifted up the staff and struck the water which was in the river before Pharaoh's eyes, and before his servants' eyes. And all the water in the river turned to blood.

21 And the fish in the river died, and the river stunk. And the Egyptians were not able to drink water from the Nile. And the blood was in all the land of Egypt.

22 And the magicians of Egypt did so by their secret arts. And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as YAHWEH had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house. And he did not set his heart to this also.

24 And all the Egyptians dug around the river to drink water, for they were not able to drink from the water of the river.

25 And seven days were fulfilled after YAHWEH struck the river.

Chapter 8

1 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Go to Pharaoh, and say to him, So says YAHWEH, Send away My people that they may serve Me.

2 And if you refuse to send them away, behold, I am about to smite all your territory with frogs.

3 And the river will swarm with frogs. And they shall go up and enter into your house, and into your bedroom, and on your couch, and into your servants' house, and on your people, and into your ovens and into your kneading troughs.

4 And the frogs will come up on you, and on your people, and on all your servants.

[1] The Hebrew word "taneen" literally means crocodile and not snake. Crocodiles were worshiped in ancient Egypt.

5 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Say to Aaron, Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers, over the canals, and over the pools. And bring up frogs on the land of Egypt.
6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.
7 And the priests did so with their secret arts. And they brought up the frogs on the land of Egypt.
8 And Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron, and said, Pray to YAHWEH that He may remove the frogs from me and from my people. And I will send away the people that they may sacrifice to YAHWEH.
9 And Moses said to Pharaoh, Glory over me. For when shall I pray for you and for your servants and for your people, to cut off the frogs from you, and from your house, that they may be left only in the river?
10 And he said, For tomorrow. And he said, According to your word, so that you may know that none is like YAHWEH our Elohim.
11 And the frogs will depart from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people.
They will only be in the river.
12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. And Moses cried to YAHWEH concerning the frogs which He had set on Pharaoh.
13 And YAHWEH did according to the word of Moses. And the frogs died from the houses, from the courts, and from the fields.
14 And they gathered them in heaps and heaps; and the land stunk.
15 And Pharaoh saw that there was relief. And he made his heart heavy, and he did not listen to them, as YAHWEH had said.
16 And YAHWEH said to Moses,
Say to Aaron, Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the earth, and let it become lice in all the land of Egypt.
17 And they did so, and Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the earth. And the lice were on man and on beast. All the dust of the earth became lice in the land of Egypt.
18 And the priests performed with their secret arts to bring forth lice, and they could not. And the lice were on man and on beast.
19 And the priests said to Pharaoh, It is the finger of Elohim. And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as YAHWEH had said.
20 And YAHWEH said to Moses,
Get up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh. Behold, he is about to go out to the water. And say to him, So says YAHWEH, Send away My people that they may serve Me.
21 And if you do not send away My people, behold, I am about to send swarms of flies on you, and on your servants, and on your people, and on your house. And the houses of the Egyptians will be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they are.
22 And in that day I will separate the land of Goshen with My people resting on it, that there be no swarms of flies, so that you may know that I am YAHWEH in the midst of the earth.
23 And I will put a distinction between My people and your people.
This miracle shall be for tomorrow.
24 And YAHWEH did so. And teeming swarms of flies came into Pharaoh's house, and the house of his servants, and into all the land of Egypt. And the land was destroyed before the swarms of flies.
25 And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go! Sacrifice to your Elohim in the land.
26 And Moses said, It is not right to do so, for we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to YAHWEH our Elohim. Behold! If we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not stone us?

27 We will go into the wilderness, a journey of three days, and sacrifice to YAHWEH our Elohim, as He may say to us.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will send you away, and you may sacrifice to YAHWEH your Elohim in the wilderness; only do not go very far off. And pray for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I am about to go out from you, and to pray to YAHWEH. And the swarms of flies will depart from Pharaoh, and from his servants, and from his people tomorrow. But do not let Pharaoh continue to deceive, not to send the people to sacrifice to YAHWEH.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh. And he prayed to YAHWEH.

31 And YAHWEH did according to the word of Moses, and the swarms of flies departed from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; and not one was left.

32 And Pharaoh made heavy his heart this time also, and he did not send away the people.

Chapter 9

1 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh and say to him, So says YAHWEH the Elohim of the Hebrews, Send away My people that they may serve Me.

2 And if you refuse to send away, and you still hold onto them,

3 behold the hand of YAHWEH is going to be on your livestock in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the herds[1], and on the flocks, a very heavy pestilence.

4 And YAHWEH will make a distinction between Israel's livestock and Egypt's livestock. Also of all that belongs to the sons of Israel, not a thing will die.

5 And YAHWEH set a time, saying, Tomorrow YAHWEH will do this thing in the land.

6 And YAHWEH did this thing on the next day, and all the livestock of Egypt died. And from the livestock of the sons of Israel, not one died.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and behold, not even one was dead from Israel's livestock! And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not send away the people.

8 And YAHWEH said to Moses and to Aaron, Take for yourselves the fullness of your hands of soot from the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven before Pharaoh's eyes.

9 And let it become dust on all the land of Egypt, and let it become boils breaking out into sores on man and on livestock in all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took soot of the furnace and stood before Pharaoh. And Moses sprinkled it toward the heavens, and it became a boil breaking out into sores on man and on livestock.

11 And the priests were not able to stand before Moses, because of the boils. For the boils were on the priests and on all the Egyptians.

12 And YAHWEH made heavy Pharaoh's heart, and he did not listen to them, as YAHWEH had said to Moses.

13 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Get up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, So

[1] The Egyptians worshiped bull gods such as Apis and Hathor.

says YAHWEH the Elohim of the Hebrews, Send away My people that they may serve Me.
14 For at this time I am going to send all My plagues to your heart, and on your servants, and on your people, so that you may know that none is like Me in all the land.
15 For now I have sent forth My hand and have stricken you and your people with pestilence, and you have been destroyed from the earth.
16 And for this reason I have made you stand, in order to cause you to see My power, and in order to declare My name in all the land.
17 You still are exalting yourself against My people, so as not to send them away. (Rev 16:11)
18 Behold! I will rain very heavy hail about this time tomorrow, such as has never been in Egypt from the day of its foundation until now.
19 And now send out, bring your livestock to safety, and all belonging to you in the field. All men and livestock found in the field, and not brought to the house, the hail will come on them, and they will die.
20 Of the servants of Pharaoh, the one who feared the Word of YAHWEH made his slaves and his livestock flee to the houses.
21 And the one who did not set his heart on the Word of YAHWEH left his slaves and his livestock in the field.
22 And YAHWEH said to Moses,
Stretch out your hand to the heavens,
so that hail may be in all the land of Egypt, on man, and on livestock, and on every plant of the field in the land of Egypt.
23 And Moses stretched out his staff to the heavens. And YAHWEH gave sounds and hail. And fire came down to the earth, and YAHWEH rained hail on the land of Egypt. (Rev 16:21) 24 And there was hail, and fire flashing in the midst of the hail, very heavy, which never had been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.
25 And the hail struck in all the land of Egypt, all that was in the field, from men and to livestock. And the hail struck every plant of the field, and it broke in pieces every tree of the field.
26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the sons of Israel lived, there was no hail.
27 And Pharaoh sent and called Moses and Aaron, and said to them, I have sinned this time. YAHWEH is the righteous One, and I and my people the wicked ones.
28 Pray to YAHWEH and let it be enough of the thunders and hail of Elohim. And I will send you away and you shall not continue any longer.
29 And Moses said to him, As I go out of the city I will spread out my hands to YAHWEH. The thunder will cease, and the hail will not still be, so that you may know that the earth belongs to YAHWEH. (Ps 24:1-2)
30 And as for you and your servants,
I know that you do not yet fear before YAHWEH Elohim.
31 And the flax and the barley were stricken. For the barley was in head, and the flax in bud[1].
32 And the wheat and the spelt were not stricken, for they were late.
33 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, from the city, and he spread out his hands to YAHWEH. And the thunder and the hail ceased. And rain was not poured out toward the earth.
34 And Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder had ceased, and he continued to sin. And he made his heart heavy, he and his servants.

[1] Northern Egypt which gets virtually no rain barley is sown in August and reaped in February. There is a different growing season in Israel.

35 And Pharaoh's heart was made strong, and he did not send away the sons of Israel, as YAHWEH had said by the hand of Moses.

Chapter 10

1 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh, for I have made his heart heavy and the heart of his servants, so that I may set these signs of Mine in their midst;

2 and so that you may recount in the ears of your son and the son of your son what I exerted Myself to do against Egypt, and My signs which I have done among them, and you may know that I am YAHWEH.

3 And Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and said to him, So says YAHWEH Elohe of the Hebrews, Until when will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Send away My people so that they may serve Me.

4 For if you refuse to send away My people, behold, I am going to bring locusts into your territory tomorrow.

5 And they will cover the eye of the land, and no one will be able to see the land. And they will eat the rest of that which escaped, that which is left to you from the hail. And they will eat every tree that sprouts to you from the field.

6 And your houses will be full, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of the Egyptians, which neither your fathers nor the fathers of your fathers have seen; from the day of their being on the earth until this day. And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

7 And Pharaoh's servants said to him, How long shall this one be a snare to us? Send away the men that they may serve YAHWEH their Elohim. Do you not yet know that Egypt is perishing?

8 And Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. And he said to them, Go, serve YAHWEH your Elohim. Who and who are the ones going?

9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters. We will go with our flocks and with our herds. For it is a feast of YAHWEH to us.

10 And he said to them, May YAHWEH be so with you, as I send you away, and your little ones. Watch! For evil is before your face!

11 Not so! You and the men go now and serve YAHWEH; for you were seeking it. And he drove them out from the face of Pharaoh.

12 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Stretch out your hand for the locusts over the land of Egypt, so that they may go up on the land of Egypt and may eat every plant of the land, all that the hail left.

13 And Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt. And YAHWEH brought an east wind on the land all that day and all that night. And at morning the east wind lifted up the locusts.

14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested on all the territory of Egypt, exceedingly many. Never were there locusts like them before, and afterward none will be like them.

15 And they covered the eye of the earth, and the land became dark. And they ate every plant of the land, and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left. And no greenness was left in the trees and in the plants of the field in all the land of Egypt.

16 And Pharaoh hurried to call Moses and Aaron. And he said, I have sinned against YAHWEH your Elohim and against you.

17 And now pray forgive my sins only this time, and pray to YAHWEH your Elohim that He may take away from me this death only.

18 And he went out from Pharaoh, and he prayed to YAHWEH.
19 And YAHWEH changed to a west wind, very strong. And it carried the locusts and threw them into the Sea of Reeds. Not one locust was left in all the territory of Egypt.
20 And YAHWEH made strong the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not send away the sons of Israel.
21 And YAHWEH said to Moses,
Stretch out your hand to the heavens
so that darkness may be on the land of Egypt, and one may feel darkness.
22 And Moses stretched out his hand to the heavens, and darkness of gloom was in all the land of Egypt three days.
23 They did not see each one his brother, and they did not rise up, each one from his place for three days. Yet to all the sons of Israel there was light in their dwellings.
24 And Pharaoh called to Moses and said, Go, serve YAHWEH. Only leave your flocks and your herds behind.
Your little ones may go with you.
25 And Moses said, You must also give into our hands sacrifices and burnt offerings so that we may prepare for YAHWEH our Elohim.
26 And also our livestock shall go with us. Not a hoof shall be left. For we shall take from them to serve YAHWEH our Elohim. And we do not know with what we shall serve YAHWEH until we come there.
27 And YAHWEH made strong the heart of Pharaoh, and he was not willing to send them away.
28 And Pharaoh said to him, Go away from me. Be careful for yourself.
Do not see my face again, for in the day you see my face you shall die.
29 And Moses said, You have spoken rightly. I will not see your face again.

Chapter 11

1 And YAHWEH said to Moses, I will bring yet one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. Afterward he will send you from here. When he sends you away completely, surely He will drive you out from here.
2 Now speak in the ears of the people, and let them ask, each man from his neighbor, articles of silver and articles of gold.
3 And YAHWEH gave favor in the eyes of the Egyptians toward the people. And the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the eyes of the servants of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of the people.
4 And Moses said, So says YAHWEH, About the middle of the night I will go out in the midst of Egypt.
5 And every first-born in the land of Egypt shall die, from the first-born of Pharaoh, the one sitting on his throne, to the first-born of the slave-girl who is behind the mill; and every first born of animals.
6 And a great cry shall be in all the land of Egypt, such as never has been,
and nothing like it shall be again.
7 And a dog shall not sharpen his tongue against all the sons of Israel, toward man and toward livestock, so that you may know that YAHWEH distinguishes between Egypt and Israel.
8 And all these servants of yours will come down to me, and bow to me, saying, Go out, you and all the people at your feet. And afterward I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in the heat of anger.
9 And YAHWEH said to Moses,
Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that My miracles may multiply in the land of Egypt.

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these miracles before Pharaoh. And YAHWEH hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not send away the sons of Israel from his land.

Chapter 12

1 And YAHWEH said to Moses and to Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, 2 This month shall be the head of months for you. It shall be the first of the months of the year for you.[1] 3 Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, On the tenth of this month, they shall each take for themselves an animal of the flock for a father's house, a flock animal for a house.
4 And if the house is too small for a flock animal, he and his neighbor next to his house shall take according to the number of souls, each one according to the mouth of his eating, you shall count concerning the flock animal.
5 A flock animal, a male without blemish, a yearling, shall be to you.
You shall take from the sheep or from the goats.
6 And it shall be for you to keep until the fourteenth day of this month. And all the assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it between the evenings.[2] 7 And they shall take from the blood, and put it on the two side doorposts and on the upper doorpost, on the houses in which they eat it. (Joh 10:9) 8 And they shall eat the flesh in this night, roasted with fire, and they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.[3] (Num 9:1-5, Lev 23:5-6) 9 Do not eat it raw, or at all boiled in water, but roasted with fire; its head with its legs and with its inward parts.
10 And you shall not leave any of it until morning. And you shall burn with fire that left from it until morning.
11 And you shall eat it this way: with your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand.
And you shall eat it in awe. It is the Passover to YAHWEH.[4] 12 And I will pass through in the land of Egypt in this night. And I will strike every first-born in the land of Egypt, from man even to livestock.
And I will execute judgments on all the Elohe of Egypt. I am YAHWEH!
13 And the blood shall be a sign to you, on the houses where you are. And I will see the blood, and I will pass over you. And the plague shall not be on you to destroy, when I strike in the land of Egypt.
14 And the day shall be a memorial for you. And you shall celebrate it as a feast to YAHWEH, for your generations. You shall celebrate it as a law forever.[5] 15 You shall eat unleavened bread seven days. Indeed, on the first day you shall cause leaven to cease from your houses. For anyone eating any leaven, that soul shall be cut off from

1 This month- "Aviv", Ex 13:4

2 The Passover is kept until the beginning of the 14th day and killed between the evenings of the ending of the 13th and beginning of the 14th.

3 If the passover was being eaten on the 15th day all the leaven would have already been removed from the homes and this statement would be redundant and unnecessary. The passover was eaten on the evening portion of the 14th day of Aviv.

4 This command was only given for the first Passover meal as the Israelites would be preparing for leaving at the break of dawn the next morning.

5 The day of Passover shall be celebrated forever. However, YHWH has the prerogative to change the symbols of the Passover as He did in the New Covenant using bread and wine to symbolize the slain blood of the Lamb of Yah.

Israel, from the first day until the seventh day.
16 And on the first day shall be a holy assembly[1], and in the seventh day a holy assembly[2], shall be to you. Not any work may be done on them. Only what must be eaten by each soul that alone may be done by you.
17 And you shall observe the unleavened bread for on this very day I brought out your armies from the land of Egypt. And you shall observe this day for your generations, a statute forever.
18 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at evening[3] you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty-first day of the month, at evening. (Lev 23:5-8)
19 For seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses. For anyone eating any leaven, that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, among the foreigners, and among the natives of the land.
20 You shall not eat anything leaven. You shall eat unleavened bread in all your dwellings.
21 And Moses called to all the elders of Israel and said to them, Draw out and take of the flock for you and for your families, and kill the passover.
22 And take a bunch of hyssop and dip in the blood in the basin. And touch some of the blood in the basin to the lintel and on the two doorposts. And you shall not go out, anyone from the door of his house until morning.[4]
23 And YAHWEH will pass through to strike Egypt. And He will see the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, and YAHWEH will pass over the door. And He will not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you.
24 And you shall observe this Word for an ordinance for you, and for your sons forever.
25 And it shall be, when you come into the land which YAHWEH shall give to you, as He has spoken, you shall observe this service.
26 And it shall be, when your sons say to you, What is this service to you?
27 Then you shall say, A sacrifice of a passover of YAHWEH, who passed over the houses of the sons of Israel in Egypt when He struck Egypt. And He delivered our houses. And the people bowed and worshiped.
28 And the sons of Israel went out and did as YAHWEH commanded Moses and Aaron. So they did.
29 And it happened at midnight[5]. YAHWEH struck every first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh, the one sitting on the throne, to the first-born of the captive who was in the prison house, and every first-born of animals.
30 And Pharaoh arose by night, he and all his servants, and all the Egyptians. And there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not a one who had died.

1 The Hebrew word for Holy Assembly is "mikraw" and can also mean " a rehearsal". The Holy Days tell the plan of salvation through redemption in the blood of Yahshua and each time the true believer celebrates these commanded days, each yearly cycle, they are rehearsing for the soon coming kingdom of YHWH.

2 Although this is holy time, the first and last days of unleavened are not called Sabbaths, so not to confuse the count to Shavuot and the day of the firstfruit omer which is the day after the weekly Sabbath during the days of unleaven (Lev 23:15).

3 Whereas in Ex 12:6 the word for between the evenings in Hebrew is "Bin Ha arbayim," which connotates the start of a day, here the word used is "ereb" which simply means evening.

4 No Israelite was to leave their home before the break of day if they wanted protection.

31 And he sent a proclamation to Moses and Aaron by night[1], and it read, Arise, go out from the midst of my people, both you and the sons of Israel. And go serve YAHWEH according to your word.
32 Take both your flocks and your herds, as you said, and go. And bless me also.
33 And the Egyptians were strong on the people, to hasten to send them away from the land. For they said, All of us will be dead.
34 And the people took up their dough before it was leavened, their kneading troughs being bound up in their clothing on their shoulders.
35 And the sons of Israel did according to the word of Moses. And they asked from the Egyptians articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing.
36 And YAHWEH gave favor to the people in the eyes of the Egyptians.
And they granted their requests. And they plundered Egypt.
37 And the sons of Israel traveled from Rameses[2] to Succoth, the men being about six hundred thousand on foot, apart from little ones.
38 And also a mixed multitude went up with them, and flocks, and herds, very many livestock.
39 And they baked the dough which they brought out from Egypt into unleavened cakes. For it was not leavened, because they were driven out from Egypt, and they were not able to delay. And also they had not prepared food for a journey for themselves.
40 And the time of the dwelling of the sons of Israel, which they dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years[3].
41 And it happened, from the end of four hundred and thirty years, it happened on this day, all the armies of YAHWEH went out from the land of Egypt.
42 It is a night of celebration to YAHWEH, for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This night is a celebration for all the sons of Israel to their generations[4]. (Ex 16:1)
43 And YAHWEH said to Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the Passover. No heathen may eat of it.
44 And every man's slave, a purchase of silver, you shall circumcise him, then he may eat of it[5].
45 A foreigner and a hired servant
may not eat of it.
46 It shall be eaten in one house.

5 Although there may be confusion to the timing of Passover due to there being two evenings in a day, a beginning and ending evening, there is only one "midnight" and if Passover is named for the "passing-over" of the death angel, and scriptures states the 14th day of the month is passover, (Lev 23:5), then the death angel passed over on the 14th of Aviv at midnight, showing the meal had to be eaten early in the beginning of the 14th and not late in the day at the beginning of the 15th as some wrongly do today. The custom of celebrating the Passover on the 15th day of Aviv came from modern Judaism but is not supported by scripture.

1 Ex 10:29 Pharaoh sent a declaration to Moses by messenger, but they did not see each other, Ex 10:28-29.

2 They left from Goshen where they lived and first traveled to Ramses, which was about 6 miles from Goshen and would have taken the better part of the daylight portion of the 14th of Aviv to travel.

3 If you add up the years this scripture is stating from the time of Abraham it was 430 years till the leaving of Egypt.

4 This night to be remembered is not Passover when the death angel passed, but the next night and beginning of the 15th of Aviv when Israel actually left Egypt (Ex 16:1).

5 You must be in the covenant to partake of the Passover.

You shall not carry any of the flesh outside from the house. And you shall not break a bone in it.
47 All the congregation of Israel shall prepare it.
48 And when a visitor shall stay with you, and will do the Passover to YAHWEH, let every male to him be cir-cumcised, (in covenant relationship) and then he may come near to prepare it. And he shall be like a native of the land. But any uncircumcised (non-covenant person) may not eat of it.[1]
49 One law shall be to the native, and to the visitor, the one staying in your midst. (Num 15:15)
50 And all the sons of Israel did as YAHWEH commanded Moses and Aaron; so they did.
51 And it happened on this day, YAHWEH brought out the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt by their armies.

Chapter 13

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
2 Set apart to Me every first-born, the one opening the womb among the sons of Israel, among men and among livestock; they shall be Mine. (Num 8:5-19, Ex 19:3-6)
3 And Moses said to the people, Remember this day in which you went out from Egypt, from the house of slaves. For by the might of His hand YAHWEH brought you out from here. And no leaven shall be eaten.
4 Today, in the month of the Aviv, you are going out.
5 And it shall be when YAHWEH brings you into the land of the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, which He swore to your fathers to give to you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you shall do this service in this month.
6 Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day keep a feast to YAHWEH.
7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten the seven days. And leavened bread for you shall not be seen; yea, no leaven shall be seen among you in all your boundaries.
8 And you shall tell your son in that day, saying, It is because of what YAHWEH did for me when I came out from Egypt.
9 And it shall be for a sign to you on your hand, and a memorial between your eyes[2], so that the Torah of YAHWEH may be in your mouth. For with a strong hand YAHWEH brought you out from Egypt.(Pr 7:3, Deu 11:18)
10 And you shall keep this ordinance

[1] Circumcision is not the issue here in this verse but rather that anyone who eats of the Passover must be "in covenant relationship." Since Circumcision is the sign of the 1st covenant it stands to reason one would have had to be circumcised before partaking of the meal. However, since baptism is the sign of the New Covenant and not circumcision one would not have to be circumcised to partake of the Passover symbols of the bread and wine in the New Covenant, but they would have to be baptized into the covenant by an elder of YHWH.

[2] The mark of the anti-messiah (Rev 13:16) is also in the right hand and fore-head and this is symbolic of "you think with your mind and do with your hands". Also, the right hand in the Hebrew thought is the hand of strength. The word for right is "Yamin" in Hebrew and that is why when Rachel died Jacob changed the name of the child from Ben-omi "son of my sorrow" to Ben-yamin "son of my strength".

at its appointed time, from year to year.[1]
11 And it shall be when YAHWEH brings you into the land of the Canaanite, as He swore to you and to your fathers, and gives it to you, 12 you shall set apart to YAHWEH every one opening the womb, and every firstling, the offspring of animals which are yours; the males belong to
YAHWEH.
13 And every firstling of a donkey
you shall redeem with a flock animal.
And if you do not redeem, you shall break its neck. And every first-born of men among your sons you shall redeem.[2]
14 And it shall be when your son asks you in the future, saying, What is this? You shall say to him, YAHWEH brought us out from Egypt by the might of His hand, from the house of slaves.
15 And it happened when Pharaoh hardened himself against sending us away, YAHWEH killed every first-born one in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of men even to the first-born of animals. On account of this I sacrifice to YAHWEH every one of the males opening the womb, and I redeem every first-born of my sons.
16 And it shall be for a sign on your hand, and frontlets between your eyes.
For YAHWEH brought us out from Egypt by the might of His hand. (Pr
3:3, Pr 6:20-21, Deut 6:8, 11:18)
17 And it happened, in Pharaoh's sending away the people, Elohim did not lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, though it was near. For Elohim said, Lest the people repent[3] when they see war, and return to Egypt.
18 But Elohim made the people turn toward the way of the wilderness, to the Sea of Reeds. And the sons of Israel went up armed from the land of Egypt.
19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him. For he had made the sons of Israel certainly swear, saying, surely Elohim will visit you, and you shall cause my bones to go from here with you.[4] (Gen 50:24-25)
20 And they pulled up stakes from Succoth, and they camped at Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.
21 And YAHWEH was going before them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead them in the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give light to them, to go by day and by night. (Gen 15:17)
22 The pillar of cloud did not cease by day, and the pillar of fire by night, before the people.[5] (Ex 14:19, 33:9-11)

1 The appointed time to keep the Passover is on the 14th day of the first month Aviv, according to the biblical calendar. There is no biblical precedent for taking the Passover symbols of the bread and wine weekly, or monthly, that came into practice by Catholicism almost a hundred yrs after the resurrection of Yahshua by a Catholic bishop, but the instruction by Yahshua was to celebrate His death once a yr on the 14 of Aviv, 1 Cor 11:23-26, Luk 22:19-20.

2 Every first-born to YHWH had to be redeemed for 5 shekels. This wondrously shows YHWH's grace as the person was not enslaved or sacrificed but redeemed and YHWH provided the means of redemption of the first-born, which belonged to Him. This is expounded in the New Covenant as all true covenant believers are firstborn (Rev 14:4) and the redemption was provided by YHWH through the blood of Yahshua.

3 This word means to turn back, and in the Hebrew mind set, when one repents, he turns back from his old way and does a 180 degree turn to a new way of life.

4 This shows that Joseph believed in a resurrection and wanted his bones to be with his family in Israel at the time it would happen.

Chapter 14

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and let them turn and camp before Pihahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, before Baal-Zephon. You shall camp opposite it, by the sea.(Ex 23:31)

3 And Pharaoh will say as to the sons of Israel, they are wandering and the land has shut them in the wilderness,

4 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will pursue you. And I will be honored through Pharaoh, and through all his armies. And the Egyptians shall know that I am YAHWEH. And they did so.

5 And it was told to the king of Egypt that the people had fled; and the heart of Pharaoh and his servants was turned as to the people. And they said, what is this we have done? For we have sent away Israel from serving us.

6 And he prepared his chariots. And he took his people with him.

7 And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and officers over all of them.

8 And YAHWEH hardened Pharaoh, king of Egypt's heart. And he pursued the sons of Israel. And the sons of Israel were going out with a high hand.

9 And the Egyptians pursued them. And they overtook them camping by the sea, all the horses and the chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, by Pihahiroth, before Baal-Zephon.

10 And Pharaoh came near, and the sons of Israel raised their eyes, and, behold! The Egyptians were pulling up after them! And they were greatly afraid. And the sons of Israel cried to YAHWEH.

11 And they said to Moses, Were there no graves in Egypt, that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What is this you have done to us, to bring us out from Egypt?

12 Is this not the word which we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, Go away from us, and let us serve the Egyptians. For it is good for us to serve the Egyptians, than to die in the wilderness.

13 And Moses said to the people, Do not be afraid. Take your stand and see the salvation (*Y'shua) of YAHWEH, which He will prepare for you today. For as you see the Egyptians today, you shall not continue to see them again forever.

14 YAHWEH will fight for you, and you be silent.[1]

15 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Why do you cry to Me? Speak to the sons of Israel, and let them pull up stakes.

16 And you, raise your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it so that the sons of Israel may go in the midst of the sea on dry ground.

17 And behold! I am making strong the heart of the Egyptians. And they will go after them. And I will be honored through Pharaoh and through his armies, through his chariots, and through his horsemen.

18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am YAHWEH, in My being

---

[5] This shows the continual presence of both YHWH and Yahshua during this time period in the wilderness, 1 Cor 10:1-4.

[1] A great many believers fail to see YHWH intervene in their trials simply because they are continually fighting their battles themselves. If one could learn this valuable lesson to simply stand back in faith and allow YHWH to intervene and handle things, there would be many more miracles to report.

honored through Pharaoh, through his chariots, and through his horsemen.

19 And the Messenger of Elohim withdrew, the One going before the camp of Israel. And He went behind them. And the pillar of cloud withdrew from before them, and it stood behind them.

20 And it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel. And it was cloudy and dark. And it lit up the night; and this one did not come near to that one all night.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and YAHWEH caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all night. And He made the sea dry land, and the waters divided.

22 And the sons of Israel came into the middle of the sea on dry ground, the waters being a wall to them from their right and from their left.

23 And the Egyptians pursued, and all the horses of Pharaoh came after them, his chariots and his horsemen, into the middle of the sea.

24 And it happened in the morning watch: YAHWEH looked on the camp of the Egyptians in the pillar of fire and cloud. And He confused the camp of the Egyptians.

25 And He took off the wheels of their chariots, and made them drive with difficulty. And the Egyptians said, I will flee from the face of Israel, for YAHWEH is fighting for them against the Egyptians.

26 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Stretch out your hand over the sea, and let the waters return on the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen.

27 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its usual flow, at the turning of the morning, and the Egyptians were fleeing to meet it. And YAHWEH shook off the Egyptians into the middle of the sea.

28 And the waters returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen, together with all the army of Pharaoh, those going after them, into the sea. And not even one was left among them.

29 And the sons of Israel walked on dry ground in the middle of the sea, the waters being a wall for them, from their right and from their left.

30 And YAHWEH saved Israel in that day from the hand of Egypt. And Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.

31 And Israel saw the great hand with which YAHWEH worked against Egypt. And the people feared YAHWEH, and they believed in YAHWEH and in His servant Moses.

Chapter 15

1 Then Moses and the sons of Israel sang this song to YAHWEH, and spoke, saying, I will sing to YAHWEH, for He is highly exalted. He has thrown the horse and his rider into the sea. (Ps 106:12)

2 My strength and song is Yah, and He was to me salvation; this is my Eli and I will glorify Him; the Elohe of my father, and I will exalt Him.

3 YAHWEH is a Man of war; YAHWEH is His name. (Ex 3:15)

4 He has cast Pharaoh's chariots and his army in the sea; and the choice ones of his officers are drowned in the Sea of Reeds,

5 the depths cover them; they have dropped into the depths like a stone.

6 Your right hand, O YAHWEH, is glorious in power; O YAHWEH, Your right hand dashes the enemy to pieces.

7 And in Your majesty's greatness You pull down those rising up against

You; You send forth Your wrath; it consumes them like stubble.
8 And by the spirit of Your anger waters were heaped up; the running waters stood like a wall; the depths congealed in the heart of the sea.
9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my soul shall be filled with them; I will draw my sword; my hand will destroy them.
10 You blew with Your wind, the sea covered them; they sank like lead in mighty waters.
11 Who is like You among the Elohim, O YAHWEH? Who is like You, glorified in holiness, fearful in praises, O Worker of wonders?
12 You stretched Your right hand; the earth swallowed them.
13 In Your mercy You led the people whom You redeemed; You guided in Your strength to Your holy dwelling.
14 Peoples heard; they tremble; trembling seized the dwellers of Philistia.
15 Then the chiefs of Edom were terrified; the leaders of Moab were seized by trembling; all the dwellers of Canaan were melted.
16 Terrors and dread fell on them; by the greatness of Your arm; they are silent as a stone, until Your people pass through, O YAHWEH, until pass through the people whom You have bought.
17 You shall bring them in and plant them in the mountain of Your inheritance, the place You have made for Your dwelling place, O YAHWEH; the sanctuary which Your hands have prepared, O YAHWEH.
18 YAHWEH reigns forever and ever!
19 For the horses of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and his horsemen into the sea, and YAHWEH brought back the waters of the sea on them; and the sons of Israel walked on dry land in the midst of the sea.
20 And the sister of Aaron, Miriam the prophetess, took the timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.
21 And Miriam answered to them, Sing to YAHWEH, for triumphing He has triumphed gloriously; He has thrown the horse and its rider into the sea.
22 And Moses made Israel to pull out from the Sea of Reeds. And they went out into the wilderness of Shur. And they went into the wilderness three days, and did not find water.
23 And they came to Marah. And they were not able to drink water from Marah, for it was bitter. Therefore, one called its name Marah.
24 And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?
25 And he cried to YAHWEH, and YAHWEH showed him a tree. And he threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. He made a statute and an ordinance for them there, and He tested them there.
26 And He said, If you carefully listen to the voice of YAHWEH your Elohim, and do what is right in His eyes, and you give ear to His commandments, and keep all His statutes, I will not put on you all the diseases which I have put on Egypt; for I am YAHWEH Rapha[1].
27 And they came to Elim. And there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees. And they camped by the waters.

Chapter 16

1 And they pulled up stakes from

1 Yahweh "Rapha" means Yahweh your healer

Elim. And all the congregation of the sons of Israel came into the Wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their going out from the land of Egypt.

2 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness.

3 And the sons of Israel said to them, Would that we had died by the hand of YAHWEH in the land of Egypt, in our sitting by the fleshpots[1], in our eating bread to satisfaction. For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill all this assembly with hunger.

4 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Behold, I AM will rain bread from the heavens for you. And the people shall go out and gather the matter of a day in its day, so that I may test them, whether they will walk in My Torah or not.

5 And it shall be on the sixth day they shall prepare what they bring in. And it shall be double what they gather day by day.

6 And Moses and Aaron said to all the sons of Israel, At evening you shall know that YAHWEH has brought you from the land of Egypt;

7 and in the morning you shall see the glory of YAHWEH, in His hearing your murmurings against YAHWEH; and we, what are we that you murmur against us?

8 And Moses said, When YAHWEH gives you flesh to eat in the evening, and bread in the morning, to satisfaction; when YAHWEH hears your murmurings which you are murmuring against Him, you will see. And what are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against YAHWEH.[2] (Joh 12:44, 49-50)

9 And Moses spoke to Aaron, Say to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, Come near before YAHWEH; for He has heard your murmurings.

10 And it happened, as Aaron was speaking to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, they turned toward the wilderness. And, behold! The glory of YAHWEH appeared in the cloud!

11 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel. Speak to them, saying, Between the evenings you shall eat flesh; and in the morning you shall be satisfied with bread; and you shall know that I am YAHWEH your Elohim.

13 And it happened in the evening: the quail[3] came up and covered the camp. And in the morning a layer of dew was around the camp.

14 And the layer of dew went up, and, behold, something small was on the face of the wilderness, scale-like, small like the hoarfrost on the earth.

15 And the sons of Israel looked. And they said, each one to his brother, What is that?[4] For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, That is the bread which YAHWEH has given to you for food.

16 This is the thing which YAHWEH commanded. Gather from it, each one according to the mouth of his eating; an omer for a head. By the number of your souls you shall take for each man who is in your tent.

1 Fleshpots were large pots used for cooking meat. One was found in Shiloh in 2012 that went to the days of the judges.

2 It is YHWH who sets up a leader in his position and when one rejects the leader chosen and set up by YHWH they reject YHWH and are outside His judicial order.

3 In the Hula valley in Israel millions of birds including quail stop there each year in their migration traveling in spring and fall.

4 The Hebrew for "what is it" is manna.

17 And so the sons of Israel did. And they gathered; the one gathering much and the one gathering little.
18 And they measured with an omer[1]. And the one gathering much did not have too much. And the one gathering little did not have any need.
Each one gathered according to the mouth of his eating. (Acts 2:43-47) 19 And Moses said to them, Do not let anyone leave from it until morning.[2]
20 And they did not listen to Moses.
And some left from it until morning;
and it became rotten with maggots, and stunk. And Moses was angry against them.
21 And they gathered it in the morning, each one in the morning according to the mouth of his eating.
And it melted in the heat of the sun.
22 And it came about on the sixth day, they gathered double bread, two omers for one. And all the leaders of the congregation came and reported to Moses.
23 And he said to them, That is what YAHWEH said, Tomorrow is a rest, a holy Sabbath to YAHWEH. What you will bake, bake. And boil what you will boil. And lay up for yourselves all that is left over, to keep it until the morning.[3]
24 And they laid it up until the morning, as Moses commanded. And it did not stink and no maggot was in it.
25 And Moses said, Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to YAHWEH.
Today you will not find it in the field.
26 You shall gather it six days, and on the seventh day is a sabbath; in it none shall be found.[4] 27 And it happened on the seventh day, some of the people went out to gather, and did not find any.
28 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Until when do you refuse to keep My commandments and My laws?[5] 29 Behold! Because YAHWEH has given the sabbath to you, therefore He is giving to you two days of bread on the sixth day. Each one of you remain in his place. Do not let anyone go out from his place on the seventh day.[6] 30 And the people rested on the seventh day.
31 And the house of Israel called its name, Manna. And it was like the seed of coriander, white; and its taste like cakes with honey.
32 And Moses said, This is the thing which YAHWEH has commanded, Fill an omer from it, to keep for your

---

1 An omer is a measurement that is about 2 quarts or liters.

2 As with the Passover sacrifice none was to be left till morning showing that Yahweh sustains our daily needs (Ex 12:10).

3 There should be no cooking, boiling or baking of food on the Sabbath day. All cooking should be done on day six, which is the preparation day.

4 The Sabbath day is based on a 7 day cycle that started at creation (Gen 2:1-3). In the original Hebrew it has the perfect article, which makes it one specific day and not a rotating cycle. The Sabbath day is from sunset to sunset, starting on Friday and ending at sunset on Saturday according to the Roman calendar. Everywhere it is mentioned in scripture it is always associated with a 7 day weekly cycle that does not change. Some have wrongly concluded the Sabbath rotates with the moon cycle but we find absolutely zero evidence for any such false theory in scripture.

5 This is only one month after leaving Egypt and disobedience and rebellion is more of a character trait to Israel than simply an action and will prove to be their downfall.

6 They were given instruction not to go out and work and gather food. However, they were allowed and commanded to assemble together on the Sabbath day, Lev 23:2-3.

generations, so that they may see the bread which I caused you to eat in the wilderness, as I brought you out from the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said to Aaron, Take one pitcher, and put there the fullness of an omer of manna, and deposit it before YAHWEH, to keep for your generations.

34 Even as YAHWEH commanded Moses, Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to keep it.

35 And the sons of Israel ate the manna forty years, until their coming into an inhabited land. They ate the manna until their coming to the border of the land of Canaan.

36 And the omer was the tenth of an ephah.

Chapter 17

1 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel pulled up stakes from the Wilderness of Sin, according to their journeys, by the mouth of YAHWEH. And they camped in Rephidim. And there was no water for the drinking of the people.

2 And the people fought with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said to them, Why do you fight with me? Why do you tempt YAHWEH[1]?

3 And the people thirsted there for water, and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Why, then, have you caused us to go up from Egypt, to kill me and my sons and my livestock with thirst?

4 And Moses cried to YAHWEH, saying, What shall I do to this people? Yet a little and they will stone me.

5 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Pass on in front of the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel. And take in your hand your staff with which you smote the Nile, and go.

6 Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb. And you shall smite the rock, and water will come out of it; and the people will drink. And Moses did so before the eyes of the elders of Israel.

7 And one called the name of the place, Massah, and Meribah, because of the contention of the sons of Israel, and because of their testing of YAHWEH, saying, Is YAHWEH in our midst or not?

8 And Amalek came and fought against Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said to Yahoshua, Choose men for us, and go fight against Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill, with the staff of Elohim in my hand.

10 And Yahoshua did as Moses had said to him, to fight against Amalek. And Moses, Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

11 And so it was that when Moses lifted his hand, Israel prevailed. And when he rested his hand, Amalek prevailed.

12 And the hands of Moses became heavy. And they took a stone and put it under him. And he sat on it. And Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one from this and one from that side. And his hands were steady until the going of the sun.

13 And Yahoshua defeated Amalek and his people by the mouth of the sword.

14 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Write this, a memorial in a book, and set it in the ears of Yahoshua, that I will utterly wipe away the remembrance of Amalek under the heavens.

---

[1] By contending against Yahweh's appointed leadership, they were actually contending with Yahweh.

15 And Moses built an altar. And he called its name, YAHWEH Nisee [2].

16 And he said, A hand is on the throne of Yah; war is to YAHWEH with Amalek from generation to generation.

Chapter 18

1 And Jethro the priest of Midian, the father-in-law of Moses, heard all that which Elohim had done for Moses and for His people Israel, that YAHWEH had caused Israel to go out from Egypt.

2 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, (after Moses had sent her away),

3 and her two sons, one's name was Gershom (for he said, I have become an alien in a foreign land;)

4 and one's name was Eliezer (for the Elohe of my father was my Help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh).

5 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, and his sons and his wife came to Moses, to the wilderness where he camped, at the mount of Elohim.

6 And he said to Moses, I, your father-in-law Jethro, and your wife, and your two sons with her have come to you.

7 And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and bowed, and kissed him. And they asked each to his neighbor, as to their welfare. And they entered the tent.

8 And Moses told his father-in-law all that YAHWEH had done to Pharaoh and to Egypt on account of Israel, all the trouble which they had found in the way, and YAHWEH had delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced regarding all the good which YAHWEH had done to Israel whom He had delivered from the hand of Egypt.

10 And Jethro said, Blessed be YAHWEH who has delivered you from the hand of Egypt, and from the hand of Pharaoh; He who delivered the people from under the hand of Egypt.

11 Now I know that YAHWEH is greater than all the Elohims; truly, in the way in which He acted proudly against them.

12 And Jethro, the father-in-law of Moses, took a burnt offering and sacrifices to Elohim. And Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eat bread before Elohim with Moses' father-in-law.

13 And it happened on the next day that Moses sat to judge the people. And the people stood beside Moses from the morning until the evening.

14 And Moses' father-in-law saw all which he was doing to the people. And he said, What is this thing which you are doing to the people? Why are you sitting by yourself, and all the people standing beside you from morning until evening?

15 And Moses said to his father-in-law, Because the people come to me to seek Elohim.

16 When they have a matter, they come to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor. And I make known the statutes of Elohim, and the laws from His Torah.

17 And the father-in-law of Moses said to him, The thing which you do is not good.

18 Surely you will wear out, both you and this people with you. For the thing

[2] The Hebrew means "My Banner", which indicates Yahweh representing them. After the split of Israel into Judah and Ephraim, the thought in scripture of a banner is most times associated with the return of the Messiah to unite Israel again as each tribe had their own banner.

is heavy for you. You are not able to do it by yourself.

19 Now listen to my voice. I will advise you, and may Elohim be with you. You be for this people before Elohim, and you bring the matters to Elohim.

20 And you warn them as to the statutes and the laws of the Torah, and make known to them the way in which they should walk, and the work which they should do.

21 And you, you shall look out men of ability out of all the people, who fear Elohim, men of truth, hating unjust gain. And you place these over them as rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

22 And let them judge the people at all times. And it shall be that every great matter they shall bring to you, and every small matter they shall judge. And you make it easy on yourself, and let them bear with you.

23 If you do this thing, and Elohim command you, you will be able to stand; and also this people will go in peace to their place.

24 And Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law, and he did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose men of ability from all Israel and made them heads over the people; rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all times; the hard matters they brought to Moses, and every small matter they judged themselves.[1]

27 And Moses let depart his father-in-law, and he went to his own land.

Chapter 19

1 In the third month of the going out of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, on this day they came to the wilderness of Sinai.

2 And they pulled up stakes from Rephidim and came to the wilderness of Sinai. And they camped in the wilderness. And Israel camped there before the mountain.

3 And Moses went up to Elohim. And YAHWEH called to him from the mountain, saying, You shall say this to the house of Jacob, and tell it to the sons of Israel.

4 You have seen what I did to Egypt; and I bore you on eagles wings and brought you to Me.

5 And now if listening you will listen to My voice, and will keep My covenant, you shall become a special treasure to Me above all the nations, for all the earth is Mine.

6 And you shall become a kingdom of priests for Me, a holy nation. These are the words which you shall speak to the sons of Israel.

7 And Moses came and called the elders of the people. And he put all these words before them which YAHWEH commanded him.

8 And all the people answered together and said, All which YAHWEH has spoken we will do. And Moses brought back the words of the people to YAHWEH.

9 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Behold, I come to you in a darkness of clouds, so that the people may hear My speaking with you, and in you they may believe forever. And Moses told the words of the people to YAHWEH.

10 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Go to the people and sanctify them today

[1] Verses 14-26- Jethro taught Moses the power of synergy in delegation of power. One person can only do so much and if someone else can do the task 80% as good as you can, then it is better to delegate it and focus on the things that only your spiritual gifts can achieve.

and tomorrow. And let them wash their clothes.
11 And be ready for the third day.
For on the third day YAHWEH will go down before the eyes of all the people on the mountain of Sinai[1].
12 And you shall set limits to the people all around, saying, Be careful for yourselves, not going up into the mountain and touching its border; everyone touching the mountain surely shall die.
13 Not a hand shall touch him, but stoning he shall be stoned, or piercing he shall be shot through. He shall not live, whether animal or man. At the long sounding of the horn, they shall go up into the mountain.
14 And Moses went from the mountain to the people. And he sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes.
15 And he said to the people, Be ready for the third day. Do not approach a woman.
16 And on the third day, it being morning, it happened: There were thunders and lightnings, and a heavy cloud on the mountain, and the sound of a ram's horn, very strong! And all the people in the camp trembled.
17 And Moses caused the people to go up from the camp to meet The Elohim. And they took their stand at the lower part of the mountain.
18 And the mountain of Sinai was smoking, all of it, because YAHWEH came down on it in fire. And its smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace;
and the mountain quaked exceedingly.
19 And it happened while the sound of the ram's horn was sounding, and becoming very strong, Moses spoke.
And The Elohim answered him by a voice.
20 And YAHWEH came down on the mountain of Sinai, to the top of the mountain; and YAHWEH called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.
21 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Go down, warn the people lest they break through to see YAHWEH, and many of them fall.[2] 22 And also the priests, those approaching YAHWEH, let them sanctify themselves that YAHWEH not burst forth among them.
23 And Moses said to YAHWEH,
The people are not able to come up to the mountain of Sinai. For You warned us, saying, Set limits to the mountain and sanctify it.
24 And YAHWEH said to him,
Come, go down. And you come up, and Aaron with you. And let not the priests and the people break through to come up to YAHWEH, lest He burst forth
among them.
25 And Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

Chapter 20

1 And Elohim spoke all these words,
saying,
2 I am YAHWEH your Elohim, who has brought you out from the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.
3 You shall not have any other Elohim before My face.
4 You shall not make a graven image for yourself, or any likeness in the heavens above, or in the earth beneath, or in the waters under the earth;
5 you shall not bow to them, and you shall not serve them; for I am

[1] Law (Torah) was given on the third day, the same day as the resurrection, showing how both give life.

[2] Verses 17-21- See Heb 12:25-29- If the fear of YHWH is not present with someone then pride will rule their soul and be their downfall.

YAHWEH your Elohim, a jealous El, visiting the iniquity of fathers on sons, on the third and on the fourth generation, to those that hate Me; 6 and doing kindness to thousands, to those loving Me, and to those keeping My commandments.
7 You shall not take the name of YAHWEH your Elohim in vain; for YAHWEH will not leave unpunished
the one who takes His name in vain.[1] 8 Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy[2]; 9 six days you shall labor and do all your work;
10 and the seventh day is a Sabbath to YAHWEH your Elohim; you shall not do any work, you, and your son, and your daughter, your male slave and your slave-girl, and your livestock, and your stranger who is in your gates.
11 For in six days YAHWEH made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all which is in them, and He rested on the seventh day; on account of this YAHWEH blessed the Sabbath day and sanctified it.[3] 12 Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long on the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you.
13 You shall not murder.
14 You shall not commit adultery.
15 You shall not steal.
16 You shall not testify a witness of falsehood against your neighbor.
17 You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his male slave, or his slave-girl, or his ox, or his donkey, or anything which belongs to your neighbor.[4] 18 And all the people saw the thunders, and the lightnings, and the sound of the ram's horn, and the smoking mountain. And the people looked, and they trembled, and they stood from a distance.
19 And they said to Moses, You speak with us, and we will hear. And let us not speak with Elohim that we not die.
20 And Moses said to the people, Do not be afraid, for Elohim has come in order to test you, and so that His fear may be on your faces, that you may not sin.
21 And the people stood from a distance, and Moses went near the thick darkness where Elohim was.
22 And YAHWEH said to Moses,
You shall say this to the sons of Israel,
You have seen that I have spoken with you from the heavens.
23 You shall not make Elohims of silver along with Me, and you shall not make Elohims of gold for yourselves.
24 You shall make an altar of earth for Me, and you shall sacrifice your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on it, your sheep and your cattle. In every place in which I bring

1 The Hebrew word "in vain" is "shav" and literally means to "change, falsify or to make common". Taking the Creator's eternal set apart name YAHWEH (Ex 3:15) and changing it to 'god', the name of the Babylonian deity is a clear violation of the third commandment, see note on Is 65:11.

2 The Hebrew word "kadosh" literally means "set apart", meaning to keep the Sabbath set apart from the work of the other 6 days. Also, the fact that they are told to "remember" or bring back into memory this day clearly shows that the Sabbath day goes back to creation (Gen 2:1-3) and was not just implemented on Mount Sinai.

3 YHWH here reverts the creation of the Sabbath day to Genesis, and shows that the Sabbath is part of creation and therefore cannot change anymore than the moon can become the sun, Heb 4:4-9.

4 The last commandment ties them all together by not only telling us what to do, but that even our thoughts can defile us and sin starts in the mind, (Math 5:17-19, 21-22, 27-28).

to memory My name, and I will come to you and I will bless you.

25 And if you make an altar of stone for Me, you shall not build them of cut stones. When you swing your tool on it, you defile it.

26 And you shall not go up by steps to My altar, that your nakedness may not be uncovered on it. (Rev 1:13)

Chapter 21

1 And these are the judgments which you shall put before them:[1]

2 When you buy a Hebrew slave, he shall serve six years and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3 If he comes in with his body, he shall go out with his body. If he was the husband of a wife, his wife shall go out with him.

4 If his master gives him a wife, and she bears sons or daughters to him, the wife and her children shall belong to her master; and he shall go out with his body.

5 And if the slave truly says, I love my master, my wife and my children; I do not desire to go out free,

6 his master shall bring him to Elohim, and one shall bring him to the door, or to the doorpost; and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl, and he shall serve him forever.[2] (Deut 15:12-18)

7 And when a man sells his daughter for a slave-girl, she shall not go out as the male slaves go out.

8 If she is bad in the eyes of her master who has appointed her for himself, he shall allow her redemption. He shall not have power to sell her to a foreign people, in his deceiving her.

9 And if he chooses her for his son, he shall do to her as is the custom of daughters.

10 If he takes another for himself, her flesh, her clothing, and her conjugal right shall not be diminished.

11 And if he does not do these three for her, she shall go out for nothing, without silver.

12 He that strikes a man so that he dies, surely he shall die.

13 But he who does not lie in wait, and Elohim lets fall into his hand, I will appoint a place for you where he may flee. (Num 35:9-28)

14 And when a man seethes insolently against his neighbor, to kill him by deceit, you shall take him from My altar to die.

15 And he who strikes his father or his mother dying shall die.

16 And he that steals a man and sells him, or if he is found in his hand, dying he shall die.

17 And he who curses his father or his mother, dying he shall die.

18 And when men quarrel, and one strikes his neighbor with a stone, or with a fist, and he does not die, but falls on his bed,

19 if he rises and walks about in the street on his staff, the one who struck him shall be innocent; only he shall pay his sitting; paying he shall pay for his healing.

20 And if a man strikes his male slave or his slave-girl with a rod, and he dies under his hand, avenging he shall be avenged.

21 But if he continues a day or two, he shall not be avenged, for he is his silver.

[1] This will show the personal responsibility involved with the covenant person.

[2] Verses 2-6- This is a perfect example of one's servitude toward YHWH in covenant relationship. If we truly love YHWH with all our hearts and minds, then we will want to serve Him forever. However, if we decide to leave the covenant and turn back, we don't take other covenant believers with us, even if they are family members.

22 And when men fight, and they strike a pregnant woman, and her child goes forth, and there is no injury, being fined he shall be fined. As much as the husband of the woman shall put on him, even he shall give through the judges.

23 But if injury occurs, you shall give life for life[1],

24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 branding for branding, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 And when a man strikes the eye of his male slave, or the eye of his slave-girl and destroys it, he shall send him away free for his eye.

27 And if he causes the tooth of his male slave, or the tooth of his slave-girl, to fall out, he shall send him away free for his tooth.

28 And when an ox gores a man so that he dies, the ox stoning shall be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten, and the owner of the ox is innocent.

29 And if he was an ox apt to gore from yesterday and the third day, and its owner is given warning, and he does not watch him, and he kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and its owner also shall be killed.

30 If a ransom is put on him, he shall give the redemption of his life, according to all which is put on him.

31 Whether he gores a son or he gores a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him.

32 If the ox gores a male slave or a slave-girl, he shall give thirty silver shekels to his master, and the ox shall be stoned[2]. (Math 26:14-15)

33 And when a man opens a pit, or when a man digs a pit, and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it,

34 the owner of the pit shall pay; he shall give silver to its owner, and the dead shall be his.

35 And when a man's ox strikes against the ox of his neighbor, and it dies, they shall sell the living ox, and they shall divide the silver; and they shall also divide the dead.

36 Or if it was known that he was an ox apt to gore from yesterday and the third day, and his owner does not watch him, he shall pay ox for ox, and the dead shall be his.

Chapter 22

1 When a man steals an ox or a sheep, and kills it, or sells it, he shall pay five oxen for the ox, and four sheep for the sheep. (2Sam 12:6)

2 If the thief is found breaking in, and is stricken and dies, no blood shall be shed for him.

3 If the sun has risen on him, blood is due for him; repaying he shall repay. If he has nothing, then he should be sold for his theft.

4 If the stolen thing finding is found in his hand alive, from ox to donkey to flock animal, he shall pay double.

5 When a man consumes a field or a vineyard, and he lets his beast loose and it consumes another's field, he shall repay the best of his field and the best of his vineyard.

6 When fire breaks out and finds thorns, and shocked grain, or standing grain, or the field is burned up, repaying the one kindling the fire shall repay.

7 When a man gives silver or vessels to his neighbor to keep, and it is stolen from the man's house, if the thief is

1 Clearly the unborn child is considered a life and life starts at conception.

2 Thirty silver pieces was the worth of a slave, which was considered the cheapest form of life. Messiah was sold for 30 pieces of silver to show that He came to die for everyone from the least to the greatest.

found, he shall repay double. (Lev 6:1-7)

8 If the thief is not found, the master of the house shall be brought to Elohim, to see whether or not he put out his hand to his neighbor's goods.

9 In every matter of trespass, for ox, for donkey, for sheep, for clothing, for anything lost of which it is said that it is his, the case of both of them shall come to Elohim. Whom Elohim declares guilty, he shall repay double to his neighbor.

10 When a man gives a donkey or an ox to his neighbor; or a sheep, or any animal to keep, and it dies, or is injured, or is captured, no one seeing it,

11 an oath of YAHWEH shall be between them both, that he has not put his hand to his neighbor's goods. And its owner shall take it, and he shall not repay.

12 And if it is indeed stolen from him, he shall repay to its master.

13 If it is completely torn in pieces, he shall bring it as a witness; he shall not repay that which was torn.

14 And when a man borrows from his neighbor, and it is hurt, or dies, its owner not being with it, paying he shall repay.

15 If its owner is with it, he shall not repay. If it is hired, it comes for its hire.

16 And when a man lures a virgin who is not betrothed, and lies with her, paying he shall pay her dowry for a wife to himself. (Deut 22:28-29)

17 If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he shall weigh money according to the dowry of virgins.

18 You shall not allow a sorceress to live. (Lev 20:27, Deut 18:10, Jer 27:9)

19 Anyone lying with an animal, surely he shall be executed.(Lev 18:23)

20 One sacrificing to a god shall be destroyed, unless it is only to YAHWEH[1]. (Ex 23:13, Is 42:8)

21 You shall not be violent toward an alien. You shall not oppress him, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.

22 You shall not afflict an orphan or a widow.

23 If you afflict him, if he at all cries to Me, hearing I will hear his cry,

24 and My anger shall glow, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall become widows, and your sons orphans.[2]

25 If you lend money to My people, the poor with you, you shall not be as a money-lender to him; you shall not put interest on him.

26 If you indeed take the clothing of your neighbor as a pledge, you shall return it to him by the going of the sun,

27 for that is his only covering, that is his covering for his skin. In what shall he lie down? And it shall be, when he cries to Me, I will hear, for I am compassionate.

28 You shall not revile Elohim, and you shall not curse a ruler among your people. (Heb 13:7, 17, Ro 13:1)

29 You shall not delay giving the fullness of your crops and the juices of your vintage. You shall give to Me the first-born of your sons. (Ex 13:2)

30 So you shall do to your oxen, to your sheep: it shall be seven days with its mother; on the eighth day you shall give it to Me.

31 And you shall be holy men to Me. And you shall not eat flesh torn in

[1] If you sacrifice to any other deity but Yahweh it is an abomination, yet most Christians will pray daily to a deity called "god", which is the personal name of the Babylonian deity. See note on Is 65:11.

pieces; you shall throw it to the dogs. (Ex 19:6, Lev 11:44, Heb 12:14)

Chapter 23

1 You shall not raise a false report; You shall not put your hand with the wicked, to become a violent witness.[1]

2 You shall not run after many to gain evil things. And you shall not testify as to a lawsuit, to turn aside after many in order to pervert justice.

3 And you shall not favor the lowly in his lawsuit.[2]

4 When you happen on the ox of your enemy, or his wandering donkey, returning you shall return it to him.

5 When you see the donkey of one who hates you crouching under its burden, you shall refrain from leaving the matter to him; loosing you shall loose it from him.[3]

6 You shall not pervert the judgment of your needy one in his lawsuit.

7 You shall keep far away from a false matter. And do not kill the innocent and the righteous; for I will not justify the wicked.

8 And you shall not take a bribe, for the bribe blinds the seeing one, and it perverts the words of the righteous.[4]

9 And you shall not oppress an alien; and you know the life of an alien, since you were aliens in the land of Egypt.[5]

10 And you shall sow your land six years, and you shall gather its produce.

11 And the seventh year you shall let it rest and let it lie fallow, and the needy of your people shall eat. And what they leave, the animals of the field shall eat. So you shall do to your vineyard, to your olive-yard.[6]

12 You shall do your work six days, and on the seventh day you shall rest, so that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your slave-girl and your alien may be refreshed.

13 And be watchful in all that I have said to you. And you shall not call upon another Elohim by name[7]; it shall not be heard from your mouth.

14 Three times in the year you shall make a feast[8] to Me.

15 You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened things, as I have commanded you, at the set time of the month of Aviv. For in it you came out from Egypt, and they shall not appear before Me empty.

16 Also the Feast of Harvest, the first fruits of your labor, of what you sow in the field. Also the Feast of Ingathering[9], after the going out of the year, at your gathering your work from the field.

17 Three times in the year every one of your males shall appear before the Adon YAHWEH.

[5] Ex 22:21

[6] Lev 25:1-7, 28-32

[7] This scripture does not mean that you can not vocalize the name of a pagan deity when you are reading scripture. The phrase in Hebrew " to call upon" clearly implies to pray to or make a vow to.

[8] This word for feast is "chagag" and means to move around in a procession in a circle, which was done at Gilgal, which was made with stones in the shape of a sandal with the heel being in a circular patten for the priest to walk around on during Holy Days.

[9] Also called Sukkot (booths) but here typifying the bringing in of the harvest crop for preparation of winter and then appearing before Elohim in Jerusalem to receive their blessing. The phrase "end of the year" is referring to the agricultural year, the normal, yearly cycle goes from equinox to equinox.

18 You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leaven.[1] And the fat of My feast shall not pass the night until morning.

19 The first, the first-fruits of your ground you shall bring to the house of YAHWEH your Elohim. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk[2].

20 Behold, I am about to send a messenger before you, to guard you in the way, and to bring you to the place which I have prepared. (Ex 32:34)

21 Be on guard before Him, and listen to His voice. Do not be rebellious against Him, for He will not forgive your transgressions;[3] for My name is in Him[4].

22 For if you fully listen to His voice, and do all which I speak, I will be an enemy to your enemies, and will be a foe to your foes.

23 For My Messenger shall go before you and bring you in to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Canaanite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I will destroy them.

24 You shall not bow down to their gods, and you shall not serve them. And you shall not do according to their works. But tearing you shall tear them down, and smashing you shall smash their standing pillars.

25 And you shall serve YAHWEH your Elohim, and He will bless your bread and your water. And I will remove sickness from your midst.

26 There shall not be one miscarrying, nor one barren in your land. I will fulfill the number of your days.

27 I will send My terror before you, and I will confound all the people among whom you come. And I will give the neck of your enemies to you.[5]

28 And I will send hornets before you which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite before you.

29 I will not drive them out from before you in one year, that the land not become a waste, and the beast of the field multiply on you.

30 I will drive them out before you little by little, until you are fruitful and possess the land.

31 And I will set your border from the Red Sea[6] as far as the Sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness as far as the River. For I will give the people of the land into your hand. And you shall drive them out before you.

32 You shall not cut a covenant for them and for their gods.

33 They shall not dwell in your land, lest they cause you to sin towards Me. If you serve their Elohims, it will be a snare to you.

1 It is clear that only unleavened bread could be used during the Passover ceremony as well as other sacrifices.

2 This was a pagan Canaanite practice and has nothing to do with not mixing milk and meat together in a meal, as we see that Abraham did so when he prepared a meal for Yahshua Yahweh and His two Cherubs in Gen 18:8.

3 Luk 5:20-24- Only by being Elohim and Yahweh the Son could Yahshua have the authority as the Messenger of Yahweh to forgive sin.

4 Clearly, this was Yahshua, the Son and Messenger of Yahweh (Ex 3:2). "Yah-Shua" means the salvation of Yahweh. Math 1:21, Joh 17:11, Phil 2:9, Acts 4:12

5 Jos 10:24

6 The Hebrew word used here for Red is soof, and its root indicates it means the furthest border, which would be the Gulf of Aqaba between the Sinai peninsula and Saudi Arabia where Mount Sinai was.

Chapter 24

1 And He said to Moses, Come up to YAHWEH, you and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy from the elders of Israel. And bow yourselves from a distance.

2 And let Moses approach by himself to YAHWEH, and they shall not approach. And the people shall not go up with him.

3 And Moses came and told all the words of YAHWEH to the people, and all the judgments. And all the people answered with one voice and said, We will do all the Words which YAHWEH has spoken.

4 And Moses wrote all the Words of YAHWEH[1]. And he rose early in the morning and built an altar below the mountain and twelve memorial pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the sons of Israel. And they offered up burnt offerings, and offered sacrifices of bulls, peace offerings to YAHWEH.

6 And Moses took half of the blood, and he put it in basins. And he sprinkled half of the blood on the altar.

7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the ears of the people. And they said, We will do all that YAHWEH has spoken, and we will hear.

8 And Moses took the blood and sprinkled on the people, and said, Behold, the blood of the covenant which YAHWEH has cut with you concerning these words. (Ex 34:27)

9 And Moses and Aaron went up with Nadab and Abihu, and seventy from the elders of Israel.

10 And they saw the Elohim of Israel. And under His feet was as the work of a pavement of sapphire, and as the heavens for clearness.

11 And He did not stretch out His hand to the nobles of the sons of Israel. And they saw Elohim, and they ate and drank.

12 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Come up to Me to the mountain, and be there. And I will give to you the tablets of stone, and the Torah, and the commandments which I have written, to teach them.[2]

13 And Moses rose up, and Yahoshua his attendant. And Moses went up to the mountain of Elohim.

14 And he said to the elders, Wait here for us until we return to you. And, behold, Aaron, who is a master of matters, and Hur, are with you; let him approach to them.

15 And Moses went up into the mountain. And a cloud covered the mountain.

16 And the glory of YAHWEH dwelt on the mountain of Sinai. And the cloud covered it six days. And He called to Moses on the seventh day from the midst of the cloud.

17 And the appearance of the glory of YAHWEH was like fire burning on the top of the mountain before the eyes of the sons of Israel.

18 And Moses came into the midst of the cloud, and he went up into the mountain. And Moses was in the mountain forty days and forty nights[3].

[1] Clearly, we see that Moses wrote all the words and there is no indication in the Torah of a hidden oral law that the Rabbis profess today. Jos 1:8, Jos 8:34-35, Jos 23:6

[2] Up to this point only hieroglyphic languages existed, but it would have violated the second commandment to write the the Torah in etched pictures of animals so Yahweh states here that He wrote the first alphabet. Dr. Miles Jones confirms this in his book the finger of God.

[3] Forty being in scripture the number of trial or overcoming.

Chapter 25

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses,
saying,
2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and let them take a heave offering for Me.
From every man whose heart impels him, let them take My offering.
3 And this is the offering which you

copper;
4 and blue, and purple, and crimson,
and fine linen, and goats hair;

perfumes;
7 onyx stones, and stones for setting, pocket.

8 And let them make a sanctuary for Me, that I may dwell in their midst.
9 According to all which I am going to reveal to you, the plan of the tabernacle, and the plan of all its vessels, even so you shall do[2].
10 And they shall make an ark of acacia wood, two and a half cubits long, and a cubit and a half wide, and a them with gold.

14 And you shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark by them.
15 The poles shall be in the rings of the ark; they shall not depart from it.
16 And you shall put the testimony into the ark, which I shall give to you.
17 And you shall make a mercyseat of pure gold, its length two and a half cubits, and its width a cubit and a half.
18 And you shall make two cherubs of gold; you shall make them of beaten work from the two ends of the mercy-seat.
19 And make one cherub from the end here, and one cherub from the end there. You shall make the cherubs from the mercyseat, on its two ends.
20 And the cherubs shall be spreading out wings above, covering the mercyseat with their wings, and their faces each toward its brother; the faces of the cherubs shall be toward the mercy-seat.
21 And you shall put the mercyseat on the ark from above. And you shall put the testimony into the ark, which I shall give to you.
22 And I will meet you there, and will speak with you, above the mercyseat, from between the two cherubs which are on the ark of testimony, all which I shall command you as to the sons of Israel.
23 And you shall make a table of acacia wood, its length two cubits, and its width a cubit, and its height a cubit and a half.
24 And you shall overlay it with pure gold, and you shall make on it a wreath of gold all around.
25 And you shall make a border of a hand's breadth for it all around. And

---

1 This Hebrew word is somewhat archaic, but the root can mean a blue color, and the verb form means to move quickly, such as an antelope, which brings the ambiguity of the meaning; see Ezek 16:10, and for the verb form Job 31:5.

2 Understandably, Yahweh has judicial order in everything that He has created and we must strive to keep and obey Yahweh's judicial order in every aspect of our life.

you shall make a wreath of gold all around on its border.

26 And you shall make four rings of gold for it, and you shall put the rings on the four corners which are to its four feet.

27 The rings shall be near the border for housings for the poles to carry the table.

28 And you shall make the poles of acacia wood, and you shall overlay them with gold. And the table shall be carried by them.

29 And you shall make its platters, and its bowls, and its pitchers, and its sacrificial cups with which to pour a libation. You shall make them of pure gold.

30 And you shall put on the table the showbread before Me continually.

32 And six branches shall go out from its sides, three branches of the lamp from its one side and three branches of the Menorah from its second side;

33 three almond like calyxes on the one branch with knob and blossom; and three almond like calyxes on the one branch with knob and blossom, so for the six branches, those going out from the Menorah.

34 And on the Menorah shall be four almond like calyxes, each with its knobs and its blossoms;

35 and a knob under two branches of it; and a knob under two branches of it; and a knob under two branches of it, to the six branches, those going from the Menorah.

36 Their knobs and their branches shall be of it, all of it one beaten work of pure gold.

37 And you shall make its seven lamps, and one shall set up its lamps, and they shall give light before its face.

7 And you shall make curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; you shall make eleven curtains.

25 And there shall be eight boards, and their silver sockets, sixteen sockets, two sockets under the one board, and two sockets under the one board.

26 And you shall make bars of acacia wood, five to the boards of the one side of the tabernacle;

21 In the tabernacle of the congregation from outside the veil which is by the testimony, Aaron and his sons[2] shall arrange them from evening until morning before YAHWEH; a never ending statute for their generations, from the sons of Israel.

Chapter 28

1 And you shall take to yourself your brother Aaron, and his sons with him, from among the sons of Israel, for him to serve as priest to Me; Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron.

2 And you shall make holy garments for your brother Aaron, for glory and for beauty.

12 And you shall put the two stones on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel. And Aaron shall bear their names before the face of YAHWEH, on his two shoulders for a remembrance.

13 And you shall make plaited work of gold:

14 and two chains of pure gold, you shall make them twisted, a work of cord; and you shall put chains of the cords on the plaited work.

15 And you shall make a breast pocket of judgment, skilled work, like the work of the ephod you shall make it: gold, blue, and purple, and crimson, and bleached, twined linen you shall make it.

16 It shall be square, being doubled, its length a span and its width a span.
17 And you shall fill in it settings of stones, four rows of stones: a row of ruby, topaz, and carbuncle shall be the first row.
18 And the second row: emerald, sapphire and diamond.
19 And the third row: jacinth, agate and amethyst.
20 And the fourth row: chrysolite, onyx and jasper. They shall be plaited with gold in their settings.
21 And the stones shall be according to the names of the sons of Israel, twelve according to their names, the engraving of a signet; they shall be each according to his name for the twelve tribes.
22 And you shall make chains of woven work on the breast pocket, a work of cords, in pure gold.
23 And you shall make two rings of gold on the breast pocket. And you of the breast pocket.

24 And you shall put the two cords of gold on the two rings, at the end of the breast pocket.

And you shall put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, to the front of it.
26 And you shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them on the two ends of the breast pocket, on its edge, inward across from the ephod.
27 And you shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them on the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, from beneath, at its front, near its joining, above the band of the ephod.
28 And they shall fasten the breast pocket from its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue ribbon, to be above the band; and the breast pocket may not move itself from the ephod.
29 And Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel on the breast pocket of judgment on his heart, in his going into the holy place, for a memorial before the face of YAHWEH continually. (Heb 9:22-26, Heb 10:14)
30 And you shall put the Urim and the Thummim into the breast pocket of judgment; and they shall be on the heart of Aaron in his going before the face of YAHWEH. And Aaron shall bear the judgment of the sons of Israel on his heart before the face of YAHWEH continually.
31 And you shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue.
32 And the mouth in its top shall be in its middle; a binding shall be all around its mouth, of woven work; it shall be like the mouth of a corselet[1]; it may not be torn.
33 And you shall make pomegranates of blue and purple and crimson on its hem, all around on its hem; also bells of gold shall be among them all around:
34 a bell of gold and a pomegranate;
a bell of gold and a pomegranate, on the hem of the robe all around.
35 And it shall be on Aaron for ministering; and its sound shall be heard in his going into the sanctuary before the face of YAHWEH, and in his coming out, that he should not die.
36 And you shall make a plate of pure gold. And you shall engrave on it the engravings of a signet: HOLINESS TO YAHWEH.
37 And you shall put a ribbon of blue on it, and it shall be on the miter, to the front of the miter it shall be.

[1] A piece of armor to cover the trunk

38 And it shall be on Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall bear the iniquity of the holy things which will sanctify the sons of Israel to all their holy gifts. And it shall be on his forehead continually, for acceptance for them before the face of YAHWEH.

39 And you shall weave the tunic of bleached linen, and you shall make a miter of bleached linen, and you shall make a girdle, the work of an embroiderer.

40 And you shall make tunics for the sons of Aaron; and you shall make girdles for them; and you shall make turbans for them, for glory and for beauty.

41 And you shall clothe your brother Aaron with them, and his sons with him; and you shall anoint them, and you shall consecrate them, and you shall sanctify them. And they shall minister as priests to Me.

42 And make bleached linen breeches for them, to cover the naked flesh, from the loins as far as the thighs they shall be.

43 And they shall be on Aaron and on his sons in their going into the tabernacle of the congregation, or in their drawing near to the altar to minister in the sanctuary, and so that they shall not raise up iniquity and die. It is a never ending statute to him and to his seed after him.

Chapter 29

1 And this is the thing which you shall do to them, to sanctify them to minister as priests to Me: take one bull, the son of the herd, and two rams without blemish,

2 and unleavened bread, and unleavened cakes poured over with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil; you shall make them of fine wheat flour.

3 And you shall put them into one basket and shall bring them near in the basket, and the bull and the two rams.

4 And you shall take Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of congregation. And you shall wash them in water.

5 And you shall take the garments, and you shall clothe Aaron with the tunic, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breast plate. And you shall bind it to him with the band of the ephod.

6 And you shall put the miter on his head; and you shall put the holy crown on the miter.

7 And you shall take the oil of anointing and shall pour on his head, and shall anoint him.

8 And you shall take his sons and clothe them with tunics.

9 And you shall gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons; and you shall bind on turbans for them; and it shall be a never ending statute for them in the priest's office. And you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons.

10 And you shall bring near the bull before the tabernacle of the congregation. And Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bull.

11 And you shall slaughter the bull before the face of YAHWEH, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And you shall take of the bull's blood and shall put it on the horns of the altar with your finger. And you shall pour out all the blood at the base of the altar.

13 And you shall take all the fat that covers the inward parts, and the lobe on the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, and you shall burn them on the altar.

14 And you shall burn the flesh of the bull, and its skin, and its dung, with fire outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

15 And you shall take one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram.

16 And you shall slaughter the ram, and you shall take its blood and shall sprinkle it on the altar all around.

17 And you shall cut the ram into pieces; and you shall wash its inward parts, and its legs, and shall place them on its pieces and on its head.

18 And you shall burn all the ram on the altar; it is a burnt offering to YAHWEH, a soothing fragrance; it is a fire offering to YAHWEH.

19 And you shall take the second ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram.

20 And you shall slaughter the ram; and you shall take of its blood and shall put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and on the tip of the right ear of his sons, and on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot; and you shall sprinkle the blood on the altar all around.

21 And you shall take of the blood on the altar, and the oil of anointing, and you shall sprinkle on Aaron and on his garments, and on his sons, and on his sons' garments with him.

22 And you shall take the fat from the ram, and the fat tail, and the fat that covers the inward parts, and the lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, and the right leg; for it is a ram of consecration;

23 also one loaf of bread, and one cake of oil bread, and one wafer, from the basket of unleavened bread which is before the face of YAHWEH.

24 And you shall put all on the hands of Aaron and on the hands of his sons. And you shall wave them, a wave offering before the face of YAHWEH.

25 And you shall take them from their hands, and you shall burn the burnt offering on the altar for a soothing fragrance before the face of YAHWEH; it is a fire offering to YAHWEH.

26 And you shall take the breast from the ram of consecration which is on Aaron. And you shall wave it a wave offering before the face of YAHWEH; it shall be your portion.

27 And you shall sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved and which is lifted from the ram of consecration, from what is Aaron's, and from what is to his sons.

28 And it shall be for Aaron and for his sons for a never ending statute from the sons of Israel; it is for a heave offering, and it shall be a heave offering from the sons of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, their heave offering to YAHWEH.

29 And the holy garments which are Aaron's shall be his sons' after him, for anointing in them and for filling their hands in them.

30 The priest shall put them on seven days, the one from his sons taking his place; the one who comes into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the sanctuary.

31 And you shall take the ram of consecration, and you shall boil its flesh in a sanctuary.

32 And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread which is in the basket at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

33 And they shall eat those things by which atonement is made to consecrate them, to sanctify them; and a stranger shall not eat, for they are holy.

34 And if any is left of the flesh of consecration, and of the bread, until the morning, you shall burn what is left with fire; it shall not be eaten, for it is holy.

35 And so you shall do to Aaron and to his sons, according to all which I have commanded you; you shall consecrate them seven days.

36 And you shall offer a bull of a sin offering daily for atonement; and you shall purify the altar in your making atonement for it; and you shall anoint it to sanctify it.

37 You shall make atonement seven days for the altar, and shall sanctify it; and the altar shall become most holy, all touching the altar becomes holy.

38 And this is what you shall offer on the altar: two lambs daily, sons of a year, continually.

39 The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the second lamb you shall offer between the evenings.[1]

40 And a tenth of fine flour anointed with beaten oil, a fourth of a hin; and a drink offering, a fourth of a hin of wine, for the one lamb.

41 And you shall offer the second lamb between the evenings; you shall do to it like the morning food offering and its drink offering, for a soothing fragrance, a fire offering to YAHWEH.

42 This shall be a continual burnt offering to your generations, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the face of YAHWEH; there where I meet you to speak to you there.

43 And I will meet the sons of Israel here and it shall be sanctified by My glory.

44 And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar. And I will sanctify Aaron and his sons to minister as priests to Me.

45 And I will dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel; and I will be Elohim to them.

46 And they shall know that I am YAHWEH their Elohim, who brought them out from the land of Egypt, that I may dwell in their midst. I am YAHWEH their Elohim.[2]

Chapter 30

1 And you shall make an altar, a place for burning incense; you shall make it of acacia wood.

2 It shall be a cubit in length and a cubit in width; it shall be square. And its height shall be two cubits, its horns are to be a part of itself.

3 And you shall overlay it with pure gold, its top, and its walls all around, and its horns. And you shall make a wreath of gold for it all around.

4 And you shall make two rings of gold for it under its wreath; you shall make its two corners on its two sides; and they shall be housings for poles, to lift them up by it.

5 And you shall make the poles of acacia wood; and you shall overlay them with gold.

6 And you shall put it before the veil which is beside the ark of the testimony; in front of the mercyseat which is over the testimony, there where I meet you.

7 And Aaron shall burn incense of perfume on it morning by morning; when he dresses the lamps he shall burn it.

8 And when Aaron sets up the lamps between the evenings he shall burn it, a perpetual incense before the face of YAHWEH for your generations.

[1] The actual times listed here are from sunrise for the morning sacrifice and sunset for the evening one. During temple times due to the amount of sacrifices being done they actually did them at 9:00am and 3:00pm, Num 28:4.

[2] VS 44-46- YHWH dwelt among the people through His set-apart priesthood of Aaron whom He consecrated.

9 You shall not offer up strange incense on it, and burnt offering and food offering; and you shall not pour out a drink offering, to go up on it.

10 And Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once in a year; from the blood of the sin offering of the atonement once in the year he shall make atonement on it for your generations; it is most holy to YAHWEH.

11 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

12 When you lift up the head of the sons of Israel, of those numbered, each one shall give the ransom of his soul to YAHWEH when numbering them; and there shall not be a plague among them when numbering them.

13 They shall give this, everyone passing over to those numbered: half a shekel, by the shekel of the sanctuary, twenty gerahs being a shekel; half a shekel as an offering to YAHWEH.

14 Every one passing over to those numbered, from a son of twenty years and upward, shall give the offering of YAHWEH.

15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, to give the offering of YAHWEH, to make atonement for your souls.

16 And you shall take the silver of atonement from the sons of Israel and you shall give it to the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and it shall be for the sons of Israel for remembrance before the face of YAHWEH, to make atonement for your souls.

17 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

18 And you shall make a copper laver for washing, and its base copper. And you shall put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar; and you shall put water there.

19 And Aaron and his sons shall wash from it, their hands and their feet;

20 as they go into the tabernacle of the congregation they shall wash with water, and shall not die; or as they draw near to the altar to minister, to burn a fire offering to YAHWEH.

21 And they shall wash their hands and their feet, and shall not die. And it shall be a never ending statute to them, to him and to his seed for their generations.

22 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

23 And you take spices for yourself, the best, five hundred of pure myrrh, and its half of spicy cinnamon, two hundred and fifty shekels, and two hundred and fifty of aromatic calamus;

24 and five hundred of cassia, by the shekel of the sanctuary; and a hin of olive oil.

25 And you shall make it an oil of holy anointing, ointment compound, the work of a perfumer, an oil of holy anointing it shall be.

26 And you shall anoint with it the tabernacle of the congregation and the ark of the testimony,

27 and the table and all its vessels and the altar of incense,

28 and the altar of burnt offering, and all its vessels, and the laver and its base.

29 And you shall sanctify them, and they shall become most holy; everything touching them shall become holy.

30 And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and you shall consecrate them to minister as priests to Me.

31 And you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, This shall be a holy anointing oil for Me for your generations.

32 It shall not be poured on the flesh of man, and you shall not make any like it in its proportion; it is holy. It shall be holy to you.

33 If a man prepares any like it, or who gives from it to a stranger, he shall be cut off from his people.
34 And YAHWEH said to Moses,
Take perfumes for yourself, spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum, spices, and pure frankincense, a part shall be for a part.
35 And you shall make it incense, an ointment, a work of a perfumer, salted, pure and holy.
36 And you shall grind some of it fine, and put some of it in front of the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I meet you. It shall be most holy to you.
37 And the incense which you make,
in its proportion, you shall not make for yourselves; it shall be holy to you for YAHWEH.
38 If a man makes any like it, to smell of it, he shall be cut off from his people[1].

Chapter 31

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses,
saying:
2 Behold, I have called by name Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, to the tribe of Judah.
3 And I have filled him with the spirit of Elohim in wisdom, and in intelligence, and in knowledge, and in all workmanship,
4 to devise designs, to work in gold and in silver and in copper, 5 and in cutting of stones for finishings, and in carving of wood, to work in all workmanship.
6 And behold! I have given with him Aholiab the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan; and in the heart of every wise-hearted one I have given wisdom; and they shall make all which I have commanded you:
7 the tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercyseat which is going up over it, and all the vessels of the tabernacle, 8 and the table and its vessels, and the pure Menorah and all its vessels, and the altar of incense; 9 and the altar of burnt offering and all its vessels, and the laver and its base;
10 and the woven garments, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests; 11 and the oil of anointing, and the incense of perfumes for the sanctuary;
according to all which I have commanded you, they shall do.
12 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses,
saying,
13 And you speak to the sons of Israel, charging them, only My Sabbaths you shall keep[2]; for it is a sign between Me and you for your generation; to know that I am YAHWEH your sanctifies.
14 And you shall keep the Sabbath, for it is holy for you; the profaners of it shall surely be executed; for everyone doing work[3] in it, that soul shall be cut off from the midst of his people.

[1] In scripture the things that are set apart to Yahweh are not to be copied, yet in our modern world today many commercialize anything from scripture and there are trinkets of almost anything you can imagine to purchase.

[2] Ex 31:12-19 clearly shows the eternal Sabbath covenant that Yahweh has made to His children for eternity which shows who He is as Creator and His blessing of rest to those that enter His family covenant.

[3] The word for doing means to expand and work is 'melaka' which is a form of the Hebrew word for Kingdom, so we are not to expand our own Kingdom on Shabbat.

15 Work may be done six days, and on the seventh day is a Sabbath of rest, holy to YAHWEH; everyone doing work on the Sabbath day surely shall be put to death.
16 And the sons of Israel shall guard the Sabbath, to observe and do the Sabbath for their generations; it is a never ending covenant.
17 It is a sign forever between Me and the sons of Israel; for in six days YAHWEH made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.[1]
18 And when He finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave to Moses the two tablets of the testimony, tablets of stone, written by the finger of Elohim.[2]

Chapter 32

1 And the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain. And the people gathered to Aaron. And they said to him, Rise up, make for us gods who may go before our face. As for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.
2 And Aaron said to them, Break off the rings of gold which are in the ears of your wives, your sons and your daughters; and bring them to me.
3 And all the people broke off the rings of gold in their ears, and they brought to Aaron.
4 And he took them from their hand and formed it with an engraving tool. And he made it a casted calf. And they said, These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.
5 And Aaron saw, and he built an altar before it. And Aaron called and said, A feast to YAHWEH tomorrow.
6 And they rose early on the morrow, and they offered burnt offerings and brought near peace offerings. And the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to make merry.
7 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, Come, go down, for your people whom you caused to go up from Egypt are corrupted;
8 they have quickly turned off from the way which I commanded them; they have made for themselves a casted calf and have bowed to it, and have sacrificed to it. And they have said, These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.
9 And YAHWEH said to Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people.
10 And now leave Me alone that My anger may glow against them, that I may consume them. And I will make you a great nation.
11 And Moses prayed before the face of YAHWEH his Elohim, and he said, Why, O YAHWEH, does Your anger glow against Your people whom You caused to go up from the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?
12 Why should the Egyptians say, For evil He has caused them to go up, to kill them in the mountains, and to

1 Verses 16-17- The Sabbath is a most special and intimate covenant between YHWH and His children forever. It is a wonderful blessing He gives every 7th day for His set apart elect covenant people to be able to leave the world and enter a type of the millennial rest from sunset Friday to sunset Saturday every week. True believers are commanded here that they are to guard and protect this special blessing.

2 Mankind has written millions of books through the ages that people will follow and yet here, the 10 commandments, written by the very finger of YHWH and mankind will not obey nor adhere to them.

consume them on the face of the earth? Turn from Your fierce anger and be moved to pity as to the evil to Your people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Your servants to whom You swore by Yourself, and You spoke to them, I will multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens, and all this land which I have said, I will give to your seed. And they shall possess it forever.

14 And YAHWEH was moved to pity concerning the evil which He had spoken to do to His people.

15 And Moses turned and went down from the mountain, the two tablets of the testimony in his hand, tablets written on their two sides, on this and on that side they were written.

16 And the tablets were the work of Elohim, and the writing was the writing of Elohim; it was engraved on the tablets.

17 And Yahoshua heard the voice of the people in their shouting. And he said to Moses, A sound of war in the camp!

18 And he said, It is not a sound of a cry of might, nor a sound of a cry of defeat; I am hearing the sound of singing.

19 And it happened, as he came near to the camp and saw the calf and dances, the anger of Moses glowed. And he threw the tablets from his hands, and he broke them below the mountain.

20 And he took the calf which they had made and burned it with fire and ground it until it was fine, then he scattered it on the face of the water. And he made the sons of Israel to drink it.

21 And Moses said to Aaron, What has this people done to you that you have made to come on them a great sin?

22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord glow. You know the people that it is in evil.

23 And they said to me, Make for us gods who may go before us; as for Moses, the man who caused us to go up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.

24 And I said to them, Whoever has gold, let them break off. And they gave to me, and I cast it into the fire, and this calf came out.

25 And Moses saw the people, that they were naked[1], for Aaron had let them naked for scornful shaming among their enemies.

26 And Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, Who is for YAHWEH? Come to me! And all the sons of Levi assembled to him.

27 And he said to them, So says YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel, each one put his sword on his thigh; pass to and fro from gate to gate in the camp, and each one kill his brother, and each one his neighbor, and each one his kindred.

28 And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And about three thousand men of the people fell on that day.

29 And Moses said, Fill your hand today for YAHWEH, since each one has been against his son and against his brother, and in order to give you a blessing today.

30 And it happened on the morrow, Moses said to the people, You have sinned a great sin. And now I will go up to YAHWEH; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.

31 And Moses went back to YAHWEH and said, Oh, this people has sinned a great sin, and they have made for themselves gods of gold.

32 And now if You will, lift up their sin. And if not, I pray, blot me out from Your book which You have written.

33 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him from My book.

34 And now go, lead the people to that place which I have spoken to you. Behold, My Messenger shall go before your face. And in the day of My visitation I will visit their sin on them.

35 And YAHWEH plagued the people because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

Chapter 33

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, Come, go up from this place, you and the people whom you have caused to go up out from the land of Egypt, to the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, I will give it to your seed.

2 And I will send a Messenger before your face[1], and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite;

3 to a land flowing with milk and honey. For I will not go up among you, for you are a stiffnecked people, lest I consume you in the way.

4 And the people heard this evil word, and they mourned, and did not put any ornaments on themselves.

5 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Say to the sons of Israel, You are a stiff-necked people; in one instant I will go up among you and I will consume you. And now lay off from you your ornaments, that I may know what I shall do to you.

6 And the sons of Israel pulled off their ornaments, from Mount Horeb.

7 And Moses took the tent and pitched it outside the camp, far off from the camp. And he called it the tabernacle of the congregation. And it happened that everyone seeking YAHWEH went to the tabernacle of the congregation which was outside the camp.

8 And it happened as Moses went to the tabernacle, the people all rose and stood, each one at the door of his tent. And they looked after Moses until he had gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it happened as Moses went into the tabernacle, the pillar of cloud would come down and stand at the door of the tabernacle. And He spoke with Moses.

10 And all the people would see the pillar of the cloud standing at the door of the tabernacle. And all the people rose and bowed themselves, each one at the door of his tent.[2]

11 And YAHWEH would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he would return to the camp. And his attendant, Yahoshua the son of Nun, a young man did not leave the middle of the tabernacle.

12 And Moses said to YAHWEH, Behold, You are saying to me, Cause this people to go up. And You, You have not told me whom You will send with me. And yet You have said, I know you by name, and also you have found favor in My eyes.[3]

13 And now, if I have found favor in Your eyes, please make me see Your ways, and let me know You, so that I may find favor in Your eyes; and consider that this nation is Your people.

14 And He said, My presence[4] will go with you, and I will give you rest.

---

[1] Yahweh will send His Messenger, but He is not the messenger.

[2] Yahweh's presence brought a spirit of worship.

[3] Yahweh knew Moses by name, and Moses wanted to know the name of the messenger of Yahweh that would be going with them.

15 And they said to Him, If Your presence does not go, do not cause us to go up from here.

16 And now by what can it be known that I and Your people have found favor in Your eyes? Is it not in Your going with us? And we are distinguished, I and Your people, from all the nations which are on the face of the earth?

17 And YAHWEH said to Moses, This thing which you have spoken I will do. For you have found favor in My eyes, and I know you by name.

18 And he said, I pray, let me see Your glory. (Luk 9:23-35)

19 And He said, I will cause all My goodness to pass before your face. And I will call out the name of YAHWEH before your face. And I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy.

20 And He said, You are not able to see My face; for no man can see Me and live.

21 And YAHWEH said, Behold, a place by Me! And you shall stand on a rock.

22 And as My glory is passing it will be that I will put you in a cleft of the rock; and I will cover My hand over you during My passing.

23 And I will remove My hand, and you shall see My back[1]; but My face cannot be seen.

Chapter 34

1 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Cut out for yourself two tablets of stone, like the former. And I will write on the tablets the words which were on the former tablet, which you broke.

2 And be prepared in the morning, and go up in the morning to Mount Sinai. And place yourself there by Me, on the top of the mountain.

3 And a man shall not go up with you. And also let no man be seen on all the mountain. Also do not allow the flocks and the herds to feed before that mountain.

4 And he cut out two tablets of stone like the former. And Moses rose early in the morning and went up into Mount Sinai, as YAHWEH had commanded him. And he took in his hand the two tablets of stone.

5 And YAHWEH came down in the cloud. And he placed himself there with Him, and he called on the name of YAHWEH.

6 And YAHWEH passed by before his face and called out: YAHWEH! YAHWEH Elohim! Merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and great in goodness and truth,

7 keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and not leaving entirely unpunished, visiting the iniquity of fathers on sons, and on sons of sons, to the third and to the fourth generation.

8 And Moses hurried and bowed to the earth and worshiped.

9 And he said, If now I have found favor in Your eyes, O YAHWEH, please let my Adonai go in our midst, for it is a stiffnecked people; and You forgive our iniquity and our sin, and take us as a possession.

10 And He said, Behold, I am cutting a covenant;[2] I will do wonderful things before all your people which not have been done in all the earth, and among all nations. And all the people in whose midst you are shall see the work of YAHWEH, for that which I am about to do is awesome.

[4] Presence in Hebrew 'pene' meaning my face, one with equal authority who had His name (Ex 23:20-21)

[1] This Hebrew word not not necessarily mean a physical back, but the after result, YHWH would allow Moses in vision to see that his request for His presence to be with the Israelites would be granted.

[2] This is written in the present tense showing the covenant hadn't been ratified before this.

11 Take heed for yourself what I am commanding you today. Behold, I am about to drive out from before your face the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and
the Hivite, and the Jebusite.
12 Take heed to yourself, that you not cut a covenant with the people of the land to which you are going in, that it not be a snare in your midst.
13 But you shall cut down their altars, break their pillars, and you shall cut off their Asherahs.
14 For you shall not bow to another Elohim, for YAHWEH whose name is Jealous[1], He is a jealous Elohim; 15 that you not cut a covenant with the people of the land, and they fornicate with their Elohims, and they call to you, and you eat from his sacrifice;
16 and you take from their daughters for your sons, and their daughters fornicate with their Elohims, and they lead your sons to fornicate with their Elohims.[2]
17 You shall not make for yourself
casted Elohims.
18 You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened; seven days you shall eat unleavened things, which I commanded you, at the time appointed, the month of Abib; for in the month of Abib you went out from Egypt.
19 Every one opening the womb is Mine, and all your male livestock, a firstling of ox or sheep, 20 and a firstling of a donkey, you shall redeem with a lamb. And if you do not redeem, you shall break its neck. You shall redeem every firstborn of your sons, and they shall not be seen before My face empty.
21 You may work six days, and on the seventh day you shall rest. In plowing time and in harvest you shall rest.
22 And you shall observe a Feast of Weeks for yourself, the first-fruits of the harvest of wheat; also the Feast of Ingathering after the turn of the year[3].
23 Three times in the year every male of yours shall be seen before the face of Adonai YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel.
24 For I will expel nations from before your face and will make broad your territory; and no one shall covet your land, as you go up to appear before YAHWEH your Elohim three times in the year.
25 You shall not slaughter the blood of my sacrifice with leaven, nor shall the sacrifice of the Passover Feast pass the night until morning.
26 You shall bring the first of the first-fruits of your ground to the house of YAHWEH your Elohim. You shall not boil a kid in the milk of its mother.
27 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Write these words for yourself, for on the mouth of these words I will cut a covenant with you and with Israel[4].
28 And he was there with YAHWEH forty days and forty nights; he did not eat bread and he did not drink water.

[1] This word in Hebrew 'kanna' is only used for YHWH, meaning He will not put up with rivalry or unfaithfulness. He has the exclusive right to possess Israel in the covenant relationship. It is an act of love, as it shows exclusive devotion to the covenant partner. Sometimes this word is used as zeal.

[2] Deut 7:3-4, 1Kgs 11:1-6, 2Cor 6:14

[3] The word here is "tekufah" and means a full revolution of the sun, meaning after the equinox. The year can't begin until the day of the vernal equinox and Sukkot cannot come until the fall equinox. (Ex 23:16)

And He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Words.
29 And it happened as Moses was going down from Mount Sinai, the two tablets of the testimony being in Moses' hand as he went down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face had become shiny through His speaking with him.
30 And Aaron and all the sons of Israel saw Moses. And, behold! The skin of his face shone. And they were afraid to draw near to him.
31 And Moses called to them. And Aaron and all the leaders among the congregation turned back to him. And Moses spoke to them.
32 And afterwards all the sons of Israel drew near. And he commanded them all that which YAHWEH had spoken with him in Mount Sinai.
33 And Moses finished speaking with them, and he put a veil on his face.
34 And as Moses came in before YAHWEH to speak with Him, he took off the veil until he went out[1]. And he would go out and speak to the sons of Israel that which he was commanded.
35 And the sons of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone[2]. And Moses would put back the veil on his face until he went in to speak with Him.

Chapter 35

1 And Moses assembled all the congregation of the sons of Israel and said to them, These are the Words which YAHWEH has commanded, to do them:
2 Work may be done six days and on the seventh day it shall be holy to you, a Sabbath of rest to YAHWEH; everyone doing work in it surely shall die.
3 You shall not kindle a fire in all your dwellings on the day of the Sabbath.
4 And Moses said to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, This is the thing which YAHWEH commanded, saying,
5 Take from among you an offering to YAHWEH. Everyone willing of heart shall bring it, the offering of YAHWEH: gold and silver and
copper,
6 and blue, and purple, and crimson,
and bleached linen, and goats' hair, 7 and rams' skins dyed red, and Tachash skins, and acacia wood, 8 and oil for the light, and spices for the oil of anointing, and for the incense of perfumes;
9 and onyx stones, and stones of settings, for the ephod and for the breast pocket.
10 And every wise-hearted one among you, let them come and make all which YAHWEH has commanded; 11 the tabernacle, its tent, and its cover, its hooks, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets;
12 the ark, and its poles, the mercyseat and the veil of the covering,

4 Up till now the covenant was still not ratified due to the golden calf incident. The betrothal was never consummated and Yahweh severed the marriage agreement with Israel at this point

1 It would have been disrespectful for Moses to have his head covered while speaking to Yahweh. (1Cor 11:4)

2 The Hebrew word 'keren' means to radiate, as the sun radiates from heaven to earth. It also means horn, as the horn from the animal radiates up to heaven also; that is why the priests hold the horns of the animal before sacrifice as he is transferring the sins from the horn of the animal up to heaven and that is why a horn is blown on the Holy-Days as joy is being radiated from the horn up to the heavens.

13 the table and its poles, and all its vessels, and the Bread of the Presence;
14 and the Menorah of the light, and its vessels, and its lamps, and the oil of the light;
15 and the incense altar and its poles, and the oil of anointing, and the incense of perfumes, and the screen of the door, at the door of the tabernacle;
16 the altar of burnt offering, and its copper grating, its poles, and all its vessels, the laver and its base;
17 the screens of the court, its pillars, and its sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court;
18 the pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords;
19 the woven garments to minister in the sanctuary, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments for his sons, to minister as priests.
20 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel went out from Moses.
21 And they came, every one whose heart was lifted up, and everyone whose spirit made him willing. They brought the offering of YAHWEH for the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all its service, and for the holy garments.
22 And the men came in together with the women, everyone willing of heart. They brought in bracelets, and nose rings, and rings, and ornaments, every gold article, and every one who waved a wave offering of gold to YAHWEH.
23 And everyone with whom blue was found, and purple, and crimson, and bleached linen, and goats' hair, and rams' skins dyed red, and Tachash skins, they brought.
24 Everyone rising up with an offering of silver and copper, they brought the offering of YAHWEH; and everyone with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, they brought.
25 And every wise-hearted woman spun with her hands; and they brought spun yarn, blue, and purple, and crimson and bleached linen.
26 And all the women whose hearts were lifted up in wisdom spun the goats' hair.
27 And the leaders brought the onyx stones, and stones for the setting, for the ephod and for the breast pocket,
28 and the spice, and the oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the incense of the perfumes.
29 And every man and woman whose hearts made them willing to bring for all the work which YAHWEH commanded to be done by the hand of Moses; the sons of Israel brought a willing offering to YAHWEH.
30 And Moses said to the sons of Israel, Behold! YAHWEH has called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.
31 And He has filled him with the spirit of Elohim, in wisdom, in intelligence, and in knowledge, and in all workmanship, 32 and to devise designs, to work in gold, and in silver, and in copper,
33 and in cuttings of stones for finishings, and in carving of wood, to work in all workmanship of design.
34 And He has put in his heart to teach, he and Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, 35 He has filled them with wisdom of heart, to do every work of a smith, and an artisan, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in crimson, and in bleached linen, and a weaver; doers of every work and devisers of designs.

Chapter 36

1 And Bezaleel and Aholiab shall work with everyone wise of heart to whom YAHWEH has given wisdom and intelligence, to know how to do every work of the service of the sanctuary, concerning all which YAHWEH had commanded.

2 And Moses called to Bezaleel, and to Aholiab, and to everyone wise of heart, to whom YAHWEH had given a heart of wisdom, everyone whose heart had lifted him up to come near the work, to do it.

3 And they took every offering before Moses which the sons of Israel had brought for the work of the service in the holy place, to do it. And they brought to him still more willing offerings morning by morning.

4 And all the wise men came, those doing every kind of work for the sanctuary, each one from his work they were doing.

5 And they spoke to Moses, saying, The people are bringing more than enough for the service of the work that YAHWEH commanded, to do it.

6 And Moses commanded, and they caused it to be voiced in the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more offering for the sanctuary; and the people were held back from bringing.

7 And their property was sufficient for all the work, to do it, and it was too much.

8 And every wise-hearted one among the doers of the work of the tabernacle made ten curtains, twined, bleached linen, and blue, and purple, and crimson; he made them with cherubs, the work of an artisan.

9 The length of one curtain was twenty eight by the cubit; and the width was four by the cubit; the one curtain was the same measure for all the curtains.

10 And he joined five curtains one to another; and he joined five curtains one to another.

11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of the one curtain, from the end to the juncture; so he did at the edge of the last curtain at the second juncture.

12 He made fifty loops on one curtain; and he made fifty loops on the end of the curtain which was at the second juncture; the loops corresponded, one with another.

13 And he made fifty hooks of gold; and he joined the curtains by the hooks, one to another. And the tabernacle became one.

14 And he made curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made them eleven curtains.

15 The length of the one curtain was thirty by the cubit, and four cubits the width of the one curtain; one measure to the eleven curtains.

16 And he joined the five curtains separately, and the six curtains separately.

17 And he made fifty loops on the edge of the last curtain at the juncture; and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that joined the second.

18 And he made fifty copper hooks to join the tent, to unite it in one (echad).

19 And he made a cover for the tent of rams' skins dyed red; and a cover of Tachash skins from above.

20 And he made the boards for the tabernacle, standing planks of acacia wood.

21 The length of the board was ten cubits, and a cubit and a half was the width of the one board.

22 The one board was connected by two pins, one to another; so he did to all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made the boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side southward.

24 And he made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under the one board for its two pins.

25 And for the second side of the tabernacle, to the north side, he made twenty boards,
26 and their forty silver sockets; two sockets under the one board, and two sockets under the other board.
27 And he made six boards for the sides of the tabernacle westward.
28 And he made two boards for the corners of the tabernacle, in the sides.
29 And they were double from below, and in like manner they were complete to its top, to the first ring. So he did to both of them, for the two corners.
30 And there were eight boards, and their silver sockets, sixteen sockets; two sockets and two sockets under the one board.
31 And he made bars of acacia wood; five to the boards of the second side of the tabernacle;
32 and five bars to the boards of the sides of the tabernacle westward.
33 And he made the middle bar to go through the middle of the boards, from end to end.
34 And he overlaid the boards with gold. And he made the rings gold, housing for the poles; and he overlaid the bars with gold.
35 And he made a veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and twined, bleached linen. He made it the work of an artisan, with cherubs.
36 And he made four pillars of acacia for it. And he overlaid them with gold, their hooks gold; and he cast four sockets of silver for them.
37 And he made a screen for the door of the tabernacle, blue, and purple, and crimson, and twined, bleached linen, the work of an embroiderer;
38 and its five pillars, and their hooks; and they overlaid their tops and their bands with gold; and their five sockets copper.

Chapter 37

1 And Bezaleel made the ark of acacia wood; two cubits and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.
2 And he overlaid it with pure gold, inside and outside. And he made for it a wreath of gold all around.
3 And he cast four rings of gold for it, on its four feet; two rings on its one side and two rings on its second side.
4 And he made poles of acacia wood; and he overlaid them with gold.
5 And he put the poles into the rings, on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark.
6 And he made a mercyseat of pure gold; two cubits and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide.
7 And he made two cherubs of gold; he made them of beaten work, from the two ends of the mercyseat;
8 one cherub here at one end, and one cherub here at the other end. He made the cherubs from the mercyseat, from its two ends.
9 And the cherubs were spreading out wings above, covering the mercy-seat with their wings, their faces each toward the other; the faces of the cherubs were toward the mercyseat.
10 And he made the table of planks of acacia; two cubits long, and a cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high.
11 And he overlaid it with pure gold; and he made for it a wreath of gold all around.
12 And he made for it a border of a hand's breadth all around. And he made a wreath of gold for its border all around.
13 And he cast for it four rings of gold; and he put the rings on the four corners, which were to its four feet.

14 The rings were near the border, the housings for the poles, to carry the table.

15 And he made the poles of acacia wood; and he overlaid them with gold, to lift up the table.

16 And he made the vessels which were on the table, its platters and its bowls, and its sacrificial cups, and its pitchers by which a drink offering is made, with pure gold.

17 And he made the Menorah of pure gold; he made the Menorah of beaten work, its side, and its branch, its calyxes, its knobs and its blossoms were from it.

18 And six branches went out from its sides; three branches of the Menorah from one side, and three branches of the Menorah from its second side.

19 Three almond-like bowls were on the one branch, with knob and blossom; and three almond-like bowls on the one branch, with knob and blossom; so for the six branches, those going out from the Menorah.

20 And on the Menorah were four almond-like bowls, its knobs and its blossoms.

21 And a knob was under two branches of it, to the six branches, those going out from it.

22 The knobs and the branches of it were one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made its seven lamps and its snuffers and its pans of pure gold.

24 He made it and all its vessels from a talent of pure gold.

25 And he made the altar of incense of acacia wood; its length a cubit, and its width a cubit, square. And its height was two cubits; its horns were of it.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, its top and its sides and its horns all around. And he made for it a wreath of gold all around.

27 And he made for it two rings of gold, from beneath its wreath, on its two corners, on its two sides, for housings for poles, to lift it.

28 And he made its poles of acacia wood; and he overlaid them with gold.

29 And he made the holy oil of anointing, and the pure incense of fragrant spices, the work of a perfumer.

Chapter 38

1 And he made the altar of the burnt offering of acacia wood; five cubits its length and five cubits its width, square; and its height was three cubits.

2 And he made its horns on its four corners; its horns were of it. And he overlaid it with copper.

3 And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots and the shovels and the sacrificial bowls, the fleshhooks and the firepans. He made all its vessels of copper.

4 And he made a network of copper grating for the altar, from below under its ledge, as far as its middle.

5 And he cast four rings in its four ends to the copper grating, housings for the poles.

6 And he made the poles of acacia wood; and he overlaid them with copper.

7 And he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, to lift it with them. He made it hollow with planks.

8 And he made the laver copper, and its base copper, from the mirrors of the serving women, those assembling, who served at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

9 And he made the court. To the side of the Negev, to the south, the curtains of the court were twined bleached linen, a hundred by the cubit.

10 Their pillars were twenty and their sockets twenty, of copper. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver.

11 And for the north side, a hundred by the cubit, their pillars were twenty and their sockets twenty, of copper. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver.

16 All the curtains of the court all around were twined bleached linen.

17 And the sockets for the pillars were copper, the hooks of the pillars and their bands of silver. And the overlaying of their capitals were silver; and all the pillars of the court were banded with silver.

18 And the screen of the opening of the court was an embroiderer's work, blue and purple and crimson, and bleached twined linen, and twenty cubits long, and the height was five cubits in width; the curtains of the court joining.

19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets four, of copper; their hooks silver, and the overlaying of their capitals and their bands were silver.

20 And all the pins for the tabernacle and for the court all around were copper.

21 These are the numbered things of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the testimony, which were numbered at Moses' command for the service of the Levites in the hand of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.

22 And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that YAHWEH commanded Moses.

23 And with him Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and a craftsman, and an embroiderer in blue and in purple and in crimson and in bleached linen.

24 All the gold used was for the work, in all the work of the sanctuary; and it was the gold of the wave offering, twenty nine talents and seven hundred and thirty shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver of the numbered ones of the assembly was a hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and seventy five shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary,

26 a bekah for a head, half a shekel, by the shekel of the holy place, for everyone passing over to those numbered, from a son of twenty years and upward, for six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty persons.

27 And the hundred talents of the silver were for casting the sockets of the sanctuary, and for the sockets of the veil, a hundred sockets for a hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And the thousand, seven hundred and seventy five shekels he made into hooks for the pillars; and he overlaid their capitals and joined them.

29 And the copper of the wave offering was seventy talents and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

30 And he made with it the sockets of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the copper altar and its copper grating, and all the vessels of the altar.

31 And the sockets of the court all around, and the sockets of the opening of the court, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all of the pins of the court all around were copper.

Chapter 39

1 And from the blue and the purple and the crimson they made woven garments for serving in the sanctuary. And they made the holy garments which were for Aaron, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

2 And he made the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and crimson, and twined bleached linen.

3 And they beat out sheets of gold, and cut threads to work into the midst of the blue, and into the midst of the purple, and into the midst of the crimson, and into the midst of the bleached linen, the work of an artisan.

4 They made shoulderpieces for it, joined together; it was joined on its two ends.

5 And its fastening band was on it; it was of it, like its work, gold, blue, and purple, and crimson, and twined bleached linen, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

6 And they made stones of onyx set in plaited work of gold, engraved with engravings of a signet, according to the names of the sons of Israel.

7 And he put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

8 And he made the breast pocket, a work of an artisan, like the work of the ephod: gold, blue, purple, and crimson, and twined bleached linen;

9 it was square. They made the breast pocket double; its length a span and its width a span, doubled.

10 And they set it in four rows of stones: one row, the first row: a ruby, a topaz and a carbuncle.

11 The second row: a turquoise, a sapphire and a jasper.

12 And the third row: a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst.

13 And the fourth row: a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper; these set in their settings, plaited work of gold.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the sons of Israel; they were twelve according to their names, the engravings of a signet, each according to his name, for the twelve tribes.

15 And they made cords of chains on the breast pocket, a work of pure gold cords.

16 And they made two gold plaitings and two golden rings; and they put the two rings on the two ends of the breast pocket.

17 And they put the two golden cords on the two rings, on the ends of the breast pocket.

18 And they put the two ends of the two cords on the two plaitings. And they put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, on the front of its face.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and they put them on the two ends of the breast pocket, on its edge, on the inward side of the ephod.

20 And they made two rings of gold, and they put them on the two shoulderpieces of the ephod from beneath, on the front of its face, near its joining; from above to the band of the ephod.

21 And they fastened the breast pocket from its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue ribbon, to be on the ephod band, that the breast pocket not move itself from the ephod, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

22 And he made the robe of the ephod, skilled work, all of blue.

23 And the mouth of the robe in its middle was like the mouth of a corselet, the edge of its mouth all around, that it might not be torn.

24 And they made on the hems of the robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and crimson, bleached, twined linen.
25 And they made bells of pure gold, and they put the bells in the midst of the pomegranates, all around on the hem of the robe, all around, among the pomegranates, 26 a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate on the hem of the robe all around for ministering, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.
27 And they made the tunics of bleached linen, skilled work, for Aaron and for his sons;
28 also the miter was of bleached linen, and the turban of the caps of bleached linen, and the breeches of bleached, twined linen.
29 And the girdle was of twined bleached linen, and blue, and purple, and crimson, the work of an embroiderer, even as YAHWEH commanded Moses.
30 And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and they wrote on it the writing of the engravings of a signet: HOLINESS TO
YAHWEH.
31 And they put a blue ribbon on it, to fasten it on the miter from above, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.
32 And all the work of the tabernacle of the congregation was finished. And the sons of Israel did according to all which YAHWEH commanded Moses;
so they did.
33 And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its vessels, its hooks, its boards, it bars, and its
pillars, and its sockets,
34 and the cover of rams' skins dyed red, and the cover of Tachash skins, and the veil of the covering, 35 the ark of the testimony, and its poles, and the mercyseat, 36 the table and all its vessels, and the Bread of the Presence; 37 the pure Menorah, its lamps the lamps of arrangement and all its vessels, and the oil of the light, 38 and the altar of gold, and the oil of anointing, and the incense of fragrant spices, and the screen of the door of the tabernacle, 39 the copper altar and copper grating which was to it, its poles and all its vessels, the laver and its base, 40 the screen of the court, its pillars and its sockets, and the screen for the opening of the court, its cords and its pins, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle for the tabernacle of the congregation,
41 the woven garments for serving in the sanctuary, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons for serving as priests.
42 According to all which YAHWEH commanded Moses, so did the sons of Israel, all the work.
43 And Moses saw all the work. And, behold, they had done it; as YAHWEH commanded Moses, so they had done. And Moses blessed
them.

Chapter 40

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses,
saying,
2 On the first day of the month, on the first of the month, you shall raise up the tent of the tabernacle of the congregation.
3 And you shall put there the ark of testimony. And you shall cover the ark with the veil.
4 And you shall bring in the table and set in order its arrangement. And you shall bring in the Menorah and set up its lamps.

5 And you shall put the altar of gold for incense before the ark of testimony. And you shall set up the screen of the door of the tabernacle.

6 And you shall set up the altar of burnt offerings before the door of the tent of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 And you shall put the laver between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar. And you shall put water there.

8 And you shall set up the court all around. And you shall place the screen of the opening of the court.

9 And you shall take the oil of anointing, and you shall anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it. And you shall sanctify it and all its vessels. And it shall become holy.[1]

10 And you shall anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its vessels. And you shall sanctify it and the altar shall become most holy.

11 And you shall anoint the laver and its base, and you shall sanctify it.

12 And you shall cause to draw near Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And you shall wash them with water.

13 And you shall clothe Aaron with the holy garments. And you shall anoint him and sanctify him. And he shall serve as priest to Me. [2]

14 And you shall cause his sons to draw near. And you shall clothe them with tunics.

15 And you shall anoint them as you anointed their father. And they shall serve as priests to Me. And their anointing shall be for an everlasting priesthood for their generations.

16 And Moses did so, according to all that YAHWEH commanded him; so he did.

17 And it happened in the first month, in the second year, on the first of the month, the tabernacle was raised up.[3]

18 And Moses raised up the tabernacle, and he gave its sockets, and he set up its boards, and he gave its bars, and he raised up its pillars.

19 And he spread out the tent over the tabernacle. And he put the cover of the tent over it from above, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

20 And he took and gave the testimony into the ark. And he put the poles on the ark. And he gave the mercyseat on the ark from above.

21 And he caused the ark to go in into the tabernacle. And he placed the veil of the covering, and he covered over the ark of testimony, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

22 And he gave the table into the tabernacle of the congregation, on the side of the tabernacle, northward outside the veil.

23 And he set the bread in order on it before the face of YAHWEH, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

24 And he put the Menorah in the tabernacle of the congregation, opposite the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward.

25 And he set up the lamps before YAHWEH, as YAHWEH had commanded Moses.

26 And he set up the altar of gold in the tabernacle of the congregation, before the veil.

27 And he burned on it incense of fragrant spices, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

28 And he set up the screen of the door to the tabernacle.

29 And he put the altar of burnt offering at the door of the tent of the tabernacle of the congregation. And he offered up on it the burnt offering and the food offering, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

30 And he put the laver between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar. And he gave there water for washing.

31 And from it Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet.

32 As they came into the tabernacle of the congregation, and as they drew near to the altar, they would wash, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

33 And he raised up the court all around the tabernacle and the altar. And he gave the screen of the opening of the court. And Moses finished the work.

34 And the cloud covered the tabernacle of the congregation; and the glory of YAHWEH filled the tabernacle.[1]

35 And Moses was not able to come into the tabernacle of the congregation because the cloud dwelt on it. And the glory of YAHWEH filled the tabernacle.[2]

36 And as the cloud went up from the tabernacle, the sons of Israel pulled up stakes in all their travels.

37 And if the cloud did not go up, then they did not pull up stakes until the day it went up. (Num 9:17-23)

38 For the cloud of YAHWEH was on the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, before the eyes of all the house of Israel in all their pulling up of stakes.[3]

Book of Leviticus (Vayikra)

Chapter 1

1 And YAHWEH called[1] to Moses and spoke to him out of the tent of the congregation, saying,

2 Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, If any one of you brings an offering to YAHWEH, from livestock of the herd, or from the flock, you shall bring near your offering.

3 If his burnt offering is out of the herd, a male, without blemish, he shall bring it to the opening of the tent of meeting, at his pleasure, before the face of YAHWEH.[2]

4 And he shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it is accepted for him to make atonement for him.[3]

5 And he shall kill the son of the herd before the face of YAHWEH. And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall bring near the blood and sprinkle the blood on the altar all around at the opening of the tent of the meeting place.

6 And he shall skin the burnt offering, and shall cut it into pieces.

7 And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire.

8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall arrange the pieces, with the head and the fat, on the wood on the fire, which is on the altar.

9 And he shall wash its inward parts and its legs with water. And the priest shall burn as incense the whole of it on the altar for a burnt offering, a fire offering of soothing fragrance to YAHWEH. (Ps 116:15)

10 And if his offering is out of the flock, out of the sheep, or out of the goats, for a burnt offering, a male, without blemish, he shall bring it near.

11 And he shall slaughter it by the side of the altar northward, before the face of YAHWEH.[4] And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar.

12 And he shall cut it to pieces with both its head and its fat, and the priest shall arrange them on the wood which is on the fire on the altar.

13 And he shall wash the inward parts and the legs with water, and the priest shall bring near all of it and burn it as incense on the altar; it is a burnt offering, a fire offering of soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.

14 And if the burnt offering is a burnt offering out of the fowls to YAHWEH, then he shall bring near his offering, of turtledoves or of the offspring of the dove.

15 And the priest shall bring it near to the altar and shall nip off its head. And he shall burn it as incense on the altar; its blood shall be drained by the side of the altar.

16 And he shall remove its crop with its feathers, and shall throw it near the altar eastward, to the place of the ashes.

1 The Hebrew name of the book is "vayikra" and means "And He called". The theme of the book are the requirements to be "set apart" to YHWH.

2 The word for "burnt" is "owlah" and means to ascend and is typical of the sacrifice going to the Father in heaven. This word also means holocaust. The word for offering also translated at times as sacrifice is "korban" and literally means to draw closer to through relationship. The idea of giving an offering to YHWH was to draw closer to Him by giving up something of value. The word korban is used in Mk 7:11 and some translate it as gift.

3 The laying on of hands to the animal was done to transfer the sins of the individual to the animal as a substitute. We see the laying on of hands for the transferring of the Holy Spirit to someone (Acts 8:17), and also for the transferring of power for ordination (Deut 34:9, Acts 6:6).

4 Ps 110:1, Heb 10:5-14

17 And he shall cleave it with its wings, not dividing it, and the priest shall burn it as incense on the altar, on the wood which is on the fire; a burnt offering; it is a fire offering of soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.

Chapter 2

1 And when a person brings near an offering, a food offering to YAHWEH, his offering shall be of flour. And he shall pour oil on it; and he shall put frankincense on it.

2 And he shall bring it to the sons of Aaron the priest, and he shall take from it the fullness of his handful from its flour, and from its oil, with all its frankincense. And the priest shall burn it as incense on the altar, a memorial offering, a fire offering, a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.[1]

3 And the rest of the food offering is for Aaron and for his sons, most holy, of the fire offerings of YAHWEH.

4 And when you bring near an offering, a food offering baked in an oven, it shall be of fine flour, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, or unleavened thin cakes anointed with oil.

5 And if your offering is a food offering baked in a pan, it shall be of unleavened fine flour, mixed with oil.

6 You shall divide it into bits, and you should pour oil on it; it is a food offering.

7 And if your offering is a food offering on a griddle, your offering shall be fine flour mixed with oil;

8 And you shall bring the food offering made of these things to YAHWEH, and shall bring it to the priest. And the priest shall bring it near to the altar.

9 And the priest shall lift up the food offering, its memorial offering, and shall burn it as incense on the altar, a fire offering, a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.

10 And the rest of the food offering is for Aaron and his sons, most holy, of the offerings of YAHWEH.

11 Any food offering which you shall bring to YAHWEH, you shall not make with leaven; for all leaven and all honey you shall not burn it as incense, a fire offering to YAHWEH.[2]

12 As an offering of first-fruits, you shall bring them to YAHWEH, but they shall not go up on the altar for a soothing fragrance.

13 And every offering of your food offering you shall season with salt, and you shall not let the salt of the covenant of your Elohim be lacking from your food offering; you shall offer salt with all your offerings.[3]

14 And if you bring near a food offering of first-fruits to YAHWEH, fresh ears roasted with fire, grains from a garden, you shall bring near your first-fruits for a food offering.

[1] The grain offering was a continual reminder for the people that YHWH is the provider of their daily bread and sustainer of their life. The Hebrew word for this offering also can mean 'a gift' and recognized the gift of life that YHWH provides to the one offering.

[2] This offering was to accompany one of the other sacrifices and was made without yeast or honey as both of these items can ferment, which would disqualify the offering.

[3] The offering was salted to symbolize the eternal relationship YHWH had with His people. Salt was a preservative for meat in ancient times and extremely important to the life of animals and people. Salt is essential for our health and plays a crucial role in keeping our bodies functioning properly. The two elements of salt, sodium and chloride each play a variety of crucial roles in one's body. In ancient times salt was used to pay wages and the word 'salary' comes from the word salt. (Math 5:13, Num 18:19)

15 And you shall put oil on it, and lay frankincense on it; it is a food offering.
16 And the priest shall burn it as incense, with its memorial offering from its grains, and from its oil, besides all its frankincense, a fire offering to YAHWEH.

Chapter 3

1 And if his offering is a sacrifice of peace offering, if he is offering it from the herd, whether male or female, without blemish, he shall bring it near before the face of YAHWEH.[1]
2 And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the opening of the tent of the congregation. And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall sprinkle the blood on the altar all around.
3 And he shall bring near from the sacrifice of the peace offering a fire offering to YAHWEH, the fat which covers the inward parts, and all the fat on the inward parts,
4 and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, on the loins, and the fatty lobe by the liver beside the kidneys, he shall remove.
5 And the sons of Aaron shall burn it as incense on the altar, on the burnt offering on the wood on the fire, a fire offering of a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.
6 And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offerings is from the flock, male or female, without blemish, he shall bring it near.
7 If he is bringing near a sheep for his offering, then he shall bring it near before the face of YAHWEH.
8 And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and shall slaughter it in front of the tabernacle of the congregation. And the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood on the altar all around.
9 And he shall bring near from the sacrifice of the peace offerings a fire offering to YAHWEH, its fat; he shall remove the entire fat tail close by the backbone, and all the fat that covers the inward parts, and all the fat that is on the inward parts,
10 and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, on the loins, and he shall remove the lobe by the liver, beside the kidneys; he shall remove it.
11 And the priest shall burn it as incense on the altar, bread of the fire offering to YAHWEH.
12 And if his offering is a goat, then he shall bring it near before the face of YAHWEH.
13 And he shall lay his hand on its head and shall slaughter it in front of the tabernacle of the congregation. And the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar.
14 And he shall bring near from it his offering, a fire offering to YAHWEH, the fat covering the inward parts, and all the fat on the inward parts, 15 and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, on the loins, and the lobe on the liver, beside the kidneys, he shall remove.
16 And the priest shall burn them as incense on the altar, bread of the fire offering for a soothing fragrance; all the fat belongs to YAHWEH.
17 It shall be a never ending statute for your generations in all your

[1] The peace offering comes from the Hebrew word "shelem", which comes from the root of the word for peace, which is shalom. It is the only offering where the offerer may also eat of the sacrifice with the priest. This showed the unity of the offerer with YHWH through the priestly mediator who made the sacrifice on his behalf. This also greatly symbolized the unity that one has with YHWH through the sacrifice of Yahshua, the Prince of Peace. (Is 9:6, Heb 7:2) dwellings. You shall not eat any fat or any blood.

Chapter 4

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
2 Speak to the sons of Israel saying, When a person sins against any of the commands of YAHWEH through ignorance, which is not to be done, and shall do any one of them;
3 if the priest who is anointed sins, resulting in guilt to the people, then he shall bring near for his sin which he has sinned a bull, a son of the herd, without blemish, to YAHWEH for a sin offering.
4 And he shall bring the bull into the opening of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the face of YAHWEH. And he shall lay his hand on the head of the bull and shall slaughter the bull before the face of YAHWEH.
5 And the priest who is anointed[1] shall take some of the blood of the bull and shall bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation.
6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the face of YAHWEH, at the front of the veil of the holy place.
7 And the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense, at the opening of the tent of the congregation, before the face of YAHWEH.
8 And all the fat of the bull of the sin offering, he shall lift up the fat which is covering over the inward parts, and all the fat which is on the inward parts,
9 and the two kidneys, and the fat which is on them, which is on the flanks, and he shall remove the lobe on the liver beside the kidneys.
10 As it is raised up from the sacrifice of the peace offerings of the bull, the priest shall burn them as incense on the altar of burnt offering.
11 And the skin of the bull, and all its flesh with its head, and with its legs, and the inward parts, and its dung,
12 he shall bring out all the bull to the outside of the camp, to a clean place, to the place of the pouring of ashes; and he shall burn it on the wood with fire; it shall be burned at the place of pouring of ashes.[2]
13 If all the company of Israel shall sin through ignorance, and the thing has been hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they do that which is not to be done to any of all the commands of YAHWEH, and are guilty;
14 when the sin shall be known, that which they have sinned against it, then the congregation shall bring near a bull, a son of the herd, for a sin offering. And they shall bring it in front of the tabernacle of the congregation.

[1] This literally says in Hebrew, " And the priest who is The Mashiach (Messiah)" showing that the priest doing the sin offering symbolized Yahshua's great sacrifice He did for the sins of the people. (Is 53:12)

[2] Verses 1-12- The sin sacrifice was done by the priest who was a mediator for the people in symbolically shedding blood for their sins. The Torah states "eye for eye", and "life for life", so this symbolic act could not pay the penalty of the sins, as the life of an animal is not equal with the life of a human, but merely was a symbolic reminder to them (Heb 10:1-4). During Temple times the bodies were burned and the ashes were placed at the third altar (Miphkad Altar) across the Kidron Valley on the lower part of the Mount of Olives where the Red Heifer sacrifice was done (Num 19) and also where Yahshua was crucified (Heb 13:10-13).

15 And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the face of YAHWEH.[1] And they shall slaughter the bull before the face of YAHWEH.

16 And the priest who is anointed shall bring in some of the blood of the bull to the tabernacle of the congregation.

17 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and shall sprinkle seven times before the face of YAHWEH, at the front of the veil.

18 And he shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar before the face of YAHWEH in the tent of the meeting of the congregation. And he shall pour out all the blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 And he shall lift up all its fat from it and shall burn it as incense on the altar.

20 And he shall do with the bull as he has done to the bull of the sin offering, so he shall do to it. And the priest shall atone for them; and it shall be forgiven them.

21 And he shall bring the bull to the outside of the camp, and he shall burn it as he burned the first bull; it is a sin offering of the congregation.

22 When a ruler sins and has acted against one of all the commands of YAHWEH his Elohim, which is not to be done, through ignorance, and is guilty;

23 or his sin which he has sinned shall be made known to him, then he shall bring his offering, a buck of the goats, a male, without blemish;

24 and he shall lay his hand on the head of the he-goat and shall slaughter it in the place where he slaughters the burnt offering, before the face of YAHWEH; it is a sin offering.

25 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering, and with his finger he shall put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and he shall pour out its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.

26 And he shall burn it as incense on the altar, with all its fat, as the fat of the sacrifice of the peace offerings. And the priest shall atone for him because of his sin; and it shall be forgiven him.

27 And if any person of the people of the land sin through ignorance[2] by doing that which is not to be done, against one of the commands of YAHWEH, and is guilty;

28 or his sin which he has sinned shall be made known to him, then he shall bring his offering, an ewe of the goats, without blemish, a female, for his sin which he has sinned;

29 then he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and shall slaughter the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering.

30 And the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and shall put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering. And he shall pour out all its blood at the base of the altar;

31 and he shall take off all its fat, as has been taken off the sacrifice of peace offerings. And the priest shall burn it as incense on the altar for a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH. And the priest shall atone for him, and it is forgiven him.

32 And if he brings a lamb as his

[1] The laying on of hands is to symbolically transfer the sin to the animal, see note on Lev 1:4.

[2] These sacrifices are for sins of ignorance, but not defiance (Num 15:30-31). Also, if a sin was committed that was not a crime that required capital punishment, then besides the killing of the sacrifice, there also had to be restitution made by the offender.

offering, a female, without blemish, he shall bring it,

33 and he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and he shall slaughter it for a sin offering in the place where he slaughters the burnt offering.

34 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar.

35 And he shall take off all its fat, as is taken off the fat of the lamb from the sacrifice of peace offerings. And the priest shall burn them as incense on the altar, on the fire offerings of YAHWEH. And the priest shall atone for him for his sin which he has sinned; and it is forgiven him.[1]

Chapter 5

1 And when a person sins, and hears the voice of swearing, and he is a witness, or has seen, or has known, if he does not reveal it, then he shall bear his iniquity.[2] (Pr 29:24)

2 Or if a soul touches any unclean thing, or the unclean dead body of an animal, or the unclean dead body of livestock, or the dead body of unclean swarming things, it being hidden from him that he is unclean and is guilty,

3 or if he touches the uncleanness of man, any of his uncleanness by which he is unclean, and it is hidden from him, and he knows, then he is guilty.

4 Or if a person swears, speaking rashly with the lips, to do evil, or to do good, anything which the man speaks rashly with an oath, and it is hidden from him, and he knows, then he is guilty of one of these.

5 And it shall be when he is guilty of one of these, then he shall confess that in which he has sinned.[3]

6 And he shall bring his guilt offering to YAHWEH for his sin which he has sinned, a female out of the flock, a lamb, or a doe of the goats, for a sin offering. And the priest shall atone for him regarding his sin.

7 And if his hand does not reach to a lamb, then he shall bring his guilt offering, he who has sinned, two turtledoves, or two offspring of a dove, to YAHWEH; one for a sin offering, and one for a burnt offering.

8 And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall bring near for a sin offering first. And he shall nip off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it.

9 And he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and that which remains of the blood shall be drained at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering.

10 And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, as by decree. And the priest shall atone for him, because of his sin which he has sinned; and it shall be forgiven him.

1 There is a difference between forgiveness and restoration. This is the difference between Passover (forgiveness) and The Day of Atonement (reconciliation). Although forgiveness is given, there still has to be restoration, according to Torah, to pay the penalty for what was lost. Much of the Torah lays out these judgments, depending on what the particular sin was, and if it was a crime that brought capital punishment, then only the principle of "life for life" could apply. This is why there was no salvation in the first covenant and why Yahshua had to come and die to pay the life sentence for sin of all those who believe in His sacrifice.

2 Neutrality is of the devil, and it is the Torah given responsibility for someone who witnesses evil to report it (Math 18:15-17).

3 There always has to be admission of guilt and repentance in order to receive YHWH's forgiveness.

11 And if his hand cannot reach to two turtledoves, or two offspring of a dove, then he who sinned shall bring his offering, a tenth of an ephah[1] of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall not put oil on it, nor put frankincense on it; for it is a sin offering.

12 And he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take from it his full handful, the memorial offering, and shall burn it as incense on the altar, on the fire offering of YAHWEH; it is a sin offering.

13 And the priest shall atone for him, for his sin which he sinned from one of these; and it shall be forgiven him. And it shall be for the priest as a food offering.

14 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses saying,

15 If a person acts unfaithfully and sins through ignorance[2], against the holy things of YAHWEH, then he shall bring his guilt offering to YAHWEH, a ram, without blemish out of the flock, at your evaluation in silver shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary, for a guilt offering.

16 And he shall make good that in which he sinned against the holy thing, and he shall add its fifth part to it, and give it to the priest. And the priest shall atone for him with the ram of the guilt offering; and it shall be forgiven him. (Is 53:10)

17 And if a person sins, and he has done that which is not to be done from any one of all the commands of YAHWEH, and does not know it, and he is guilty, and bears his iniquity,

18 then he shall bring a ram, without blemish from the flock, at your evaluation for a guilt offering to the priest. And the priest shall atone for him, for his sin of error which he erred, and he did not know; and it shall be forgiven him.

19 It is a guilt offering; truly he is guilty before the face of YAHWEH.[3]

Chapter 6

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 If any person sins and is slyly treacherous against YAHWEH, and deals falsely with his neighbor concerning a deposit, or concerning security, or by robbery, or has extorted his neighbor,

3 or has found a lost thing and has lied about it, and has sworn to a falsehood in regard to any one of all these which a man does, sinning in them,

4 then it shall be, when he sins and is guilty, he shall return what he got by robbery, that which he robbed, or the extorted thing which he extorted, or the deposit which had been deposited with him, or the lost thing which he had found;

5 or all that about which he swore falsely; he shall even repay it in its principal, and the fifth part he shall add to it; to whomever it belongs. He shall give it on the day of his guilt offering.

6 And he shall bring his guilt offering to YAHWEH: a ram, without blemish out of the flock, at your evaluation for a guilt offering, to the priest.

7 And the priest shall make atonement for him before YAHWEH, and as regards to one thing of all that he has done, it shall be forgiven him, by being guilty in it.[4]

8 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

---

1 An ephah is about 22 liters

2 This Hebrew word does not mean that the person completely did not know what they were doing, but that they were not defiantly doing the sin.

3 Ro 3:23-25

9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering; it is the burnt offering because it is burned on the altar all the night until the morning, and the fire of the altar is kept burning on it.

10 The priest shall put on his long robe of fine linen, and he shall put his linen underpants on his flesh. And he shall lift up the ashes which the fire consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and shall put them beside the altar.

11 And he shall strip off his garments, and shall put on other garments, and shall bring the ashes out to the outside of the camp, to a clean place.

12 And the fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it; it shall not be put out. And the priest shall burn wood on it morning by morning. And he shall lay the burnt offering in order on it. And he shall burn it as incense with the fat of the peace offering.

13 Fire shall be continually burning on the altar; it shall never go out.

14 And this is the law of the food offering: the sons of Aaron shall bring it near before YAHWEH, to the front of the altar.

15 And he shall lift from it his handful of the flour of the food offering, and of its oil, and all the frankincense on the food offering. And he shall burn it as incense on the altar, a soothing fragrance from its memorial to YAHWEH.

16 And Aaron and his sons shall eat the rest. It shall be eaten with unleavened things in the holy place, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it.

17 It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion out of My fire offerings. It is most holy, like the sin offering, and like the guilt offering.

18 Every male among the sons of Aaron shall eat it, a never ending statute throughout your generations from the fire offerings of YAHWEH. All that touches them shall be holy.

19 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

20 This is the offering of Aaron and his sons which they shall bring near to YAHWEH on the day he is anointed: a tenth of an ephah of flour, a continual food offering; half of it in the morning, and half of it in the evening.

21 It shall be made on a griddle with oil. You shall bring it in mixed. You shall bring baked pieces of the food offering, a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.

22 And the priest who is anointed in his place, from among his sons, shall make it. It is a never ending statute of YAHWEH. It shall be completely burned;

23 and every food offering of a priest is a whole burnt offering. It shall not be eaten.

24 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

25 Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall

[4] Verses 1-6- Now we start to see specific cases of guilt with repentance, where there has to be both a sacrifice made by the mediator (priest), and also restitution for what was lost by the perpetrator. When Yahshua magnified the Torah, He showed that all sin starts in the mind, (Math 5:21-28) and to think lustful thoughts was considered adultery. Also, to be angry with someone is considered murder. By magnifying the Torah in such a way, Yahshua showed the people that all humans have not only sinned but have committed crimes that bring the death penalty (Ro 3:10-25), and only by repenting of those sins and allowing His shed blood to pay the penalty for them can one be justified before Yahweh, and gain eternal life.

be killed before YAHWEH. It is most holy.

26 The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in the holy place in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 All that touches its flesh shall be holy. And when any of its blood is sprinkled on the garment that on which it is sprinkled shall be washed in the holy place.

28 And an earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken. And if it is boiled in a copper vessel, then it shall be scoured and rinsed with water.

29 Every male among the priests shall eat of it. It is most holy.

30 And any sin offering of whose blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to make atonement in the sanctuary shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire.

Chapter 7

1 And this is the law of the guilt offering; it is most holy.

2 In the place where they kill the burnt offering, they shall kill the guilt offering, and its blood shall be sprinkled on the altar all around.

3 And all its fat shall be brought near, he shall offer the fat tail of it, and the fat which covers the inward parts,

4 and the two kidneys, and the fat on them, on the flanks, and the lobe above the liver beside the kidneys, he shall remove.

5 And the priest shall burn them as incense on the altar, a fire offering to YAHWEH; it is a guilt offering.

6 Every male among the priests shall eat it; it shall be eaten in the holy place. It is most holy.

7 As a sin offering is, so is a guilt offering. One law is for them. The priest who makes atonement by it, it is his.

8 And the priest who brings near any man's burnt offering, the skin of the burnt offering which he has brought near, it is the priest's, his own.

9 And every food offering which was baked in an oven, and every one that is prepared in the stewing pan, and on the griddle, shall be the priest's that offers it; it is his.

10 And every food offering, mixed with oil or dry, it shall be for all the sons of Aaron to a man, as his brother.

11 And this is the law of the sacrifice of the peace offerings which shall be brought near to YAHWEH:

12 If he brings it for a thanksgiving, then he shall bring with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and thin unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and of well-mixed flour, cakes mixed with oil.

13 He shall bring his offering with the cakes of leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving, his peace offerings.

14 And he shall bring out of it one of every offering, a heave offering to YAHWEH, to the priest sprinkling the blood of the peace offering; it is his.

15 As to the flesh of the sacrifice of the thanksgiving peace offerings, it shall be eaten in the day of his offering. He shall not leave any of it until morning.

16 And if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow, or freewill offering, in the day he brings his sacrifice near, it shall be eaten. And on the morrow the rest of it shall also be eaten.

17 And the rest of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings is at all eaten on the third day, it is not pleasing. It shall not be reckoned for him who has brought it. It shall be a hateful thing, and the person who eats of it shall bear his iniquity.[1]

19 And the flesh which touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire. As to the flesh, every clean one shall eat of the flesh.

20 And the person who eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offerings which belong to YAHWEH, when his uncleanness is upon him, even that person shall be cut off from his people. (1 Cor 10:21)

21 And when a person touches any unclean thing, of the uncleanness of man, or of the uncleanness of animals, or of an unclean abominable creature, and shall eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offerings which belong to YAHWEH, even that person shall be cut off from his people.

22 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

23 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, You shall not eat any fat of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

24 And the fat of a dead body, and the fat of a thing torn may be used for any work, but you certainly shall not eat it;

25 for whoever eats the fat of the animal, of which one brings near a fire offering to YAHWEH, even the person who eats shall be cut off from his people.

26 And you shall not eat any blood in all your dwellings, of fowl, or of animal.

27 Any person who eats any blood, even that person shall be cut off from his people.

28 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

29 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, He who brings near the sacrifice of his peace offerings to YAHWEH shall bring his offering to YAHWEH from the sacrifice of his peace offerings;

30 his own hands shall bring in the fire offerings of YAHWEH; the fat beside the breast he shall bring in with the breast, to wave it as a wave offering before YAHWEH.

31 And the priest shall burn the fat on the altar as incense; and the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons.

32 And you shall make a heave offering of the right leg to the priest of the sacrifices of your peace offerings;

33 one of the sons of Aaron who is bringing near the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, the right leg is his for a portion.

34 For the breast of the wave offering and the leg of the heave offering, I have taken from the sons of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and I have given them to Aaron the priest, and to his sons, by a never ending statute, from the sons of Israel.

35 This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and the anointing of his sons out of the fire offerings of YAHWEH, in the day he shall bring them near to act as priests to YAHWEH,

36 which YAHWEH has commanded to give to them the day of His anointing them, from the sons of Israel, a never ending statute throughout their generations.

37 This is the law for burnt offering, for the food offering, and for sin offering, and for guilt offering, and for consecrations, and for a sacrifice of the peace offerings,

38 which YAHWEH had

[1] This is symbolic of Messiah's sacrifice, in which He was resurrected on the third day and with His resurrection no animal sacrifice according to the Levitical law was necessary any longer or acceptable to YHWH.

commanded Moses in Mount Sinai, in the days of His commanding the sons of Israel to bring near their offerings to YAHWEH, in the wilderness of Sinai.

Chapter 8

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
2 Take Aaron, and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bull of the sin offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened things,
3 and gather all the congregation together at the door of the tent of the meeting.
4 And Moses did as YAHWEH had commanded him, and the congregation was gathered to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
5 And Moses said to the congregation, This is the thing which YAHWEH has commanded to be done.
6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and bathed them in water,
7 and put on him the tunic, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the upper robe, and put the ephod on him, and girded him with the ephod on him, and girded him with the girdle of the ephod, and bound it to him with it;
8 and put the breast pocket on him, and put the Urim and the Thummim into the breast plate,[1]
9 and put the miter on his head, and on the miter, on its front, he put the golden plate, the holy crown, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.
10 And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle, and all in it, and sanctified them;
11 and he sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar, and all its vessels, and the laver, and its base, to sanctify them.
12 And he poured some of the anointing oil on the head of Aaron, and anointed him, to sanctify him. (Ps 133:2)
13 And Moses brought the sons of Aaron near, and clothed them with tunics, and girded them with girdles, and bound turbans on them, as YAHWEH had commanded Moses.
14 And he brought the bull of the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering;
15 and one slaughtered it; and Moses took the blood and put it on the horns of the altar all around with his finger, and cleansed the altar; and he poured out the blood at the base of the altar, and sanctified it, to make atonement on it.
16 And he took all the fat on the inward parts, and the lobe above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it as incense on the altar.
17 And the bull, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung, he burned with fire, at the outside of the camp, as YAHWEH had commanded Moses.
18 And he brought the ram of the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram;
19 and one killed it, and Moses sprinkled the blood on the altar all around;
20 and he cut the ram into its pieces, and Moses burned it as incense with the head, and the pieces, and the fat.
21 And he washed the inward parts and the legs with water, and Moses

[1] Urim and Thummim were sacred stones that were used to determine the will of YHWH in a given situation (Num 27:21). Urim starts with the first letter in the Hebrew alphabet 'Aleph' and Thummim starts with the last letter 'Tav'. (Pr 16:33) burned it as incense with the whole ram on the altar; it is a burnt offering, for a soothing fragrance; it is a fire offering to YAHWEH, as YAHWEH had commanded Moses.

22 And he brought the second ram, a ram of the consecrations, and Aaron and his sons lay their hands on the head of the ram.

23 And one killed it, and Moses took some of its blood and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

24 And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put some of the blood on the tip of their right ear, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot. And Moses sprinkled the blood on the altar all around,

25 and took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat on the inward parts, and the lobe above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right leg.

26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread which was before YAHWEH, he took one unleavened cake, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and on the right leg;

27 and placed the whole on the hands of Aaron, and on the hands of his sons, and waved them, a wave offering before YAHWEH.

28 And Moses took them off their hands and burned them with incense on the altar, on the burnt offering; they are consecrations for a soothing fragrance; it is a fire offering to YAHWEH.

29 And Moses took the breast and waved it, a wave offering before YAHWEH, of the ram of the consecrations. It was Moses' portion, as YAHWEH had commanded Moses.

30 And Moses took some of the anointing oil, and some of the blood on the altar, and sprinkled on Aaron, on his garments, and on his sons, and on his sons' garments with him. And he sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.

31 And Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and you shall eat it there, and the bread in the basket of the consecrations, as I have commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 And the rest of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire;

33 and you shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation for seven days, until the days of your consecration are fulfilled. For He shall consecrate you seven days; (Gen 7:10)

34 as He has done on this day, YAHWEH has commanded you to do, to make atonement for you.

35 And you shall remain at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night for seven days, and you shall keep the charge of YAHWEH and shall not die; for so I have been commanded.

36 And Aaron and his sons did all the things which YAHWEH had commanded by the hand of Moses.

Chapter 9

1 And it happened, on the eighth day, Moses called for Aaron and for his sons, and for the elders of Israel.

2 And he said to Aaron, Take a calf to yourself, a son of the herd, for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, ones without blemish, and bring them near before YAHWEH.

3 And speak to the sons of Israel, saying, Take a kid of the goats for a sin offering, and a calf, and a lamb, sons of a year, ones without blemish, for a burnt offering;

4 and a bull and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before YAHWEH; and a food offering mixed with oil; for today YAHWEH will be seen.
5 And they took that which Moses had commanded to the front of the tent of meeting, and the entire congregation drew near and stood before YAHWEH.
6 And Moses said, This is the thing that YAHWEH has commanded; do it, and the glory of YAHWEH shall appear to you.
7 And Moses said to Aaron, Draw near to the altar and make your sin offering, and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself, and for the people, and make the offering of the people, and atone for them, as YAHWEH has commanded.
8 And Aaron drew near to the altar and killed the calf of the sin offering,
which is for himself;
9 and Aaron's sons brought the blood near to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar. And he poured out the blood at the base of the altar; 10 and the fat, and the kidneys, and the lobe of the liver, of the sin offering, he burned with incense on the altar, as YAHWEH had commanded Moses.
11 And he burned the flesh and the skin with fire, at the outside of the camp.
12 And he killed the burnt offering.
And Aaron's sons presented the blood to him and he sprinkled it on the altar
all around;
13 and they presented to him the burnt offering, by its pieces, and the head, and he burned them with incense on the altar.
14 And he washed the inward parts and the legs, and burned them as incense for the burnt offering on the altar.
15 And he brought the offering of the people, and took the he-goat of the sin offering which is for the people, and killed it, and made it a sin offering like the first.
16 And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it, according to the ordinance.
17 And he brought the food offering and filled his hand from it, and burned it as incense on the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning.
18 And he killed the bull and the ram, a sacrifice of the peace offerings, which are for the people, and Aaron's sons presented the blood to him, and he sprinkled it on the altar all around; 19 and the fat of the bull, and of the ram, the fat tail, and the covering, and the kidneys, and the lobe above the liver.
20 And they set the fat on the breasts, and he burned as incense the fat on the altar.
21 And Aaron waved the breasts, and the right leg as a wave offering before YAHWEH, as Moses commanded.
22 And Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them, and came down from offering the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.
23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation.
And they came out and blessed the people; and the glory of YAHWEH appeared to all the people.
24 And fire came out from before YAHWEH and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. And all the people saw, and cried aloud, and fell on their faces.

Chapter 10

1 And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of

Aaron, each took his censer[1] and put fire in them; and they put incense on it and brought profane fire before YAHWEH, which He had not commanded them.[2] 2 And fire went out from before YAHWEH and consumed them; and they died before YAHWEH.
3 And Moses said to Aaron, It is that which YAHWEH has spoken, saying, I will be treated holy by those drawing near to Me; and I will be honored before all the people. And Aaron was silent.[3]
4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Uzziel, Aaron's uncle, and said to them, Come near, carry your brothers from the front of the sanctuary to the outside of the camp.
5 And they came near and carried them in their coats to the outside of the camp, as Moses had commanded.
6 And Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar, and to Ithamar, his sons, You shall not uncover your heads and you shall not tear your garments, that you may not die, and He be angry on all the congregation. As to your brothers, the whole house of Israel, they shall mourn the burning which YAHWEH has kindled.
7 And you shall not go out of the door of the tent of the meeting, lest you die. For the anointing oil of YAHWEH is on you. And they did according to the word of Moses.
8 And YAHWEH spoke to Aaron, saying,
9 You shall not drink wine and fermented drink, you nor your sons with you, as you go into the tabernacle of the congregation, and you shall not die; a never ending statute throughout your generations;
10 and to make a distinction between the holy and profane, and between the unclean and the clean;
11 and to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which YAHWEH has spoken to them by the hand of Moses.
12 And Moses spoke to Aaron, and to Eleazar, and to Ithamar, his sons who were left, Take the food offering that remains from the fire offerings of YAHWEH, and eat it unleavened near the altar, for it is most holy.
13 And you shall eat it in the holy place, for it is your portion, and the portion of your sons, from the fire offerings of YAHWEH; for so I have been commanded.
14 And the breast of the wave offering, and the leg of the heave offering, you shall eat in a clean place, you and your sons, and your daughters with you. For they have been given for your portion and the portion of your sons out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the sons of Israel.
15 The leg of the heave offering, and the breast of the wave offering, besides fire offerings of the fat, they shall bring in to wave a wave offering before YAHWEH; and it shall be to you, and to your sons with you, a never ending

1 A censor was a ceremonial vessel containing hot coals and was used for burning incense.

2 Yahweh is quickly setting the standard of His judicial order and the grave consequences for breaking it. Nadab and Abihu apparently had used coals that were not taken from the brazen altar (Lev 6:12-13, 16:12). They also did not come in at the prescribed time of day that YHWH commanded (Ex 30:7-8), and considering the prohibition for a priest from alcohol when serving (verse 9), they were most likely intoxicated at this time also.

3 There is a great responsibility for covenant believers to live a holy, sanctified, life from worldliness and sin; and someone cannot think that they can come to YHWH on their own terms without respecting His judicial order in the congregation or in their personal lives (Heb 12:14).

statute, as YAHWEH has commanded.

16 And Moses sought carefully for the goat of the sin offering; and, behold, it had been burned! And he was angry against Eleazar and against Ithamar, Aaron's remaining sons, saying,

17 Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, for it is most holy, and He has given it to you to take away the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before YAHWEH?

18 Behold, its blood has not been brought into the holy place inside. You should certainly have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I have commanded.

19 And Aaron said to Moses, Behold, today they have brought their sin offering and their burnt offering before YAHWEH; and such things have happened to me. And if I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been accepted in the sight of YAHWEH?

20 And when Moses heard, then it was good in his eyes.

Chapter 11

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them,

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, These are the living things which you shall eat out of all the animals which are on the earth.[1]

3 Any that divides the hoof and is wholly cloven footed, bringing up the cud, among the living things, you may eat it.

4 Only, you may not eat these, of those bringing up the cud, and of those dividing the hoof: the camel, though it brings up the cud, yet it does not divide the hoof; it is unclean to you;

5 and the rock badger, though it brings up the cud, yet it does not divide the hoof; it is unclean to you;

6 and the hare, though it brings up the cud,[2] yet it does not divide the hoof; it is unclean to you;

7 and the swine, though it divides the hoof and is cloven footed, yet it does not bring up the cud; it is unclean to you.

8 You shall not eat of their flesh, and you shall not touch their dead body; they are unclean to you.

9 Of all that are in the waters, you shall eat these; any one that has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the brooks, you may eat them.

10 But any one that does not have fins and scales in the seas, and in the brooks, of any swarming creature of the waters, and of any creature which lives in the waters; they are to be detested by you.

11 Yes, they shall be an abomination to you; you shall not eat of their flesh and you shall shun their dead bodies.

12 Any one that does not have fins and scales in the waters, it shall be an unclean thing to you.

13 And these you shall count unclean among the fowls; they shall not be eaten; they are unclean: the eagle, and the black vulture and the bearded vulture,

14 and the kite, and the falcon, according to its kind;

15 every raven according to its kind;

16 and the ostrich, and the great owl, and the gull, and small hawks, according to its kind;

---

[1] Chapter 11 defines the food laws of what animal life YHWH created for consumption and what animal life that He did not. It is paralleled in Deut 14:3-21. An animal had to chew the cud and have a split hoof to be considered clean to eat and sea life had to have fins and scales.

[2] Chewing the cud had to deal with the method for chewing not the manner of digesting.

17 and the little owl, and the Egyptian vulture, and the eared owl;
18 and the barn owl, and the pelican and the owl-vulture;
19 and the stork, the heron according to its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.[1]
20 Every flying swarming creature going on all four, it is an abomination to you.
21 Only, this you may eat of any swarming thing which flies, which goes on all four, which has legs above its feet, to leap with them on the earth;
22 these are those you may eat: the locusts according to its kind, and the bald locust according to its kind, and the long horned grasshopper according to its kind, and the short horned grasshopper according to its kind.
23 But every swarming thing which flies, which has four feet, it is unclean to you.
24 And by these you shall be made unclean; any who touches their dead body is unclean until the evening.
25 And anyone who lifts up their dead body shall wash his garments and shall be unclean until the evening;
26 even every living thing which divides the hoof, and is not cloven footed, and does not bring up the cud, they are unclean to you; anyone who touches them shall be unclean.
27 And any going on its paws among all the living things which go on all four, they are unclean to you; anyone who touches their dead body is unclean until the evening;
28 and he who lifts up their dead body shall wash his garments and shall be unclean until the evening; they are unclean to you.
29 And these shall be unclean to you among the swarming things which swarm on the earth: the weasel, and the mouse, and the great lizard according to its kind,
30 and the gecko, and the monitor, and the lizard, and the sand lizard, and the barn owl.
31 These are unclean to you among all which swarm; anyone who touches them in their death is unclean until the evening.
32 And anything on which any one of them falls in their death is unclean, whether of any vessel of wood, or garment, or skin, or sack; any vessel in which work is done shall be caused to go into water, and shall be unclean until the evening; then it shall be cleaned.
33 And any earthen vessel into the midst of which any one of them falls, whatever is in it shall be unclean, and you shall break it.
34 And of all the food which may be eaten, that on which such water falls shall be unclean, and all drink that may be drunk in any such vessel shall be unclean.
35 And anything on which any part of their dead body falls shall be unclean; an oven or hearth shall be broken down; they are unclean; yes, they are unclean to you.
36 But a fountain or a well, a collection of water, shall be clean; only that touching the dead body is unclean.
37 And when any part of their dead body falls on any sowing seed which is sown, it shall be clean;
38 but when water is put on the seed, and any of its dead body has fallen on it, it shall be unclean to you.
39 And when any of the animals which are food for you dies, he who touches its dead body is unclean until the evening;
40 and he who eats of its dead body shall wash his garments and shall be

[1] Verses 13-19- All of the unclean birds names are carnivores.

unclean until the evening; and he who lifts up its dead body shall wash his garments and shall be unclean until the evening.
41 And every swarming thing which swarms on the earth is unclean; it shall not be eaten.
42 Anything going on its belly, and any going on all four, and all having many feet, even every swarming thing that swarms on the earth, you shall not eat them, for they are unclean.
43 You shall not pollute yourselves with any swarming thing which swarms, nor shall you make yourselves unclean with them, so that you should be defiled by them.
44 For I am YAHWEH your Elohim, and you have sanctified yourselves, and you have become holy, for I am holy[1]. And you shall not defile your persons with any swarming thing which creeps on the earth;
45 for I am YAHWEH who brought you up out of the land of Egypt to become your Elohim; and you shall be holy, for I am holy.
46 This is the law of the animals, and of the fowl, and of every living creature which moves in the waters, and every creature which swarms on the earth,
47 to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the living thing that may be eaten and the living thing that may not be eaten.[2]

1 The Hebrew word here 'Kadosh' means to be set apart. True covenant believers are to be set apart from the world not imitating their ways. To eat unclean food would be a defilement and outright act of rebellion.

2 The food laws here are quite simple; the Eternal Creator, who created all animals and sea life in Genesis, is simply telling His beloved creation which ones He created for consumption and which ones He did not.

Chapter 12

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
2 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, If a woman has conceived seed, and has borne a male, then she shall be unclean seven days; as on the days of her menstrual impurity she shall be unclean.
3 And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.[3]
4 And she shall remain in the blood of her cleansing thirty three days; she shall not touch any holy thing, and she shall not go into the sanctuary, until the days of her cleansing are fulfilled.
5 And if she bears a female, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her menstruation; and she shall continue in the blood of her cleansing sixty six days[4].
6 And when the days of her cleansing are fulfilled for son or for daughter, she shall bring in a lamb, a son of a year, for a burnt offering, and a young dove or a turtledove for a sin offering, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to the priest.
7 And he shall bring it near before YAHWEH, and shall atone for her; and she shall be cleansed from the fountain of her blood; this is the law of her who bears, whether a male or a female.

3 Circumcision was a sign of the first covenant (Gen 17:10), but here it is also a law of clean and unclean. Women who are married to men who are circumcised have a much lower rate of cervical cancer than those who are not circumcised. According to this law, believers should still circumcise their male children on the 8th day of life. On the 8th day of life of a male baby his vitamin k rises so that clotting can occur after the circumcision. Truly, the Creator's ways are perfect.

4 Quarantine time is given for newborn's immune system to build.

8 And if her hand is not able to find a lamb, then she shall take two turtle doves, or two young doves one for a burnt offering, and one for a sin offering, and the priest shall atone for her; and she shall be cleansed.

Chapter 13

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
2 When a man has a swelling in the skin of his flesh, or a scab, or a bright spot, and it shall become in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy, then he shall be brought in to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons the priests.
3 And the priest shall look upon the plague in the skin of the flesh; and if the hair in the plague has turned white, and the appearance of the plague is deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy, and the priest shall look upon him and shall pronounce him unclean.
4 And if the bright spot is white in the skin of his flesh, and its appearance is not deeper than the skin, and its hair has not turned white, then the priest shall shut up the plague seven days.
5 And the priest shall look on him on the seventh day, and, behold, if the plague stays in its appearance, and the plague has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven more days.
6 And the priest shall look upon him again the seventh day; and, behold, if the plague has become dim, and the plague has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is a scab, and he shall wash his garments and shall be clean.
7 But if the scab spreads greatly in the skin, after he has been seen by the priest for his cleansing, then he shall be seen a second time by the priest.
8 And the priest shall look, and, behold, if the scab has spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.
9 When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought in to the priest.
10 And the priest shall look, and, behold, if a white rising is in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and a living flesh is in the swelling,
11 it is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not shut him up, for he is unclean.
12 And if the leprosy breaks out greatly on the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of the one who has the plague, from his head even to his feet, to all that appears to the priest's eyes,
13 then the priest shall look, and behold, if the leprosy has covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce the plague-spot clean; it has all turned white; he is clean.
14 And in the day living flesh is seen in him, he is unclean.
15 And the priest shall look on the living flesh and shall pronounce him unclean; the living flesh is unclean; it is leprosy.
16 Or when the living flesh turns back and shall be turned to white, then he shall come in to the priest;
17 and the priest shall look on him; and, behold, the plague has turned to white; the priest shall pronounce the plague-spot clean; he is clean.
18 And when the flesh has a boil in its skin, and it has been healed, 19 and a white swelling has replaced the boil, or a bright white spot, very red, a reddish white, then it shall be seen by the priest.
20 And the priest shall look; and, behold, if its appearance is lower than the skin, and its hair has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the plague of leprosy; it has broken out in a boil.

21 But if the priest looks at it; and, behold, there is no white hair in it, and it is not lower than the skin, and has become dim, then the priest shall shut him up seven days.

22 And if it spreads greatly in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a plague.

23 And if in its place the bright spot is stayed, it has not spread; it is an inflamed boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 Or if there is flesh in which the skin has a hot burning, and the raw flesh of the burning becomes a bright white spot, being very red or white;

25 and the priest shall look on it; and, behold, the hair has turned white in the bright spot, and its appearance is deeper than the skin, it is leprosy. It has broken out in the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the priest looks on it, and, behold, there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it is no lower than the other skin, but is somewhat faded, then the priest shall shut him up seven days.

27 And the priest shall look at him the seventh day. And if it is spread abroad very much in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot stays in its place, and does not spread in the skin, but is somewhat faded, it is a swelling of the burning; and the priest shall pronounce him clean, for it is a scar of the burning.

29 And if a man or a woman has in them a plague in the head or in the beard,

30 then the priest shall look on the plague. And, behold, if its appearance is deeper than the skin, and a thin shining hair in it, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a scab, a leprosy on the head or beard.

31 And when the priest looks on the plague of the scab; and, behold, it is not in sight deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall shut up the plagued one with the scab seven days.

32 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague. And, behold, if the scab has not spread, and there is no shining hair in it, and the appearance of the scab is not deeper than the skin,

33 then he shall shave himself, but he shall not shave the scab. And the priest shall shut up the one who has the scab a second seven days.

34 And the priest shall look on the scab on the seventh day. And, behold, if the scab has not spread in the skin, and its appearance is not deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. And he shall wash his garments, and shall be clean.

35 And if the scab has spread further in the skin after his cleansing,

36 and the priest has looked on him; and, behold, the scab has spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for the shining, yellow hair; he is unclean.

37 But if in his eyes the scab has stabilized, and black hair has sprung up in it, the scab has been healed; he is clean. And the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 And when a man or a woman has bright spots, white bright spots, in the skin of their flesh,

39 and the priest has seen it; and, behold there are pale white spots in the skin of their flesh, it is a pale spot springing up in the skin; he is clean.

40 And when a man's head grows bald, he is bald, he is clean.
41 And if his head grows bald from the corner of his head toward his face,
he is forehead bald; he is clean.
42 And if there is in the bald head, or the bald forehead, a reddish white plague, it is a leprosy breaking out in the bald head, or in the bald forehead.
43 And the priest shall look on him, and, behold, if the rising of the plague is reddish white in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the appearance of leprosy, in the skin of the flesh, 44 he is a leprous man; he is unclean. The priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his head.
45 And the leper who has the plague in him, his garments shall be torn, and his head shall be uncovered, and he shall cover the upper lip; and he shall call out, Unclean! Unclean!
46 And the days that the plague shall be in him, he is unclean; he shall live alone, he is unclean; his dwelling shall be at the outside of the camp.
47 And if there is in any garment a plague of leprosy, in a garment of wool, or in a garment of linen, 48 or in the warp, or in the woof, or of linen, or of wool, or in leather, or in any work of leather, 49 and if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the leather, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of leather, it is a plague of leprosy; and it shall be seen by the priest.
50 And the priest shall look on the plague, and shall shut up the plagued thing seven days.
51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day. And if the plague has spread in the garment, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in the leather, of all that is made of skin for use, the plague is a corroding leprosy; it is unclean.
52 And he shall burn the garment, or the warp, or the woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of leather, in which the plague is; for it is a corroding leprosy; it shall be burned with fire.
53 And if the priest shall look, and,
behold, the plague has not spread in the garment, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of leather, 54 then the priest shall command, and they shall wash that in which the plague is. And he shall shut it up a second seven days.
55 And the priest shall look on that in which the plague is after it has been washed. And, behold, if the plague has not changed its appearance, and if the plague has not spread, it is unclean;
you shall burn it with fire; it is eaten away in its inside or in its outside.
56 And if the priest shall look, and,
behold, the plague has become pale after it has been washed, then he shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the leather, or out of the warp, or out of the woof.
57 And if it is still seen in the garment, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of leather, it is a spreading plague; you shall burn it with fire, that in which the plague is.
58 And the garment, or the warp, or the woof, or anything of leather which you shall wash when the plague has been taken off them, then it shall be washed a second time, and shall be clean.
59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of wool or of linen, or of the warp, or of the woof, or of anything of leather, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

Chapter 14

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing, that he shall be brought to the priest.

3 And the priest shall go out to the outside of the camp. And the priest shall look; and, behold, if the plague of leprosy is healed in the leper,

4 then the priest shall command, and he shall take for him who is to be cleansed two clean living birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop.

5 And the priest shall command, and he shall kill the one bird on an earthen vessel, over running water;

6 he shall take the living bird, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the slain bird, over the running water.

7 And he shall sprinkle on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean. And he shall send out the living bird into the open field.

8 And he who is to be cleansed shall wash his garments, and shall shave all his hair, and shall bathe with water, and shall be clean. And afterwards he shall come into the camp, and shall live on the outside of his tent seven days.

9 And it shall be on the seventh day, he shall shave all his hair, his head, and his beard, and his eyebrows; he shall even shave all his hair. And he shall wash his garments, and shall bathe his flesh with water, and shall be clean.

10 And on the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb, daughter of a year, without blemish, and three tenth parts of flour for a food offering, mixed with oil, and one log of oil.

11 And the priest who is cleansing, and the man who is to be cleansed, shall stand with them before YAHWEH, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And the priest shall take the one male lamb and shall bring it near for a guilt offering, and the log of oil, and shall wave them as a wave offering before YAHWEH.

13 And he shall kill the lamb in the place where he killed the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place. For like the sin offering, the guilt offering belongs to the priest; it is most holy.

14 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering; and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

15 And the priest shall take some of the log of oil and shall pour it on the left hand of the priest.

16 And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil on his left palm and shall sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before YAHWEH.

17 And of the rest of the oil on his palm, the priest shall put on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the blood of the guilt offering;

18 and the rest of the oil on the palm of the priest, he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed. And the priest shall make atonement for him before YAHWEH.

19 And the priest shall make a sin offering, and shall atone for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness. And afterwards he shall slaughter the burnt offering;

20 and the priest shall offer the burnt offering, and the food offering, on the altar; and the priest shall make atonement for him; and he shall be clean.

21 And if he is poor, and his hand is not able to reach these things, then he shall take one lamb as a guilt offering, for a wave offering, to atone for himself, and one tenth part of flour mixed with oil for a food offering, and a log of oil, 22 and two turtledoves, or two young doves, which his hand can reach; and one shall be a sin offering,
and the other a burnt offering.
23 And he shall bring them in to the priest on the eighth day for his cleansing, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before
YAHWEH.
24 And the priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before YAHWEH; 25 and he shall kill the lamb of the guilt offering; and the priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and he shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed,
and on the thumb of his right hand,
and on the big toe of his right foot.
26 And the priest shall pour the oil on the left hand of the priest; 27 and the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil on his palm, seven times before YAHWEH.
28 And the priest shall put some of the oil on his palm on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed,
and on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the guilt offering.
29 And the rest of the oil on the priest's palm he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to atone for him, before YAHWEH.
30 And he shall offer one of the turtledoves, or of the young doves, from that which he is able to reach;
31 that which his hand has reached out to, the one a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering, besides the food offering. And the priest shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed before YAHWEH.
32 This is the law of him in whom is a plague of leprosy whose hand could not reach to his cleansing.
33 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses
and to Aaron, saying, 34 When you come into the land of Canaan, which I am giving to you for a possession, and I have put a plague of leprosy in the house in the land of your possession;
35 then if he who owns the house shall come in and declare to the priest, saying, I have seen a plague in the house.
36 And the priest shall command, and they shall turn out from the house before the priest comes in to see the plague that all in the house may not be unclean; and afterwards the priest shall come in to see the house.
37 And he shall look upon the plague; and, behold, if the plague is in the walls of the house with depressions greenish or reddish, and the appearance of it is lower than the wall;
38 then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days.
39 And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look; and, behold, if the plague has spread in the walls of the house;
40 then the priest shall command that they take out the stones in which the plague is, and throw them into an unclean place outside the city.
41 And he shall cause the house to be scraped inside all around, and they shall pour out the dust which they have scraped off at the outside of the city, at an unclean place.

42 And they shall take other stones and bring them in to the place of the stones; and he shall take other clay and shall plaster the house.
43 And if the plague returns and breaks out in the house after he has taken away the stones, and after he has scraped the house, and after it has been plastered, 44 then the priest shall come in and look; and, behold, if the plague has spread in the house, it is a corroding leprosy in the house; it is unclean.
45 And he shall break down the house; its stones, and its wood, and all the clay of the house; and he shall carry it out to the outside of the city, to an unclean place.
46 And he who goes into the house all the days he has shut it up shall be unclean until the evening.
47 And he who lies in the house shall wash his clothes and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.
48 And if the priest shall come in and carefully look, and, behold, the plague has not spread in the house after the house has been plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean; for the plague has been healed.
49 And he shall take two birds for the cleansing of the house, and cedar wood, and scarlet dye, and hyssop; 50 and he shall kill the one bird on an earthen vessel, over running water; 51 and he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and shall dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and shall sprinkle on the house seven times.
52 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet dye;
53 and he shall send away the living bird to the outside of the city, to the open field, and shall atone for the house; and it shall be clean.
54 This is the law for every plague of the leprosy and for scabs; 55 and for leprosy of a garment, and of a house, 56 and for a rising, and for a scab,
and for a bright spot;
57 to teach when it is unclean and when it is clean; this is the law of leprosy.

Chapter 15

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses
and to Aaron, saying,
2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, to any man, When there is a discharge from his flesh; it is unclean because of his flow.
3 And this is his uncleanness in his issue, if his flesh has run with his issue, or his flesh has ceased from issue, it is his uncleanness.
4 Every bed on which the issuing one lies shall be unclean. And every thing on which he sits shall be unclean.
5 And anyone who touches his bed shall wash his garments, and shall bathe with water, and shall be unclean until the evening.
6 And he who sits on a thing on which he who discharges sat, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be unclean until the evening.
7 And he that touches the flesh of him who discharges shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until evening.
8 And if he who issues spits on a clean one, then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in running water, and be unclean until the evening.

9 And every saddle on which he who discharges rides shall be unclean.

10 And whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening. And the one carrying those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

11 And whomever he who has the discharge touches, and has not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

12 And the earthen vessel that he who discharges touches shall be broken; and every wooden vessel shall be rinsed in water.

13 And when he who discharges is cleansed of his issue, then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes. And he shall bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

14 And on the eighth day he shall take to himself two turtle doves, or two young doves, and come before YAHWEH to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation and give them to the priest.

15 And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. And the priest shall atone for him before YAHWEH for his discharge.

16 And if any man's semen goes out from him, then he shall bathe all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the evening.

17 And every garment, and every skin on which the semen is, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening.

18 And a woman with whom a man lies with an emission of semen shall bathe with water, and be unclean until the evening.

19 And if a woman's issue in her flesh is a flow of blood, she shall be in her impurity seven days; and whoever touches her shall be unclean until the evening.

20 And anything on which she lies in her impurity shall be unclean;[1] and anything on which she sits shall be unclean.

21 And whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

22 And whoever touches anything on which she sits shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

23 And if it is on the bed, or on anything on which she sits when he touches it, he shall be unclean until the evening.

24 And if lying any man lies with her, and her impurity is on him, he shall be unclean seven days, and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.

25 And if a woman has an issue of her blood many days outside the time of her impurity, or if she issues beyond the time of her impurity, all the days of the issue of her uncleanness, she shall be as in the days of her impurity; she is unclean.

26 Every bed on which she lies all the days of her issue shall be to her as the bed of her impurity to her; and everything on which she sits shall be unclean as the uncleanness of her impurity.

27 And whoever touches those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

28 And if she is cleansed of her issue then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.

29 And on the eighth day she shall take to herself two turtledoves, or two young doves, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

30 And the priests shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall atone for her before YAHWEH for the issue of her uncleanness.

31 So you shall separate the sons of Israel from their uncleanness, and they shall not die in their uncleanness, when they defile My tabernacle that is in their midst.

32 This is the law of him that discharges, and of him from whom semen goes out, for uncleanness by it;

33 and of her who is menstruating in her impurity, and of him from whom the issue goes, of a male or of a female, and of a man who lies with an unclean woman.

Chapter 16

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, as they drew near before YAHWEH, and they died.

2 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Speak to your brother Aaron, and he shall not come in at all times to the sanctuary within the veil, to the front of the mercy-seat.[1]

3 With this Aaron shall come into the sanctuary: with a bull, a son of the herd, for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

4 He shall put on a holy linen coat, and linen underpants shall be on his flesh, and he shall gird himself with a linen girdle, and he shall wrap himself in a linen miter; they are holy garments. And he shall bathe his flesh with water and shall put them on.

5 And he shall take from the congregation of the sons of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

6 And Aaron shall bring near the bull of the sin offering which is his own, and shall make atonement for himself, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two he-goats and shall cause them to stand before YAHWEH, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron shall give lots over the two he-goats, one lot for YAHWEH, and one lot for the scapegoat[2].

9 And Aaron shall bring the goat on which the lot of YAHWEH fell and shall make it a sin offering.

10 And the goat on which the lot fell for a complete removal shall be made to stand living before YAHWEH to atone by it, to send it away for a complete removal into the wilderness.[3]

11 And Aaron shall bring the bull of the sin offering which is his own, and

---

1 "Mercy-seat" - The Hebrew word is "Kapporeth", coming from the word for the day of Yom Kippur, meaning to cover. The kapporeth was the actual cover of the ark (Ex 25:17) and where the priest sprinkled the blood to atone for the people on this day. The same word is used in Rom 3:25 for "a sacrifice for atonement" referring to Yahshua's sacrifice for sin. Undoubtedly, this was the connection the Apostle Paul was trying to make.

2 The Hebrew word means "complete removal", the two goats are both representative of the Messiah. One goat shows the dying Messiah, and the goat that was completely removed shows the Messiah completely taking away our sins and also the resurrection.

3 This is a most amazing parallel on Yom Kippur of the work of the Messiah. Both goats represent Yahshua; the slain goat represents the dying Messiah, and the scapegoat that is let into the wilderness represents the resurrected Messiah. It is also interesting to note this is the only living sacrifice in the Tanach.

shall atone for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bull of the sin offering which is his own.

12 And he shall take a censer full of coals of the fire from off the altar before YAHWEH, and his hands full of fragrant perfumes beaten small, and bring it within the veil.

13 And he shall put the incense on the fire before YAHWEH, and the cloud of the incense shall cover the mercy-seat on the testimony; and he shall not die.

14 And he shall take some of the blood of the bull, and shall sprinkle with his finger on the front of the mercy-seat eastward. And he shall sprinkle at the front of the mercy-seat seven times from the blood with his finger.

15 And he shall kill the goat of the sin offering which is the people's, and shall bring in its blood to the inside of the veil, and shall do with its blood as he has done with the blood of the bull, and shall sprinkle it on the mercy-seat, and at the front of the mercy-seat.

16 And he shall atone for the sanctuary because of the pollutions of the sons of Israel, and because of their transgressions for all their sins. And so he shall do for the tent of meeting dwelling in the midst of their pollutions.

17 And not any man shall be in the tent of meeting as he goes in to atone in the sanctuary, until he comes out. And he shall atone for himself, and for his house, and for all the congregation of Israel.

18 And he shall go out to the altar before YAHWEH, and shall atone for it. And he shall take some of the blood of the bull, and some of the blood of the goat, and shall put it on the horns of the altar all around.

19 And he shall sprinkle on it from the blood with his finger seven times, and shall cleanse it, and shall purify it from the uncleanness of the sons of Israel.

20 And when he has finished atoning for the sanctuary, and the tent of meeting, and the altar, and has brought near the living goat;

21 then Aaron shall lay his two hands on the head of the living goat, and shall confess over it all the iniquities of the sons of Israel, and all their transgressions, and all their sins, and shall put them on the head of the goat, and shall send it by the hand of a chosen man into the wilderness.

22 And the goat shall bear on him all their iniquities to a land not inhabited. And he shall send the goat away into the wilderness.

23 And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall strip off the linen garments which he had put on as he went into the sanctuary, and shall leave them there.

24 And he shall bathe his flesh with water in the sanctuary and shall put on his garments, and shall come out, and shall offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and shall atone for himself and for the people.

25 And he shall burn as incense the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

26 And he who let the goat go for a scapegoat shall wash his garments and shall bathe his flesh with water; and later he shall come into the camp.

27 And the bull of the sin offering, and the goat of the sin offering, whose blood has been brought in to atone in the sanctuary, one shall carry them out to the outside of the camp; and they shall burn their skins with fire and their flesh, and their dung.

28 And he burning them shall wash his garments, and shall bathe his flesh with water, and afterwards he shall come into the camp.

29 And it shall be for a never ending statute, in the seventh month, in the tenth of the month, you shall humble yourself and do no work, the native, and the alien who is staying in your midst.

30 For on this day He shall atone for you, to cleanse you from all your sins you shall be clean before YAHWEH.

31 It is a Sabbath of rest to you, and you shall humble yourself. It is a never ending statute.

32 And the priest whom He shall anoint, and whose hand He shall consecrate to act as priest instead of his father, shall make atonement, and shall put on the linen garments, the holy garments.

33 And he shall atone for the holy sanctuary, and for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar he shall atone; yes, for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation he shall atone.

34 And this shall be to you a never ending statute to atone for the sons of Israel, because of all their sins, once a year. And he did as YAHWEH had commanded Moses.

Chapter 17

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel. And you shall say to them, This is the thing which YAHWEH has commanded, saying,

3 Any man of the house of Israel who kills an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or who kills at the outside of the camp,

4 and has not brought it in to the door of the tent of meeting as an offering to YAHWEH, before the tabernacle of YAHWEH, blood shall be imputed to that man; he has shed blood. And that man shall be cut off from the midst of his people;

5 so that the sons of Israel shall bring in their sacrifices which they are sacrificing in the open field to the door of the tent of meeting, to the priest, and sacrifice them for sacrifices of peace offerings to YAHWEH.

6 And the priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of YAHWEH, at the door of the tent of meeting, and shall burn the fat as incense for a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.

7 And they shall not sacrifice their sacrifices any more to devil like goats, after which they have gone whoring. This is a perpetual statute to them throughout their generations[1].

8 And you shall say to them, Any man of the house of Israel, or of aliens who sojourn in your midst, who offers burnt offering or sacrifice,

9 and does not bring it in to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation to offer it to YAHWEH, that man shall be cut off from his people.

10 And any man of the house of Israel, or of the alien who is staying in your midst, who eats any blood, I will set My face against that person that eats blood and will cut him off from his people.

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you on the altar, to atone for your souls; for it is the blood which makes atonement for the soul.[2]

12 For this reason I have said to the sons of Israel, No person among you shall eat blood; and the alien who is

[1] The Canaanites had a practice of sacrificing to goat deities, and Satan has long been known as a goat. There was even a half man/half goat deity called Pan. This is why Yahweh prohibits the cutting of the corner of the beard to have a devil goat like appearance. Cross reference Lev 21:5, 2 Chron 11:15, Lev 19:27 Jer 9:25-26 staying in your midst shall not eat blood.

13 And any man of the sons of Israel, or of the aliens who stay in your midst, who hunts game, beast or fowl, which is eaten, shall even pour out its blood and shall cover it with dust.

14 For it is the life of all flesh; its blood is for its life. And I say to the sons of Israel, You shall not eat blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is in the blood; anyone eating it is cut off.[1]

15 And any person who eats a dead body or torn thing, be he a native, or an alien, he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening; then he shall be clean.

16 And if he does not wash them, nor bathe his flesh, then he shall bear his iniquity.

Chapter 18

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, I am YAHWEH your Elohim.

3 You shall not do according to the doings of the land of Egypt in which you lived; and you shall not do according to the doings of the land of Canaan to which I am bringing you; nor shall you walk in their statutes.

4 You shall do My judgments and you shall keep My statutes, to walk in them; I am YAHWEH your Elohim,

5 and you shall keep My statutes and My judgments, which if a man does, he shall live by them. I am YAHWEH.

6 None of you shall draw near to any relative of his flesh to uncover their nakedness; I am YAHWEH.

7 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father or the nakedness of your mother; she is your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

8 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife; it is the nakedness of your father.

9 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father, or the daughter of your mother, born at home, or born away; you shall not uncover their nakedness.

10 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your son's daughter, or your daughter's daughter; you shall not uncover their nakedness, for theirs is your own nakedness.

11 The nakedness of the daughter of your father's wife, begotten by your father, she is your sister; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

12 You shall not uncover the nakedness of a sister of your father; she is a relative of your father.

13 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister; for she is your mother's relative.

14 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother; you shall not draw near to his wife; she is your aunt.

15 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law; she is your son's wife; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

16 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's wife; it is your brother's nakedness.

17 You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter; you shall not undertake to uncover her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter; they are her relatives; it is wickedness.

2 From this verse it is an undeniable fact that there is no atonement for sin without the shedding of blood. YHWH Himself instituted this principle in the Garden of Eden (Gen 3:21) and it shows that sin brings the shedding of innocent blood.

1 Although the life is in the blood, humans also needed the breath of life from YHWH to make man a living soul (Gen 2:7).

18 And you shall not take a wife with her sister, to vex her, to uncover her nakedness, beside the other in her lifetime.

19 And you shall not draw near to uncover the nakedness of a woman in her menstrual impurity.

20 And you shall not give your semen to your neighbor's wife by lying with her, to be unclean with her.

21 And you shall not give your seed to pass them through to Molech, nor shall you pollute the name of your Elohim; I am YAHWEH.

22 And you shall not lie with a male as one lies with a woman; it is detestable.

23 And you shall not give your semen with any animal, for uncleanness with it. And a woman shall not stand before an animal to lie down with it; it is a shameful mixing.

24 Do not defile yourself with all these, for with all these the nations have been defiled, which I am casting out before you[1];

25 and the land is defiled, and I will visit its iniquity on it; and the land is vomiting out those living in it;

26 and you, you shall keep My statutes and My judgments, and shall not do any of all these disgusting acts; neither the native nor the alien who is staying in your midst.

27 For the men of the land who are before you have done all these disgusting things, and the land is defiled.

28 Do not do these lest the land vomit you out for your defiling it, as it has vomited out the nation that was before you.

29 For anyone who does any of these disgusting things, even the persons who are doing them, shall be cut off from the midst of their people.

30 And you shall keep My charge, so as not to do any of the disgusting customs which were committed before you; and you shall not defile yourselves with them; I am YAHWEH your Elohim.

Chapter 19

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, You are holy, for I am holy, YAHWEH your Elohim.

3 Each man of you shall revere his mother and his father, and keep My Sabbaths; I am YAHWEH your Elohim.

4 Do not turn to the idols; and you shall not make molten Elohim for yourselves; I am YAHWEH your Elohim.

5 And if you sacrifice a sacrifice of peace offerings to YAHWEH, you shall sacrifice it of your free will;

6 it shall be eaten in the day of your sacrificing it, and on the morrow, and that which is left on the third day shall be burned with fire.

7 And if it is at all eaten on the third day, it is unclean; it shall not be accepted.

8 And he who eats it, he shall bear his iniquity; for he has polluted the holy thing of YAHWEH, and that person shall be cut off from his people.

9 And as you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not completely reap the corner of your field; and you shall not gather the gleaning of your harvest;

10 and you shall not glean your vineyard, and you shall not gather the leavings of your vineyard; you shall leave them to the poor and to the alien; I am YAHWEH your Elohim. (Lev 23:22) 11 You shall not steal nor lie, nor deceive a man to another.

12 And you shall not swear by My name to a falsehood; nor shall you pollute the name of your Elohim; I am YAHWEH.
13 You shall not extort your neighbor, nor rob; you shall not allow the wages of one hired to remain with you until morning.
14 You shall not revile the deaf, nor put a stumbling block before the blind; for you shall revere your Elohim. I am YAHWEH.
15 You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment; you shall not respect the face of the poor, nor favor the face of the mighty; but in righteousness you shall judge your neighbor.
16 You shall not go as a slanderer among your people; you shall not stand up against the blood of your neighbor; I am YAHWEH.
17 You shall not hate your brother in your heart; you shall certainly reprove your neighbor, and not allow sin on him.
18 You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the sons of your people; but you shall love your neighbor as yourself; I am YAHWEH.
19 You shall keep my statutes; you shall not cause your livestock to breed with different kinds; you shall not sow two kinds in your field; and you shall not allow a garment mixed of mixed fabric to come upon you. [1](Deut 22:11)
20 And when a man lies with a woman with semen, and she is a slave-girl, betrothed to a man, and not truly redeemed, and freedom not having been given to her, there shall be an inquest; they shall not be put to death, because she was not free.
21 And he shall bring in his guilt offering to YAHWEH, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, a ram for a guilt offering.
22 And the priest shall atone for him with the ram of the guilt offering before YAHWEH for his sin which he has sinned; and it shall be forgiven him because of his sin he has sinned.
23 And when you come into the land and have planted all of the food trees, then you shall expose its foreskin, its fruit, it shall be as uncircumcised for you three years; it shall not be eaten.[2]
24 And in the fourth year all its fruit is holy; it is for praises for YAHWEH.
25 And in the fifth year you shall eat its fruit, that it may yield to you its increase; I am YAHWEH your Elohim.
26 You shall not eat with the blood; you shall not divine, nor conjure spirits.
27 You shall not round the side of your head, nor mar the corners of your beard.
28 And you shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead; and you shall not put on yourself any etched tattoo writing or marking; I am YAHWEH.
29 You shall not pollute your daughter, to cause her to be a prostitute, that the land may not go whoring, and the land become full of wickedness.
30 You shall keep My Sabbaths; and you shall revere My sanctuary. I am YAHWEH.
31 You shall not turn to mediums, and you shall not seek to spiritualists

[1] The Hebrew word 'Shahatnaze' means a forbidden mixture. Just as one should not mix different seed in their field they also should not mix fabrics such as wool (from sheep) and linen (from a plant) as it would violate Yahweh's judicial order.

to be defiled by them; I am YAHWEH your Elohim.

32 You shall rise up in the face of gray hair; and you shall honor the face of an old man; and be afraid of your Elohim. I am YAHWEH.[1]

33 And when an alien lives with you in your land, you shall not oppress him;

34 as the native among you, so shall be the alien who is staying with you; and you shall love him as yourself, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt; I am YAHWEH your Elohim.

35 You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in measures and weights, or in quantity.

36 You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin. I am YAHWEH your Elohim, who brought you out from the land of Egypt;

37 and you shall observe all My statutes, and all My judgments and shall do them; I am YAHWEH.

Chapter 20

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 And you shall say to the sons of Israel, Any man of the sons of Israel, and of the aliens who are living in Israel, who gives of his seed to Molech shall certainly be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him with stones! (2Kgs 23:10, Jer 32:35)

3 And I, I shall set My face against that man, and shall cut him off from the midst of his people, for he has given of his seed to Molech, so as to defile My sanctuary, and to pollute My holy name.

4 And if the people of the land truly hide their eyes from that man, as he gives his seed to Molech, so as not to put him to death,

5 then I shall set My face against that man, and against his family, and shall cut him off, and all who go whoring after him, even going whoring after Molech from the midst of their people.

6 And the person who turns to mediums, and to spiritists, to go whoring after them, I shall set my face against that person, and cut him off from the midst of his people. [2]

7 And you shall sanctify yourselves, and you shall be holy, for I am YAHWEH your Elohim;

8 and you shall keep My statutes and shall do them; I am YAHWEH who is sanctifying you.

9 And any man who curses his father and his mother shall surely be put to death;[3] he has cursed his father and his mother; his blood shall be on him.

10 And a man who commits adultery with a man's wife, who commits adultery with the wife of his neighbor, the adulterer and the adulteress dying shall die.

11 And a man who lies with his father's wife, who has uncovered the nakedness of his father, both of them dying shall die; their blood shall be on them.

12 And a man who lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them dying shall die; they have performed a perversion; their blood shall be on them.

13 And a man who lies with a male as one lies with a woman, both of them have done a detestable thing, surely they shall die; their blood shall be on them. (Lev 18:22, Ro 1:27)

14 And a man who takes a woman and her mother, it is wickedness; they shall burn him and them; and there shall be no wickedness in your midst.

15 And a man who lies with an animal dying shall die. And you shall kill the animal.
16 And if a woman draws near to any animal to lie with it, you shall even put to death the woman and the animal; surely they shall die; their blood shall be on them. (Lev 18:23, Ex 22:19)
17 And if a man takes his sister, the daughter of his father or daughter of his mother, and he has seen her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness, it is a shame. And they shall be cut off before the eyes of the sons of their people; he has uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.
18 And if a man lies with a menstruating woman, and has uncovered her nakedness, he has made her fountain bare; and she has uncovered the fountain of her blood; even both of them shall be cut off from the midst of their people.
19 And you shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, nor of your father's sister, because he has made naked his near kin; they shall bear their iniquity.
20 If a man lies with his aunt, he has uncovered the nakedness of his uncle; they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.
21 And if a man takes his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.[1]
22 And you shall keep all My statutes, and all My judgments, and shall do them, and the land where I am bringing you to live in it shall not vomit you out.
23 And you shall not walk in the statutes of the nation which I am casting out from before you, for all these they have done, and I am disgusted with them.
24 But I have said to you, You shall surely possess their land; and, I, I am giving it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey; I am YAHWEH your Elohim, who has set you apart from the nations.
25 And you shall make a difference between the clean animals and the unclean, and between the unclean fowl and the clean. And you shall not defile yourself by beast or by fowl, or by anything which swarms the ground, which I have set apart to you as unclean;
26 and you shall be holy to Me, for I, YAHWEH, am holy; and I have set you apart from the nations to become Mine.
27 And a man or woman, when there is among them a medium, or a fortune teller, certainly they shall die; they shall stone them with stones; their blood is on them. (Lev 19:31, 20:6)

Chapter 21

1 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Speak to the priests, Aaron's sons, and you shall say to them, None shall be defiled for the dead among his people.
2 But for his relative who is near to him, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,
3 and for his sister, the virgin, who is near to him, who has not been with a man, for her he may be defiled.
4 A leader shall not defile himself among his people, to pollute himself;
5 they shall not make their heads bald, and they shall not shave the

[1] This rule is excepted by the Levirite law (Deut 25:5) but only after the death of his brother and if the widow of the brother was childless and the brother in law was single.

corner of their beard[1]; and they shall not make a cutting in their flesh;
6 they are holy to their Elohim, and they shall not pollute the name of their Elohim. For they offer the fire offerings of YAHWEH, bread of their Elohim, and they are holy.
7 They shall not take a woman who is a harlot, or polluted; nor shall they take a woman divorced from her husband; for he is holy to his Elohim.[2]
8 And you shall sanctify him, for he brings near the bread of your Elohim; he is holy to you; for I am holy, YAHWEH who is sanctifying you.
9 And when a daughter of any priest pollutes herself by going whoring, she is polluting her father; she shall be burned with fire.
10 And the high priest of his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil is poured, and whose hand is consecrated to put on the garments, his head shall not be bared[3], nor his garments torn;
11 nor shall he come near any dead person; he shall not defile himself for his father or for his mother;
12 nor shall he go out from the sanctuary; nor shall he pollute the sanctuary of his Elohim. For the crown of the anointing oil of his Elohim is on him; I am YAHWEH.
13 And he shall take a wife in her virginity.
14 He shall not take a widow, or one divorced, or a polluted one, a harlot, but he shall take a virgin of his own people for a wife;
15 and he shall not pollute his seed among his people; for I am YAHWEH who sanctifies him.
16 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
17 Speak to Aaron, saying, No man of your seed throughout their generations shall draw near to offer the bread of his Elohim if there is a blemish in him.
18 For no man in whom there is a blemish shall draw near, a blind man, or one lame, or disfigured, or deformed;
19 or a broken footed man, or a broken handed man,
20 or one humpbacked, or a crushed one, or with a spot in his eye, or a scurvy one, or one scabbed, or one with crushed testicles.
21 No man of the seed of Aaron the priest in whom there is a blemish shall come near to offer the fire offerings of YAHWEH; a blemish is in him; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his Elohim.
22 He shall eat of the bread of his Elohim, of the most holy things, and of the holy things.
23 But he shall not enter into the veil, and he shall not draw near to the altar; for a blemish is in him; and he shall not pollute My sanctuary; for I am YAHWEH who sanctifies them.
24 And Moses spoke to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel.

Chapter 22

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
2 Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, that they set themselves apart[4] from the holy things of the sons of Israel, and that they do not profane My holy

[1] The Canaanites had a practice of sacrificing to goat deities, and Satan has long been known as a goat. There was even a half man/half goat god called Pan. This is why Yahweh prohibits the cutting of the corner of the beard to have a devil goat like appearance. (Lev 17:7)

name in what they devote to Me; I am YAHWEH.

3 Say to them, Out of all your seed throughout your generations, any man who draws near to the holy things which the sons of Israel set apart to YAHWEH, and his uncleanness being upon him, that person shall be cut off from before Me; I am YAHWEH.

4 Any man of the seed of Aaron that is leprous or has an issue, he shall not eat of the holy things until he is clean. And he who touches any uncleanness of a person, or a man whose semen has gone out of him;

5 or a man who touches any swarming thing which is unclean to him, or touches a man who is unclean to him, by any of his uncleanness,

6 the person who touches it shall even be unclean until the evening, and shall not eat of the holy things, but shall bathe his flesh with water.

7 And when the sun goes in, he shall be clean, and afterwards he shall eat of the holy things, for it is his food;

8 he shall not eat a dead body or torn thing, for it is unclean; I am YAHWEH.

9 And they shall keep My charge, and shall bear no sin for it, that they may not die for it when they pollute it; I am YAHWEH, who is sanctifying them.

10 And no stranger shall eat of the holy things, a tenant of a priest, or a hired servant; these shall not eat of the holy thing.

11 And if a priest buys a person, the purchase of his silver, he shall eat of it; also one born in his house, they shall eat of his bread.

12 And a priest's daughter, when she belongs to an alien man, she shall not eat of the heave offering of the holy things. (2 Cor6:14-18)

13 But a priest's daughter, when she is a widow, or divorced, and has no seed, and has turned back to her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's bread. But no stranger shall eat of it.

14 And if a man shall eat of a holy thing through ignorance, then he shall add the fifth part of it, and shall give it to the priest along with the holy thing.

15 And they shall not pollute the holy things of the sons of Israel, that which they lift up to YAHWEH;

16 and so cause them to bear the iniquity of the guilt offering in their eating their holy things. For I am YAHWEH who sanctifies them.

17 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

18 Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, Any man of the house of Israel, or of the aliens in Israel, who brings near his offering, of all his vows, or of all his freewill offerings which they bring near to YAHWEH for a burnt offering;

19 at your own will a male, without blemish, of the oxen, of the sheep, or of the goats may be offered.

20 You shall not offer that which has a blemish; for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And when a man brings near a sacrifice of peace offerings to YAHWEH, to complete a vow, or for a freewill offering, of the herd or of the flock, it shall be without blemish to be accepted; no blemish shall be in it;

22 blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a flow, or scurvy, or scabbed, you shall not bring these near to YAHWEH; and you shall not make of them a fire offering on the altar to YAHWEH.

23 As to an ox or a sheep deformed, or dwarfed, you shall make it a freewill offering; but it is not acceptable for a vow.

24 As to anything bruised, or beaten, or torn, or cut, you shall not bring it near to YAHWEH; even you shall not do it in your land.

25 And you shall not bring near the bread of your Elohim from the hand of a son of a stranger, or any of these, for their corruption is in them; they are blemished; they are not acceptable for you.
26 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
27 When an ox, or lamb, or goat is born, and when it has been seven days under its mother, then from the eighth day and onward it is acceptable for an offering, a fire offering to YAHWEH;
28 but an ox or sheep, it and its young one, you shall not slaughter in one day.
29 And when you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to YAHWEH, you shall sacrifice it of your free will;
30 it shall be eaten on that day; you shall not leave any of it until morning; I am YAHWEH.
31 And you shall keep My commandments and shall do them; I am YAHWEH.
32 And you shall not profane My holy name, and I shall be counted holy among the sons of Israel[1]; I am YAHWEH, who is sanctifying you, 33 who is bringing you up out of the land of Egypt, to become your Elohim; I am YAHWEH.

Chapter 23

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, The set feasts of YAHWEH which you shall proclaim as holy gatherings, shall be these: These are My appointed feasts:
3 Work is to be done six days, and on the seventh day shall be a Sabbath of rest, a holy gathering; you shall do no work; it is a Sabbath to YAHWEH in all your dwellings.
4 These are appointed times of YAHWEH, holy gatherings which you shall proclaim in their appointed seasons[2]:
5 In the first month, on the fourteenth of the month, between the evenings is the Passover to YAHWEH.
6 And on the fifteenth day of this month is the Feast of Unleavened to YAHWEH; you shall eat unleavened things seven days.
7 On the first day you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no laborious work;
8 and you shall bring near a fire offering to YAHWEH seven days; and the seventh day shall be a holy gathering; you shall do no laborious work.
9 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
10 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, When you come in to the land which I am giving to you, and have reaped its harvest, and have brought in the Omer, of the first-fruits of your harvest, to the priest,[3] 11 then he shall wave the Omer before YAHWEH for your acceptance[4]; on the morrow of the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.
12 And you shall prepare a lamb in the day you wave the Omer, one

[1] By believing in and keeping the commandments, it was glorifying the name of Yahweh, the only true Elohim.

[2] The fact that it mentions "these are my feasts" twice, shows that although the Sabbath is also a feast it is separated from the other feast days, and the other feast days do not have to fall on a Sabbath.

without blemish, a son of a year, for a burnt offering to YAHWEH.

13 And its grain offering[1] shall be two tenths part of flour[2] mixed with oil, a fire offering to YAHWEH, a sweet fragrance; and its drink offering, a fourth of a hin of wine.

14 And you shall not eat bread, nor roasted grain, nor fresh ears[3], until this same day, until you have brought the offering of your Elohim; it is a never ending statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

15 And you shall number to you from the next day after the Sabbath, from the day you bring in the omer of the wave offering; they shall be seven complete Sabbaths;

16 to the next day after the seventh Sabbath, you shall number fifty days; and you shall bring near a new food offering to YAHWEH;

17 you shall bring in bread out of your dwellings for a wave offering, two loaves; they shall be of two tenth ephah of flour; they shall be baked with leaven; first-fruits to YAHWEH

18 And besides the bread, you shall offer seven lambs, without blemish, sons of a year, and one bull, a son of the herd, and two rams; they are a burnt offering to YAHWEH, with their food offering and their drink offerings, a fire offering of soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.

19 And you shall offer one he-goat for a sin offering, and two lambs, sons of a year, for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them, besides the bread of the first-fruits, a wave offering before YAHWEH, besides the two lambs; they are holy to YAHWEH for the priest.

21 And you shall make a proclamation on this same day; it is a holy gathering to you. You shall do no laborious work of service. It is a never ending statute in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not completely reap the corner of your field, nor shall you gather the gleaning of your harvest; you shall leave them for the poor, and for the alien: I am YAHWEH your Elohim. (Lev 19:9-10)

23 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

24 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, on the first of the month, a Holy Day Sabbath shall be to you, a memorial acclamation of the resounding of trumpets, a holy gathering.[4]

25 You shall do no laborious work and you shall bring a fire offering to YAHWEH.

26 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses saying,

27 Also, on the tenth of this seventh month shall be a day of atonement; there shall be a holy gathering, and you shall humble and weaken your bodies and shall bring a fire offering to YAHWEH. (Is 58:3,5)

28 And you shall do no work in this same day, for it is a day of atonement, to atone for you before YAHWEH your Elohim.

29 For any person who is not

1 The Hebrew word for this offering is 'minchah' and means a bloodless offering.

2 The Hebrew word here for Flour is 'soleth' and means fine flour milled and sieved many times.

3 There are three Hebrew words used here for the grain to show the different stages it matures in and it shows that no grain whatsoever could be eaten until the first fruit wavesheaf was accepted.

4 Memorial acclamation- ;literally a clamor of shouting with joy, could be with shofars and trumpets.

humbled in this same day shall be cut off from his people.

30 And any person who does any work in this same day, I shall even cut off that person from the midst of his people.

31 You shall do no work; it is a never ending statute throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

32 It is a Sabbath of rest to you, and you shall humble your souls in the ninth of the month at evening; from evening until evening you shall keep[1] your Sabbath[2].

33 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

34 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, In the fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be a Feast of Booths, seven days to YAHWEH.

35 On the first day shall be a holy gathering; you shall do no laborious work.

36 Seven days you shall bring a fire offering to YAHWEH; on the eighth day you shall have a holy gathering; and you shall bring the fire offering to YAHWEH; it is a solemn assembly; you shall do no laborious work of service.

37 These are the set feasts of YAHWEH which you shall proclaim, holy gatherings, to bring a fire offering to YAHWEH, a burnt offering, and a food offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, the thing of a day on its own day;[3]

38 besides the Sabbaths of YAHWEH, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill offerings which you shall give to YAHWEH.

39 Also, in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you gather the increase of the land[4], you shall keep the feast of YAHWEH seven days; on the first day a Holy Day Sabbath, and on the eighth day a Holy Day Sabbath[5]. (Ex 23:16)

40 And you shall take to yourselves on the first day the fruit of majestic trees[6], palm branches, and boughs of thick oak trees, and willows of the valley,[7] and shall rejoice before YAHWEH your Elohim seven days.

41 And you shall celebrate it a feast to YAHWEH, seven days in a year, a never ending statute throughout your generations; in the seventh month you shall keep it.

42 You shall sit in Sookkuhs for seven days; all who are native in Israel shall sit down in Sookkuhs[8],

43 so that your generations shall

1 The Hebrew word for 'keep' is Shabbath and the same word used here was used in Gen 2:2.

2 This is not only for Yom Kippur, but with the Hebrew calendar, days are from sunset to sunset, therefore the Sabbath is also from sunset to sunset.

3 Sukkot is the 7th feast in the 7th month and lasts for 7 days. The first day of Sukkot 13 bulls are sacrificed and each day one less are sacrificed with 7 bulls being sacrificed on the 7th day (Num 29:13-32). Sukkot pictures the millennial reign and 7 is the number of perfection picturing how society will be at that time.

4 The feast runs according to the agricultural cycle of Israel and should not be before the autumn equinox.

5 The eighth day although connected to Sukkot, was in actuality a separate holy day and pictures the great white throne judgment, directly after the millennium (Rev 20:11-15).

6 The Rabbis interpret this fruit to be the citron, but citrons were not indigenous to Israel and it is more likely referring to the pomegranate.

7 These were used for building the Sookkah.

8 As a reminder of their exodus, they were to make temporary dwellings called Sookkahs and sit in them during the 7 days of Sukkot. This 7 day festival also pictures the millennium rule of Messiah.

know that I caused the sons of Israel to live in Sookkuhs, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt; I am YAHWEH your Elohim.

44 And Moses declared the appointed feasts of YAHWEH to the sons of Israel[1].

Chapter 24

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Command the sons of Israel, and they shall bring to you pure olive oil, beaten, for the light, to cause a light to burn continually.

3 Outside the veil of the testimony in the tent of meeting, Aaron shall arrange it from evening until morning before YAHWEH continually, a perpetual statute throughout your generations.

4 He shall arrange the lamps on the pure gold Menorah before YAHWEH continually.

5 And you shall take flour, and shall bake twelve cakes with it; two tenths shall be in the one cake.

6 And you shall set them in two rows, six on a row on the pure gold table before YAHWEH.

7 And you shall put pure frankincense on the row, and it shall be the bread of a memorial, a fire offering to YAHWEH.

8 On each Sabbath day he shall arrange it before YAHWEH continually, from the sons of Israel, a never ending covenant.

9 And it shall belong to Aaron and to his sons, and they shall eat it in the sanctuary, for it is most holy to him, from the fire offerings of YAHWEH, a never ending statute.

10 And the son of an Israelite woman, and he was a son of an Egyptian man, went out among the sons of Israel. And the son of the woman of Israel and a man of Israel fought together in the camp.

11 And the son of the woman of Israel blasphemed the Name of YAHWEH[2], and cursed. And they brought him in to Moses; and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.

12 And they put him under guard, that it might be declared to them at the mouth of YAHWEH.

13 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

14 Bring out the reviler to the outside of the camp. And all those who heard shall lay their hands on his head, and all the congregation shall stone him.

15 And you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, When any man curses his Elohim, then he shall bear his sin.

16 And he who blasphemes the name of YAHWEH surely shall die. All the congregation shall certainly cast stones at him. As to the alien, so to a native, when he blasphemes the Name, he shall be executed.

17 And a man, when he strikes the life from any man, he shall surely be executed.

1 These are Yahweh's feasts, not merely the Jewish feast days.

2 Again, we see the great importance of the sacred name of Yahweh and how we need to keep that name sanctified. The Rabbis however take this to the point of not even ever mentioning the name and actually changing scripture when reading it to another name (Deut 4:2). The third commandment stating not to take Yahweh's name in vain, literally means not to change or falsify it, or bring it to nothing. We are commanded to praise His name, worship His name, call on His name and glorify His name; how can you do this if you do not ever vocalize it? In essence, by not vocalizing the name Yahweh, they inadvertently bring it to nothing.

18 And he who smites an animal to death shall make it good, body for body.
19 And when a man causes a blemish in his neighbor, as he has done, so it shall be done to him;
20 break for break, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. As he has given a blemish to be in a man, so it shall be done to him.
21 And he who smites an animal to death shall repay it; and he who smites a man to death shall be put to death.
22 One judgment shall be for you whether an alien or a native; for I am YAHWEH your Elohim.
23 And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and they brought the reviler to the outside of the camp and stoned him with stones. And the sons of Israel did as YAHWEH had commanded Moses.

Chapter 25

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses in Mount Sinai, saying,
2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and say to them, When you come into the land which I am giving to you, then the land shall keep a Sabbath to YAHWEH.
3 You shall sow your field six years, and you shall prune your vineyard six years, and shall gather its produce.
4 And in the seventh year shall be a Sabbath of rest to the land, a Sabbath to YAHWEH. You shall not sow your field, and you shall not prune your vineyard.
5 You shall not reap that which grows of itself of your harvest; and you shall not gather the grapes of your unkempt vine; it shall be a year of rest to the land.
6 And the Sabbath of the land shall be to you for food, to you, and to your male slave, and to your female slave, and to your hired one, and to your tenant, those living among you;
7 and to your livestock, and to the animal in your land, all its produce shall be for food.
8 And you shall number to yourself seven Sabbaths of years, seven years times seven, and all the days of the seven Sabbaths of years shall be to you forty nine years.
9 And you shall let a ram's horn resound, a signal in the seventh month, in the tenth of the month[1]; in the day of atonement, let a ram's horn pass throughout all your land;
10 and you shall make the fiftieth year holy[2], one year. And you shall proclaim liberty in the land to those living in it; He shall be a jubilee to you. And you shall return every man to his possession; yea, you shall turn back each to his family.
11 It is a jubilee year, the fiftieth year; it is to you. You shall not sow, nor reap that which grows of itself, nor gather from its unkempt vines;
12 for it is a jubilee, it is holy to you; you shall eat its increase out of the field.
13 In the year of jubilee you shall return each one to his possession.
14 And if you sell anything to your neighbor, or buy from the hand of

1 The reason why the Jubilee was announced at Yom Kippur is that planting for the next year was done directly after Sukkot before the rainy season, and if the next year was not to harvest the grain, there would be no reason to plant or sow the ground. Yom Kippur is also thought to be indicative of the wedding supper of the Messiah.

2 The 50th year is to be set apart. Some start the next jubilee year 1 of the next 7 year cycle on the 50th year and inadvertently count this year twice and only will have 49 years until the next Jubilee. Clearly, in the Hebrew, the 50th year is to be set apart (holy means set apart) and is separated from the 7 cycles of 7 years each, just as Shavuot is the 50 day, separated from the 7 weeks of 7 days.

15 By the number of years after the jubilee you shall buy from your neighbor; by the number of the years of increase he shall sell to you;
16 according to the many years you shall increase its price; and by the fewness of the years you shall diminish its price, for he is selling to you the number of crops.
17 And you shall not oppress each man his neighbor, and you shall fear your Elohim, for I am YAHWEH your Elohim.
18 And you shall do My statutes, and you shall keep my judgments and shall do them; and you shall live on the land securely.
19 And the land shall give its fruit, and you shall eat to satisfaction; and you shall dwell securely on it.
20 And when you say, What shall we eat in the seventh year; for, lo, we may not sow nor gather our increase?
21 Then I have commanded My blessing on you in the sixth year, and it shall produce the increase for three years;
22 and you shall sow the eighth year, and shall eat of the old crop until the ninth year, until the coming in of its crop; you shall eat of the old.
23 And the land shall not be sold in perpetuity; for the land is Mine; for you are aliens and tenants with Me[1].
24 And you shall grant a redemption for the land in all the land of your possession.
25 If your brother has become poor and has sold his property, then his kinsman redeemer[2] shall come, and he shall redeem the thing sold by his brother.
26 But when a man has no kinsman redeemer to him, and his own hand has reached out, and he has enough for its redemption,
27 then he shall count the years since its sale, and shall give back the surplus to the man to whom he sold; and he shall return to his possession.
28 And if his hand has not found enough to give back to him, then the thing he sold shall be in the hand of him who buys it until the year of jubilee. And it shall go out in the jubilee, and he shall return to his possession.
29 And when a man sells a dwelling house in a walled city, then his right of redemption shall be the end of the year of its sale; his right of redemption shall be a year of days.
30 And if it is not redeemed until a full year is complete, then the house in the walled city shall be established to perpetuity to its buyer, throughout his generations; it shall not go out in the jubilee.
31 But the houses of the villages which have no walls all around shall be counted as the field of the country; there are redemption rights to it. And it shall go out in the jubilee.
32 As to the cities of the Levites, houses of the cities of their possession, never ending redemption rights shall be to the Levites.
33 And that which one redeems from the Levites, both the sale of a house, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the jubilee. For the houses of the cities of the Levites are their

[1] The land of Israel belongs to Yahweh and whomever He shares it with.

[2] This word indicates the rightful next of kin who would redeem his relative who has fallen into bondage, and is indicative in scripture of the Messiah who redeems those who seek Him of the bondage of the debt of their sins, which according to the Torah would be punishable by death. This is why it is very clear the Messiah must return directly before the Jubilee year of redemption (Is 60:16, Is 59:19-21, Ruth 2:20, 3:9, 4:1-10).

possession in the midst of the sons of Israel.
34 And the field, the open land of their cities, shall not be sold; for it is a never ending possession to them.
35 And when your brother has become poor, and his hand has failed with you, then you shall help him. He shall live with you as an alien and a tenant.
36 You shall take no interest or increase from him, and you shall fear your Elohim; and the life of your brother is with you.
37 You shall not give silver to him with interest, and you shall not give your food for increase.
38 I am YAHWEH who has brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give to you the land of Canaan, to become your Elohim.
39 And when your brother becomes poor with you, and he has been sold to you, you shall not lay on him the service of a slave.
40 He shall be with you as a hireling, as a tenant he shall be with you; he shall serve with you until the year of jubilee;
41 then he shall go out from you, he and his sons with him, and shall return to his family; he shall even return to the possession of his father.
42 For they are My servants, whom I have brought out from the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold with the sale of a slave.
43 You shall not rule over him with severity, and you shall fear your Elohim.
44 And your male slave and your female slave whom you have shall be from the nations who are all around you, you shall buy them as male slave or female slave;
45 and also you may buy of the sons of the tenants who are residing with you, and of their families who are with you, which they have fathered in your land. And they shall be a possession to you.
46 And you shall take them for inheritance to your sons after you, to hold for a possession; you may lay service on them forever. But on your brothers, the sons of Israel, one over another, you shall not rule over him with severity.
47 And if an alien or a tenant lifts up a hand with you, and your brother grows poor with him, and he sells himself to an alien, a tenant with you, or to the offshoot of the family of an alien, 48 after he has been sold, there is a redemption to him; one of his brothers may redeem him, 49 or his uncle, or a son of his uncle, may redeem him, or any of his fleshly relations of his family may redeem him. Or, if his own hand has reached out to gain, then he may be redeemed.
50 And he shall count with his buyer from the year of his being sold to him until the year of jubilee, and the silver of his sale shall be by the number of years. As the days of a hireling, it shall be with him.
51 If there are yet many years, by mouth he shall give back his redemption, from the silver of his purchase.
52 And if few are left of the years till the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him according to his years he shall give back his redemption price.
53 As a hireling, year by year, he shall be with him, and he shall not rule him with severity before your eyes.
54 And if he is not redeemed in this way, then he shall go out in the year of jubilee, he and his sons with him.
55 For the sons of Israel are servants to Me; they are My servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt;
I am YAHWEH your Elohim.

Chapter 26

1 You shall not make idols to yourselves; and you shall not set up for yourselves graven images, or a memorial pillar. And you shall not place any stone image in your land, to bow yourselves to it; for I am YAHWEH your Elohim.
2 You shall keep My Sabbaths, and revere My sanctuary; I am YAHWEH.
3 If you walk in My statutes, and keep My commandments, and do them,
4 then I will give you rains in their season, and the land shall give her produce, and the tree of the field shall give its fruit;
5 and your threshing shall reach to the vintage, and the vintage shall reach to the sowing time; and you shall eat your bread to satisfaction, and live in your land securely[1].
6 And I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none shall terrify you. And I shall cause evil beasts to cease out of the land, and the sword shall not pass over into your land.
7 And you shall pursue your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.
8 And five of you shall pursue a hundred, and a hundred of you shall pursue a ten thousand; and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.
9 And I shall turn My face toward you and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and shall establish My covenant with you.
10 And you shall eat very old store, and clear away the old store because of the new.
11 And I will set My tabernacle in your midst, and My soul shall not loathe you;
12 and I shall walk always in your midst, and shall be Elohim to you, and you, you shall be people to Me;
13 I am YAHWEH your Elohim, who has brought you out from the land of the Egyptians, from being their slaves; and I will break the bars of your yoke, and cause you to stand erect.
14 And if you will not listen to Me, and do not do all these commands;
15 and if you reject My statutes, and if your soul hates My judgments, so as not to do all My commands, to the breaking of My covenant;
16 I will also do this to you, and I shall appoint terror over you, the wasting, and the burning fever, destroying the eyes, and consuming the soul; and you shall sow your seed in vain, and your enemies will eat it.
17 And I shall set My face against you, and you shall be smitten before your enemies; and those who hate you shall rule over you, and you shall flee, and there will be no one pursuing you.
18 And if after these things you will not listen to Me, then I will chastise you seven times more for your sin;
19 and I will break the pride of your strength, and will make your heavens as iron, and your earth as copper;
20 and your strength shall be consumed in vain, and your land shall not give her produce, and the tree of the land shall not give its fruit.
21 And if you walk contrary to Me, and are not willing to listen to Me, then I will bring seven times more plagues on you according to your sins, 22 and send against you the beast of the field, and it shall bereave you. And

[1] Due to replacement theology, many have lost the fact that being in covenant relationship in scripture is synonymous with being in the land of Israel. More than half of the covenant blessings directly deal with the blessing of the physical land of Israel.

I shall cut off your livestock and shall make you few, so that your ways are desolate.
23 And if you are not chastised by Me by these things, and shall walk contrary to Me,
24 then I, I also, shall walk contrary to you, and shall smite you, even I,
seven times more for your sins;
25 and I will bring a sword on you, executing the vengeance of the covenant, and you shall be gathered to your cities, and I shall send pestilence into your midst; and you shall be given into the hand of an enemy.
26 When I break to you the staff of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and shall give back your bread by weight; and you shall eat, and shall not be satisfied.
27 If you will not listen to Me for this, and shall walk contrary to Me, 28 then I also will walk contrary to you in fury. I also will chastise you, I also, seven times[1] for your sins.
29 And you shall eat of the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat of the flesh of your daughters.
30 And I shall destroy your high places and cut down your altars, and shall put your dead bodies on the carcasses of your idols. And My soul shall loathe you.
31 And I shall make your cities a waste, and shall make your sanctuaries desolate; and I shall not smell your sweet fragrances.
32 And I shall make the land desolate, and your enemies who are living in it shall be astonished at it.
33 And I will scatter you among nations, and shall draw out the sword after you, and your land shall become a waste, and your cities shall be a desolation.
34 Then the land shall enjoy its Sabbaths, all the days of the desolation. And you shall be in the land of your enemies; then the land shall enjoy rest, and shall enjoy its Sabbaths.
35 It shall rest all the days of the desolation, that which it has not rested in your Sabbaths while you lived on it.
36 And those who are left of you, I shall also bring a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a driven leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as one flees from the sword; and they shall fall when no one pursues.
37 And they shall stumble upon one another, as if it were before the sword, when no one pursues. And you shall have no power to stand before your enemies.
38 And you shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall devour you.
39 And of those who are left of you,
they shall melt away in their iniquity, in the lands of your enemies; and also in the iniquities of their fathers, they shall dwindle away with them.
40 And if they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, in their trespass with which they have trespassed against Me; and, also, that they have walked contrary to Me,
41 that I also have walked contrary to them, and I have brought them into the land of their enemies; if their

[1] You see several times in this chapter that if Israel did not obey they would be punished and cast out of Israel for a duration that would last 7 times the punishment. If you take a biblical year of 360 days and times that by 7 you come up with 2,520. Using the year for a day principle in Num 14:34 you come up with a punishment of 2,520 yrs. Interesting enough from 573-72 BC when Israel was fully in captivity by the Babylonians if you add the 2,520 years, you come up with 1948, the very yr Israel became a nation again.

uncircumcised hearts are then humbled, and they are pleased to pay for their iniquity;

42 then I will remember My covenant with Jacob, and also My covenant with Isaac, and I shall also remember My covenant with Abraham, and I shall remember the land[1].

43 For the land shall be forsaken by them, and shall satisfy for its Sabbaths, in the desolation without them. And they shall satisfy for their iniquity, because, even because, they have kicked against My judgments, and their soul has loathed My statutes.

44 And yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, nor will I hate them, to consume them, to break My covenant with them; for I am YAHWEH their Elohim.

45 Then I shall remember for them the covenant of the first fathers, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their Elohim; I am YAHWEH.

46 These are the statutes and the judgments and the laws which YAHWEH has given between Him and the sons of Israel, in Mount Sinai, by the hand of Moses.

Chapter 27

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, When a man makes an extraordinary difficult vow by your evaluation, the persons shall belong to YAHWEH.

3 And your evaluation shall be of the male from a son of twenty years even until a son of sixty years; then your evaluation shall be fifty shekels of silver by the shekel of the sanctuary.

4 And if it is a female, then your evaluation shall be thirty shekels.

5 And if from a son of five years to a son of twenty years, then your evaluation shall be twenty shekels for the male and ten shekels for the female.

6 And if a son of a month even to a son of five years, then your evaluation shall be five shekels of silver for the male and three shekels of silver for the female.

7 And if from a son of sixty years and above, if a male, then your evaluation shall be fifteen shekels and for a female ten shekels.

8 But if he is too poor for your evaluation, then he shall be made to stand before the priest, and the priest shall value him; the priest shall value him according to the reach of him who vowed.

9 And if it is an animal of which they bring an offering to YAHWEH, all that one gives of it to YAHWEH is holy.

10 He shall not replace it, or change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good. And if he shall at all change animal for animal, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy.

11 And if it is any unclean animal, or one which they may not bring as an offering to YAHWEH, then he shall make the animal stand before the priest.

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it is good or bad; as you the priest value it, so it shall be.

13 But if he really redeems it, then he shall add its fifth to your evaluation.

14 And when a man sanctifies his

[1] In any covenant in scripture the people (Israel), the Torah (law) and the land (physical land of Israel) never change. By changing any of those three aspects it is merely replacement theology, which scripture does not support.

house as a holy thing to YAHWEH, then the priest shall value it, whether good or bad. As the priest values it, so it shall stand.

15 And if he who is sanctifying shall redeem the house, then he shall add a fifth of the silver of its valuation, and it shall become his.

16 And if a man sanctifies a field of his property to YAHWEH, then your valuation shall be according to its seed; a homer of barley seed at fifty shekels of silver.

17 If he shall sanctify his field from the year of jubilee, it shall stand according to your valuation.

18 And if he shall sanctify his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall count to him the silver according to the years which are left, to the year of the jubilee. And it shall be deducted from your estimation.

19 And if he sanctifying the field really will redeem it, then he shall add a fifth of the silver of your evaluation to it, and it shall rise to become his.

20 And if he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it is not to be redeemed any more.

21 And the field shall be holy to YAHWEH when it goes out in the jubilee, as a field which is devoted. It shall be a possession to the priest.

22 And if he should devote a field of his purchase, which is not of the fields of his possession,

23 then the priest shall count to him the amount of your valuation to the year of jubilee. And he shall give your valuation in that day, a holy thing to YAHWEH.

24 In the year of jubilee the field shall return to him from whom he bought it, to him who owns it in the land.

25 And all your valuation shall be by the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.

26 However, no man shall dedicate a firstling, which is first-born to YAHWEH among animals, whether ox or sheep; it belongs to YAHWEH.

27 And if it is among the unclean animals, then he shall ransom it at your valuation, and he shall add its fifth to it. And if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold at your evaluation.

28 But any devoted thing which a man devotes to YAHWEH from all which belongs to him, of man or of animal, or of the field of his possession, it shall not be sold nor redeemed. Every devoted thing to YAHWEH is most holy.

29 No devoted thing which is dedicated by man shall be ransomed, dying it shall die.

30 And all the tithe of the land, of the seed of the land, of the fruit of the tree, shall belong to YAHWEH; it is holy to YAHWEH[1].

31 And if a man really redeems any of his tithes, he shall add its fifth to it.

32 And all the tithe of the herd and of the flock, all that passes under the rod, a tenth shall be holy to YAHWEH[2];

33 he shall not search whether it is good or bad, nor shall he change it. And if he at all changes it, then it shall

1 Tithing is a principle that goes back to the beginning of time (Gen 28:22). It is a principle that all belongs to Yahweh (Ps 24:1) and He allows us to keep 90% of our increase if we rightfully give back 10% to Him for His work. Yahweh says it is stealing not to pay the tithe for the work of His sanctuary (Mal 3:8-10)

2 A shepherd would literally count each of his sheep by having them pass under a rod. As true believers are called the sheep of Yahshua Messiah's pasture (Joh 10:1-10) they are literally the tithe from this world to be part of the family of Yahweh.

be that it and its substitute shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.
34 These are the commands which YAHWEH has commanded Moses for the sons of Israel, on Mount Sinai.

Book Of Numbers (B'midbar)

Chapter 1

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,
2 Lift the heads of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, every male, by their heads;
3 from a son of twenty years and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel. You and Aaron shall number them by their armies.
4 And there shall be a man of every tribe with you, every one head of his father's house.
5 And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: Of Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur;
6 of Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai;
7 of Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab;
8 of Issachar, Nethaneel the son of Zuar;
9 of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon;
10 of the sons of Joseph; of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur;
11 of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni;
12 of Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai;
13 of Asher, Pagiel the son of Ocran;
14 of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel;
15 of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan.
16 These were those called from the congregation, rulers of the tribes of their fathers. They were heads of the thousands of Israel.
17 And Moses and Aaron took these men who were marked out by name.
18 And they assembled all the congregation on the first of the second month. And they declared their births according to their families, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, by their heads.
19 As YAHWEH commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.
20 And the sons of Reuben, Israel's first-born, their generations by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, by their heads, every male from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war:
21 those numbered of them for the tribe of Reuben were forty six thousand and five hundred.
22 Of the sons of Simeon, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, his numbered ones in the number of names, by their heads, every male from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war:
23 those numbered of them for the tribe of Simeon were fifty nine thousand and three hundred.
24 Of the sons of Gad, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war:
25 those numbered of them for the tribe of Gad were forty five thousand and six hundred and fifty.
26 Of the sons of Judah, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war:
27 those numbered of them for the tribe of Judah were seventy four thousand and six hundred.

28 Of the sons of Issachar, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war:
29 those numbered of them for the tribe of Issachar were fifty four thousand and four hundred.
30 Of the sons of Zebulun, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war:
31 those numbered of them for the tribe of Zebulun were fifty seven thousand and four hundred.
32 Of the sons of Joseph, of the sons of Ephraim, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war:
33 those numbered of them for the tribe of Ephraim were forty thousand and five hundred.
34 Of the sons of Manasseh, their generations, by their families by their fathers' house, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war:
35 those numbered of them for the tribe of Manasseh were thirty two thousand and two hundred.
36 Of the sons of Benjamin, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war:
37 those numbered of them for the tribe of Benjamin were thirty five thousand and four hundred.
38 Of the sons of Dan, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war:
39 those numbered of them for the tribe of Dan were sixty two thousand and seven hundred.
40 Of the sons of Asher, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war:
41 those numbered of them for the tribe of Asher were forty one thousand and five hundred.
42 Of the sons of Naphtali, their generations, by their families, by their fathers' house, in the number of names, from a son of twenty years and upward, everyone able to go out to war:
43 those numbered of them for the tribe of Naphtali were fifty three thousand and four hundred.
44 These were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, and the rulers of Israel being twelve men; they were each one of his fathers' house.
45 And all those numbered of the sons of Israel by their fathers' house, from a son of twenty years and upward, all able to go out to war in Israel;
46 even all those that were numbered were six hundred and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.
47 But the Levites, according to the tribe of their fathers, were not numbered among them.
48 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
49 However, you shall not number the tribe of Levi, nor shall you count their heads among the sons of Israel.
50 But you shall appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the testimony, and over all its furniture, and over all which is to it. They shall bear the tabernacle, and all its furniture. And they shall serve it, and shall encamp around the tabernacle.

51 And when the tabernacle goes forward, the Levites shall take it down. And when the tabernacle is to be encamped, the Levites shall set it up. And the stranger that draws near shall die.

52 And the sons of Israel shall encamp their tents, each man with his own camp, and each man with his own standard, according to their armies.

53 But the Levites shall encamp around the tabernacle of the testimony, that there be no wrath on the congregation of the sons of Israel. And the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of the testimony.

54 And the sons of Israel did according to all that YAHWEH commanded Moses, so they did.

Chapter 2

34 And the sons of Israel did according to all that YAHWEH had commanded Moses, so they encamped by their standards, and so they pulled out, each one according to his family, and according to the house of his father.

Chapter 3

1 And these are the generations of Aaron and Moses, in the day YAHWEH spoke with Moses in Mount Sinai.
2 And these are the names of Aaron's sons: Nadab, the first-born; and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
3 These are the names of Aaron's sons, the anointed priests whose hands he consecrated to act as priests.
4 And Nadab and Abihu died before YAHWEH in the wilderness of Sinai, for bringing strange fire before YAHWEH. And they had no sons. And Eleazar and Ithamar acted as priests in the presence of their father Aaron.
5 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
6 Bring the tribe of Levi near, and you shall cause it to stand before Aaron the priest. And they shall serve him,
7 and keep his charge, and the charge of all the congregation before the tent of meeting, to do the service of the tabernacle.
8 And they shall keep all the vessels of the tent of meeting, and the charge of the sons of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

9 And you shall give the Levites to Aaron and to his son. Giving they shall be given to him out of the sons of Israel.

10 And you shall appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall keep their priesthood. And the stranger who comes near shall be put to death.

11 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

12 And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel in the place of every first-born opening a womb from the sons of Israel; and the Levites have become Mine.

13 For every first-born is Mine, from the day I struck every first-born in the land of Egypt, I have set apart to Myself every first-born in Israel, from men to animal. They are Mine[1]. I am YAHWEH.

14 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

15 Number the sons of Levi by their families, by their fathers' house. You shall number every male from a son of a month and upward.

16 And Moses numbered them according to the command of YAHWEH, as he had been commanded.

17 And these are the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei.

19 And the sons of Kohath, by their families: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

20 And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These were the families of the Levites by their fathers' houses.

21 Of Gershon is the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites. These were the families of the Gershonites.

22 Those numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a son of a month and upward, even those numbered of them were seven thousand and five hundred.

23 The families of the Gershonites were to encamp behind the tabernacle westward.

24 The ruler of the fathers' house of the Gershonites was Eliasaph the son of Lael.

25 And the duty of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation was the tabernacle, and the tent, and its coverings, and the veil at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation;

26 and the hangings of the court, and the veil at the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle and by the altar all around, and its cords, to all its service.

27 And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, the family of the Izeharites, the family of the Hebronites and the family of the Uzzielites. These were the families of the Kohathites.

28 In number, all the males, from a son of a month and upward were eight thousand and six hundred, keepers of the charge of the sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of Kohath were to encamp on the side of the tabernacle southward;

30 The ruler of the fathers' house of the families of the Kohathites being Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 And their charge was the ark, the table, the Menorah, the altars and the vessels of the sanctuary with which they minister, the veil and all its service.

32 Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was ruler over the rulers of the Levites, and had the oversight of those that keep the charge of the sanctuary.
33 Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites. These were the families of Merari.
34 And those numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a son of a month and upward were six thousand and two hundred.
35 The ruler of the fathers' house of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. They were to encamp on the side of the tabernacle northward.
36 The appointed duty of the sons of Merari being the boards of the tabernacle and its bars, its pillars, its sockets, all its vessels and all its service;
37 and the pillars of the court all around, their sockets, their pins and their cords.
38 And those that were to encamp before the tabernacle eastward, before
the tabernacle of the congregation, toward the sun rising, were Moses, Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary and the charge of the sons of Israel. And the stranger who goes near shall die.
39 All numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the mouth of YAHWEH, by their families, all the males from a son of a month and upward were twenty two thousand.
40 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Number every first-born male of the sons of Israel from a son of a month and upward, and take the number of their names.
41 And you shall take the Levites for Me, I am YAHWEH, instead of every first-born among the sons of Israel;
and the cattle of the Levites instead of every firstling among the livestock of the sons of Israel.
42 And Moses numbered as YAHWEH commanded him, all the first-born among the sons of Israel.
43 And all the first-born males according to the number of names, from a son of a month and upward, of those numbered of them were twenty two thousand, two hundred and seventy three.
44 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses,
saying,
45 Take the Levites instead of all the first-born among the sons of Israel,
and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle. And the Levites shall be Mine; I am YAHWEH.
46 And from those redeemed of the two hundred and seventy three who are more than the Levites, of the firstborn of the sons of Israel, 47 you shall even take five shekels apiece, by the head; you shall take by the shekel of the sanctuary; twenty gerahs to the shekel.
48 And you shall give the silver to Aaron, and to his sons, of the redeemed over and above among
them.
49 And Moses shall take the redemption silver from those that are over and above those that were redeemed by the Levites, 50 from the first-born of the sons of Israel he shall take the silver, a thousand, three hundred and sixty five by the sanctuary shekel.
51 And Moses shall give the silver of those redeemed to Aaron and to his sons, according to the command of YAHWEH, as YAHWEH has commanded Moses.

Chapter 4

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
2 Lift the heads of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families, by their fathers' houses,
3 from a son of thirty years and upward, even until fifty years old, all that enter upon the service, to do work in the tent of meeting.
4 This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the tent of the congregation, the Holy of Holies.
5 Aaron and his sons shall come in, when the camp pulls out, and shall take down the veil of the hanging, and shall cover the ark of the testimony with it.
6 And he shall put a covering of Tachash skins on it, and shall spread a garment entirely of blue on top, and shall put in its staves.
7 And they shall spread a blue cloth on the table of the showbread and shall put its dishes and the spoons, the bowls, the cups of the drink offering and the continual bread on it.
8 And they shall spread a cloth of scarlet over them, and shall cover it with a covering of Tachash skin, and shall put in its staves.
9 And he shall take a blue cloth and shall cover the menorah of the lamp, and its lights, its tongs, its firepans and all its oil vessels with which they minister to it.
10 And they shall put it and all its vessels into a covering of Tachash[1] skin, and shall put it on the bar.
11 And they shall spread a blue cloth on the golden altar, and shall cover it with a covering of Tachash skin, and shall put in its staves.
12 And they shall take all the vessels of ministry with which they minister in the sanctuary, and shall put them into a blue cloth, and shall cover them with a covering of Tachash skin, and shall put them on the bar.
13 And they shall remove the ashes of the altar, and shall spread over it a purple cloth;
14 and shall put on it all its vessels with which they minister around it, the firepans, the hooks, the shovels and the bowls, all the vessels of the altar. And they shall spread a covering of Tachash skin on it, and shall put in its staves.
15 And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary, and all the sanctuary vessels as the camp pulls up stakes, then afterward the sons of Kohath shall come to bear. And they shall not touch the holy thing, that they may not die. These are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tent of meeting.
16 And the oversight of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be the oil of the lamp, and the sweet incense, and the continual food offering, and the anointing oil. He shall oversee all the tabernacle, and all that is in it, in the sanctuary, and its furniture.
17 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
18 Do not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites.
19 But do this to them, and they shall live and not die as they draw near the Holy of Holies. Aaron and his sons shall go in, and shall appoint them each man to his service, and to his burden.
20 And they shall not go in to see when the holy thing is covered, that they may not die.

21 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses,
saying,
22 Lift the heads of the sons of Gershon also, by their fathers' house,
by their families,
23 from a son of thirty years and upward, you shall number them, until a son of fifty years, all that enter to wait on the service, to serve in the tabernacle of the congregation.
24 This is the service of the families of the Gershonites in serving and in bearing burdens.
25 They shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, its covering, and the covering of Tachash skins that is on its top, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation;
26 and the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the court by the tabernacle and by the altar all around, and their cords, and all the vessels of their service, and whatever there may be to do with them; in this they shall serve.
27 At the mouth of Aaron, and of his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, and all their burden, and all their service. And you shall lay a charge on them concerning the duty of all their burden.
28 This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the tabernacle of the congregation; and their charge is under the hand of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.
29 You shall number the sons of Merari by their families, by their fathers' house, 30 from a son of thirty years and upward, even to a son of fifty years you shall number them, everyone who is going into the service, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation.
31 And this is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation:
the boards of the tabernacle, and its bars and its pillars and its sockets, 32 the pillars of the court all around and their sockets, their pins and their cords, of all their vessels and of all their service. And you shall number the vessels of the charge of their burden by name.
33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, for all their service, in the tabernacle of the congregation, by the hand of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.
34 And Moses and Aaron and the ruler of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites by their families, and by their fathers' house, 35 from a son of thirty years and upward, even to a son of fifty years,
everyone who is going into the service, for work in the tabernacle of the congregation.
36 Their numbered ones, by their families, were two thousand, seven hundred and fifty.
37 These were those numbered of the families of the Kohathites, everyone who is serving in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron numbered by the mouth of YAHWEH, by the hand of Moses.
38 And those numbered of the sons of Gershon, by their families, and by their fathers' house, 39 from a son of thirty years and
upward, even to a son of fifty years,
and everyone who is going into the service, for work in the tabernacle of
the congregation,
40 even those numbered of them, by their families, by their father's house were two thousand, six hundred and thirty.
41 These were those numbered of the families of Gershon, everyone who is serving in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the mouth of YAHWEH.

42 And those numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, by their families, by their fathers' house,

43 from a son of thirty years and upward, even to a son of fifty years, everyone who is going into the service, for work in the tabernacle of the congregation,

44 even their numbered ones by their families were three thousand and two hundred.

45 These were those numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered by the mouth of YAHWEH, by Moses' hand.

46 All those numbered, whom Moses and Aaron and the rulers of Israel numbered, of the Levites, by their families, and by their fathers' house,

47 from a son of thirty years and upward, even to a son of fifty years, everyone who is going in to do the work of the service, even the service of burden in the tabernacle of the congregation,

48 even their numbered ones were eight thousand, five hundred and eighty;

49 he numbered them by the mouth of YAHWEH, by the hand of Moses, each man according to his service, and according to his burden, even they were numbered by him, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

Chapter 5

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Command the sons of Israel, and they shall send every leper out of the camp, and everyone with an issue, and everyone defiled by a dead body.

3 You shall send out from male and female. You shall send them to the outside of the camp. And they shall not defile their camps in the midst of which I dwell.

4 And the sons of Israel did so, and put them outside the camp. As YAHWEH spoke to Moses, so the sons of Israel did.

5 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

6 Speak to the sons of Israel, man or woman, when they commit any of the sins of man, by committing a trespass against YAHWEH, and that person is guilty,

7 then they shall confess their sin which they have done. And he shall make restitution for his guilt in full, and add its fifth to it, and shall give it to him against whom he has been guilty.

8 And if a man has no kinsman to whom the guilt may be restored, the guilt which is restored shall belong to YAHWEH, a priest's, besides the ram of the atonement by which he makes atonement for him.

9 And every heave offering of all the holy things of the sons of Israel which they bring to the priest shall be his.

10 And any man's dedicated things shall become his, that which any man gives to the priest becomes his.

11 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

12 Speak to the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, When any man's wife goes astray, and has committed a trespass against him,

13 and a man lies with her with semen, and it has been hidden from her husband's eyes, and is kept hidden, and she is defiled, and there is no other witness against her, and she has not been caught;

14 and a spirit of jealousy has passed over him, and he has become jealous of his wife, and she has been defiled. Or, a spirit of jealousy has passed over him, and he has become jealous of his wife, and she has not become defiled:

15 then the man shall bring his wife in to the priest, and he shall bring in her offering for her, a tenth of an ephah of barley meal. He shall not pour oil on it, nor shall he put frankincense on it, for it is a food offering of jealousy, a food offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near, and shall cause her to stand before YAHWEH.

17 And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel. And the priest shall take of the dust which is on the tabernacle floor, and shall put it into the water.

18 And the priest shall cause the woman to stand before YAHWEH, and shall make bare the woman's head, and shall give into her hand the food offering of memorial; it is a food offering of jealousy; and in the priest's hand shall be the bitter waters which cause the curse.

19 And the priest shall cause her to swear and shall say to the woman, If no man has lain with you, and if you have not turned aside to impurity under your husband, be free from these bitter waters which cause the curse.

20 And you, if you have turned aside under your husband, and if you have been defiled, and any man besides your husband has given his semen to you,

21 then the priest shall cause the woman to swear with an oath of cursing, and the priest shall say to the woman: YAHWEH shall make you a curse and an oath among your people, when YAHWEH makes your thigh to fall away, and your belly to swell.

22 And these waters which cause the curse shall go into your bowels to cause the belly to swell, and the thigh to fall. And the woman shall say, Amen, Amen.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and shall blot them with the bitter waters.

24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter waters which cause the curse. And the waters which cause the curse shall enter into her for bitter things.

25 And the priest shall take the food offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the food offering before YAHWEH, and shall bring it near to the altar.

26 And the priest shall take a handful of the food offering, its memorial, and shall burn it as incense on the altar. And afterward he shall cause the woman to drink the water.

27 And when he shall cause her to drink the water, then it shall be, if she has been defiled and has committed a trespass against her husband, the waters which cause the curse shall go into her for bitter things; and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall fall away, and the woman shall become a curse in the midst of her people.

28 And if the woman has not been defiled, and is pure, then she shall be clean and shall conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies when a wife turns aside under her husband, and has been defiled;

30 or when a spirit of jealousy passes over a man, and he has become jealous of his wife, then he shall cause the woman to stand before YAHWEH, and the priest shall do to her all this law;

31 and the man shall be clean from sin, and the woman shall bear her iniquity.

Chapter 6

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses,
saying,
2 Speak to the sons of Israel and you shall say to them, When a man or a woman shall vow a vow, the vow of a Nazarite to be separated to
YAHWEH:
3 He shall separate from wine and fermented drink; he shall not drink vinegar of wine or vinegar of fermented drink; he shall not drink any juice of the grapes; and he shall not eat dry or moist grapes.
4 All the days of his separation he shall not eat from all that is made of the vine, from pressed grapes, even to the stem.
5 All the days of the vow of his separation, a razor shall not pass over his head; he shall be holy until all the days are fulfilled which he has separated to YAHWEH. He shall allow the locks of the hair of his head to grow long.
6 All the days of his separation to YAHWEH he shall not go near a dead person.
7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father or his mother or for his brother or his sister at their death; because his separation to his Elohim is on his head.
8 All the days of his separation he shall be holy to YAHWEH.
9 And if any man dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles his consecrated head, then he shall shave his head on the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day he shall shave it.
10 And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the tent of meeting.
11 And the priest shall prepare one for a sin offering, and one for a burnt offering, and shall atone for him, because he sinned by reason of the dead body. And he shall dedicate his head on that day.
12 And he shall separate to YAHWEH the days of his consecration, and shall bring a he lamb of the first year for a guilt offering. But the former days shall be void, for his separation was defiled.
13 And this is the law of the Nazarite: when the days of his separation are fulfilled, bring him in to the door of the tent of meeting, 14 and he shall offer his offering to YAHWEH, one he-lamb of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering; and one she-lambs, a yearling, without blemish, for a sin offering; and one ram, without blemish, for a peace offering; 15 and a basket of unleavened cakes of flour, cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their food offering, and their drink offerings.
16 And the priest shall bring them before YAHWEH, and shall offer his sin offering and his burnt offering.
17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offering to YAHWEH, with the basket of unleavened cakes. And the priest shall offer its food offering and its drink offering.
18 And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tent of meeting and shall take the hair of the head of his separation and shall put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offering[1].
19 And the priest shall take the

---

[1] He did this because it was a shame for a man to have long hair or to have his head covered before Yahweh and he could not enter the sanctuary of Yahweh until he shaved his head. The long hair of the vow caused the separation from the sanctuary. (1 Cor:11:4, 14, Ex 34:34, Ezek 44:20)

boiled shoulder from the ram and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them on the hands of the Nazarite after he has shaved his separation.

20 And the priest shall wave them, a wave offering before YAHWEH. It is holy to the priest, besides the breast of the wave offering, and besides the leg of the heave offering. And afterward the Nazarite shall drink wine[1].

21 This is the law of the Nazarite who vows his offering to YAHWEH for his separation, besides that which his hand may get: according to his vow which he vows, so he shall do by the law of his separation.

22 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

23 Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, In this way you shall bless the sons of Israel, saying to them:

24 YAHWEH bless you and keep you;

25 YAHWEH cause His face to shine on you, and be gracious to you;

26 YAHWEH lift up His face to you, and give you peace.

27 So they shall put My name on the sons of Israel, and I Myself will bless them.

Chapter 7

1 And it happened on the day that Moses finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed it and sanctified it, and all its vessels, and the altar and all its vessels. And he anointed them and sanctified them.

2 And the rulers of Israel, the chiefs of their fathers' houses offered. These were the rulers of the tribes, these were they that stood over the numbered ones.

3 And they brought their offerings before YAHWEH, six covered wagons and twelve oxen; a wagon for every two of the rulers, for each one an ox. And they presented them before the tabernacle.

4 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

5 Take it from them, that they may be used to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. And you shall give them to the Levites, to each man according to his service.

6 And Moses took the wagons and the oxen and gave them to the Levites.

7 He gave two wagons and four oxen to the sons of Gershon, according to their service.

8 And he gave four wagons and eight oxen to the sons of Merari, according to their service under Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.

9 But he did not give any to the sons of Kohath, because the service of the holy things belonged to them. They bore them on their shoulders.

10 And the rulers brought the dedication offering of the altar in the day it was anointed. And the rulers brought near their offering before the altar.

11 And YAHWEH said to Moses, They shall present their offering, one to the day, one ruler to the day, for the dedication of the altar.

89 And when Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with Him, he heard the voice speaking to him from the mercy-seat which is on the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubs; and He spoke to him.

Chapter 8

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to Aaron and say to him, When you go up with the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in the front of the menorah.

3 And Aaron did so. He went up with its lamps in front of the menorah, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

4 And this was the work of the menorah: hammered work of gold to its base, and to its flowers; it was hammered work, according to the pattern which YAHWEH caused

Moses to see. So he made the menorah.

5 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

6 Take the Levites from among the sons of Israel and cleanse them.

7 And thus you will do to them to cleanse them: sprinkle water of sin offering on them. And they shall make a razor pass over all their flesh and wash their garments and cleanse themselves.

8 And they shall take a bull, a son of the herd, and its food offering, flour mixed with oil, and a second bull, a son of the herd, you shall take for a sin offering.

9 And you shall bring the Levites near before the tent of meeting. And you shall assemble all the company of the sons of Israel.

10 And you shall bring the Levites before YAHWEH; and the sons of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites.

11 And Aaron shall wave the Levites as a wave offering before YAHWEH, from the sons of Israel, that they may serve at the service of YAHWEH.

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands on the head of the bulls. And you shall offer the one for a sin offering, and one a burnt offering to YAHWEH, to atone for the Levites.

13 And you shall cause the Levites to stand before Aaron and before his sons, and shall wave them as a wave offering to YAHWEH.

14 And you shall separate the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel, and the Levites shall become Mine. (Num 18:6, Jos 13:33)

15 And afterward the Levites shall come in to serve in the tent of meeting; and you shall cleanse them, and shall wave them, a wave offering.

16 For they are wholly given to Me from among the sons of Israel; instead of the one who opens any womb, the first-born of all, from the sons of Israel. I have taken them to Myself.

17 For every first-born among the sons of Israel among man and among animal, is Mine. I set them apart for Myself in the day I smote every first-born in the land of Egypt.

18 And I take the Levites instead of every first-born among the sons of Israel. (Num 18:6)

19 And I have given the Levites as given to Aaron and to his sons from the midst of the sons of Israel to serve in the service of the sons of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to atone for the sons of Israel, and there shall not be a plague among the sons of Israel to the sons of Israel by coming near to the sanctuary.

20 And Moses and Aaron, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel, did to the Levites according to all that YAHWEH had commanded Moses concerning the Levites; so the sons of Israel did to them.

21 And the Levites cleansed themselves, and washed their garments. And Aaron waved them as a wave offering before YAHWEH; and Aaron atoned for them, to cleanse them.

22 And afterward the Levites went in to do their service in the tent of meeting, before Aaron and before his sons; as YAHWEH commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

23 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

24 This is that which pertains to the Levites: from twenty five years old and upward he shall go in to do the service and the works of the tabernacle of the congregation.

25 And from a son of fifty years they shall return from the service of the work, and shall not serve any more.

26 But he shall serve with his brothers in the tent of meeting, to keep the charge; only he shall not serve at a service. So you shall do to the Levites concerning their charge.

Chapter 9

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,
2 Also the sons of Israel shall prepare the Passover in its appointed season.
3 In the fourteenth day of this month, between the evenings, you shall prepare it according to all its statutes, and according to all its ordinances.
4 And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel to prepare the Passover.
5 And they prepared the Passover in the first month on the fourteenth day of the month, between the evenings, in the wilderness of Sinai, according to all that YAHWEH had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did.
6 And there were men who had been defiled by the body of a man, and they had not been able to prepare the Passover on that day. And they came near before Moses, and before Aaron on that day.
7 And those men said to him, We are defiled by the body of a man. Why are we restrained so as not to be able to offer the offering of YAHWEH in its appointed season, in the midst of the sons of Israel?
8 And Moses said to them, You stand by, so that I may hear what YAHWEH will command concerning you.
9 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
10 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your generations shall be unclean by reason of a body, or be in a distant journey, yet he shall keep the Passover to YAHWEH.
11 In the second month, on the fourteenth day between the evenings, they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs;
12 they shall leave none of it until morning, nor break a bone of it. According to all the statutes of the Passover, they shall keep it.
13 But the man that is clean, and is not on a journey, and has failed to prepare the Passover, even that person shall be cut off from his people, because he did not bring the offering of YAHWEH in its appointed season, that man shall bear his sin[1].
14 And if an alien shall reside with you, and desires to keep the Passover to YAHWEH; he shall do according to the statute of the Passover, and according to its ordinance. You shall have one statute, both for the alien and for the native of the land[2].
15 And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, even the tabernacle of the testimony. And at evening there was on the tabernacle the appearance of fire, until morning.
16 So it was always; the cloud covered it, and the appearance of fire by night.
17 And whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle,

[1] The passover was so serious because it was the renewing of Yahweh's covenant each yr that if someone did not partake in the passover, he was cut off from Israel and the congregation. That is why it is the only set apart day to Yahweh that has a second one if by necessity the first one was missed.

[2] There is one law for both Israelites and Gentiles who have been grafted into the one tree of Israel. Later rabbis developed what they call Noahide laws for Gentiles that are not found in scripture, but only in their oral tradition.

then after that the sons of Israel pulled up stakes; and in the place where the cloud abode, there the sons of Israel encamped.

18 By the mouth of YAHWEH the sons of Israel pulled up stakes; and by the mouth of YAHWEH they encamped. All the days that the cloud remained over the tabernacle, they remained in camp.

19 And when the cloud tarried over the tabernacle many days, then the sons of Israel kept the charge of YAHWEH, and did not pull up stakes.

20 And when the cloud was over the tabernacle many days, by the mouth of YAHWEH they encamped, and by the mouth of YAHWEH they pulled up stakes.

21 And so when the cloud was there from evening until morning, when the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they pulled up stakes. Whether by day or by night, when the cloud was taken up, then they pulled up stakes.

22 Whether two days, or a month, or days, when the cloud tarried over the tabernacle, to remain over it, the sons of Israel remained in camp, and did not pull up stakes. And when it was lifted up, they pulled up stakes.

23 By the mouth of YAHWEH they encamped, and by the mouth of YAHWEH they pulled up stakes. They kept the charge of YAHWEH, by the mouth of YAHWEH, by the hand of Moses.

Chapter 10

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Make two trumpets of silver for yourself. You shall make them of hammered work, and they shall be to you for the calling of the congregation, and for causing the camps to pull up stakes.

3 And when they blow with them, all the congregation shall gather themselves to you at the door of the tent of meeting.

4 And if they blow with one, then the rulers, the heads of the thousands of Israel, shall assemble to you.

5 And when you blow an alarm, the camps that lie on the east side shall then pull up stakes.

6 And when you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that lie on the south side shall pull up stakes; they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

7 But when the assembly is gathered, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets. And they shall be to you for a never ending statute throughout your generations.

9 And when you go into battle in your land against the foe distressing you, then you shall blow with the trumpets, and you shall be remembered before YAHWEH your Elohim. And you shall be saved from your enemies.

10 And in the day of your gladness, and in your appointed times, and in your new moons, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings. And they shall be to you for a memorial before your Elohim. I am YAHWEH your Elohim.

11 And it happened in the second year, in the second month, in the twentieth of the month, the cloud went up from off the tabernacle of the testimony.

12 And the sons of Israel pulled up stakes in their journeying from the wilderness of Sinai. And the cloud stayed on it in the wilderness of Paran.

13 And they pulled up stakes first at the mouth of YAHWEH, by the hand of Moses.

14 And in the front, the standard of the camp of the sons of Judah pulled up stakes, by their armies. And over its army was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

15 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

16 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17 And the tabernacle was taken down, and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari pulled up stakes, bearing the tabernacle.

18 And the standard of the camp of Reuben pulled up stakes, by their armies. And over its army was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Gad was Eliasaph son of Deuel.

21 And the Kohathites pulled up stakes, bearing the sanctuary. And others set up the tabernacle while they came.

22 And the standard of the camp of the sons of Ephraim pulled up stakes, by their armies. And over its army was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

24 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.

25 And the standard of the camp of the sons of Dan pulled up stakes, to the rear of all the camps, by their armies. And over its army was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.

27 And over the army of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.

28 These were the journeyings of the sons of Israel according to their armies. And they pulled up stakes.

29 And Moses said to Hobab the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father in law, We are pulling up stakes to go to the place of which YAHWEH has said, I will give it to you. Go with us, and we will do good to you; for YAHWEH has spoken good concerning Israel.

30 And he said to him, I shall not go, but I shall go to my land and to my kindred.

31 And he said, Please do not forsake us, because you know as to how we encamp in the wilderness, and you shall be to us for eyes.

32 And it shall be when you go with us; yea, it shall be that what good YAHWEH shall do to us, we shall do good to you.

33 And they pulled up stakes from the mount of YAHWEH three days' journey. And the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH pulled out before them, three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloud of YAHWEH was on them by day as they pulled up stakes from the camp.

35 And it happened when the ark pulled out, Moses said, Rise, O YAHWEH, and Your enemies shall be scattered, and those hating You shall flee from Your presence.

36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O YAHWEH, to the myriads of the thousands of Israel.

Chapter 11

1 And the people were evil, as those complaining in the ears of YAHWEH. And YAHWEH heard, and His anger glowed, and the fire of YAHWEH burned among them and devoured in the extreme edge of the camp.

2 And the people cried to Moses, and Moses prayed to YAHWEH, and the fire was quenched.
3 And he called the name of that place Taberah, because the fire of YAHWEH burned among them.
4 And the mixed multitude among them lusted with a great lust; and the sons of Israel also turned back and wept, and said, Who shall cause us to eat flesh? (2 Cor 6:14)
5 We remember the fish that we ate in Egypt for nothing; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic;
6 and now our soul withers. There is nothing except this manna before our eyes.
7 And the manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like the look of bdellium resin gum.
8 And the people went around and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in mortars, and boiled it in a pan, and made it into cakes. And its taste was like the taste of fresh oil.
9 And when the dew came down on the camp by night, the manna came down on it.
10 And Moses heard the people weeping by its families, each at the door of his tent; and the anger of YAHWEH glowed exceedingly, and in the eyes of Moses it was evil.
11 And Moses said to YAHWEH, Why have You done evil to Your servant; and why have I not found grace in Your eyes to put the burden of all this people on me?
12 I, have I conceived all this people? I, have I begotten it, that You say to me, Carry it in your bosom as the foster father bears the suckling, to the land which You have sworn to its fathers?
13 Where shall I get flesh to give to all this people? For they weep to me, saying, Give to us flesh that we may eat.
14 I am not able, I alone, to bear all this people, for it is too heavy for me;
15 and if You deal thus with me, please quickly kill me, if I have found grace in Your eyes, and let me not look on my evil.
16 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Assemble to Me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you have known that they are elders of the people, and its officers. And you shall take them to the tent of the congregation; and they shall line up themselves there with you.
17 And I shall come down and speak with you there; and I will take of the spirit which is upon you, and will put it on them; and they will bear the burden of the people with you, that you may not bear it yourself alone.
18 And you shall say to the people, Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat flesh. For you have wept in the ears of YAHWEH, saying, Who shall give us flesh, for we had good in Egypt? And YAHWEH shall give flesh to you, and you shall eat.
19 You shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days;
20 but to a month of days, until it comes out of your nostrils, and it shall become to you a loathsome thing; because you have despised YAHWEH, who is in your midst, and weep before Him, saying, Why is it that we have come out of Egypt?
21 And Moses said, The people in whose midst I am are six hundred thousand footmen; and You, You have said, I shall give flesh to them, and they shall eat a month of days.
22 Shall flock and herd be slaughtered for them, so one may find for them? Are all the fish in the sea to be gathered for them, that one may find for them?

23 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Is the hand of YAHWEH shortened? Now you shall see whether My Word shall come to pass to you or not.

24 And Moses went out and spoke to the people the words of YAHWEH and gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and caused them to stand around the tabernacle.

25 And YAHWEH came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and set apart of the spirit which was on him, and put it on the seventy men of the elders. And it happened, as the spirit rested on them, that they prophesied, but they did not continue.

26 And two of the men were left in the camp, the name of the one being Eldad, and the name of the second Medad; and the spirit rested on them, and they were among those written, but did not go out to the tabernacle. And they prophesied in the camp.

27 And a young man ran and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.

28 And Yahoshua the son of Nun, minister to Moses, of his young men, answered and said, My master Moses, stop them.

29 And Moses said to him, Are you jealous for my sake? Oh that all the people of YAHWEH were prophets, that YAHWEH would put His Spirit on them!

30 And Moses withdrew into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

31 And a wind went forth from YAHWEH and cut off quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as a day's journey here, and as a day's journey there, all around the camp, and about two cubits above the face of the land.

32 And the people rose up all that day, and all that night, and the day after, and gathered the quails; he who had least had gathered ten homers. And they spread them out for themselves around the camp.

33 The flesh was yet between their teeth, it was not yet cut off, and the anger of YAHWEH glowed among the people. And YAHWEH struck among the people with a very great plague.

34 And one called the name of that place, The Graves of Lust; for there they buried the people who lusted.

35 From the Graves of Lust the people pulled up stakes to go to Hazeroth, and they remained in Hazeroth.

Chapter 12

1 And Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses, because of the Cushite woman whom he had taken. For he had taken a Cushite woman.

2 And they said, Has YAHWEH spoken only by Moses? Has He not also spoken by us? And YAHWEH heard.

3 And the man Moses was very depressed, more than any man who was on the face of the earth.

4 And YAHWEH said suddenly to Moses, and to Aaron, and to Miriam, You three come out to the tent of the meeting. And the three of them came out.

5 And YAHWEH came down in the pillar of the cloud and stood at the tabernacle door, and called Aaron and Miriam. And both of them came out.

6 And He said, Now hear My words, If your prophet is of YAHWEH, I will make Myself seen by him in an appearance; I will speak to him in a dream.

7 It is not so with My servant Moses! He is faithful in all My house.

8 I speak to him mouth to mouth, and by an appearance, and not in riddles; and he looks upon the form of YAHWEH. So why have you not been afraid to speak against My servant, against Moses?

9 And the anger of YAHWEH glowed against them, and He left.
10 And the cloud turned away from the tent. And, behold Miriam was leprous as snow! And Aaron turned toward Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous!
11 And Aaron said to Moses, Oh my master, I beg you, do not lay sin upon us, by which we have done foolishly, and by which we have sinned.
12 I pray, do not let her be as one who is dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb.
13 And Moses cried to YAHWEH, saying, O Elohim, I beg you, please heal her.
14 And YAHWEH said to Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? She shall be shut out seven days at the outside of the camp, and afterward she shall be brought in.
15 And Miriam was shut out at the outside of the camp seven days, and the people did not pull up stakes until Miriam was brought in.
16 And afterward the people pulled up stakes from Hazeroth, and they encamped in the wilderness of Paran.

Chapter 13

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses,
saying,
2 Send men for you, and they shall spy out the land of Canaan which I am giving to the sons of Israel; you shall send one man for the tribe of his fathers, one man, every one a leader
among them.
3 And by the command of YAHWEH Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran they were all of them men, heads of the sons of Israel.
4 And these were their names: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur;
5 of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori;
6 of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;
7 of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph;
8 of the tribe of Ephraim, Yahoshua
the son of Nun;
9 of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu;
10 of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel
the son of Sodi;
11 of the tribe of Joseph, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi; 12 of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli; 13 of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;
14 of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;
15 of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.
16 These were the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land.
And Moses called Hoshea the son of Nun, Yahoshua.
17 And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them,
You go up this way into the Negev, and go up into the hills;
18 and you shall see the land, what it is, and the people who are living on it, whether it is strong or feeble; whether it is few or many;
19 and what the land is in which they live, whether good or bad; and what are the cities in which they live, whether in camps or in fortresses; 20 and what the land is, whether it is fat or lean; whether wood is in it or not. And you shall make yourselves strong and shall take of the fruit of the land. And it was the days of the first ripe grapes.

21 And they went up and spied out the land, from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, coming to Hamath.

22 And they went up into the Negev, and came to Hebron. And Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmai, the sons of Anak, were there. And Hebron had been built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.

23 And they came in to the valley of Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch and one cluster of grapes. And they carried it on a staff by two; also of the pomegranates and of the figs.

24 That place was called the Valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the sons of Israel cut from there.

25 And they returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days.

26 And they went and came in to Moses and to Aaron, and to all the company of the congregation of the sons of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh. And they brought them and all the congregation word, and made them see the fruit of the land.

27 And they reported to him and said, We came to the land where you sent us, and indeed it is flowing with milk and honey; and this is its fruit.

28 But the people that live in the land are fierce, and the cities are walled up, very great. And also we have seen the children of Anak there.

29 Amalek lives in the land of the Negev, and the Hittite, and the Jebusite, and the Amorite live in the hills. And the Canaanite is living by the sea, and beside the Jordan.

30 And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, We will certainly go up, and we will seize it, for we are well able to do it.

31 And the men who had gone up with him said, We are not able to go up against the people, for it is stronger than we.

32 And they sent out an evil report of the land which they had spied out to the sons of Israel, saying, The land into which we passed, to spy it out, is a land eating up the ones living in it. And all the people we saw in its midst were men of stature.

33 And we saw the giants there, the sons of Anak, of the giants. And we were in our own eyes as grasshoppers, and so we were in their eyes.

Chapter 14

1 And all the congregation lifted up their voice and cried; and the people wept during that night.

2 And all the sons of Israel murmured against Moses, and against Aaron. And all the congregation said to them, Oh that we had died in the land of Egypt, or in this wilderness, oh that we had died!

3 And why is YAHWEH bringing us into this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and our infants have become a prey. Is it not good for us to return to Egypt? (Is 30:1-3, Is 31:1-3)

4 And they said each to his brother, Let us give a leader and return to Egypt.

5 And Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the sons of Israel.

6 And Yahoshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of those who spied out the land, tore their garments.

7 And they spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, The land into which we passed, to spy it out, is an exceedingly good land.

8 If YAHWEH has delighted in us, then He will bring us into this land and will give it to us, a land which is flowing with milk and honey.

9 Only, do not rebel against YAHWEH. And you, do not fear the people of the land, for they are our bread; their defense has turned away from them; and YAHWEH is with us; do not be afraid of them.[1]

10 And all the congregation said to stone them with stones. And the glory of YAHWEH appeared in the tent of meeting, to all the sons of Israel.

11 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Until when will this people despise[2] Me? And until when will they continue not to believe in Me for all the signs I have done in its midst?

12 I shall strike it with pestilence and dispossess it. And I will make you a nation greater and mightier than it.

13 And Moses said to YAHWEH, And the Egyptians will hear. For You have brought up this people out of their midst with Your power.

14 And they will say to the one living in this land, They have heard that You, YAHWEH, are in the midst of this people, who is seen eye to eye. You are YAHWEH, and Your cloud stands over them; in a pillar of cloud You go before them by day, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 And will You cause this people to die as one man? Then the nations who have heard Your fame will speak, saying,

16 Because YAHWEH is not able to bring this people into the land which He swore to them, therefore He has slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beg You, let the power of YAHWEH be great, as You have spoken, saying,

18 YAHWEH is slow to anger, and of great mercy, bearing away iniquity and transgression; and by no means will clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the sons, on the third and on the fourth generation.

19 I pray, forgive the iniquity of this people, according to the greatness of Your mercy, and as You have gone with this people from Egypt, even until now.

20 And YAHWEH said, I have forgiven according to your word;

21 but as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of YAHWEH;

22 for all the men who are seeing My glory, and My miracles which I have done in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tried Me these ten times, and have not listened to My voice,

23 they shall not see the land which I have sworn to their fathers. Yea, not one of those who provoked Me shall see it. (Heb 3:7-12)

24 And My servant Caleb, because there is another spirit in him, and he is fully following Me, I shall bring him into the land into which he has gone, and his seed shall possess it.

25 And the Amalekite and the Canaanite were living in the valley. Tomorrow turn and pull up stakes for yourselves; going into the wilderness, the way of the Sea of Reeds.

26 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

27 How long shall I bear with this evil company who are murmuring against Me? I have heard the murmurings of the sons of Israel which they are murmuring against Me.

28 Say to them, As I live, says YAHWEH, as surely as you have spoken in My ears, so I will do to you.[3]

1 The Hebrew word for defense is 'Tzel' and means shade or shadow. Yahweh's shadow of protection was leaving the people of the land . Also, the reference to the enemy being 'their bread'. Bread was the most basic food and form of subsistence.

2 Despise- this word means to treat with contempt or blaspheme.

3 Math 12:36-37

29 Your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness, even all your numbered sons, as to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, in that you have murmured against Me.

30 You shall certainly not come into the land which I lifted up My hand to cause you to live in it, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Yahoshua the son of Nun.[1]

31 As for your infants, of whom you have said, They shall be a prey, I shall bring them in, and they shall know the land which you have rejected.

32 As for you, your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness. (Jude 5)

33 And your sons shall be shepherds in the wilderness forty years, and shall bear your fornications until your carcasses are wasted in the wilderness;

34 by the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, a day for a year, a day for a year; you shall bear your iniquities forty years[2]; you shall know My alienation from you.

35 I am YAHWEH; I have spoken. I shall do this to all this evil company who are gathered together against Me. They shall be brought to an end in this wilderness, and there they shall die.

36 And the men whom Moses had sent to spy out the land, and who, when they returned, made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up an evil report against the land,

37 even those men bringing up an evil report of the land died by the plague before YAHWEH.

38 But Yahoshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, remained alive of those men that went to spy out the land.

39 And Moses told these words to all the sons of Israel; and the people mourned deeply.

40 And they rose up early in the morning and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, Behold, we are here, and we will go up to the place which YAHWEH has said, for we have sinned.

41 And Moses said, Why do you now transgress the mouth of YAHWEH, since it will not prosper?

42 Do not go up, for YAHWEH is not in your midst, and you will be defeated by your enemies.

43 For the Amalekite and the Canaanite are there before you; and you shall fall by the sword because you have turned back from following YAHWEH; and YAHWEH is not with you.

44 And they presumed to go up to the top of the mountain, but the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH and Moses did not leave the middle of the camp.[3]

45 And the Amalekite and the Canaanite living in that mountain came down and struck them, and beat them down, to Hormah.

Chapter 15

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

2 Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you have come to the land of your dwellings, which I am giving to you,

3 then you shall prepare a fire offering to YAHWEH, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice, in fulfillment of a vow, or as a freewill offering, or in your appointed seasons, to make a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH, out of the herd, or out of the flock.

4 And he who is bringing his offering to YAHWEH shall bring near a food offering of flour, a tenth part, mixed with a fourth of a hin of oil;
5 and wine for a drink offering, a fourth of a hin you shall prepare for the burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, for the one lamb.
6 Or you shall prepare a food offering of flour for a ram, two tenth parts mixed with oil, a third of a hin;
7 and wine for a drink offering, a third part of a hin. You shall bring it near, a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.
8 And when you prepare a son of the herd for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, in fulfillment of a vow, or peace offerings to YAHWEH,
9 then he shall bring near for the son of the herd a food offering of flour, three tenth parts, mixed with oil, a half of a hin;
10 and you shall bring wine near for a drink offering, a half of a hin, as a fire offering of soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.
11 So it shall be done for one ox, or for the one ram, or for a lamb of the sheep, or of the goats.
12 You shall prepare according to the number. So you shall do for everyone according to their number.
13 All that are native shall do these things in this way, in bringing in an offering made by fire, of a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.
14 And if an alien lives with you, or whoever may be among you, throughout your generations, and desires to offer a fire offering of a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH; as you do, so he shall do.
15 As for the congregation, there shall be one statute both for you and for the alien that lives with you, a never ending statute throughout your generations; as you are, so shall the alien be before YAHWEH[1].
16 There shall be one law and one ordinance both for you and for the alien that lives with you.
17 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
18 Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land to which I bring you,
19 then it shall be that when you eat of the bread of the land, you shall lift up a heave offering to YAHWEH.
20 You shall lift up a cake of the first of your dough as a heave offering; as the heave offering of the threshing floor, so you shall lift it up.
21 You shall give of the first of your dough to YAHWEH, a heave offering for your generations.
22 And when you shall err and shall not perform all these commands which YAHWEH has spoken to Moses,
23 even all that YAHWEH has commanded you by the hand of Moses from the day that YAHWEH commanded, and onward for your generations,
24 then it shall be, if it be done in ignorance by the congregation, without knowledge, even all the congregation shall offer a son of the herd, one bull, for a burnt offering, for a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH, and its food offering, and its drink offering, according to the ordinance; and one kid of the goats for a sin offering.
25 And the priest shall atone for all the congregation of the sons of Israel; and it shall be forgiven them. For it was in ignorance, and they have brought their offering, a fire offering to YAHWEH, and their sin offering before YAHWEH for their error.

26 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and the alien that lives among them, shall be forgiven; for as to all the people, it was in ignorance.

27 And if one person sins through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering.

28 And the priest shall atone for the soul that errs when he sins through ignorance before YAHWEH to atone for him. And he shall be forgiven, 29 both the native among the sons of Israel, and the alien that lives among them; one law shall be to you for him who acts in error.

30 And the soul that does anything with a high hand in defiance, whether of a native or of the alien, the same blasphemes YAHWEH. And that person shall be cut off from the midst of his people.

31 For he has despised the Word of YAHWEH and has broken His command; that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity shall be on him.

32 And while the sons of Israel were in the wilderness they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day.

33 And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation.

34 And they put him under guard; for it had not been declared what should be done to him.

35 And YAHWEH said to Moses, surely, the man shall die; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp.

36 And all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him with stones. And he died, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

37 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

38 Speak to the sons of Israel and you shall say to them that they shall make themselves fringes on the corners of their garments, for their generations. And they shall put a thread of blue with the fringe of each corner. (Deut 22:12)

39 And He[1] shall be to you for a fringe, that you may look on it and remember all the commandments of YAHWEH, and do them; and that you do not go about after your own heart and your own eyes after which you fornicate;

40 that you may remember and do all My commandments, and be holy to your Elohim.

41 I am YAHWEH your Elohim who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your Elohim. I am YAHWEH your Elohim.

Chapter 16

1 And Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, took also Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, the sons of Reuben;

2 and they rose up before Moses, with certain of the sons of Israel, two hundred and fifty rulers of the congregation, elect men of the assembly, men of name.

3 And they were assembled against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, You take too much! For all the congregation, all of them are holy, and YAHWEH is among them. Why then do you lift up yourselves above the assembly of YAHWEH?

4 And Moses heard and fell on his face.

5 And he spoke to Korah, and to all his company, saying, In the morning

[1] The verb "shall be" is in the third person future tense and can mean either "he" or "it", but in context it seems to be speaking of the Messiah being the authority to them by the tassel. (Math 9:20-21)

YAHWEH will know who are His, and him who is holy, and shall cause him to come near Him; even him whom He may choose, He will cause to come near to Him.
6 Do this: take fire-pans for yourselves, Korah, and all his company,
7 and put fire in them, and put incense on them before YAHWEH tomorrow; and it shall be, the man whom YAHWEH chooses, he shall be the holy one. You take too much, sons of Levi!
8 And Moses said to Korah, Hear now, you sons of Levi,
9 is it too little a thing to you that the Elohim of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel to bring you near to Himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of YAHWEH, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them?
10 Yea, He has brought you near, and all your brothers, the sons of Levi, with you. And will you seek the priesthood also?
11 Therefore, you and all your company that have gathered against YAHWEH, What is Aaron that you murmur against him?
12 And Moses sent to call for Dathan and for Abiram, the sons of Eliab; and they said, We will not come up.
13 Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, but must you also seize dominion over us[1]?
14 Yea, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance in fields and vineyards; will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!
15 And Moses was very angry, and said to YAHWEH, Do not respect their offering; I have not taken one donkey from them, nor have I done evil to one of them.
16 And Moses said to Korah, You and all your company, you be there before YAHWEH, you and they, and Aaron tomorrow.
17 And each one take his fire-pan, and you shall put incense on them, and shall offer before YAHWEH, each his fire-pan, two hundred and fifty fire-pans; even you and Aaron, each his fire-pan.
18 And they each took his fire-pan, and put fire on them, and lay incense on them, and they stood at the door of the tent of meeting, with Moses and Aaron.
19 And Korah assembled all the congregation against them, to the door of the tent of meeting, and the glory of YAHWEH was seen by all the congregation.
20 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
21 Separate yourselves from the midst of this company, and I will consume them in a moment[2].
22 And they fell on their faces, and said, O Elohim, Elohim of the spirits of all flesh; shall one man sin, and will You be angry with all the congregation?
23 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
24 Speak to the congregation, saying, You get away from around the tent of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.
25 And Moses rose up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel went after him.

[1] This is paramount to blasphemy, as they are condemning the great work Yahweh did by taking them out of Egypt and then calling the slavery in Egypt a land flowing with milk and honey.

[2] We see the consequences when Yahweh's judicial order is challenged. Yahweh's mercy is unending but only when there is repentance and not when there is a prideful hardened heart of rebellion.

26 And he spoke to the congregation, saying, Please turn away from the tents of these wicked men, and do not touch anything that they have, lest you be consumed in all their sins.
27 And they got away from around the tent of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram; and Dathan and Abiram came out, standing at the door of their tents, and their wives, their sons, and their infants.
28 And Moses said, By this you shall know that YAHWEH has sent me to do all these works, and that not from my own heart.
29 If these die according to the death of all men, and are visited according to the visitation of all men, then YAHWEH has not sent me.
30 And if YAHWEH makes a new thing, and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them, and all that they have, and they go down alive to Sheol, then you shall know that these men have despised YAHWEH.
31 And it happened, as he made an end of speaking all these words, the ground which was under them split apart, 32 and the earth opened her mouth and swallowed them, and their houses, and all the men who were for Korah,
and all their possessions.
33 And they went down, they and all that they had, alive to Sheol, and the earth covered over them; and they perished from the midst of the assembly.
34 And all Israel who were around them fled at their cry; for they said,
Lest the earth swallow us up.
35 And fire came forth from YAHWEH and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered the incense.
36 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses,
saying,
37 Speak to Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the priest, and he shall lift up the fire-pans from the midst of the burning, and shall scatter the fire yonder, for they have become holy, 38 the fire-pans of these sinners against their own souls. And they shall make of them spread out plates, a covering for the altar, for they have brought them near before YAHWEH, and they are holy[1]. And they shall become a sign to the sons of Israel.
39 And Eleazar the priest took the copper fire-pans, which they who were burned had brought near, and they spread them out, a covering for the altar,
40 a memorial to the sons of Israel, so that an alien who is not of the seed of Aaron shall not draw near to offer incense before YAHWEH, and shall not be as Korah, and as his company; as YAHWEH had spoken by the hand of Moses to him.
41 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel murmured on the next day against Moses and against Aaron, saying, You have killed the people of
YAHWEH.
42 And it happened, as the company was called together against Moses and against Aaron, that they turned toward the tent of meeting. And, behold, the cloud had covered it, and the glory of YAHWEH appeared!
43 And Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tabernacle of the congregation.
44 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses,
saying,
45 Get away from the midst of this company, and I shall consume them in a moment; and they fell on their faces.
46 And Moses said to Aaron, Take the fire-pan, and put fire on it from the altar, and lay on incense, and go, hurry to the congregation, and atone for them, for the wrath has gone out from the presence of YAHWEH; the plague has begun.

47 And Aaron did as Moses had spoken, and ran into the midst of the assembly. And, behold, the plague had begun among the people! And he laid on the incense and atoned for the people, 48 and stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stayed.
49 And those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides those who died for the matter of Korah.
50 And Aaron turned back to Moses, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and the plague was stayed.

Chapter 17

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
2 Speak to the sons of Israel, and take from each of them a rod, for a father's house, from all their rulers, for the house of their fathers, twelve rods. You shall write the name of each on his rod.
3 And you shall write Aaron's name on the staff of the tribe of Levi; for one rod shall be for the head of their fathers' house.
4 And you shall place them in the tent of meeting, before the testimony, where I shall meet with you.
5 And it shall be that the man's rod which I choose shall blossom. And I shall cause the murmurings of the sons of Israel, which they are murmuring against you, to stop from Me.
6 And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and all their rulers gave to him one rod for each ruler, one rod for a ruler, for their fathers' house, twelve rods; and the rod of Aaron was among the rods.
7 And Moses placed the rods before YAHWEH, in the tent of the testimony.
8 And it happened on the next day, Moses went into the tent of the testimony, and, behold! The rod of Aaron for the house of Levi had budded, and put forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and bore ripe almonds[1].
9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before YAHWEH to all the sons of Israel. And they looked, and each one took his rod.
10 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Put back the rod of Aaron, before the testimony, to be kept as a token to the sons of rebellion. And you shall end their murmurings from Me; and they shall not die.
11 And Moses did as YAHWEH had commanded him; so he did.
12 And the sons of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish.
13 Anyone who draws near to the tabernacle of YAHWEH shall die; shall we be consumed to die?

Chapter 18

1 And YAHWEH said to Aaron, You, and your sons, and your father's house with you shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary. And you, and your sons with you, shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood;
2 and also your brothers, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, you shall bring near with you, that they may be joined to you and may minister to you, you and your sons in your being before the tent of the testimony.

3 And they shall keep your charge and the charge of all the tabernacle; only, they shall not go near to the vessels of the sanctuary and to the altar. And they shall not die, either they or you.

4 And they shall be joined to you, and shall keep the charge of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tabernacle, and a foreigner shall not go near to you.

5 And you shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar, and there shall be no more wrath against the sons of Israel.

6 And I, behold, I have taken your brothers the Levites from the midst of the sons of Israel; as a gift they are given to you by YAHWEH, to do the service of the tent of meeting. (Num 8:14-19)

7 And you, and your sons with you, shall keep your priesthood, in everything that pertains to the altar, and to that inside the veil. And you shall serve; I have given you the priesthood as a service of gift; and the stranger who comes near shall be caused to die.

8 And YAHWEH spoke to Aaron, saying, And I, behold, I have given to you the charge of My heave offerings, of all the devoted things of the sons of Israel. I have given them to you for the anointing, and to your sons, by a perpetual statute.

9 This shall be yours of the most holy things, from the fire: every offering of theirs, even every food offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every guilt offering of theirs, which they may render to Me; it shall be most holy to you, and to your sons.

10 You shall eat it in the Holy Place; every male shall eat it; it shall be holy to you.

11 And this is yours, the heave offering of their gift with all the wave offerings of the sons of Israel. I have given them to you, and to your sons, and to your daughters with you, by a never ending statute; every clean one in your house shall eat it.

12 All the best of the oil, and all the best of the new wine, and wheat, the first fruits of them which they give to YAHWEH, I have given to you.

13 The first-fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring in to YAHWEH shall be yours; every clean one in your house shall eat it;

14 every devoted thing in Israel shall be yours;

15 every one opening a womb of all flesh which they offer to YAHWEH, among man and among animal, shall be yours. Only, you shall certainly redeem the first-born of man, and you shall redeem the firstling of the unclean beasts.

16 And their redeemed ones, from a month old, you shall redeem with your valuation of silver, five shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary; it is twenty gerahs.

17 But the firstling of an ox, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar, and you shall burn their fat as incense, a fire offering of soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.

18 And their flesh shall be yours, as the breast of the wave offering, and as the right leg; it shall be yours.

19 All the heave offerings of the holy things which the sons of Israel shall lift up to YAHWEH, I have given to you and to your sons, and to your daughters with you, by a never ending statute, a covenant of salt, it shall be forever before YAHWEH to you and to your seed with you.

20 And YAHWEH said to Aaron, You shall have no inheritance in their land, nor shall you have any portion among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the sons of Israel[1].

21 And, behold, I have given all the tithe in Israel to the sons of Levi for an inheritance, in return for their service which they are serving, the service of the tent of meeting.

22 And the sons of Israel shall not come near to the tent of meeting any more, lest they bear sin, and die.

23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tent of meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity; it shall be a never ending statute throughout your generations, that in the midst of the sons of Israel they shall have no inheritance;

24 but the tithes of the sons of Israel which they shall lift up to YAHWEH, a heave offering, I have given to the Levites for inheritance; therefore I have said to them, They shall have no inheritance among the sons of Israel.

25 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

26 And you shall say to the Levites; and you shall speak to them, When you take the tithe from the sons of Israel, which I have given to you from them, for your inheritance, then you shall lift from it a heave offering of YAHWEH, a tithe of the tithe.

27 And your heave offering shall be counted to you as grain from the threshing floor, and as fullness from the winepress.

28 So you also shall lift up the heave offering of YAHWEH from all your tithes which you receive from the sons of Israel. And you shall give from it the heave offering of YAHWEH to Aaron the priest.

29 You shall lift up the whole heave offering of YAHWEH out of all your gifts, out of all its fat, its holy part, out of it.

30 And you shall say to them, When you lift up its fat out of it, then it shall be counted to the Levites as increase of a threshing floor, and as increase of a winepress.

31 And you shall eat it in every place, you and your households, for it is your reward in return for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And you shall bear no sin because of it, since you have lifted up from it the best of it. And you shall not profane the holy things of the sons of Israel so that you may not die.

Chapter 19

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 This is the statute of the law which YAHWEH has commanded, saying, Speak to the sons of Israel, that they bring you a red heifer, without blemish, in which there is no blemish, on which no yoke ever came. (Math 11:28-30)

3 And you shall give her to Eleazar the priest, and she shall be brought forth outside the camp; and she shall be slaughtered before his face.
(Heb 13:11-13)

4 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and shall sprinkle of her blood toward the front of the tent of meeting seven times.

5 And the heifer shall be burned before his eyes; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood with her dung, shall be burned.

6 And the priest shall take cedar

[1] True priests of Yahweh do not gather and hoard mammon, but live by faith and trust Yahweh to provide as they are His possession.

wood, and hyssop and scarlet, and shall cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7 Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he may come into the camp; and the priest shall be unclean until the evening.

8 And he that burned her shall wash his clothes in water, and shall bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the evening.

9 And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and shall lay them up outside the camp in a clean place. And it shall be kept for the congregation of the sons of Israel for a water of impurity[1]; it is a sin offering.

10 And he that gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and shall be unclean until the evening; and it shall be to the sons of Israel, and to the stranger that lives among them, for a never ending statute.

11 He that touches the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days.

12 He shall cleanse himself for it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean. And if he does not cleanse himself on the third day, then on the seventh day he shall not be clean[2].

13 Anyone who touches the dead body, the body of a man who dies, and does not cleanse himself, he shall have defiled the tabernacle of YAHWEH; and that person shall be cut off from Israel, for the water of impurity shall not be sprinkled upon him. He shall be unclean; his uncleanness shall be still on him.

14 This is the law when a man dies in a tent: Everyone who comes into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

15 And every open vessel which has no covering of thread on it shall be unclean.

16 And whoever in the open field touches one that has been pierced with a sword, or one that has died of himself, or the bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

17 And for the unclean they shall take the ashes of the burning of the sin offering, and living water in a vessel shall be put on it.

18 And a clean person shall take hyssop, and shall dip it in the water, and shall sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched the bone, or the slain, or the dead, or the grave.

19 And the clean person shall sprinkle on the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day; and on the seventh day he shall purify himself; and he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at evening.

20 But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from the midst of the congregation, because he has defiled the sanctuary of YAHWEH; the water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him; he shall be unclean[3].

1 This water was used for the ceremonial washings for when one became ceremonially unclean.

2 The Red Heifer was the only sacrifice that was done on the third altar across the Kidron Valley on the slope of the Mount of Olives right below where the crucifixion of Yahshua the Messiah took place. This sacrifice was clearly pointing toward His cleansing of all sin through baptism in His name. If one did not cleanse himself on the third day (through the resurrection) he would not be clean on the 7th day (picturing the millennium and the resurrection).

3 Another clear prelude to the baptism ceremony which would become the sign of the New Covenant.

21 And it shall be a continual statute to them; and he that sprinkles the water of impurity shall wash his clothes; and he that touches the water of sprinkling shall be unclean until evening.

22 And whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the soul that touches it shall be unclean until evening.

Chapter 20

1 And the sons of Israel, even the whole congregation, came into the wilderness of Zin in the first month; and the people remained in Kadesh. And Miriam died there, and was buried there.

2 And there was no water for the congregation, and they were gathered against Moses, and against Aaron.

3 And the people contended with Moses, and spoke, saying, Oh that we had died when our brothers died before YAHWEH!

4 And, why have you brought the assembly of YAHWEH to this wilderness to die there, we and our animals?

5 And, why have you brought us up out of Egypt to bring us to this evil place, not a place of seed, nor fig, nor vine, nor pomegranate; and there is no water to drink?

6 And Moses and Aaron went in from the eyes of the assembly, to the door of the tent of meeting; and fell on their faces. And the glory of YAHWEH appeared to them.

7 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

8 Take the rod, and assemble the congregation, you and your brother Aaron. And speak to the rock before their eyes. And it shall give forth its water; and you shall bring water out of the rock to them; so you shall water the congregation and their animals.

9 And Moses took the rod from before YAHWEH, as He commanded him.

10 And Moses and Aaron assembled the congregation before the rock. And he said to them, Hear now, you rebels, shall we bring forth water to you out of this rock?

11 And Moses lifted up his hand and smote the rock with his rod twice; and much water came out; and the congregation and their animals drank.

12 And YAHWEH said to Moses and Aaron, Because you did not believe in Me, to sanctify Me before the eyes of the sons of Israel, therefore you shall not bring in this congregation to the land which I have given to them.[1]

13 These are the Waters of Meribah[2], because the sons of Israel contended with YAHWEH, and He was sanctified among them.

14 And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom: So says your brother Israel, You surely have known all the travail which has found us;

15 that our fathers went down to Egypt, and we lived in Egypt many days, and the Egyptians did evil to us and to our fathers.

16 And we cried to YAHWEH, and He heard our voice, and sent a messenger, and is bringing us out of Egypt; and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your border.

17 Please let us pass over, through

1 This was a grave sin before Yahweh, as Moses had started to take for granted the great power that Yahweh had given him, and did not follow the instructions of speaking to the rock but pridefully struck the rock in defiance to Elohim's command. This loss of self-control and lack of judgment cost him entrance into the Promised Land. Deut 1:37-38.

2 Meribah means strife.

your land; we shall not pass over through a field, nor through a vineyard, nor shall we drink water of a well; we shall go along the king's highway. We will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left, until we have passed your border.

18 And Edom said to him, You shall not pass through me, lest I come out with the sword against you.

19 And the sons of Israel said to him, We shall go in the highway; and if we drink of your waters, our cattle and us, then I shall give their price. Only let me pass through on my feet; there shall be no speech.

20 And he said, You shall not pass through. And Edom came out against him with many people, and with a strong hand.

21 And Edom refused to allow Israel to pass over through his border. And Israel turned away from him.

22 And the sons of Israel, the whole congregation, pulled up stakes from Kadesh and came in to Mount Hor.

23 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, on the edge of the land of Edom, saying,

24 Aaron shall be gathered to his people, for he shall not go into the land which I have given to the sons of Israel, because you rebelled against My mouth at the Waters of Strife.

25 Take Aaron and his son Eleazar, and cause them to go up to Mount Hor;

26 and strip Aaron of his garments, and you shall put them on his son Eleazar. And Aaron shall be gathered and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as YAHWEH had commanded; and they went up to Mount Hor before the eyes of all the congregation.

28 And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and clothed his son Eleazar with them. And Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. And Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.

29 And all the congregation saw that Aaron had died, and they mourned Aaron thirty days, all the house of Israel.

Chapter 21

1 And King Arad the Canaanite, who lived in the south, heard that Israel had come the Way of Spies; and he fought against Israel, and took some of them captive.

2 And Israel vowed a vow to YAHWEH, and said, If giving You give this people into my hand, then I will exterminate their cities.

3 And YAHWEH listened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities; and the name of the place was called Hormah.

4 And they pulled up stakes from Mount Hor by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom. And the soul of the people became impatient because of the way.

5 And the people spoke against Elohim, and against Moses, Why have you brought us out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, and there is no water; and our soul hates this light bread.

6 And YAHWEH sent the Seraphaim in the form of serpents among the people; and they bit the people, and many people of Israel died.

7 And the people came in to Moses and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against YAHWEH, and against you. Pray to YAHWEH, and He shall turn the serpent away from us. And Moses prayed on behalf of the people.

8 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses,

Make yourself a Seraph, and set it on a pole; and it shall be that when anyone is bitten, when he sees it, he shall live.
9 And Moses made a serpent of copper and put it on a pole; and it happened, if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked to the copper serpent, he lived.
10 And the sons of Israel pulled up stakes and encamped in Oboth.
11 And they pulled up stakes from Oboth, and camped in Ijeabarim, in the wilderness that is before Moab, toward the rising of the sun.
12 From there they pulled up stakes
and camped in the valley of Zered.
13 From there they pulled up stakes and camped beyond Arnon, which is in the wilderness that comes out of the border of the Amorite; for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorite;
14 therefore, it is said in the Book of the Wars of YAHWEH: Waheb in Suphah, the torrents of Arnon, 15 and the slope of the torrent-beds that turn down toward the site of Ar, and lean on the border of Moab.
16 And from there they went to Beer; that is the well of which YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying, Gather the people and I will give water to them.
17 Then Israel sang this song: Spring up, O well, sing to it; 18 The well which the rulers dug, which the nobles of the people dug with their staves, at the word of the Lawgiver. And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah.
19 And from Mattanah they went to Nahaliel; and from Nahaliel to Bamoth;
20 and from Bamoth in the valley which is in the field of Moab to the top of Pisgah, and looking toward the wilderness.
21 And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, 22 Let me pass through your land;
we will not turn into a field or into a vineyard; we will not drink waters of a well; we will go in the king's highway until we have passed over your border.
23 And Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his border. And Sihon gathered all his people and went out to meet Israel in the wilderness, and they came to Jahaz and fought against Israel.
24 And Israel struck him by the mouth of the sword and seized his land, from Arnon to Jabbok, to the sons of Ammon. For the border of the sons of Ammon was strong.
25 And Israel took all these cities.
And Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorite, in Heshbon and in all its daughter villages.
26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites. And he had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken his land out of his hand, to Arnon.
27 On account of this the parable speakers say, Come to Heshbon! Let the city of Sihon be built and established!
28 For a fire has gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon; it has consumed Ar of Moab, the lords of the high places of Arnon.
29 Woe to you, Moab! You are undone, O people of Chemosh! He has given his sons as fugitives and his daughters into captivity, to Sihon king of the Amorites.
30 We have cast them down;
Heshbon has perished, even to Dibon;
and we have ravaged even to Nophah, which is to Medeba.
31 And Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.
32 And Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, and they took its villages and drove out the Amorite who was there.
33 And they turned and went the way of Bashan. And Og king of Bashan came out to meet them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

34 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Do not fear him, for I have given him into your hand, and all his people and his land. And you shall do to him as you have done to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.
35 And they struck him and his sons and all his people until he did not have a remnant left. And they seized his land.

Chapter 22

1 And the sons of Israel pulled up stakes and camped on the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan, by Jericho.
2 And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.
3 And Moab greatly feared because of the people, for it was many. And Moab was vexed by the presence of the sons of Israel.
4 And Moab said to the elders of Midian, Now this assembly is licking up all that is around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time.
5 And he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, to Pethor which is beside the River of the land of the sons of his people, to call for him, saying, Behold! A people has come out of Egypt. Behold! it has covered the eye of the earth, and it is sitting next to me.
6 And now please come, curse this people for me, for it is stronger than I.
Perhaps I will prevail, that we may strike them, that I may drive them out from the land. For I know that whoever you bless is blessed, and whoever you curse is cursed.
7 And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian left with the rewards of the seer in their hand. And they came to Balaam and spoke the words of Balak to him.
8 And he said to them, Stay here tonight, and I will bring back word to you, even as YAHWEH may speak to me. And the leaders of Moab stayed with Balaam.
9 And Elohim came to Balaam and said, Who are these men with you?
10 And Balaam said to Elohim, Balak the son of Zippor king of Moab has sent to me,
11 saying, Behold, a people has come out of Egypt which covers the eye of the earth. Now come, curse them for me; perhaps I will be able to overcome
it and drive it out.
12 And Elohim said to Balaam, You shall not go with them.[1] You shall not curse the people, for it is blessed.
13 And Balaam rose in the morning and said to the leaders of Balak. Go to your land, for YAHWEH has refused to allow me to go with you.
14 And the leaders of Moab rose up and came to Balak. And they said, Balaam refuses to come with us.
15 And Balak sent yet again, more leaders and more honorable than they.
16 And they came to Balaam and said to him, So says Balak the son of Zippor, Please do not be hindered from coming to me, 17 for I will honor you with very much riches; and all that you say to me I will do. And please come, curse this people for me.
18 And Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, If Balak would give to me his house full of gold and silver, I could not go beyond the mouth of YAHWEH my Elohim, to do anything, small or great.[2] 19 And now you also please stay here

---

[1] Yahweh is not saying Balaam could not physically go with them but not to be with them in purpose of cursing Israel.

tonight. And I shall know what more YAHWEH may speak to me[1].
20 And Elohim came to Balaam at night and said to him, If the men have come to call you, rise up, go with them and say only the thing that I speak to you; it you shall do.
21 And Balaam rose up in the morning and saddled his donkey and went with the chiefs of Moab.
22 And the anger of Elohim glowed because he went. And the Messenger of YAHWEH set Himself in the road, as a foe against him. And he was riding on his donkey, and two of his young men with him.
23 And the donkey saw the Messenger of YAHWEH standing in the road, and His sword was drawn in His hand. And the donkey turned out of the road and went into a field. And Balaam struck the donkey, to turn it back into the road.
24 And the Messenger of YAHWEH stood in a narrow path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side and a wall on that.
25 And the donkey saw the Messenger of YAHWEH, and she pushed herself to the wall and crushed the foot of Balaam against the wall.
And again he struck her.
26 And again the Messenger of YAHWEH passed on and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn, either to the right or to the left.
27 And the donkey saw the Messenger of YAHWEH, and she lay down under Balaam. And the anger of Balaam glowed, and he struck the donkey with his staff.

28 And YAHWEH opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, What have I done to you that you have beaten me these three times?
29 And Balaam said to the donkey, Because you have insulted me. If only there were a sword in my hand now I would kill you.
30 And the donkey said to Balaam, Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden all your life long to this day? Was I ever known to do so to you? And he said, No.
31 And YAHWEH opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Messenger of YAHWEH standing in the road with His sword drawn in His hand.
And he bowed and fell on his face.
32 And the Messenger of YAHWEH said to him, Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out as an enemy because your way is contrary to Me.
33 And the donkey saw Me and turned aside before Me these three times. If she had not turned aside surely now I would have killed you and saved her alive.
34 And Balaam said to the Messenger of YAHWEH, I have sinned, for I did not know that You stood against me in the way. Now if evil is in Your eyes, I will turn back by myself.
35 And the Messenger of YAHWEH said to Balaam, Go with the men. But only the word that I speak to you, it you shall speak. And Balaam went with the leaders of Balak.
36 And when Balak heard that Balaam had come, and had gone out to meet him, to a city of Moab which is on the border of Arnon, which is in the outermost border,
37 then Balak said to Balaam, Sending, did I not send to you, to call for you? Why did you not come to me?
Am I not truly able to honor you?

[2] Balaam is not saying this out of conviction but simply stating a fact.

[1] Yahweh had distinctly already given His answer in verse 12, and he should not have even allowed these men in his house to tempt him from the word Yahweh gave him.

38 And Balaam said to Balak, Behold, I have come to you. Now am I able to speak anything at all? The word which Elohim puts in my mouth that I will speak.
39 And Balaam went with Balak.
And they came to Kirjath-Huzoth.
40 And Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam and to the leaders who were with him.
41 And it happened in the morning, and Balak took Balaam and caused him to go up to the high places of Baal.
And from there he saw the edge of the people.

Chapter 23

1 And Balaam said to Balak, Build seven altars for me here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me
here.
2 And Balak did as Balaam had spoken. And Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on the altar.
3 And Balaam said to Balak, Station yourself by your burnt offering, and I will go on; it may be that YAHWEH will come to meet me, and I will declare to you the things which He reveals to me. And he went to a high place.
4 And Elohim came to Balaam, and he said to Him, I have set up seven altars. And I have offered a bull and a ram on the altar.
5 And YAHWEH put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return to Balak, and you shall say this.
6 And he returned to him. And, lo, he was standing by his burnt offering,
he and all the leaders of Moab.
7 And he took up his parable and said, He has led me from Aram, Balak king of Moab; from the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse Jacob for me; and, come, rage at Israel.
8 How shall I curse him whom El has not cursed? And how shall I rage at him at whom YAHWEH has not raged?
9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, and I behold him from the heights. Behold, it is a people that shall dwell alone and not be reckoned among the nations.
10 Who can count Jacob's dust, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his!
11 And Balak said to Balaam, What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and lo you have surely blessed.
12 And he replied and said, Must not I take heed to speak what YAHWEH has put in my mouth?
13 And Balak said to him, Now come with me to another place where you will see it; only you will see its edge and shall not see all of it; and curse it for me there.
14 And he took him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on the altar.
15 And he said to Balak, Station yourself by the burnt offering while I go to meet Him over there.
16 And YAHWEH met Balaam and put a word in his mouth and said,
Return to Balak, and say this.
17 And he came to him, and, lo, he stood by his burnt offering, and Moab's chiefs with him. And he said to him, What has YAHWEH spoken?
18 And he took up his parable and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear; give ear to me, son of Zippor.
19 El is not a man that He should lie, or a son of man that He should repent.
Has He said, and shall He not do it?
And has He spoken, and shall He not make it good?
20 Behold, I have received word to bless; yes, He has blessed; I cannot reverse it.

21 He has seen no iniquity in Jacob, nor has He seen mischief in Israel. YAHWEH his Elohim is with him, and the shout of a king is in him.

22 El who brought them out of Egypt is for him like the lofty horns of the wild ox.

23 For there is not a spell against Jacob, nor any fortune telling against Israel. Now it is said of Jacob and Israel, See what El has done!

24 Behold, the people shall rise like a lioness and like a lion he shall lift himself up; he shall not lie down until he eats the prey and drinks the blood of the slain.

25 And Balak said to Balaam, Do not curse it at all, nor bless it at all.

26 And Balaam answered and said to Balak, Did I not speak to you, saying, All that YAHWEH speaks, that I will do?

27 And Balak said to Balaam, Come, please, I will take you to another place. It may be that it will be right in the eyes of Elohim to curse it for me from there.

28 And Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, which looks toward the wilderness.

29 And Balaam said to Balak, Build seven altars for me here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me here.

30 And Balak did as Balaam said; and he offered a bull and a ram on the altar.

Chapter 24

1 And Balaam saw that it pleased YAHWEH to bless Israel, and he did not go, as at other times to seek spells. And he set his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Balaam lifted up his eyes and saw Israel camping, by its tribes. And the Spirit of Elohim was on him.

3 And he took up his parable and said, The saying of Balaam the son of Beor, and the saying of the man whose eyes have been opened;

4 the saying of him who hears the Words of Elohim, who sees the vision of the Almighty (Shaddai), fallen down, yet with open eyes:

5 How good are your tents, O Jacob, your dwellings, O Israel!

6 They are spread out like valleys, like gardens by a river; and YAHWEH has planted aloes, as cedars beside the water.

7 He makes water flow from his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters; his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom exalted.

8 Elohim who has brought him out of Egypt is for him like the lofty horns of the wild ox; he shall eat up the nations that are his foes, and shall break their bones in pieces, and shall pierce them through with his arrows.

9 He has crouched; he has lain down like a lion, and like a lioness; who shall rouse him up? Blessed is everyone that blesses you, and cursed is everyone that curses you.

10 And Balak's anger glowed against Balaam, and he struck his hands together. And Balak said to Balaam, I called you to curse my enemies; and, behold, you have altogether blessed them these three times.

11 And now, flee to your place. I said to honor you with great riches, but, behold, YAHWEH has kept you back from honor.

12 And Balaam said to Balak, Did I not speak to your messengers that you sent to me, saying,

13 If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the mouth of YAHWEH, to do good or bad of my own heart. What YAHWEH speaks, that I will speak.

14 And now, behold, I go to my people. Come, and I will counsel you what this people shall do to your people in the latter days.

15 And he took up his parable and said, The saying of Balaam the son of Beor, and the saying of the man whose eyes are opened;

16 the saying of him who hears the words of El, and he knowing the knowledge of the Most High who sees the vision of the Almighty (Shaddai), falling down, yet with open eyes:

17 I shall see him, but not now; I shall behold him, but not near. A star leads forth out of Jacob, and a scepter shall rise out of Israel and shall dash the corners of Moab, and break down all the sons of tumult[1].

18 And Edom shall be a possession; and Seir shall be a possession, for his foes; but Israel shall do mightily.

19 And one out of Jacob shall rule, and will destroy the survivors from Ar.

20 And he looked upon Amalek, and took up his parable and said, Amalek was the first of the nations, but his latter end is to destruction forever.

21 And he looked upon the Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, Your dwelling place may be enduring, and your nest may be set in a rock.

22 But the Kenites shall be consumed, until Assyria shall carry you away.

23 And he took up his parable and said, Alas! Who shall live when El does this?

24 And ships shall come from the coast of Cyprus, and they shall humble Assyria, and they shall humble Eber, and he also shall come to destruction forever.

25 And Balaam rose up and left, and returned to his place; and Balak also went on his way.

Chapter 25

1 And Israel lived in Shittim. And the people began to fornicate with the daughters of Moab.

2 And they called the people to the sacrifices of their Elohims. And the people ate and bowed themselves to their Elohims.

3 And Israel was joined to Baal-Peor, and the anger of YAHWEH burned against Israel.

4 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Take all the leaders of the people and hang them up to YAHWEH before the sun, that the fierce anger of YAHWEH may be turned away from Israel.

5 And Moses said to the judges of Israel, Each one of you kill his men, those who joined to Baal-Peor.

6 And, behold! A man of the sons of Israel came and brought in to his brothers a woman of Midian, before the eyes of Moses and before the eyes of all the congregation of the sons of Israel groaning at the door of the tent of meeting.

7 And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw. And he rose from amidst the congregation and took a javelin in his hand,

8 and went in after the man of Israel, into the tent room. And he pierced both of them through, the man of Israel and the woman, through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the sons of Israel.

9 And those that died by the plague were twenty four thousand.

10 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

11 Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned My wrath away from the sons of Israel while he was zealous for My sake

[1] A clear Messianic prophecy. Is 63:1-6

among them, so that I did not consume the sons of Israel in My jealousy.

12 Therefore say, Behold, I give to him My covenant of peace.

13 And it shall be to him, and to his seed after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was zealous for his Elohim, and atoned for the sons of Israel.

14 And the name of the man of Israel who was smitten, who was struck with the woman of Midian, was Zimri, the son of Salu, ruler of a father's house of the Simeonites.

15 And the name of the woman who was struck, the woman of Midian, was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was head of the people of a father's house in Midian.

16 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

17 Vex the Midianites, and you shall strike them;

18 for they are vexers to you, because of the wiles with which they have beguiled you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi the daughter of a ruler of Midian, their sister, who was struck in the day of the plague because of the matter of Peor.

Chapter 27

1 And the daughters of Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the family of Manasseh, the son of Joseph came. And these are his daughters' names: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

2 And they stood before Moses and Eleazar the priest, and before the rulers and all the congregation at the door of the tent of meeting, saying,

3 Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not among the company who met together against YAHWEH in the company of Korah, but he died for his own sins, and had no son.

4 Why is our father's name taken away from the midst of his family because there is no son to him? Give us an inheritance among our father's brothers.

5 And Moses brought their cause before YAHWEH.

6 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

7 The daughters of Zelophehad speak rightly. Giving you shall give them a possession, an inheritance among their father's brothers. And you shall cause their father's inheritance to pass to them.

8 And you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, When a man dies, and has no son, then you shall pass on his inheritance to his daughter.

9 And if he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.

10 And if he has no brothers, then you shall give his possession to his father's brothers. (Num 36:1-12)

11 And if his father has no brothers then you shall give his inheritance to his nearest relative, of his family. And he shall own it, and it shall be a statute of judgment to the sons of Israel, as YAHWEH has commanded Moses.

12 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Get up into this mountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the sons of Israel.[1]

13 And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people as your brother Aaron was gathered.

14 For you rebelled against My mouth in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify Me at the waters before their eyes. They were the Waters of Strife in Kadesh, in the desert of Zin.

15 And Moses spoke to YAHWEH, saying,

16 Let YAHWEH, the Elohim of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation

17 who may go out before them, and who may go in before them, and who may lead them out, and who may bring them in, so that the congregation of YAHWEH may not be as sheep to whom there is no shepherd.

18 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Take Yahoshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hands on him. (Deut 34:9)

19 And cause him to stand before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation, and give him a charge before their eyes.

20 And you shall put from your dignity on him, so that all the congregation of the sons of Israel will listen.

21 And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall ask for him according to the judgment of the Urim before YAHWEH. At his mouth they shall go out, and at his mouth they shall come in, he and all the sons of Israel with him, even all the congregation.

[1] This was Mount Nebo, Abarim means to crossover. Deut 34:1, Deut 3:27

22 And Moses did as YAHWEH commanded him. And he took Yahoshua and made him stand before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation.
23 And he laid his hands on him, and gave him a charge, even as YAHWEH commanded by the hand of Moses.[1]

Chapter 28

2 Command the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, My offering, My bread for My fire offerings, My soothing fragrance, you shall take heed to offer to Me in its appointed season.
3 And you shall say to them, This is the fire offering which you shall offer to YAHWEH, two yearling lambs without blemish, day by day, as a continual burnt offering.
4 You shall offer the one lamb in the morning, and you shall offer the other lamb between the two evenings;
5 and a tenth of an ephah of flour for a food offering mixed with beaten oil, a fourth of a hin;
6 a continual burnt offering which was performed in Mount Sinai for a soothing fragrance, a fire offering to YAHWEH;
7 and its drink offering, a fourth of a hin for the one lamb; pour a drink offering of strong drink to YAHWEH in the sanctuary.
8 And you shall offer the other lamb between the evenings, even as the food offering of the morning, and as its drink offering, you shall offer as a sacrifice made by fire, a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH.
9 And on the Sabbath day, two lambs, sons of a year, ones without blemish, and two tenth parts of flour, a food offering mixed with oil, and its drink offering;

14 and their drink offerings shall be a half of a hin to a bull, and a third of a hin to a ram, and a fourth of a hin to a lamb, of wine. This shall be the burnt offering of every month for the months of the year.
15 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering to YAHWEH; it shall be prepared besides the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering.
16 And in the fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of YAHWEH.
17 And in the fifteenth day of this month a feast: unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days.

21 You shall prepare one tenth part for the one lamb, and for the seven lambs;
22 and one goat, a sin offering to atone for you,
23 besides the burnt offering of the morning, the continual burnt offering, you shall prepare these.
24 In this way you shall prepare daily, seven days, bread for a fire offering, a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH. It shall be prepared besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.
25 And on the seventh day you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no work of service.
26 And in the day of the first-fruits, as you offer a new food offering to YAHWEH in your Feast of Weeks, you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no work of service;
27 and you shall offer a burnt offering for a soothing fragrance to YAHWEH: two bulls, sons of the herd, one ram, seven lambs, sons of a year
28 and their food offering, flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts to the one bull, two tenth parts to the one ram, 29 one tenth part to the one lamb, for the seven lambs;
30 one kid of the goats to atone for you.
31 You shall offer them besides the continual burnt offering and its food offering and drink offerings; they shall be ones without blemish for you.

40 And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel according to all that YAHWEH had commanded Moses.

Chapter 30

1 And Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the sons of Israel, saying, This is the thing which YAHWEH has commanded:

2 When a man vows a vow to YAHWEH, or has sworn an oath to bind his soul with a bond, he shall not break his word; he shall do all that has gone out of his mouth.

3 And when a woman vows a vow to YAHWEH, and has bound a bond in the house of her father in her youth,

4 and her father has heard her vow, and her bond with which she has bound her soul, and her father has remained silent as to her, then all her vows shall stand; and every bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand.

5 But if her father has prohibited her in the day he heard, none of her vows and her bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand. And YAHWEH will forgive her because her father prohibited her.

6 And if she belongs to a husband, and her vows are on her, or a rash utterance on her lips with which she has bound her soul,

7 and her husband has heard, and in the day he heard he has remained silent as to her, then her vows shall stand, and her bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand.

8 And if in the day her husband hears, he prohibits her, then he has broken her vow which is on her, and the rash utterance of her lips with which she has bound her soul. And YAHWEH will forgive her.

9 And as to the vow of a widow, or her that is divorced, all that she has bound on her soul shall be established on her.

10 And if she has vowed in the house of her husband, or bound a bond on her soul with an oath,

11 and her husband has heard, and has remained silent as to her, and he has not denied her, then all her vows shall be established, and every bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand.

12 And if her husband has certainly broken them in the day he heard, none of the utterance of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall stand; her husband has broken them. And YAHWEH will forgive her.

13 Every vow and every oath, any bond to humble a soul, her husband shall establish it, or her husband shall break it.

14 And if her husband is altogether silent at her from day to day, then he has established all her vows or all her bonds which are on her; he has established them; for he remained silent as to her in the day he heard.

15 And if he at all breaks them after he hears, then he has borne her iniquity.

16 These are the statutes which YAHWEH has commanded Moses between a man and his wife, between a father and his daughter in her youth in the house of her father[1].

Chapter 31

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
2 Execute the vengeance of the sons of Israel against the Midianites. Afterward you shall be gathered to your people.
3 And Moses spoke to the people, saying, Some men of you be armed for the army, and they shall be against Midian, to give the vengeance of YAHWEH on Midian;
4 you shall send to the army a thousand for a tribe as to all the tribes of Israel.
5 And a thousand for a tribe were given out of the thousands of Israel, twelve thousand armed ones of the army.
6 And Moses sent them to the army, a thousand for a tribe, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest to the army. Also he sent the holy vessels, and the trumpets to sound in his hand.
7 And they warred against Midian, as YAHWEH had commanded Moses, and killed every male.
8 And they killed the kings of Midian, besides the rest of their slain: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam the son of Beor with the sword.
9 And the sons of Israel took the women of Midian captive, and their infants, and all their livestock, and all their possessions. And they plundered all their wealth.
10 And they burned all their cities with fire, their homes, and all their towers.
11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, among man and among animal.
12 And they brought it to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the sons of Israel; the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, to the camp, to the plains of Moab which are by Jordan, near Jericho.
13 And Moses and Eleazar the priest, and all the rulers of the congregation went out to meet them outside the camp.
14 And Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds who came from the service of the war.
15 And Moses said to them, Have you saved all the women alive?
16 Behold, these through the counsel of Balaam became to the sons of Israel a deliverance of treachery against YAHWEH in the matter of Peor; and the plague was on the company of YAHWEH.
17 And now kill every male among the infants; yea, you shall kill every woman having known a man by lying with a male.
18 And you shall keep alive for yourselves all the female children who have not known a man by lying with a male.
19 And encamp outside the camp seven days. Whoever has killed any person, and whoever touched a pierced one, purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your captives.
20 And as to every garment, and all that is made of skin, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood, you shall purify them.
21 And Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who went to battle, This is the statute of the law which YAHWEH has commanded Moses:
22 only the gold, the silver, the copper, the iron, the tin, and the lead, 23 everything that passes through the fire, you shall make it go through the fire; and it shall be clean. Only it shall be purified with the water for impurity. And every thing that cannot go through the fire, you shall make go through the water.

24 And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean. And afterwards you shall come into the camp.
25 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses,
saying,
26 Lift the heads of the prey of the captives, among man and among beast, you and Eleazar the priest, and the heads of the fathers of the congregation.
27 And you shall divide the prey between those skilled in war, that went out to battle, and all the congregation.
28 And you shall levy a tribute to YAHWEH from the men of war who went out to the battle: one body out of five hundred, of men, and of the herd, and of the donkeys, and of the flock, 29 you shall take from their half, and you shall give to Eleazar the priest as the heave offering of YAHWEH.
30 And from the sons of Israel's half,
you shall take one portion out of fifty, of man, and of the herd, and of the donkeys, and of the flock, of all the livestock, and you shall give them to the Levites keeping the charge of the tabernacle of YAHWEH.
31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as YAHWEH had commanded Moses.
32 And the prey, the rest of the spoil which the people of the army plundered, was six hundred and seventy five thousand sheep, 33 and seventy two thousand oxen, 34 sixty one thousand of the donkeys;
35 and of human beings, of the women who had not known a man by lying with a male, the persons were thirty two thousand.
36 And the half, the portion of those who went out to the war, the number of the flock was three hundred and thirty seven thousand, five hundred.
37 And the tribute to YAHWEH of the sheep was six hundred and seventy five, 38 and the oxen, thirty six thousand;
and their tribute to YAHWEH, seventy two;
39 and the donkeys thirty thousand, five hundred; and their tribute to YAHWEH, sixty one;
40 and the human beings sixteen thousand; and their tribute to YAHWEH, thirty two persons.
41 And Moses gave the tribute, the heave offering of YAHWEH, to Eleazar the priest, as YAHWEH had commanded Moses.
42 And of the sons of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the men who warred:
43 even the congregation's half was three hundred and thirty seven thousand, five hundred of the flock; 44 and of the oxen, thirty six thousand;
45 and thirty thousand, five hundred donkeys;
46 and sixteen thousand human beings.
47 Moses took from the sons of Israel's half the one portion from the fifty of man and of animal. And he gave them to the Levites keeping the charge of the tabernacle of YAHWEH, as YAHWEH had commanded Moses.
48 And the officers who were over the thousands of the army, heads of the thousands and heads of the hundreds, drew near to Moses.
49 And they said to Moses, Your servants have lifted the heads of the men of war who were with us, and not a man of us is missing.
50 And we bring near the offering of YAHWEH, each what he has found, vessels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and jewels, to atone for ourselves before YAHWEH.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, all crafted things.

52 And all the gold of the heave offering which they lifted up to YAHWEH was sixteen thousand, seven hundred and fifty shekels, from the heads of thousands and from the heads of hundreds,

53 men of the army who had each taken spoil for himself.

54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the heads of the thousands and of the hundreds. And they brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation, a memorial for the sons of Israel before YAHWEH.

Chapter 32

1 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had many livestock, a very great multitude. And they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead. And, behold, the place was a place for livestock.

2 And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben came in and spoke to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the rulers of the congregation, saying,

3 Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon,

4 the land which YAHWEH has struck before the congregation of Israel is a land for livestock, and your servants own livestock.

5 And they said, If we have found favor in your eyes, let this land be given to your servants for a possession. Do not make us pass over the Jordan.[1]

6 And Moses said to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, Do your brothers go into the battle, and you, do you sit here?

7 And why do you discourage the heart of the sons of Israel from passing over to the land which YAHWEH has given to them?

8 So your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-Barnea to see the land.

9 And they went up to the valley of Eshcol and saw the land, and discouraged the hearts of the sons of Israel, so as for them not to go into the land which YAHWEH had given to them.

10 And the anger of YAHWEH glowed in that day, and He swore, saying,

11 Surely none of the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob because they have not wholly followed Me;

12 except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, the Kenezite, and Yahoshua the son of Nun, for they have fully followed YAHWEH.

13 And the anger of YAHWEH glowed against Israel. And He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the eyes of YAHWEH was destroyed.

14 And, behold, you have risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to add still more to the heat of the anger of YAHWEH toward Israel!

15 For if you turn away from following Him, He will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and so you will hurt all this people.

16 And they came near to him and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones.

[1] Verses 1-5 These lands were good grazing lands

17 And we ourselves shall go armed, hurrying before the sons of Israel, until we have brought them to their place. And our little ones shall live in the fortified cities because of those living in the land.
18 We will not return to our houses until each man of the sons of Israel has inherited his inheritance.
19 For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan, and beyond; for our inheritance has fallen to us eastward on this side of Jordan.
20 And Moses said to them, If you will do this thing; if you will arm for battle before YAHWEH,
21 and all of you will go over Jordan armed before YAHWEH, until He has driven His enemies out before Him,
22 and the land is subdued before YAHWEH, then afterwards you shall return and be guiltless before YAHWEH, and before Israel. And this land shall be your possession before YAHWEH.
23 But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against YAHWEH, and know that your sin will find you out.
24 Build cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep and do that which has come out of your mouth.
25 And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, Your servants will do as my master commands.
26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock shall be there in the cities of Gilead.
27 But your servants will go over, every man armed for war, before YAHWEH to battle, as my master says.
28 And Moses directed Eleazar the priest concerning them, and Yahoshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel;
29 even Moses said to them, If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben pass over the Jordan with you each armed for battle before YAHWEH, and the land shall be subdued before you, then you shall give to them the land of Gilead for a possession.
30 But if they will not go over armed with you, they shall have possession among you in the land of Canaan.
31 And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben replied, saying, As YAHWEH has said to your servants, so we will do.
32 We ourselves will pass over armed before YAHWEH into the land of Canaan, so that the land of our inheritance on that side of Jordan may be ours.
33 And Moses gave to them, even to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, by its cities with their borders, even the cities of the land all around.
34 And the sons of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, 35 and Ataroth-Shophan, and Jaazer, and Jogbehah, 36 and Beth-Nimrah, and Beth-Haran, fortified cities, and folds for sheep.
37 And the sons of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjath-Aim, 38 and Nebo, and Baal-Meon, their names being changed, and Sibmah. And they called by name the names of the cities which they had built.
39 And the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and captured it, and expelled the Amorite who was in it.
40 And Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he lived in it.

41 And Jair the son of Manasseh went out and captured their towns, and called them Towns of Jair.

42 And Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages; and he called it Nobah after his own name.

35 And they pulled up stakes from Ebronah and camped in Ezion-Geber.

36 And they pulled up stakes from Ezion-Geber and camped in the wilderness of Zin; it is Kadesh.

37 And they pulled up stakes from Kadesh and camped in Mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom.

38 And Aaron the priest went up into Mount Hor at the mouth of YAHWEH; and he died there in the fortieth year after the sons of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first of the month.

39 And Aaron was a hundred and twenty three years old at his death in Mount Hor.

40 And King Arad the Canaanite, who lived in the Negev, in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the sons of Israel.

48 And they pulled up stakes from the Abarim mountains and camped in the plains of Moab beside Jordan, near Jericho.

49 And they camped by the Jordan, from The House of Deserts even to The Meadow of Acacias in the plains of Moab.

50 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab, beside Jordan, near Jericho, saying,

51 Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you have crossed the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

52 then you shall drive out all the ones living in the land from before you, and destroy all their carved images; yea, you shall destroy all their cast images, and demolish all their high places.

53 And you shall possess the land, and live in it, for I have given you the land, to possess it.

54 And you shall inherit the land by lot, by your families. You shall increase the inheritance to the many, and you shall diminish the inheritance to the few; wherever the lot falls out to him, it is his. You shall inherit by the tribes of your fathers.

55 And if you will not drive out the ones living in the land from before you, then it shall be, those whom you let remain of them shall be briars in your eyes, and as thorns in your sides.

And they will vex you on the land in which you are living.
56 And it shall be, as I thought to do to them, so I shall do to you.

Chapter 34

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
2 Command the sons of Israel, and you shall say to them, When you have come into the land of Canaan, this is the land which falls to you by inheritance, the land of Canaan, by its borders:
3 And your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin, along by the land of Edom, and it shall be to you a south border from the end of the Salt Sea, eastward.
4 And the border shall turn around to you from the south to the ascent of Akrabbim, and shall pass on to Zin, and its end shall be from the south to Kadesh-Barnea; and it shall go out at Hazar-Addar, and it shall pass on to Azmon.
5 And the border shall turn from Azmon to the torrent of Egypt, and its border shall be at the sea.
6 As to the western border, even the Great Sea shall be a border to you; this is your western border.
7 And this is your northern border: from the Great Sea you shall mark out for yourselves Mount Hor;
8 from Mount Hor you shall mark out a line to the entrance to Hamath; and the edge of the border shall be at Zedad.
9 And the border shall go forth to Ziphron, and the edge of it shall be at Hazar-Enan; this shall be your northern border.
10 And you shall mark out your line for the eastern border from Hazarenan to Shepham.
11 And the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain; and the border shall go down and shall reach on the shoulder of the Sea of Chinnereth eastward.
12 And the border shall go down to the Jordan, and the end of it shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land according to its borders all around.
13 And Moses commanded the sons of Israel, saying, This is the land which you shall receive as inheritance by lot, which YAHWEH has commanded to give to the nine tribes and the half tribe:
14 For the tribe of the sons of Reuben according to their fathers' houses, and the tribe of the sons of Gad according to their fathers' houses have received; and the half tribe of Manasseh shall have received their inheritance.
15 The two tribes and the half tribe shall have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrising.
16 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,
17 These are the names of the men that shall take possession of the land for you: Eleazar the priest, and Yahoshua the son of Nun.
18 And you shall take one ruler of every tribe, to take possession of the land.
19 And these are the names of the men: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;
20 and of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud;
21 of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon;
22 and of the tribe of the sons of Dan, Bukki the ruler, son of Jogli;
23 of the sons of Joseph, of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh, Hanniel the ruler, the son of Ephod;
24 and of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim, Kemuel the ruler, the son of Shiphtan;

25 and of the tribe of the sons of Zebulun, Elizaphan the ruler, the son of Parnach;

26 and of the tribe of the sons of Issachar, Paltiel the ruler, the son of Azzan;

27 and of the tribe of the sons of Asher, Ahihud the ruler, the son of Shelomi;

28 and of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali, Pedahel the ruler, the son of Ammihud.

29 These are the ones whom YAHWEH commanded to divide the land to the sons of Israel in the land of Canaan.

Chapter 35

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab, beside Jordan, near Jericho, saying,

2 Order the sons of Israel that they give to the Levites cities to live in, from the land of their possessions, and you shall give to the Levites open land for the cities.

3 And they shall have the cities to live in, and their open lands shall be for their livestock, and for their substance, and for all their animals.

4 And the open land around the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits all around.

5 And you shall measure outside the city for the east side two thousand cubits, and for the south side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits, and for the west side two thousand cubits; the city being in the middle. This shall be to them the open land around the cities.

6 And the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be the six cities of refuge which you shall give for the manslayer that he may flee there; and besides them you shall give forty two cities.

7 All the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be forty eight cities, them and the open land around them.

8 And you shall give the cities from the possession of the sons of Israel. From the many you shall increase, and take away from the few. According to its inheritance which it inherits each tribe shall give of its cities to the Levites.

9 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses, saying,

10 Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

11 then you shall choose cities to be cities of refuge for you, so that the man-slayer may flee there, he that kills a person through error[1].

12 And the cities shall be to you for refuge from the kinsman avenger, that the manslayer may not die until he stands before the congregation for judgment.

13 As to the cities which you shall give six shall be cities of refuge for you.

14 You shall give three of the cities beyond the Jordan, and you shall give three of the cities in the land of Canaan; they shall be cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shall be for a refuge to the sons of Israel, and to an alien, and to a sojourner in their midst, that any person who kills anyone unawares may flee there.

16 And if he strikes him with an instrument of iron, and he dies, he is a murderer; dying the murderer shall die.

17 And if he strikes him with a stone

1 Six cities of refuge were to be set apart as follows; Bezer, Ramoth, Golan east of the Jordan River, and Kedesh, Shechem, and Hebron west of the Jordan River.

in the hand, by which he dies, and he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer certainly shall die.

18 And if he strikes him with a wooden instrument in the hand, by which he dies, and he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer certainly shall die.

19 The avenger of blood shall cause the murderer to die; when he meets with him, he shall cause him to die.

20 And if he pushes him down, or has thrown at him by lying in wait, and he dies;

21 or if he has struck him with his hand in enmity, and he dies, the striker shall certainly be put to death; he is a murderer. When the avenger of blood meets him he shall put to death the murderer.

22 And if in an instant he pushed him without enmity, or has thrown at him anything without lying in wait;

23 or with any stone without seeing, by which he dies, and has caused it to fall on him, and he dies, and he is not an enemy to him, nor seeking his evil;

24 then the congregation shall judge between the striker and the avenger of blood, by these judgments.

25 And the congregation shall deliver the manslayer out of the avenger of blood's hand. And the congregation shall return him to the city of refuge to which he had fled, and he shall live in it until the high priest dies, he who was anointed with the holy oil.

26 But if the manslayer at all goes out from the border of the city of his refuge, there to which he has fled,

27 and the avenger of blood finds him outside the border of the city of his refuge, and the avenger of blood kills the manslayer, there shall be no blood guiltiness to him,

28 because he should have dwelt in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest. And after the death of the high priest the manslayer may return to the land of his possession.

29 And these things shall be to you for a statute of judgment for your generations, in all your dwellings.

30 Whoever kills any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses. And one witness shall not testify against a person, to die.

31 And you shall take no ransom for the life of a murderer; he is punishable for death, the murderer certainly shall die.

32 And you shall take no ransom for him to flee to the city of his refuge, to return to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

33 And you shall not pollute the land in which you are, for blood pollutes the land. And no ransom is to be taken for the land for blood which is shed in it, except for the blood of him who sheds it;

34 and you shall not defile the land in which you are living. I dwell in its midst, for I, YAHWEH, am dwelling among the sons of Israel.

Chapter 36

1 And the heads of the fathers of the families of the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near. And they spoke before Moses, and before the rulers, the heads of the fathers' houses of the sons of Israel.

2 And they said: YAHWEH commanded my master to give the land for inheritance by lot to the sons of Israel. And my master was commanded by YAHWEH to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

3 And if they shall be for wives to one of the sons of the other tribes of the sons of Israel, then their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they shall belong. So it shall be taken away from the lot of our inheritance.

4 And when the Jubilee of the sons of Israel shall come, then their inheritance shall be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they shall belong. So their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.
5 And Moses commanded the sons of Israel according to the mouth of YAHWEH, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph speak right.
6 This is the thing which YAHWEH has commanded concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them be wives to those good in their eyes, only let them be for wives to the family of the tribe of their father, 7 so no inheritance of the sons of Israel shall turn from tribe to tribe, for each one of the sons of Israel shall cling to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.
8 And any daughter that possesses an inheritance from any tribe of the sons of Israel to one of the family of the tribe of her father is to become a wife of the family of the tribe of her father, so that the sons of Israel may each possess the inheritance of his father.
9 And the inheritance shall not turn from one tribe to another tribe. For the tribes of the sons of Israel shall each one cling to its own inheritance.
10 As YAHWEH commanded Moses, so the daughters of Zelophehad
did.
11 For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, Zelophehad's daughters, were for wives to their father's brothers' sons.
12 They were for wives to the families of the son of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance was with the tribe of the family of their father.
13 These are the commandments and the judgments which YAHWEH commanded by the hand of Moses to the sons of Israel in the plains of Moab, beside the Jordan, near Jericho.

Book of Deuteronomy (Devarim)

Chapter 1

1 These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan; in the wilderness, in the Arabah, opposite to Suph[1], between Paran and Tophel, and Laban and Hazeroth, and Dizahab;
2 eleven days from Horeb[2] by way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-Barnea.
3 And it came to pass, in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month on the first of the month, Moses spoke to the sons of Israel according to all that YAHWEH had commanded him concerning them;
4 after he had stricken Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth in Edrei,
5 beyond the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law, saying,
6 YAHWEH our Elohim spoke to us in Horeb, saying, You have had enough of dwelling in this mountain;
7 turn and pull up stakes and go into the hills of the Amorites, and to all its neighboring places in the Arabah, in the hills, and in the low country[3], and in the Negev, and in the shore of the sea, the land of the Canaanites and of Lebanon, to the great river, the Euphrates River.
8 Behold! I have given before you the land; go in and possess the land which YAHWEH has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them, and to their seed after them. (Gen 15:13-18, Gen 17:1-9)
9 And I spoke to you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you by myself.
10 YAHWEH your Elohim has multiplied you, and, behold, today you are as the stars of heaven for multitude. (Gen 13:15, 15:4-6)
11 May YAHWEH the Elohim of your fathers add to you a thousand times more than you are, and bless you as He has spoken to you!
12 How can I by myself bear the load of you and your burden, and your strife?
13 Give wise and understanding men, and those known to your tribes, and I will appoint them rulers over you.
14 And you answered me and said, The thing which you have spoken is good to do.
15 And I took the chiefs of your tribes, wise and noted men, and I gave them to be rulers over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers, for your tribes.
16 And I commanded your judges at that time, saying, Hear between your brothers; and judge with righteousness between a man and his brother, and his alien.
17 You shall not recognize persons in judgment; you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid because of the face of a man, for the judgment is Elohim's; and the thing too hard for you, you shall bring near to me, and I shall hear it.
(Deut 10:17-18, 16:18-20, 17:8-13)
18 And at that time I commanded you all the things which you were to do.
19 And we pulled up stakes from Horeb and went through all that great and fearful wilderness which you have seen, the way of the hills of the Amorites, as YAHWEH our Elohim commanded us. And we came into Kadesh-Barnea.

20 And I said to you, You have come into the hills of the Amorites, which YAHWEH our Elohim is giving to us.
21 See, YAHWEH your Elohim has given the land before you; go up, possess it, as YAHWEH the Elohim of your fathers has spoken to you; do not fear or be afraid.
22 And you came near to me, every one of you, and said, Let us send men before us, and they shall search out the land for us, and they shall bring us back word as to the way in which we shall go up, and the cities to which we shall come. (Num 13:1-3)
23 And the thing was good in my eyes, and I took twelve men of you, one man for each tribe.
24 And they turned and went up to the hills and came into the valley of Eshcol, and searched it.
(Num 13:21-25)
25 And they took of the fruit of the land with their hands and brought it down to us, and brought us back word, and said, The land which YAHWEH our Elohim has given us is good.
26 And you were not willing to go up; yea, you rebelled against the mouth of YAHWEH your Elohim, 27 and murmured in your tents, and said, Because YAHWEH hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to give us into the hand of the Amorite to destroy us.
28 Where shall we go up? Our brothers have melted our hearts, saying, We have seen there a people greater and taller than we, cities great and walled up to the heavens, and also the sons of Anak. (Deut 2:10)
29 And I said to you, do not be terrified; nor be afraid of them;
30 YAHWEH your Elohim who goes before you shall fight for you, according to all that He did for you in Egypt before your eyes;[1]
31 and in the wilderness, where you have seen how YAHWEH your Elohim has borne you as a man bears his son, in all the way which you have gone until you have come to this place.
32 Yet in this thing you are not believing in YAHWEH your Elohim, 33 who went before you in the way to seek out a place for your camping, in fire by night, to show you the way in which you should go, and in a cloud by the day. (Num 9:15-23)
34 And YAHWEH heard the sound of your words and was angry, and swore, saying,
35 Not one of these men of this evil generation shall see the good land which I have sworn to give to your fathers, 36 except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, he shall see it, and I shall give the land on which he has walked to him, and to his sons, because he has fully followed YAHWEH. (Num 14:24)
37 And YAHWEH was angry with me for your sake, saying, Also you shall not go in there.[2] (Num 20:1-13)
38 Yahoshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there; you shall strengthen him; for he shall cause Israel to inherit.
39 And your infants, of whom you said, They are a prey, and your sons who today have no knowledge of good or evil, they shall go in there, and I will give it to them, and they shall possess it[1]. (Num 14:3, 31)

1 Anak means giant. This tribe lived near Hebron and and the surrounding mountains; later Yahoshua conquered them, Jos 11:21-22. A remnant remained in Gaza, Asdod and Gath, the city that Goliath came from.

40 And you, turn yourselves and pull up stakes toward the wilderness, the way of the Sea of Reeds.

41 And you answered and said to me, We have sinned against YAHWEH; we shall go up, and we shall fight, according to all that which YAHWEH our Elohim has commanded us. And you each one girded on his weapons of war, and you thought it easy to go up to the hill country. (Num 14:40)

42 And YAHWEH said to me, Say to them, You shall not go up, nor fight, for I am not in your midst; lest you be struck before your enemies.

43 And I spoke to you, and you did not listen, and rebelled against the mouth of YAHWEH, and acted proudly, and went up into the hills[2].

44 And the Amorites who lived in that hill country came out to meet you and they chased you, as the bees do, and struck you in Seir, to Hormah.

45 And you returned and wept before YAHWEH, but YAHWEH did not listen to your voice, nor did He give ear to you.

46 And you lived many days in Kadesh, according to the days that you remained there.

Chapter 2

1 And we turned and pulled up stakes into the wilderness, the way of the Red Sea, as YAHWEH had spoken to me; and we went around the mountain of Seir many days.[3]

2 And YAHWEH spoke to me, saying,

3 You have gone around this mountain long enough; turn yourselves northward.

4 And command the people, saying, You are passing over into the border of your brothers, the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, and they shall be afraid of you. And you shall be on guard very much;

5 you shall not fight against them, for I will not give their land to you, even to a step of a sole of a foot, for I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.

6 You shall buy food from them with silver, and you shall eat; and you shall buy water from them with silver, and you shall drink.[4]

7 For YAHWEH your Elohim has blessed you with all the work of your hands; He has known your walking through this great wilderness. YAHWEH your Elohim has been with you these forty years; you have lacked nothing.

8 And we passed on from our brothers, the sons of Esau, those living in Seir, by the way of the Arabah, by Elath, and by Ezion-Geber, we turned and passed on by the way of the wilderness of Moab.[5]

9 And YAHWEH said to me, Do not besiege Moab, nor stir yourself up against them in battle, for I will not give their land to you for a possession. For I have given Ar as a possession to the sons of Lot.

1 This shows that children are teachable when they are young before many get older and develop a hardened heart.

2 The problem was that they were not repentant, but as Esau, they simply were sorry that they lost their blessing.

3 This clearly shows that Mount Sinai had to be on the east side of the Red Sea.

4 It is interesting as they are going through the land of Esau that their appears to be no manna present if they need to buy food, and shows the complete lack of blessing for those who sell their birthright.

5 Verses 1-8 clearly show that the Israelites were on the east side of the Jordan at this time where Mount Sinai was located in Jabel El Laws in Saudi Arabia, Gal 4:25.

10 The Emim[1] lived there in days gone by, a great and plentiful people, and tall as the Anakim; (Deut 1:28)
11 they are reckoned to be giants, they too, like the Anakim; but the Moabites call them Emim. (Gen 6:4)
12 And the Horites lived in Seir before; and the sons of Esau dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them, and lived in their place, as Israel has done to the land of his possession, which YAHWEH has given to them.
13 Now, rise up and you yourselves pass over the torrent Zered; and we crossed over the torrent Zered.
14 And the days in which we came from Kadesh-Barnea, until we had crossed over the torrent Zered, were thirty eight years, until the end of all the generation, even the men of war were destroyed from the midst of the camp, as YAHWEH swore to them.
15 And the hand of YAHWEH was also against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp, until they were consumed.
16 And it happened, when all the men of war had finished dying from among the people,
17 YAHWEH spoke to me, saying,
18 You are passing over the border of Moab today, to Ar,
19 and you shall draw near, across from the sons of Ammon. You shall not besiege them nor be stirred up against them, for I have not given of the land of the sons of Ammon to you for a possession. For I have given it for a possession to the sons of Lot.
20 It is reckoned a land of giants[2], even it; giants formerly lived in it, and the Ammonites call them Zamzummim;
21 a great and plentiful people, and tall as the Anakim. And YAHWEH destroyed them before them, and they expelled them, and lived in their place;
22 as He had done for the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them and they expelled them, and lived in their place until today.
23 And the Avvim[3] who lived in villages as far as Azzah, the Caphtorites[4] coming out of Caphtor destroyed them, and lived in their place.
24 Rise up; pull up stakes and cross over the Arnon River; behold, I have given Sihon the king of Heshbon, the Amorite, and his land into your hand. Begin to possess, and stir yourselves up against him in battle.
25 Today I will begin to put your dread and your fear on the face of the people under all the heavens, who will hear your fame, and will tremble and writhe because of you.
26 And I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon the king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying,
27 Let me pass on the highway through your land; I will go on the highway; I will not turn aside to the right or the left;
28 you shall sell me food for silver, and I shall eat; and you shall give me water for silver, and I will drink. Only, let me pass through on my feet,
29 as the sons of Esau who live in Seir, and the Moabites who live in Ar, have done to me, until I have crossed over the Jordan, to the land which YAHWEH our Elohim is giving to us.
30 And Sihon the king of Heshbon was not willing to let us pass by him, for YAHWEH your Elohim had hardened his spirit, and had emboldened his heart, so as to give him into your hand, as it is this day.

31 And YAHWEH said to me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before you; begin to possess, in order to possess his land.

32 And Sihon came out to meet us, he and all his people, to battle at Jahaz.

33 And YAHWEH our Elohim delivered him before us, and we struck him and his sons, and all his people.

34 And we captured all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed every city, men and women and little ones. We did not leave a remnant.

35 Only, we plundered the cattle for ourselves, and we took the plunder of the cities.

36 From Aroer, which is by the edge of the Arnon River, and the city beside the river, even to Gilead, there was not a city which was too high for us. YAHWEH our Elohim delivered all before us.

37 Only, you did not come near to the land of the sons of Ammon, any part of the Jabbok River, and the cities of the hill country, and all which YAHWEH our Elohim had forbidden us.

Chapter 3

1 And we turned and went up by the way of Bashan, and Og the king of Bashan came out to meet us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

2 And YAHWEH said to me, Do not fear him, for I have given him into your hand, and all his people, and his land. And you shall do to him as you have done to Sihon the king of the Amorites who lived in Heshbon.

3 And YAHWEH our Elohim also gave Og the king of Bashan into our hands, and all his people. And we struck him until not one survivor was left to him.

4 And we captured all his cities at that time, there not being a city which we did not take from them, sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan[1].

5 All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates with bars and double-leaved doors, besides a great many of the unwalled towns.

6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we had done to Sihon the king of Heshbon, destroying every city, the men, the women and the little ones.

7 And we plundered for ourselves all the livestock, and the plunder of the cities.

8 And we took the land that was beyond the Jordan from the valley of Arnon to Mount Hermon, out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites.

9 The Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir;

10 all the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, to Salcah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 For only Og the king of Bashan remained of the rest of the giants. Behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron[2]; is it not in Rabbath of the sons of Ammon, nine cubits long and four cubits broad, by the cubit of a man?

12 And we possessed this land at that time: from Aroer by the valley of Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead and its cities I gave to the Reubenites and to the Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gilead, and all

Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, to all Bashan that is called the land of the giants.

14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and called them, even Bashan, after his own name, Towns of Jair, until today.

15 And I gave Gilead to Machir.

16 And to the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even to the valley of Arnon, the middle of the valley and its border; even to the Jabbok River, which is the border of the sons of Ammon;

17 and the Arabah, the Jordan and its border, from Chinnereth even to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the Slopes of Pisgah eastward.

18 And I commanded you at that time, saying, YAHWEH your Elohim has given you this land to possess it. And you shall pass over armed before your brothers, the sons of Israel, all the warriors.

19 Only, your wives and your little ones, and your livestock, shall dwell in your cities which I have given to you. I know that you have much livestock.

20 It shall be until YAHWEH shall give rest to your brothers like yourselves, and they, too, have possessed the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to them beyond the Jordan. Then you shall each man return to his possession which I have given to you.

21 And I at that time commanded Yahoshua, saying, Your eyes have seen all that YAHWEH your Elohim has done to these two kings; so YAHWEH shall do to all the kingdoms to which you are passing over.

22 Do not fear them, for YAHWEH your Elohim, He shall fight for you.

23 And I prayed to YAHWEH for favor at that time, saying,

24 Adonai YAHWEH, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your mighty hand (for who is a El in the heavens or in the earth who can do according to Your works and according to Your might?)

25 Please let me pass over and see the good land which is beyond the Jordan, this good hill country, and Lebanon.

26 But YAHWEH was angry with me on your account, and would not listen to me. And YAHWEH said to me, Let it be enough for you; do not speak any more to Me about this thing.

27 Go up to the top of Pisgah and lift up your eyes westward and northward and southward and eastward, and see with your eyes; for you shall not cross over this Jordan.

28 And command Yahoshua and make him strong, and make him brave, for he shall cross over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see.

29 So we stayed in the valley across from Beth-Peor.

Chapter 4

1 And now, Israel, listen to the statutes and to the judgments which I am teaching you to do[1], so that you may live and go in, and possess the land which YAHWEH the Elohim of your fathers is giving to you.

2 You shall not add to the Word which I command you, nor take from it, to keep the commandments of YAHWEH your Elohim which I command you[2]. (Deut 12:30)

3 Your eyes have seen that which

[1] "Israel listen"- Literally, "hear and obey". This is written in command form. Obedience is a prerequisite for all covenants of Yahweh.

YAHWEH has done in Baal-Peor. For YAHWEH your Elohim has destroyed them from among you, the men that followed Baal-Peor.
4 And those of you clinging to YAHWEH your Elohim are alive today, all of you.
5 See, I have taught you statutes and ordinances, as YAHWEH my Elohim has commanded me, to do them, in the midst of the land where you are going in, to possess it, 6 and you shall keep and do them, for it shall be your wisdom and your understanding before the eyes of the peoples who hear all these statutes.
And they shall say, This great nation is a people wise and understanding[1].
7 For who is a great nation whose Elohim is coming near to them, as YAHWEH your Elohim is, in all our calling on Him?
8 And who is a great nation whose statutes and judgments are as righteous as all the Torah, which I set before you today[2]?
9 Only, be on guard for yourself and keep your soul carefully, that you do not forget the things which your eyes have seen; and that they not depart from your heart all the days of your life. And you shall make them known to your sons, and to your sons' sons.
(Pr 22:6, Deut 6:7)
10 The day that you stood before YAHWEH your Elohim in Horeb, when YAHWEH said to me, Gather the people to Me, and I will make them hear My Words, that they may learn to fear Me all the days that they live on the earth; and that they may teach their sons.
11 And you drew near and stood below the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire to the heart of the heavens, darkness, cloud and thick gloom.
12 And YAHWEH spoke to you out of the midst of the fire; you heard the sound of words, but you did not see a form, only a voice.[3] (1Jo 4:12, Jo 1:18) 13 And He declared His covenant to you which He has commanded you to do, the Ten Words; and He wrote them on two tablets of stone.
14 And YAHWEH commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, for you to do them in the land which you shall pass over to possess it.[4]

2 Many Christians forget that the New Testament was not written until late first century/early second century and early believers would have only had the Torah and would have highly upheld the words that are written here to esteem the Torah of Yahweh greatly (Acts 28:23).

1 The word Torah means "instruction". It was given as a manual to teach the people how to live a righteous, wisdom filled life. Understanding this fact; how could a spirit filled person ever say it is done away with? Pr 1:7-9, Pr 2:1-2, Pr 3:1-2

2 The Torah separates believers from other people of the world. (Ro 7:12, Ps 119172, Ps 19:7-11)

3 No human being has ever seen Yahweh the Father (1Joh 4:12), they have only heard the sound of His voice. When YHWH visably appears in the Tanach it is Yahshua Yahweh, the Son appearing, Gen 19:24, Gen 18:1.

18 the shape of any creeping thing on the ground; the shape of any fish in the waters under the earth;[1]

19 and that you not lift up your eyes towards the heavens and shall see the sun, and the moon and the stars, all the host of the heavens, and you be drawn away and worship them, and serve them; which YAHWEH your Elohim has allotted to all the peoples under all the heavens.[2]

20 And YAHWEH has taken you, and has brought you forth out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be a people to Him, an inheritance, as it is this day.

21 And YAHWEH was angry with me because of your words, and swore I would not pass over the Jordan, and that I might not go into the good land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you as an inheritance.

22 For I will not be in this land; I shall not pass over the Jordan. But you shall pass over, and shall possess this good land.

23 Be on guard for yourselves, that you not forget the covenant of YAHWEH your Elohim, which He has made with you, and make to yourselves a graven image, a likeness of anything which YAHWEH your Elohim has forbidden you.

24 For YAHWEH your Elohim is a consuming fire; He is a jealous El[3].

25 When you father sons and son's sons, and you have been long in the land, and have dealt corruptly, and have made a graven image, a likeness of anything, and have done evil in the sight of YAHWEH your Elohim, to provoke Him to anger;

26 I call the heavens and the earth to witness against you today that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land to which you go over the Jordan to possess it; you shall not prolong your days on it, but shall utterly be destroyed. (Jer 33:19-21)

27 And YAHWEH shall scatter you among the peoples, and you shall be left few in number among the nations to which YAHWEH shall lead you away.

28 And there you shall serve other gods, the work of man's hands, wood and stone, which cannot see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.[4]

29 And if you shall seek YAHWEH your Elohim from there, then you shall find Him, if you seek Him with your whole heart, and with all your soul,

1 Verses 16-18- It is interesting to note from these verses that there was no religious art with depictions of people or animals until the 3rd century A.D. And the start of the Byzantine era. It was considered breaking the 2nd commandment.

2 It is inconceivable to think that YHWH would command Israel every month to go out and visibly sight a crescent moon in the context of this verse. The biblical calendar started the month by conjunction and the sighting of the crescent came much later after the Babylonian captivity as it was adopted from Babylon. Yahweh works in the circular pattern and the day starts with the absence of the sun (at sunset) as the month starts with the absence of the moon (Heb 11:1-2) at conjunction. Knowing Israel's propensity to follow their pagan neighbors, Elohim would never purposely tempt them (Ja 1:13-14) by commanding His people to visibly sight a crescent moon each month. The sign of the crescent moon has traditionally been used in the occult and even is the sign of Islam. You can study the complete biblical calendar in lesson 11 online at www.coyhwh.com in the study section.

Elohim speaking from the midst of the 4 All three major religions worship paganism in some form through stone and wood. Christians have the wooden cross, Muslims have the stone in Mecca and even Judaism bows daily to the stone wall in Jerusalem which is the remains of the Roman Fort Antonia.

1 This verse means there is no life without Yahweh as the source.

Chapter 5

1 And Moses called to all Israel and said to them, Hear, Israel, the statutes and the judgments which I speak in your ears today. And you shall learn them, and be on guard to do them.

2 YAHWEH your Elohim cut a covenant with us in Horeb.

3 YAHWEH did not cut this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, these here today, all of us alive.[3] (Num 26:63-65, Jud 5, Heb 3:19)

4 YAHWEH talked with you face to face in the mountain out of the midst of the fire.

5 I stood between YAHWEH and you at that time to declare to you the Word of YAHWEH[4]; for you were afraid from the face of the fire, and you did not go up into the mountain, when He spoke, saying: (Ex 19:16-24)

6 I am YAHWEH your Elohim who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery.

7 You shall have no other Elohim before Me. (Math 22:36-38)

8 You shall not make a carved image for you, any likeness of anything in the heavens above, or in the earth beneath, and in the waters from under the earth.

9 You shall not bow yourself to them nor serve them, for I, YAHWEH your Elohim, am a jealous El, visiting the iniquity of fathers on sons, and on the third, and on the fourth generation of those that hate Me[5], (Ex 34:7)

10 and doing kindness to thousands of those who love Me and keep My commandments.

11 You shall not take the name of YAHWEH your Elohim in vain; for YAHWEH will not hold him guiltless who takes His name in vain[6].
(Ex 22:20, 23:13)

12 Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy[7], as YAHWEH your Elohim has commanded you. (Ex 20:8-11)

1 Ruth was from this area and was not a Moabite, but from the tribe of Manasseh.

2 "Mount Sion" - possibly a spelling error of "Sirion" (Deut 3:9). If the scripture correctly names Mount Hermon as also Sion it could have some interesting implications for the last days, Rev 14:1-3, Math 24:14-15.

3 This shows there was a betrothal but the covenant was never ratified due to the sin of the golden calf.

4 Moses as a type of Messiah paralleled Yahshua in that they were both deliverers, prophets, mediators, and intercessors.

5 Verses 8-9- The premise of this command is the worshiping of a graven image.

6 "In vain" means to change, falsify or make common. The sacred name Yahweh is so set apart from any other name on earth, it must be revered above everything. The rabbis took this to the point of not even mentioning it, and inadvertently have brought it to nothing. How could we, according to scripture, praise His name, glorify His name, sing praises to His name, call on His name if we did not mention it?

7 The Hebrew word for "holy" is "Kadosh" and literally means "set apart".

13 Six days you shall labor, and shall do all your work,
14 and the seventh day shall be a Sabbath to YAHWEH your Elohim. You shall not do any work, you nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male slave, nor your female slave, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your livestock, nor your stranger that is within your gates; so that your male slave and your female slave may rest like yourself.
15 And remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and YAHWEH your Elohim brought you out from there by a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm. On account of this YAHWEH your Elohim has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day[1].
16 Honor your father and your mother, as YAHWEH your Elohim has commanded you, so that your days may be prolonged, and so that it may be well with you in the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you. (Eph 6:2-3)
17 You shall not commit murder.
18 And you shall not commit adultery. (Math 5:27-28)
19 And you shall not steal.
20 And you shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
21 You shall not lust after your neighbor's wife; nor shall you covet your neighbor's house, his field[2], nor his male slave, nor his female slave, his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything which is your neighbor's[3].
22 YAHWEH spoke these Words to all your assembly on the Mount, out of the midst of the fire of the cloud and out of the thick darkness with a great voice. And He added no more; and He wrote them on two tablets of stone, and gave them to me.[4]
23 And it happened, when you heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, while the mountain burned with fire, you came near to me, all the rulers of your tribes, and your elders,
24 and you said, Behold! YAHWEH your Elohim has made us see His glory and His greatness to us, and we have heard His voice out of the midst of the fire; we have seen today that Elohim speaks with man, and he lives.
25 And then why should we die? For this great fire will consume us. If we hear the voice of YAHWEH your Elohim any more, then we shall die.
26 For who of all flesh that has heard the voice of the living Elohim speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and has lived?

[1] In Exodus, the Sabbath commandment reverts back to creation, whereas here it is to remember their slavery. This shows us the two-fold commission of the Sabbath day to revere Yahweh as creator and look forward to His soon coming Kingdom when all will be as it was in the Garden of Eden. Secondly, it also reminds us every 7th day of the bondage that our sins brought us into and we give reverence to Yahshua Messiah (Mk 2:28) from saving us from that spiritual bondage by paying the penalty of our sins. Keeping these two most important aspects in remembrance is vital for true covenant believers and clearly shows the Sabbath is important to keep and is still a commandment today.

[2] This was not in Ex 20 under the law against coveting and shows in covenant relationship the former obligations remain and updates can simply be added according to the spirit of the law.

[3] The last commandment ties up all ten by not only telling what to do and not do, but that our thoughts can defile us and sin starts in the mind. Ja 1:14-15, 1 Cor 6:9-10, Eph 5:5.

[4] There is nothing written in the Torah that would make one think that there was a hidden oral law. Everything commanded by YHWH was written in the book of the Torah, Jos 8:33-35, Deut 31:9, Ex 24:4.

27 You go near and hear all that YAHWEH our Elohim may say, and you shall speak to us all that YAHWEH our Elohim may speak to you. And we will hear it and do it.

28 And YAHWEH heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me. And YAHWEH said to me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken to you; they have well said all that they have spoken.

29 Would that this heart of theirs would be like this always, to fear Me, and to keep all My commandments, that it might be well with them, and with their sons forever. (Jer 31:31-34)

30 Go say to them, Return to your tents.

31 But as for you, you stand here by Me, and I will speak to you all the commandments and the statutes and the judgments which you shall teach them, that they may do them in the land which I am giving to them, to possess it.

32 And you shall be careful to do as YAHWEH your Elohim has commanded you; you shall not turn aside to the right or left.

33 You shall walk in all the ways which YAHWEH your Elohim has commanded you, so that you may live, and that good may be to you, and you may prolong your days in the land which you will possess[1].

Chapter 6

1 Now this is the commandment, the statute and the judgments which YAHWEH your Elohim commanded to teach you, to do them in the land to which you are crossing over, to possess it,

2 that you might fear YAHWEH your Elohim, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you; you, and your son, and your son's son, all the days of your life; and that your days may be prolonged. (Deut 4:40, Deut 5:33)

3 Hear, then, O Israel, and take heed to do it, that it may be well with you, that you may increase greatly, as YAHWEH the Elohim of your fathers has promised you, in the land flowing with milk and honey[2].

4 Hear, O Israel, YAHWEH our Elohim is YAHWEH echad.[3]

5 And you shall love YAHWEH your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might.

6 And these Words which I am commanding you today shall be on your heart.

7 And you shall diligently teach them to your sons, and shall speak of them as you sit in your house, and as you walk in the way, and as you are lying

[1] Being obedient to the Torah was indicative of being able to dwell in the land.

[2] This phrase is used 14 times in the Torah and 19 times throughout the Tanach and would be a desert wanderers' dream. The milk and honey idiom shows much water and unlimited grazing for animals with sweetness of honey all around, something they did not have in the wilderness. Also it is showing a food source naturally from trees of date palm, pomegranate, and figs and not from having to plant a garden. Is 7:15, Deut 32:13-14

[3] This verse called "The Great Shema" because "Hear O Israel" means to listen or be attentive to. The Hebrew word "echad" is a unity word such as family, see Gen 2:24, and means "Yahweh united". If the intention of the verse was to show there was only one YHWH, the Hebrew word used would have been "yachid", see Gen 22:12. It would also make no sense to state there is only Yahweh, when scripture undeniably states there are cherubs and Seraphs and elders around His throne amongst other beings, Rev 4:4, Is 6:1-3.

down, and as you are rising up. (Pr 22:6)
8 And you shall bind them for a sign on your hand; and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes.[1]
9 And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house, and on your gates.
10 And it shall be, when YAHWEH your Elohim shall bring you into the land which He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to you great and good cities, which you have not built,
11 and houses full of every good thing which you have not filled, and wells dug which you did not dig, vineyards and olive yards which you did not plant; and you shall eat and be satisfied;
12 then you shall be on guard that you do not forget YAHWEH who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slaves.
13 You shall fear YAHWEH your Elohim, and you shall serve Him, and you shall swear by His name.[2]
14 You shall not go after other gods, of the Elohim of the people who are around you, 15 for YAHWEH your Elohim is a jealous Elohim in your midst, lest the anger of YAHWEH your Elohim burn against you, and He destroy you from off the face of the earth. (Ex 34:14)
16 You shall not test YAHWEH your Elohim as you tested Him in Massah.
17 Diligently, you shall keep[3] the commandments of YAHWEH your Elohim, and His testimonies, and His statutes which He has commanded you.
18 And you shall do the right thing and the good thing in the eyes of YAHWEH, so that it may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land which YAHWEH has sworn to your fathers, 19 to drive out all your enemies from before you, as YAHWEH has spoken.
20 When your son asks you hereafter, saying, What are the testimonies and the statutes and the judgments which YAHWEH your Elohim has commanded you?
21 Then you shall say to your son, We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt, and YAHWEH brought us out of Egypt with a strong hand.
22 And YAHWEH gave signs and great and grievous wonders on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his household, before our eyes.
23 And He has brought us out from there in order to bring us in, to give us the land which He had sworn to our fathers.
24 And YAHWEH commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear YAHWEH our Elohim for our good forever, to keep us alive, as today.[4]
25 And it shall be righteousness for us when we take heed to do all this commandment before YAHWEH our Elohim, as He has commanded us.

Chapter 7

1 When YAHWEH your Elohim shall bring you into the land to which you are going, to possess it, and He casts out many nations from before

[1] You think with your mind and you do with your hands. This is the opposite of the mark of the beast giving your strength to YHWH. Pr 3:1-3, Ex 13:9, 16, Deut 11:18-20

[2] It was blasphemy and cursing to pray to the name of any deity but YAHWEH, Ex 22:20, Ex 23:13, Ex 3:15, Is 42:8.

[3] The Hebrew Shamar means to guard, protect.

[4] The fear of YHWH will lead one to repentance and obedience, Ps 111:10, Pr 1:7. Without the fear of YHWH, pride will rule one's life, Num 15:39.

you, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations larger and mightier than you;[1] (Deut 20:17)

2 and when YAHWEH your Elohim shall give them up before you, and you strike them, then you shall utterly destroy them; you shall not cut a covenant with them, nor show mercy to them; (Ro 16:17-19)

3 nor shall you intermarry with them; you shall not give your daughter to his son, nor shall you take his daughter to your son. (Ezr 9:5-15, 2 Cor 6:14-18, Num 11:1-4, Num 25:1-3)

4 For he will turn your son away from following Me, that they may serve other Elohim; and the anger of YAHWEH will glow against you, and He will destroy you quickly.

5 But you shall deal with them in this way: you shall break down their altars, and shatter in pieces their pillars; and you shall cut down their Asherahs; and you will burn their carved images with fire.

6 For you are a holy people to YAHWEH your Elohim. YAHWEH your Elohim has chosen you to be His own treasure out of all the people on the face of the earth. (Ex 19:3-6, 1Pe 2:9-10)

7 YAHWEH did not set His love on you or choose you because you were more in number than any people, for you were the fewest of all peoples.

8 But because YAHWEH loved you, and because He kept the oath which He swore to your fathers, YAHWEH has caused you to go out with a strong hand, and redeemed you from the house of slaves, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9 Because of this, know that YAHWEH your Elohim, He is Elohim, the faithful El, keeping the covenant and mercy to those who love Him, and to those who keep His commandments, to a thousand generations;[2]

10 and repaying to his face those that hate Him, to destroy him; He will not delay, He will repay him who hates Him, to his face.[3]

11 And you shall keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments which I am commanding you today, to do them.

12 And it shall be, because you hear judgments, and keep and do them, even YAHWEH your Elohim will keep with you the covenant and the mercy which He swore to your fathers.

13 And He will love you, and bless you, and multiply you. He will also bless the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your land, your grain and your wine and your oil, the increase of your oxen and the wealth of your flock, in the land which He has sworn to your fathers, to give it to you[4].

14 You shall be blessed above all

1 The Hittites were a dynasty located in Asia Minor and from 1800B.C. to around 1200B.C. they dominated much of the land of Canaan. The name Amorite comes from the Akkadian word for westerner (west from Babylon) and they lived in the hill country during the time of the Israelite conquest. The Perizzites lived in southern Judah (Jud 1:4-5) and some lived in the land of Ephraim (Jos 17:15). The Hivittes were from Gibeon (Jos 9:7, 11:19, 2 Sam 24:7) and the Jebusites were in Jerusalem (1 Chron 11:4-5).

2 Since the creation of Adam in Genesis, there have only been roughly 150 generations using the number 40, which is the smallest number in equating a generation. This shows that YHWH's love and mercy continues today to those fearing Him and keeping His commandments.

3 The singular suffix here indicates YHWH will personally punish each individual who disobeys Him.

people; there shall not be a barren man or a barren woman among you, nor among your livestock.

15 And YAHWEH shall turn aside every sickness from you; and He will not put on you any of the evil diseases of Egypt, which you have known, but He will put them on all who hate you.

16 And you shall destroy all the people whom YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you. And your eye shall have no pity on them; and you shall not serve their gods; for it shall be a snare to you.

17 If you shall say in your heart, These nations are more plentiful than I; how can I throw them out?

18 You shall not be afraid of them; remembering you shall remember that which YAHWEH your Elohim has done to Pharaoh, and to all Egypt,

19 the great trials which your eyes have seen, and the miracles, and the wonders and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm with which YAHWEH your Elohim has brought you out. So YAHWEH your Elohim shall do to all the peoples of whose face you are afraid.

20 And YAHWEH your Elohim shall send the hornets among them, until the ones who are left perish, even those who hide themselves from your face. (Ex 23:27-33)

21 You shall not tremble before them, for YAHWEH your Elohim is among you, a mighty and fearful El.

22 And YAHWEH your Elohim will clear out those nations before you little by little. You may not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon you.

23 And YAHWEH your Elohim shall deliver them up before you, and destroy them with a great destruction until they are exterminated.

24 And He shall give their kings into your hand; and you shall destroy their name from under the heavens. No man shall be able to stand before you until you have destroyed them.

25 You shall burn the carved images of their Elohim with fire; and you shall not lust after the silver and gold on them, nor shall you take it to yourself, that you not be snared by it; for it is an abomination to YAHWEH.

26 And you shall not bring an abomination into your house, that you not be a cursed thing like it. You shall utterly detest it, and you shall utterly hate it; for it is a cursed thing. (Jos 7:1)

Chapter 8

1 You shall be watchful to do every commandment which I am commanding you today, so that you may live and may multiply and may go in and possess the land which YAHWEH has sworn to your fathers.[1]

2 And you shall remember all the way which YAHWEH your Elohim has caused you to go these forty years in the wilderness, in order to humble you, to try you, to know that which is in your heart, whether you will keep His commandments or not[2].

3 And He has humbled you, and caused you to hunger, and caused you to eat the manna, which you had not known, and your fathers had not known, in order to cause you to know that man shall not live by bread alone, but man shall live by every Word that proceeds from the mouth of YAHWEH[3]. (Math 4:4)

---

4 The physical land of Israel is always an integral part of Yahweh's everlasting covenant.

1 Obedience to the Torah is a prerequisite for possessing the land.

2 The wilderness was simply a test of faith and obedience, Heb 3:7-19, 4:1-3.

3 Bread sustains life but does not give life.

4 Your clothing did not wear out on you, and your foot did not swell, these forty years.

5 And you have known with your heart that as a man disciplines his son, YAHWEH your Elohim disciplines you. (Heb 12:5-8)

6 And you shall keep the commandments of YAHWEH your Elohim, to walk in His ways, and to fear Him.

7 For YAHWEH your Elohim brings you into a good land, a land of streams of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills,

8 a land of wheat and barley and vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey,[1]

9 a land in which you shall eat bread without want; you shall not lack anything in it; a land whose stones are iron; and you shall dig copper out of its mountains[2].

10 And you shall eat and be satisfied; and you shall bless YAHWEH your Elohim in the good land which He has given you.

11 Take heed to yourself, lest you forget YAHWEH your Elohim so as not to keep His commandments, and His judgments, and His statutes, which I am commanding you today;

12 that when you have eaten and are satisfied, and have built goodly houses, and have lived in them;

13 and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold have multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied,

14 then it rises up into your heart, and you forget YAHWEH your Elohim who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slaves;[3]

15 who led you through the great and dreadful wilderness, with burning serpent, and scorpion, and thirsty ground where no water is; who brought you water out of the flinty rock; (Is 30:6)

16 who made you eat manna in the wilderness, which your fathers did not know; that He might humble you and that He might prove you, to do you good at your latter end; (Deut 8:2)

17 that you not say in your heart, My power and the might of my hand have made for me this wealth.[4]

18 But you shall remember YAHWEH your Elohim, for it is He who gives to you power to make wealth; that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day.

19 And it shall be, if you shall forget YAHWEH your Elohim, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you today that you shall utterly perish;

20 as the nations that YAHWEH makes to perish before you, so you shall perish; because you did not listen to the voice of YAHWEH your Elohim.

Chapter 9

1 Hear, O Israel, you shall cross over the Jordan today, to go in to

1 All of these are part of the seven species for Sukkot and are listed in order of importance.

2 The Timna copper mines in the south were used to mine copper for Solomon's sanctuary and also the trans-Jordan mountains.

3 Verses 11:14- It is much easier to forget Elohim during the times when everything is going good, instead of the times of trial when He is more needed. This is a warning to always remember the one who freed them.

4 This is the prideful, blinded thought of the Laodicean that thinks his own might got him all he has acquired and doesn't realize his pathetic spiritual state, (Rev 3:14-18).

dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and walled up to the heavens;

2 a people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom you know, and of whom you have heard it said, Who can stand before the sons of Anak? [1]

3 And know today that YAHWEH your Elohim is He who passes over before you as a consuming fire; He will destroy them, and He will bring them down before you; so you shall dispossess them and make them to perish quickly, as YAHWEH has spoken to you.

4 Do not say in your heart, when YAHWEH your Elohim casts them out from before you, saying, YAHWEH has brought me in to possess this land for my righteousness. But say, YAHWEH dispossesses them from before you because of the wickedness of those nations. (Lev 18:1-5,24-30)

5 It is not for your righteousness or for the uprightness of your heart that you go to possess their land. But YAHWEH your Elohim is dispossessing them from before you because of the wickedness of these nations; and in order to establish the Word which YAHWEH has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

6 And you shall know that YAHWEH your Elohim is not giving you this good land, to possess it, for your righteousness; for you are a stiff-necked people.

7 Remember; do not forget how you made YAHWEH your Elohim angry in the wilderness; even from the day that you came out of the land of Egypt until you came into this place you have been rebellious against YAHWEH.

8 Even in Horeb you made YAHWEH angry; and YAHWEH breathed angrily against you, to destroy you.

9 When I went up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, tablets of the covenant which YAHWEH cut with you, and I remained in the mountain forty days and forty nights I did not eat bread nor did I drink water,

10 and YAHWEH gave to me the two tablets of stone written with the finger of Elohim, and on them was written according to all the Words which YAHWEH spoke with you in the mountain, out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly;

11 then it happened, at the end of forty days and forty nights YAHWEH gave the two tablets of stone to me, tablets of the covenant,

12 and YAHWEH said to me, Rise up, go down quickly from here; for your people whom you have brought out of Egypt have acted corruptly; they have quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made themselves a cast image.

13 And YAHWEH spoke to me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people. (Ex 32:1-10)

14 Let Me alone that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under the heavens; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 And I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire, and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands;

16 and I looked; and, behold! You had sinned against YAHWEH your Elohim; you had made a casted calf for yourselves; you had quickly turned out of the way which YAHWEH had commanded you.

1 See note on Deut 1:28.

17 And I took hold of the two tablets and threw them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes.

18 And I fell down before YAHWEH, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I ate no bread and drank no water; because of all your sins which you had sinned, in doing that which was evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, to make Him angry.

19 For I was afraid because of the anger and the fury with which YAHWEH had been angry against you, to destroy you. And YAHWEH listened to me at this time also.

20 And YAHWEH was very angry with Aaron, to destroy him, and I also prayed for Aaron at that time.

21 And I took your sin, the calf which you made, and I burned it with fire, and beat it, grinding it very small until it was as fine as dust; and I threw its dust into the torrent that came down out of the mountain.

22 And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at The Graves of Lust you provoked YAHWEH to anger.

23 And when YAHWEH sent you from Kadesh-Barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given to you, then you rebelled against the mouth of YAHWEH your Elohim, and did not believe Him, nor listen to His voice.

24 You have been rebellious against YAHWEH from the day that I knew you.

25 And I fell down before YAHWEH the forty days and the forty nights as I had thrown myself down before, for YAHWEH had said to destroy you.

26 And I prayed to YAHWEH, and said, O Adonai YAHWEH, do not destroy Your people, and Your inheritance whom You have redeemed in Your greatness; whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; do not look to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness nor to their sin,

28 lest the land from which You brought us say, Because YAHWEH was not able to bring them into the land which He promised them; and, because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.

29 And they are Your people, and Your inheritance, whom You have brought out by Your great power, and by Your stretched out arm.

(Ps 106:39-40)

Chapter 10

1 At that time YAHWEH said to me, Cut out for yourself two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to Me, into the mountain, and you shall make for yourself an ark of wood;

2 and I shall write on the tablets the words which were on the first tablets, which you have broken, and you shall place them in the ark.

3 And I made an ark of acacia wood, and cut out two tablets of stone like the first, and went up into the mountain; and the two tablets were in my hand.

4 And He wrote on the tablets according to the writing, the Ten Words[1], which YAHWEH had spoken to you in the mountain, out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. And YAHWEH gave them to me,

5 and I turned and came down from the mountain and put the tablets in the ark which I had made. And they are there, as YAHWEH commanded me.

6 And the sons of Israel pulled up stakes from Beeroth of the sons of Jaakan to Mosera[1]; Aaron died there and he was buried there; and his son Eleazar was acting as priest in his place.

7 From there they pulled up stakes to Gudgodah;and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of water brooks.[2] 8 At that time YAHWEH separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant before YAHWEH, to stand before YAHWEH and to minister to Him, and to bless in His name, until today.
9 Therefore, Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brothers; YAHWEH is his inheritance, according as YAHWEH your Elohim spoke to him.
10 And I stayed in the mountain forty days and forty nights, as at the first. And YAHWEH listened to me that time also; YAHWEH did not will to destroy you.
11 And YAHWEH said to me Rise up! Go before the people, causing them to set forward, that they may go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers, to give it to them.
12 And now, Israel, what has YAHWEH your Elohim asked of you, except to fear YAHWEH your Elohim, to walk in all His ways, and to love Him, and to serve YAHWEH your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your soul;
13 to keep the commandments of YAHWEH, and His statutes which I am commanding you today, for your good.[3] (Deut 5:33, Deut 6:24)
14 Behold, the heavens and the Heaven of the heavens, the earth and all in it, belong to YAHWEH your Elohim.
15 Only, YAHWEH has delighted in your fathers, to love them; and He chose their seed after them, on you out of all the peoples, as it is today.
16 And you shall circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and you shall not harden your neck any more.
17 For YAHWEH your Elohim, He is the Elohim of Elohims, and the Master of Masters; the great, the mighty, the fearful Elohim who does not lift up faces, nor take a bribe.
18 He executes justice for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the alien, to give to him food and clothing.
19 And you shall love the alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.
20 You shall fear YAHWEH your Elohim; you shall serve Him; and you shall cleave to Him; and you shall swear by His name.
21 He shall be your praise, and He shall be your Elohim, who has done for you these great and fearful things which your eyes have seen.
22 Your fathers went down to Egypt with seventy persons[4]; and now YAHWEH your Elohim has made you as the stars of the heavens for multitude.

Chapter 11

1 And you shall love YAHWEH your Elohim, and keep His charge, and His statutes and His judgments, and His commandments all the days.
2 And you know today, for I do not speak with your sons who have not known, and who have not seen the chastisement of YAHWEH your

[1] Mosera means chastisement and was a province in which Mount Hor was located.

[2] "Gudgodah"- The place is unknown but the name is after a false pagan goddess.

Elohim, His greatness, His mighty hand, and His stretched out arm, 3 and His signs, and His works which He did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and to all his land;
4 and that which He has done to the army of Egypt, to its horses, and to its chariots, when He caused the waters of the Red Sea to flow over them as they pursued them. And YAHWEH destroyed them to this day;
5 and that which He has done to you in the wilderness, until you came to this place;
6 and that which He has done to Dathan, and to Abiram, sons of Eliab, Reuben's son, when the earth opened her mouth and swallowed them and their houses and their tents and all the living substance at their feet, in the midst of all Israel.
7 But your eyes see all the great work of YAHWEH which He has done.
8 And you shall keep all the commandments which I am commanding you today, so that you shall be strong, and shall go in and possess the land to which you are crossing over, to possess it; 9 and so that you may prolong your days in the land which YAHWEH has sworn to your fathers, to give to them and to their seed, a land flowing with milk and honey.
10 For the land to which you are going, to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from where you came, where you sowed your seed and watered it with your foot, as a garden of herbs[1].
11 But the land which you are entering to possess it is a land of hills and valleys, drinking water from the rain of the heavens;[2] 12 a land which YAHWEH your Elohim cares for; the eyes of YAHWEH your Elohim are always on it from the beginning of the year to the end of the year.[3] 13 And it shall be, if listening you will listen to My commands which I command you today, to love YAHWEH your Elohim, and to serve Him with all your heart, and with all your soul[4], 14 that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the early rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, and your new wine, and your oil.
15 And I will give grass in your fields for your livestock; and you shall eat and be satisfied.
16 Take heed to yourselves, that your heart not be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other elohim, and bow down to them;
17 and the anger of YAHWEH glow against you, and He shut up the heavens, and there be no rain, and the ground not give her increase, and you perish quickly from off the good land which YAHWEH is giving to you.
18 And you shall lay these Words up in your hearts, and in your souls, and shall bind them for a sign on your hand. And they shall be for frontlets between your eyes[5].
19 And you shall teach them to your sons by speaking of them as you sit in your house, and as you walk in the way, and as you lie down, and as you rise up. (Deut 6:7)
20 And you shall write them on the

21 that your days and the days of your sons may be multiplied in the land which YAHWEH has sworn to your fathers, to give to them, as the days of the heavens over the earth. (Deut 34:4)

22 For if keeping you will keep this command which I am commanding you, to do it, to love YAHWEH your Elohim, to walk in all His ways, and to cleave to Him,

23 then YAHWEH shall dispossess all these nations from before you, and you shall possess nations greater and mightier than you.

24 Every place where the sole of your foot treads shall be yours, from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the Euphrates River even to the furthest sea shall be your border.[1]

25 No man shall stand before you. YAHWEH your Elohim shall put your dread and your fear on the face of all the land on which you tread, as He has spoken to you.

26 Behold! I set before you today a blessing and a curse:

27 a blessing if you hear the commandments of YAHWEH your Elohim which I command you today;

28 and a curse if you will not hear the commandments of YAHWEH your Elohim, but will turn aside out of the way which I command you today, to go after other gods which you have not known. (Deut 30:11-19)

29 And it shall be when YAHWEH your Elohim shall bring you into the land to which you go to possess it, that you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim, and the curse on Mount Ebal. (Jos 8:33, Deut 27:10-13)

30 Are they not beyond the Jordan, behind the way of the sunset, in the land of the Canaanites that live in the Arabah, opposite to Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh?

31 For you are to cross over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you; and you shall possess it and live in it.

32 And take heed to do all the statutes and the judgments which I am giving before you today.

Chapter 12

1 These are the statutes and the judgments which you shall take heed to do in the land which YAHWEH the Elohim of your fathers has given to you, to possess it, all the days that you live on the earth:

2 You shall completely destroy all the places where the nations which you are dispossessing served their gods, on the high mountains, and on the hills, and under every leafy tree.[2]

3 And you shall break down their altars, and shatter their standing pillars. And you shall burn their Asherahs with fire. And you shall cut down the carved images of their gods, and shall destroy their names out of that place. (Deut 7:1-6)

4 You shall not do so to YAHWEH your Elohim. (Joh 4:24)

5 But you shall seek to the place which YAHWEH your Elohim shall choose out of all your tribes (Jerusalem)[3]; for you shall seek His dwelling, to put His name there. And you shall go there.[1] (Deut 16:16)

6 And you shall bring your burnt offerings there, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offering, and the firstlings of your herd and of your flock.

7 And you shall eat there before YAHWEH your Elohim, and shall rejoice in all that you put your hand to, you and your households, with which YAHWEH your Elohim has blessed you.

8 You shall not do according to all that we are doing here today, each doing all that is right in his own eyes. (Jud 21:25)

9 For you have not come to the rest and to the inheritance which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you.[2]

10 And you shall cross over the Jordan, and shall live in the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is causing you to inherit. And He shall give you rest from all your enemies all around; and you shall live securely[3]. (Lev 25:18)

11 And it shall be the place which YAHWEH your Elohim shall choose to cause His name to dwell there (Jerusalem), there you shall bring all that I am commanding you, your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all your choice freewill offerings which you vow to YAHWEH.

12 And you shall rejoice before YAHWEH your Elohim, you and your sons, and your daughters, and your male slaves, and your female slaves, and the Levite within your gates because he has no portion or inheritance with you.

13 Take heed to yourself that you not offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see;

14 but in the place which YAHWEH shall choose in one of your tribes (Jerusalem), there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command. (Lev 17:8-9)

15 Only with all the desire of your soul you shall sacrifice and shall eat meat within all your gates according to the blessing of YAHWEH your Elohim which He has given you; the unclean one and the clean one may eat of it, as of the gazelle and as of the hart.

16 Only, you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it as water on the earth.

17 You are not able to eat the tithe of your grain within your gates, and of your new wine, and your oil, and the firstlings of your herd and of your flock, and any of your vows which you vow, and your freewill offering, and the heave offering of your hand.

18 But you shall eat it before YAHWEH your Elohim in the place which YAHWEH your Elohim shall choose (Jerusalem), you and your son, and your daughter, and your male slave, and your female slave, and the Levite who is within your gates. And you shall rejoice before YAHWEH your Elohim in all that you put your hand to.

19 Take heed to yourself that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live on the land.

20 Then YAHWEH your Elohim shall enlarge your border, as He has promised you, and you shall say, I will eat flesh, because your soul desires to eat flesh, you may eat flesh according to all the desire of your soul.

21 If the place which YAHWEH your Elohim shall choose to put His name there is too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock which YAHWEH has given you, as I have commanded you; and you shall eat within your gates according to all the desire of your soul.

22 Only, as the gazelle and the hart are eaten, so you shall eat of it; the unclean and the clean may eat of it alike.

23 Only, be sure not to eat the blood, for the blood is the life, and you shall not eat the life with the flesh;

24 You shall not eat it; you shall pour it on the earth as water.

25 You shall not eat it in order that it may be well with you and with your sons after you, when you do that which is right in the eyes of YAHWEH.

26 Only, your holy things which you have, and your vows, you shall take up and shall go to the place which YAHWEH shall choose*(Jerusalem)*.

27 And you shall offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of YAHWEH your Elohim; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out by the altar of YAHWEH your Elohim; and you shall eat the flesh.

28 Take heed to listen to all these Words which I am commanding you, in order that it may be well with you and with your sons after you forever, when you do that which is good and right in the eyes of YAHWEH your Elohim.

29 When YAHWEH your Elohim shall cut off the nations from before you, where you are going in to possess them, and you shall possess them, and shall live in their land,

30 take heed to yourself that you not be snared to follow them after they have been destroyed before you; and that you not inquire after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their Elohim? And I shall do so, even I. (Lev 18:2-3, Lev 20:22-23)

31 You shall not do so to YAHWEH your Elohim; for everything hateful to YAHWEH, which He detests, they have done to their gods. For they have even burned their sons and their daughters in the fire to their gods[1].

32 All the things that I command you, take heed to do them and you shall not add to it, nor take away from it. (Deut 4:2)

Chapter 13

1 If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams rises among you, and gives you a sign or a wonder,

2 and the sign or the wonder which he spoke to you occurs, saying, Let us go after other Elohim which you have not known, and let us serve them,

3 you shall not listen to the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams. For YAHWEH your Elohim is testing you, to know if you love YAHWEH your Elohim with all your heart and with all your soul.
(Deut 18:22)

4 You shall walk after YAHWEH your Elohim, and you shall fear Him. And you shall keep His commandments, and you shall hear His voice, and you shall serve Him, and you shall cleave to Him.

5 And that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall die, because he has spoken apostasy against YAHWEH

[1] The sacrifices of the pagans were so abominable, even sacrificing children, that Yahweh would have no part of any mixture of paganism with biblical practices. Today many Christians mix pagan practices such as Christmas and Easter and clearly go against the direct command of scripture.

your Elohim, who is bringing you out of the land of Egypt, and has redeemed you out of the house of slaves, to drive you out of the way in which YAHWEH your Elohim has commanded you to walk. And you shall put away evil from among your midst.

6 If your brother, your mother's son, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own soul, shall entice you secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other elohim, which you have not known, you and your fathers,

7 of the Elohim of the people around you, those near you or far off from you, from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth,

8 you shall not consent to him, nor listen to him, nor shall your eye have pity on him, nor shall you spare nor hide him.

9 But you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first upon him to cause him to die, and the hand of all the people last.

10 And you shall stone him with stones, and he shall die, for he has sought to drive you out from YAHWEH your Elohim, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slaves.

11 And all Israel shall hear and fear, and shall not again do any such wicked thing as this among you.

12 If, in one of your cities which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving you to live in, you hear one saying,

13 Certain men, sons of Belial, have gone out from among you and have drawn away those who live in their city, saying, Let us go and serve other elohim, which you have not known;

14 then you shall inquire and make search, and ask carefully; and, behold, if the thing is truly established, that this abominable thing has been done among you,

15 Surely, you shall strike those who live in that city by the mouth of the sword, destroying it completely, and all that is in it, and its livestock, with the mouth of the sword.

16 And you shall gather all its spoil into the middle of its open place, and shall burn the city with fire, and all its spoil, completely, before YAHWEH your Elohim. And it shall be a heap perpetually; it shall not be built any more.

17 And not any of the cursed thing shall cleave to your hand, so that YAHWEH shall turn from the fierceness of His anger, and shall give mercies to you, and shall love you, and shall multiply you, as He has sworn to your fathers,

18 when you listen to the voice of YAHWEH your Elohim, to keep all His commandments which I am commanding you today, to do that which is right in the eyes of YAHWEH your Elohim.

Chapter 14

1 You are sons to YAHWEH your Elohim; you shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead[1].

2 For you are a holy people to YAHWEH your Elohim; and YAHWEH has chosen you to be a people to Him, a special treasure out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth[2].

3 You shall not eat any abominable thing.

1 The practices mentioned here are pagan and cultic. Pagan priests also many times shaved their heads and even cut themselves to draw blood as a cultic ritual. 1 Kgs18:26-28, Lev 19:28, Lev 21:5-8, Jer 15:5-6.

2 1 Pe 2:9

4 These are the animals which you shall eat: the ox, the flocked sheep, and the flocked goat,
5 the hart and gazelle, and roe deer, and wild goat, and antelope, and Oryx, and moufflon.
6 And you may eat every animal that divides the hoof, and divides two hoofs wholly, and chews the cud among the animals.
7 But you shall not eat of those that only chew the cud, or those only dividing the cloven hoof: the camel, and the hare, and the rock badger; for they chew the cud but do not divide the hoof. They shall be unclean to you.
8 And the swine, because it divides the hoof, but does not chew the cud; it is unclean to you. You shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead body.
9 These you shall eat of all in the waters: you shall eat all that have fins and scales.
10 And whatever does not have fins and scales, you shall not eat. It shall be unclean to you.
11 You shall eat of all clean birds.
12 But you shall not eat of these: the eagle, the black vulture, and the bearded vulture, 13 and the hawk, and falcons, and the kite by its kinds, 14 and all ravens by their kinds;
15 and the ostrich, and the great owl, and the sea gull, and small hawks by their kinds,
16 the little owl, and the eared owl, and the barn owl, 17 and the pelican, and the owl, and the cormorant,
18 and the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.
19 And every teeming thing that flies shall be unclean to you; they shall not be eaten.[1] 20 You may eat of all clean birds.
21 You shall not eat of anything that died of itself. You may give it to the alien who is within your gates, that he may eat it. Or you may sell it to a foreigner. For you are a holy people to YAHWEH your Elohim. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.[2] 22 Tithing you shall tithe all the increase of your seed that the field yields year by year[3].
23 And you shall eat before YAHWEH your Elohim in the place which He shall choose to cause His name to dwell there (Jerusalem), the tithe of your grain, of your wine[4], and of your oil, and the first-lings of your herd and of your flock; that you may learn to fear YAHWEH your Elohim all your days[5].
24 And if the way is too long for you, so that you cannot carry it, because the place is too far from you which YAHWEH your Elohim shall choose to set His name there, when YAHWEH your Elohim shall bless you;
25 Then you shall give it for silver, and bind up the silver in your hand. And you shall go to the place which YAHWEH your Elohim shall choose (Jerusalem)[6].
26 And you shall pay the silver for whatever your soul rightly desires, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for

1 VS 11-19- All unclean birds are carnivores.

2 This was a Canaanite cultist practice dating back to the 15th century B.C.

3 Tithing is an Elohim given principle that all belongs to Yahweh, and when we receive increase from Him we give 10% tithe on all increase. Math 23:23, Gen 28:18-22, Num 18:21-29, Deut 26:12, Deut 12:5-8

4 The Hebrew word used here for wine, "terosh" indicates it is new wine.

5 This here is speaking of the festival tithe. Ten percent was already tithed in verse 22, and here in verse 23, it is stating by being faithful and putting aside Yahweh's 10%, you can now use 10% of the tithe for you and your family at feast time in Jerusalem. Deut 26:1-4,9-19, Neh 10:31-39 fermented drink, or for whatever your soul desires. And you shall eat there before YAHWEH your Elohim, and you shall rejoice, you and your household[1].

27 And you shall not forsake the Levite who is within your gates, for he has no portion nor inheritance with you.
28 At the end of three years, even the same year, you shall bring forth all the tithe of your increase, and shall lay it up within your gates[2].
29 And the Levite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the alien, and the fatherless, and the widow who are within your gates shall come and shall eat and be satisfied; so that YAHWEH your Elohim may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do. (Gal 2:9-10, Gal 6:10)

Chapter 15

1 At the end of every seven years you shall make a release. (Lev 25;1-7)
2 And this is the manner of the release: Everyone who has a loan to his neighbor shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbor and his brother, because a release has been proclaimed for YAHWEH.(Deu 31:10)
3 You may exact it from a foreigner, but your hand shall release whatever is yours with your brother[3], 4 only that there shall be no one in need among you. For YAHWEH will greatly bless you in the land that YAHWEH your Elohim is giving you for an inheritance, to possess it,
5 only if carefully you will listen to the voice of YAHWEH your Elohim, to take heed to do all this commandments, which I am commanding you today.
6 For YAHWEH your Elohim will bless you as He promised you. And you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. And you shall rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over you.
7 If there is a poor man among you, one of your brothers inside any of your gates in your land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you, you shall not harden your heart, nor shut your hand from your needy brother.
8 But you shall open your hand wide to him, and surely you shall lend him enough for his need in that which he lacks. (2 Cor 9:6-8)
9 Beware that there is no evil thought in your heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release draws

[6] Coming up to Jerusalem at feast time was a great blessing and also a commandment. One of the worst punishments of Israel's Diaspora was that they could no longer appear before Yahweh at feast time in His set apart city Jerusalem. Many today, due to Diaspora, have totally missed the point of the biblical calendar being agricultural to connect Israel to the land all year long. By keeping the feast in captivity worldwide there is a great blessing missed by not coming to Jerusalem at feast time.

[1] Not only did Yahweh condone happiness and joy at feast time, but He actually commanded it. You were able to use your second tithe for special meals etc that you may not be able to enjoy other times of the year.

[2] Yahweh commanded that every third year the tithe was to be used for the poor and less fortunate to make sure that the poor were not neglected. Also note, that the tithe was brought to the elders who would have been sitting in the city gate for distribution.

[3] Israel was to have a very special relationship with each other as brothers. If followed, it ensured that there would not be needy or poor among them. Unfortunately, as a nation they never implemented these practices.

near; and your eye be evil against your needy brother, and you give him nothing, and he cry to YAHWEH against you and it be sin to you.

10 Surely, you shall give to him, and your heart shall not be grieved when you give to him, because YAHWEH your Elohim will bless you for this thing, in all your work, and in all that you put your hand to. (2 Cor 9:7)

11 For the needy will never cease from the midst of the land. On account of this I command you, saying, Opening you shall open your hand to your poor and needy brother in your land.

12 If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you. (Jer 34:14)

13 And when you send him out free from you, you shall not let him go away empty.

14 You shall richly adorn him from your flock, and from your threshing floor, and from your winepress, with that which YAHWEH your Elohim has blessed you, you shall give to him.

15 And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and YAHWEH your Elohim redeemed you. On account of this I command you this thing today. (Ex 13:3, Deut 24:18)

16 And it shall be, if he says to you, I will not go out from you, because he loves you and your house, because it was good for him with you;

17 then you shall take an awl, and shall put it through his ear, and through the door, and he shall be your slave forever. And you shall do so to your slave-girl also. (Ex 21:1-6)

18 It shall not seem hard in your eyes when you send him away free from you. For to the double of the hire of a hireling he has served you six years. And YAHWEH your Elohim will bless you in all that you do.

19 The firstling males that are born of your herd and of your flock, you shall sanctify to YAHWEH your Elohim. You shall do no work with the firstling of your ox, nor shear the firstling of your flock. (Ex 13:2)

20 You shall eat it before YAHWEH your Elohim year by year in the place which YAHWEH shall choose, you and your household. (Deut 12:5-7, 17,18)

21 And if there is any blemish in it, lameness, or blindness, or any evil blemish whatever, you shall not sacrifice it to YAHWEH your Elohim.

22 You shall eat it inside your gates; the unclean one and the clean one alike, as the gazelle and as the hart[1].

23 Only, you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it on the ground like water. (Lev 17:10-12)

Chapter 16

1 Observe the month Aviv, and perform the Passover to YAHWEH your Elohim. For in the month of Aviv, YAHWEH your Elohim brought you out of Egypt by night. (Num 33:3)

2 And you shall sacrifice a Passover to YAHWEH your Elohim of the flock, and of the herd, in the place which He shall choose to cause His name to dwell there (Jerusalem)[2].

3 You shall eat with it no leaven. You shall eat unleavened bread with it seven days[3], even the bread of affliction. For you came out of the land of Egypt in haste, so that you may remember the day that you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life[4].

4 And there shall be no leaven seen with you in your borders seven days; nor shall any of the flesh which you sacrificed the first day at evening remain all night until the morning.

5 You may not sacrifice the Passover offering inside any of your gates, which YAHWEH your Elohim gives you.

6 But at the place which He shall choose to cause His name to dwell there (Jerusalem), you shall sacrifice the Passover offering at evening, at the going of the sun, at the time when you came out of Egypt. (Ex 12:42, Is 18:7)

7 And you shall cook and eat in the place which YAHWEH your Elohim shall choose. And in the morning you shall turn and go into your tents. (Ex 12:8-9)

8 You shall eat unleavened things six days, and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to YAHWEH your Elohim. You shall do no work.

9 You shall number to yourself seven weeks. When the sickle begins to reap in the standing grain, you shall begin to number seven weeks[1].

10 And you shall keep the Feast of Weeks to YAHWEH your Elohim according to the measure of the freewill offering of your hand, which you shall give according as YAHWEH your Elohim blesses you.

11 And you shall rejoice before YAHWEH your Elohim, you and your son, and your daughter, and your male slave, and your slave-girl, and the Levite that is inside your gates, and the alien, and the fatherless, and the widow that are among you, in the place which YAHWEH your Elohim shall choose to cause His name to dwell there.

12 And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt; and you shall take heed to do these statutes.

13 You shall perform the Feast of Tabernacles seven days after you have gathered in from your grain-floor, and from your winepress[2].

14 And you shall rejoice in your feast, you and your son, and your daughter, and your male slave, and your slave-girl, and the Levite, and the alien, and the fatherless, and the widow that are inside your gates.

15 You shall keep a solemn feast

2 The Passover is referred to by the actual sacrifice of the lamb at the beginning of Aviv 14,(Ex 12:3-5) but it is also referred to for the whole week of sacrifices associated with Passover (Num 28:16-31). Here we know that it is referring not only to the actual killing of the Passover lamb on the 14th of Aviv, but also to what is called the second Hagidah or peace offering to Yahweh because you can also use the herd for this sacrifice as with the actual Passover it could only be eaten from the sheep or goats. This sacrifice in verse two is what is called in scripture 'the night to be observed celebration' for leaving Egypt the next night after the Passover. (Ex 12:29-42)

3 Again an indication of more than just the Passover offering on the 14th of Aviv.

4 This is clearly relating to the night Israel left Egypt in celebration, which was the night after the Passover, as the Passover was not a night of celebration but of death and they were commanded not to leave their houses until the next morning. (Ex 12:21, 29-42)

1 You must have Aviv grain for this ceremony. If you wait until after the equinox to start the year, according to scripture, you will always have grain ready enough for this ceremony.

2 Clearly, the feast of Sukkot must be after the summer harvest and after the fall equinox. Not only must the fruit be ripe enough for harvest but there would have had to be enough time to actually harvest the crop to bring the tithe to Jerusalem as commanded. It is inconceivable that Israelites would have came empty handed to Jerusalem for about a month's journey round-trip, while their crops would fall and rot on the ground while they would be gone feasting with no harvest fruit.

seven days to YAHWEH your Elohim in the place which YAHWEH shall choose (Jerusalem); for YAHWEH your Elohim shall bless you in all your produce, and in every work of your hands, and you shall be altogether joyful.

16 Three times in a year shall all your males appear before YAHWEH your Elohim in the place which He shall choose (Jerusalem): In the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and in the Feast of Weeks and in the Feast of Tabernacles. And they shall not appear before YAHWEH empty, (2 Chron 6:6, Is 33:20, Ps 122:3-4)

17 but each with his gift of his hand, according to the blessing of YAHWEH your Elohim, which He has given you.[1]

18 You shall appoint judges and officers[2] for yourself in all your gates which YAHWEH your Elohim gives you, tribe by tribe. And they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. (Ex 18:24-26)

19 You shall not pervert judgment. You shall not regard faces, nor shall you take a bribe; for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise, and perverts the words of the righteous. (Ex 23:7-8)

20 You shall follow perfect justice, that you may live and possess the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving you.

21 You shall not set up for yourself pillars of any trees, which you make for yourself near the altar of YAHWEH your Elohim[3].

22 And you shall not raise up for yourself any standing image, which YAHWEH your Elohim detests.[4]

Chapter 17

1 You shall not sacrifice to YAHWEH your Elohim an ox or sheep in which there is a blemish, any evil thing, for it is a hateful thing to YAHWEH your Elohim.

2 When there is found among you, in one of your gates which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you, a man or woman who does that which is evil in the sight of YAHWEH your Elohim, in transgressing His covenant,

3 and has gone and served other gods, and worshiped them; or the sun, or the moon, or of the host of the heavens, which I have not commanded;

4 and it has been revealed to you, and you have heard, and searching have searched; and, behold, it is true; and the thing is confirmed, that this hateful thing has been done in Israel,

5 then you shall bring out to your gates that man or that woman who has done this evil thing, the man or the woman; and you shall stone them with stones, and they shall die.

6 At the mouth of two witnesses or three witnesses shall he that is to die

1 It was a great blessing and a command to appear before Yahweh at feast time with your blessing in your hand for your obedience. It was one of the greatest punishments of their Diaspora that Israel could no longer appear before Yahweh in Jerusalem at feast times. Being in the land was synonymous with being in covenant relationship. We don't see any land covenant promises outside the land of Israel, only promises of restoration in the last days back into the physical land of Israel and back into covenant relationship.

2 These were subordinates who would carry out the sentence given by the judge.

3 The word for pillar is Asherim. These were images of Asherah, the mother goddess of 70 false gods including Baal. The symbol of this cult was the trunk of a tree. Pagans believed that Asherah was the wife of Yahweh.

4 Speaking of pagan worship. Anywhere a believer goes the Torah should sanctify them from the ways of pagan worship.

be put to death. He shall not be put to death at the mouth of one witness.

7 The hand of the witnesses shall be first on him, to put him to death; and the hand of all the people last. And you shall cut off the evil from among you.

8 If a matter is too hard for you in judgment, between blood and blood, between cause and cause, or between stroke and stroke, matters of strife within your gates, then you shall rise and go up to the place which YAHWEH your Elohim shall choose (Jerusalem).

9 And you shall come in to the priest, of the Levites, and to the judge who is in those days, and shall inquire. And they shall declare the word of judgment to you.

10 And you shall do according to the word which they declare to you from that place which YAHWEH shall choose (Jerusalem). And you shall be careful to do according to all that they direct you.

11 You shall do according to the mouth of the Torah which they direct you, and according to the judgment which they deliver to you. You shall not turn aside from the word which they declare to you, right or left.

12 And the man who acts with pride so as not to listen to the priest who is standing to serve YAHWEH your Elohim there, or to the judge, even that man shall die; and you shall cut off the evil from Israel[1].

13 And all the people shall hear, and fear, and shall not presume any more.[2]

14 When you come into the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you, and have possessed it, and settled in it; and you shall say, Let me set a king over me like all the nations around me,

15 then you shall certainly set a king over you whom Yahweh your Elohim shall choose from among your brothers. You may not give an alien the rule over you, one who is not your brother.

16 Only, he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to turn back to Egypt so as to multiply horses, since YAHWEH has said to you, You shall not again return in this way any more.

17 And he shall not multiply wives to himself, and his heart shall not turn aside. And he shall not greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

18 And it shall be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he shall write for himself a copy of this Torah in a book, from before the priests, the Levites.

19 And it shall be with him, and he shall read in it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear YAHWEH your Elohim, to keep all the Words of this Torah and these statutes, to do them;

20 so that his heart may not be lifted up above his brothers, and that he may not turn aside from the commandment, to the right or to the left; so that he may prolong his days over his kingdom, he and his sons in the midst of Israel.

1 It is noteworthy to state that one was obligated to listen to the judgment of the priest whether it was correct in their eyes or not.

2 VS 8-13- Yahweh is setting His judicial order in matters of judgment and also setting the precedent that He appoints His leaders and His authority is with them in their decision making. By going against the judgment of the leader that Yahweh appointed, in essence, they would be going against Yahweh Himself who placed the leader. (Ex 16:1-8)

Chapter 18

1 The priests, the Levites, all the tribe of Levi shall have no portion or inheritance with Israel. They shall eat fire offerings of YAHWEH, even His inheritance.
2 And he shall have no inheritance among his brothers. YAHWEH Himself is his inheritance, as He has spoken to him. (Num 8:13-18, Num 18: 6-14, 20-24)
3 And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from those that offer a sacrifice, whether an ox or sheep, that they shall give to the priest the leg, and the two cheeks, and the stomach,
4 the first of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your flock, you shall give to him[1].
5 For YAHWEH your Elohim has chosen him out of all your tribes to stand to serve in the name of YAHWEH, he and his sons continually.
6 And if a Levite comes from one of your gates of all Israel, where he has been living, and comes with all the desire of his soul to the place which YAHWEH shall choose,
7 then he shall serve in the name of YAHWEH his Elohim, as all his brothers the Levites who stand before YAHWEH do.
8 They shall eat portion like portion, except of the sales of what belonged to his father[2].
9 When you come to the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you, you shall not learn to do according to the hateful acts of those nations.
10 There shall not be found in you one who passes his son or his daughter through the fire, one that uses divination, an observer of clouds, or one fortune-telling, or a spell caster,
11 or a magic charmer, or one consulting spirits, or a wizard, or one communicating with the dead. (Deut 12:29-32, Ex 22:18)
12 For all doing these things are an abomination to YAHWEH. And because of these filthy acts YAHWEH your Elohim is expelling these nations before you.
13 You shall be perfect with YAHWEH your Elohim.
14 For these nations whom you shall expel listen to observers of clouds, and to those divining. But as to you, YAHWEH your Elohim has not given to you to do so.
15 YAHWEH your Elohim shall raise up to you a prophet from among you, of your brothers, one like me; you shall listen to him[3], 16 according to all that you desired of YAHWEH your Elohim in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of YAHWEH my Elohim, nor let me see this great fire any more, lest I die.
17 And YAHWEH said to me, They have spoken well, what they have said.
18 I shall raise up a prophet to them from among their brothers, one like you; and I will put My Words in his mouth; and he shall speak to them all that I shall command him. (Joh 1:21, Joh 5:45-47, Joh 6:14, 7:40)
19 And it shall be, whoever will not listen to My Words which he shall speak in My name, I will require it at his hand.

20 But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in My name, that which I have not commanded him to speak, and who speaks in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die[1].
21 And if you say in your heart, How shall we know the word which YAHWEH has not spoken? (Is 8:20)
22 When a prophet speaks in the name of YAHWEH, if the thing does not happen or come about, that is the thing which YAHWEH has not spoken; that prophet has spoken it proudly; you shall not be afraid of him.

Chapter 19

1 When YAHWEH your Elohim shall cut off the nations whose land YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you, and when you dispossess them, and live in their cities, and in their houses,
2 you shall separate three cities for you in the midst of your land, which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving you to possess it.
3 You shall prepare the way for yourself, and shall divide into three parts the border of your land which YAHWEH your Elohim shall cause you to inherit, so that every manslayer may flee there.
4 And this is the case of the manslayer who shall flee there, that he may live: whoever strikes his neighbor without knowing, and has not hated him yesterday and the day before;
5 even he who goes into the forest with his neighbor to cut wood, and his hand brings a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the iron head slips from the wood and finds his neighbor so that he dies; he shall flee to one of these cities, and shall live;
6 that the avenger of blood not pursue the manslayer when his heart is hot, and shall overtake him because the way is long, and shall strike him so as to die, and he had no sentence of death, for he did not hate him yesterday or the day before.
7 On account of this I am commanding you, saying, You shall separate to yourself three cities. (Num 35:9-29)
8 And if YAHWEH your Elohim shall enlarge your border, as He has sworn to your fathers, and shall give to you all the land which He has spoken to give to your fathers,
9 if you will keep these commandments which I am commanding you today, to love YAHWEH your Elohim, and to walk in His ways forever, then you shall add to yourself another three cities to these three.
10 And innocent blood shall not be shed in the midst of your land, which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you as an inheritance, and there be blood on you.
11 And if a man hates his neighbor, and lies in wait for him, and rises up against him, and strikes his life from him, so that he dies, and flees to one of these cities,
12 then the elders of his city shall send and bring from him there, and give him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.
13 Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall put away the innocent blood from Israel, and it shall be well with you.
14 You may not remove your neighbor's landmark, which those formerly have set in your inheritance, which you shall inherit in the land

[1] Any prophet in the bible without fail was spoken to by the Creator's name Yahweh. In turn, anyone claiming to be a prophet must only speak in the name of Yahweh or he would be put to death.

which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving you, to possess it.

15 One witness shall not rise against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin which he sins. At the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses a thing shall be established[1].

16 If a vicious witness rises up against any man to charge apostasy against him,

17 then both the men who have the dispute shall stand before YAHWEH, before the priests and the judges who shall be in those days.

18 And the judges shall carefully investigate and, behold, if the witness is a false witness, and he has testified falsely against his brother,

19 then you shall do to him as he plotted to do to his brother. And you shall put away the evil from among you. (Deut 17:6-7, 1 Cor 5:12-13)

20 And those who remain shall hear and fear, and thereafter shall not add to commit any such evil among you.

21 And your eye shall not pity; life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot[2].

Chapter 20

1 When you go out to battle against your enemies, and see horses and chariots, a people more than you, you shall not be afraid of them. For YAHWEH your Elohim is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.

2 And it shall be, when you draw near to battle, the priest shall come and speak to the people,

3 and say to them. Hear, Israel, you are drawing near today to battle against your enemies. Do not let your heart be faint; do not fear nor tremble, nor be terrified before their faces.

4 For YAHWEH your Elohim is He who is going before you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you[3]. (Ex 14:13-14)

5 And the officers shall speak to the people, saying, Who is the man that has built a new house, and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, that he not die in battle and another man dedicate it.

6 And who is the man that has planted a vineyard, and has not used its fruit? Let him go and return to his house, that he not die in battle, and another man use its fruit.

7 And who is the man who has betrothed a woman, and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, that he not die in the battle, and another man take her.[4]

8 And the officers shall speak further to the people, and say, Who is the man who is afraid, and faint of heart? Let him go and return to his house; then the heart of his brothers will not melt like his heart. (Jud 7:2-3)

9 And it shall be, when the officers have finished speaking to the people, commanders of the armies shall be appointed at the head of the people.

10 When you come near a city to fight against it, then call to it for peace.

11 And it shall be, if it answers peace to you, and shall open to you, then it

1 This principle is also reiterated in Math 18:16, where at least 2 witnesses must corroborate an offense. Lev 5:1, Num 35:30

2 This means to 'let the punishment fit the crime'. It should also be noted here that it is speaking to the leaders of the nation for proper justice not for individual vindictive purposes.

3 Every aspect of life including war was tied in with wanting the help of Elohim. Many times it was the priest who would lead the charge when going to war.

4 Here we see how compassionate YHWH is even in times of war considering each and every detail of one's life.

shall be that all the people found in it shall be forced laborers for you, and shall serve you.

12 And if it shall not make peace with you, and shall make war with you, then you shall lay siege against it.

13 And YAHWEH your Elohim shall give it into your hand; and you shall strike every male of it by the mouth of the sword.

14 Only, the women, and the little ones, and the livestock, and all in the city, all its plunder, you shall seize for yourself. And you shall eat the plunder of your enemies which YAHWEH your Elohim has given to you.

15 So you shall do to all the cities very far away from you, which are not of the cities of these nations.

16 But of the cities of these peoples which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you as an inheritance, you shall not keep alive any that breathes.

17 But you shall utterly destroy them, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, as YAHWEH your Elohim has commanded you; (Deut 7:1)

18 so that they may not teach you to do according to all their filthy deeds which they have done for their elohim; and you would sin against YAHWEH your Elohim.[1]

19 When you shall lay siege to a city many days, to fight against it, to capture it, you shall not destroy its trees in order to force an axe against them. For you shall eat of them, and you shall not cut them down; for is the tree of the field a man, that it should be used by you to lay siege?

20 Only the tree which you know not to be a fruit tree, you may destroy it, and may cut it down[2], and may build a bulwark against the city making war with you, until you have subdued it.

Chapter 21

1 If one is found slain in the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you, to possess it, lying in the field, and it is not known who has struck him;

2 then your elders and your judges shall come out. And they shall measure to the cities which are around the one slain.

3 And it shall be, that the city nearest to the one slain, even the elders of that city shall take a heifer of the herd, which has not been worked with, and which has not drawn in the yoke.

4 And the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to an ever-flowing stream, which is not plowed nor sown. And they shall break the heifer's neck there by the stream[3].

5 And the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near (for YAHWEH your Elohim has chosen them to minister to Him, and to bless in the name of YAHWEH) and by their mouth shall every controversy and every stroke be tried.

6 And all the elders of that city nearest to the one slain shall wash their hands by the stream, over the heifer whose neck was broken.

7 And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, nor have our eyes seen it.

8 O YAHWEH, be merciful to Your

1 Yahweh strictly commands that His covenant people do not follow the pagan wicked practices of the people of the land, but only His judgments and Torah. Deut 12:30-32, 18:10-12. Lev 18:3-4, 24-26

2 This truly showed how debase people were that trees were more valued than people. (Jon 4:9-11) people Israel, whom You have redeemed, and do not allow innocent blood in the midst of Your people Israel. And the blood shall be forgiven them.

9 And you shall put away the innocent blood from among you, for you shall do that which is right in the eyes of YAHWEH.
10 When you go out to battle against your enemies, and YAHWEH your Elohim has given them into your hands, and you have taken them captive;
11 and you have seen in the captivity a woman of beautiful form, and you desire her, even to take her to you for a wife,
12 then you shall bring her into the midst of your household. And she shall shave her head, and prepare her nails,
13 and shall remove the clothing of her captivity from her, and shall live in your house, and shall sorrow for her father and her mother a month of days. Then afterwards you shall go in to her, and shall marry her; and she shall be a wife to you.
14 And it shall be, if you do not delight in her, you shall send her away at her desire[1]; and you shall not at all sell her for silver; you shall not treat her as a slave, because you have humbled her.
15 If a man has two wives, the one loved, and the other hated; and they have borne him sons, both the loved one and the hated one; and if the firstborn son was of her who was hated[2],
16 then it shall be, in the day that he causes his sons to inherit that which is his, he is not able to cause to inherit the first-born son of the one loved before the first-born son of the one hated, who is truly the first-born.
17 But he shall respect the first-born, the son of the hated one, by giving him a double portion of all that he has; for he is the first-fruit of his strength, the right of the first-born is his[3].
18 If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not listen to his father's voice, or his mother's voice; even though they discipline him, he will not listen to them;
19 then his father and his mother shall lay hold on him and bring him out to the elders of his city, and to the gate of his place;
20 and they shall say to the elders of his city, This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious; he will not listen to our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard.
21 And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, and he shall die[4]. So you shall put away the evil from among you that all Israel shall hear, and fear.
22 And if a man has committed a sin worthy of death, and he is executed, and you hang him on a tree, 23 his body shall not remain all night on the tree; but surely, you shall bury him the same day[5]. For he that is hanged is a reproach to Elohim. And

1 This could only take place if the woman agreed to leave and then the law was meant as a humane act to the slave woman.

2 Although having multiple wives is never condoned in scripture, we also never see it to be clearly defined as sin in the Tanach. Yet, it is evident by example that family dysfunction would occur, and from the New Testament and Yahshua, we clearly see it was never the will of Yahweh and is forbidden to any New Covenant believer (Mk 10:1-10)

you shall not defile your land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you as an inheritance.

Chapter 22

1 You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep driven away, and hide yourself from them. surely you shall return them back to your brother.

2 And if your brother is not near you, and you do not know him, then you shall surely bring it home to your house; and it shall be with you until your brother inquires of it; and you shall restore it to him.

3 And so you shall do with his donkey, and so you will do with his clothing, and so you shall do with everything lost of your brother's, which he has lost and you have found; you may not hide it.

4 You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen down in the highway, and hide yourself from them. Surely, you shall help him lift it up.

5 There shall not be the thing of a man on a woman, nor shall a man put on a woman's garment. For whoever does these things is an abomination to YAHWEH your Elohim.[1]

6 If a bird's nest happens to be before you in the way in any tree, or on the ground, with young ones, or eggs; and the mother is sitting on the young, or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young. (Is 10:14)

7 But in every case you shall let the mother go, and take the young for yourself, so that it may be well with you, and you may prolong your days.

8 When you build a new house, then you shall make a guardrail for your roof, so that you do not put blood on your house if someone falls from it.

9 You shall not sow your vineyard with different kinds of seeds, that the fruit of your seed which you have sown and the fruit of your vineyard not be defiled.

10 You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together[2]. (2 Cor 6:14)

11 You shall not wear a garment of different kinds, of wool and linen together[3].

12 You shall make for yourself tassels on the four corners of your cloak which you cover with. (Num 15:37-41)

13 If any man takes a wife, and goes in to her, and hates her,

14 then makes against her shameful charges, and brings up an evil name on her, and says, I took this woman, and when I came near her, I did not find in her the tokens of virginity.

15 Then the girl's father and her mother shall take and bring the girl's tokens of virginity[4] to the elders of the city in the gate.

16 And the girl's father shall say to the elders, I have given my daughter to this man for a wife, and he hates her.

17 And, behold, he has laid shameful charges, saying, I have not found in your daughter the tokens of virginity. And yet see these tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the garment before the elders of the city.

[4] This was the stained bloody sheet from the wedding night proving her virginity.

18 And the elders of that city shall take that man and punish him[5].
19 And they shall fine him a hundred pieces of silver, and give them to the girl's father, because he has brought an evil name on a virgin of Israel. And she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days.
20 But if this thing is true that tokens of virginity have not been found for the girl,
21 then they shall bring out the girl to the door of her father's house. And the men of her city shall stone her with stones, and she shall die; for she has done folly in Israel, to commit fornication in her father's house. And you shall put away the evil from among you. (Deut 23:17-18, Lev 19:29, Lev 21:9, Deut 17:6)
22 If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die, the man that lay with the woman, and the woman. And you shall put away the evil from Israel.
23 If there is a girl that is a virgin, betrothed to a man, and a man finds her in the city, and they commit fornication together,
24 then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city. And you shall stone them with stones so that they die, the girl because she did not cry out, being in the city; and the man, because he has humbled his neighbor's wife[2]. And you shall put away the evil from among you.
25 But if a man finds a betrothed girl in the field, and the man forces her and lies with her; then only the man that lay with her shall die.
26 And you shall do nothing to the girl; the girl has no sin worthy of death; for as when a man rises against his neighbor and murders him, even so is this matter.
27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed girl cried out, but no one saved her.
28 If a man finds a virgin girl, not being betrothed, and manipulates her and commits fornication with her[3], and they be found;
29 then the man lying with her shall give to the girl's father fifty pieces of silver, and she shall be his wife, because he has humbled her. He may not put her away all his days.
30 A man shall not take his father's wife, and shall not uncover his father's skirt. (1Cor 5:1)

Chapter 23

1 He being wounded, crushed, or cut in his male member shall not enter into the assembly of YAHWEH[4].
2 An illegitimate child shall not enter into the congregation of YAHWEH, even to the tenth generation none of his shall enter into the assembly of YAHWEH.
3 An Ammonite or a Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of YAHWEH; even to the tenth generation shall none of them enter into the assembly of YAHWEH, perpetually;[5]

3 In the Hebrew it denotes that both parties were willing participants in the act.
4 Seems to indicate someone was purposely doing this to mimic a pagan practice.
5 The word for "Moabite" is in the masculine form denoting that this only applies to men and not woman, see Ruth 1:4.

of Beor, from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you.
5 But YAHWEH your Elohim would not listen to Balaam, and YAHWEH your Elohim turned the curse into a blessing to you, because YAHWEH your Elohim loved you. (Num 24:10, Pr 26:2, Pr 16:7, 1 Joh 4:4) 6 You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days, perpetually.
7 You shall not despise an Edomite, for he is your brother.[1] You shall not despise an Egyptian, for you were an alien in his land;
8 sons of the third generation that are born to them may enter into the assembly of YAHWEH.
9 When you go forth into camp against your enemies, then keep yourself from every evil thing.
10 If there is among you any man who is not clean because of a discharge at night, then he shall go to the outside of the camp; he shall not come in to the middle of the camp.
11 And it shall be, as evening is turning, he shall bathe with water, and as the sun is going, he shall come into the middle of the camp.
12 Also you shall have a place outside the camp, and you shall go out there.
13 And you shall have a tool on your staff. And it shall be, as you sit outside, you shall dig with it, and shall turn back, and shall cover that which comes from you.
14 For YAHWEH your Elohim walks in the middle of your camp to deliver you and to give up your enemies before you; therefore your camp shall be holy, so that He may see no unclean thing in you, and turn away from you.[2] 15 You shall not hand over to his master a slave that has escaped from his master to you. (Deut 24:7) 16 He shall live with you, among you, in the place which he chooses inside one of your gates, wherever it is good to him. You shall not oppress
him.[3]
17 There shall be no harlot among the daughters of Israel, nor shall there be a homosexual among the sons of Israel. (1 Cor 6:9)
18 You shall not bring the hire of a prostitute, or the price of a dog[4], into the house of YAHWEH your Elohim for any vow; for even both of these are an abomination to YAHWEH your Elohim.
19 You shall not lend at interest to your brother; interest of silver, interest of food, interest of anything loaned at interest. (Lev 25:35-37) 20 To a stranger you may lend at interest, but you shall not lend at interest to your brother, so that YAHWEH your Elohim may bless you in all that you put your hand to, in the land where you go to possess it.
21 When you shall vow a vow to YAHWEH your Elohim, you shall not delay to perform it; for YAHWEH your Elohim will certainly require it of you, and it shall be sin to you. (Num 30:2, Eccl 5:4-6, Math 5:37)
22 But if you shall forebear to vow, it shall be no sin to you.
23 That which has gone out of your lips, you shall keep, and shall do it.
According as you have vowed as a freewill offering to YAHWEH your

[1] Edomites come from Esau, who was the brother of Jacob.

Elohim, do even that which you have spoken with your mouth.[1]

24 When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, then you may eat grapes to your fill, at your pleasure. But you shall not put any in your vessel.

25 When you come into your neighbor's standing grain, then you may pluck heads with your hand; but you shall not move a sickle into your neighbor's standing grain.

Chapter 24

1 When a man has taken a wife and married her, and it happens that she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found a thing of uncleanness in her, and he writes her a bill of divorce and puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house;

2 and if she goes out from his house[2] and goes and becomes another man's wife,

3 and the latter husband hates her, and writes her a bill of divorce, and puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house or if the latter husband who took her to be his wife dies;

4 her former husband who sent her away is not to take her again to be his wife, after she is defiled. For it is an abomination before YAHWEH, and you shall not cause the land to sin which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you as an inheritance. (Heb 6:4-6)

5 When a man has taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, and he shall not be given any thing to do. He shall be free at his own house for one year, and shall gladden his wife whom he has taken.

6 No one shall take in pledge the lower and upper millstone, for he is taking a man's life to pledge.[3]

7 If a man is found stealing a person of his brothers of the sons of Israel, and has dealt with him as a slave, and sold him, then that thief shall die. And you shall put away the evil from among you. (Ex 21:16)

8 Be on guard in the plague of leprosy, that you watch closely and do according to all that the Levitical priests shall teach you. As I commanded them, so you shall be careful to do.

9 Remember that which YAHWEH your Elohim did to Miriam in the way, as you came out of Egypt.

10 When you lend your neighbor any kind of loan, you shall not go into his house to get his pledge.

11 You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you lend shall bring the pledge outside to you.

12 And if the man is poor, you shall not sleep with his pledge.

[1] Verses 21-23- Today, people take very lightly making commitments to both YHWH and man and then, casually break them without wanting any consequences. Here we see that when one vows something to YHWH, he is bound to fulfill His word and that is why the marriage covenant is "till death do them part". As they vowed this very thing to YHWH and each other and entered covenant relationship, Mal 2:14-17.

[2] This chapter is not condoning the practice of divorce, but is warning the woman not to leave even if the husband serves her a paper of divorce, as if she left and went to become another man's wife she could never come back to her first husband (Jer 3:1). This is a shadow of the New Covenant as if someone is baptized and has hands laid on them to join the New Covenant and become the bride of Messiah and then they would leave and turn his/her back on Yahshua, they can never return again and have blasphemed Yahweh's spirit. Heb 6:4-6

[3] The millstone was used to grind flour for bread and was essential for survival of one's family.

13 You shall certainly give back the pledge to him at sundown; and he shall lie down in his own clothing, and shall bless you. And it shall be righteousness to you before YAHWEH your Elohim.[1]

14 You shall not oppress a poor and needy hired servant, of your brothers or of your aliens who are in your land, within your gates.

15 In the same day you shall give him his hire; do not let the sun go down on it. For he is poor, and has lifted up his heart on it; that he not cry against you to YAHWEH, and it be sin against you.

16 The fathers shall not be executed for sons, and sons shall not be executed for fathers; they each shall be executed for his own sin. (Eze 18:20)

17 You shall not pervert judgment of an alien, or of an orphan; and you shall not take a widow's garment as pledge. (Ex 22:22, Pr 23:10, Ja 1:27)

18 But you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and YAHWEH your Elohim redeemed you from there. For that reason I command you to do this thing.

19 When you cut down your harvest in your field, and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you shall not turn back to take it. It shall be for the alien, for the orphan, and for the widow; so that YAHWEH your Elohim shall bless you in all the work of your hand. (Lev 19:9, 23:22, Pr 19:17, 28:27)

20 When you beat your olive tree, you shall not search the branch behind you. It shall be for the alien, for the orphan, and for the widow.

21 When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not glean it afterward. It shall be for the alien, for the orphan, and for the widow.

22 And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt. On account of this I am commanding you to do this thing.

Chapter 25

1 If there is a contention between men, and they come to judgment, and they have been judged, and the righteous one is declared righteous, and the wrongdoer declared guilty;

2 then it shall be, if the wrongdoer is a son of stripes, the judge shall cause him to fall down. And one shall strike him before his face, enough for his wickedness, by number.

3 He may give him forty stripes; he shall not add more, lest, if he should exceed and beat him above these with many stripes, then your brother would be dishonored before your eyes.[2]

4 You shall not muzzle an ox when he is treading out grain.[3] (1 Cor 9:9)

5 If brothers live together, and one of them dies, and has no son, the wife of the dead shall not go outside to a strange man; her brother-in-law shall go in to her, and take her to himself for a wife, and shall perform the duty of the levirate;

6 and it shall be, the first-born which she bears shall rise up for his dead brother's name, and his name shall not be wiped out of Israel.

7 And if the man does not desire to take his brother's wife then his brother's wife shall go up to the gate, to the elders, and say, My husband's brother is refusing to raise up a name to his brother in Israel; he has not been willing to perform the duty of my levirate. (Eccl 4:8)

8 And the elders of his city shall call for him and shall speak to him. And he shall stand and say, I have no desire to take her. (Ruth 4:1-10)
9 Then his brother's wife shall draw near to him before the elders, and shall take his shoe from his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So it shall be done to the man who will not build up the house of his brother. (Gen 38:8-10)
10 And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him whose shoe was taken off.[1] 11 When men fight together, a man and his brother, and the wife of the one shall come near to deliver her husband from his assailant's hand, and shall put out her hand and lay hold on his genitals, 12 then you shall cut off her palm; your eye shall not pity.
13 You shall not have in your bag a stone and a stone weight, a great and a small. (Pr 11:1, 20:23, Mic 6:11)
14 You shall not have in your house an ephah and an ephah, a great and a small.
15 You shall have a perfect and just weight; you shall have a perfect and just ephah; so that they prolong your days in the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you.
16 For anyone doing these things is hateful to YAHWEH your Elohim, everyone doing unrighteousness.[2]
17 Remember what Amalek did to you by the way as you came forth out of Egypt; (Ex 17:8-16)
18 how he met you on the way and attacked your back, all the feeble ones in the rear, when you were faint and weary; and he did not fear Elohim.
19 And it shall be, when YAHWEH your Elohim gives you rest from all your enemies all around in the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you as an inheritance to possess it, you shall blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under the heavens; you shall not forget. (Deut 7:1, Neh 13:1)

Chapter 26

1 And it shall be, when you have come into the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you as an inheritance, and you have possessed it, and live in it;
2 then you shall take of the first of all the fruit of the ground which you shall bring in from your land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you, and shall put it in a basket, and shall go to the place which YAHWEH your Elohim shall choose to cause His name to dwell there (Jerusalem). (Ex 22:29)
3 And you shall come to the priest who is in those days, and shall say to him, I declare today to YAHWEH your Elohim that I have come into the land which YAHWEH has sworn to our fathers to give to us.
4 And the priest shall take the basket out of your hand and place it before the altar of YAHWEH your Elohim.
5 And you shall speak and say before YAHWEH your Elohim, My father

[1] Verses 5-10 is called the law of the levirate and shows the importance in ancient days about continuation of seed in a family and inheritance in the eyes of the people. Dying without an heir was about the worst thing that could happen to someone (Eccl 4:8).

[2] Verses 13-16- In ancient times many things were bartered and the seller would use a scale of weights or a measure and some dishonest people had a false weight or measure with the intent to cheat people.

was a perishing Aramean![3] And he went down to Egypt with few men, and lived there, and became a nation there, great, mighty and many.

6 And the Egyptians dealt ill with us, and afflicted us, and put hard labor on us.

7 And we cried to YAHWEH, the Elohim of our fathers, and YAHWEH heard our voice, and saw our affliction, and our labor, and our oppression.

8 And YAHWEH brought us out from Egypt by a mighty hand, and by an arm stretched out, and by great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders.

9 And He has brought us to this place, and has given to us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.

10 And now, behold, I have brought in the first of the fruits of the ground which You have given me, O YAHWEH. And you shall place it before YAHWEH your Elohim, and bow yourself before YAHWEH your Elohim,

11 and rejoice in all the good which YAHWEH your Elohim has given to you, and to your house, you, and the Levite, and the alien who is in your midst.

12 When you have made an end of tithing all the tithes of your increase the third year, the year of tithing, and have given it to the Levite, the alien, the orphan, and the widow, that they may eat inside your gates, and be filled, (Deut 14:28-29, Neh 10:34-39)

13 then you shall say before YAHWEH your Elohim, I have consumed the devoted things from the house, and also have given them to the Levite, and to the alien, to the orphan, and to the widow, according to all Your command which You have commanded me. I have not transgressed Your commands, and I have not forgotten.

14 I have not eaten of it in my mourning; nor have I put any of it away for uncleanness; nor have I given of it for the dead. I have listened to the voice of YAHWEH my Elohim. I have done according to all that You have commanded me.

15 Look down from Your holy habitation, from Heaven, and bless Your people Israel, and the land which You have given to us, as You swore to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.

16 Today YAHWEH your Elohim commands you to do these statutes and judgments. You shall be careful to do them with all your heart, and with all your soul.

17 You have today declared YAHWEH to be your Elohim, and to walk in His ways, and to keep His statutes and His commandments, and His judgments, and to pay attention to His voice.

18 And YAHWEH has declared you today to be His people, a special treasure as He has spoken to you, and to keep all His commandments. (1 Pe 2:9, Ex 19:5-6)

19 And He will make you high above all nations that He has made, in praise, and in name, and in glory; and that you may be a holy people to YAHWEH your Elohim, as He has spoken.

Chapter 27

1 And Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commands which I am commanding you today,

2 and it shall be in the day you cross over the Jordan to the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you, that you shall raise up for yourself great stones, and plaster them with plaster. (Jos 4:1-3)

3 And you shall write on them all the Words of this Torah when you have crossed over, so that you may go into the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as YAHWEH the Elohim of your fathers has promised you.

4 And it shall be when you have crossed over the Jordan, that you shall raise up these stones as to which I am commanding you today, in Mount Ebal, and you shall plaster them with plaster. (Deut 11:29)

5 And you shall build an altar there to YAHWEH your Elohim, an altar of stones. You shall not wield any iron tool on them.

6 You shall build the altar of YAHWEH your Elohim of uncut stones. And you shall offer burnt offerings on it to YAHWEH your Elohim. (Jos 8:30-34)

7 And you shall offer peace offerings, and shall eat there. And you shall rejoice before YAHWEH your Elohim.

8 And you shall write on the stones all the Words of the Torah very plainly.

9 And Moses and the priests, the Levites, spoke to all Israel, saying, Keep silence, and hear, O Israel: Today you have become the people of YAHWEH your Elohim.

10 Therefore you shall obey the voice of YAHWEH your Elohim and do His commandments and His statutes which I command you today.

11 And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

12 These shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people when you have crossed over the Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin.

13 And these shall stand on Mount Ebal to curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. (Jos 8:33)

14 And the Levites shall answer, and shall say to all the men of Israel with a loud voice:

15 Cursed is the man who makes a carved and cast image, an abomination to YAHWEH, the work of a crafts-man's hands, and who sets it up in a secret place! And all the people shall answer and say, Amen! (Ex 20:4)

16 Cursed is he who dishonors his father or his mother! And all the people shall say, Amen! (Ex 20:12)

17 Cursed is he who removes his neighbor's landmark! And all the people shall say, Amen! (Deut 19:14)

18 Cursed is he who makes the blind to wander out of the way! And all the people shall say, Amen! (Lev 19:14)

19 Cursed is he who perverts the judgment of the alien, the fatherless, and widow! And all the people shall say, Amen! (Ex 22:21, Ja 1:27)

20 Cursed is he who lies with his father's wife, because he uncovers his father's skirt! And all the people shall say, Amen! (Lev 18:7)

21 Cursed is he who lies with any kind of animal! And all the people shall say, Amen! (Ex 22:19)

22 Cursed is he who lies with his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter! And all the people shall say, Amen! (Lev 18:9)

23 Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law! And all the people shall say, Amen! (Lev 20:14)

24 Cursed is he who strikes his neighbor secretly! And all the people shall say, Amen! (Ex 21:12)

25 Cursed is he who takes a bribe to strike a life, to shed innocent blood! And all the people shall say, Amen! (Ex 23:7-8, Lev 19:16)

26 Cursed is he who does not carry out to do all the Words of this Torah, to do them! And all the people shall say, Amen![1] (Gal 3:10)

Chapter 28

1 And it shall be if carefully you will listen to the voice of YAHWEH your Elohim, taking heed to do all His commandments which I command you this day, YAHWEH your Elohim shall give you to be on high above all nations of the earth.
2 And all these blessings shall come on you and overtake you if you will listen to the voice of YAHWEH your Elohim[2].
3 You shall be blessed in the city, and you shall be blessed in the field.
4 The fruit of your body shall be blessed, and the fruit of your ground, and the fruit of your livestock, the offspring of your oxen, and the young ones of your flock.
5 Your basket and your kneading-trough shall be blessed.
6 You shall be blessed when you come in, and you shall be blessed when you go out.
7 YAHWEH shall cause your enemies that rise up against you to be stricken before your face. They shall come out against you one way, and flee before you seven ways.
8 YAHWEH shall command the blessing on you in your storehouses and all that you set your hand to. And He shall bless you in the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you.
9 YAHWEH shall establish you a holy people to Himself, as He has sworn to you, if you shall keep the commandments of YAHWEH your Elohim and walk in His ways.
10 And all the peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of YAHWEH, and they shall be afraid of you[3].
11 And YAHWEH shall prosper you in goods, and in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground in the land which YAHWEH swore to your fathers to give it to you.
12 YAHWEH shall open to you His good treasure, the heavens to give the rain to your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand. And you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow.
13 And YAHWEH shall make you the head, and not the tail. And you shall be only above, and you shall not be beneath, if you heed the commandments of YAHWEH your Elohim, which I am commanding you today, to be watchful to do them.
14 And you shall not turn away from all the Words which I am commanding

[1] By repeating and confirming this scripture the recipient would put themselves under a curse of disobedience because no one is righteous who can keep the Torah completely. See note on Gal 3:11. Joshua warned against joining the covenant under such conditions without having an avenue to remove the penalty of sin, Jos 24:14-28

[2] This chapter clearly shows that you cannot separate the land of Israel from the covenant of Yahweh. If the people of Israel would be obedient to the Torah, then they would be blessed and the land would be blessed. If they did not, then they would be cursed and the land cursed and eventually they would be dispelled from the land.

[3] Yahweh is a family name consisting of Yah Yahweh the Father, and Yahshua Yahweh the Son. When someone is baptized into the New Covenant into the family name of Yahweh they are literally joining His family and that brings great blessing and protection and people will see this and have fear to go against a family member of YHWH. Ro 8:14-17, Gen 20:1-18 you today, to the right or to the left, to go after other gods, to serve them.

15 And it shall be, if you will not heed the voice of your Elohim, to take heed to do all His commandments and His statutes which I am commanding you today, even all these curses shall come on you and overtake you:[1] 16 You shall be cursed in the city, and you shall be cursed in the field.
17 Your basket and your kneadingtrough shall be cursed.
18 The fruit of your body shall be cursed, and the fruit of your land, the offspring of your oxen, and the young ones of your sheep.
19 You shall be cursed when you come in, and you shall be cursed when you go out.
20 YAHWEH shall send cursing on you, trouble and rebuke in all that you set your hand, all which you will do, until you are destroyed, or until you quickly perish, because of the badness of your doings by which you have forsaken Me.
21 YAHWEH shall make the plague cling to you until He has consumed you from off the land where you are going, to possess it.
22 YAHWEH shall strike you with lung disease and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting and mildew. And they shall pursue you until you perish. (Lev 26:16)
23 And your heavens over your head shall become copper, and the earth under you iron. (Lev 26:19) 24 YAHWEH shall make the rain of your land be dust and ashes. It shall come down on you from the heavens until you are destroyed.[2] (Deut 11:17) 25 YAHWEH shall cause you to be stricken before your enemies. You shall go out one way against them, and shall flee seven ways before them. And you shall be a trembling to all the kingdoms of the earth. (Lev 26:17)
26 And your body shall be food to all the birds of the heavens, and to the beasts of the earth; and there shall be none to cause them to tremble.
27 YAHWEH shall strike you with the ulcer of Egypt, and with hemorrhoids, and with the scab, and with itch, of which you cannot be healed. (Deut 7:15)
28 YAHWEH shall strike you with madness, and with blindness, and with astonishment of heart.
29 And you shall grope at noonday as the blind grope in darkness. And you shall not prosper in your ways.
And you shall be always oppressed and plundered all the days; and there will be no one to save.
30 You shall betroth a wife, and another shall lie with her. You shall build a house, and you shall not live in it. You shall plant a vineyard, and shall not use its fruit.(Amos 5:11, Jer 12:13)
31 Your ox shall be slaughtered before your eyes, and you shall not eat of it. Your donkey shall be violently taken away from before you, and it will not be given back. Your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and you shall have no deliverer.
32 Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people; and your eyes shall look and fail for them all the day. And no power shall be in your hand. (Joel 3:6) 33 The fruit of your ground, and all your labor, shall be eaten up by a nation which you do not know. And

1 In the entirety of the Holy scriptures there is only blessings for obedience and cursing for disobedience.

2 In ancient times water was equivalent with life. Without water one could not survive and this is why many times in scripture YHWH is equated with living water, Ps 29:3, Jer 2:13, Rev 22:1.

you shall always be oppressed and crushed. (Jer 22:17)

34 And you shall be maddened because of that which you shall see with the sight of your eyes.

35 YAHWEH shall strike you with an evil boil on the knees, and on the legs, of which you cannot be healed from the sole of your foot even to your crown. (Rev 16:2, Deut 28:27)

36 YAHWEH shall cause you and your king whom you shall raise up over you, to go to a nation which you have not known, you and your fathers. And you shall serve other gods there, wood and stone. (Deut 4:27-28)

37 And you shall be an astonishment, a proverb and a byword among all the peoples where YAHWEH shall lead you.

38 You shall carry much seed out to the field, and you shall gather in little; for the locusts will devour it.

39 You shall plant vineyards, and shall labor, and you shall not gather, nor drink wine; for the worm will devour it. (Joel 1:4, Is 5:10, 17:10-11)

40 You shall have olive trees in all your border, and you shall not anoint with oil; for your olive shall fall off.

41 You shall father sons and daughters, and they shall not be with you; for they shall go into captivity.

42 The locust shall possess all your trees and the fruit of your ground.

43 The alien in your midst shall go above you, higher and higher; and you shall come down, lower and lower.

44 He shall lend to you, and you shall not lend to him. He shall be the head, and you shall be the tail.

45 And all these curses shall come on you and shall pursue you and overtake you, until you are destroyed; for you did not heed the voice of YAHWEH your Elohim, to keep His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you.

46 And they shall be on you for a sign and for a wonder, and on your seed forever,

47 because you did not serve YAHWEH your Elohim with joyfulness and with gladness of heart for the abundance of all things,

48 and you shall serve your enemies whom YAHWEH shall send on you, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in lack of all things. And He shall put an iron yoke on your neck until He has destroyed you.

49 YAHWEH shall raise a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, as the eagle flies; a nation whose tongue you will not understand,

50 a nation fierce of face, who will not regard the person of the aged, nor show favor to the young.

51 And he shall eat the fruit of your livestock, and the fruit of your land, until you are destroyed. He shall not leave to you grain, new wine, and oil, offspring of your oxen, or young ones of your flock, until he has destroyed you.

52 And he shall lay siege to you in all your gates, until your high and fortified walls in which you are trusting come down, in all your land; yea, he shall distress you in all your gates, in all your land which YAHWEH your Elohim has given to you.

53 And you shall eat the fruit of your body, the flesh of your sons and your daughters whom YAHWEH your Elohim has given to you, in the siege, and in the anguish with which your enemies shall distress you.

54 The man who is tender and very delicate among you, his eye shall be evil against his brother, and against the wife of his bosom, and against the remnant of his sons which he leaves,

55 so that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his sons that he shall eat, because he has nothing left to him in the siege, and in the anguish with which your enemies shall distress you in all your gates.

56 The soft and delicate woman among you, who would not have ventured to set the sole of her foot on the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil against the husband of her bosom, and against her son, and against her daughter;

57 and against her fetus which comes out from between her feet, even against her sons whom she shall bear. For she shall eat them in secret, for the lack of everything in the siege and in the anguish with which the enemy shall distress you within your gates.

58 If you will not take heed to do all the Words of this Torah, written in this book, to fear this glorious and fearful Name, YAHWEH your Elohim[1], 59 then YAHWEH will make your plagues remarkable, and the plagues of your children shall be great and persistent plagues with evil and long lasting sicknesses.

60 He shall also bring on you all the diseases of Egypt, of which you were afraid; and they shall cling to you.

61 Also every sickness and every plague which is not written in the book of this Torah[2], YAHWEH shall cause them to come on you until you are destroyed.

62 And you shall be left with few adult men, whereas you were as the stars of the heavens for multitude, because you would not obey the voice of YAHWEH your Elohim. (Is 24:5-6)

63 And it shall be, as YAHWEH rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you, so YAHWEH shall rejoice over you to destroy you, and to lay you waste. And you shall be plucked from the land you are going to possess.

64 And YAHWEH shall scatter you among all people, from one end of the earth even to the other, and you shall serve other gods there, wood and stone, which you have not known, nor your fathers.(Deut 4:27-28, Jer 32:23)

65 And among these nations you shall find no ease, nor shall the sole of your foot have rest. But YAHWEH shall give you there a trembling heart and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind.

66 And your life shall be in doubt before you, and you shall fear day and night, and shall have no assurance of your life.[3] (1 Joh 4:18)

67 In the morning you shall say, Oh that it were evening! And in the evening you shall say, Oh that it were morning! For the fear of your heart with which you fear, and for the sight of your eyes which you shall see.

68 And YAHWEH shall bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way of which I said to you, You shall never see it again. And you shall be sold to your enemies there, for male slaves and slave-girls; and there shall be no buyer.

Chapter 29

1 These are the Words of the covenant which YAHWEH

1 The very essence of obedience and the first step toward repentance is to recognize and acknowledge the Creator of the Torah, YAHWEH, and to give glory to His name.

2 Torah means instruction

3 The word doubt here is implied, as in ancient Hebrew there is no actual word for doubt. Doubt is a horrible plague that will lead to uncertainty and fear and also torment (1 Joh 4:18). This plague is the opposite of faith and is instilled in many in western society today.

commanded Moses to cut[1] with the sons of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which He made with them in Horeb.

2 And Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, You have seen all that YAHWEH did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants, and to all his land.

3 Your eyes have seen the great trials, the signs, and those great miracles.

4 Yet YAHWEH has not given to you a heart to know, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, until this day.

5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness; your garments have not worn out from off you, and your sandal has not worn away off your foot[2]. (Deut 8:4)

6 You have not eaten bread, and you have not drunk wine or fermented drink, so that you might know that I am YAHWEH your Elohim.

7 And you came into this place, and Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out to meet us, to battle. And we struck them,

8 and took their land, and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and for the half tribe of Manasseh. (Num 32:33)

9 Then pay attention to the Words of this covenant, and do them, that you may act wisely in all that you do. (Ro 2:13)

10 You are standing today, all of you, before YAHWEH your Elohim; your rulers, your tribes, your elders, and your officers, every man of Israel;

11 your little ones, your wives, and your foreigner who is in the midst of your camps, from the woodchopper to the one drawing your water;

12 so that you should enter into the covenant of YAHWEH your Elohim, and into His oath, which YAHWEH your Elohim is cutting with you today;

13 so that He may establish you today for a people to Himself, and He Himself be your Elohim, as He has spoken to you, and as He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham to Isaac, and to Jacob.

14 And I am not cutting this covenant and this oath with you alone,

15 but with him who stands here with us today before YAHWEH your Elohim; and also with him that is not here with us today.

16 For you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the nations through which you passed.

17 And you have seen their detestable things, and their idols of wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them;

18 that there not be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turns away today from YAHWEH our Elohim, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you today a root that bears gall and wormwood;[3]

19 and it happens when he hears the words of this curse, that he should bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, even though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart, to snatch away the drunken with the thirsty.

20 YAHWEH will not be willing to forgive him, for then the anger of [1] Agreements between men are made and broken but covenants are cut and binding and lasting.

[2] As a mother cares for her suckling child, Yahweh cared for His people (Is 49:15) and provided every need for 40 yrs in the wilderness. This was to teach them full faith in Him for everything and is a stark difference from the world we live in today where most things in the west are provided by an individual himself or the government.

[3] These were poisonous bitter plants.

YAHWEH and His zeal shall smoke, and His zeal shall be against that man, and all the curses written in this book shall lie upon him. And YAHWEH shall blot out his name from under the heavens. (Ex 32:32, Rev 3:5, 20:12,15)

21 And YAHWEH shall set him apart to evil, out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the Torah;

22 so that the generation to come, your sons who rise after you, and the foreigner who comes in from a distant land, shall say when they see the plagues of that land, and its sicknesses which YAHWEH shall send into it,

23 The whole land shall be burned with brimstone and salt; it shall not be sown, nor shall it sprout; nor shall there be any herb in it. It shall be like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboim, which YAHWEH overthrew in His anger and in His fury.[1]

24 And all the nations shall say, Why has YAHWEH done this to this land? For what is the heat of this great anger?

25 Then they shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of YAHWEH, the Elohim of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.

26 For they went and served other gods, and worshiped them, elohim which they did not know, and who had not divided to them any portion.

27 And the anger of YAHWEH was kindled against this land to bring on it all the curses that are written in this book.

28 And YAHWEH rooted them out of their land in anger and wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.

29 The secret things belong to YAHWEH our Elohim; and the things revealed belong to us and to our sons forever, that we may do all the Words of this Torah.[2] (Pr 25:2)

Chapter 30

1 And it shall be when all these things have come on you, the blessing and the curse which I have set before you among all the nations where YAHWEH your Elohim shall banish you, you shall bring these things back to your heart;

2 and shall turn back to YAHWEH your Elohim and listen to His voice, according to all that I am commanding you today, you and your sons with all your heart, and with all your soul;

3 then YAHWEH your Elohim will turn your captivity, and He will have pity on you, and will return and gather you from all the nations where YAHWEH your Elohim has scattered you.[3]

4 If you are cast out to the end of the heavens, YAHWEH your Elohim shall gather you from there, and He shall take you from there.

5 And YAHWEH your Elohim shall bring you into the land which your fathers have possessed, and you shall inherit it; and He shall do you good and multiply you above your fathers.

6 And YAHWEH your Elohim will circumcise your heart, and the heart of

1 Just like what happened at the Dead Sea. Brimstone is a sulfurous gas that comes from a volcanic eruption. You can still find remains of sulfur balls in this area.

2 One need not get caught up on all the mysteries of the universe, but simply read and obey the Torah and his life will be greatly blessed and he will inherit eternal life. Ps 19:7-11, Pr 3:1-3.

3 Jer 30:18, Eze 36:24, Ezek 34:13, Jer 31:8, Jer 3:18, Jer 50:4-5, Mic 4:6-7, Amos 9:14-15

your seed, to love YAHWEH your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your soul, that you may live. *(Deut
10:16, Ro 2:28-29)*
7 And YAHWEH your Elohim will put all these curses on your enemies, and on those that hate you, who have persecuted you.
8 And you shall return and obey the voice of YAHWEH, and do all His commandments which I am commanding you today.
9 And YAHWEH your Elohim will make you abundant in every work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, for good.
For YAHWEH will again rejoice over you for good, as He rejoiced over your fathers.
10 For you shall listen to the voice of YAHWEH your Elohim, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in the book of this Torah. For you shall turn back toward YAHWEH your Elohim, with all your heart and with all your soul.
11 For this command which I am commanding you today is not too wonderful for you, nor is it too far off.
12 It is not in the heavens that you should say, Who shall go up into the heavens for us, and bring it to us, and cause us to hear it, that we may do it?
13 And it is not beyond the sea that you should say, Who shall cross over for us to the region beyond the sea and take it for us, and cause us to hear it, that we may do it?
14 For the Word is very near to you, in your mouth and in your heart, that you may do it. (Heb 8:10-11)
15 Behold, I have set before you today life and good and death and evil, 16 in that I am commanding you today to love YAHWEH your Elohim, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes, and His judgments, and you shall live and multiply, and YAHWEH your Elohim shall bless you in the land where you are going in, to possess it[1].
17 But if you turn away your heart, and you do not listen, and are impelled to, even bow down to other gods, and serve them;
18 I have declared to you today that you shall certainly perish. You shall not prolong your days in the land to which you are crossing the Jordan, to go in there to possess it.
19 I call Heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. Therefore, choose life, that you and your seed may live,[2] 20 to love YAHWEH your Elohim, to listen to His voice, and to cleave to Him. For He is your life, and the length of your days so that you may live in the land which YAHWEH has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give it to them.

Chapter 31

1 And Moses went out and spoke these words to all Israel.
2 And he said to them, I am a hundred and twenty years old today. I am not able any more to go out and to come in. And YAHWEH has said to me, You shall not cross over this Jordan. (Num 27:12-14)
3 YAHWEH your Elohim will cross over before you; He shall destroy these nations from before you, and you shall

[1] Verses 10-16 is a beautiful poetic stanza that shows Yahweh's Torah is very simple and needs to be written in our heart for us to obey it and obedience to it is life. Throughout the entire bible you will only see blessings for obedience and cursing for disobedience.

[2] A great scripture showing life starts at conception.

possess them. Yahoshua is the one who shall cross over before you, as YAHWEH has spoken.

4 And YAHWEH shall do to them as He has done to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and to their land, which He destroyed before them.

5 And YAHWEH shall give them up before your face, and you shall do to them according to all the commandment which I have commanded you.

6 Be strong and brave. Do not fear them, or be afraid of them. For YAHWEH your Elohim is He who is going with you; He shall not fail you nor forsake you.

7 And Moses called for Yahoshua, and said to him before the eyes of all Israel, Be strong and brave, for you shall go in with this people to the land which YAHWEH has sworn to their fathers, to give it to them, and you shall cause them to inherit it.

8 And YAHWEH is He who is going before you; He Himself shall be with you; He shall not fail you nor forsake you. Do not fear nor be afraid.

9 And Moses wrote this Torah, and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, those bearing the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH, and to all the elders of Israel[1].

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of seven years in the appointed time, in the year of release, in the Feast of Sukkot,

11 when all Israel comes in to see the face of YAHWEH in the place which He chooses[2], you shall proclaim this Torah before all Israel, in their ears. (Deut 12:5, Deut 16:6, Jos 8:34-35)

12 Assemble the people, men and women, and the little ones, and your foreigner who is within your gates, so that they may hear, and so that they may learn, and may fear YAHWEH your Elohim, and take heed to do all the Words of this Torah;

13 and their sons who have not known shall hear, and shall learn to fear YAHWEH your Elohim all the days which you live on the land where you are crossing over the Jordan to possess it. (Deut 4:10, Deut 6:7)

14 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Behold, your days are coming near to die. Call Yahoshua, and present yourselves at the tent of meeting, and I shall charge him. And Moses and Yahoshua went, and they presented themselves at the tent of meeting.

15 And YAHWEH appeared at the tabernacle in a pillar of cloud; and the pillar of cloud stood at the door of the tabernacle. (Ex 33:9)

16 And YAHWEH said to Moses, Behold, you shall lie with your fathers, and this people shall rise up and go lusting after the gods of the strangers of the land into which they are going, and shall forsake Me, and shall break My covenant which I cut with them.[3]

17 And My anger shall burn against them in that day, and I shall forsake them and hide My face from them. And it shall be consumed, and many evils and distresses shall find this people. And it shall say in that day, Is it not because my Elohim is not in my midst, that these evils have found me?

18 And hiding I will hide My face in that day, because of all the evil which

[1] Moses wrote the entire Torah, there is no mention of an oral law that later came as a tradition of the Rabbis. Jos 8:34-35, Ex 24:4. Deut 31:24

[2] Jerusalem, 1 Kgs 14:21

[3] Verses 16-18- YHWH did not state this due to predestination as man has free will to choose his path, but because He knew their hardened hearts and prideful attitude to refuse to humble themselves before Him and repent and receive His spirit and grace, Ja 4:6, Acts 7:51.

this people has done, for it shall turn to other gods.

19 Now, then, write this song for you, and teach it to the sons of Israel. Put it in their mouths, so that this song shall be for a witness to Me against the sons of Israel.

20 And I shall bring them into the land flowing with milk and honey, which I have sworn to their fathers. And you shall eat and be satisfied, and become fat, and shall turn to other gods; and they shall serve them, and despise Me, and break My covenant.

21 And it shall be, when many evils and distresses have found them, this song shall testify against them as a witness. For it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed. For I know their scheme, which they are making today, before I bring them into the land which I have sworn.

22 And Moses wrote this song on that day, and taught it to the sons of Israel.

23 And He commanded Yahoshua the son of Nun, and said, Be strong and brave; for you shall bring the sons of Israel into the land which I have sworn to them, and I shall be with you.

24 And it happened, when Moses finished writing, until their completion, all the Words of this Torah in a book[1], 25 that Moses commanded the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH, saying,

26 Take this book of the Torah, and you shall put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH your Elohim, so that it may be there for a witness against you.

27 For I have known your rebellion and your stiff neck. Behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, you have been rebellious against YAHWEH. And how much more after my death!

28 Gather to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, and I shall speak in their ears these words, and cause the heavens and the earth to testify against them.

29 For I know that after my death you shall utterly corrupt yourselves, and will turn aside from the way which I have commanded you. And evil shall happen to you in the latter end of the days because you shall do evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, to make Him angry with the work of your hands.

30 And Moses spoke in the ears of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until their conclusion:

Chapter 32

1 Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak. And hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

2 My doctrine shall drop as the rain; my speech shall drop down as the dew, as the small rain on the tender plant, and as the showers on the grass;

3 because I will proclaim the name of YAHWEH and ascribe greatness to our Elohim.[2]

4 He is the Rock; His work is perfect. For all His ways are just, an El of faithfulness, and without evil; just and upright is He.

5 He has not corrupted Himself; His sons; it is their blemish; they are a crooked and perverse generation.

6 Do you thus give back to YAHWEH, O foolish and unwise people? Is He not your Father who bought you? Has not He made you and established you? (Mal 2:10)

7 Remember the ancient days,

[1] Moses wrote the entire Torah, there is no mention of an oral law that came as a tradition of the Rabbis later. Jos 8:34-35, Ex 24:4, Deut 31:9, Jos 1:8.

[2] As the "Our Father" prayer in Mathew 6:9, prayers always starts out by glorifying the wonderful, glorious name of YAHWEH.

consider the years of many generations; ask your father, and he will declare to you, your elders, and they shall say to you; (Ps 78:5-8) 8 when the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance; when He separated the sons of mankind, He set up the boundaries of the peoples, according to the number of the cherubs of Elohim[1].
9 For the portion of YAHWEH is His people; Jacob is the lot of His inheritance.
10 He found him in a desert land, and in the waste, a howling wilderness. He encircled him and cared for him; He guarded him as the pupil of His eye.
11 As the eagle stirs up its nest; it hovers over its young; it spreads out its wings and takes it, and bears it on its wing.
12 YAHWEH alone led him, and there was no strange god with him.
13 He made him ride on the high places of the earth, so that he might eat the increase of the fields. And He made him suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock; 14 butter from cows, and milk from the flock, with fat from lambs, and rams of the sons of Bashan, and he-goats, with the fat of the kidneys of wheat, and of the blood of the grape you shall drink wine.
15 But Jeshurun[2] grew fat, and kicked; you grew fat, thick and sated.
And he abandoned Elohim who made him, and fell away from the Rock of his salvation (Y'shua*).
16 With strange gods they moved Him to jealousy; and with idols they provoked Him to anger.
17 They sacrificed to demons[3] who were not Eloha, to Elohim whom they did not know, new ones who came lately. Your fathers had not dreaded them. (Lev 17:7)
18 The Rock that begat you, you neglected, and forgot the El who formed you. (Ex 23:20-22, 1 Cor 10:4) 19 And YAHWEH looked and despised them because of the provoking of His sons and of His daughters.
20 And He said, I will hide My face from them; I will see what their end will be; for they are a perverse generation, sons in whom is no faithfulness.
21 They made Me jealous with a not-El; they made Me angry by their vanities; and I shall make them jealous by a not-a-people; by a foolish nation I shall make them angry.
22 For a fire has been kindled in My anger, and it burns to the lowest part of Sheol, and consumes the earth and its produce; and sets on fire the foundations of the mountains.
23 I will heap evils on them; I will use up My arrows on them.
24 I will send on them exhaustion by famine, and depletion by burning heat, and bitter destruction, and the teeth of beasts, with the venom of crawling things of the dust.

1 The Masoretic text changed the text here to read "according to the number of the sons of Israel", but clearly the Dead Sea scrolls and the Septuagint both correctly states "according to the number of the Cherubs of Elohim". This verse is relating back to creation when Yahweh separated mankind by their races into the different regions of the earth and set cherubs in each area according to the number of people.

2 Verses 15-18 shows Israel's rebellion, however YHWH uses the word "Jeshurun", which means "upright one" and is a term of endearment to describe Israel's great potential in later years when they would turn back to Yahshua, the Son of YHWH.

3 The Hebrew word for demon is 'shad' and comes from the root meaning robbers or desolate ones.

25 The sword shall bereave from without, and terror from within, both the young man and the virgin, the suckling with the man of gray hairs.

26 I said, I will dash them to pieces; I will make their memory cease from among men;

27 saying, Were it not the provocation of an enemy I feared, that their foes should judge amiss, that they might not say, Our hand is high, and YAHWEH has not done all this.

28 For they are a nation void of counsel, and no understanding is in them.

29 If they were wise, they would understand this; they would comprehend their latter end.

30 How could one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, if it were not their Rock that sold them, and YAHWEH had shut them up? (Is 30:17)

31 For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies being judges.

32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and their grapes of the fields of Gomorrah, grapes of gall; they have bitter clusters.

33 Their wine is the venom of serpents, and the cruel venom of asps.

34 Is it not stored up with Me, sealed in My treasuries?

35 Vengeance and retribution belong to Me; in due time their foot will slip; for the day of their calamity is near, and the things prepared are hurrying for them.

36 For YAHWEH will bring His people justice; and He shall have compassion on His servants, for He sees that their power is gone, and only the imprisoned and abandoned remain.

37 And He will say, Where are their gods, the rock in which they sought refuge?

38 Who ate the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offerings? Let them rise up and help you; let it be a hiding place for you.

39 See now that I, I am He, and other elohim are nothing against Me. I kill, and I preserve alive. I wound and I heal, and there is no deliverer from My hand.

40 For I lift up My hand to the heavens and say, I live forever!

41 If I have sharpened My lightning sword, and My hand lays hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to My foes, and I will repay those who hate Me. (Eze 21:9-17)

42 I will make My arrows drunk with blood, and My sword shall devour flesh, with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the hairy head of the enemy.

43 Rejoice, O nations with Him, and let the Cherubs of Elohim worship Him. Rejoice you nations with His people; for He shall avenge the blood of His servants, and shall render vengeance to His foes, and will atone for His land and His people.

44 And Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Yahoshua the son of Nun.

45 And Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel,

46 and said to them, Set your heart on all the words which I have testified against you today, that you command your sons to take heed to do all the Words of this Torah.

47 For it is not a useless Word for you, for it is your life, and by this Word you shall prolong your days in the land where you are crossing over the Jordan, there to possess it[1].

1 If only Christian Pastors could drop the scales from their eyes to see the plainness of verses such as these and that the Torah is life and keeping it only brings life, happiness, and blessings.

48 And YAHWEH spoke to Moses in that same day, saying,
49 Go up into this Mount Abarim, to Mount Nebo in the land of Moab, which is opposite Jericho; and see the land of Canaan which I am giving to the sons of Israel for a possession;
50 and die in the mountain where you are going, and be gathered to your people, even as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor, and was gathered to his people;
51 because you transgressed toward Me among the sons of Israel at the Waters of Strife[1] in Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because you did not sanctify Me in the midst of the sons of Israel.
52 Yet you shall see the land across from you, but you shall not go in there to the land which I am giving to the sons of Israel.(Deut 34:1-3, Deut 1:37)

Chapter 33

1 And this is the blessing with which Moses the man of Elohim blessed the sons of Israel before his death.
2 And he said: YAHWEH came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir for them; He shone forth from Mount Paran, and He came from the myriads of holy ones. At His right hand a law of fire went forth to them.
3 Yes, He loves the people; all His holy ones are in Your hand; and they sit down at Your feet; He lifts up each at Your Words.
4 Moses has commanded to us Torah, an inheritance for the congregation of Jacob.
5 And he was king in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people assembled, the tribes of Israel.
6 Let Reuben live, and not die, and let his men be numbered.(Gen 49:3-4)
7 And this for Judah: And he said, Hear the voice of Judah, O YAHWEH, and bring him in to his people; his hands were much for him, and You shall be a help against his foes. (Gen 49:8-12)
8 And of Levi he said, Your Thummim and Your Urim are for Your devout man whom You tested at Massah; You contended with him at the Waters of Strife; (Lev 8:8)
9 who said of his father and his mother, I have not seen him. And he has not acknowledged his brothers, and did not know his own son, for they have kept Your Word, and observed Your covenant.
10 They shall teach Your judgments to Jacob, and Your Torah to Israel. They shall put incense at Your nostrils, and whole burnt offering on Your altar. (Mal 2:4-9)
11 O YAHWEH, bless his strength, and accept the work of his hands. Dash the loins of those rising against him, those who hate him, that they may not rise!

[4] Some have tried through replacement theology to say that heaven or another land on earth has replaced the physical land of Israel in the New Covenant, but as we see nothing could be further from the truth and that theory has no scriptural support. Ezek 20:42.

Book of Yahoshua

Chapter 1

1 And it happened after the death of Moses the servant of YAHWEH, YAHWEH spoke to Yahoshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying,
2 My servant Moses is dead. And now rise up, cross over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them, to the sons of Israel.
3 Every place on which the sole of your foot shall tread, I have given it to you, as I spoke to Moses.
4 From the wilderness, and this Lebanon, even to the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun, shall be your border.
5 No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not fail you nor will I forsake you.
6 Be strong and brave. For you shall cause this people to inherit the land which I swore to their fathers to give to them.
7 Only be strong and very brave, so that you may take heed to do according to all the Torah which Moses My servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may act wisely wherever you go.
8 This book of the Torah shall not depart out of your mouth, and you shall meditate on it by day and by night, so that you shall be on guard to do according to all that is written in it. For then you shall prosper your way, and then you shall act wisely.(Ex 24:4) 9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and brave. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for YAHWEH your Elohim is with you in all places where you go.
10 Then Yahoshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,
11 Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, Prepare food for you. For within three days you are crossing this Jordan to go in to possess the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to you, to possess it.
12 And Yahoshua spoke to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, saying,
13 Remember the word which Moses the servant of YAHWEH commanded you, saying, YAHWEH your Elohim has given you rest, and He has given to you this land.
14 Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land which Moses has given to you beyond the Jordan. But you shall cross over armed before your brothers, all the mighty warriors, and shall help them,
15 until YAHWEH has given rest to your brothers, as well as to you, and they, even they have possessed the land which YAHWEH your Elohim is giving to them. Then you may return to the land of your possession, and may possess it, which Moses the servant of YAHWEH has given to you beyond the Jordan toward the rising of the sun.
16 And they answered Yahoshua, saying, We will do all that you command us; and we will go everywhere you shall send us.
17 According to all we listened to from Moses, so we will listen to you. Surely YAHWEH your Elohim is with you, as He has been with Moses.
18 Whoever rebels against your mouth, and will not listen to your commands in all that you say to him, he shall die. Only, be strong and brave.

Chapter 2

1 And Yahoshua the son of Nun sent two men out of Shittim to spy secretly, saying, Go look over the land, and Jericho. And they went and came into the house of a woman, an inn-keeper[1]; and her name was Rahab. And they lay down there.

2 And it was reported to the king of Jericho saying, Behold, men have come here tonight from the sons of Israel, to search the land.

3 And the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, Bring out the men who have come in to you, who have come into your house. For they have come in to search out all the land.

4 And the woman took the two men and hid them, and said, This way the men came in to me, but I did not know from where they were.

5 And it happened as the gate was to be shut at dark, even the men went out. I do not know where they have gone. You go after them, and hurry, for you may overtake them.

6 But she made them go up on the roof, and hid them with stalks of flax, which she arranged on the roof.

7 And the men went after them the way of the Jordan, by the fords. And they shut the gate afterwards, when the pursuers had gone after them.

8 And before they had laid down, she came up to them on the roof.

9 And she said to the men, I know that YAHWEH has given the land to you, and that your terror has fallen on us, and that all those living in the land have melted before you.

10 For we have heard how YAHWEH[2] dried up the water of the Red Sea before you, as you were going out of Egypt; also that which you have done to two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan; to Sihon, and to Og, whom you destroyed.

11 And we have heard, and our heart has melted, and there still does not rise the spirit in any man, because of you. For YAHWEH your Elohim, He is Elohim in the heavens above, and in the earth below.

12 And now, please swear to me by YAHWEH, since I have dealt with you in kindness, that you will also deal with my father's house in kindness, and shall give to me a true token;

13 and shall keep alive my father, and my mother, and my brothers, and my sisters, and all that is to them, and shall deliver our souls from death.

14 And the men said to her, Our life instead of yours, if you do not tell this business of ours, then it shall be, when YAHWEH gives this land to us that we shall deal with you in kindness and truth.

15 Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was in the side of the wall, and she lived in the wall.

16 And she said to them, Go to the mountain lest the pursuers come upon you. And you shall hide there three days until the pursuers return; and afterward you shall go on your way.

17 And the men said to her, We will be guiltless from this oath of yours which you made us swear.

18 Behold, we are coming into the land; you shall bind this scarlet thread of line in the window by which you have let us down. And you shall gather your father, and your mother, and your brothers, and all your father's house to you, to the house. (Is 1:18)

19 And it shall be, anyone who goes

1 This word in Hebrew is somewhat ambiguous and can also mean innkeeper. Josephus also states that Rahab was an inn-keeper.

outside from the doors of your house his blood shall be on his head, and we shall be innocent. And anyone who is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand is on him.

20 But if you reveal this business of ours, then we shall be guiltless from your oath which you have made us swear.

21 And she said, Let it be according to your words. And she sent them away. And they went. And she bound the line of scarlet thread in the window.

22 And they departed and came to the mountain, and stayed there three days, until the pursuers had returned. And the pursuers searched in all the way, but did not find them.

23 And the two men returned and came down from the mountain, and crossed over, and came to Yahoshua the son of Nun, and reported to him all that had happened to them.

24 And they said to Yahoshua, Surely YAHWEH has given all the land into our hands. And also, all those living in the land have melted before us.

Chapter 3

1 And Yahoshua rose up early in the morning. And they set forth from Shittim and came to the Jordan, he and all the sons of Israel. And they stayed there before they crossed over.

2 And it happened, at the end of three days, the officers passed into the midst of the camp.

3 And they commanded the people, saying, When you see the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH your Elohim, and the priests, and the Levites bearing it, then you shall set forth from your place and shall go after it.

4 Only, keep a distance between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure. You shall not come near it, so that you may know the way in which you are to go in. For you have not crossed over this way in time past.

5 And Yahoshua said to the people, Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow YAHWEH will do wonders among you.

6 And Yahoshua spoke to the priests, saying, Take up the ark of the covenant and go before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.

7 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua, This day I will begin to make you great in the eyes of all Israel, so that they shall know that as I was with Moses, I am with you.

8 And you shall command the priests bearing the ark of the covenant, saying, When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan you shall stand still in the Jordan.

9 And Yahoshua said to the sons of Israel, Come near here and hear the Words of YAHWEH your Elohim.

10 And Yahoshua said, By this you shall know that the living Elohim is among you. And He shall certainly dispossess from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites.

11 Behold, the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH of all the earth shall pass over before you into the Jordan.

12 And now, take for yourselves twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe.

13 And it shall be, when the soles of the feet of the priests bearing the ark of YAHWEH, Master of all the earth, come to rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off, the waters which come down from above. And they shall stand in one heap.

14 And it happened, as the people set forth from their tents to cross over the Jordan, and as the priests bore the ark of the covenant before the people, 15 and as those bearing the ark came into the Jordan, and the feet of the priests bearing the ark were dipped in the edge of the waters (and the Jordan was full, over all its banks all the days of harvest), 16 that the waters stood still, those coming down from above rose up into a heap, very far above the city Adam, which is beside Zaretan; and those going down by the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were completely cut off.

And the people passed over opposite to Jericho.
17 And the priests bearing the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan. And all Israel crossed over on dry ground until all the nation had completely passed over the Jordan.

Chapter 4

1 And it was, when all the nation had completely crossed over the Jordan, YAHWEH spoke to Yahoshua, saying, 2 Take twelve men for you out of the people, one man of each tribe.
3 And charge them, saying, Take twelve stones from this place, from the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the feet of the priests were fixed. And you shall carry them over with you and lay them down in the lodging place which you stay in it tonight.
4 And Yahoshua called to the twelve men whom he had readied from the sons of Israel, one man out of each tribe.
5 And Yahoshua said to them, Cross over before the ark of YAHWEH your Elohim to the middle of the Jordan, and each man of you lift up one stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel,
6 that this shall be a sign among you,
when your children ask hereafter, saying, What are these stones to you?
7 You shall say to them, Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH, as it crossed over into the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. And these stones are for a memorial to the sons of Israel all the days.
8 And the sons of Israel did as Yahoshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the middle of the Jordan, as YAHWEH had spoken to Yahoshua, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, and crossed over with them to the lodging place, and laid them down there;
9 even the twelve stones that Yahoshua lifted up in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests bearing the ark of the covenant stood firm. And they are there until this day.
10 And the priests bearing the ark were standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything was finished that YAHWEH had commanded Yahoshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses commanded Yahoshua. And the people hurried and crossed over.
11 And it happened, when the people had finished crossing over, the ark of YAHWEH and the priests crossed over before the people.
12 And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh crossed over in battle array before the sons of Israel, as Moses had spoken to them;
13 about forty thousand armed men of the army crossed over before YAHWEH for battle, to the plains of Jericho.

14 In that day YAHWEH made Yahoshua great in the sight of all Israel. And they feared him all the days of his life, even as they feared Moses[1].
15 And YAHWEH spoke to Yahoshua, saying,
16 Order the priests who carry the ark of the testimony, that they rise out of the Jordan.
17 And Yahoshua commanded the priests, saying, Rise out of the Jordan.
18 And it happened when the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH had come up out of the midst of the Jordan, and the soles of the feet of the priests had been lifted to the dry land, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, and flowed over all its banks, as before.
19 And the people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth of the first month, and camped in Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho.
20 And the twelve stones which they took out of the Jordan were raised up in Gilgal by Yahoshua.
21 And he spoke to the sons of Israel, saying, When your sons ask their fathers hereafter, saying, What do these stones mean?
22 Then you shall make your sons know, saying, Israel came over this Jordan on dry land,
23 because YAHWEH your Elohim dried up the waters of the Jordan before you, until you crossed over, as YAHWEH your Elohim did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before you until we crossed over;
24 so that all the people of the land shall know that the hand of YAHWEH is strong, so that you may fear YAHWEH your Elohim all the days.

Chapter 5

1 And it happened, when all the kings of the Amorites beyond the Jordan, toward the sea, and all the kings of the Canaanites which were by the sea, heard how YAHWEH dried up the waters of the Jordan before the sons of Israel, until they crossed over, their heart was melted. And there was not any more spirit in them before the sons of Israel.
2 At that time YAHWEH said to Yahoshua, Make for yourself flint knives, and again circumcise the sons of Israel, the second time.
3 And Yahoshua made flint knives for himself, and circumcised the sons of Israel at the hill of the foreskins.
4 And this is the reason Yahoshua circumcised: All the people who had come out of Egypt, who were males, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness, in the way, as they came out of Egypt.
5 For all the people who had come out were circumcised. And all the people who were born in the wilderness, in the way, as they came out from Egypt, had not been circumcised.
6 For the sons of Israel had walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, the men of war who had come out of Egypt were consumed, those who did not listen to the voice of YAHWEH, to whom YAHWEH had sworn to them not to show them the land which YAHWEH swore to their fathers, to give to us, a land flowing with milk and honey; these were consumed.
7 And He raised their sons up in their place. Yahoshua circumcised them, for they had been

[1] It is YHWH who lifts up man and takes him down. Dan 4:17, 4:31-33 uncircumcised; for they had not been circumcised in the way[1].

8 And it happened, when all the nation had finished being circumcised, they remained in their places in the camp until they revived.

9 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua, Today I have rolled the reproach of Egypt off of you. And he called the name of that place Gilgal[2] to this day.

10 And the sons of Israel camped in Gilgal, and prepared the Passover in the fourteenth day of the month, at evening, in the plains of Jericho.

11 And they ate the old grain of the land on the next day after the Passover, unleavened bread and roasted grain, in this same day.

12 And the manna ceased on the next day after they ate of the old grain of the land. And there was no more manna to the sons of Israel, but they ate the produce of the land of Canaan in that year.

13 And it happened, when Yahoshua was beside Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked. And, behold! A Man stood in front of him, and His drawn sword was in His hand. And Yahoshua went to Him and said to Him, Are You for us, or for our foes?

14 And He said, No, for I now come as the Captain of the army of YAHWEH. And Yahoshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped. And he said to Him, What does my Master speak to His slave?

15 And the Captain of the army of YAHWEH said to Yahoshua, Take your shoe off your foot, for the place on which you are standing is holy. And Yahoshua did so[3].

Chapter 6

1 And Jericho was closed, and was shut in from the face of the sons of Israel; no one going out, and no one coming in.

2 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua, See I have given Jericho and its king, mighty warriors, into your hand.

3 And you shall go around the city, all the men of battle, going around the city once; so you shall do six days.

4 And seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark. And on the seventh day you shall go around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the rams' horns.[4]

5 And it shall be, when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the ram's horn, all the people shall shout with a great shout. And the wall of the city shall fall down underneath below you; and the people shall go up, each man in front of him.

6 And Yahoshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of YAHWEH.

7 And he said to the people, Pass on,

1 Apparently, all the children who were born in the wilderness were not circumcised. This shows the covenant at Mount Sinai clearly was not consummated and here is being reestablished.

2 Gilgal means "wheel".

3 The word for captain here in Hebrew is "sar" and is used in Is 9:6 as a description of the Messiah being "S*ar Shalom*" or Prince of Peace. Undoubtedly, this had to be Yahshua as an angel would not allow worship, and an angel's presence would not make the ground holy. (Rev 22:8-9, Ex 3:2, 5)

go around the city, and he who is armed shall go on before the ark of YAHWEH.

8 And it happened, when Yahoshua spoke to the people, the seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before YAHWEH passed on and blew with the rams' horns. And the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH went after them.

9 And he who was armed went before the priests blowing the rams' horns. And the rear guard after the ark, going on and blowing with the rams' horns.

10 And Yahoshua had commanded the people, saying, You shall not shout, nor cause your voice to be heard, nor shall there go from your mouth a word until the day I say to you, Shout! Then you shall shout.

11 And the ark of YAHWEH went around the city, going around one time. And they came into the camp, and remained in the camp.

12 And Yahoshua rose early in the morning, and the priests bore the ark of YAHWEH.

13 And seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns were walking before the ark of YAHWEH, going on, and were blowing with the rams' horns. And he who was armed went before them. And the rear guard went behind the ark of YAHWEH, going on and blowing with the rams' horns.

14 And they circled the city on the second day one time, and returned to the camp. So they did six days.

15 And it happened on the seventh day, they rose early, at the dawning of the day, and went around the city seven times in the same way. Only on that day they circled the city seven times.

16 And it happened at the seventh time the priests blew with the rams' horns. And Yahoshua said to the people, Shout! For YAHWEH has given you the city.

17 And the city shall be devoted to YAHWEH, it and all that are in it. Only Rahab the inn-keeper shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent.

18 And you shall certainly keep clear of the cursed things, that you not become accursed by taking from the cursed things, and shall make the camp of Israel become accursed, and trouble it.

19 And all the silver and gold, and vessels of copper and iron, they are holy to YAHWEH; they shall come into the treasury of YAHWEH.

20 And the people shouted, and blew with the ram's horns, and it happened, when the people heard the sound of the ram's horn, the people shouted a great shout. And the wall fell under it; and the people went up into the city, each man in front of him; and they captured the city.

21 And they destroyed all that was in the city, from man even to woman, from young even to aged, and to ox, and sheep, and donkey, by the mouth of the sword.

22 And Yahoshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, Go into the house of the woman, the innkeeper, and bring the woman out from there, and all whom she has, as you have sworn to her.

23 And the young men, the spies, went in and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brothers, and all whom she had; yea, they brought all her family, and set them outside the camp of Israel.

24 And they burned the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only they gave the silver and the gold, and the vessels of copper, and of iron, to the treasury of the house of YAHWEH.

25 And Yahoshua kept alive Rahab the innkeeper, and the house of her father, and all whom she had. And she lives in the midst of Israel to this day. For she hid the messengers whom Yahoshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26 And at that time Yahoshua adjured, saying, Cursed be the man who rises up before the face of YAHWEH and builds this city of Jericho. He shall lay its foundation in his first-born, and he shall set up its doors in his youngest son.

27 And YAHWEH was with Yahoshua, and his fame was in all the land.

Chapter 7

1 And the sons of Israel sinned a sin in the cursed things. And Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah took of the cursed things. And the anger of YAHWEH glowed against the sons of Israel.

2 And Yahoshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-Aven, on the east of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, Go up and spy out the land. And the men went up and spied out Ai.

3 And they returned to Yahoshua, and said to him, Do not let all the people go up. Let about two thousand men, or about three thousand men, go up, and they shall strike Ai. Do not cause all the people to labor there, for they are few.

4 And about three thousand men of the people went up there. And they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai struck about thirty six men of them, and pursued them before the gate to Shebarim. And they struck them in the descent. And the heart of the people was melted, and became as water.

6 And Yahoshua tore his clothing, and fell on his face to the earth before the ark of YAHWEH until the evening, he and the elders of Israel. And they threw dust on their heads.

7 And Yahoshua said, Oh Adonai YAHWEH, why have You at all caused this people to cross over the Jordan to give us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us? And, Oh that we had been willing, and that we had dwelt beyond the Jordan!

8 Oh YAHWEH, what shall I say, after Israel has turned its back before its enemies?

9 And the Canaanites, and all the ones living in the land shall hear, and shall come around against us, and shall cut off our name out of the earth. And what shall You do for Your great name?

10 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua, Get yourself up! Why do you fall on your face this way?

11 Israel has sinned, and they also have transgressed My covenant which I commanded them, and have also taken of the cursed things, and have also stolen, and also deceived, and also put it among their stuff[1].

12 And the sons of Israel have not been able to stand before their enemies; they have turned the back before their enemies because they have become cursed. I will not be with you again if you do not destroy the cursed things from among you.

13 Rise up, sanctify the people, and you shall say, Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow. For so says YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, A cursed thing is among you, Israel; you are not able to stand before your enemies until you take away the cursed thing from among you.

14 And you shall be brought near in the morning, by your tribes. And it shall be, the tribe which YAHWEH takes shall draw near by families. And the family which YAHWEH takes shall draw near by households. And the house-hold which YAHWEH takes shall draw near by men.

15 And it shall be, he who is taken with the accursed thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the covenant of YAHWEH and because he has committed folly in Israel.

16 And Yahoshua rose early in the morning, and brought Israel near by its tribes. And the tribe of Judah was taken.

17 And he brought the family of Judah near; and he took the family of the Zerahites. And he brought near the family of the Zerahites by men, and Zabdi was taken.

18 And he brought near his household by men, and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 And Yahoshua said to Achan, My son, now give glory to YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, and give thanks to Him, and please tell me what you have done. Do not hide it from me.

20 And Achan answered Yahoshua, and said, Truly I have sinned against YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, and this I have done:

21 When I saw among the spoil a goodly robe of Shinar, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold, one of fifty shekels in weight, then I lusted after them, and took them. And behold, they are hidden in the earth, in the middle of my tent, and the silver under it.

22 And Yahoshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and behold, it was hidden in his tent, and the silver under it.

23 And they took them out of the middle of the tent, and brought them to Yahoshua, and to all the sons of Israel, and laid them out before YAHWEH.

24 And Yahoshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the robe, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his donkey, and his flock, and his tent, and all that he had. And they made them go up to the valley of Achor.

25 And Yahoshua said, How you have troubled us! YAHWEH shall trouble you today! And all Israel threw stones at him, and they burned them with fire, and they stoned them with stones.

26 And they raised over him a great heap of stones to this day. And YAHWEH turned back from the heat of His anger. On this account the name of that place is The Valley of Achor until this day[1].

Chapter 8

1 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua, Do not fear, nor be afraid. Take all the people of war with you, and rise up, go up to Ai. Behold, I have given the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land into your hand.

2 And you shall do to Ai and to its king as you have done to Jericho and its king. Only, its spoil and its cattle you shall take for yourselves. Set yourself an ambush for the city behind it.

3 And Yahoshua rose up, and all the people of war, to go up to Ai. And Yahoshua chose thirty thousand men, mighty warriors and sent them away by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, See, you will be an ambush against the city, behind the city. You shall not go very far off from the city, and all of you shall be ready.

[1] Achor means grief, Hos 2:15

5 And I and all the people with me shall draw near to the city. And it shall be, when they come out to meet us as at the first, and we have fled before
them,
6 and they will come out after us until we have drawn them out of the city. For they will say, They are fleeing before us, as at the first. And we will flee from them;
7 then you shall rise from the ambush and shall possess the city. And YAHWEH your Elohim shall give it into your hand.
8 And it shall be when you capture the city, you shall burn the city with fire. You shall do according to the Word of YAHWEH. See, I have commanded you.
9 And Yahoshua sent them away, and they went to the ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west of Ai. And Yahoshua remained that night in the midst of the people.
10 And Yahoshua rose early in the morning and called up the people, and they went up, he and the elders of Israel in the sight of the people of Ai.
11 And all the people of war with him went up and drew near, and came before the city. And they camped on the north of Ai, and the valley was between him and Ai.
12 And he took about five thousand men and set them as an ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west of the city.
13 And they set the people, all the camp on the north of the city; and its rear on the west of the city. And Yahoshua went into the middle of the valley on that night.
14 And it happened, when the king of Ai saw, the men of the city rose early and hurried to go out to meet Israel in battle, he and all his people at the appointed time before the plain.
He did not know that an ambush was against him behind the city.
15 And Yahoshua and all Israel were stricken before them, and they fled the way of the wilderness.
16 And all the people in the city were called to chase them. And they pursued Yahoshua, and were drawn away out of the city.
17 And there was not a man left in Ai and Bethel who had not gone out after Israel. And they left the city open, and chased Israel.
18 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua,
Stretch out the javelin in your hand toward Ai. For I will give it into your hand. And Yahoshua stretched out the javelin in his hand toward the city.
19 And the ambush rose up quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and entered the city, and took it. And they hastened and burned the city with fire.
20 And the men of Ai looked behind them, and saw; and, behold! The smoke of the city had gone up into the heaven. And there was no power in them to flee here or there. And the people who had fled to the wilderness turned back against the pursuers.
21 And Yahoshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had captured the city, and that the smoke of the city had gone up. And they turned back and struck the men of Ai.
22 And the others came out from the city to meet them. And they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that. And they struck them until not a survivor was left to them, not one that escaped.
23 And they caught the king of Ai and brought him alive to Yahoshua.
24 And it happened, when Israel had made an end to slaying all the ones living in Ai in the field, even in the wilderness where they pursued them (and they, all of them, fell by the mouth of the sword until they were consumed) all Israel turned back to Ai, and struck it with the mouth of the sword.

25 And all who fell during that day, of men and of women, were twelve thousand, all the men of Ai.
26 And Yahoshua did not draw back his hand with which he stretched out the javelin until he had destroyed all the ones living in Ai.
27 Only, Israel seized for themselves the livestock, and the plunder of the city, according to the Word of YAHWEH which He commanded Yahoshua.
28 And Yahoshua burned Ai, and made it a heap forever, a desolation to this day.
29 And he hanged the king of Ai on the tree until evening time. And at sundown Yahoshua commanded, and they took his dead body down from the tree[1], and threw it into the opening of the gate of the city; and raised over it a great heap of stones until this day.
30 Then Yahoshua built an altar to YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, in Mount Ebal, 31 as Moses, the servant of YAHWEH, commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the book of the Torah of Moses; an altar of whole stones, on which had been wielded no iron. And they offered upon it burnt offerings to YAHWEH, and offered peace offerings.
32 And he wrote there on the stones the copy of the Torah of Moses which he had written in the presence of the sons of Israel.
33 And all Israel, and its elders, and authorities, and its judges were standing on this side, the alien as well as the native, and on that of the ark, before the priests, the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH, half of them in front of Mount Gerizim, and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of YAHWEH had commanded at the first, that they should bless the people of Israel.
34 And afterward he read all the Words of the Torah, the blessing and the curse, according to all that was written in the book of the Torah.
35 There was not a word of all that Moses commanded which Yahoshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, and the women, and the little ones, and the aliens that walked among them[2].

Chapter 9

1 And it happened, when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan in the hills and in the Lowlands, and in all the coast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon, heard of it, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, 2 they with one mouth gathered themselves to fight with Yahoshua and with Israel.
3 And the ones living in Gibeon heard what Yahoshua had done to Jericho and to Ai.
4 And they acted slyly, and they went and acted like envoys, and took old sacks for their donkeys, and old wine-skins, even torn and bound up; 5 and old and patched sandals on their feet; and old garments on them.
And all their provision of bread was dry; it was crumbs.

[2] Verses 34-35- Moses wrote the entire Torah, there is no mention of an oral law that came as a tradition of the Rabbis later. Ex 24:4. Deut 31:9, 24

6 And they went to Yahoshua, to the camp at Gilgal. And they said to him and to the men of Israel, We have come from a distant land. And now cut a covenant with us.
7 And the men of Israel said to the Hivites, Perhaps you are living in our midst, and how shall we cut a covenant with you?
8 And they said to Yahoshua, We are your servants. And Yahoshua said to them, Who are you? And from where do you come?
9 And they said to him, Your servants have come from a very distant land, because of the name of YAHWEH your Elohim, for we have heard of His fame, and all that He has done in Egypt.
10 Also what He has done to the two kings of the Amorites beyond the Jordan, to Sihon the king of Heshbon, and to Og the king of Bashan who was in Ashtaroth.
11 And our elders and all the people of our land spoke to us, saying, Take provisions in your hand for the way, and go to meet them. And you shall say to them, We are your servants; and now, cut a covenant with us.
12 We provided ourselves with this hot bread out of our houses on the day we came out to go to you. And now, behold, it is dry and it is crumbs.
13 And these are the wineskins which we filled new; and, behold, they have torn. And these garments of ours, and our sandals, have become old because of the exceeding greatness of the way.
14 And the men took of their provision, and did not ask at the mouth of YAHWEH.[1] 15 And Yahoshua made peace with them, and cut a covenant with them, to keep them alive. And the leaders of the congregation swore to them.
16 And at the end of three days after they had cut a covenant with them. And it happened that they heard that they were their neighbors, and they were living in their midst.
17 And the sons of Israel journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. And their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-Jearim.
18 And the sons of Israel did not strike them, for the leaders of the congregation swore to them by YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel.[2] And all the congregation murmured against the leaders.
19 And all the leaders said to all the congregation, We have sworn to them by YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel; and now we cannot touch them.
20 We shall do this to them, and shall keep them alive, and wrath shall not be on us because of the oath which we have sworn to them.
21 And the leaders said to them, They shall live and be woodcutters, and drawers of water for all the congregation, as the leaders spoke to them.
22 And Yahoshua called for them; and he spoke to them, saying, Why have you deceived us, saying, We are very far from you, yet you are living in our midst?
23 And now, you are cursed, and none of you shall fail to be slaves, and woodcutters, and drawers of water for the house of my Elohim.
24 And they answered Yahoshua and said, Because it was certainly told to your servants what YAHWEH your Elohim commanded His servant

[1] This was their first mistake as they should have immediately prayed and asked Yahweh what to do.

[2] Once they gave their solemn word they could not rescind even though they were deceived showing the importance of keeping our vows. Num 30:2

Moses, to give you all the land, and to destroy all the ones living in the land before you; and we were greatly afraid for ourselves, because of you. And we did this thing.

25 And now, behold, we are in your hand. Do whatever is good, and as is right in your eyes to do.

26 And he did so to them, and delivered them from the hand of the sons of Israel. And they did not kill them.

27 And on that day Yahoshua made them woodcutters, and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of YAHWEH at the place which He should choose, to this day.

Chapter 10

1 And it happened, when Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Yahoshua had captured Ai, and had destroyed it (as he had done to Jericho and to its king, so he had done to Ai and to her king) and that the ones living in Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were in their midst,

2 they were greatly afraid because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty.

3 And Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, and to Piram king of Jarmuth, and to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4 Come up to me and help me. And we shall strike Gibeon, for it has made peace with Yahoshua, and with the sons of Israel.

5 And the five kings of the Amorites assembled, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, they and all their camps. And they camped against Gibeon, and fought against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent to Yahoshua, and to the camp at Gilgal, saying, Do not withdraw your hand from your servants. Come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites living in the hills have gathered against us.

7 And Yahoshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, even all the mighty warriors.

8 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua, Do not be afraid of them, for I have given them into your hand. Not a man of them shall stand before you.

9 And Yahoshua came to them suddenly (he had traveled all night from Gilgal)

10 and YAHWEH troubled them before Israel, and struck them with a great blow at Gibeon, and He pursued by the way of the ascent of Bethhoron, and struck them to Azekah, and to Makkedah.

11 And it happened, as they fled from the face of Israel, they were in the descent of Bethhoron, even YAHWEH cast great hail stones on them out of the heavens, to Azekah; and they died. The many who died by the hail stones were more than the sons of Israel had killed by the sword.

12 Then Yahoshua spoke to YAHWEH in the day when YAHWEH gave the Amorites up before the sons of Israel; and he said, Sun, stand still before the eyes of Israel in Gibeon! And, Moon stand still in the valley of Aijalon! (Hab 3:11)

13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stood still, until the nation was avenged on its foes. Is it not written in the Book of the Upright? Yea, the sun stood still in the middle of the heavens, and did not hasten to go down for a full day.

14 And there has not been a day such as that, before it or after it; for YAHWEH listened to the voice of a man. For YAHWEH fought for Israel.

15 And Yahoshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

16 And these five kings fled, and were hidden in a cave at Makkedah.[1]

17 And it was told to Yahoshua, saying, the five kings have been found hidden in a cave at Makkedah.

18 And Yahoshua said, Roll great stones to the mouth of the cave, and set men over it to watch them.

19 And you, do not stand still. Pursue your enemies, and you shall strike the hindmost of them. Do not allow them to go into their cities, for YAHWEH your Elohim has given them into your hand.

20 And it happened, when Yahoshua and the sons of Israel had finished destroying them with a very great blow, until they were completely destroyed, and the remnant of them who escaped went into the fortified cities,

21 that all the people returned to the camp in peace, to Yahoshua at Makkedah. Not one sharpened his tongue against the sons of Israel, against any man.

22 And Yahoshua said, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out to me these five kings from the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought out to him these five kings from the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon.

24 And it happened, when they brought out these kings to Yahoshua, Yahoshua called to every man of Israel and said to the commanders of the men of war who had gone with him, Draw near, set your feet on the necks of these kings. And they drew near and set their feet on their necks.

25 And Yahoshua said to them, Do not fear nor be afraid. Be strong and brave, for so YAHWEH shall do to all your enemies with whom you are fighting.

26 And afterward Yahoshua struck them, and executed them, and hung them on five trees. And they were hanging on the trees until the evening.

27 And it happened at the time of the going down of the sun[2], Yahoshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees, and threw them into the cave where they had been hidden, and put great stones on the mouth of the cave until this very day.

28 And that day Yahoshua captured Makkedah. And he struck it by the mouth of the sword, and he destroyed its king, them, and every person in it. He did not leave a survivor. And he did to the king of Makkedah as he did to the king of Jericho.

29 And Yahoshua passed on, and all Israel with him, from Makkedah to Libnah. And he fought with Libnah.

30 And YAHWEH also gave it into the hand of Israel, and its king. And they struck it by the mouth of the sword, and every person in it; he did not leave a survivor in it. And he did to its king as he did to the king of Jericho.

31 And Yahoshua passed on, and all Israel with him, from Libnah to Lachish. And they camped against it, and fought against it.

32 And YAHWEH gave Lachish into the hand of Israel, and he captured it on the second day, and struck it by the mouth of the sword, and every person in it, according to all that he did to Libnah.

33 Then Horam the king of Gezer

[1] A town near Bet Shemesh and Azekah, but the exact location is unknown.

[2] The biblical day starts and ends at sunset (Deut) 21:22) came up to help Lachish. And Yahoshua struck him and his people until there was not left to him a survivor.

34 And Yahoshua passed on, and all Israel with him, from Lachish to Eglon. And they camped against it, and fought against it, 35 and captured it on that day, and struck it with the mouth of the sword.
And he destroyed every person in it on that day, according to all that he did to Lachish.
36 And Yahoshua went on, and all Israel with him, from Eglon to Hebron. And they fought against it, 37 and captured it, and struck it by the mouth of the sword, and its king, and all its cities, and every person in it; he did not leave a survivor, according to all that he did to Eglon,
and destroyed it and every person in it.
38 And Yahoshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir, and fought against it.
39 And they captured it and its king, and all its cities. And they struck them by the mouth of the sword, and destroyed every person in it; he did not leave a survivor. As he did to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to its king; even as he did to Libnah, and to its king.
40 And Yahoshua struck all the land:
the heights and the Negev, and the Shefelah, and the slopes, and all their kings; he did not leave a survivor, but he destroyed all that breathed, as YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel had commanded.
41 And Yahoshua struck them from Kadesh-Barnea, even to Gaza, and all the land of Goshen, even to Gibeon.
42 And Yahoshua captured all these kings in their land at one time, for YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel fought for Israel.
43 And Yahoshua returned, and all Israel with him to the camp at Gilgal.

Chapter 11

1 And it happened, when Jabin the king of Hazor heard, he sent to Jobab the king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, 2 and to the kings that were on the north of the heights, and in the plains south of Chinneroth, and in the low country, and in the hills of Dor on the west;
3 to the Canaanite on the east, and on the west, and the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the heights, and the Hivite below Hermon, in the land of Mizpeh.
4 And they went out, they and all their camps with them, a people plentiful as the sand on the seashore in number, and very many horses and chariots.
5 And all these kings met together.
And they came and camped together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.
6 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua,
Do not fear before them, for about this time tomorrow I will give all of them up slain before Israel. You shall hamstring their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.
7 And Yahoshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom. And they suddenly fell on them.
8 And YAHWEH gave them into Israel's hand, and they struck them, and pursued them to the great Sidon, and to the burning waters, and to the valley of Mizpeh eastward. And they struck them until he did not have a survivor left to them.
9 And Yahoshua did to them as YAHWEH said to him. He hamstrung their horses, and burned their chariots with fire.

10 And Yahoshua returned and captured Hazor at that time. And he struck its king by the sword; for Hazor was formerly head of all these kingdoms.

11 And they struck every person in it by the mouth of the sword. He destroyed them, he did not leave anyone breathing; and he burned Hazor with fire.

12 And Yahoshua captured all the cities of these kings, and all their kings. And he struck them by the mouth of the sword. He destroyed them, as Moses the servant of YAHWEH had commanded.

13 But as for all the cities which stood by their mounds, Israel did not burn them; but Yahoshua only burned Hazor.

14 And the sons of Israel seized for themselves all the plunder of these cities, and the livestock. But they struck every human being by the mouth of the sword, until they had destroyed them; they did not leave anyone breathing.

15 As YAHWEH commanded His servant Moses, so Moses commanded Yahoshua, and so Yahoshua did. He did not turn aside from anything of all that YAHWEH commanded Moses.

16 And Yahoshua took all this land: the heights, and all the Negev, and all the land of Goshen, and the Shefelah, and the Arabah and the mountains of Israel, and its lowlands,

17 from Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir, even to Baal-Gad in the Valley of Lebanon, below Mount Hermon. And he took all their kings, and struck them, and killed them.

18 And Yahoshua made war many days with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the sons of Israel except the Hivites, ones living in Gibeon. They took all in battle.

20 For it was of YAHWEH to harden their hearts, so that they should come against Israel in battle, so that they might be destroyed, so that they might have no favor, but that He might destroy them, as YAHWEH commanded Moses.

21 At that time Yahoshua came and cut off the Anakim from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anah, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel. Yahoshua completely destroyed them with their cities.

22 There were none of the Anakim left in the land of the sons of Israel; only some remained in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod.

23 And Yahoshua took the whole of the land, according to all that YAHWEH had spoken to Moses. And Yahoshua gave it for Israel according to their divisions, by their tribes. And the land had rest from war.

Chapter 12

1 And these are the kings of the land whom the sons of Israel struck, and they seized their land beyond the Jordan, at the sunrising, from the river Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah eastward:

2 Sihon the king of the Amorites who lived in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is on the bank of the river Arnon, and from its valley floor, and half Gilead, even to the river Jabbok, the border of the sons of Ammon;

3 and from the Arabah to the sea of Chinneroth on the east, and to the sea of the Arabah, even the Salt Sea, eastward, the way to Beth-Jeshimoth;

and on the south under the Slopes of Pisgah;
4 and the border of Og the king of Bashan, of the rest of the giants, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, 5 and reigned in Mount Hermon and in Salecah, and in all Bashan, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon the king of Heshbon.
6 Moses the servant of YAHWEH and the sons of Israel struck them.
And Moses the servant of YAHWEH gave it for a possession to the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.
7 And these are the kings of the land whom Yahoshua and the sons of Israel struck beyond the Jordan westward, from Baal-Gad in the Valley of Lebanon even to Mount Halak that goes up to Seir, which Yahoshua gave to the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions; 8 in the mountains, and in the lowlands, and in the Arabah, and in the slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the Negev; the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites:
9 the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one; 10 the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one; 11 the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;
12 the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;
13 the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;
14 the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;
15 the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;
16 the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one;
17 the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hepher, one;
18 the king of Aphek, one; the king of Sharon, one;
19 the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one;
20 the king of Shimronmeron, one;
the king of Achshaph, one;
21 the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one;
22 the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;
23 the king of Dor in the coast of Dor, one; the king of the nations of Gilgal, one; 24 the king of Tirzah, one. All the kings were thirty one.

Chapter 13

1 And Yahoshua was old, going on in days. And YAHWEH said to him, You have become aged, you are far along in days; yet very much land remains to be possessed.
2 This is the land that still remains:
all the regions of the Philistines, and all Geshuri,
3 from Shihor which fronts on Egypt, and to the border of Ekron northward (it is counted to the Canaanites) five lords of the Philistines, of Gaza, of Ashdod, of Ashkelon, of Gath, and of Ekron; also the Avim.
4 From the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah which belongs to the Sidonians; to Aphek, to the border of the Amorites;
5 and the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrising, from Baal-Gad below Mount Hermon to the entering to Hamath;
6 all the ones living in the hills, from Lebanon to the burning waters; all the Sidonians; I will dispossess them before the sons of Israel: Only, cause it to fall to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you.

7 Now, then, divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh.
8 With him the Reubenites, and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave to them beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of YAHWEH has given to them;
9 from Aroer on the lip of the river Arnon, and the city which is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba, to Dibon;
10 and all the cities of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the sons of Ammon;
11 and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites, and of the Maachathite, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salcah;
12 all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei; he remained of the remnant of the giants. And Moses struck them and dispossessed them.
13 But the sons of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurites and the Maachathite, but Geshur and Maachath live in the midst of Israel until today.
14 Only, he has not given an inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The fire offerings of YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel are its inheritance, as He has spoken to it.
15 And Moses gave to the tribe of the sons of Reuben, for their families;
16 and their border was from Aroer on the lip of the river Arnon, and the city which is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain by Medeba;
17 Heshbon, and all its cities in the tableland; Dibon, and Bamoth-Baal, and Beth-Baal-Meon;
18 and Jahazah, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath;
19 and Kirjath-Aim, and Sibmah, and Zareth-Shahar in the mountain of the valley;
20 and Beth-Peor, and the Slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-Jeshimoth;
21 and all the cities of the tableland, and all the kingdom of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck with the rulers of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, chiefs of Sihon, those living in the land.
22 And the sons of Israel killed Balaam the son of Beor, the one divining, with the sword, among their slain.
23 And the border of the sons of Reuben was from the Jordan, and its border. This was the inheritance of the sons of Reuben for their families, the cities and their villages.
24 And Moses gave to the tribe of Gad, to the sons of Gad, for their families:
25 And their border was to Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half of the land of the sons of Ammon, to Aroer, which is before Rabbah;
26 and from Heshbon to Ramath-Mizpeh, and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir;
27 and in the valley, Beth-Aram, and Beth-Nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon the king of Heshbon; the Jordan and its border, to the edge of the Sea of Chinnereth, beyond the Jordan, eastward.
28 This is the inheritance of the sons of Gad, for their families, the cities and their villages.
29 And Moses gave inheritance to the half tribe of Manasseh. And it was to the half of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh, for their families:
30 and their border was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og the king of Bashan, and all the small towns of Jair in Bashan, sixty cities;

31 and the half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, belonged to the sons of Machir, the son of Manasseh, to the half of the sons of Machir for their families.
32 These are they whom Moses caused to inherit in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan, opposite Jericho, eastward.
33 But Moses did not give an inheritance to the tribe of Levi. YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel Himself is their inheritance, as He has spoken to them. (Num 8:14, Jos 18:7)

Chapter 14

1 And these are they of the sons of Israel who inherited in the land of Canaan, whom Eleazar the priest and Yahoshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel caused to inherit.
2 Their inheritance was by lot, as YAHWEH commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and the half tribe;
3 for Moses had given the inheritance of two of the tribes and the half tribe, beyond the Jordan; and he did not give any inheritance to the Levites among them.
4 For the sons of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. And they did not give a portion to the Levites in the land, except cities to live in, with the open land around them for their livestock and for their substance,
5 as YAHWEH commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did, and they allotted the land.
6 And the sons of Judah came near to Yahoshua in Gilgal, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, You know the word that YAHWEH spoke to Moses the man of Elohim as to me and as to you in Kadesh-Barnea.
7 I was a son of forty years when Moses the servant of YAHWEH sent me from Kadesh-Barnea to spy out the land. And I brought him back word as it was in my heart.
8 But my brothers who went up with me caused the heart of the people to melt, yet I fully followed after YAHWEH my Elohim.
9 And Moses swore in that day, saying, Surely the land on which your foot has trodden shall be an inheritance for you and for your sons forever, because you have fully followed after YAHWEH my Elohim.
10 And now, behold, YAHWEH has kept me alive, as He said, these forty five years since YAHWEH spoke this word to Moses, when Israel went in the wilderness. And now, behold, today I am a son of eighty five years;
11 yet I am as strong today as in the day Moses sent me. As my strength was then, so is my strength now for war, both to go out and to come in.
12 And now, give to me this mountain, of which YAHWEH spoke in that day, for you heard in that day how the sons of Anak were there, and great walled cities. If YAHWEH shall be with me, then I shall dispossess them, as YAHWEH has spoken.
13 And Yahoshua blessed him, and he gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.
14 Therefore, Hebron has belonged to Caleb the son of Jephunneh, the Kenizzite, for an inheritance to this day, because he fully followed after YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel.
15 And the name of Hebron before was City of Arba; that one was a great man among the Anakim. And the land had rest from war.

Chapter 15

1 And the lot for the tribe of the sons of Judah for their families was to the border of Edom, the wilderness of Zin southward, in the extreme south.

2 And their south border was from the end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that looked southward.

3 And it went out southward to the ascent of Akrabbim, and passed on to Zin, and went up on the south of Kadesh-Barnea, and passed to Hezron, and went up toward Adar, and turned toward Karkaa,

4 and passed on to Azmon, and went out by the torrent of Egypt; and the boundary line was at the sea. This shall be your south border.

5 And the east border was the Salt Sea to the end of the Jordan; and the border on the north side was from the bay of the sea at the end of the Jordan.

6 And the border went up to Beth-Hoglah, and passed on the north of Beth-Arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan, the son of Reuben;

7 And the border went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor, and northward looking toward Gilgal, which is opposite to the ascent of Adummim, which is the south side of the torrent; and the border passed to the waters of En-Shemesh, and its boundary line was at En-Rogel.

8 And the border went up to the valley of the son of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite on the south (it is Jerusalem) and the border went up to the top of the mountain which is before the valley of Hinnom westward at the far end of the Valley of the Giants northward.

9 And the border was drawn from the top of the mount to the fountain of the waters of Nephtoah; and it went up to the cities of Mount Ephron; and the border was drawn to Baalah (it is Kirjath-Jearim).

10 And the border turned around from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and passed toward the side of Mount Jearim on the north (it is Chesalon) and went down to Beth-Shemesh, and passed along by Timnah;

11 and the border went out to the side of Ekron northward; and the border was drawn to Shikkeron, and passed along to Mount Baalah, and went out to Jabneel. And the boundary line was at the sea.

12 And the west border was to the Great Sea, and its coast. This is the border of the sons of Judah all around, for their families.

13 And he gave a portion to Caleb the son of Jephunneh among the sons of Judah, according to the command of YAHWEH to Yahoshua: the City of Arba, the father of Anak; it is Hebron.

14 And Caleb dispossessed from there the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, the sons of Anak.

15 And he went up there to the ones living in Debir; and the name of Debir formerly was the City of Sepher.

16 And Caleb said, He who strikes the City of Sepher, and captures it, I shall give my daughter Achsah to him for a wife.

17 And Othniel, the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, captured it. And He gave his daughter Achsah to him for a wife.

18 And it happened, as she came, that she persuaded him to ask from her father a field. And she dismounted from the donkey, and Caleb said to her, What do you desire?

19 And she said, Give a blessing to me. You have given me the land of the south, then you shall give to me springs of water. And he gave to her the upper springs and the lower springs.

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Judah, for their families:
21 And the cities at the furthest border of the tribe of the sons of Judah were to the border of Edom in the south: Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur, 22 and Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah,
23 and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan,
24 Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth,
25 and Hazor, Hadattah, and Kerioth, and Hezron, which is Hazor, 26 Amam, and Shema, and Moladah,
27 and Hazar-Gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth-Palet, 28 and Hazar-Shual and Beer-Sheba and Bizjothjah, 29 Baalah, and Iim, and Azem,
30 and Eltolad, and Chesil, and Hormah,
31 and Ziklag, and Madmannah, and Sansannah,
32 and Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon. All the cities are twenty nine and their villages.
33 In the Lowlands were: Eshtaol, and Zoreah, and Ashnah, 34 and Zanoah, and En-Gannim, Tappuah, and Enam, 35 Jarmuth, and Adullam, Socoh, and Azekah,
36 and Sharaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederoth-Aim fourteen cities and their villages;
37 Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal-Gad,
38 and Dilean, and Mizpeh, and Joktheel,
39 Lachish and Bozkath, and Eglon,
40 and Cabbon, and Lahmam, and Kithlish,
41 and Gederoth, Beth-Dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah, sixteen cities and their villages;
42 Libnah, and Ether, and Ashan,
43 and Jiphtah, and Ashnah, and Nezib,
44 and Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah; nine cities and their villages
45 Ekron with its daughter-villages;
46 from Ekron even to the sea, all that were at hand by Ashdod, and their villages;
47 Ashdod with its daughter-villages; Gaza with its daughter-villages, to the river of Egypt, and the Great Sea, and its coast.
48 And in the hills: Shamir, and Jattir, and Socoh,
49 and Dannah, and Kirjath-Sannah, which is Debir,
50 and Anab, and Eshtemoh, and Anim,
51 and Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh; eleven cities and their villages,
52 Arab and Dumah, and Eshean,
53 and Janum, and Beth-Tappuah, and Aphekah,
54 and Humtah, and the City of Arba, which is Hebron, and Zior; nine cities and their villages, 55 Maon, Carmel and Ziph, and Juttah,
56 and Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah,
57 Cain, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities and their villages;
58 Halhul, Beth-Zur, and Gedor,
59 and Maarath, and Beth-Anoth, and Eltekon; six cities and their villages;
60 Kirjath-Baal, which is Kirjath-Jearim, and Rabbah; two cities and their villages.
61 In the wilderness, Beth-Arabah, Middin, and Secacah, 62 and Nibshan, and the city of Salt, and En-Gedi; six cities and their villages.
63 As for the Jebusites, the ones living in Jerusalem, the sons of Judah could not drive them out. But the Jebusites dwell with the sons of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

Chapter 16

1 And the lot of the sons of Joseph went out from the Jordan at Jericho, to the waters of Jericho eastward, to the wilderness which went from Jericho to the hills of Bethel.
2 And it went from Bethel to Luz, and passed on to the border of the Archites, to Ataroth;
3 and went down westward to the border of the Japhletites, to the border of Beth-Horon the lower, and to Gezer, and its boundary line was at the sea.
4 And Manasseh and Ephraim, the sons of Joseph, inherited.
5 And the border of the sons of Ephraim was by their families; the border of their inheritance on the east was Ataroth-Addar to Beth-Horon the upper.
6 And the border went out at the sea to Michmethah on the north; and the border went around eastward to Taanath-Shiloh, and passed by it eastward to Janohah;
7 and went down from Janohah to Ataroth, and to Naarath, and touched on Jericho, and went out at the Jordan.
8 From Tappuah, the border went westward to the river Kanah, and its boundary line was at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim, for their families.
9 And the separate cities of the sons of Ephraim were in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Manasseh, all the cities and their villages.
10 And they did not expel the Canaanite who lived in Gezer. And the Canaanite lives in the midst of Ephraim to this day, and is serving under tribute.

Chapter 17

1 And the lot came for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the first-born of Joseph, to Machir the first-born of Manasseh, father of Gilead, for he had been a man of battle, and he had Gilead and Bashan.
2 And there was a lot remaining for the sons of Manasseh, for their families, for the sons of Abiezer, and for the sons of Helek, and for the sons of Asriel, and for the sons of Shechem, and for the sons of Hepher, and for the sons of Shemida; these being the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families.
3 But Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters. And these were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
4 And they drew near before Eleazar the priest, and before Yahoshua the son of Nun, and before the rulers, saying, YAHWEH commanded Moses to give to us an inheritance among our brothers; and at the mouth of YAHWEH he gave to them an inheritance among their father's brothers.
5 And ten portions fell to Manasseh, besides that from the land of Gilead and Bashan beyond the Jordan;
6 because the daughters of Manasseh had inherited an inheritance among his sons; and the land of Gilead belonged to the sons of Manasseh who remained.
7 And the border of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah, which fronts on Shechem. And the border went up to the right to the ones living in En-Tappuah.
8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the sons of Ephraim.

9 And the border went down to the river Kanah, south of the river; these cities of Ephraim were in the midst of the cities of Manasseh, and the border of Manasseh was on the north of the river, and its boundary line was at the sea.

10 Southward, it was Ephraim's. And northward, it was Manasseh's, and the sea was its border. And they met in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east.

11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth-Shean and its daughter-villages, and Ibleam and its daughter-villages, and the ones living in Dor and its daughter-villages, and the ones living in Endor and its daughter-villages, and the ones living in Taanach and its daughter-villages, and the ones living in Megiddo and its daughter-villages; three regions.

12 But the sons of Manasseh had not been able to dispossess these cities, for the Canaanite determined to live in this land.

13 And it happened, when the sons of Israel became strong, they put the Canaanites to tribute, but did not completely dispossess them.

14 And the sons of Joseph spoke with Yahoshua, saying, Why have you given to me one lot and one portion as an inheritance, since I am a numerous people? For YAHWEH has blessed me until now.

15 And Yahoshua said to them, If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest for yourself, and you shall cut down for yourself there in the land of the Perizzite, and of the giants, if Mount Ephraim is too narrow for you.

16 And the sons of Joseph said, The hills will not be acquired for us. And every Canaanite who lives in the land of the valley has a chariot of iron, those that are of Beth-Shean and its daughter-villages, and of him who is in the valley of Jezreel.

17 And Yahoshua spoke to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, You are a numerous people, and have great power; you shall not have one lot, 18 because the hill is yours; because it is a forest, you shall cut it down, and its outer limits shall be yours; for you shall dispossess the Canaanite, even though it has chariots of iron; even though it is strong.

Chapter 18

1 And all the company of the sons of Israel were gathered at Shiloh. And they established the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land had been subdued before them.

2 And seven tribes were left among the sons of Israel who had not shared their inheritance.

3 And Yahoshua said to the sons of Israel, Until when will you fail to go in to possess the land which He, YAHWEH the Elohim of your fathers, has given to you?

4 Give from among you three men of a tribe, and I shall send them. And they shall go up and down through the land, and map it according to their inheritance; and then come to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven parts. Judah shall stay within their border on the south, and the house of Joseph shall stay within their border on the north.

6 And you shall map the land in seven parts, and shall bring it to me here. And I shall cast a lot for you here before YAHWEH our Elohim.

7 For there shall be no portion to the Levites among you, for the priesthood of YAHWEH is their inheritance. And Gad, and Reuben, and the half tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of YAHWEH gave to them.

8 And the men rose up and went. And Yahoshua commanded those who were going to map out the land, saying, Go, and walk up and down through the land, and map it, and return to me. And I will cast a lot for you here before YAHWEH at Shiloh.
9 And the men passed through the land, and mapped it by cities into seven parts, in a book. And they came to Yahoshua, to the camp at Shiloh.
10 And Yahoshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before YAHWEH. And Yahoshua apportioned the land to the sons of Israel there, according to their divisions.
11 And the lot of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin came up, according to their families, and the border of their lot went out between the sons of Judah and the sons of Joseph.
12 And their border was at the north side from the Jordan, and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hills westward; and its boundary line was at the wilderness of Beth-Aven;
13 and the border went up from there to Luz, to the side of Luz (it is Bethel) southward, and the border went down to Ataroth-Adar, near the hill that is on the south of the lower Beth-Horon;
14 and the border was drawn and went around to the sea coast southward, from the hill which fronts on Beth-Horon southward; and its boundary line was at the city of Baal; it is Kirjath-Jearim, a city of the sons of Judah; this is the west side.
15 And the south side was from the end of Kirjath-Jearim; and the border went out westward, and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah.
16 And the border went down to the end of the mountain that is before the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is in the Valley of the Giants northward, and went down the valley of Hinnom to the side of the Jebusite on the south, and went down to En-Rogel.
17 And it was drawn from the north and went out to En-Shemesh, and went out toward Geliloth, which is across from the ascent of Adummim, and went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben,
18 and passed on to the side opposite to the Arabah northward, and went down to the Arabah.
19 And the border passed on to the side of Beth-Hoglah northward, and the boundary line was at the north tongue of the Salt Sea, to the extreme south of the Jordan; this was the southern border.
20 And the Jordan borders it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin, according to its borders all around, according to their families.
21 And the cities for the tribe of the sons of Benjamin, by their families, were Jericho, Beth-Hoglah, and the valley of Keziz, 22 and Beth-Arabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel,
23 and Avvites, and Parah, and Ophrah,
24 and Chephar-Haammonai, and Ophni and Gaba; twelve cities and their villages;
25 Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth,
26 and Mizpeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah,
27 and Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah,
28 and Zelah, Eleph, and Jebusi, which is Jerusalem, Gibeath, and Kirjath; fourteen villages. This is the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin, by their families.

Chapter 19

1 And the second lot came forth to Simeon, for the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families. And their inheritance was inside the inheritance of the sons of Judah.
2 And they had for their inheritance, Beer-Sheba, and Sheba, and Moladah,
3 and Hazar-Shual, and Balah, and Azem,
4 and Eltolad, and Bethul, and Hormah,
5 and Ziklag, and Beth-Marcaboth, and Hazar-Susah,
6 and Beth-Lebaoth, and Sharuhen; thirteen cities and their villages;
7 Ain, Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan; four cities and their villages;
8 and all the villages that were all around these cities to Baalath-Beer, Ramah of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families.
9 The inheritance of the sons of Simeon was out of the portion of the sons of Judah. For the part of the sons of Judah was too much for them. Therefore, the sons of Simeon had their inheritance within their inheritance.
10 And the third lot came up for the sons of Zebulun according to their families. And the border of their inheritance was to Sarid.
11 And their border went up toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the torrent in front of Jokneam, 12 and turned east from Sarid toward the rising of the sun, to the border of The Flames of Tabor, and goes out to Daberath, and goes up to Japhia.
13 And from there it passes on along on the east to Gittah-Hepher, to Ittah-Kazin, and goes out to Remmon-Methoar to Neah.
14 And the border goes around it on the north side to Hannathon, and its boundaries are in the valley of Jiphthahel, 15 and Kattath, and Nahallal, and Shimron, and Idalah, and Bethlehem; twelve cities and their villages.
16 This is the inheritance of the sons of Zebulun according to their families, these cities and their villages.
17 The fourth lot came out to Issachar, for the sons of Issachar according to their families.
18 And their border was toward Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem, 19 and Hapharaim, and Shihon, and Anaharath,
20 and Rabbith, and Kishion, and Abez,
21 and Remeth, and En-Gannim, and En-Haddah, and Beth-Pazzez.
22 And the border reaches to Tabor, and Shahazimah, and Beth-Shemesh. And the boundaries of their border were at Jordan; sixteen cities and their villages.
23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their villages.
24 And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the sons of Asher, according to their families.
25 And their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph, 26 and Alammelech, and Amad, and Misheal, and reaches to Carmel westward, and to Shihor-Libnath.
27 And it turns toward the rising of the sun to Beth-Dagon, and it reaches to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthahel toward the north side of Beth-Emek, and Neiel, and goes out to Cabul on the left hand, 28 and Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah to great Sidon.

29 And the border turns to Ramah, and to the strong city Tyre. And the border turns to Hosah, and the outer limits of it are at the sea from the line to Achzib, 30 and Ummah, and Aphek, and Rehob; twenty two cities and their villages.
31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their families, these cities and their villages.
32 The sixth lot came out to the sons of Naphtali, for the sons of Naphtali by their families.
33 And their border was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaanannim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, to Lakum. And its boundaries were at Jordan.
34 And the border turns west toward Aznoth-Tabor, and goes out from there to Hukkok, and reached to Zebulun on the south side, and reaches to Asher on the west side, and to Judah on Jordan toward the rising of the sun;
35 and the fortified cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth, 36 and Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor,
37 and Kedesh, and Edrei, and Enhazor,
38 and Iron, and Migdalel, Horem, and Beth-Anath, and Beth-Shemesh; nineteen cities and their villages.
39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali by their families, the cities and their villages.
40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the sons of Dan by their families.
41 And the border of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Irshemesh, 42 and Shaalabbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah,
43 and Elon, and Timnah, and Ekron,
44 and Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath,
45 and Jehud, and Beneberak, and Gath-Rimmon,
46 and Mejarkon, and Rakkon, with the border before Japho.
47 And the border of the sons of Dan came out too little for them. And the sons of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and struck it with the mouth of the sword, and possessed it, and lived in it. And they called Leshem Dan, after the name of their father Dan.
48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Dan by their families, these cities and their villages.
49 When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their borders, the sons of Israel gave an inheritance to Yahoshua the son of Nun among them.
50 According to the mouth of YAHWEH, they gave him the city which he asked, Timnath-Serah in Mount Ephraim. And he built the city and lived in it.
51 These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, and Yahoshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before YAHWEH, at the door of the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing the land.

Chapter 20

1 And YAHWEH spoke to Yahoshua, saying,
2 Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, appoint cities of refuge for you, as I have spoken to you by the hand of Moses,
3 that the manslayer who in innocence strikes anyone mortally, without knowing, may flee there. And they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 And he shall flee to one of those cities and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and shall declare his matter in the ears of the elders of that city. And they shall take him into the city to themselves, and shall give him a place, and he shall live with them.

5 And if the avenger of blood pursues him, then they shall not deliver the manslayer into his hand, for he has struck his neighbor without knowing, and did not hate him yesterday and the day before.

6 And he shall live in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the high priest who is in those days. Then the manslayer shall return and come to his city, and to his house, to the city from where he fled.

7 And they set apart Kadesh in Galilee, in the hills of Naphtali; and Shechem in the hills of Ephraim; and Kirjath-Arba; (it is Hebron) in the hills of Judah.

8 And beyond the Jordan, at Jericho eastward, they gave Bezer in the wilderness, on the tableland out of the tribe of Reuben; and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad; and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.

9 These were the appointed cities for all the sons of Israel, and for the alien who was living in their midst, that he who had struck anyone mortally without knowing might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the congregation.

Chapter 21

1 And the heads of the fathers of the Levites came near to Eleazar the priest, and to Yahoshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel.

2 And they spoke to them in Shiloh, in the land of Canaan, saying, YAHWEH commanded by the hand of Moses to give cities to us to live in, and their open land for our livestock.

3 And the sons of Israel gave to the Levites out of their inheritance these cities and their open land, at the mouth of YAHWEH:

4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And the sons of Aaron the priest, of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities.

5 And the rest of the sons of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

6 And the sons of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

7 The sons of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

8 And the sons of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their open land, as YAHWEH commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 And they gave out of the tribe of the sons of Judah, and out of the tribe of the sons of Simeon, these cities which are called by name,

10 which the sons of Aaron had, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the sons of Levi. For theirs was the first lot.

11 And they gave them the City of Arba, the father of Anak (which is Hebron) in the hills of Judah, with its open lands around it.

12 But the fields of the city, and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his own.
13 So they gave Hebron and its open lands to the sons of Aaron the priest as a city of refuge for the slayer, and Libnah and its open lands,
14 and Jattir and its open lands, and Eshtemoa and its open lands,
15 and Holon and its open lands, and Debir and its open lands,
16 and Ain and its open lands, and Juttah and its open lands, and Beth-Shemesh and its open lands; nine cities out of those two tribes.
17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon and its open lands, Geba and its open lands, 18 Anathoth and its open lands, and Almon and its open lands; four cities.
19 And all the cities of the sons of Aaron the priest were thirteen cities and their open land.
20 And the families of the sons of Kohath, the Levites who were left of the sons of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim.
21 And they gave them Shechem and its open land in Mount Ephraim as a city of refuge for the manslayer, and Gezer and its open lands, 22 and Kibzaim and its open lands, and Beth-Horon and its open lands; four cities.
23 And out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh and its open lands, Gibbethon and its open lands, 24 Aijalon and its open lands, Gath-Rimmon and its open lands; four cities.
25 And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Taanach and its open lands, and Gathrimmon and its open lands; two cities.
26 All the cities were ten, and their open land, for the families of the sons of Kohath that were left.
27 And to the sons of Gershon, of the families of the Levites from the half tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan in Bashan and its open lands as a city of refuge for the manslayer, and Be-Eshterah and its open lands; two cities.
28 And from the tribe of Issachar they gave Kishon and its open lands, and Daberath and its open lands, 29 Jarmuth and its open lands, En-Gannim and its open lands; four cities.
30 And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal and its open lands, Abdon and its open lands, 31 Helkath and its open lands, Rehob and its open lands; four cities.
32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee and its open lands as a city of refuge for the manslayer, and Hammoth-Dor and its open lands, and Kartan, and its open lands; three cities.
33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities and their open land.
34 And to the families of the sons of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, they gave Jokneam and its open lands, and Kartah and its open lands, 35 Dimnah and its open lands, Nahalal and its open lands; four cities.
36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer and its open lands, and Jahazah and its open lands, 37 Kedemoth and its open lands, and Mephaath and its open lands; four cities.
38 And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead and its open lands as a city of refuge for the manslayer, and Mahanaim and its open lands, 39 Heshbon and its open lands, Jazer and its open lands; four cities in all.

40 All the cities for the sons of Merari by their families, those left of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the sons of Israel were forty eight cities and their open land.

42 These cities were every one with their open land around them. So it was to all these cities.

43 And YAHWEH gave to Israel all the land which He swore to give to their fathers. And they possessed it, and lived in it.

44 And YAHWEH gave them rest round about, according to all that He swore to their fathers. And not a man of all their enemies stood before them. YAHWEH delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45 Nor did fail a word from any good word which YAHWEH had spoken to the house of Israel. All came to pass[1].

Chapter 22

1 Then Yahoshua called for the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh,

2 and said to them, You have done all that which Moses the servant of YAHWEH commanded you. And you have listened to my voice, to all that I have commanded you.

3 You have not left your brothers these many days until today, and have kept the observance of the command of YAHWEH your Elohim.

4 And now YAHWEH your Elohim has given rest to your brothers, as He spoke to them. And now you turn and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of YAHWEH has given to you beyond the Jordan.

5 Only, be very much on guard to do the commandments and the Torah which Moses the servant of YAHWEH commanded you, to love YAHWEH your Elohim, and to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments, and to cleave to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

6 And Yahoshua blessed them and sent them away. And they went to their tents.

7 And to the half tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given possession in Bashan. And to its other half Yahoshua had given possession with their brothers beyond the Jordan westward. And also when Yahoshua had sent them away to their tents, then he blessed them.

8 And he spoke to them, saying, You are returning to your tents with great treasures, and with very much livestock, with silver, and with gold, and with copper, and with iron, and with much clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers.

9 And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh turned and left the sons of Israel from Shiloh in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, to the land of their possession in which they have possession, according to the command of YAHWEH by the hand of Moses.

10 And when they came to the regions of the Jordan in the land of Canaan, then the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh built an altar there by the Jordan, an altar of grand appearance.

1 The covenant blessings that Yahweh promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are primarily millennium blessings, but in a physical way these blessings were fulfilled to Israel. The big difference in the millennium is that the people will have eternal life at that time.

11 And the sons of Israel heard it said, Behold, the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar across from the land of Canaan, in the regions of the Jordan, at the border of the sons of Israel.

12 And the sons of Israel heard, and all the company of the sons of Israel assembled at Shiloh to go up against them to war.

13 And the sons of Israel sent Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest to the sons of Reuben, and to the sons of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead,

14 and ten rulers with him, one ruler each for the house of a father, for all the tribes of Israel, and each of them a head of the house of their fathers, for the thousands of Israel.

15 And they came to the sons of Reuben, and to the sons of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and spoke with them, saying,

16 So says all the company of YAHWEH, What is this treachery with which the Elohim of Israel was betrayed, to turn back today from after YAHWEH, in that you built for yourself an altar so that you might rebel today against YAHWEH?

17 Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we have not been cleansed until this day? Yea, a plague came on the company of YAHWEH;

18 that you turn away today from following after YAHWEH? And it shall be that today you rebel against YAHWEH, and tomorrow He shall be angry with all the company of Israel.

19 And surely, if the land of your possession is unclean, you may cross over to the land of the possession of YAHWEH, there where the tabernacle of YAHWEH dwells, and have possession among us. But do not rebel against YAHWEH, and do not rebel against us, by building for yourselves an altar besides the altar of YAHWEH our Elohim.

20 Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a sin in the cursed thing, and was there not wrath on all the company of Israel? And he was not the only one to die in his iniquity.

21 And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh answered and spoke with the heads of the thousands of Israel,

22 YAHWEH is the El of Elohims; YAHWEH is the El of Elohims! He knows, and Israel shall know, if it is in rebellion, and if it is in treachery against YAHWEH, you shall not save us alive today.

23 If we built an altar for ourselves to turn away from following after YAHWEH, or to sacrifice on it burnt offering and food offering, or to offer on it sacrifices of peace, may YAHWEH Himself require it.

24 But surely from anxiety, for a reason, we have done this, saying, In the future your sons shall speak to our sons, saying, What is to you and to YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel?

25 For YAHWEH has put a border between you and us, O sons of Reuben, and sons of Gad; it is the Jordan. You have no portion in YAHWEH! And your sons will cause our sons to fail, not fearing YAHWEH.

26 And we said, Let us now prepare for ourselves, to build an altar, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice,

27 but it shall be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, to do the service of YAHWEH before Him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices and with our peace offerings; that your sons may not say to our sons in the future, You have no portion in YAHWEH.

28 And we said, And it shall be, when they say this to us, and to our generations hereafter, that we shall say, See the pattern of the altar of YAHWEH, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice, but a testimony it is between us and you.

29 Far be it from us to rebel against YAHWEH, and to turn away today from following after YAHWEH, to build an altar for burnt offering, for food offering, and for sacrifice, apart from the altar of YAHWEH our Elohim, which is before His tabernacle!

30 And Phinehas the priest, and the rulers of the congregation and the heads of the thousands of Israel with him heard the words which the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and the sons of Manasseh had spoken. And it was good in their eyes.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the sons of Reuben, and to the sons of Gad, and to the sons of Manasseh, Today we have known that YAHWEH is among us, because you have not betrayed this treachery against YAHWEH. Now you have delivered the sons of Israel out of the hand of YAHWEH.

32 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the rulers, returned from the sons of Reuben, and from the sons of Gad out of the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel, and brought word back to them.

33 And the thing was good in the eyes of the sons of Israel, and the sons of Israel blessed Elohim and none said to go up against them to war, to destroy the land which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad were living in.

34 And the sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad proclaimed regarding the altar, that it was a witness between us that YAHWEH is Elohim.

Chapter 23

1 And it happened many days after YAHWEH had given rest to Israel from all their enemies all around, that Yahoshua was old, going on in days.

2 And Yahoshua called for all Israel, for its elders, and for its heads, and for its judges, and for its officers, and said to them, I have become old, I have gone on in days;

3 and you have seen all that YAHWEH your Elohim has done to all these nations because of you, for YAHWEH your Elohim was He who was fighting for you.

4 Behold, I have caused to fall to you these nations that are left to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, as far as the Great Sea, toward the setting of the sun.

5 And YAHWEH your Elohim, He will thrust them out from before you, and will expel them from before you, and you shall possess their land, as YAHWEH your Elohim has spoken to you.

6 And you shall be very strong to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the Law of Moses, so as not to turn aside from it to the right or to the left;

7 so as not to go in among these nations, these who are left with you; and that you do not give glory to the name of their gods, nor shall you swear, nor shall you serve them, nor shall you bow yourselves to them.

8 But you shall cling to YAHWEH your Elohim, as you have done until today.

9 And YAHWEH has expelled from before you great and mighty nations.

And as for you no one has stood before you until today.
10 One man of you shall pursue a thousand; for YAHWEH your Elohim is He who is fighting for you, as He has spoken to you.
11 And you shall be very watchful for yourselves to love YAHWEH your Elohim.
12 But if you at all turn away and cleave to the remnant of the nations, of those who are left to you, and intermarry with them, and go in to them, and they to you,
13 know certainly that YAHWEH your Elohim shall not continue to expel these nations from before you, and they shall be snares and traps to you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off of this good land which YAHWEH your Elohim has given you[1].
14 And, behold! Today I am going in the way of all the earth, and you know with all your heart and with all your soul that there has not failed one thing of all the good things which YAHWEH your Elohim has spoken concerning you; all of it has come to you; there has not one thing failed of it.
15 And it shall be, as every good thing which YAHWEH your Elohim has spoken to you comes to you, so shall YAHWEH bring on you every evil thing, until He destroys you from off this good land which YAHWEH your Elohim has given to you,
16 when you transgress the covenant of YAHWEH your Elohim which He commanded you, and when you have gone and served other gods, and have bowed yourselves to them, then the anger of YAHWEH shall glow against you; and you shall perish quickly from off the good land which He has given to you[2].

Chapter 24

1 And Yahoshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for its heads, and for its judges, and for its officers. And they placed themselves before Elohim.
2 And Yahoshua said to all the people, So says YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel, Your fathers have in the past lived Beyond the River (Terah the father of Abraham and father of Nahor) and they served other gods.
3 And I took your father Abraham from Beyond the River, and caused him to go through all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave Isaac to him.
4 And I gave Jacob and Esau to Isaac. And I gave Mount Seir to Esau, to possess it. And Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.
5 And I sent Moses and Aaron and plagued Egypt, as I did in its midst. And afterward I brought you out.
6 And I brought your fathers out from Egypt, and you went into the sea, and the Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and with horsemen, into the Red Sea.
7 And they cried to YAHWEH, and He set thick darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea on

1 The sanctification or setting apart of the covenant people of Yahweh is a running theme throughout the entire bible. Covenant believers are told to be in the world, but not of the world (Joh 17:11-16, 1 Joh 2:15-17), and it is forbidden in both the 1st and New Covenant to marry unbelievers (2Cor 6:114-18).

2 You cannot separate the land of Israel from the covenant of Yahweh. Many today blindly try to do this through replacement theology, which is nowhere found in scripture.

them, and covered them. And your eyes saw that which I have done in Egypt. And you lived in the wilderness many days.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorite who lived beyond the Jordan. And they fought with you, and I gave them into your hand, and you possessed their land. And I destroyed them before you.

9 And Balak the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, rose up and fought against Israel, and sent and called for Balaam the son of Beor to curse you.

10 And I was not willing to listen to Balaam, and he greatly blessed you. And I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And you crossed over the Jordan and came to Jericho. And the masters of Jericho fought against you, the Amorite and the Perizzite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Girgashite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I gave them into your hand.

12 And I sent the hornet before you, and it cast them out before you, two kings of the Amorites, not by the sword nor by your bow.

13 And I have given you a land for which you have not labored, and cities which you have not built, and you live in them. You are eating of vineyards and olive-yards which you did not plant.

14 Now, then, fear YAHWEH, and serve Him in sincerity and truth, and turn away from the gods which your fathers served Beyond the River, and in Egypt; and you serve YAHWEH.

15 And if it seems evil in your eyes to serve YAHWEH, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve, whether the gods whom your fathers served Beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living. But as for me and my house, we will serve YAHWEH.

16 And the people replied and said, Far be it from us to forsake YAHWEH, to serve other gods.

17 For YAHWEH our Elohim is He who has brought us and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slaves, and who has done these great signs before our eyes, and has preserved us in all the way in which we have gone, and among all the people through whom we have passed.

18 And YAHWEH has cast out all the peoples, even the Amorite inhabiting the land before us. We also will serve YAHWEH, for They are a holy Elohim.

19 And Yahoshua said to the people, You cannot serve YAHWEH, for They are a holy Elohim[1]; He is a jealous El. He will not lift up from you your transgressions or your sins.

20 When you forsake YAHWEH, and shall serve strange gods then He will turn away and do evil to you, and consume you, after He has done good to you.

21 And the people said to Yahoshua, No, but we will serve YAHWEH.

22 And Yahoshua said to the people, You are witnesses against yourselves, that you have chosen YAHWEH for yourselves, to serve Him (for they said, We are witnesses).

23 And now turn away from the strange gods among you, and incline your heart to YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel.

24 And the people said to Yahoshua,

1 The word Elohim is a plural noun and here the pronoun "they" is also plural. Yahweh in scripture is a family name. More than 50 times we see the Father referred to as Yah Yahweh, and His Son is Yahshua Yahweh (Pr 30:4). When a new believer is baptized to join the covenant of Yahweh, he is immersed in the family name of Yahweh.

We will serve YAHWEH our Elohim, and we will listen to His voice.
25 And Yahoshua cut a covenant with the people on that day, and laid on them a law and a statute in Shechem.
26 And Yahoshua wrote these words in the book of the Torah of Elohim, and took a great stone and raised it up there under the oak by the sanctuary of YAHWEH.
27 And Yahoshua said to all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness against us, for it has heard all the sayings of YAHWEH which He has spoken with us. And it shall be against you for a witness, that you not lie against your Elohim[1].
28 And Yahoshua sent the people away, each to his inheritance.[2] 29 And it happened after these things, the servant of YAHWEH, Yahoshua the son of Nun died, being a son of a hundred and ten.
30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance, in Timnath-Serah, which is in the hills of Ephraim, on the north of the Hill of Gaash.
31 And Israel served YAHWEH all the days of Yahoshua, and all the days of the elders whose days were prolonged after Yahoshua, and who knew all the work of YAHWEH which He did to Israel.
32 And the bones of Joseph which the sons of Israel brought up out of Egypt, they buried in Shechem, in the portion of the field which Jacob bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem, for a hundred silver pieces. And they were for an inheritance to the sons of Joseph.
33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died, and they buried him in the hill of Phinehas his son, which was given to him in the hills of Ephraim.

1 Yahoshua 24:14-27 is an extremely important part of scripture and clearly shows the difference between the first covenant, which was cause and effect, and the New Covenant in which Yahweh sent His son to pay the penalty of sin and He remembers those sins no more.
In the first covenant there was forgiveness for sins of ignorance (Lev 4) but the penalty of those sins still remained. Each year on Yom Kippur (kippur means covering, not removal) the sins were placed on the altar and covered over until the next year. In the Torah, forgiveness must be followed by restitution of what was stolen or lost through the sin. This fact is completely lost in the false, easy grace that most of Christianity teaches today.

2 There were 4 sins that brought the death penalty and could not have a sacrifice to cover them. They were murder, blasphemy, idolatry and adultery. Yahshua by magnifying the Torah and showing that sin starts in the mind, He showed that to Yahweh "anger is murder, and lust is adultery". By realizing this sobering fact, it clearly shows that none are righteous (Ro 3:10-23) and we all need the blood of Messiah who poured out His blood to establish the New Covenant and pay the penalty of the sins of those who repent and are baptized into the covenant in His name.

Book of Judges

Chapter 1

1 And it was after the death of Yahoshua, the sons of Israel inquired of YAHWEH, saying, Who shall first go up for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them?

2 And YAHWEH said, Judah shall go up. Behold, I have given the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said to his brother Simeon, Go up with me into my lot, and we shall fight against the Canaanites. And I also will go with you into your lot. And Simeon went with him.

4 And Judah went up, and YAHWEH delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand. And they struck them in Bezek, ten thousand men.

5 And they found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and fought against him, and struck the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 And Adoni-Bezek fled, and they pursued him and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his big toes.

7 And Adoni-Bezek said, Seventy kings with their thumbs and their big toes cut off used to be gathering scraps under my table. As I have done, so Elohim has repaid me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

8 And the sons of Judah fought against Jerusalem, and captured it, and struck it with the mouth of the sword, and set the city on fire.

9 And afterward the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the mountains, and the Negev, and the Shefelah.

10 And Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (and the name of Hebron was formerly City of Arba) and they struck Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.

11 And from there he went against the ones living in Debir, and the name of Debir formerly was City of Sepher.

12 And Caleb said, He who strikes the City of Sepher and captures it, I shall give my daughter Achsah to him for a wife.

13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, the younger one, captured it. And he gave his daughter Achsah to him for a wife.

14 And it happened as she came, she persuaded him to ask a field from her father. And she dismounted from the donkey. And Caleb said to her, What do you desire?

15 And she said to him, Give a blessing to me. Since you have given me the land of the Negev, also you shall give springs of water to me. And Caleb gave the upper springs and the lower springs to her.

16 And the sons of the Kenite, the father-in-law of Moses, had gone up out of the city of palms with the sons of Judah to the wilderness of Judah, which is in the south of Arad. And they went and lived with the people.

17 And Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they struck the Canaanites living in Zephath and destroyed it. And the name of the city was called Hormah.

18 And Judah captured Gaza and its border, and Ashkelon and its border, and Ekron and its border.

19 And YAHWEH was with Judah, and he occupied the hills, but did not expel the ones living in the valley, for they had chariots of iron.

20 And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said. And He expelled the three sons of Anak from there.

21 And the sons of Benjamin did not expel the Jebusites living in Jerusalem. And the Jebusites live with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem until this day.

22 And the house of Joseph went up, they also against Bethel. And YAHWEH was with them.
23 And the house of Joseph scouted around Bethel, and the name of the city formerly was Luz.
24 And those keeping watch saw a man coming out from the city and said to him, Let us see the entrance of the city, and we will deal with you with mercy.
25 And he showed them the entrance of the city. And they struck the city with the mouth of the sword; and they sent away the man and all his family.
26 And the man went to the land of the Hittites and built a city, and called its name Luz; it is its name to this day.
27 And Manasseh had not expelled
Beth-Shean and its daughter-villages, or Taanach and its daughter-villages, nor struck the ones living in Dor and its daughter-villages, nor the ones living in Ibleam and its daughter-villages; or the ones living in Megiddo and its daughter-villages. For the Canaanites desired to live in that land.
28 But it happened when Israel became strong, it happened that they put the Canaanites to tribute, but did not completely expel them.
29 And Ephraim did not expel the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, and the Canaanites lived among them in Gezer.
30 Zebulun did not expel the inhabitants of Kitron, and the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites lived among them, and they became forced-laborers.
31 And Asher did not expel the ones living in Accho, and the ones living in Sidon, and Ahlab, and Achzib, and Helbah, and Aphik, and Rehob.
32 And the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the ones living in the land, for they did not expel them.
33 Naphtali did not expel the ones living in Beth-Shemesh, and the ones living in Beth-Anath, and they lived among the Canaanites, the ones living in the land. But the ones living in Beth-Shemesh and Beth-Anath became forced-laborers to them.
34 And the Amorites pressed the sons of Dan into the hills, for they would not allow them to come down to the valley.
35 But the Amorites were determined to live in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim. Yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became forced-laborers.
36 And the border of the Amorites was from the ascent of Akrabbim, from the rock and upward.

Chapter 2

1 And the Messenger of YAHWEH came up from Gilgal to The Place of Weeping, and said, I caused you to come up out of Egypt and brought you into the land which I had sworn to your fathers, and said, I will not break
My covenant with you forever.
2 And you, you shall cut no covenant with the ones living in this land. You shall break down their altars. Yet you have not listened to My voice. What is this you have done?
3 And I also have said, I shall not expel them before you, and they shall become adversaries to you; and their gods shall become a snare to you.
4 And it happened when the Messenger of YAHWEH spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, the people lifted up their voice and wept.
5 And they called the name of that place Bochim (The place of weeping);
and sacrificed to YAHWEH there.
6 And Yahoshua sent the people away, and the sons of Israel each went to his inheritance, to possess the land.

7 And the people served YAHWEH all the days of Yahoshua, and all the days of the elders who prolonged their days after Yahoshua, who saw all the great work of YAHWEH which He had done for Israel.
8 And Yahoshua the son of Nun, the servant of YAHWEH, died, being a son of a hundred and ten years.
9 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance, in Timnath-Heres, in the hills of Ephraim on the north of Mount Gaash.
10 And also all that generation was gathered to their fathers, and another generation arose after them who had not known YAHWEH, nor yet the works which He had done for Israel.
11 And the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of YAHWEH, and served the Baals.
12 And they forsook YAHWEH, the Elohim of their fathers, who brought them out from the land of Egypt. And they went after other gods, of the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed themselves to them, and angered YAHWEH.
13 Yea, they forsook YAHWEH, and served Baal and the Ashtoreths.
14 And the anger of YAHWEH glowed against Israel, and He gave them into the hand of plunderers; and they plundered them. And He sold them into the hand of their enemies all around, and they were not able to stand before their enemies any longer.
15 Wherever they went, the hand of YAHWEH was against them for evil, as YAHWEH had spoken, and as YAHWEH had sworn to them. And it distressed them very much.
16 And YAHWEH raised up judges, and they saved them from the hand of their plunderers.
17 But they also did not listen even to their judges, but went whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves to them. They quickly turned aside out of the way in which their fathers walked to obey the commands of YAHWEH.
They did not do so.
18 And when YAHWEH raised up judges to them, then YAHWEH was with the judge, and rescued them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge. For YAHWEH took pity because of their groaning before their oppressors, and those that crushed them.
19 And at the death of the judge, it happened that they would turn and act more corruptly than their fathers, to go after other gods, to serve them, and to bow themselves to them. And they did not fall away from their own practices, and from their stubborn way.
20 And the anger of YAHWEH
glowed against Israel. And He said, Because this nation has transgressed
My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not listened to My voice,
21 I also from now on will not drive out any from before them of the nations that Yahoshua left when he died;
22 so that by them I may test Israel, whether they are keeping the way of YAHWEH, to go in it, as their fathers kept it, or not.
23 And YAHWEH left those nations without dispossessing them quickly.
And He did not deliver them into the hand of Yahoshua.

Chapter 3

1 And these are the nations which YAHWEH left in order to test Israel by them, all who did not know all the wars of Canaan;
2 only that the generations of the sons of Israel might know, to teach them war, only those who did not before know them:

3 five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that lived in Mount Lebanon from Mount Baal-Hermon to the entering of Hamath.
4 And they existed to test Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to the commands of YAHWEH, which He had commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.
5 And the sons of Israel lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.
6 And they took their daughters to themselves for wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and they served their gods.
7 And the sons of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of YAHWEH, and forgot YAHWEH their Elohim, and served the Baals and the Asherahs.
8 And the anger of YAHWEH glowed against Israel. And He gave them over into the hand of Chushan-Rishathaim, king of Mesopotamia. And the sons of Israel served Chushan-Rishathaim eight years.
9 And when the sons of Israel cried to YAHWEH, YAHWEH raised up a deliverer to the sons of Israel, Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, who saved them.
10 And the Spirit of YAHWEH was put on him, and he judged Israel. And he went out to war, and YAHWEH gave Chushan-Rishathaim the king of Mesopotamia into his hand. And his hand had power over Chushan-Rishathaim.
11 And the land had rest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.
12 And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of YAHWEH. And YAHWEH made Eglon the king of Moab strong against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of YAHWEH.
13 And he gathered to him the sons of Ammon and Amalek, and went and struck Israel. And they possessed the city of palm trees.
14 And the sons of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.
15 And the sons of Israel cried to YAHWEH, even YAHWEH raised up a deliverer to them, Ehud the son of Gera, a son of the Benjamite, a man with his right hand impeded. And the sons of Israel sent a present by his hand to Eglon the king of Moab.
16 And Ehud made a sword for himself, and it had two edges, a cubit in length. And he girded it under his long robe, on his right thigh.
17 And he brought the present to Eglon the king of Moab; and Eglon was a very fat man.
18 And it happened, when he had finished offering the present, he sent away the people, the bearers of the present.
19 And he himself turned back from the carved images at Gilgal, and said, I have a secret word for you, O king. And he said, Be silent! And all those standing beside him went out from him.
20 And Ehud came to him. And he was sitting by himself in the cool roof room which was his. And Ehud said, I have a word from Elohim to you. And he rose out of his seat.
21 And Ehud put out his left hand and took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into Eglon's belly.
22 And the haft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed on the blade; for he did not draw the sword out of his belly. And it came out behind.
23 Then Ehud went out to the porch, and shut the doors of the roof room on him, and locked them.

24 And when he had gone out, his servants came. And they looked, and, behold, the doors of the roof room were locked. And they said, Surely he is covering his feet in the cool roof room.

25 And they waited until they were ashamed. And, behold! He did not open the doors of the room. So they took the key and opened them. And, behold, their master had fallen down to the earth dead.

26 And Ehud escaped while they waited. And he had passed by the images, and had slipped away to Seirath.

27 And it happened, when he had come, he blew a horn in the hills of Ephraim. And the sons of Israel came down with him from the hills, and he before them.

28 And he said to them, Follow me, for YAHWEH has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him and took the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites. And they did not allow a man to pass over.

29 And they struck about ten thousand men of Moab at that time, every lusty man, all mighty men. And not a man escaped.

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest eighty years.

31 And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who struck six hundred men of the Philistines with an ox goad. And he also delivered Israel.

Chapter 4

1 And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of YAHWEH when Ehud was dead.

2 And YAHWEH sold them into the hand of Jabin the king of Canaan, who ruled in Hazor. And his army commander was Sisera; and he lived in Harosheth of the nations.

3 And the sons of Israel cried to YAHWEH, for he had nine hundred chariots of iron. And he mightily oppressed the sons of Israel twenty years.

4 And Deborah the wife of Lapidoth, a woman prophetess, was judging Israel at that time.

5 And she lived under the palm tree of Deborah, between Ramah and Bethel, in the hills of Ephraim. And the sons of Israel went up to her for judgment.

6 And she sent and called for Barak, the son of Abinoam, out of Kadesh in Naphtali, and said to him, Has not YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel commanded? Go and draw toward Mount Tabor, and take ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali, and of the sons of Zebulun with you.

7 And I will draw to you at the Kishon River, Sisera, the army commander of Jabin, and his chariots, and his multitude, and shall give him into your hands.

8 And Barak said to her, If you go with me, then I will go. And if you will not go with me, I will not go.

9 And she said, I will certainly go with you; but, surely you shall not get the glory because of the way which you are going, for YAHWEH shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah rose up and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali together to Kedesh. And he went up with ten thousand men at his feet. And Deborah went up with him.[1] 11 And Heber the Kenite had broken away from the Kenites, he being of the children of Hobab, the father-in-law of Moses. And he pitched his tent by the oak in Zaanaim, near Kedesh.

12 And they told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera mustered all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people with him, from Harosheth of the nations, to the Kishon River.

14 And Deborah said to Barak, Rise up, for this is the day in which YAHWEH has given Sisera into your hand. Has not YAHWEH gone out before you? And Barak went down from Mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And YAHWEH routed Sisera, and all the chariots, and all the army, by the mouth of the sword, before Barak. And Sisera came down from the chariot and fled on his feet.

16 And Barak pursued the chariots and went after the army, to Harosheth of the nations. And all the army of Sisera fell by the mouth of the sword; there was not even one left.

17 And Sisera fled on his feet to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite. For there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, Turn aside, my master; turn aside to me; do not fear. And he turned in to her into the tent; and she covered him with a rug.

19 And he said to her, Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty. And she opened a skin of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 And he said to her, Stand at the door of the tent, and it shall be if anyone comes in and asks you, and says, Is there a man here? Then you shall say, There is not.

21 And Jael the wife of Heber took a tent peg, and took a hammer in her hand, and went to him secretly. And she drove the peg into his temple, and she beat it into the ground. And he had been fast asleep, and faint; and he died.

22 And, behold, as Barak followed Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking. And he came in to her, and, behold! Sisera had fallen dead with the peg in his temple.

23 And on that day Elohim humbled Jabin the king of Canaan before the sons of Israel.

24 And the hand of the sons of Israel went on, going on and pressing hard on Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had cut off Jabin the king of Canaan.

Chapter 5

1 And Deborah and Barak, the son of Abinoam, sang on that day, saying:

2 For the absolving of the leadership of Israel; for the volunteering of the people, bless YAHWEH!

3 Listen, O kings; give ear, O princes. I, even I, will sing to YAHWEH; I will sing praise to YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel.

4 O YAHWEH, when You went forth out of Seir, when You marched out of the fields of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped. Yea, the clouds dropped water.

5 The mountains quaked before the

[1] According to Yahweh's judicial order, women are not to be in a position of authority over a man and it would have been a shame on Israel that a woman would have been the leader of the victory. (Gen 3:16, 1Tim 2:11-14)

face of YAHWEH, this Sinai quaked from before YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel.
6 In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways ceased, and those going in the paths traveled in byways.
7 The leaders ceased in Israel; they ceased until I, Deborah, arose; I arose as a mother in Israel.
8 They chose new gods; then war was at the gates! Neither a shield nor a spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.
9 My heart was toward the lawgivers of Israel, who volunteered among the people; bless YAHWEH!
10 You that ride on white donkeys, you that sit on rich carpets, and you going on the way, sing out!
11 Louder than the voice of the dividers between the watering places there, they shall tell of the righteous acts of YAHWEH, the righteous acts of His leaders in Israel. Then the people of YAHWEH went down to the gates.
12 Awake, awake, Deborah! Awake, awake, utter a song! Rise, Barak, and lead your captives captive, son of Abinoam.
13 Then He caused me to tread on the remnant of the noble ones of the people; YAHWEH trod for me among the warriors.
14 Out of Ephraim they came, those whose root was against Amalek. After you, Benjamin, among your peoples; and out of Machir came down commanders; and out of Zebulun the ones that hold the staff of the scribe.
15 And my commanders in Issachar were with Deborah; as was Issachar, so was Barak. They were sent into the valley at his feet. Among the divisions of Reuben resolves of heart were great!
16 Why did you sit between the sheepfolds to hear the bleating of flocks? At the divisions of Reuben searchings of heart were great!
17 Gilead remained beyond the Jordan; and why did Dan stay in ships? Asher sat at the shore by the water, and remained by his havens.
18 Zebulun, a people who despised his life, even to death; also Naphtali on the high places of the field.
19 Kings came; they fought; then the kings of Canaan fought in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo; they took no gain of silver.
20 The stars fought from the heavens; from their courses they fought with Sisera.
21 The Kishon torrent swept them away, the ancient river, the Kishon torrent. You trod, my soul, in strength.
22 Then did the hooves of horses beat from the galloping, galloping of his mighty stallions.
23 Curse Meroz, said the Messenger of YAHWEH; curse the ones living in it bitterly, because they did not come to the help of YAHWEH, to the help of YAHWEH against the warriors.
24 Most blessed among women is Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite. She is blessed among women in the tent.
25 He asked for water; she gave him milk; in a noble bowl she brought curd.
26 She put her hand to the tent peg, and her right hand to the workmen's hammer; and she hammered Sisera;
she smashed his head; she struck through and pierced his temple.
27 Between her feet he bowed; he fell; he lay down. Between her feet he bowed; he fell! Where he bowed, there he fell down ruined.
28 Through the window she looked out; yea, she cried out, the mother of Sisera, through the lattice; Why does his chariot delay to come? Why have the steps of his chariot tarried?
29 The wise ones of her princesses answered her; yea, she returned her words to herself:

30 Do they not find and divide the plunder? A womb, two wombs to each man's head; a plunder of dyed garments to Sisera, a plunder of embroidered dyed garments, two embroidered dyed garments for the necks of the plunderers?
31 So all Your enemies shall perish,
O YAHWEH, and those who love Him shall be as the sun when it goes forth in its might. And the land had rest forty years.

Chapter 6

1 And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of YAHWEH, and YAHWEH gave them into the hand of Midian seven years.
2 And the hand of Midian was strong against Israel. And the sons of Israel made dens for themselves before the faces of Midian, in the mountains, and the caves, and the strongholds.
3 And it happened after Israel had sown crops, Midian, and Amalek, and the sons of the east came; and they came against them,
4 and camped against them, and destroyed the produce of the land until you enter Gaza. And they left no food in Israel, either sheep, or ox, or donkey.
5 For they came up with their livestock, and with their tents. They came in like locusts for number, and there was no number to them, to their camels. And they came into the land to destroy it.
6 And Israel was brought very low before Midian. And the sons of Israel cried to YAHWEH.
7 And it happened when the sons of Israel had cried to YAHWEH about
Midian,
8 YAHWEH sent a man, a prophet, to the sons of Israel. And he said to them, So says YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel, I have brought you up out of Egypt; and I have brought you out from a house of slaves.
9 And I have delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all your oppressors; and I have driven them out before you; and I have given you their land.
10 And I said to you, I am YAHWEH your Elohim. You shall not fear the gods of the Amorite among whom you are dwelling in their land.
But you have not listened to My voice.
11 And the Messenger of YAHWEH came and sat under the oak which is in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite. And his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress, to hide it from the eyes of Midian.
12 And the Messenger of YAHWEH
appeared to him, and said to him, YAHWEH is with you, mighty warrior of valor.
13 And Gideon said to Him, Oh my master, if YAHWEH is with us, then why has all this happened to us? And where are all His wonders which our fathers recounted to us, saying, Did not YAHWEH bring us up out of Egypt? And now YAHWEH has abandoned us, and has given us into the hands of Midian.
14 And YAHWEH[1] turned to him and said, Go in this strength of yours, and you shall deliver Israel out of the hand of Midian. Have I not sent you?
15 And he said to Him, Oh
YAHWEH, with what shall I deliver Israel? Behold, my family is the weakest in Manasseh, and I the least in my father's house.
16 And YAHWEH said to him,

---
[1] The Messenger of Yahweh is Yahshua Yahweh, the Son of Yahweh.

Because I am with you, you shall strike
Midian as one (echad) man.
17 And he said to Him, Please, if I have found grace in Your eyes, then You shall do for me a sign that You are speaking with me.
18 Please do not move from here until I come to You and bring my food offering and lay it before You. And He said, I will stay until you come back.
19 And Gideon went in and prepared a kid of the goats, and unleavened bread of an ephah of flour. He put the flesh in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot. And he brought it out to Him, under the oak, and offered it.
20 And the Messenger of YAHWEH said to him, Take the flesh and the unleavened bread and place them on this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so.
21 And the Messenger of YAHWEH put forth the end of the staff in His hand and touched the flesh and the unleavened bread. And the fire rose up out of the rock and burned up the flesh and the unleavened bread. And the Messenger of YAHWEH walked and disappeared out of his sight.
22 And Gideon saw that He was the Messenger of YAHWEH. And Gideon said, Alas, Adonai YAHWEH! Because I have seen the Messenger of YAHWEH face to face!
23 And YAHWEH said to him,
Peace to you, fear not. You shall not die.
24 And Gideon built an altar to YAHWEH there, and called it Peace of YAHWEH. It is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites until today.
25 And it happened on that night, YAHWEH said to him, Take your father's bull, and the second bull of seven years; and you shall throw down the altar of Baal which belongs to your father, and you shall cut down the pillar beside it.
26 And you shall build an altar to YAHWEH your Elohim on the top of this stronghold, in an orderly way, and shall take the second bull and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the pillar which you have cut down.
27 And Gideon took ten men from his servants and did as YAHWEH had spoken to him. And it happened, since he feared his father's house and the men of the city, to do it by day, that he did it by night.
28 And the men of the city rose early in the morning. And, behold, the altar of Baal had been smashed, and the Asherah pillar beside it had been cut down. And the second bull had been offered on the altar which was built.
29 And they each said to his neighbor, Who has done this thing?
And they asked and sought. And they said, Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing.
30 And the men of the city said to Joash, Bring out your son, and he shall die, because he has broken down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the Asherah pillar which was beside it.
31 And Joash said to all that stood against him, You, will you contend for Baal? Or will you save him? He who contends for him shall be killed by the morning. If he is a Elohim, let him contend for himself, because one has smashed his altar.
32 And on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal contend against him, because he has smashed his altar.
33 And all Midian and Amalek, and the sons of the east, were gathered together, and crossed over, and camped in the valley of Jezreel.
34 And the Spirit of YAHWEH clothed Gideon with Himself, and he blew with a ram's horn. And the Abiezrites were called after him.

35 And he sent messengers to all Manasseh, and it also was called after him. And he sent messengers to Asher and Zebulun, and to Naphtali. And they came up to meet them.

36 And Gideon said to Elohim, If You are to deliver Israel by my hand, as You have spoken,

37 behold, I am placing the fleece of wool on the grain floor; if the dew is on the fleece only, and dryness on all the ground, then I will know that You will deliver Israel by my hand, as You have spoken.

38 And it was so. And he rose early on the next day and wrung the fleece, and drained dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

39 And Gideon said to Elohim, Let not Your anger glow against me, and I shall speak only this time. Please let me try only this time with the fleece; please let there be dryness on the fleece alone; and let there be dew on all the ground.

40 And Elohim did so on that night, and there was dryness only on the fleece, and there was dew on all the ground[1].

Chapter 7

1 And Jerubbaal (he is Gideon) rose early, and all the people with him. And they camped by the spring of Harod, and the army of Midian was north of him on Mount Moreh, in the valley.

2 And YAHWEH said to Gideon, The people with you are too many for Me to give Midian into their hands, that Israel not glorify itself against Me, saying, My hand has delivered me.

3 And now then, cry in the ears of the people, saying, Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return and leave Mount Gilead. And twenty two thousand of the people returned. And ten thousand were left.

4 And YAHWEH said to Gideon, The people are still too many. Bring them down to the water, and I will refine them for you there. And it shall be, he of whom I say to you, this one shall go with you, he shall go with you. And any of whom I shall say to you, This one shall not go with you, he shall not go.

5 And he brought the people down to the water. And YAHWEH said to Gideon, Everyone who laps of the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set him apart. And everyone who bows on his knees to drink, set apart.

6 And the number of those lapping with their hand to their mouth was three hundred men. And all the rest of the people bowed down on their knees to drink water.

7 And YAHWEH said to Gideon, I will deliver you by the three hundred men who lapped, and shall give Midian into your hand. And all the people shall go, each to his place.

8 And the people took the food in their hand, and their rams' horns; and he sent away every man of Israel, each to his tent. But he kept hold[2] on the three hundred men. And the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

9 And it happened on that night, YAHWEH said to him, Rise up, go down to the camp, for I have given it into your hand.

10 And if you are afraid to go down, you and your young man Purah go down to the camp.

11 And you shall hear what they say. And afterward your hand shall be made stronger, and you shall go down against the army. And he went down, he and his young man Purah, to the edge of the battle alignment in the camp.

12 And Midian and Amalek, and all the sons of the east, were lying in the valley, as the locusts for multitude. And there was no number of their camels being as the sand on the lip of the sea for multitude.

13 And Gideon came; and, behold, a man was telling a dream to his companion. And he said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream. And, behold, a cake of barley bread was tumbling into the camp of Midian. And it came to the tent and struck it, and it fell, and turned it upside down; and the tent fell down.

14 And his companion answered and said, This is nothing but the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel. Elohim has given Midian and all the army into his hand.

15 And it happened when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and its interpretation, he worshiped. And he returned to the army of Israel and said, Rise up, for YAHWEH has given the army of Midian into your hand.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies. And he put a ram's horn in the hand of all of them, and empty jars, and torches inside the jars.

17 And he said to them, Look at me, and do this; even behold, I am coming to the edge of the camp. And it shall be, as I do, so you shall do.

18 And I shall blow with a ram's horn, I and all who are with me. And you shall blow with the ram's horns, you also all around the camp, and shall shout, For YAHWEH and for Gideon!

19 And Gideon came, and the hundred men with him, to the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch. And they had newly set the watch. And they blew with the ram's horns, and shattered the jars in their hand.

20 And the three companies blew with their ram's horns, and broke the jars, and held the torches in their left hand; and in their right hand the ram's horns, and they cried out, A sword for YAHWEH and for Gideon!

21 And they each one stood in his place, all around the army. And all the army ran, and they shouted, and they fled.

22 And the three hundred blew the ram's horns, and YAHWEH set a man's sword against his companion even in all the army. And the army fled to Beth-Shittah, at Zererath, to the border of Abel-Meholah, by Tabbath.

23 And the men of Israel were called from Naphtali, and from Asher, and from all Manasseh, and chased Midian.

24 And Gideon had sent messengers to all the hills of Ephraim, saying, Come down to meet Midian, and capture the waters before them as far as Beth-Barah and the Jordan. And every man of Ephraim was called up, and they captured the waters as far as Beth-Barah and the Jordan.

25 And they captured the two rulers of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. And Oreb was slain at the rock of Oreb; and they killed Zeeb at the winevat of Zeeb. And they pursued to Midian. And they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

Chapter 8

1 And the men of Ephraim said to him, What is this thing you have done to us, not to call us when you went out to fight against Midian? And they contended with him sharply.

2 And he said to them, What have I done now in comparison to you? Are not the gleanings of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?

3 Elohim has given the rulers of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb, into your hand. And what was I able to do like you? Then their spirit was abated toward him when he said this word.
4 And Gideon came to the Jordan, he crossing over, and three hundred who were with him, being weary, yet pursuing.
5 And he said to the men of Succoth, Please give loaves of bread to the people at my feet, for they are weary;
and I am chasing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.
6 And the rulers of Succoth said, Is the hand of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?
7 And Gideon said, Because of this, when YAHWEH has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I shall thresh your flesh with thorns of the wilderness and with briers.
8 And he went up from there to Penuel, and spoke to them in this same way. And the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered.
9 And he also spoke to the men of Penuel, saying, When I come back in peace, I will break down this tower.
10 And Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand, all who were left of all the army of the sons of the east. And those who fell were a hundred and twenty thousand men drawing sword.
11 And Gideon went up the way of those who live in tents, on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and struck the army; for the army was at ease.
12 And Zebah and Zalmunna fled; and he chased them and captured the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna. And he caused all the army to tremble.
13 And Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle, at the ascent of Mount Heres.
14 And he captured a young man of the men of Succoth, and questioned him; and he wrote out to him the rulers of Succoth, and its elders, seventy seven men.
15 And he came in to the men of Succoth, and said, Behold, Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, Is the hand of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand that we should give bread to your weary men?
16 And he took the elders of the city, and the thorns of the wilderness, and the briers, and taught the men of Succoth with them.
17 And he broke down the tower of Penuel, and killed the men of the city.
18 And he said to Zebah and to Zalmunna, How were the men whom you killed in Tabor? And they said, As you are, so they; each one as a king's son in appearance.
19 And he said, They were my brothers, sons of my mother. As YAHWEH lives, if you had kept them alive, I would not have killed you.
20 And he said to his first-born, Jether, Rise up, kill them. But the young man did not draw his sword, for he was afraid, for he was still a youth.
21 And Zebah and Zalmunna said, You rise up and fall on us, for as the man, so is his might. And Gideon rose up and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the moon crescents which were on the necks of their camels.
22 And the men of Israel said to Gideon, rule over us, both you and your son, and your son's son, for you have delivered us from the hand of Midian.
23 And Gideon said to them, I shall not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; YAHWEH shall rule over you[1].

24 And Gideon said to them, Let me ask of you a request, that each man give to me a ring from his plunder; for they had gold rings, because they were Ishmaelites.

25 And they said, We will certainly give. And they spread out a garment and each threw a ring from their plunder there.

26 And the weight of the rings of gold which he asked was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold[2], apart from the ornaments, and the pendants, and the purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian; also apart from the necklaces on the necks of their camels.

27 And Gideon made an ephod of it, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah. And all Israel went whoring after it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and to his house.

28 And Midian was subdued before the sons of Israel, and they did not lift up their heads any more. And the land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 And Jerubbaal the son of Joash departed and lived in his own house.

30 And seventy sons were born to Gideon, coming out of his loins; for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine in Shechem bore a son to him, she also; and he called his name Abimelech.

32 And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the burial place of his father Joash, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

33 And it happened, when Gideon was dead, the sons of Israel rebelled and went whoring after the Baals, and appointed Baal-Berith for a Elohim for themselves.

34 And the sons of Israel did not remember YAHWEH their Elohim who had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies all around;

35 nor did they act with kindness on the house of Jerubbaal, Gideon, according to all the good which he did with Israel.

Chapter 9

1 And Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them, and to all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

2 Please speak in the ears of all the leaders of Shechem, Which is best for you, seventy men ruling over you, all the sons of Jerubbaal, or one man ruling over you? And you should remember that I am your bone and your flesh.

3 And his mother's brothers spoke all these words about him in the ears of all the leaders of Shechem, and their heart inclined after Abimelech. For they said, He is our brother.

4 And they gave to him seventy silverlings out of the house of Baal-Berith. And Abimelech hired worthless and reckless men with them; and they went after him.

5 And he went into his father's house at Ophrah, and killed his brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men on one stone. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, was left; for he had hidden.

6 And all the leaders of Shechem were gathered together, and all the house of Millo. And they came and

1 This shows that Yahweh's leaders simply administer, but it is Yahweh that rules. So in essence when someone rejects the Elohim given position of a leader of Yahweh they are rejecting Yahweh who is the ruler that placed them (Ex 16:2-8).

caused Abimelech to reign as king at the oak of the outpost which is in Shechem.
7 And they told Jotham, and he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim. And he lifted up his voice and cried, and said to them, Listen to me, leaders of Shechem, and Elohim shall listen to you.
8 Going the trees went forth to anoint a king over them. And they said to the olive, Reign over us.
9 And the olive said to them, Should I cease from my fatness, by which they honor Elohim and man, and go to hold sway over the trees?
10 And the trees said to the fig, You come, reign over us.
11 And the fig said to them, Should I cease from my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to hold sway over the trees?
12 And the trees said to the vine, You come, reign over us.
13 And the vine said to them, Should I cease from my new wine, which rejoices Elohim and men, and go to hold sway over the trees?
14 And all the trees said to the bramble bush, You come, reign over us.
15 And the bramble bush said to the trees, If you truly anoint me king over you, come seek refuge in my shade.
And if not, let fire come out of the bramble bush and burn up the cedars of Lebanon.
16 And now if you have acted in truth and integrity when you made Abimelech king; and if you have done well with Jerubbaal and his house; and you have done to him as his hands did, 17 in which my father fought for you, and cast aside his life, and delivered you from the hand of Midian; 18 and you have today risen against my father's house and have killed his sons, seventy men on one stone, and have made Abimelech the son of his slave-girl king over the leaders of Shechem, because he is your brother, 19 yea, if in truth and in integrity you have acted toward Jerubbaal and his house this day, rejoice in Abimelech;
and he shall rejoice, he and you.
20 If not, fire shall come out from Abimelech and consume the leaders of Shechem and the house of Millo. And fire shall come out from the leaders of Shechem and from the house of Millo and consume Abimelech.
21 And Jotham hurried and fled, and went to Beer and lived there, away from the face of his brother
Abimelech.
22 And Abimelech ruled over Israel
three years.
23 And Elohim sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem. And the leaders of Shechem dealt deceitfully with Abimelech; 24 that the violence against Jerubbaal's seventy sons, even their blood, might be put on their brother Abimelech who killed them, and on the leaders of Shechem, who made his hands strong to kill his brothers.
25 And the leaders of Shechem set men in ambush at the tops of the mountains; and they robbed all who passed by them on the highway. And it was told to Abimelech.
26 And Gaal, the son of Ebed, and his brothers came. And they passed on into Shechem. And the leaders of Shechem trusted in him.
27 And they went out into the fields and gathered their vineyards, and trod out, and made a festival, and went into the house of their god and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech.
28 And Gaal, the son of Ebed, said,
Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and Zebul his commander? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem! And why should we serve him?

29 And who will give this people in my hand? Then I would remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Multiply your army and come out.
30 And Zebul, the leader of the city, heard the words of Gaal, the son of Ebed; and his anger glowed.
31 And craftily he sent messengers to Abimelech, saying, Behold, Gaal, the son of Ebed, and his brothers have come to Shechem. And, behold, they are fortifying the city against you.
32 And now rise up by night, you and the people with you, and lie in wait in the field.
33 And it shall be, in the morning, about the sunrise, you shall rise early and charge against the city. And, behold, he and the people with him will come out to you; and you shall do to him as you find your hand able to do.
34 And Abimelech rose up by night, and all the people with him; and they lay in wait against Shechem in four companies.
35 And Gaal, the son of Ebed, went out and stood at the opening of the gate of the city. And Abimelech and the people with him rose up from the ambush.
36 And Gaal saw the people, and he said to Zebul, Behold, people are coming down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said to him, You are seeing the shadow of the mountains like men.
37 And Gaal spoke again and said, Behold, people are coming down from the high part of the land, and one company is coming by the way of the Sorcerers' Oak.
38 And Zebul said to him, Now where is your mouth with which you said, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is this not the people you despised? Now go out now and fight against it.
39 And Gaal went out before the leaders of Shechem and fought against Abimelech.
40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him. And many fell down wounded, to the opening of the gate.
41 And Abimelech remained in Arumah. And Zebul threw Gaal and his brothers out from living in Shechem.
42 And it happened on the next day,
the people went out in the field and told Abimelech.
43 And he took the people and divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in a field and watched.
And, behold, the people were coming out from the city. And he rose up against them and struck them.
44 And Abimelech and the companies with him rushed forward and stood in the opening of the gate of the city. And the two companies charged against all who were in the field, and struck them.
45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day, and captured the city.
And he killed the people in it; and he broke down the city and sowed it with salt.
46 And all the leaders of the tower of Shechem heard, and went into the high place of the house of the god Berith.
47 And it was told to Abimelech that all the leaders of the tower of Shechem had gathered.
48 And Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the people with him. And Abimelech took the axes in his hand and cut off a bough of the trees, and lifted it up, and set it on his shoulder. And he said to the people with him, You have seen what I have done; you hasten and do the same.

49 And all the people also, each man, cut down his bough, and went after Abimelech, and set them at the stronghold, and kindled the stronghold with fire over them. And all the men of the tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

50 And Abimelech went to Thebez and camped against Thebez, and captured it.

51 And a strong tower was in the middle of the city. And all the leaders of the city, and all the men and women fled there. And they shut it behind them, and went up on the roof of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it. And he drew near to the door of the tower in order to burn it with fire.

53 And a certain woman threw a piece of a riding millstone[1] on Abimelech's head and crushed his skull.

54 And he quickly called to the young man bearing his weapons, and said to him, Draw your sword and cause me to die, that they not say of me, A woman killed him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, then each one went to his place.

56 And Elohim returned the evil of Abimelech which he did to his father, to kill his seventy brothers.

57 And all the evil of the men of Shechem Elohim turned back on their heads. And the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal came on them.

Chapter 10

1 And after Abimelech, Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, rose up to save Israel. And he lived in Shamir, in the hills of Ephraim.

2 And he judged Israel twenty three years. And he died and was buried in Shamir.

3 And after him Jair, a Gileadite, rose up. And he judged Israel twenty two years.

4 And he had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkey colts. And they had thirty cities, which are called The Towns of Jair to this day, which are in the land of Gilead.

5 And Jair died and was buried in Kamon.

6 And the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of YAHWEH again, and served the Baals, and the Ashtoroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the sons of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines. And they forsook YAHWEH and did not serve Him.

7 And the anger of YAHWEH glowed against Israel. And He sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hand of the sons of Ammon.

8 And they crushed and oppressed the sons of Israel in that year, for eighteen years, all the sons of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

9 And the sons of Ammon crossed over the Jordan to fight against Judah also, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim. And Israel was greatly distressed.

10 And the sons of Israel cried to YAHWEH, saying, We have sinned against You, even because we have forsaken our Elohim, and have served the Baals.

11 And YAHWEH said to the sons of [1] A mill stone was about 18 inches in diameter and 3 to 4 inches thick.

Israel, Did I not save you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, and from the sons of Ammon, and from the Philistines?
12 And the Sidonians, and Amalek, and Maon have oppressed you, and you cried to Me, and I saved you out of their hand.
13 Yet you have forsaken Me, and served other gods; therefore, I did not save you again.
14 Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen; let them save you in the time of your distress.
15 And the sons of Israel said to YAHWEH, We have sinned. Do to us whatever may be good in Your eyes; only please deliver us this day.
16 And they removed the gods of the alien from among them, and served YAHWEH. And His soul was grieved with the misery of Israel.
17 And the sons of Ammon were called together, and camped in Gilead. And the sons of Israel were gathered, and camped in Mizpeh.
18 And the people said, The chief men of Gilead, each man to his neighbor, Who will be the man who will begin to fight against the sons of Ammon? He shall be head over all the people of Gilead.

Chapter 11

1 And Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty warrior. And he was the son of a harlot woman; and Gilead fathered Jephthah.
2 And the wife of Gilead bore sons to him. And the sons of the wife grew up, and they threw Jephthah out, and said to him, You shall not inherit in the house of your father, for you are the son of another woman.
3 And Jephthah fled from the face of his brothers, and lived in the land of Tob. And worthless men were gathered to Jephthah, and went out with him.
4 And it happened after some time, the sons of Ammon fought with Israel.
5 And it happened when the sons of Ammon fought with Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah from the land of Tob.
6 And they said to Jephthah, Come, and you shall be our commander, that we may fight against the sons of Ammon.
7 And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, Have you not hated me? Yea, you threw me out from my father's house. Why have you come to me when you are in distress?
8 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, For this reason we have come back to you now; and you shall go with us and fight against the sons of Ammon. And you shall be our head, to all the people of Gilead.
9 And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, If you take me back to fight against the sons of Ammon, and YAHWEH gives them up before me, shall I be your head?
10 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, YAHWEH shall be witness between us; surely we will do according to your word.
11 And Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people appointed him head over them, and as commander. And Jephthah spoke all his words before YAHWEH in Mizpeh.
12 And Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, What have you to do with me, that you have come in to me to fight in my land?
13 And the king of the sons of Ammon said to the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel took my land when he came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even to the Jabbok, and to the Jordan. And now, restore them in peace.

14 And Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, 15 and said to him, So says Jephthah, Israel did not take the land of Moab, and the land of the sons of Ammon.
16 For when they came up out of Egypt, Israel went in the wilderness to the Red Sea, and came in at Kadesh.
17 And Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, Please let me pass on through your land, and the king of Edom did not listen. And Israel sent also to the king of Moab, and he was not willing. And Israel remained in Kadesh.
18 And he went through the wilderness, and went around the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came in at the rising of the sun to the land of Moab. And they camped beyond Arnon, and did not come into the border of Moab, for Arnon was the border of Moab.
19 And Israel sent messengers to Sihon, the king of the Amorites the king of Heshbon, and Israel said to him, Please let us pass on through your land, to my place.
20 And Sihon did not trust Israel to pass on through his border. And Sihon gathered all his people and they camped in Jahaz, and fought with Israel.
21 And YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them. And Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that land.
22 And they took possession of all the border of the Amorites from Arnon and to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness, and to the Jordan.
23 And now, YAHWEH our Elohim has expelled the Amorite from before His people Israel. And would you possess it?
24 Whatever Chemosh your god causes you to possess, do you not possess it? And all that which YAHWEH our Elohim has expelled from before us, we will possess!
25 And now, are you at all any better than Balak the son of Zippor, the king of Moab? And striving, did he strive with Israel? Did he ever fight against them?
26 When Israel lived in Heshbon and its towns, and in Aroer and in its towns, in all the cities by the sides of Arnon three hundred years, then why have you not delivered them in that time?
27 So I have not sinned against you, and you are doing me wrong to fight against me. YAHWEH the Judge shall judge today between the sons of Israel and the sons of Ammon.
28 And the king of the sons of Ammon did not listen to the words of Jephthah which he sent to him.
29 And the Spirit of YAHWEH was on Jephthah. And he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed through Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed on to the sons of Ammon.
30 And Jephthah vowed a vow to YAHWEH, and said, If You will indeed give the sons of Ammon into my hand, 31 then it shall be that the thing which comes out from the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the sons of Ammon, it shall belong to YAHWEH; and I will offer it a burnt offering[1].

32 And Jephthah passed over to the sons of Ammon to fight against them. And YAHWEH delivered them into his hand.

33 And he struck them from Aroer until you come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and to the Meadow of the Vineyard, a very great destruction. And the sons of Ammon were humbled before the sons of Israel.

34 And Jephthah came to Mizpeh to his house. And, behold his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels, and with choruses. And she only, she alone; there was no other son or daughter to him.

35 And it happened when he saw her, he tore his garments, and said, Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you have made me bow. And surely I have opened my mouth to YAHWEH, and I am not able to take it back.

36 And she said to him, My father, you have opened your mouth to YAHWEH. Do to me whatever has gone out of your mouth, since YAHWEH has executed vengeance for you on your enemies, on the sons of Ammon.

37 And she said to her father, Let this thing be done to me. Leave me alone two months, and let me go and descend on the mountains. And I will weep for my virginity, my friends and I.

38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away two months. And she went, she and her friends. And she wept for her virginity on the mountains.

39 And it happened at the end of two months, she returned to her father. And he did to her his vow which he had vowed. And she never knew a man. And it is a fixed custom in Israel,

40 from days to days, the daughters of Israel go to tell again of the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in a year.[2] (Ezek 16:20-21

Chapter 12

1 And the men of Ephraim were called together, and went northward, and said to Jephthah, Why have you passed over to fight against the sons of Ammon, and you have not called on us to go with you? We will burn your house over you with fire.

2 And Jephthah said to them, I have been a man of war, my people and I, having great strife with the sons of Ammon. And I called you, and you did not save me out of their hands.

3 And seeing that you did not save us, I put my life in my hand and passed over against the Ammonites, and YAHWEH delivered them into my hand. And why have you come up to me today to fight with me?

4 And Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim. And the men of Gilead struck Ephraim, because they said, You Gileadites are fugitives from Ephraim, in the midst of Ephraim, in the midst of Manasseh.

5 And Gilead captured the fords of the Jordan before Ephraim. And it happened when the fugitives from Ephraim said, Let me pass over, then the men of Gilead said to him, Are you an Ephraimite? And he said, No.

6 And they said to him, Please say

[1] This verse shows two things. First that vows to Yahweh are binding and number two: one should be very careful when making a vow as Yahweh expects us to keep our vows that we make (Eccl 5:1-6). This vow was extremely costly and was paid with the life of his daughter. Human sacrifice was common during these times. Jud 10:6

Shibboleth[1]. And he said, Sibboleth, and they could not frame to speak so. And they would seize him and kill him at the fords of the Jordan. And at that time forty two thousand of Ephraim fell.

7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years. And Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in the cities of Gilead.

8 And after him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel.

9 And he had thirty sons. And he sent thirty daughters abroad, and he brought thirty daughters in from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years.

10 And Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem.

11 And after him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel. And he judged Israel ten years.

12 And Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried in Aijalon, in the land of Zebulun.

13 And after him Abdon the son of Hillel, the Pirathonite, judged Israel.

14 And he had forty sons, and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy he-donkeys; and he judged Israel eight years.

15 And Abdon the son of Hillel of Pirathon died, and was buried in Pirathon, in the land of Ephraim, in the hills of the Amalekites.

Chapter 13

1 And the sons of Israel did evil again in the sight of YAHWEH, and YAHWEH gave them into the hands of the Philistines forty years.

2 And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, and his name was Manoah. And his wife was barren, and had not borne.

3 And the Messenger of YAHWEH appeared to the woman, and said to her, Behold now, you are barren and have not borne. But you shall conceive and bear a son.

4 And now take heed, and please do not drink wine or fermented drink; and do not eat any unclean thing.

5 For, behold, you are pregnant and bearing a son. And a razor shall not go on his head, for the boy shall be a Nazarite to Elohim from the womb. And he shall begin to save Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.

6 And the woman came and spoke to her husband, saying, A Man of Elohim has come to me, and His appearance was like the appearance of the Messenger of Elohim, very terrifying. And I did not ask Him where He was from, and He did not tell me His name.

7 And He said to me, Behold, you are pregnant and will bear a son. And now do not drink wine or fermented drink, and do not eat any unclean thing, for the boy shall be a Nazarite to Elohim from the womb, until the day of his death.

8 Then Manoah prayed to YAHWEH, and said, O YAHWEH, the Man of Elohim whom You sent, please let Him come again to us and direct us what we shall do to the boy being born.

9 And Elohim listened to the voice of Manoah, and the Messenger of Elohim came again to the woman. And she was sitting in a field; and her husband Manoah was not with her.

10 And the woman hurried and ran, and told her husband, and said to him, Behold, He has appeared to me, the Man who came to me that day.

11 And Manoah rose up and went after his wife, and came to the Man. And he said to Him, Are You the Man who spoke to the woman? And He said, I Am.

[1] The Ephraimites had a special accent that could not pronounce this word.

12 And Manoah said, Then let Your words come about. What shall be the manner of life of the youth, and his undertaking?
13 And the Messenger of YAHWEH said to Manoah, Let her take heed of all that I said to the woman; 14 she shall not eat of anything that came forth from the grapevine; and she shall not drink wine or fermented drink; and she shall not eat any unclean thing. She shall be careful of all that I commanded her.
15 And Manoah said to the Messenger of YAHWEH, Please let us keep You, and prepare before You a kid of the goats.
16 And the Messenger of YAHWEH said to Manoah, If you detain Me, I will not eat of your bread. And if you prepare a burnt offering, you shall offer it to YAHWEH. For Manoah did not know that He was the Messenger
of YAHWEH.
17 And Manoah said to the Messenger of YAHWEH, What is Your name? So when Your words come about, then we shall honor You.
18 And the Messenger of YAHWEH said to him, Why do you ask this about My name? Yea, it is Wonderful[1].
19 And Manoah took the kid of the goats, and the food offering, and offered on the rock to YAHWEH. And He did wonderfully, and Manoah and his wife were watching.
20 And it happened as the flame from off the altar was going up to the heavens, that the Messenger of YAHWEH went up in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife were watching. And they fell on their faces to the ground.
21 And the Messenger of YAHWEH
did not appear any more to Manoah, or to his wife. Then Manoah knew that He was the Messenger of YAHWEH.
22 And Manoah said to his wife, surely we shall die, because we have seen Elohim[2].
23 And his wife said to him, If YAHWEH desired to put us to death,
He would not have received a burnt offering and a food offering from our hands, nor made us see all these things; nor would He now have caused us to hear things like these.
24 And the woman bore a son, and called his name Samson. And the youth grew, and YAHWEH blessed
him.
25 And the Spirit of YAHWEH began to move him in the camp of Dan between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Chapter 14

1 And Samson went down to Timnath and saw a woman in Timnath, of the daughters of the Philistines.
2 And he came up and told his father and mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath, of the daughters of the Philistines. And now get her for me for a wife.
3 And his father and his mother said to him, Is there not a woman among the daughters of your brothers, and among all my people, that you must go to take a woman from the uncircumcised Philistines? And

[1] The Hebrew word used here "pelay" is the same word used in Is 9:6 in giving the names of the Messiah of Israel. Clearly, the Messenger of Yahweh is the being later to become Yahshua, the Son of Yahweh. The Messenger also appeared as a man, was called Elohim and ascended up to heaven.

[2] The Messenger of Yahweh, who is defined as the being who later became Yahshua, the Son of Yahweh is also Elohim and clearly preexisted before the virgin birth to Mariam in Mathew chapter 1.

Samson said to his father, Get her for me, for she is pleasing in my eyes.
4 And his father and his mother did not know that it was from YAHWEH, that He was seeking an occasion against the Philistines. For at that time the Philistines were ruling over Israel.
5 And Samson and his father and his mother went down to Timnath. And they came to the vineyards of Timnath. And, behold, a young lion roaring to meet him.
6 And the Spirit of YAHWEH came mightily on him. And he tore it as the cleaving of a kid. And there was nothing in his hand; and he did not tell his father and his mother what he had done.
7 And he went down and talked with the woman. And she was pleasing in the eyes of Samson.
8 And some days later he returned to take her, and turned aside to see the remains of the lion. And, behold, a bee-swarm was in the carcass of the lion, and honey.
9 And he took it out on his hands, and went on, eating and walking. And he went to his father and to his mother, and gave some to them. And they ate, but he did not tell them that he took the honey out of the body of the lion.
10 And his father went down to the woman, and Samson made a feast there, for so the young men usually did.
11 And it happened when they saw him, they took thirty companions, and they were with him.
12 And Samson said to them, Please let me riddle a riddle to you. If declaring you declare it to me in the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I shall give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing.
13 And if you are not able to tell me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing. And they said to him, Riddle your riddle, and we shall hear it.
14 And he said to them, Out of the eater came forth food, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they were not able to declare the riddle in three days.
15 And it happened on the seventh day, they said to Samson's wife, Entice your husband, that he may declare to us the riddle, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you called for us to make us poor? Is it not so?
16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, You only hate me, and do not love me. You have riddled the riddle to the sons of my people, and you have not declared it to me. And he said to her, Behold, I have not declared it to my father and to my mother, and shall I declare it to you?
17 And she wept before him the seven days on which they feasted. And it was on the seventh day, he told her, for she distressed him. And she told the riddle to the sons of her people.
18 And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day, before the sun went in, What is sweeter than honey?
And what is stronger than a lion? And he said to them, Unless you had plowed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle.
19 And the Spirit of YAHWEH came upon him. And he went down to Ashkelon and struck thirty men of them, and took their plunder. And he gave the changes to those who told the riddle; and his anger glowed. And he went up to his father's house.
20 And Samson's wife became his companion's, who had been his flock watcher.

Chapter 15

1 And it happened afterward, in the days of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid of the goats. And he said, I will go in to my wife, to the inner room. And her father would not allow him to go in.

2 And her father said, I certainly said that hating you would hate her, and I gave her to your companion. Is not her sister, the young one, better than she? Please let her belong to you, instead of her.

3 And Samson said to them, This time I will be blameless regarding the Philistines, though I am doing evil with them.

4 And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned tail to tail, and put a torch between the two tails, in the middle.

5 And he kindled fire on the torches, and sent them out into the grain-stalks of the Philistines, and burned from the stacks and the grain-stalks, and to the vineyard and the olive grove.

6 And the Philistines said, Who has done this? And they said, Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took away his wife and gave her to his companion. And the Philistines went and burned her and her father with fire.

7 And Samson said to them, Though you do this, yet I shall be avenged on you; and afterwards I will stop.

8 And he struck them hip on thigh, a great slaughter, and went down and lived in the cleft of the rock Etam.

9 And the Philistines went up and pitched in Judah, and were spread out in Lehi.

10 And the men of Judah said, Why have you come up against us? And they said, We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he has done to us.

11 And three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? And what is this that you have done to us? And he said to them, As they did to me, so I did to them.

12 And they said to him, We have come down to bind you, to give you into the hands of the Philistines. And Samson said to them, Swear to me that you will not fall on me yourselves.

13 And they spoke to him, saying, No, but we will certainly bind you, and will give you into their hand. But we certainly will not cause you to die. And they bound him with two thick cords, new ones, and brought him up from the rock.

14 He came to Lehi, and the Philistines shouted to meet him, And the Spirit of YAHWEH came upon him, and the thick cords which were on his arms were as flax which they burn with fire. And his bonds melted from his hands.

15 And he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and put out his hand and took it. And he struck a thousand men with it.

16 And Samson said, With the jawbone of a donkey, a heap, two heaps, with the jawbone of a donkey I have killed a thousand men.

17 And it happened when he finished speaking, he threw the jawbone out of his hand. And he called that place Ramath-Lehi[1].

18 And he was exceedingly thirsty, and called to YAHWEH and said, Surely You have given this great deliverance by the hand of Your servant. And now I am dying with thirst, and will fall into the hand of the uncircumcised.

19 And Elohim broke open the hollow place which is in Lehi, and water came out of it. And he drank, and his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore its name is called the Fountain of the calling One, which is in Lehi to this day.

[1] Ramath- Lehi means jawbone height.

20 And he judged Israel twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

Chapter 16

1 And Samson went to Gaza, and saw a woman there, a harlot, and went in to her.

2 The Gazites were told, saying, Samson has come here. And they encircled and set a trap for him all the night at the gate of the city, and kept quiet all night, saying, Until the light of the morning, then we will kill him.

3 And Samson lay down until the middle of the night, and rose up in the middle of the night. And he took hold on the leaves of the gate of the city, and on the two side posts, and plucked them up with the bar, and put them on his shoulders and took them up to the top of the mountain that is before Hebron.

4 And it happened afterward that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, and her name was Delilah.

5 And the Philistine rulers came to her and said to her, Entice him, and see in what lies his great strength, and by what we may prevail against him, so that we may bind him, to afflict him. And we will surely each give to you eleven hundred pieces of silver.

6 And Delilah said to Samson, Now tell me in what your great strength lies, and with what you may be bound in order to afflict you.

7 And Samson said to her, If they bind me with seven green bowstrings which have not been dried, then I shall be weak and shall be as any man.

8 And Philistine rulers brought to her seven fresh bowstrings which had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

9 And the ambush was sitting for her in an inner room. And she said to him, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And he snapped the bowstrings like a thread of tow when it smells fire. And his strength was not known.

10 And Delilah said to Samson, Behold, you have trifled with me, and have told me lies. Now, please tell me with what you may be bound.

11 And he said to her, If binding they bind me with new ropes, by which no work has been done, then I shall be weak and shall be as any man.

12 And Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, Samson, the Philistines are upon you! And the ambush was sitting in the inner room. And he tore them off his arms like thread.

13 And Delilah said to Samson, Until now you have trifled with me, and have told me lies. Tell me with what you may be bound. And he said to her, If you weave the seven braids of my head with a web.

14 And she fastened it with a pin, and said to him, Samson, the Philistines are upon you! And he awoke out of his sleep and pulled out the pin, the hand-loom, and the web.

15 And she said to him, How can you say, I love you, and your heart is not with me. These three times you have trifled with me, and have not told me where your great strength lies.

16 And it happened, because she distressed him with her words all the days, and urged him; and his soul was grieved to death,

17 that he told her all his heart, and said to her, No razor has come on my head, for I am a Nazarite to Elohim from my mother's womb. If I were shaved, my strength would go away from me, and I would be weak, and be like any one of men.

18 And Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart. And she sent and called for the Philistine rulers, saying, Come, for this time he has told me all his heart. And the Philistine rulers came up to her, and brought the silver in their hand.

19 And she made him sleep on her knees, and called for a man, and had him shave seven braids of his head, and began to afflict him. And his strength departed from him.

20 And she said, Samson, the Philistines are upon you! And He awakened from his sleep, and said, I will go out and shake myself free as time after time. But he did not know that YAHWEH had departed from him.

21 And the Philistines seized him, and bored out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza. And they bound him with bands of copper. And he was grinding in the house of prisoners.

22 But the hair of his head began to grow, for he had been shaved.

23 And the Philistine rulers gathered to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon, and to exult. And they said, Our god has given our enemy Samson into our hand.

24 And the people saw him, and praised their god. For they said, Our god has delivered our enemy into our hand, even the devastator of our land, who multiplied our fatally wounded.

25 And it happened when their heart felt good, they said, Call for Samson, and he shall entertain us. And they called for Samson from the prison house. And he entertained them. And they made him stand between the pillars.

26 And Samson said to the young man grasping his hand, Let me alone, and let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, that I may lean on them.

27 And the house was full of men and women, and all the Philistine rulers were there. And about three thousand men and women were on the roof watching Samson entertaining.

28 And Samson called to YAHWEH, and said, O Adonai YAHWEH, remember me, I pray, and please make me strong only this time, O Elohim. And I shall be avenged with one vengeance on the Philistines, because of my two eyes.

29 And Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and on which it was supported; one with his right hand, and one with his left.

30 And Samson said, Let my soul die with the Philistines! And he bowed mightily, and the house fell on the rulers, and on all the people who were in it. And the dead that he killed in his death were more than those he killed in his life.

31 And his brothers and all his father's house came down and lifted him up and brought him up. And they buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol, in the burying place of his father Manoah. And he judged Israel twenty years.

Chapter 17

1 And there was a man of the hills of Ephraim, and his name was Micah.

2 And he said to his mother, The eleven hundred pieces of silver[1] which were taken from you, and you uttered a curse, even also speaking in my ear; behold, the silver is with me. I have taken it. And his mother said, Blessed be my son by YAHWEH.

3 And he gave back the eleven hundred silver pieces to his mother.

1 Jud 16:5

And his mother said, I have wholly consecrated the silver to YAHWEH from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image. And now, I am returning it to you.

4 And he returned the silver to his mother. And his mother took two hundred silver pieces and gave them to a refiner. And he made it a graven image, and a molten image. And it was in Micah's house.

5 And the man Micah had a house of gods. And he made an ephod, and household idols, and consecrated one of his sons. And he was a priest for him.

6 And in those days there was no king in Israel; each man did what was right in his own eyes. (Jud 21:25)

7 And there was a young man of Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah; and he was a Levite. And he resided there.

8 And the man went out of the city, out of Bethlehem-Judah, to live where he might find a place. And he came to the hills of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, to work his way.

9 And Micah said to him, From where do you come? And he said to him, I am a Levite of Bethlehem-Judah, and I am going to live where I may find a place.

10 And Micah said to him, Live with me, and be a father and a priest to me. I will give you ten silver pieces for the days, and an order of garments, and your upkeep. And the Levite went in.[1]

11 And the Levite was willing to live with the man, and the young man was to him as one of his sons.

12 And Micah filled the hand of the Levite and the young man was a priest to him; and he was in Micah's house.

13 And Micah said, Now I know that YAHWEH will do me good, for the Levite is a priest to me.

[1] The Levite was a hireling.

Chapter 18

1 In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for itself to inhabit. For to that day it had not fallen to them by inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the sons of Dan sent out of their family five men from their whole number, men, sons of valor, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it. And they said to them, Go, search the land. And they came to the hills of Ephraim, to Micah's house, and lodged there.

3 They were near the household of Micah, and they recognized the young man's voice, the Levite. And they turned in there, and said to him, Who has brought you here? And what are you doing in this place? And what have you here?

4 And he said to them, This and this Micah has done to me. And he hired me, and I am a priest to him.

5 And they said to him, Please ask of Elohim and we will know whether our way in which we are going will be prosperous.

6 And the priest said to them, Go in peace. Your way in which you go is before YAHWEH.

7 And the five men departed, and came to Laish. And they saw the people living securely in its midst, according to the custom of the Sidonians, quiet and secure. And there were none to put them to shame in a thing, nor possessing authority. And they were far away from the Sidonians, and they had no word with any men.

8 And they came to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol. And their brothers said to them, What did you do?

9 And they said, Rise up, and we shall go against them, for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good.

And would you be silent? Do not hesitate to go to enter in to possess the land.
10 When you go you shall come to a secure people, and the land is large on both hands; for Elohim has given it into your hand, a place in which there is no lack of anything which is in the land.
11 And six hundred men of the family of the Danites from Zorah and from Eshtaol girded themselves with weapons of war.
12 And they went up and camped in Kirjath-Jearim, in Judah. Therefore they called that place a camp of Dan until this day. Behold, it is behind Kirjath-Jearim.
13 And they passed on from there to the hills of Ephraim, and came into the house of Micah.
14 And the five men who had gone to spy out the land of Laish answered and said to their brothers, Do you not know that there are in these houses an ephod and household idols, and a graven image, and a molten image?
And now, you know what you are to do.
15 And they turned in there, and came into the house of the young man, the Levite in Micah's house. And they asked him for the peace.
16 And the six hundred men of the sons of Dan girded with their weapons of war were standing at the opening of the gate.
17 And the five men, those who went to spy out the land came in there, and they took the graven image, and the ephod, and the household idols, and the casted image. And the priest was standing at the opening of the gate, and the six hundred men who were girded with weapons of war.
18 And when these went into the house of Micah and took the graven image, the ephod, and the household idols, and the casted image, even the priest said to them, What are you doing?
19 And they said to him, Be quiet!
Lay your hand on your mouth, and go with us, and be a father and a priest to us. Is it better for you to be a priest for one man's house, or for you to be a priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?
20 And the heart of the priest was glad. And he took the ephod, and the household idols, and the graven image, and went among the people.
21 And they turned and departed, and put the little ones, and the livestock, and the valuables before
them.
22 They had gone far away from Micah's house, and the men who were in the houses near Micah's house had been called together, and had overtaken the sons of Dan.
23 And they called to the sons of Dan, and they turned their faces and said to Micah, What ails you, that you have been called together?
24 And he said, You have taken my gods which I made, and the priest, and you are leaving, and what more do I have? What is this you say to me,
What ails you?
25 And the sons of Dan said to him,
Do not let your voice be heard among us, that men bitter in soul not fall on you, and you lose your life, and the lives of your household.
26 And the sons of Dan went on their way. And Micah saw that they were stronger than he, and turned and went back to his house.
27 And they took that which Micah had made, and the priest he had, and came against Laish, against a people quiet and secure. And they struck them with the mouth of the sword, and burned the city with fire.
28 And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no business with any men. And it was in the valley which is beside Beth-Rehob. And they built the city and lived in it.

29 And they called the name of the city, Dan, by the name of their father Dan, who was born to Israel. And yet Laish was the name of the city at first.

30 And the sons of Dan raised up for themselves the graven image. And Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land.

31 And they set up for themselves Micah's graven image, which he had made, all the days that the house of Elohim was in Shiloh.

Chapter 19

1 And it happened in those days when there was no king in Israel, there was a man, a Levite, living on the further side of the hills of Ephraim. And he took a wife to himself, a concubine out of Bethlehem-Judah.

2 And his concubine committed adultery against him. And she went away from him to her father's house, to Bethlehem-Judah, and was there many days, four months.

3 And her husband rose up and went after her, to speak to her heart, to bring her back. And his young man was with him, and a team of donkeys. And she brought him into her father's house. And the young woman's father saw him and rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father-in-law, the young woman's father, detained him. And he stayed with him three days. And they ate and drank, and stayed there.

5 And it happened on the fourth day, they rose up early in the morning, and he rose up to go. And the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, Sustain your heart with a bit of food, and afterward you shall go on.

6 And they sat and ate both of them together, and drank. And the young woman's father said to the man, Please be content and stay all night, and let your heart be good.

7 And the man rose up to go; and his father-in-law pressed him, and he turned back and stayed there.

8 And he rose up early in the morning to go on the fifth day. And the young woman's father said, Please refresh your heart. And they stayed until the turning of the day. And they ate, both of them.

9 And the man rose to go, he and his concubine, and his young man. And his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, Please notice that the day has faded toward evening. Please stay the night. Behold, the day is declining. Stay here, and let your heart be good, and you shall rise early tomorrow for your journey. And you shall go to your tent.

10 But the man was not willing to stay the night. And he rose up and departed, and went until he was opposite Jebus (it is Jerusalem) and with him a team of saddle donkeys. And his concubine was with him.

11 They were near Jebus, and the day was spent. And the young man said to his master, Please come and we shall turn to this city of the Jebusites, and stay in it.

12 And his master said to him, Let us not turn to the city of an alien that is not of the sons of Israel, but we shall pass over to Gibeah.

13 And he said to his young man, Come and we shall draw near to one of these places, and shall stay in Gibeah, or in Ramah.

14 And they passed on and traveled on. And the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.

15 And they turned aside there, to go in to lodge in Gibeah. And he went in and sat in a broad place of the city. Yet there was no man that took them into his house to lodge them.

16 And, behold, a man, an aged one, came from his work from the field in the evening. And the man was from the hills of Ephraim; and he was a fearful stranger in Gibeah. But the men of the place were sons of Benjamin.

17 And he lifted up his eyes and saw the man, the traveler, in a broad place of the city. And the aged man said, Where are you going, and where do you come from?

18 And he said to him, We are passing from Bethlehem-Judah to the other side of the hills of Ephraim. I am from there, and I am going to Bethlehem-Judah. And I am going to the house of YAHWEH. Yet there is no man to take me into the house.

19 But there is straw and food for our donkeys, and also there is bread and wine for me, and for your slave girl, and for the young man with your servants; there is no lack of anything.

20 And the old man said, Peace to you. Only, all that you lack shall be on me. Only, do not spend the night in the open.

21 And he brought him to his house, and mixed fodder for the donkeys. And they washed their feet and ate and drank.

22 They were making their hearts merry. And, behold, men of the city, sons of worthless men, went around the house, beating on the door. And they spoke to the old man, the housemaster, saying, Bring out the man who has come into your house, and we shall know him.

23 And the man, the house-master, went out to them and said to them, No, my brothers, please do not do evil, since this man has come into my house; do not do this grave sin.

24 Behold, my daughter, a virgin, and his concubine. Please let me bring them out, and you humble them. And do to them that which is good in your eyes but do not do this wicked thing to this man.

25 And the men were not willing to listen to him, and the man took hold on his concubine and brought her out to them outside. And they knew her, and abused her all night, until the morning. And they sent her away at the dawning of the day.

26 And the woman came in at the dawning of the morning, and fell at the door of the man's house where her master was, till it was light.

27 And her master rose up in the morning, and opened the door of the house, and went out to go his way. And behold, the woman, his concubine, had fallen at the door of the house, and her hands were on the threshold.

28 And he said to her, Rise up, and we will go. But there was no answer. And he took her on the donkey, and the man rose up and went to his place.

29 And he came to his house, and took the knife and lay hold on his concubine. And he cut her in pieces to her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the borders of Israel.

30 And it was so: all who saw it said, There has never been, and never was seen, a thing like this from the day the sons of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt until this day. Set yourselves on it, take counsel. Then speak.

Chapter 20

1 And all the sons of Israel went out, and the congregation was assembled as one man, from Dan even to Beer-

Sheba, and the land of Gilead, to YAHWEH at Mizpeh.

2 And the leaders of all the people of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of all the people of Elohim, four hundred thousand footmen drawing sword.

3 And the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up to Mizpeh. And the sons of Israel said, Speak up. How did this evil happen?

4 And the man, the Levite, husband of the woman who had been murdered, answered and said, I came into Gibeah which is to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge.

5 And the men of Gibeah rose up against me. And they went around the house against me at night; they had in mind to kill me, and they raped my concubine, and she died.

6 And I took hold on my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her into all the land of the inheritance of Israel. For they have done evil and folly in Israel.

7 Behold, you are the sons of Israel. Give here your word and counsel.

8 And all the people rose up as one man, saying, Not one of us shall go to his tent, and not one of us shall return to his house.

9 And now, this is the thing which we shall do to Gibeah, going against it by lot.

10 And we shall take ten men of a hundred of all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand, to take food for the people, that they may act when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly which it has done in Israel.

11 And every man of Israel was gathered to the city, knit together as one (echad) man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men to all the tribes of Benjamin, saying, What is this evil which has happened among you?

13 And now, give up the men, sons of worthlessness, which are in Gibeah, and let us execute them. And we shall consume evil from Israel. But Benjamin was not willing to listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel.

14 And the sons of Benjamin were gathered out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle with the sons of Israel.

15 And the sons of Benjamin counted themselves on that day. Out of the cities were twenty six thousand men drawing sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah who counted themselves seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people were seven hundred chosen men who were left handed, each of these able to sling a stone at a hair. And he did not miss!

17 And the men of Israel numbered themselves, besides Benjamin, four hundred thousand men drawing sword, each of these a man of war.

18 And they rose up and went up to Bethel and asked of Elohim. And the sons of Israel said, Who shall go up for us at the beginning of the battle with the sons of Benjamin? And YAHWEH said, Judah, at the beginning.

19 And the sons of Israel rose up in the morning and camped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went to battle with Benjamin; and the men of Israel set themselves in order against them, to battle against Gibeah.

21 And the sons of Benjamin came out from Gibeah. And on that day they destroyed twenty two thousand to the earth in Israel.

22 And the people, the men of Israel, took courage, and again set the battle in order in the place where they set themselves on the first day.

23 And the sons of Israel went up and wept before YAHWEH until the evening, and asked of YAHWEH, saying, Shall I again draw near to battle with the sons of my brother Benjamin? And YAHWEH said, Go up against him.
24 And the sons of Israel drew near to the sons of Benjamin on the second day.
25 And Benjamin came out to meet them from Gibeah on the second day, and again destroyed to the earth eighteen thousand men of the sons of Israel; all these were drawers of sword.
26 And all the sons of Israel went up, even all the people, and came to Bethel, and wept. And they sat there before YAHWEH, and fasted on that day until the evening, and caused burnt offerings and peace offerings to ascend before YAHWEH.
27 And the sons of Israel asked of YAHWEH (and the ark of the covenant of Elohim was there in those days,
28 and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron was standing before it in those days) saying, Shall I again go out to battle with the sons of my brother Benjamin, or shall I cease?
And YAHWEH said, Go up, for tomorrow I will give him into your hand.
29 And Israel set ambushers against Gibeah all around.
30 And the sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day, and set themselves in order against Gibeah, as at other times.
31 And the sons of Benjamin came out to meet the people. They were drawn away out of the city, and began to strike the people down wounded as at other times, in the highways, of which one goes up to Bethel, and one to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel.
32 And the sons of Benjamin said, They are destroyed before us as at the beginning. But the sons of Israel said, Let us flee and draw them away out of the city, into the highways.
33 And all the men of Israel rose from their place and set themselves in order at Baal-Tamar. And Israel's ambush came out of its place, out of the meadow of Gibeah.
34 And they came in across from Gibeah, ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel. And the battle was heavy.
And they did not know that evil was striking against them.
35 And YAHWEH struck Benjamin before Israel. And the sons of Israel destroyed twenty five thousand, one hundred men on that day in Benjamin;
all these were drawers of sword.
36 And the sons of Benjamin saw that they were stricken. And the men of Israel had given place to Benjamin, for they trusted to the ambush which they had set against Gibeah.
37 And the ambush hurried and came against Gibeah, and the ambush drew itself out and struck all of the city by the mouth of the sword.
38 And there was a set time to the men of Israel with the ambush, to make it great, their causing a rising of smoke to go up from the city.
39 And the men of Israel turned in battle, and Benjamin had begun to strike, causing some to be slain of the men of Israel, about thirty men. For they said, Surely they are stricken down before us, as at the first battle.
40 And the rising of smoke began to go up from the city, a pillar. And Benjamin turned around, and, behold, the whole city had gone up toward the heavens.
41 And the men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were troubled.
For they had seen that evil had struck
them.

42 And they turned before the men of Israel toward the way of the wilderness. And the battle followed them. And those who were from the city were destroying them in their midst.

43 They surrounded Benjamin, and they pursued them without rest. And they trod them down until they were opposite Gibeah, at the rising of the sun.

44 And eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell, all of these mighty men.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon. And they gleaned five thousand men of them in the highways, and caught them, to Gidom. And they struck two thousand men of them.

46 And all the ones of Benjamin who fell were twenty five thousand men drawing the sword on that day; all of these mighty men.

47 And six hundred men turned and fled into the wilderness, to the rock of Rimmon. And they lived in the rock of Rimmon four months.

48 And the men of Israel turned back to the sons of Benjamin, and struck them by the mouth of the sword, from the entire city to live-stock, to all that was found. Also they set fire to all the cities which were found.

Chapter 21

1 And the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpeh, saying, Not one of us shall give his daughter to Benjamin for a wife.

2 And the people came to Bethel, and sat there before Elohim until the evening. And they lifted up their voices and wept a great weeping.

3 And they said, O YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel, Why has this happened in Israel, to be lacking one tribe today from Israel?

4 And it happened on the next day, the people rose early and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5 And the sons of Israel said, Who is he that did not come up in the assembly out of all the tribes of Israel to YAHWEH? For a great oath had been undertaken concerning him that did not come up to YAHWEH to Mizpeh saying, surely he shall die.

6 And the sons of Israel repented concerning their brother Benjamin. And they said, One tribe from Israel has been cut off today.

7 What shall we do for them, for those who are left, for wives? For we surely have sworn by YAHWEH not to give them of our daughters for wives.

8 And they said, What one out of the tribes of Israel did not come up to YAHWEH to Mizpeh? And, behold, no one had come into the camp from Jabesh-Gilead to the assembly.

9 And the people numbered themselves. And, behold, there was not a man of those living in Jabesh-Gilead.

10 And the assembly sent twelve thousand men there of the mighty sons, and commanded them, saying, Go, and you shall strike the inhabitants of Jabesh-Gilead with the mouth of the sword, even the women and the little ones.

11 And this is the thing which you shall do. You shall destroy every male and every woman who has been known by lying with a male.

12 And out of all the inhabitants of Jabesh-Gilead they found four hundred young women, virgins, who had not known a man by lying with a male. And they brought them into the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 And all the assembly sent and spoke to the sons of Benjamin who were in the rock of Rimmon, and called out peace to them.
14 And Benjamin came again at that time. And they gave the women whom they had kept alive, of the women of Jabesh-Gilead. But they did not find enough for them.
15 And the people repented as to Benjamin, for YAHWEH had made a breach among the tribes of Israel.
16 And the elders of the assembly said, What shall we do to the remnant for wives for the women have been destroyed out of Benjamin?
17 And they said, The one who escaped shall be a legacy of Benjamin, that a tribe may not be blotted out from Israel.
18 And we surely are not able to give wives to them from our daughters, for the sons of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin[1].
19 And they said, Behold, there is a feast of YAHWEH from year to year in Shiloh, on the north side of Bethel, toward the rising of the sun, by the highway which goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah.
20 They commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying, Go, and you shall lie in wait in the vineyards.
21 And you shall watch. And, behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then you shall go out from the vineyards and each of you catch his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.
22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to strive with us, we shall say to them, Favor us with them, for we did not take for each man of them a wife in battle, for if you did not give to them as at this time, you would be guilty.
23 And the sons of Benjamin did so, and took women according to their number from the dancers whom they had seized. And they went and returned to their inheritance, and built the cities, and lived in them.
24 And the sons of Israel went up and down from there at that time, each to his tribe, and to his family. And they departed from there, every man to his inheritance.
25 In those days there was no king in Israel. Each man did that which was right in his own eyes[2].

[1] This verse again shows the sacredness in ancient times associated with making a vow and keeping ones word.

[2] This last verse of Judges truly shows the sad consequences when Yahweh's judicial order is ignored for self motivation.

Book of 1 Samuel

Chapter 1

1 And there was a certain man of Ramathaim-Zophim from the hills of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite.
2 And he had two wives, the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the second, Peninnah. And Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.
3 And that man went up from his city from year to year to worship and to sacrifice before YAHWEH of Hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests to YAHWEH there.
4 And the day came, and Elkanah sacrificed. And he would give to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and her daughters portions.
5 And to Hannah he gave one double portion, for he loved Hannah. And YAHWEH had shut up her womb.
6 And her rival tormented her even to vexation, so as to make her tremble, because YAHWEH had shut up her womb.
7 And so he did year by year, as often as she went up to the house of YAHWEH, so she provoked her. And she wept, and did not eat.
8 And her husband Elkanah said to her, Hannah, why do you weep? And why do you not eat? And why is your heart afflicted? Am I not better to you than ten sons?
9 And Hannah rose up after eating in Shiloh, and after drinking. And Eli the priest was sitting on the seat by the side post of the sanctuary of YAHWEH.
10 And she was bitter of soul, and prayed to YAHWEH, and weeping she wept.
11 And she vowed a vow, and said, O YAHWEH of Hosts, if looking You will look upon the affliction of Your handmaid, and shall remember me, and not forget Your handmaid, and shall give to Your handmaid a seed of men, then I will give him to YAHWEH all the days of his life; and a razor shall not go up on his head.
12 And it happened, when she prayed long before YAHWEH, Eli was watching her mouth.
13 And Hannah was speaking in her heart; only, her lips moved; but her voice could not be heard. So Eli thought that she was drunk.
14 And Eli said to her, Until when will you be drunken? Put away your wine from you.
15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my master; I am a woman pained in spirit. And I have not drunk wine or fermented drink, but I am pouring out my soul before YAHWEH.
16 Do not put your handmaid down for a daughter of wickedness; for from the abundance of my complaint and grief until now I have been speaking.
17 And Eli answered and said, Go in peace, and may the Elohim of Israel give you your petition which you have asked of Him.
18 And she said, Let your handmaid find grace in your eyes. And the woman went her way, and ate, and her face was no longer sad.
19 And they rose up early in the morning and worshiped before YAHWEH. And they went back and came to their house in Ramah. And Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and YAHWEH remembered her.
20 And it happened when the time had come around, Hannah conceived and bore a son. And she called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of YAHWEH.
21 And the man Elkanah and all his house went up to sacrifice to

YAHWEH a sacrifice of the days, and to vow his vow.
22 And Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, Until the child is weaned, then I will bring him, that he may appear before YAHWEH and remain there forever.
23 And her husband Elkanah said to her, Do that which is good in your eyes. Remain until you wean him.
Only, may YAHWEH confirm His Word. And the woman remained, and suckled her son until she had weaned
him.
24 And when she had weaned him, she brought him up with her, along with three bulls, and one ephah of flour, and a skin of wine. And she brought him to the house of YAHWEH at Shiloh. And the child was a young one.
25 And they slaughtered the bull,
and brought the boy to Eli.
26 And she said, O my master, may your soul live! My master, I am the woman who stood with you here to pray to YAHWEH.
27 I prayed for this boy, and YAHWEH has given my petition to me which I asked of Him.
28 And I have asked him to be given to YAHWEH all the days which he shall be, he is loaned for YAHWEH.
And he worshiped there before
YAHWEH.

Chapter 2

1 And Hannah prayed and said: My heart has exulted in YAHWEH; my horn has been high in YAHWEH. My mouth has been large over my enemies; for I have rejoiced in Your salvation.
2 There is none holy like YAHWEH, for there is none except You; yea, there is no rock like our Elohim.
3 Do not multiply your haughty words; let not arrogance go out from your mouth; for YAHWEH is a Elohim of knowledge, and by Him actions are weighed.
4 Bows of the mighty are broken;
and they that stumble gird on strength.
5 They that were full have hired themselves out for bread; and the hungry have ceased, while the barren has borne seven; yea, she who had many sons has languished.
6 YAHWEH kills and keeps alive;
He brings down and causes to go to Sheol.
7 YAHWEH brings down, and He gives riches; He brings low; yea, He lifts up high.
8 He raises the poor from the dust;
He lifts up the needy from the dunghill, to cause them to sit with nobles; yea, He causes them to inherit a throne of honor; for to YAHWEH are the pillars of the earth; and He sets the habitable world on them.
9 He keeps the feet of His saints, and the wicked are silenced in darkness; for man does not become mighty by power.
10 They who strive with YAHWEH will be smashed; He thunders in the heavens against him. YAHWEH judges the ends of the earth and gives strength to His king; and He exalts the horn of His Messiah.
11 And Elkanah went to Ramah, to his house. And the child served YAHWEH before Eli the priest.
12 And the sons of Eli were sons of worthlessness; they did not know
YAHWEH.
13 And the custom of the priests with the people was: any man offering a sacrifice and the priest's young man came when the flesh was boiling with the three-toothed hook in his hand, 14 even he stuck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the hook brought up, the priest took for himself. So they did to all Israel who came in there to Shiloh.

15 Yea, before they made the fat to smoke, then the priest's young man came in. And he said to the man who was sacrificing, Give meat to roast for the priest; and he will not take boiled meat from you, but raw.

16 And if the man said to him, Let the fat be made to smoke as the day, and then take as much as your soul desires; then he would say, No, but you shall give now. And if not, I will take it by force.

17 And the sin of the young men was very great before YAHWEH, for the men had despised the offering of YAHWEH.

18 And Samuel was serving before YAHWEH, a boy girded with an ephod of linen.

19 And his mother made a small coat for him, and she brought it up to him from year to year, as she came up with her husband to offer the sacrifice of the days.

20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, YAHWEH shall give you seed of this woman, because of the petition she prayed to YAHWEH. And they went away to their place.

21 So YAHWEH visited Hannah, and she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew up with YAHWEH.

22 And Eli was very old and had heard all that his sons did to Israel, and how they lay with the women who assembled by troops at the door of the tent of meeting.

23 And he said to them, Why do you do things like these? For I am hearing of your evil doings from all these people.

24 No my sons, for the report which I am hearing is not good, causing the people of YAHWEH to transgress.

25 If a man sins against a man, then Elohim shall judge him. But if a man sins against YAHWEH, who shall pray for him? But they did not listen to the voice of their father because YAHWEH desired to put them to death.

26 And the boy Samuel went on, growing both in stature and in goodness, both with YAHWEH and also with men. (Luk 2:52)

27 And a man of Elohim came to Eli, and said to him, So says YAHWEH: Did I reveal Myself plainly to the house of your father when they were in Egypt, at the house of Pharaoh,

28 even to choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be priest to Me, to go up on My altar, to cause incense to smoke, to bear an ephod before Me? And did I give to your father's house all the fire offerings of the sons of Israel?

29 Why do you kick at My sacrifice and at My offering which I commanded in My habitation? And why do you honor your sons above Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of My people?

30 So says YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel, I said indeed that your house and your father's house should walk before Me until forever. But now YAHWEH says, Be it far from Me! For those who honor Me I will honor; and those despising Me will be despicable.

31 Behold, days come when I shall cut off your arm, and the arm of your father's house, that no old man shall be in your house.

32 And you shall see an adversary in My habitation, in all the good that he does with Israel. And there shall not be an old man in your house all the days.

33 And the man of yours that I shall not cut off from My altar shall be to cause your eyes to fail, and to grieve your soul. And all the increase of your house shall die young men.

34 And this shall be the sign to you, that which shall come on your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day the both of them shall die.

35 And I shall raise up for Myself a faithful priest. He shall do all that is in My heart and in My soul. And I shall build for him a sure house; and he shall walk before My Messiah all the days.[1] (2 Sam 6:12, Eze 37:23-24)

36 And it shall be, everyone who is left in your house shall come in to bow to him for a wage of silver and a loaf of bread. And they shall say, please admit me into one of the priest's offices to eat a bit of bread.

Chapter 3

1 And the boy Samuel was ministering to YAHWEH before Eli. And the Word of YAHWEH was rare in those days. There was no breaking-through vision.

2 And it happened at that time, Eli was lying down in his place, and his eyes had begun to be dim; he was not able to see.

3 And the lamp of Elohim had not yet gone out. And Samuel was lying down in the sanctuary of YAHWEH, where the ark of Elohim was.

4 And YAHWEH called to Samuel. And he said, Behold me.

5 And he ran to Eli and said, Behold, I am here. For you have called to me. And he said, I did not call. Go back and lie down. And he went and lay down.

6 And YAHWEH again called Samuel. And Samuel rose up and went to Eli and said, Behold me, for you have called me. And he said, I have not called, my son. Go back and lie down.

7 And Samuel did not yet know YAHWEH, and the Word of YAHWEH had not yet been revealed to him.

8 And YAHWEH again called Samuel the third time. And he rose up and went to Eli and said, Behold me, for you have called me. And Eli understood that YAHWEH was calling the boy.

9 And Eli said to Samuel, Go, lie down; and it shall be, if One calls you, even you shall say, Speak, O YAHWEH, for Your servant hears. And Samuel lay down in his place.

10 And YAHWEH came and stood, and called as the other times, Samuel, Samuel! And Samuel said, Speak, for Your servant hears.

11 And YAHWEH said to Samuel, Behold! I am doing a thing in Israel at which the two ears of every one hearing it shall tingle.

12 In that day I will confirm to Eli all that I have spoken to his house, beginning and making an end.

13 And I declare to him that I am judging his house forever, for the iniquity which he has known; for his sons have been making themselves vile, and he has not restrained them.

14 And so I have sworn to the house of Eli, the iniquity of the house of Eli shall not be atoned for, by sacrifice or by offering, until forever.

15 And Samuel lay until the morning. And he opened the doors of the house of YAHWEH. And Samuel was afraid to declare the vision to Eli.

16 And Eli called Samuel and said,

---

[1] Because King David had a heart to build a house for YHWH, Yahweh said that He would build an eternal house for David (2Sam 7:8-13, 26-29). This is speaking of an everlasting dynasty with a physical sanctuary for Yahshua, the son of David. Yahshua will be king and David will reign with Him Jer 30:9, Eze 37:23-24.

Samuel, my son. And he said, here I am.

17 And he said, What is the word which He has spoken to you? Please do not hide it from me. May Elohim do so to you, and more also, if you keep back anything from me of all the words that He spoke to you.

18 And Samuel told him all the words, and did not hide from him. And he said, It is YAHWEH; He does that which is good in His eyes.

19 And Samuel grew up, and YAHWEH was with him, and did not let any of his words fall to the earth.

20 And all Israel knew, from Dan even to Beer-Sheva, that Samuel was confirmed to be a prophet to YAHWEH.

21 And YAHWEH again appeared in Shiloh. For YAHWEH revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh, by the Word of YAHWEH.

Chapter 4

1 And the word of Samuel was revealed to all Israel. And Israel went out to meet the Philistines for battle. And they pitched beside Ebenezer, and the Philistines pitched in Aphek.

2 And the Philistines set themselves in order to meet Israel, and the battle was spread. And Israel was stricken before the Philistines. And they struck about four thousand men from the battle line in the field.

3 And the people came into the camp, and the elders of Israel said, Why has YAHWEH stricken us today before the Philistines? Let us take the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH to us, and let it come into our midst; and it will save us from the hand of our enemies.

4 And the people sent to Shiloh, and they took from there the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH of Hosts, who dwells between the cherubs. And the two sons of Eli were there with the ark of the covenant of Elohim, Hophni and Phinehas.

5 And it happened, when the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH came into the camp, all Israel shouted a great shout, and the earth shook.

6 And the Philistines heard the noise of the shouting, and said, What is the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they saw that the ark of YAHWEH had come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, Elohim has come to the camp. And they said, Woe to us! For never has it been like this before.

8 Woe to us! Who will deliver us out of the hand of these great Elohim? These are the Elohim who struck Egypt with every plague in the wilderness.

9 Make yourselves strong and become men, O Philistines, lest you become slaves to the Hebrews, as they were slaves to you. Then you must be men and fight.

10 And the Philistines fought, and Israel was beaten. And they each one fled to his tent. And the blow was very great, and thirty thousand footmen of Israel fell.

11 And the ark of Elohim was taken, and the two sons of Eli died, Hophni and Phinehas.

12 And a man of Benjamin ran out of the battle line and came to Shiloh on that day. And his clothes were torn, and earth on his head.

13 And he came in. And, behold, Eli was sitting on the seat by the side of the highway, watching. For his heart trembled for the ark of Elohim. And the man came in to report in the city. And all the city cried out.

14 And Eli heard the noise of the cry, and said, What is the noise of this tumult? And the man hurried and came and reported to Eli.

15 And Eli was ninety eight years old, and his eyes were set, and he was not able to see.

16 And the man said to Eli, I am he who has come from the ranks, and I fled today out of the battle line. And he said, How did the matter go, my son?

17 And he bearing the news answered and said, Israel has fled before the Philistines; and also there has been a great slaughter among the people. And also your two sons have died, Hophni and Phinehas. And the ark of Elohim has been taken.

18 And it happened when he mentioned the ark of Elohim, Eli fell off the seat backward, by the side of the gate. And his neck was broken, and he died. For the man was old and heavy. And he judged Israel forty years.

19 And his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was with child, about to bear. And she heard the report of the taking of the ark of Elohim, and that her father-in-law and her husband had died. And she bowed and bore, for her pains had turned in on her.

20 And at the time of her death, when the women who stood by her said, Fear not, for you have borne a son; she did not even answer, nor set her heart.

21 And she called the child Ichabod, saying, The glory has departed from Israel, because of the taking of the ark of Elohim, and because of her father-in-law and her husband.

22 And she said, The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of Elohim has been taken.

Chapter 5

1 And the Philistines took the ark of The Elohim and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.

2 And the Philistines took the ark of The Elohim and brought it to the house of Dagon, and set it near Dagon.

3 And the Ashdodites rose early on the next day. And, behold! Dagon had fallen on its face to the earth before the ark of YAHWEH! And they took Dagon and put it back in its place.

4 And they rose early in the morning on the next day; and, behold! Dagon had fallen on its face to the earth before the ark of YAHWEH, and the head of Dagon, and the two palms of its hands, were cut off at the threshold. Only the flat part had been left to him.

5 On account of this the priests of Dagon, and all those coming into the house of Dagon, do not step on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod until this day.

6 And the hand of YAHWEH was heavy on the men of Ashdod. And He wasted them, and struck them with hemorrhoids, Ashdod and its borders.

7 And the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, and said, The ark of the Elohim of Israel shall not remain with us, for His hand has been hard on us, and on our Elohim Dagon.

8 And they sent and gathered all the rulers of the Philistines to them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the Elohim of Israel? And they said, Let the ark of the Elohim of Israel go around to Gath. And they brought around the ark of the Elohim of Israel.

9 And it happened after they had brought it around, the hand of YAHWEH was against the city with a very great destruction. And He struck the men of the city, from the least to the greatest; and hemorrhoids broke forth on them.

10 And they sent the ark of the Elohim around to Ekron. And it happened as the ark of Elohim came into Ekron, the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought around the ark of the Elohim of Israel to me to cause me and my people to die.

11 And they sent and gathered all the rulers of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the Elohim of Israel, and let it return to its place, and it may not cause me and my people to die. For there had been a great destruction throughout all the city. The hand of the Elohim had been very heavy there.
12 And the men who had not died were stricken with hemorrhoids. And the cry of the city went up to the heavens.

Chapter 6

1 And the ark of YAHWEH was in the field of the Philistines seven months.
2 And the Philistines called for priests and for those divining, saying, What shall we do to the ark of YAHWEH? Let us know with what we shall send it to its place.
3 And they said, If you send away the ark of the Elohim of Israel, you shall not send it away empty. For turning back you shall return a guilt offering back to Him. Then you shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why His hand has not turned away from you.
4 And they said, What shall be the guilt offering which we shall send back to Him? And they said, The number of the rulers of the Philistines, five golden hemorrhoids, and five golden mice. For one plague has been on all of you, and on your rulers.
5 And you shall make images of your hemorrhoids, and images of your mice that are corrupting the land, and shall give honor to the Elohim of Israel. It may be that He will lift His hand from off you and from off your gods, and from off your land.
6 And why do you harden your heart as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their heart? When He dealt ruthlessly with them, did they not send them away? And they went.
7 And now, take and make one new cart, and two suckling cows, on which a yoke has never gone up. And you shall tie the cows to the cart, and cause their young ones to return home from them.
8 And you shall take the ark of YAHWEH and put it on the cart, and the vessels of gold which you shall return to Him for a guilt offering. Put them in a coffer in its side and send it away; and let it go.
9 And watch; if it goes up by way of its own border, to Beth-Shemesh, He has done this great evil to us. And if not, then we shall know that it is not His hand that touched us; it was an accident to us. (Eccl 9:11)
10 And the men did so. And they took two suckling cows and tied them to the cart. And they shut their young ones in the house.
11 And they placed the ark of YAHWEH on the cart, and the coffer with the golden mice and the images of their hemorrhoids.
12 And the cows went straight in the way, on the way to Beth-Shemesh. They went on one highway, going and lowing. And they did not turn to the right or to the left. And the rulers of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth-Shemesh.
13 And those of Beth-Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley. And they lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.
14 And the cart had come to the field of Yahoshua the Beth-Shemite, and stood there. And there was a great stone. And they cut the wood of the cart, and they offered the cows as a burnt offering to YAHWEH.

15 And the Levites took the ark of YAHWEH down, and the coffer which was with it, in which were the vessels of gold. And they placed them on the great stone. And the men of Beth-Shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices in that day to YAHWEH.

16 And the five rulers of the Philistines saw it, and turned back to Ekron on that day.

17 And these were the golden hemorrhoids which the Philistines sent back as a guilt offering to YAHWEH: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron:

18 and the golden mice, the number of all the cities of the Philistines, for the five rulers, from the fortified city even to the hamlet of the villagers, even to the great meadow on which they placed the ark of YAHWEH remain until this day in the field of Yahoshua the Beth-Shemite.

19 And he struck among the men of Beth-Shemesh, because they looked into the ark of YAHWEH. Yea, He struck seventy among the people, fifty out of a thousand men. And the people mourned because YAHWEH destroyed among the people with a great destruction.

20 And the men of Beth-Shemesh said, Who is able to stand before YAHWEH, this holy Elohim? And to whom shall He go up from us?

21 And they sent messengers to the ones living in Kirjath-Jearim, saying, The Philistines have sent back the ark of YAHWEH. Come down: take it up to you.

Chapter 7

1 And the men of Kirjath-Jearim came and brought up the ark of YAHWEH, and brought it to the house of Abinadab, in the hill. And they sanctified his son Eleazar to keep the ark of YAHWEH.

2 And it happened from the day the ark began to dwell in Kirjath-Jearim, the days became many; yea, they were twenty years. And all the house of Israel lamented after YAHWEH.

3 And Samuel said to all the house of Israel, saying, If you are returning to YAHWEH with all your heart, put aside the foreign Elohims from among you, and the Ashtoroth. And prepare your heart to YAHWEH, and serve Him only, and He will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 And the sons of Israel put away the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and served YAHWEH only.[1] (Ex 22:20)

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to YAHWEH for you.

6 And they were gathered to Mizpah, and drew water, and poured out before YAHWEH. And they fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against YAHWEH. And Samuel judged the sons of Israel in Mizpah.

7 And the Philistines heard that the sons of Israel had gathered to Mizpah. And the rulers of the Philistines went up against Israel, and the sons of Israel heard, and were afraid before the Philistines.

8 And the sons of Israel said to Samuel, Do not cease to cry to YAHWEH our Elohim for us, that He save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

9 And Samuel took a milk lamb and offered a whole burnt offering to YAHWEH. And Samuel cried to YAHWEH for Israel. And YAHWEH answered him.

10 And it happened as Samuel made a whole burnt offering to go up, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. And YAHWEH thundered with a great noise on that day, on the Philistines, and troubled them. And they were stricken before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out from Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and struck them as far as below Beth-Car.
12 And Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name Stone of Help, saying, YAHWEH has helped us until now.
13 And the Philistines were subdued and did not yet again come into the border of Israel. And the hand of YAHWEH was on the Philistines all the days of Samuel.
14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath. And Israel delivered their border out of the hand of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.
15 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.
16 And He went from year to year even in a circuit to Bethel, and Gilgal, and Mizpah, and judged Israel in all these places.
17 And he returned to Ramah, for his house was there. And there he judged Israel; and he built an altar to YAHWEH there.

Chapter 8

1 And it happened when Samuel was old, he made his sons judges over Israel.
2 And the name of his first-born was Joel, and the name of his second, Abiah, judges in Beer-Sheba.
3 And his sons did not walk in his ways, and turned aside after dishonest gain, and took a bribe, and perverted judgment.
4 And all the elders of Israel gathered and came in to Samuel, to Ramah.
5 And they said to him, Behold, you have become old, and your sons have not walked in your ways. Now appoint a king to us, to judge us, like all the nations.
6 And the thing was evil in Samuel's eyes when they said, Give to us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed to YAHWEH.
7 And YAHWEH said to Samuel, Listen to the voice of the people, to all that they say to you. For they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me from reigning over them.[1]
8 According to all the works that they have done from the day I brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day, when they forsook Me and served other Elohim, so they are also doing to you.
9 And now listen to their voice. Only, protesting you shall protest to them, and shall declare to them the privilege of the king who shall reign over them.
10 And Samuel spoke all the words of YAHWEH to the people who were asking a king from him.
11 And he said, This is the privilege of the king who shall reign over you. He shall take your sons and shall appoint them for himself among his chariots, and among his horsemen. And they shall run before his chariots.
12 And he will appoint for himself heads of thousands, and heads of fifties; and to plow his plowing, and to reap his reaping; and to make weapons for war for him, and weapons for his charioteer.

13 And he will take your daughters for perfumers, and for cooks, and for bakers.
14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive-yards, the best, and give them to his servants.
15 And he will tithe your seed and your vineyards, and will give them to his eunuchs and to his servants.
16 And he will take your male slaves and your slave-girls, and the best of your young men, and your donkeys, and will use them for his own work.
17 He will tithe your flock, and you will be servants to him.
18 And you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves. And YAHWEH will not answer you in that day.
19 And the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel, and said, No, but a king shall be over us.
20 And we shall be, even we, like all the nations. And our king shall judge us and shall go out before us and fight our battles.
21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and spoke them in the ears of YAHWEH.
22 And YAHWEH said to Samuel, Listen to their voice, and you shall cause a king to reign over them. And Samuel said to the men of Israel, Each of you go to his city.

Chapter 9

1 And there was a man of Benjamin, and his name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath the son of Aphiah, a man of Benjamin, a mighty warrior.
2 And he had a young and handsome son, and his name was Saul. And there was not a man among the sons of Israel more handsome than he, being taller than any of the people from his shoulder and upward.
3 And the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to his son Saul, Please take with you one of the young men, and rise up, go seek the donkeys.
4 And he passed through the hills of Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha. And they did not find them. And they passed through the land of Shaalim, and they were not there. And he passed through the land of the Benjamites, and they did not find them.
5 And they came to the land of Zuph, and Saul said to his young man with him, Come and we shall turn back, lest my father give up the donkeys and become anxious for us.
6 And he said to him, Behold now, a man of Elohim is in this city, and the man is held in honor. All that he speaks certainly comes to pass. Now let us go there. It may be he will declare our way to us on which we should go.
7 And Saul said to his young man, Yea, behold, we will go. But what will we bring in to the man? For the bread from our vessels is gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of the Elohim. What is with us?
8 And the young man answered Saul again and said, Behold, I have found a fourth of a shekel of silver; and I shall give it to the man of the Elohim, and he shall declare our way to us.
9 Before in Israel, a man who was going to seek Elohim said this, Come and we shall go to the seer; for the prophet of today, before, was called the seer.
10 And Saul said to his young man, Your word is good; come and we shall go. And they went into the city where the man of the Elohim was.
11 They were going up the ascent to the city, and found young women going out to draw water, and said to them, Is the seer in this place?

12 And they replied to them and said, He is. See, he is before you.
Hurry now, for today he will come into the city, for the people have a sacrifice in the high place.
13 As you go into the city, so you shall find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, for he shall bless the sacrifice. Afterward they who are called will eat. And now, go up, for this day you will find him.
14 And they went up to the city. They were coming into the middle of the city, and, behold, Samuel was coming out to meet them, to go up to the high place.
15 And YAHWEH revealed in Samuel's ear one day before Saul came, saying, 16 At this time tomorrow I will send to you a man out of the land of Benjamin. And you shall anoint him for the leader over My people Israel.
And he shall save My people out of the hand of the Philistines; for I have seen
My people, for his cry has come to Me.
17 When Samuel saw Saul, then YAHWEH answered him, Behold, the man of whom I spoke to you. This one shall rule over My people.
18 And Saul drew near to Samuel amidst the gate, and said, Please tell me where is the seer's house?
19 And Samuel answered Saul and said, I am the seer. Go up before me into the high place, and you shall eat with me today. And I will send you away in the morning, and all that is in your heart, I will declare to you.
20 And as to the donkeys which were lost to you three days ago, do not set your heart on them, for they have been found. And to whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not to you and to all the house of your father?
21 And Saul answered and said, Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And my family is the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin. And why have you spoken to me according to this word?
22 And Samuel took Saul and his young man and brought them into the room, and gave to them a place at the head of the invited ones. And they were about thirty men.
23 And Samuel said to the cook, Give the portion which I gave to you, of which I said to you, Set it beside you.
24 And the cook lifted up the leg,
and that on it, and set it before Saul.
And he said, Behold that which is reserved. Set it before you, eat. For it has been kept for you for this appointed time, saying, I have invited the people. And Saul ate with Samuel on that day.
25 And they came down from the high place to the city. And he spoke with Saul on the roof.
26 And they rose up early, and about the going up of the dawn it happened that Samuel called to Saul on the roof, saying, Rise up, and I will send you away. And Saul rose up, and they went out, both of them, he and Samuel, to the outside.
27 They were going down to the edge of the city, and Samuel said to Saul, Say to the young man that he should pass on before us and cross over. And you stand still at this time, and I will cause you to hear the Word of Elohim.

Chapter 10

1 And Samuel took the flask of oil and poured on his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because YAHWEH has anointed you for a leader over His inheritance?

2 As you go from me today even you will find two men by Rachel's tomb, in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah. And they will say to you, The she donkeys that you went to seek have been found.
And, behold, your father has left off the matters of the she donkeys and is anxious for you, saying, What shall I do for my son?
3 And you will go on from there even further, and you will come to the great tree of Tabor. And you will find three men going up to Elohim at Bethel, one carrying three kids, and one carrying three loaves of bread, and one carrying a skin of wine.
4 And they will ask you of your welfare and give to you two loaves of bread, and you will take them from their hand.
5 Afterward you will come to the hill of Elohim where there is a fort of the Philistines. And it will happen as you come there to the city even you will meet a band of prophets going down from the high place; and before them will be a harp, and a tambourine, and a flute, and a lyre. And they will be prophesying.
6 And the Spirit of YAHWEH will be powerful on you, and you will prophesy with them; and you will be turned into another man.
7 And it will be, when these signs come to you, do for yourself what your hand finds, for the Elohim is with you.
8 And you will go before me to Gilgal. And, behold! I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings, to sacrifice peace offerings. You will wait seven days until I come to you and make known to you what you shall do.
9 And it happened when he turned his back to go from Samuel, Elohim changed him with another heart. And all these signs came on that day.
10 And they came there to the hill.
And behold! A band of prophets were there to meet him. And the Spirit of Elohim pushed on him, and he prophesied in their midst.
11 And it happened, all who knew him from yesterday and the third day, and saw him, even behold, he prophesied with prophets. And the people said, each one to his neighbor,
What is this happening to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?
12 And a man from there answered and said, And who is their father? On account of this it is for a proverb: Is Saul also among the prophets?
13 And he finished from prophesying, and he came to the high
place.
14 And the uncle of Saul said to him and to his young man, Where did you go? And he said, To seek the she donkeys. And we saw that they were not, and we went to Samuel.
15 And the uncle of Saul said, Please tell me what Samuel said to you.
16 And Saul said to his uncle, He told us plainly that the she donkeys were found. But he did not tell what Samuel said about the matter of the kingdom.
17 And Samuel called the people to YAHWEH, to Mizpah.
18 And he said to the sons of Israel,
So says YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel, I caused Israel to go up from Egypt and delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians, and from the hand of all the kingdoms who oppressed you.
19 But today you have rejected your Elohim who Himself is your deliverer from all your evils and your distresses;
yet you say to Him, But set a king over us! And now present yourselves before the face of YAHWEH, by your tribes and by your families.
20 And Samuel brought near all the tribes of Israel, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

21 And he brought near the tribe of Benjamin by its families, and the family of Matri was taken. And Saul the son of Kish was taken. And they sought him, but not did find him.

22 And they inquired again of YAHWEH, Has the man yet come here? And YAHWEH said, Behold he is hiding himself by the baggage.

23 And they ran and took him from there. And he stood in the midst of the people, and he was taller than all the people, from his shoulders and upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, Do you see him whom YAHWEH has chosen, for none is like him among all the people? And all the people shouted and said, May the king live!

25 And Samuel spoke to the people the duties of the kingdom, and wrote in the book, and placed it before YAHWEH. And Samuel sent all the people away, each to his house.

26 And Saul also went to his house, to Gibeah, and with him went the valiant whose hearts Elohim had touched.

27 But the sons of worthlessness said, How can this one deliver us? And they despised him and did not bring a gift to him. But he was as one keeping silent.

Chapter 11

1 And Nahash the Ammonite went up and camped against Jabesh-Gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, Cut a covenant for us, and we will serve you. (2 Sam 10:2)

2 And Nahash the Ammonite said to them, With this I will cut a covenant for you, when every right eye is dug out for you; and I will make it a reproach on all Israel.[1]

3 And the elders of Jabesh said to him, Leave us alone seven days, and we will send messengers in all the boundary of Israel. And if there is no deliverer for us, then we will come out to you.

4 And the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul. And they spoke the words in the ears of the people. And all the people lifted up their voice and wept.

5 And, behold, Saul came behind the oxen from the field. And Saul said, What is it to the people, that they weep? And they related to him the words of the men of Jabesh.

6 And the Spirit of Elohim came powerfully on Saul when he heard these words, and his anger glowed greatly.

7 And he took the team of oxen and cut them in pieces, and he sent them into all the boundary of Israel, by the hand of the messengers, saying, Whoever does not come out after Saul and after Samuel, so it shall be done to his oxen. And the fear of YAHWEH fell on the people. And they came out as one man.

8 And he mustered them in Bezek, and the sons of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah, thirty thousand.

9 And they said to the messengers who came, So you shall say to the men of Jabesh-Gilead. Tomorrow there shall be deliverance for you, in the heat of the sun. And the messengers came and related this to the men of Jabesh; and they rejoiced.

10 And the men of Jabesh said, Tomorrow we will come out to you,

[1] The shield is held with the left hand, covering the left eye. One could not be an archer without a right eye.

and you do to us according to all that is good in your eyes.
11 And it happened, on the next day
Saul put the people in three heads, and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch and they struck Ammon until the heat of the day. And it was, the ones left were scattered; in them were not two left together.
12 And the people said to Samuel,
Who is he saying, Shall Saul reign over us? Give the men and we will execute
them.
13 And Saul said, Not a man shall be executed on this day, for today YAHWEH worked deliverance in Israel.
14 And Samuel said to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there.
15 And all the people went to Gilgal and made Saul to reign there in Gilgal, before the face of YAHWEH. And they offered Sacrifices of peace offerings there before YAHWEH. And Saul and all the men of Israel greatly rejoiced
there.

Chapter 12

1 And Samuel said to all Israel, Behold, I have heard your voice, to all that you said to me, and I made a king to reign over you.
2 And now, behold, the king is walking before you, but I am old and gray. And, behold, my sons, they are with you. And I have walked before your face from my youth until this day.
3 Behold, I am here! Testify against me before YAHWEH and before His anointed: Whose ox have I taken, and whose donkey have I taken, and whom have I offended? Whom have I crushed, and from whose hand have I taken a bribe that I might hide my eyes with it; and I will give back to you.
4 And they said, You have not oppressed us, and you have not crushed us, and you have not taken from the hand of any man. (1Sam 8:3) 5 And he said to them, YAHWEH is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand. And they said, He is witness.
6 And Samuel said to the people, It is YAHWEH who made Moses and Aaron, and who caused your fathers to go up from the land of Egypt.
7 And now stand, and I will contend with you before the face of YAHWEH regarding all the righteous acts of YAHWEH which He did with you and with your fathers.
8 When Jacob came into Egypt, and your fathers cried to YAHWEH, then YAHWEH sent Moses and Aaron; and they brought your fathers out from Egypt and made them dwell in this place.
9 And they forgot YAHWEH their Elohim. And He sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them.
10 And they cried to YAHWEH and said, We have sinned, for we forsook YAHWEH and served the Baals and the Ashtoroth, but now deliver us from the hand of our enemies and we will serve You.
11 And YAHWEH sent Jerubbaal, and Bedan, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you from the hand of your enemies from all around;
and you lived in safety.
12 And you saw that Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon came against you, and you said to me, No, for a king shall reign over us even though YAHWEH your Elohim was king over
you.
13 And now, behold the king whom you chose, whom you requested. And behold YAHWEH gave a king over you.

14 If you will fear[1] YAHWEH and serve Him, and listen to His voice, and do not rebel against the mouth of YAHWEH, then you, both you and also the king who reigns over you, shall follow YAHWEH your Elohim.

15 But if you will not listen to the voice of YAHWEH, and you rebel against the mouth of YAHWEH, then the hand of YAHWEH shall be against you and against your fathers.

16 Also, now present yourselves and see this great thing that YAHWEH will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not wheat harvest today? I will call to YAHWEH and He will give sounds and rain. And know and see that your evil is great, that which you have done in the eyes of YAHWEH, to ask a king for yourselves.[2]

18 And Samuel called to YAHWEH. And YAHWEH gave sounds and rain in that day. And all the people greatly feared YAHWEH and Samuel.

19 And all the people said to Samuel, Pray to YAHWEH your Elohim for your servants, that we may not die, for we have added this evil to all our sins to ask a king for ourselves.

20 And Samuel said to the people, Do not fear. You have done all this evil, only do not turn aside from following YAHWEH, and serve YAHWEH with all your heart.

21 And do not turn aside to go after worthless things which do not profit and do not deliver, for they are worthless.

22 For YAHWEH will not abandon His people, for the sake of His great name. For YAHWEH resolves to make you a people for Himself.

23 Also I, far be it from me from sinning against YAHWEH, from ceasing to pray for you. But I will instruct you in the good and the right way.

24 Only fear YAHWEH and serve Him in truth with all your heart, for seeing that He has done great things for you.

25 But if you still do evilly, both you and your king will be swept away.

Chapter 13

1 It was one year since Saul became king, then he reigned two more years over Israel.

2 And Saul chose for himself three thousand out of Israel. And two thousand were with Saul in Michmash, and in the hills of Bethel. And a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. And he sent the rest of the people each to his tent.

3 And Jonathan struck the fort of the Philistines in Geba. And the Philistines heard. And Saul blew with the ram's horn throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear.

4 And all Israel heard, saying, Saul has struck a fort of the Philistines; and also Israel has made himself stink to the Philistines. And all the people were called after Saul, to Gilgal.

5 And the Philistines gathered to fight with Israel, with thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the lip of the sea for multitude. And they came up and pitched in Michmash, east of Beth-Aven.

6 And the men of Israel saw that they were distressing to them, for the people were distressed. And the people hid themselves in caves, and in

[1] To fear: not only to minister to, but also to worship.

[2] Usually there is no rain at wheat harvest, so this was a sign and a warning as the rain could have destroyed the crop.

crevices, and in crags, and in tombs, and in cisterns.

7 And the Hebrews crossed over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. And Saul was still in Gilgal. And all the people followed him, trembling.

8 And he waited seven days, according to the set time with Samuel. But Samuel had not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him.

9 And Saul said, Bring near to me the burnt offering and the peace offerings. And he offered up the burnt offering.[1]

10 And it happened, as soon as he finished the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came. And Saul went out to meet him, and to bless him.

11 And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattering from me, and you did not come in the days set out, and the Philistines were gathering at Michmash,

12 then I said, Now the Philistines will come down to me to Gilgal, and I have not sweetened the face of YAHWEH; and I forced myself, and offered a burnt offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, You have acted foolishly that you have not kept the command of YAHWEH your Elohim which He commanded you. For now YAHWEH would have established your kingdom over Israel forever.

14 But now your kingdom shall not stand. YAHWEH has sought out for Himself a man according to His own heart, and YAHWEH has appointed him as leader over His people. For you have not kept that which YAHWEH commanded you.[2]

15 And Samuel rose up and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people who were found with him, about six hundred men.

16 And Saul and his son Jonathan, and the people who were found with them, were staying in Gibeah of Benjamin; and the Philistines pitched in Michmash.

17 And the ones ravaging came out of the Philistine camp in three heads; one head turned to the way to Ophrah, to the land of Shual;

18 And another head turned the way to Beth-Horon. And another head turned to the way of the border looking down on the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

19 And there was no iron smith found throughout all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make swords or spears.

20 And all Israel went down to the Philistines, each man to sharpen his plowshare, and his mattock, and his axe, and his plowshare.

21 And the sharpening charge was a pim[3] for the plowshares, and for the mattocks, and for the three pronged forks, and for the axes, and for setting the plowshares.

22 And it happened in the day of battle that there was neither sword nor spear in the hand of any of the people with Saul and Jonathan. But one was found with Saul and with his son Jonathan.

23 And the fort of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

1 Saul was totally outside of Yahweh's judicial order by performing the sacrifice even though he was not a priest.

2 The consequences of poor decision making not only affects the person, but also all those around him. The tribe of Benjamin lost out on the kingly line due to Saul's pride and lack of repentant heart.

3 A pim was 2/3 of a shekel or ¼ ounce, or 8 grams.

Chapter 14

1 And the day came that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man bearing his armor, Come, and we will go over to the fort of the Philistines on the other side. But he did not tell his father.

2 And Saul was waiting at the edge of Gibeah, under the pomegranate in Migron; also the people with him, about six hundred men.

3 And Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, the brother of Ichabod, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli the priest of YAHWEH in Shiloh, was wearing the ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan had left.

4 And between the passes by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistine fort, there was a rocky crag on the one side, and the rocky crag opposite this; and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other, Seneh.

5 The one crag was a pillar on the north in front of Michmash, and the one on the south in front of Gibeah.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man bearing his weapons, Come, we shall cross over to the fort of these uncircumcised ones. It may be YAHWEH will work for us, for there is no hindrance to YAHWEH, to save by many or by few.

7 And his armor bearer said to him, Do all that is in your heart; turn yourself. Behold, I am with you according to your heart.

8 And Jonathan said, Behold, we will cross over to the men and show ourselves to them.

9 If they say this to us, Stand still until we reach you, then we will stand in our place and not go up to them.

10 But if they say this, Come up to us, then we will go up, for YAHWEH has given them into our hand; and this will be the sign for us.

11 And both of them were revealed to the fort of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, See, Hebrews coming out from the holes there where they hid themselves!

12 And the men of the fort answered Jonathan and his armor bearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will teach you a thing. And Jonathan said to his armor bearer, Come up after me, for YAHWEH has given them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Jonathan went up on his hands and on his feet, and the armor bearer after him. And they fell before Jonathan, and the armor bearer made them die behind him.

14 And this was the first blow, when Jonathan and his armor bearer struck about twenty men in about half of a furrow of an acre of a field.

15 And there was trembling in the camp in the field, and among all the people; the fort and those ravaging trembled, even them. And the ground quaked, and it was for a trembling of Elohim.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude had melted away; and they went, even here and there.

17 And Saul said to the people with him, Make a count now and see who has gone from us. And they counted, and, behold, Jonathan and the armor bearer were not there.

18 And Saul said to Ahijah, Bring the ark of Elohim here, for the ark of Elohim was with the sons of Israel on that day.

19 And it happened while Saul spoke to the priest, that the turmoil which was in the camp, even the Philistines went on, going and increasing. And Saul said to the priest, Withdraw your hand.

20 And Saul and all the people with him gathered together and went to the battle. And, behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, a very great panic!
21 Then the Hebrews who were for the Philistines before, who had gone with them to the camp all around, even they turned to be with Israel,
with Saul and Jonathan.
22 And all the men of Israel who had been hiding themselves in the hills of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled. And they also pursued them in battle.
23 And YAHWEH saved Israel that day. And the battle passed over to Beth-Aven.
24 And the men of Israel were distressed on that day, for Saul took an oath of the people, saying, Cursed shall be the man who eats food until the evening, when I have been avenged on my foes. And none of the people tasted food.
25 And all those of the land came into a forest, and there was honey on the ground.
26 And the people came into the forest; and behold, a flow of honey!
But no man put his hand to his mouth,
for the people feared the oath.
27 And Jonathan did not hear when his father made the people swear. And he put out the tip of the staff in his hand and dipped it into the honeycomb. And he put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened.
28 And one of the people answered and said, Swearing your father made the people swear, saying, Cursed shall be the man who eats food today. And the people were weak.
29 And Jonathan said, My father has troubled the land. See, now, that my eyes became bright, for I tasted this little honey.
30 How much more if the people had eaten freely today of this spoil of its enemies which it has found. For now would not the blow among the Philistines have been great?
31 And they struck the Philistines on that day from Michmash to Aijalon, and the people were very weak.
32 And the people fell on the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and sons of the herd, and slaughtered them to the ground. And the people ate with the blood.
33 And they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people are sinning against YAHWEH, to eat with the blood. And he said, You have acted treacherously.
Now roll me a great stone today.
34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people and say to them, Each one bring his ox near to me, and each his sheep, and you slaughter here, and eat; and you shall not sin against YAHWEH, to eat with the blood. And each of all the people brought near his ox in his hand that night, and they slaughtered there.
35 And Saul built an altar to YAHWEH. With it he began to build an altar to YAHWEH.
36 And Saul said Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them until the morning light, and not a man remains among them.
And they said, Do all that is good in your eyes. And the priest said, Let us draw near here to Elohim.
37 And Saul asked of Elohim, Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You give them into the hand of Israel? But He did not answer him on that day.
38 And Saul said, All leaders of the people draw near here, and know and see how this sin has happened today.
39 For as YAHWEH lives, who delivers Israel, surely if it is my son

Jonathan, surely he shall die. And no one answered him from all the people.
40 And he said to all Israel, You be on one side, and my son Jonathan and I will be on another side. And the people said to Saul, Do that which is good in your eyes.
41 And Saul said to YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, Give a perfect lot. And Jonathan and Saul were taken, and the people went out.
42 And Saul said, Cast between me and my son Jonathan. And Jonathan was taken.
43 And Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me, what did you do? And Jonathan told him, and said, I indeed tasted a little honey with the end of the staff in my hand. Behold, I! I will die.
44 And Saul said, Elohim do so and more also, for surely you shall die, Jonathan.
45 And the people said to Saul, Shall Jonathan die, he who did this great deliverance in Israel? Far be it! As YAHWEH lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground, for he has worked with Elohim this day. And the people rescued Jonathan, and he did not die.
46 And Saul went up from following the Philistines. And the Philistines went to their own place.
47 And Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies all around, with Moab, and with the sons of Ammon, and with Edom, and with the kings of Zobah, and with the Philistines, and wherever he turned, he put them to the worse.
48 And he acted with force and struck Amalek, and delivered Israel from the hand of their plunderers.
49 And the sons of Saul were Jonathan and Ishvi, and Malchishua; and his two daughters' names: the first-born's name was Merab; and the name of the younger, Michal.
50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of his army commander was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.
51 And Kish was Saul's father, and Ner Abner's father was the son of Abiel.
52 And the war was strong against the Philistines all the days of Saul. And when Saul saw any mighty man, or any brave man, then he gathered him to himself.

Chapter 15

1 And Samuel said to Saul, YAHWEH sent me to anoint you king over His people, over Israel. And now listen to the voice of the words of YAHWEH.
2 So says YAHWEH of Hosts, I will visit Amalek with what he did to Israel, how he set himself against him in the way, when he came up from Egypt.
3 Now go, and you shall strike Amalek and destroy all that he has. And you shall have no pity on him, and you shall put to death all from man to woman, from little one to suckling, from ox to sheep, from camel to donkey.
4 And Saul listened and mustered the people in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand were men of Judah.
5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and lay in wait in a torrent-bed.
6 And Saul said to the Kenite, Go! Depart! Go out from the midst of Amalek, lest I destroy you with him. For you acted with kindness toward all the sons of Israel when they came up out of Egypt. And the Kenite departed from the midst of Amalek.
7 And Saul struck Amalek from Havilah, as you go to Shur, which is before Egypt.

8 And he captured Agag the king of Amalek alive. But he exterminated all the people with the mouth of the sword.

9 And Saul and the people had pity on Agag, and on the best of the flock, and of the herd, and the seconds, and the lambs, and all that was good, and were not willing to exterminate them. But they exterminated every despised and worthless thing.

10 And the Word of YAHWEH was to Samuel, saying,

11 I repent that I made Saul reign as king, for he has turned back from following Me, and he has not risen to do My Words. And Samuel was angry, and he cried to YAHWEH all night.

12 And Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning. And it was told to Samuel, saying, Saul has come to Carmel. And behold, he has set up a place to himself, and has gone around, and has passed over and gone down to Gilgal.

13 And Samuel came to Saul. And Saul said to him, Blessed are you of YAHWEH. I have risen to do the Word of YAHWEH.

14 And Samuel said, What then is this noise of the flock in my ears, and the sound of the herd that I hear?

15 And Saul said, They have brought them from Amalek, because the people had pity on the best of the flock, and of the herd, in order to sacrifice to YAHWEH your Elohim. And the rest we have exterminated.

16 And Samuel said to Saul, Stop, and I will declare to you that which YAHWEH spoke to me tonight. And he said to him, Speak.

17 And Samuel said, Were you not, even you, little in your own eyes before becoming leader of the tribes of Israel? And YAHWEH anointed you as king over Israel.

18 And YAHWEH sent you on the way, and said, Go, and exterminate the sinners, Amalek; and fight against them until they finish them.

19 Why then did you not listen to the voice of YAHWEH? But did fly upon the spoil, and did the evil in the eyes of YAHWEH.

20 And Saul said to Samuel, I did obey the voice of YAHWEH, and I went in the way which YAHWEH sent me, and brought Agag the king of Amalek, and I exterminated Amalek.

21 And the people took from the spoil of the flock, and the first of the herd, that devoted, to sacrifice to YAHWEH your Elohim in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, Does YAHWEH delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of YAHWEH? Behold! Obeying is better than sacrifice; to give attention is better than the fat of rams.[1]

23 For rebellion is as the sin of divination;[2] and stubbornness is both iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the Word of YAHWEH, so He has rejected you from being king.

24 And Saul said to Samuel, I have sinned, for I have transgressed the mouth of YAHWEH and your word, because I feared the people, and I listened to their voice.

25 And now please lift up my sin, and return with me that I may worship YAHWEH.

26 And Samuel said to Saul, I will not return with you, for you have rejected the Word of YAHWEH and YAHWEH has rejected you from being king over Israel.

27 And Samuel turned around to go. And he took hold on the edge of his robe[1], and it tore.

28 And Samuel said to him, YAHWEH has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today, and has given it to your neighbor who is better than you.

29 And also the Glory of Israel will not lie nor repent, for He is not a man that He should repent.

30 And he said, I have sinned. Honor me now, please, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and return with me. And I shall worship YAHWEH your Elohim.

31 And Samuel turned back away from Saul, and Saul worshiped YAHWEH.

32 And Samuel said, Bring near to me Agag the king of Amalek. And Agag came to him cheerfully. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death has passed.

33 And Samuel said, As your sword has bereaved women of children, so shall your mother be bereft among women. And Samuel cut Agag in pieces before YAHWEH in Gilgal.

34 And Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went to his house, to Gibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel never again saw Saul until the day of his death, for Samuel mourned for Saul. And YAHWEH repented that He had caused Saul to reign over Israel.

Chapter 16

1 And YAHWEH said to Samuel, Until when will you mourn for Saul, for I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have seen a king for Me among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? When Saul hears, then he will kill me. And YAHWEH said, You shall take a heifer from the herd in your hand, and shall say, I have come to sacrifice to YAHWEH.

3 And you invite Jesse to the sacrifice. And I will make you know what you shall do. And you shall anoint for Me whomever I say to you.

4 And Samuel did what YAHWEH said, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city trembled to meet him, and said, Do you come in peace?

5 And he said, Peace! I have come to sacrifice to YAHWEH. Sanctify yourselves and you shall come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And it happened as they came in, that he saw Eliab, and said, Surely before YAHWEH is His Messiah.

7 And YAHWEH said to Samuel, Do not look on his appearance, nor to the height of his stature, for I have rejected him. For man does not see what He sees. For man looks for the eyes, but YAHWEH looks for the heart.

8 And Jesse called to Abinadab, and he passed him before Samuel but he said, Also YAHWEH has not chosen this one.

9 And Jesse passed Shammah by, but he said, Also YAHWEH has not chosen this one.

10 And Jesse passed seven of his sons before Samuel, but Samuel said

---

1 This was the tzitzeet (tassel), which represents the authority of a male. By ripping his tzitzeet it showed that due to his lack of judicial order Saul's authority was being ripped away from him.

to Jesse, YAHWEH has not chosen among these.

11 And Samuel said to Jesse, Are these all the young men? And he said, There yet remains the youngest; and behold, he is feeding the flock. And Samuel said to Jesse, Send and bring him, for we will not sit until he comes here.

12 And he sent and brought him in. And he was ruddy, with beautiful eyes and good form. And YAHWEH said, Rise up, anoint him, for this is he.

13 And Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the Spirit of YAHWEH came upon David from that day and onward. [1]And Samuel rose up and went to Ramah.

14 And the Spirit of YAHWEH departed from Saul, and a spirit of adversity from YAHWEH terrified him.

15 And Saul's servants said to him, Behold, now a spirit of adversity from Elohim is terrifying you.

16 Please let our master say to your servants before you, let them seek out a man who knows how to play on the harp. And it shall be, when the spirit of adversity from Elohim is upon you, then he shall play with his hand, and it shall be well with you.

17 And Saul said to his servants, Now look for a man who is good at playing for me, and bring him to me.

18 One of the servants answered and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who is skillful in playing, and a mighty warrior, and a man of battle, and skillful in speech, and a man of form. And YAHWEH is with him.

19 And Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, Send your son David to me, who is with the flock.

20 And Jesse took a donkey, with bread, and a skin of wine, and one kid of the goats; and he sent by the hand of his son David to Saul.

21 And David came to Saul and stood before him. And he loved him greatly; and he became one who bore his armor for him.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Please let David stand before me, for he has found grace in my eyes.

23 And it happened, when the spirit of adversity from Elohim was on Saul, then David would take the harp and play with his hand. And there was relief for Saul, and it was well with him. And the spirit of adversity would depart from him.

Chapter 17

1 And the Philistines[2] had gathered their armies for battle, and were gathered at Socoh which is to Judah. And they camped between Socoh and Azekah in Ephes-Dammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered, and camped in the valley of Elah. And they set the battle in order to meet the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on the mountain on this side, and Israel stood on the mountain on that side, and the valley between them.

4 And a champion came out from the armies of the Philistines, Goliath was his name, from Gath; his height was six cubits and a span.

5 And a copper helmet was on his head, and he was clothed with scaled body armor; and the weight of the armor was five thousand shekels of copper.

[1] David had YHWH's Holy Spirit, Ps 51:11.

[2] The Philistines were an Indo-European, maritime people who invaded Egypt in the 12th century B.C. and were driven out and went to southwest Canaan, and other parts of the land, by this time they had a foothold on the whole southern portion of Israel.

6 And a covering of copper was on his legs, and a javelin of copper between his shoulders.

7 And the wood of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and the blade of his spear weighed six hundred shekels of iron. And the shield bearer went before him.

8 And he stood and called to the ranks of Israel, and said to them, Why do you come out to set in order the battle? Am I not the Philistine, and you Saul's servants? Choose one of yourselves, and let him come to me.

9 If he is able to fight with me and strike me, then we shall become slaves to you. But if I prevail over him, and strike him, then you shall become slaves to us and shall serve us.

10 And the Philistine said, I defy the ranks of Israel this day; give me a man, and we will fight together.

11 And Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine. And they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

12 And David was the son of an Ephrathite of Bethlehem-Judah named Jesse. And to him were eight sons. And the man was old among men in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went out; they went after Saul to the battle. And the name of his three sons who went into the battle: Eliab, the first-born; and his second, Abinadab; and the third, Shammah.

14 And David was the youngest. And the three eldest had gone after Saul.

15 And David went and returned from Saul, to feed his father's flock at Bethlehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.[1]

17 And Jesse said to his son David, Please take to your brothers an ephah of this roasted grain and these ten loaves, and run to the camp, to your brothers.

18 And you shall take these ten cuttings of cheese to the commander of the thousand, and you shall visit your brothers, as to their welfare. And you shall bring their token.

19 And Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 And David rose up early in the morning and left the sheep with a keeper, and got up and went, as Jesse commanded him. And he came to the barricade, and to the army which was going out to the battle array. And they were shouting for battle.

21 And Israel and the Philistines set up in battle array for rank to meet rank.

22 And David left the goods on him into the hands of the keeper of the goods, and he ran to the army. And he came and asked his brothers of their welfare.

23 And as he was speaking to them, even, behold! The man between the two, Goliath the Philistine was his name, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines. And he spoke according to these words. And David heard.

24 And when they saw the man, all the men of Israel ran from him, and were very much afraid.

25 And the men of Israel said, Have you seen this man who comes up? For he has come to defy Israel. And it shall be, the man who strikes him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and he will give his daughter to him. And he will make his father's house free in Israel.

26 And David spoke to the men who were standing with him, saying, What shall be done to the man who strikes this Philistine, and turns aside reproach from Israel? For who is this

[1] 40 in scripture is the number of trial or overcoming.

uncircumcised Philistine that he should reproach the armies of the living Elohim?
27 And the people spoke to him according to this word, saying, So shall it be done to the man who strikes him.
28 And his eldest brother, Eliab, heard when he spoke to the men. And Eliab's anger glowed against David.
And he said, Why is it you have come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the evil of your heart, for you have come down to see the battle.
29 And David said, What have I done now? Was it not only a word?
30 And he turned around from him to another and said according to this word. And the people answered him a word like the first word.
31 And the words which David had spoken were heard. And they were told before Saul, and he received him.
32 And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him. Your servant will go and will fight with this Philistine.
33 And Saul said to David, You are not able to go to this Philistine, to fight with him, for you are a youth, and he is a man of war from his youth.
34 And David said to Saul, Your servant has been a shepherd among sheep for his father. And the lion came, and the bear, and took away a sheep out of the flock.
35 And I went out after him and struck him, and delivered out of his mouth. And he rose against me, and I took hold of his beard and struck him, and killed him.
36 Your servant has struck both the lion and the bear, and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, for he has taunted the armies of the living Elohim.
37 And David said, YAHWEH, who has delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, He shall deliver me from the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said to David, Go, and YAHWEH be with you.
38 And Saul clothed David with his apparel, and put a copper helmet on his head, and clothed him with body armor.
39 And David girded his sword on his apparel, and started to go. But he had not tested these. And David said to Saul, I am not able to go with these, for I have not tested them. And David took them off him.
40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose for himself five smooth stones from the valley. And he put them in the shepherd's bag which he had, even in his pouch. And his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine.
41 And the Philistine came on, coming and drawing near to David;
and the shield bearer was before him.
42 And the Philistine looked, and he saw David, and disdained him, for he was a youth, even ruddy, with a handsome form.
43 And the Philistine said to David,
Am I a dog that you have come to me with sticks? And the Philistine cursed David by his Elohim.
44 And the Philistine said to David,
Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the heavens and to the beasts of the field.
45 And David said to the Philistine, You are coming to me with sword, and with spear, and with javelin. But I am coming to you in the name of YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of the armies of Israel, which you have reproached.
46 Today YAHWEH shall shut you up into my hand, and I shall strike you, and take off your head from you and give the carcasses of the Philistine army to the birds of the heavens and to the beasts of the earth today. And all the earth shall know that there is an Elohim for Israel.

47 And all this company shall know that YAHWEH does not save by sword and by spear, but that the battle belongs to YAHWEH, and He has given you into our hand.

48 And it happened, when the Philistine arose and went, and drew near to meet David, David hurried and ran toward the ranks to meet the Philistine.

49 And David put his hand into the pouch and took a stone from there. And he slung it and struck the Philistine in his forehead. And the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth.

50 And David was stronger than the Philistine with the sling and with the stone. And he struck the Philistine and killed him. And there was no sword in David's hand.

51 And David ran and stood over the Philistine, and took his sword; and he drew it out of its sheath and killed him. And he cut off his head with it. And the Philistines saw that their warrior was dead, and they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and Judah rose up and shouted, and pursued the Philistines until you enter the valley, even to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell in the way of Shaaraim, even to Gath, and to Ekron.

53 And the sons of Israel returned from hotly pursuing the Philistines; and they pillaged their camps.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem; and he put his weapons in his own tent.

55 And when Saul saw David going out to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner, the army commander, Whose son is this youth, Abner? And Abner said, As your soul lives, O king, I do not know.

56 And the king said, You ask whose son this young man is.

57 And when David returned from striking the Philistine, then Abner took him and brought him before Saul; and the head of the Philistine was in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, Whose son are you, boy? And David said, The son of your servant Jesse, the Bethlehemite.

Chapter 18

1 And it happened, when he finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was knitted with the soul of David; and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.[1]

2 And Saul took him that day, and would not let him return to his father's house.

3 And Jonathan and David cut a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped off the robe on him and gave it to David; also his apparel, even to his sword and to his bow and to his belt.

5 And David went out wherever Saul sent him. And he acted wisely. And Saul set him over the men of war. And it was good in the eyes of all the people, and also in the eyes of the servants of Saul.

6 And it happened as they came in, as David returned from striking the Philistine, the women came out from all the cities of Israel to sing with the dancers, to meet Saul the king with tambourines and with joy and three-stringed instruments.

1 Jonathan and David's relationship is one of the greatest examples in scripture of a true, covenant friendship.

7 And the women who were playing answered and said, Saul has slain his thousands, but David his ten thousands.
8 And it very much burned Saul, and this thing was evil in his eyes. And he said, They have given ten thousands to David, and to me they have given thousands. And is there more to him, except the kingdom?
9 And from that day forward Saul was watching David.
10 And on the next day it happened that the spirit of adversity from Elohim came on Saul. And he prophesied in the midst of the house;
and David was playing with his hand, as he did day by day. And Saul's spear was in his hand.
11 And Saul threw the spear, and said, I will strike David, even to the wall. And David twice drew back from his face.
12 And Saul feared David, because YAHWEH was with him, and had departed from Saul.
13 And Saul separated him from himself and set him as his commander over a thousand. And he went out and came in before the people.
14 And David acted wisely in all his ways, and YAHWEH was with him.
15 And Saul saw that he was acting wisely, and was afraid of him.
16 And all Israel and Judah loved David, for he went out and came in before them.
17 And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter Merav! I will give her to you for a wife; only, you be a brave son for me and fight the battles of YAHWEH. And Saul said, Let not my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him.
18 And David said to Saul, Who am I, and what is my life, and the family of my father in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?
19 And it happened at the time Saul was to give his daughter Merav to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite for a wife.
20 And Saul's daughter Michal loved David. And they told Saul, and the thing was right in his eyes.
21 And Saul said, I will give her to him, and she shall be a snare to him.
And the hand of the Philistines shall be on him. And Saul said to David a second time, You shall be my son-in-law today.
22 And Saul commanded his servants, Speak to David secretly, saying, Behold the king delights in you, and all his servants love you. And now, be son-in-law to the king.
23 And Saul's servants spoke these words in David's ears. And David said, Is it a light thing in your eyes to be son-in-law to the king? And I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed.
24 And Saul's servants spoke to him, saying, David has spoken according to these words.
25 And Saul said, So you shall say to David, There is no delight to the king in dowry, but in a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged on the king's enemies. And Saul thought to cause David to fall by the hand of the Philistines.
26 And his servants told David these words. And the thing was right in David's eyes, to be son-in-law to the king. And the days had not been fulfilled.
27 And David rose up and went out, he and his men. And they struck two hundred men of the Philistines. And David brought their foreskins, and he gave them in full to the king, in order to be son-in-law to the king. And Saul gave him his daughter Michal for a wife.
28 And Saul saw and knew that

YAHWEH was with David, and that Saul's daughter Michal loved him.

29 And Saul was still more afraid of David. And Saul was an enemy to David continually.

30 And the rulers of the Philistines came out. And it happened from the time they came out, David acted more wisely than all the servants of Saul. And His name was greatly esteemed.

Chapter 19

1 And Saul spoke to his son Jonathan, and to all his servants, to kill David.

2 And Saul's son Jonathan delighted exceedingly in David. And Jonathan told David, saying, My father Saul is seeking to kill you. And, now, please be on guard in the morning, and you shall stay in the secret place, and shall hide.

3 And I, I will go out and will stand by my father's side in the field where you are. And I will speak of you to my father, and shall see what it is, and will tell you.

4 And Jonathan spoke good of David to his father Saul, and said to him, Do not let the king sin against his servant, against David, because he has not sinned against you; also because his works for you are very good.

5 Yea, he has put his life in his hand and killed the Philistine. And YAHWEH worked a great deliverance for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced. And why do you sin against innocent blood, to put David to death for no reason?

6 And Saul listened to Jonathan's voice, and Saul swore, As YAHWEH lives he shall not die.

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these words. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was before him as yesterday and the day before.

8 And there was war again. And David went out and fought against the Philistines, and struck among them with a great slaughter. And they fled from his face.

9 And the spirit of adversity from YAHWEH was on Saul. And he was sitting in his house, and his spear in his hand. And David was playing with the hand.

10 And Saul tried to strike with the spear through David and through the wall. But he burst forth from Saul's presence. And he struck the spear through the wall. And David fled, and escaped during that night.

11 And Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch him, and to kill him in the morning. And his wife Michal told David, saying, If you do not escape with your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed.

12 And Michal made David go down through the window. And he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 And Michal took an image and laid it on the bed; and she put the quilt of goat's hair at his head-place, and covered with a spread.

14 And Saul sent messengers to take David. And she said, He is sick.

15 And Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, to kill him.

16 And the messengers came in. And, behold, the image was on the bed, and the quilt of goat's hair was at his head-place.

17 And Saul said to Michal, Why have you deceived me this way, that you have sent away my enemy, and he has escaped? And Michal said to Saul, He said to me, Send me away; why should I kill you?

18 And David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he went, he and Samuel, and they lived in Naioth.

19 And it was told to Saul, saying,
Behold, David is in Naioth in Ramah.
20 And Saul sent messengers to take David. And they saw the assembly of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as head over them. And the Spirit of Elohim came on Saul's messengers, and they also prophesied.
21 And they told Saul, and he sent other messengers. And they also prophesied. And again Saul sent messengers, a third time. And they also prophesied.
22 And he went, he also, to Ramah, and came to the great well in Sechu.
And Saul asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, in Naioth in Ramah.
23 And he went there, to Naioth in Ramah, and the Spirit of Elohim was on him, him also. And going on, he went and prophesied until he came into Naioth in Ramah.
24 And he stripped off his garments,
he also, and he prophesied before Samuel, even he. And he fell down disrobed all that day and all that night.
Because of this they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

Chapter 20

1 And David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? What is my iniquity, and what is my sin before your father, that he is seeking my life?
2 And he said to him, Far be it! You shall not die. Behold, my father shall not do anything great or small, and not reveal it to my ear. And why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so.
3 And David again swore and said,
Your father has certainly known that I have found grace in your eyes; and he said, Do not let Jonathan know this, that he not be grieved. And yet, as YAHWEH lives, and your soul lives, there is only a step between me and death.
4 And Jonathan said to David, What your soul may say, I also will do for you.
5 And David said to Jonathan,
Behold, the new moon is tomorrow.
And sitting I should certainly sit with the king to eat. And you shall send me away, and I shall be hidden in the field until the third evening.
6 If looking your father looks for me, then you shall say, David asked earnestly of me to run to his city Beth-Lehem; for the yearly sacrifice is there for all the family.
7 If he shall say so, Good! Peace shall be for your servant. But if it burns him greatly, know that evil has been determined by him.
8 And you shall do kindness to your servant, for you have brought your servant with you into a covenant of YAHWEH. And if there is iniquity in me, you kill me. For why is this, that you bring me to your father?
9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from you! For if I knew with certainty that evil was determined by my father to come on you, would I not tell it to you?
10 Then David said to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? Or what if your father answers harshly?
11 And Jonathan said to David,
Come, and we shall go out to the field;
and both of them went out to the field.
12 And Jonathan said to David, YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel be witness when I search my father about this time tomorrow, or the third day, and behold, there is good toward David and I do not send to you and do not reveal it in your ear, 13 so may YAHWEH do to Jonathan and do much more than this. If it should seem good to my father to do evil to you, then I will reveal it in your ear and send you away. And you shall go in peace; and may YAHWEH be with you, as He was with my father.

14 And not only while I live, even you shall do with me the kindness of YAHWEH, that I not die, 15 but you shall not cut off your kindness from my house forever, not even when YAHWEH cuts off the enemies of David, each one from off the face of the earth.
16 And Jonathan covenanted with the house of David, that YAHWEH should seek it from the hand of David's enemies.
17 And Jonathan again made David swear, because he loved him; for he loved him as he loved his own soul.
18 And Jonathan said to him, Tomorrow is the new moon, and you shall be expected, for your seat will be empty.
19 And on the third day you shall quickly come down, and shall come there to the place where you were hidden in the day of the deed. And you shall remain near the stone Ezel.
20 And I will shoot three arrows to the side, shooting at a mark for myself.
21 And, behold, I shall send a boy, saying, Find the arrows! If I expressly say to the boy, Behold, the arrows are on this side of you, take them; then you come, for peace shall be to you, and there is nothing, as YAHWEH lives.
22 But if I say to the young man, Behold, the arrows are away from you and onwards; go, for YAHWEH has sent you away.
23 As to the thing which we have spoken, you and I; behold, YAHWEH is between you and me forever.
24 And David was hidden in the field. And it was the new moon. And the king sat down by the food to eat.
25 And the king sat on his seat, as from time to time, on the seat by the wall. And Jonathan rose up, and Abner sat at Saul's side. And David's place was empty.
26 But Saul did not say anything on that day, for he said, It is an accident;
he is not clean; he is surely not clean.
27 And it happened on the day after the new moon, David's place was empty. And Saul said to his son Jonathan, Why has the son of Jesse not come to the meal, either yesterday or today?
28 And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked of me to go to Bethlehem.
29 And he said, Please send me away, for we have a family sacrifice in the city, and my brother commanded me. And now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me be released, and to see my brothers. So he has not come to the table of the king.
30 And the anger of Saul glowed against Jonathan. And he said to him, Son of a perverse rebelliousness! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your shame, and to the shame of the nakedness of your mother?
31 For as long as the son of Jesse lives on earth you shall not be established, you and your kingdom.
And now send and bring him to me,
for he is a son of death.
32 And Jonathan answered his father Saul, and said to him, Why should he die? What has he done?
33 And Saul threw the spear at him, to strike him. And Jonathan knew that it had been determined by his father to kill David.
34 And Jonathan rose up from the table in the heat of anger. And he did not eat food on the second day of the new moon, for he was grieved for David. For his father had put him to shame.

35 And it happened in the morning that Jonathan went out in the field for the meeting with David. And a little boy was with him.
36 And he said to the boy, Now run and find the arrow which I am shooting. The boy ran, and he shot the arrow, causing it to pass over him.
37 And the boy came to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot.
And Jonathan called after the boy and said, Is the arrow not away from you and onwards?
38 And Jonathan called after the boy, Hurry, make haste, do not stand!
And Jonathan's boy gathered the arrow and came to his master.
39 And the boy did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew the matter.
40 And Jonathan gave his weapons to the boy with him, and said to him,
Go, bring them to the city.
41 The boy left, and David rose up from the south side. And he fell on his face to the ground. And he bowed three times. And they each one kissed his friend. And they each wept on his friend, until David was overcome.
42 And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, because we have sworn, the two of us, in the name of YAHWEH, saying, YAHWEH shall be between you and me, and between my seed and your seed forever. And he rose up and went. And Jonathan went into the city.

Chapter 21

1 And David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. And Ahimelech trembled at meeting David, and said to him, Why are you by yourself, and no man with you?
2 And David said to Ahimelech the priest, The king has commanded me a matter; and he said to me, Do not let a man know anything of the matter about which I am sending you, and which I told you. And I have directed the young men to such and such a place.
3 And now, what is there under your hand? Give five loaves into my hand, or whatever is found.
4 And the priest answered David and said, There is no common bread under my hand, but only holy bread, if the young men have only been kept from a woman.
5 And David answered the priest and said to him, Surely, a woman has been kept from us as yesterday and the third day, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy. And in a way the holy bread is common;
also surely today it is sanctified in the vessels.
6 And the priest gave the holy bread to him, for there was no bread there except the Bread of the Presence which is taken from the presence of YAHWEH in order to put hot bread in on the day it is taken away.
7 And a man was there on that day, of the servants of Saul, detained before YAHWEH. And his name was Doeg the Edomite, the chief of Saul's shepherds.
8 And David said to Ahimelech, Is there not here under your hand a spear or sword? For I have taken neither my sword or my weapons, for the king's matter was urgent.
9 And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you struck in the valley of Elah; behold, it is wrapped in the cloak behind the ephod. If you desire, take it for yourself; for there is no other here except it. And David said, There is none like it. Give it to me.
10 And David rose up and fled from the face of Saul on that day, and he came to Achish the king of Gath.

11 And the servants of Achish said to him, Is this not David the king of the land? Is it not of this one they sang in dances, saying, Saul killed his thousands, and David his myriads?

12 And David put these words in his heart, and was very much afraid of the face of Achish the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his behavior before their eyes, and pretended himself to be insane in their hand, and scribbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall onto his beard.

14 And Achish said to his servants, Behold, you see the man is showing madness. Why do you bring him to me?

15 Am I in need of madmen that you have brought this one in to show madness beside me? Shall this one come into my house?

Chapter 22

1 And David left there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. And his brothers heard, and all his father's house, and they went down to him there.

2 And every man in distress, and every man who had a creditor, and every man bitter of soul, gathered themselves to him. And he became commander over them. And about four hundred men were with him.

3 And David went from there to Mizpeh of Moab. And he said to the king of Moab, Please let my father and my mother come and be with you, until I know what Elohim will do to me.

4 And he settled them before the king of Moab; and they lived with him all the days David was in the stronghold.

5 And Gad the prophet said to David, You shall not remain in the stronghold. Go, and you come into the land of Judah. And David left and came into the forest of Hareth.

6 And Saul heard that David had been discovered, and the men with him. And Saul was staying in Gibeah under the tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand. And all his servants were standing by him.

7 And Saul said to his servants who were standing by him, Now hear, Benjamites. Will the son of Jesse also give to any of you fields and vineyards? Will he make each of you commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds,

8 that all of you have conspired against me, and no one was revealing in my ear when my son cut a covenant with the son of Jesse? And not one of you is sorry for me, even to reveal in my ear that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day.

9 And Doeg the Edomite, even he was set over Saul's servants, answered and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

10 And he asked for him of YAHWEH, and gave provisions to him, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 And the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests in Nob. And they came, all of them, to the king.

12 And Saul said, Now hear, son of Ahitub. And he said, I am here, my master.

13 And Saul said to him, Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse by your giving bread and a sword to him, and to ask of Elohim for him, to rise up against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

14 And Ahimelech answered the king and said, And who among all your servants is as David the faithful, and son-in-law of the king; who does your bidding, and is honorable in all your house?

15 Have I today begun to ask of Elohim for him? Far be it from me! Do not let the king lay anything against his servant, against any of my father's house, for your servant has known nothing of this, more or less.

16 And the king said, surely you shall die, Ahimelech, you and your father's house.

17 And the king said to the runners that stood by him, Turn and kill the priests of YAHWEH, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he was fleeing, and did not reveal it in my ear. But the king's servants were not willing to put forth their hand to fall on the priests of YAHWEH.

18 And the king said to Doeg, You turn and fall on the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned and fell on the priests and killed eighty five men bearing a linen ephod in that day.

19 And he struck Nob, the city of the priests with the mouth of the sword, from man even to woman, from child even to suckling, and ox, and donkey, and sheep, with the mouth of the sword.

20 And one son escaped of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. And his name was Abiathar, and he fled after David.

21 And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of YAHWEH.

22 And David said to Abiathar, I knew on that day when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he certainly would tell Saul. I am turned to grief for every life of the house of your father.

23 Stay with me. Do not fear. For he who seeks my life seeks your life. For with me you will be under protection.

Chapter 23

1 And they spoke to David, saying, Behold, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and they are plundering the threshing floors.

2 And David asked of YAHWEH, saying, Shall I go? And shall I strike against these Philistines? And YAHWEH said to David, Go, and you shall strike the Philistines and save Keilah.

3 And David's men said to him, Behold, we are afraid here in Judah; and how shall we go to Keilah to the armies of the Philistines?

4 And David once again inquired of YAHWEH. And YAHWEH answered him and said, Rise up, go down to Keilah, for I have given the Philistines into your hand.

5 And David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and led away their livestock, and killed among them with a great blow. And David saved those living in Keilah.

6 And it happened, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David, near Keilah, an ephod came down in his hand.

7 And it was told to Saul that David had come to Keilah. And Saul said, Elohim has estranged him into my hand. For he is shut in, to enter into a city of gates and a bar.

8 And Saul heard and called all the people to battle, to go down to Keilah, to lay siege to David and to his men.

9 But David knew that Saul was devising evil against him. And he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring the ephod near.

10 And David said, O YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel, Your servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah to destroy the city because of me.

11 Will the masters of Keilah shut me up into his hand? Will Saul come down as Your servant has heard? I pray You, YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel, tell your servant. And YAHWEH said, He will come down.

12 And David said, Will the masters of Keilah shut me and my men up into Saul's hand? And YAHWEH said, They will shut you up.

13 And David and his men, about six hundred men, rose up and left Keilah, and went wherever they could go. And it was told to Saul that David had escaped from Keilah. And he ceased to go out.

14 And David stayed in the wilderness, in the strongholds. And he stayed in the hill, in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him all his days. And Elohim did not give him into his hand.

15 And David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life; and David was in the wilderness of Ziph, in the forest.

16 And Jonathan the son of Saul rose up and went out to David, to the forest. And he made his hand strong in Elohim,

17 and said to him, Do not fear, for the hand of my father Saul shall not find you; and you shall reign over Israel; and I shall be second to you. And my father Saul knows it is so.

18 And they cut a covenant, both of them, before YAHWEH. And David stayed in the forest, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 And the men of Ziph went to Saul, to Gibeah, saying, Is not David hiding himself with us in strongholds, in the forest, in the hill of Hachilah, which is south of the wilderness?

20 And now, come down according to all the desires of your soul, O king. Come down, and our duty is to deliver him up into the king's hand.

21 And Saul said, You are blessed of YAHWEH, for you have had pity on me.

22 Please go, make yet more sure, and know, and see his place where his foot is; who has seen him there, for one has said to me, He is being very crafty.

23 And see and know of all the hiding places where he hides himself. And you shall return to me ready, and I shall go with you, and it shall be, if he is in the land, that I shall search him out through all the thousands of Judah.

24 And they rose up and went to Ziph before Saul. But David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah on the south of the desert.

25 And Saul and his men went to search. And they told David. And he went down to the rock, and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. And Saul heard, and pursued David in the wilderness of Maon.

26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain. And David was hurrying to go away from the face of Saul. And Saul and his men were encircling David and his men, to catch them.

27 And a messenger came to Saul, saying, Hurry, and come, for the Philistines have made a raid on the land.

28 And Saul turned back from pursuing David, and went to meet the Philistines. On account of this they have called that place, The Rock of the Division.

29 And David went up from there and stayed in the strongholds at En-Gedi.

Chapter 24

1 And it happened, when Saul had returned from after the Philistines, they told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-Gedi.

2 And Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men on the front of the rocks of the wild goats.

3 And on the way he came in to the folds of the flock. And there was a cave. And Saul went in to cover his feet.[1] And David and his men were staying in the recesses of the cave.

4 And David's men said to him, Behold, the day of which YAHWEH said to you, Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it is good in your eyes. But David rose up and quietly cut off the tassel of Saul's robe.

5 And it happened afterward, the heart of David struck him, because he had cut off Saul's tassel.

6 And he said to his men, Far be it from me, by YAHWEH. I shall not do this thing to my master, to the anointed of YAHWEH, to put out my hand against him. For he is the anointed of YAHWEH.

7 And David held back his men by words, and did not allow them to rise up against Saul. And Saul rose up from the cave and went in the way.

8 And David rose up afterward and went out from the cave and called after Saul, saying, My master the king! And Saul looked behind him. And David was bowing face to the earth and prostrated himself.

9 And David said to Saul, Why do you listen to the words of man, saying, Behold, David seeks to do you evil?

10 See, this day your eyes have seen how YAHWEH has delivered you today into my hand in the cave. And one said to kill you, but I had pity on you. And I said, I shall not put out my hand against my master, for he is the anointed of YAHWEH.

11 And my father, behold! Yes, see the tassel of your robe in my hand. For in that I cut off the tassel of your robe, and did not kill you, know and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against you. Yet you are lying in wait for my soul, to take it.

12 YAHWEH shall judge between you and me, and YAHWEH shall avenge me of you. But my hand shall not be on you.

13 As the proverb of the ancients says, Wickedness proceeds from the wicked. But my hand shall not be on you.

14 After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom are you pursuing? After a dead dog? After a flea?

15 Yea, YAHWEH shall be judge, and shall judge between you and me. Yea, He shall see and contend for my cause, and shall deliver me out of your hand.[2]

16 And it happened, when David finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, Is this your voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice and wept.

17 And he said to David, You are more righteous than I. For you have done good to me, and I have rewarded you with evil.

18 And you have today shown that you have dealt well with me, in that YAHWEH shut me up into your hand, and you did not kill me.

19 For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go on his way well? And YAHWEH will repay you good for that which you have done to me today.

20 And now, behold, I know that you shall certainly reign, and the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand.
21 And now, swear to me by YAHWEH that you shall not cut off my seed after me, nor shall you destroy my name from the house of my father.
22 And David swore to Saul. And Saul went to his house, and David and his men went up into the stronghold.

Chapter 25

1 And Samuel died, and all Israel was gathered, and mourned for him. And they buried him in his house, in Ramah. And David rose up and went down to the wilderness of Paran.
2 And a certain man was in Maon, and his work was in Carmel. And the man was very great, and there were three thousand sheep and a thousand goats to him. And he was shearing his flock in Carmel.
3 And the man's name was Nabal, and his wife's name, Abigail. And the woman was of good understanding, and beautiful of form. And the man was cruel and evil in his dealings. And He was a Calebite.
4 And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his flock.
5 And David sent ten young men, and David said to the young men, Go up to Carmel, and you shall come to Nabal and ask him of his welfare in my name.
6 And say this, Long life and peace to you! And peace to your house, and peace to all that you have.
7 And now, I have heard that you have shearers. And your shepherds have been with us; we have not shamed them, nor was anything missing to them all the days they were in Carmel.
8 Ask your young men, and they will tell you. And may the young men find favor in your eyes, for we have come at a good day. Please give that which your hand finds to your servants, and to your son, to David.
9 And the young men of David came and spoke to Nabal according to all these words, in the name of David, and rested.
10 And Nabal answered David's servants and said, Who is David, and who the son of Jesse? The servants have multiplied today who have broken away from his master.
11 And shall I take my bread, and my water, and my meat which I have killed for my shearers, and give to men whom I have not known, from where they are?
12 And the young men of David turned to their way, and returned and came and told him according to all these words.
13 And David said to his men, Each man gird on his sword. And David also girded on his sword. And about four hundred men went up after David and two hundred stayed by the baggage.
14 And one young man of the youths told Abigail the wife of Nabal, saying, Behold, David has sent messengers out of the wilderness to bless our master, and he screamed at them.
15 And the men were good to us, and have not shamed us, and we have not missed anything all the days we have gone up and down with them when we were in the field.
16 They have been a wall to us both by day and by night, all the days we have been with them, feeding the flock.
17 And now, know and consider what you should do; for evil has been determined against our master, and on all his house. And he is a son of worthlessness, no one can speak to

him.
18 And Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves, and two skins of wine, and five prepared sheep, and five measures of roasted grain, and a hundred bunches of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs. And she set them on the donkeys.
19 And she said to her young men, Pass on before me. Behold, I am coming after you. But she did not tell her husband Nabal.
20 And it happened she was riding on the donkey and coming down by the cover of the mountain. And, behold, David and his men were coming down to meet her; and she met
them.
21 And David had said, Surely, in vain I have guarded all that belongs to this fellow in the wilderness, so that not anything was missed of all that was his. And he has returned to me evil for good.
22 So may Elohim do to the enemies of David, and may He do more so, if I leave any of all that is to him to the light of the morning, of one who urinates against a wall.
23 And Abigail saw David, and she hurried, and she dismounted from the donkey and fell on her face before David and bowed to the earth.
24 And she fell at his feet and said,
On me, even me, my master, be the iniquity. And please, let your handmaid speak in your ears; and hear the words of your handmaid.
25 Please, do not let my master set his heart toward this man of worthlessness, on Nabal. For as his name is, so is he. Nabal is his name, and foolishness is with him. And I, your handmaid, did not see the young men of my master whom you sent.
26 And now, my master, as YAHWEH lives, and as your soul lives, in that YAHWEH has withheld you from coming in with blood, and delivering your hand for you; even now let your enemies be as Nabal, even those seeking evil to my master.
27 And now this blessing which your handmaid has brought to my master, even let it be given to the young men who go after my master.
28 Please, bear with the sin of your handmaid, for YAHWEH shall certainly make a sure house for my master. For my master has fought the battles of YAHWEH, and evil has not been found in you all your days.
29 And if a man rises up to pursue you and to seek your soul, the soul of my master will be bound up in the bundle of life with YAHWEH your Elohim; and the souls of your enemies,
He shall sling them from the hollow of the sling.
30 And it shall be, when YAHWEH does to my master according to all the good which He has spoken concerning you, and has commanded you to be ruler over Israel, 31 that this shall not be for a cause of staggering, or of stumbling of heart to my master, either to shed blood for nothing, or that my master saved himself. And may YAHWEH do good to my master, and you remember your handmaid.
32 And David said to Abigail, Blessed is YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel, who has sent you to meet me
today.
33 And blessed is your discernment.
And blessed are you in that you have kept me from coming in with blood this day, and from delivering myself with my own hand.
34 And, indeed, as YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel lives, who has kept me back from doing evil to you, for unless you had hurried and had come to meet me, surely there would not have been left to Nabal one who urinates against the wall till the light of morning.

35 And David received from her hand what she had brought to him.
And he said to her, Go in peace to your house. See, I have heard your voice, and have accepted your face.
36 And Abigail came to Nabal. And, behold, he was at a feast in his house, like the feast of the king. And Nabal's heart felt good within him, and he was drunk to excess. And she did not tell him a word, more or less, until the light of the morning.
37 And it happened in the morning,
when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things. And his heart died within him, and he became like a stone.
38 And it happened about ten days later, YAHWEH struck Nabal and he died.
39 And David heard that Nabal had died, and said, Blessed be YAHWEH who has contended for the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal; and His servant has been kept back from evil. And YAHWEH has caused the evil doing of Nabal to return on his head. And David sent and spoke with Abigail, to take her to himself for a wife.
40 And David's servants came to Abigail at Carmel, and spoke to her, saying, David has sent us to you to take you to him for a wife.
41 And she rose up and bowed her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let your handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my master.
42 And Abigail hurried and arose and rode on a donkey, and five of her young women following her. And she went after David's messengers. And she became a wife to him.
43 And David had taken Ahinoam from Jezreel. And they became, even both of them, wives to him.
44 And Saul gave his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

Chapter 26

1 And the men of Ziph came to Saul, to Gibeah, saying, Is not David hiding himself in the hill of Hachilah, on the face of the desert?
2 And Saul rose up and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, and three thousand men were with him, chosen ones of Israel, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.
3 And Saul camped in the hill of Hachilah which is on the face of the desert, by the highway. And David was staying in the wilderness. And he saw that Saul had come after him into the wilderness.
4 And David sent spies, and he knew that Saul had certainly come to Nachon.
5 And David rose up and came to the place where Saul camped. And David saw the place where Saul lay down.
And Abner the son of Ner, his army commander, and Saul were lying within the barricade. And the people were camping all around him.
6 And David answered and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, saying, Who shall go down with me to Saul, to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with you.
7 And David and Abishai came to the people by night. And, behold, Saul was lying down, sleeping within the barricade. And his spear was stuck into the earth at his head-place. And Abner and all the people were lying all around him.
8 And Abishai said to David, Elohim has shut up your enemy into your hand today. And now please let me strike him with a spear, even to the earth one time, and I will not repeat it to him.

9 And David said to Abishai, Do not destroy him. For who shall put forth his hand against the anointed of YAHWEH and be guiltless?
10 And David said, As YAHWEH lives, except YAHWEH strike him, or his day shall come and he dies, or he goes down and is devoured in battle,
11 far be it from me, by YAHWEH, from putting forth my hand against the anointed of YAHWEH. And now, please take the spear at his head-place, and the jar of water, and we will go.
12 And David took the spear and the jar of water at the head-place of Saul, and they went away. And no one was seeing; and no one knew; and no one was awake; for all of them were sleeping because a deep sleep from YAHWEH had fallen on them.
13 And David crossed over to the other side and stood on the top of the hill far away, the distance between them being great.
14 And David called to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Do you not answer, Abner? And Abner replied and said, Who are you, the one calling to the king?
15 And David said to Abner, Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? But why have you not watched over your master the king? For one of the people came in to destroy your master the king.
16 This thing which you have done is not good. As YAHWEH lives, you also are sons of death, in that you have not watched over your master, over the anointed of YAHWEH. And now, see where the king's spear is, and the jar of water which was at his head-place?
17 And Saul recognized the voice of David, and said, Is this your voice, my son David? And David said, My voice, my master, O king!
18 And he said, Why is this, that my master is pursuing his servant? For what have I done, and what in my hand is evil?
19 And now, please let my master the king hear the words of his servant. If YAHWEH has moved you against me, let Him accept an offering. And if the sons of men, they are cursed before YAHWEH; for they have driven me out today from joining myself with the inheritance of YAHWEH, saying, Go, serve other gods.
20 And now, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of YAHWEH, for the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as one hunts the partridge in the mountains.
21 And Saul said, I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I shall not do evil to you any more, because my life has been precious in your eyes today. Behold, I have acted foolishly, and I have erred exceedingly much.
22 And David answered and said, Behold, the king's spear! And let one of the young men cross over and receive it.
23 And YAHWEH will return to each his righteousness and his faithfulness, in that YAHWEH has delivered you into my hand, and I have not been willing to put forth my hand against the anointed of YAHWEH.
24 And behold, as your life has been highly esteemed in my eyes today, so let my soul be highly esteemed in the eyes of YAHWEH. And may He deliver me out of all distress.
25 And Saul said to David, Blessed be you, my son David. Both you shall surely do, also you shall surely be able. And David went on his way. And Saul returned to his place.

Chapter 27

1 And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul. Nothing is better for me than that escaping I escape to the land of the Philistines. And Saul will despair of me, to still seek me in all the border of Israel. And I shall escape out of his hand.
2 And David rose up and crossed over, he and six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maoch, the king of Gath.
3 And David lived with Achish in Gath, he and his men, each one and his household: David and his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail the former wife of Nabal of Carmel.
4 And it was told to Saul that David had fled to Gath, and he did not seek for him any more.
5 And David said to Achish, Please, if I have found grace in your eyes, they shall give to me a place in one of the cities of the field, and I shall live there. Yea, why should your servant live in the royal city with you?
6 And Achish gave Ziklag to him in that day. Therefore, Ziklag has been counted to the kings of Judah until this day.
7 And the number of days which David lived in the field of the Philistines was a year and four months.
8 And David and his men went up and attacked the Geshurites, and the Gezrites, and the Amalekites. For they were the ones living in the land from the past days, as you come into Shur and into the land of Egypt.
9 And David struck the land, and did not keep alive man, or woman, and took sheep, and oxen, and donkeys, and camels, and clothing, and turned back and came to Achish.
10 And Achish said, Did you not make raids today? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the Jerahmeelites, and to the south of the Kenites.
11 David did not keep alive man or woman to bring news to Gath, saying, Lest they speak against us, saying, So David has done; And so has been his custom all the days that he has lived in the fields of the Philistines.
12 And Achish trusted David, saying, Surely he has made himself to be hated among his people in Israel, and has become my servant forever.

Chapter 28

1 And in those days it happened that the Philistines gathered their armies for warfare, to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David, Going you shall go out with me in the army, you and our men.
2 And David said to Achish, By this you shall know that which your servant will do. And Achish said to David, Then I appoint you keeper of my head all the days.
3 And Samuel was dead. And all Israel had mourned for him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his city. And Saul had taken away the necromancers and the fortune tellers out of the land.
4 And the Philistines had gathered and had come in and camped in Shunem. And Saul gathered all Israel, and they camped in Gilboa.
5 And Saul saw the camp of the Philistines, and his heart trembled and he greatly feared.
6 And Saul asked of YAHWEH, but YAHWEH did not answer him, either by dreams, or by Urim, or by prophets.
7 And Saul said to his servants, Seek out for me a woman, with the ability to call up the dead, and I will go to her and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, a woman, a medium, is in Endor.

8 And Saul disguised himself and put on other clothes. And he and two of the men with him went; and they came to the woman by night. And he said, I beg you, divine for me by necromancy, and bring up to me him whom I say to you.

9 And the woman said to him, Behold, you know that which Saul has done, that he has cut off necromancers and the fortune tellers, out of the land. And why are you laying a snare for my life, to kill me?

10 And Saul swore to her by YAHWEH, saying, As YAHWEH lives, no evil shall happen to you because of this thing.

11 And the woman said, Whom shall I bring up to you? And he said, Bring up Samuel to me.

12 And the woman saw Samuel[1], and cried out with a loud voice. And the woman spoke to Saul, saying, Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!

13 And the king said to her, Do not be afraid. For what have you seen? And the woman said to Saul, I have seen an Elohim coming up out of the earth.

14 And he said to her, What is his appearance? And she said, An old man is coming up, and he is covered with a robe. And Saul perceived that he was Samuel. And he bowed his face to the earth, and prostrated himself.

15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why have you disturbed me, to bring me up. And Saul said, I am grievously distressed. And the Philistines are fighting against me, and Elohim has turned from me and has not answered me any more, either by the hand of the prophets, or by dreams. And I called for you to make known to me what I should do.

16 And Samuel said, And why do you ask me, since YAHWEH has departed from you and is your adversary?

17 And YAHWEH is doing for Himself as He spoke by my hand. And YAHWEH is tearing the kingdom out of your hand, and is giving it to your neighbor, to David.

18 Because you did not listen to the voice of YAHWEH, or execute the anger of His wrath on Amalek, on this account YAHWEH is doing this thing to you today.

19 Yea, YAHWEH is also giving Israel into the hand of the Philistines along with you. And tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. And YAHWEH will give the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

20 And Saul hurried and fell the full length of his stature to the earth, and greatly feared from the words of Samuel. And there was no power in him, for he had not eaten food all that day, and all the night.

21 And the woman came to Saul. And she saw that he was much terrified, and said to him, Behold, your servant has listened to your voice, and I put my life in my hand, and I obeyed your words which you spoke to me.

22 And now please, you listen to the voice of your servant, and I will set before you a bit of bread; and eat, and there will be strength in you when you go on your way.

23 And he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants forced him, and the woman also. And he listened to their voices and rose from the earth and sat on the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house. And she hurried and

---

[1] The witch apparently had seen a demon who was portraying himself as Samuel as scripture states Samuel never saw Saul again after he rebuked him (1 Sam 15:35).

slaughtered it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and baked unleavened cakes of it.
25 And she brought it near before Saul, and before his servants. And they ate, and rose up, and went on during that night.

Chapter 29

1 And the Philistines gathered all their armies to Aphek. And Israel was camped at a fountain which is in Jezreel.
2 And the Philistine rulers were passing on by hundreds and by thousands. And David and his men were passing on in the rear with Achish.
3 And the Philistine rulers said, What are these Hebrews? And Achish said to the Philistine rulers, Is this not David the servant of Saul the king of Israel who has been with me these days and years? And I have not found anything evil in him from the day he fell away until today.
4 And the Philistine rulers were angry against him. And the Philistine rulers said to him, Send the man back, and he shall return to his place where you have appointed him. And he shall not go down with us into battle, and shall not become an adversary to us in battle. And with what should this one give pleasure to his master, if not with the heads of these men?
5 Is this not David, of whom they answer in dances, saying, Saul has killed his thousands, and David his myriads?
6 And Achish called David and said to him, As YAHWEH lives, Surely you are upright and good in my eyes in your going out and in your coming in with me in the camp. For I have not found evil in you from the day of your coming in to me until today. But you are not good in the eyes of the rulers.
7 And now return, and go in peace, that you not do evil in the eyes of the rulers of the Philistines.
8 And David said to Achish, But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant from the day that I have been in your presence until today, that I may not go in and fight against the enemies of my master the king?
9 And Achish replied and said to David, I have known that you are good in my eyes, like a messenger of Elohim. But the rulers of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us into battle.
10 And now, you and the servants of your master who have come with you rise early in the morning. When you have light, then go.
11 And David rose up early, he and his men, to go in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

Chapter 30

1 And it happened, when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had raided to the Negev, even to Ziklag, and had struck Ziklag and burned it with fire.
2 And they captured the women in it, from the small even to the great; they did not kill anyone, but they led them away, and went on their way.
3 And David and his men came into the city. And, behold! It was burned with fire! And their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive.
4 And David and the people with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no power in them to weep.
5 And the two wives of David had been taken, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail the former wife of Nabal of Carmel.

6 And David was greatly distressed, for the people said to stone him. For the soul of the people was bitter, each for his sons and for his daughters. And David made himself strong in YAHWEH his Elohim.
7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, Please bring the ephod near to me. And Abiathar brought the ephod to David.
8 And David asked of YAHWEH, saying, Shall I pursue this troop? Shall I overtake it? And He said to him, Pursue, for you shall certainly overtake, and shall certainly recover.
9 So David went on, he and six hundred men who were with him. And they came to the torrent Besor. And those that were left stood.
10 And David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred men stood, who were too exhausted to pass over the torrent Besor.
11 And they found a man, an Egyptian, in the field, and took him to David, and gave him food, and he ate.
And they made him drink water.
12 And they gave to him a piece of fig-cake, and two bunches of raisins.
And he ate, and his spirit returned to him, for he had not eaten food nor drunk water three days and three nights.
13 And David said to him, Whose are you? And from where do you come?
And he said, I am an Egyptian youth, slave to an Amalekite man. And my master abandoned me, for I had been sick three days.
14 We raided the south of the Cherethites, and went against that belonging to Judah, and against the south of Caleb. And we burned Ziklag with fire.
15 And David said to him, Are you able to bring me down to this troop?
And he said, Swear to me by Elohim that you will neither put me to death, nor deliver me up into my master's hand, and I will bring you down to this troop.
16 And he brought him down. And, behold, they were spread out over the face of all the earth, eating and drinking and feasting, with all the great plunder which they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.
17 And David struck them from the twilight even to the evening of the next day. And not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled.
18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken; and David recovered his two wives.
19 And nothing was missing to them, from the small even to the great, and to sons and daughters, and from the plunder, even to all that they had taken for themselves; David brought back the whole of it.
20 And David took all the flock, and the herd. They drove on before those other cattle. And they said, This is David's prize.
21 And David came to the two hundred men who were too exhausted to go after David, and whom they caused to remain at the torrent Besor.
And they went out to meet David, and to meet the people with him. And David came up to the people, and asked them of their peace.
22 And every evil and worthless man of the men who had gone with David answered, and they said, Because they did not go with me, we will not give to them from the plunder which we have delivered, except to each man his wife and his sons. And let them take them and go.
23 And David said, You shall not do so, my brothers, with that which YAHWEH has given to us. And He has protected us, and has given the troop which came against us into our hand.

24 And who will listen to you in this thing? For as the portion of him who goes down to battle, so shall be his share who remains by the baggage. They shall share together.
25 And it was so, from that day and forward he commanded it for a statute and for an ordinance for Israel to this day.
26 And David came to Ziklag. And he sent of the plunder to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, Behold, a blessing for you of the plunder of the enemies of YAHWEH;
27 to those in Bethel, and to those in Ramoth of the Negeb, and to those in Jattir, 28 and to those in Aroer, and to those in Siphmoth, and to those in Eshtemoa, 29 and to those in Rachal, and to those in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those in the cities of the Kenites, 30 and to those in Hormah, and to those in Chorashan, and to those in Athach, 31 and to those in Hebron, and to all the places where David had gone up and down, he and his men.

Chapter 31

1 And the Philistines were fighting against Israel. And the men of Israel fled from the face of the Philistines, and they fell down wounded in Mount Gilboa.
2 And the Philistines followed Saul and his sons. And the Philistines struck Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.
3 And the battle went hard against Saul. And the archers, men with the bow, found him and he was sorely wounded by the archers.
4 And Saul said to his armor bearer, Draw your sword and thrust it through me, lest these uncircumcised ones come and thrust it through me and abuse me. But his armor bearer would not, for he was much afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell on it.
5 And his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, and he also fell on his sword and died with him.
6 And Saul and three of his sons, and his armor-bearer, and all his men died together on that day.
7 And the men of Israel who were beyond the valley, and who were beyond the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel had fled, and that Saul and his sons had died. And they abandoned the cities and fled. And the Philistines came in and lived in them.
8 And it happened on the next day, the Philistines came to strip the wounded. And they found Saul and his three sons fallen down on Mount Gilboa.
9 And they cut off his head, and stripped off his weapons, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around to proclaim the news in the house of their idols, and among the people.
10 And they put his weapons in the house of Ashtaroth, and they fastened his body on the wall of Beth-Shean.
11 And when they heard about it, the ones living in Jabesh-Gilead, that which the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 then all the mighty men rose up, and they went all the night; and they took the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, from the wall of Beth-Shean. And they came to Jabesh, and burned them there.
13 And they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh. And they fasted seven days.[1]

[1] Verses 11-13- The bodies were recovered by the men of Jabesh- gilead, who had not forgotten how Saul had once saved them, 1 Sam 11:1-11.

Book of 2 Samuel

Chapter 1

1 And it happened, after the death of Saul, David returned from striking the Amalekites. And David remained in Ziklag two days.

2 And it happened on the third day, behold, a man came in out of the camp from Saul. And his garments were torn, and earth on his head. And it happened as he came to David, he fell to the earth and prostrated himself.

3 And David said to him, From where do you come? And he said to him, I have escaped out of the camp of Israel.

4 And David said to him, How did the matter go? Please tell me. And he answered, The people fled from the battle and also a multitude of the people have fallen, and they died, and also Saul and his son Jonathan have died.

5 And David said to the youth who was telling him, How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?

6 And the youth who was telling him said, By chance I happened to be on Mount Gilboa. And behold, Saul was leaning on his spear. And, behold, the chariots and the masters of horses closely followed him!

7 And he turned behind him and he saw me and called to me. And I said, Behold me.

8 And he said to me, Who are you? And I said, I am an Amalekite.

9 And he said to me, Please stand over me and kill me, for agony has seized me; for all my life is still in me.

10 And I stood over him and killed him, for I knew that he could not live after his falling. And I took the crown on his head, and the bracelet on his arm, and I brought them to my master here.

11 And David took hold on his garments and tore them; and also all the men with him did so.

12 And they mourned and wept and fasted until the evening, for Saul, and for his son Jonathan, and for the people of YAHWEH, and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

13 And David said to the youth who told him, From where are you? And he said, I am the son of a foreign man, an Amalekite.

14 And David said to him, Why were you not afraid to put forth your hand to destroy the anointed of YAHWEH?

15 And David called to one of the young men, and said, Draw near and fall on him. And he struck him, and he died.

16 And David said to him, Your blood be on your own head, for your mouth has testified against you, saying, I caused to die the anointed of YAHWEH.

17 And David sang this death-dirge over Saul, and over his son Jonathan;

18 and he said to teach the sons of Judah The Song of the Bow. Behold, it is written in the Book of Jashar:

19 The beauty of Israel is slain on your high places. How are the mighty fallen!

20 Tell it not in Gath; do not make it known in the streets of Ashkelon, that the daughters of the Philistines not rejoice; that the daughters of the uncircumcised not exult.

21 Mountains of Gilboa, let not dew or rain be on you, nor fields of offerings; for there the shield of the mighty was vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, not being anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn the back; and the sword of Saul did not return empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan! They were beloved and delightful in their lives; and in their death they were not parted. They were swifter than eagles; they were stronger than lions.

24 Daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you with scarlet delights, who brought ornaments of gold on your clothing.

25 How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan is slain on your high places!

26 I am distressed over you, my brother Jonathan. You were very delightful to me; your love was wonderful to me, more than the love of women.

27 How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

Chapter 2

1 And it happened after this, David asked of YAHWEH, saying, Shall I go up to one of the cities of Judah? And YAHWEH said to him, Go up. And David said, Where shall I go up? And He said, To Hebron.

2 And David went up there, and also his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail the former wife of Nabal of Carmel.

3 And David brought up his men of those who were with him, each man and his household. And they lived in the cities of Hebron.

4 And the men of Judah came and anointed David king over the house of Judah there. And they told David, saying, It was the men of Jabesh-Gilead who buried Saul.

5 And David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-Gilead, and said to them, Blessed are you of YAHWEH, in that you have done this kindness with your master, with Saul, that you have buried him.

6 And now, may YAHWEH do with you in kindness and truth. And I also will do good to you because you have done this thing.

7 And now, let your hands be made strong, and be valiant; for your master Saul is dead. And also, the house of Judah has anointed me as king over them.

8 And Abner the son of Ner, the commander of the Saul's army, took Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and caused him to cross over to Mahanaim.

9 And he caused him to reign over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10 Ishbosheth the son of Saul was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed after David.

11 And it happened, the number of the days that David was king in Hebron, over the house of Judah, was seven years and six months.

12 And Abner the son of Ner and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and David's servants went out. And they met by the pool of Gibeon, and sat down, these by the pool on this side, and those by the pool on that side.

14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men rise up now and make sport before us. And Joab said, Let them rise.

15 And they rose up and went over by number, twelve for Benjamin, and for Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And each one seize the head of his companion, and thrust his sword into the side of his companion. And they fell together. And one called that place The Field of smooth Rocks, which is in Gibeon.

17 And the battle was very hard on that day, and the men of Israel and

Abner were stricken before David's servants.

18 And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel. And Asahel was swift with his feet, like one of the gazelles in the field.

19 And Asahel ran after Abner, and did not turn to go to the right or to the left from following Abner.

20 And Abner looked behind him, and said, Are you Asahel? And he said, I am.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn aside to your right, or to your left, and seize one of the young men for yourself, and take his spoil for yourself. And Asahel was not willing to turn aside from following him.

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the earth? And how shall I lift up my face to your brother Joab?

23 And he refused to turn aside. And Abner struck him in the belly with the butt of the spear. And the spear came out from behind him; and he fell there, and died in his place. And it happened that all who came to the place, there where Asahel fell and died, they stood still.

24 And Joab and Abishai ran after Abner, and the sun was going. And they came to the hill of Ammah which is before Giah, by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 And the sons of Benjamin gathered themselves after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of a certain hill.

26 And Abner called to Joab, and said, Does the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the end? And until when will you say to the people to turn back from after their brothers?

27 And Joab said, As Elohim lives, for if you had not spoken, surely then in the morning the people would have gone up, each one from following his brother.

28 And Joab blew the ram's horn. And all the people stood still, and did not pursue Israel any more; nor did they fight any more.

29 And Abner and his men went through the Arabah all that night, and crossed the Jordan, and went all the forenoon, and came to Mahanaim.

30 And Joab returned from pursuing Abner. And he gathered all the people. And there were lacking nineteen men of David's servants, and Asahel.

31 And David's servants had struck three hundred and sixty men of Benjamin, even among the men of Abner these died.

32 And they lifted up Asahel and buried him in the burying place of his father, which is in Bethlehem. And they went all night, Joab and his men; and it was light to them coming into Hebron.

Chapter 3

1 And there was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David. And David was going on and was strong, but the house of Saul was going on and was weak.

2 And sons were born to David in Hebron. And his first-born was Amnon, of Ahinoam of Jezreel.

3 And his second was Chileab, of Abigail the former wife of Nabal of Carmel. And the third was Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai the king of Geshur.

4 And the fourth was Adonijah the son of Haggith. And the fifth was Shephatiah the son of Abital.

5 And the sixth was Ithream, of Eglah the wife of David. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 And it happened while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner was making himself strong for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, and her name was Rizpah the daughter of Aiah. And Ishbosheth said to Abner, Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?

8 And Abner was exceedingly angry over the words of Ishbosheth. And he said, Am I a dog's head that is to Judah, that I deal with kindness with the house of your father Saul in regards to Judah today, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not caused you to be found in the hand of David, and you charge a sin against me with this woman today?

9 May Elohim do to Abner, and more so, if I do not do to David as YAHWEH has sworn,

10 to cause the kingdom to pass over from the house of Saul, and to establish the throne of David over Israel and over Judah from Dan even to Beer-Sheba.

11 And he was not able to return a word to Abner any more, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to David for himself, saying, Whose is the land? He said, Cut your covenant with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with you, to bring all Israel around to you.

13 And he said, Good, I will cut a covenant with you, but one thing I ask of you, saying, You shall not see my face except you first bring Michal the daughter of Saul when you come to see my face.

14 And David sent messengers to Ishbosheth the son of Saul, saying, Give up my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself with a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.

15 And Ishbosheth sent and took her from the man, from Phaltiel the son of Laish.

16 And her husband went with her, going on and weeping behind her to Bahurim. And Abner said to him, Go, return. And he returned.

17 And the word of Abner was with the elders of Israel, saying, Before now you have been seeking David for king over you.

18 And now do it. For YAHWEH has spoken of David, saying, By the hand of My servant David He will save My people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin. And Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that was good in the eyes of Israel, and in the eyes of all the house of Benjamin.

20 And Abner came to David, to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made a feast for Abner and for the men with him.

21 And Abner said to David, let me rise up and go, and gather all Israel to my master the king. And they shall cut a covenant with you. And you shall reign over all that your soul desires. And David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

22 And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop. And they brought much plunder with them. And Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away; and he had gone in peace.

23 And Joab and all the army with him had come. And they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner has come to the king. And he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace.

24 And Joab came to the king, and said, What have you done? Behold, Abner has come to you; why is this,

that you have sent him away, and going he is gone?
25 You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing.
26 And Joab left David, and sent messengers after Abner. And they brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David did not know it.
27 And Abner returned to Hebron.
And Joab turned him aside into the middle of the gate, to speak with him privately. And he struck him in the belly there, and he died, because of the blood of his brother Asahel.
28 And afterward David heard, and said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before YAHWEH forever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner.
29 May it whirl about the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that has an issue, or that is a leper, or that leans on a staff, or who falls by the sword, or that lacks bread!
30 And Joab and his brother Abishai killed Abner because he had killed their brother Asahel in Gibeon, in battle.
31 And David said to Joab, and to all the people with him, Tear your garments and gird on sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And King David was following after the bier.
32 And they buried Abner in Hebron. And the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner;
and all the people wept.
33 And the king lamented for Abner, and said, Should Abner die as it were like a fool?
34 Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put into fetters. As one falls before sons of evil, you have fallen!
And all the people wept again over
him.
35 And all the people came to cause
David to eat food while it was yet day.
But David swore, saying, So may Elohim do to me, and still more, if I taste bread or anything before the sun goes in.[1] 36 And all the people took notice, and it was good in their eyes. As to all the king did, it was good in the eyes of all the people.
37 And all the people, even all Israel, knew in that day that it was not from the king to kill Abner the son of Ner.
38 And the king said to his servants,
Do you not know that a commander, even a great one has fallen this day in Israel?
39 And I am weak today, though anointed king. And these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too hard for me.
May YAHWEH reward the doer of the evil according to his evil!

Chapter 4

1 And the son of Saul heard that Abner was dead in Hebron. And his hands dropped; and all those in Israel were terrified.
2 And Saul's son had two men, troop commanders, one's name being Baanah, and the other's name Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the sons of Benjamin (for Beeroth also is counted to Benjamin.
3 And the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and are aliens there to this day.)
4 And Jonathan the son of Saul had a crippled son, he was a son of five years when the news of Saul and Jonathan came out of Jezreel; and his nurse lifted him up and fled; and it happened as she hurried to flee, that he fell and became crippled; and his name was Mephibosheth.
5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went

[1] The new day began at sunset, Lev 23:32.

and came at the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth. And he was lying on his bed at noon.

6 And they came to the middle of the house, bringing wheat. And they struck him in the belly. And Rechab and his brother Baanah escaped.

7 And they entered the house, and he was lying on his bed in his bedroom; and they struck him and killed him, and took off his head. And they took his head and went the way of the Arabah all the night.

8 And they brought Ishbosheth's head to David in Hebron, and said to the king, Behold, the head of Ishbosheth the son of your enemy Saul, who sought your life. And may YAHWEH give to my lord the king vengeance this day, on Saul and on his seed.

9 And David answered Rechab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, As YAHWEH lives, who has redeemed my life out of all distress,

10 when one spoke to me, saying, Behold Saul is dead, and he was as a bearer of good news in his own eyes; even I seized and killed him in Ziklag. I gave that to him as a reward.

11 And when wicked men have slain a righteous man in his own house on his bed, should I not even now seek his blood from your hand, and glean you from the earth?

12 And David commanded his young men. And they killed them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hung them by the pool in Hebron. And they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the burying place of Abner in Hebron.

Chapter 5

1 And all the tribes of Israel came to David, to Hebron, and spoke, saying, Behold, we are your bone and we are your flesh.

2 Both yesterday and the day before, when Saul was king over us, you were he who led out and brought in Israel. And YAHWEH said to you, You shall shepherd My people Israel, and you shall be for a leader over Israel.

3 And all the elders of Israel came to the king, to Hebron. And King David cut a covenant with them in Hebron before YAHWEH. And they anointed David as king over Israel.

4 And David was a son of thirty years old when he became king; he reigned forty years.[1]

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem, to the Jebusites, those dwelling in the land. And one spoke to David, saying, You shall not come in here except you will turn away the blind and the lame, thinking, David cannot come in here.[2] (1 Chron 11:4-9)

7 And David captured the stronghold of Zion. It is the city of David.[3]

8 And David said on that day, Anyone who strikes the Jebusite, let him go by the water shaft, and let him take the lame and the blind, the hated of the soul of David. On this account they say, The blind and the lame shall not enter into the house.

9 And David lived in the stronghold,

1 David was 30 yrs old when he began to reign, exactly the same age Yahshua was when He began His ministry, Luk 3:23.

2 Because of the natural fortress of Mount Zion, the Jebusites mocked that even the blind and lame could defend against David, not knowing he would come through the water shaft.

3 The Temple Mount where the sanctuary of YHWH was built is Mount Zion, which is also the city of David (2 Chron 5:2).

and called it the city of David. And David built all around from the Millo and inward.

10 And David went on and became great. And YAHWEH the Elohim of Hosts was with him.

11 And Hiram the king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons; and they built a house for David.

12 And David knew that YAHWEH had established him for king over Israel, and that He had lifted up his kingdom because of His people Israel.

13 And David again took concubines and wives out of Jerusalem after he came from Hebron. And again sons and daughters were born to David.

14 These are the names of those born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon,

15 and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

16 and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphalet.

17 And the Philistines heard that they had anointed David for king over Israel. And all the Philistines came up to seek David. And David heard and went down to the stronghold.

18 And the Philistines came and were spread out in the Valley of the Giants.

19 And David asked of YAHWEH, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? Will You give them into my hand? And YAHWEH said to David, Go up, for I will certainly give the Philistines into your hand.

20 And David came to Baal Perazim. And David struck them there, and said, YAHWEH has broken forth on my enemies before me as the breaking forth of waters. On account of this he called the name of that place The Breaches of Baal.[1] 21 And they abandoned their idols there; and David and his men took them away.

22 And the Philistines again came up and were spread out in the Valley of the Giants.

23 And David asked of YAHWEH, and He said, You shall not go up. Turn around to their rear, and come to them in front of the weeping trees.

24 And it shall be, when you hear the sound of the marching in the tops of the weeping trees, then you shall strike. For then YAHWEH shall go out before you to strike the army of the Philistines.

25 And David did so, as YAHWEH commanded him. And he struck the Philistines from Geba until you come to Gezer.

Chapter 6

1 And David again gathered every chosen one in Israel, thirty thousand.

2 And David rose up and went, and all the people with him, from Baal-Judah, to bring up the ark of the Elohim from there which is called by the Name, the Name of YAHWEH of Hosts, who dwells above the cherubs over it.

3 And they made to ride the ark of the Elohim on a new cart, and took it from the house of Abinadab, which is in the hill. And Uzzah and Ahio the sons of Abinadab were leading the new cart.

4 And they took it from the house of Abinadab, which is in the hill, with the ark of the Elohim. And Ahio was going before the ark.

5 And David and all the house of Israel were dancing before YAHWEH with all instruments of fir wood, with lyres and with harps, and with tambourines, and with cornets, and with cymbals.

6 And when they came to the

[1] Baal perazim in Hebrew.

threshing floor of Nachon, and Uzzah reached out to the ark of the Elohim, and took hold of it, for the oxen nearly upset it.

7 Then the anger of YAHWEH burned against Uzzah. And the Elohim struck him there for the fault. And he died there by the ark of the Elohim.

8 And it angered David because YAHWEH broke out a break against Uzzah. And one calls that place The Breaking of Uzzah to this day.

9 And David feared YAHWEH on that day, and said, How shall the ark of YAHWEH come to me?

10 And David was not willing to bring the ark of YAHWEH to himself, to the city of David. And David turned it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

11 And the ark of YAHWEH remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite three months. And YAHWEH blessed Obed-Edom and all his house.

12 And it was told to King David, saying, YAHWEH has blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all that is his, because of the ark of the Elohim. And David went and brought up the ark of the Elohim from the house of Obed-Edom to the city of David with joy.

13 And it happened, when those bearing the ark of YAHWEH had gone six steps, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling.

14 And David was dancing with all his might before YAHWEH. And David was girded with a linen ephod.

15 And David and all the house of Israel were bringing up the ark of YAHWEH with shouting, and with the sound of a ram's horn.

16 And it happened, when the ark of YAHWEH had come to the city of David, and Michal the daughter of Saul looked through the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before YAHWEH, she despised him in her heart.

17 And they brought the ark of YAHWEH in, and set it up in its place, in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it. And David caused burnt offerings to be offered before YAHWEH, and peace offerings.

18 And David finished offering the burnt offerings, and the peace offerings, and blessed the people in the name of YAHWEH of Hosts.

19 And he shared out to all the people, to all the multitude of Israel, from man even to woman, to each one cake of bread and one date cake and one raisin cake. And all the people left, each one to his house.

20 And David returned to bless his house. And Michal the daughter of Saul went out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel today, who was uncovered today before the eyes of the slave-girls of his servants, as one of the vain ones shamelessly uncovers himself.

21 And David said to Michal, Before YAHWEH, who chose me over your father and over all your father's house, to command me to be leader over the people of YAHWEH, and over Israel, so I danced before YAHWEH.

22 And I will be yet lighter than this, and shall be lowly in my own eyes. But with the slave-girls of whom you spoke, with them I will be honored.

23 And there was no child to Michal the daughter of Saul until the day of her death.

Chapter 7

1 And it happened, when the king lived in his house, and YAHWEH had given him rest from all his enemies all around,

2 The king said to Nathan the prophet, See, now, I am living in a house of cedar, and the ark of the Elohim dwells within tent curtains.
3 And Nathan said to the king, All that is in your heart, go, do. For YAHWEH shall be with you.
4 And it happened in that night, the Word of YAHWEH was to Nathan,
saying,
5 Go, and you shall say to My servant, to David, So says YAHWEH, Will you build a house for Me, for My dwelling?
6 For I have not dwelt in a house even from the day of My bringing the sons of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day; but I have been moving about in a tent, even in a shepherds hut.
7 In all places in which I have gone with all Israel's sons, have I spoken a word with one of the tribes of Israel, those I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, Why have you not built for me a house of cedars?
8 And now, so you shall say to My servant, to David, So says YAHWEH of Hosts, I have taken you from the good pasture, from following the flock, to be ruler over My people, over Israel.
9 And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you and have made you a great name, like the name of the great men who are on the earth.
10 And I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place and not be made to tremble any more. Nor shall the sons of evil afflict them again, as at the first,
11 even from the day I commanded judges to be over My people Israel.
And I will cause you to rest from all your enemies. And YAHWEH declares to you that YAHWEH will make you a house.
12 When your days are fulfilled, and you lie with your fathers, then I shall raise up your seed after you, who shall come out from your loins, and I shall establish his kingdom. (Ps 89:4) 13 He shall build a house for My Name, and I shall establish the throne of his kingdom forever.[1] (Zech 6:12-13)
14 I shall be a father to him, and he shall be a son to Me. If He takes iniquity upon Himself, then I will chasten him with a rod of men, and with strokes of the sons of men. (Is 53:4-6, 10)
15 But My mercy shall not be taken from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you.
16 And your house shall be sure, and your kingdom before me forever. Your throne shall be established forever.
17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.
18 And King David came in and sat before YAHWEH, and said: Who am I, O Adonai YAHWEH, and what is my house, that you have brought me
here?
19 And this was yet but little in Your eyes, O Adonai YAHWEH. But You have spoken also of Your servant's house for a time afar off. And is this the Torah of the man[2], O Adonai
YAHWEH?
20 And what more can David say to You? And You know Your servant, O
Adonai YAHWEH.
21 Because of Your Word, and according to Your heart, You have done all this greatness to make Your servant know.

[1] This cannot be Solomon who lost out on the kingdom but can only be speaking about Yahshua, the Son of David and YHWH and also the Messiah.

22 For this reason, O YAHWEH Elohim, You are great; for there is none like You; and there is no Elohim except You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 And who is like Your people, like Israel, the one (echad) nation in the earth that Elohim went out to redeem to be a people for Themselves, and to make Themselves a name, and to do for You great and fearful things for Your land, before Your people which You redeemed to Yourself from Egypt, from nations and their Elohims?

24 Yea, You have established Your people Israel to Yourself, to You for a people forever. And You, O YAHWEH have become to them for Elohim.

25 And now, O YAHWEH Elohim, the Word which You have spoken concerning Your servant, and concerning his house, confirm it forever. And do as You have spoken.

26 And Your name shall be great forever, saying, YAHWEH of Hosts is Elohim over Israel, and the house of Your servant David is established before You.

27 For You, O YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel, You have uncovered the ear of Your servant, saying, I will build a house for you. On account of this Your servant has found his heart to pray to You this prayer.

28 And now, O Adonai YAHWEH, You are the Elohim, and Your Words are truth, and You speak this goodness to Your servant.

29 And now, let it please You to bless the house of Your servant, to be forever before You. For You, O Adonai YAHWEH, have spoken, and with Your blessing let the house of Your servant be blessed forever.

Chapter 8

1 And it happened afterward, David struck the Philistines, and humbled them. And David took the Bridle of the Metropolis out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he struck Moab, and measured them with a line; making them to lie down on the ground. And he measured two lines to cause them to died, and one full line to keep alive. And the Moabites were slaves to David, bearers of a gift.

3 And David struck Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to restore his power at the River.

4 And David captured from him seventeen hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen. And David hamstrung all of the chariot horses; he only left a hundred chariots of them.

5 And the Syrians of Damascus came to give help to Hadadezer the king of Zobah. And David struck twenty two thousand men of Syria.

6 And David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus. And the Syrians became servants to David, bearers of tribute. And YAHWEH saved David in all places in which he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold which were on Hadadezer's servants and bore them to Jerusalem.

8 And King David took very much copper from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer.

9 And Toi the king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer.

10 And Toi sent his son Joram to King David to ask of his peace, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him. For Hadadezer had been a man of wars against Toi. And in his hand were silver articles, and golden articles, and copper articles.

11 King David also dedicated them to YAHWEH, with the silver and the gold which he dedicated of all the nations which he subdued:

12 from Syria, and from Moab, and from the sons of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek, and from the plunder of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, the king of Zobah.

13 And David made a name for himself when he returned, after he had struck the Syrians in the Valley of Salt, eighteen thousand men.

14 And he put garrisons in all Edom; and all Edom became servants to David. And YAHWEH saved David in all places in which he went.

15 And David reigned over all Israel, and David executed justice and righteousness to all his people.

16 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the historian;

17 and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests; and Seraiah was scribe;

18 and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were priests.[1]

Chapter 9

1 And David said, Is there yet any left to the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness because of Jonathan?

2 And the house of Saul had a servant, and his name was Ziba. And they called him to David. And the king said to him, Are you Ziba? And he said, Your servant!

3 And the king said, Is there not yet a man to the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of Elohim to him? And Ziba said to the king, There is yet a son to Jonathan, lame in both feet.

4 And the king said to him, Where is he? And Ziba said to the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel in Lo-Debar.

5 And King David sent and took him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, of Lo-Debar.

6 And Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan the son of Saul came to David and fell on his face, and bowed himself. And David said, Mephibosheth! And he said, Behold, your servant.

7 And David said to him, Do not be afraid, for I will certainly show kindness to you because of your father Jonathan. And I will give back to you all the land of your father Saul. And you shall eat bread at my table continually.

8 And he bowed and said, What is your servant, that you should look upon such a dead dog as I am?

9 And the king called to Ziba the servant of Saul, and said to him, All that belonged to Saul and to all his house, I have given to the son of your master.

10 And you shall till the land for him, you and your sons and your servants. And you shall bring in the fruits, so that your master's son may have bread to eat. But Mephibosheth your master's son shall eat bread continually at my table. And Ziba had fifteen sons, and twenty servants.

11 And Ziba said to the king, According to all that my master the king commands his servant, so your servant will do. And Mephibosheth was eating at my table like one of the king's sons.

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, and his name was Micha. And everyone living in Ziba's house were servants to Mephibosheth.

1 David's sons were priests or cohen, however they were not Levites, so this must be referring to the Melchizedek priesthood (Heb 7:14-17).

13 And Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, for he ate continually at the table of the king. And he was lame in both his feet.

Chapter 10

1 And it happened afterward, the king of the Ammonites died. And his son Hanun reigned in his place.
2 And David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me. And David sent to comfort him concerning his father by the hand of his servants. And David's servants came into the land of the sons of Ammon.
3 And the leaders of the sons of Ammon said to their master Hanun. Is David honoring your father in your eyes, because he has sent comforters to you? Has not David sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?
4 And Hanun took David's servants and shaved off half of their beards, and cut off their long robes in the center, to their buttocks; and he sent them away.
5 And they told David, and he sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Remain in Jericho until your beard grows; then you shall return.
6 And the sons of Ammon saw that they were odious to David. And the sons of Ammon sent and hired Syrians from Beth-Rehob, and Syrians from Zobah, twenty thousand footmen; and the king of Maacah with a thousand men; and the men of Tob with twelve thousand men.
7 And David heard, and he sent Joab and all the army, the mighty men.
8 And the sons of Ammon came out and set the battle in order at the opening of the gate. And the Syrians of Zobah, and Rehob, and the men of Tob, and Maacah were by themselves in the field.
9 And Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind. And he chose from all the chosen in Israel, and set them in order to meet the Syrians.
10 And the rest of the people he gave into the hand of his brother Abishai, and he set in order to meet the sons of Ammon.
11 And he said, If the Syrians are stronger than I, then you shall be for me; and if the sons of Ammon are stronger than you, then I will come to help you.
12 Be strong, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our Elohim. And may YAHWEH do that which seems good in His eyes.
13 And Joab and the people with him drew near to battle against the Syrians. And they fled before him.
14 And the sons of Ammon saw that the Syrians fled, and they fled before Abishai, and went into the city. And Joab returned from the sons of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.
15 And Syria saw that it was stricken before Israel. And they assembled.
16 And Hadarezer sent and brought out the Syrians which were beyond the River. And they came to Helam, and Shobach was the commander of the army of Hadarezer before them.
17 And it was told to David. And he gathered all Israel, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in order to meet David. And they fought with him.
18 And the Syrians fled before Israel. And David killed from Syria seven hundred in chariots, and forty thousand horsemen. And he struck Shobach the commander of the army, and he died there.
19 And all the kings, the servants of Hadarezer, saw that they had been stricken before Israel. And they made peace with Israel, and served them. And Syria feared to help the sons of Ammon any more.

Chapter 11

1 And it happened at the return of the year, at the time when the kings go out, David sent Joab and his servants with him, and all Israel. And they destroyed the sons of Ammon, and lay siege to Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.

2 And it happened at evening time, David rose up from his bed and walked up and down on the roof of the king's house. And he saw from the roof a woman bathing. And the woman was very good of form.

3 And David sent and asked about the woman. And one said, Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?

4 And David sent messengers and took her. And she came to him, and he lay with her. And she purified herself from uncleanness, and she returned to her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent, and told David. And she said, I am with child.

6 And David sent to Joab, Send Uriah the Hittite to me. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And Uriah came to him. And David asked the peace of Joab, and the peace of the people, and of the success of the war.

8 And David said to Uriah, Go down to your house and wash your feet. And Uriah went out of the king's house, and a gift from the king went out after him.

9 Uriah lay down at the entrance of the king's house, with all the servants of his lord. And he did not go down to his house.

10 And they told David, saying, Uriah did not go down to his house. And David said to Uriah, Have you not come from a journey? Why have you not gone down to your house?

11 And Uriah said to David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah dwell in booths. And my master Joab, and my master's servants are camping on the face of the field. And I, shall I go into my house to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to Uriah, Remain here today also, and tomorrow I will send you away. And Uriah remained in Jerusalem on that day, and on the next day.

13 And David called for him, and he ate and drank before him. And he made him drunk, and he went out in the evening to lie on his bed with the servants of his master. And he did not go down to his house.

14 And it happened in the morning David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.[1]

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Place Uriah in the front of the strongest battle, and withdraw from him, that he may be struck, and die.

16 And it happened, as Joab watched the city, that he sent Uriah to the place where he knew there would be mighty men.

17 And the men of the city went out and fought with Joab, and some of the people fell of David's servants. And Uriah the Hittite also died.

18 And Joab sent and told David all the matters of the war.

[1] A letter sent by the King had a small wax seal closing it, and if someone other than the recipient opened it, it would mean death. David also trusted Uriah, which is a sad irony to the story.

19 And he commanded the messenger, saying, As you finish all the matters of the war, speaking to the king,
20 then it shall be, if the king's fury rises, and he says to you, Why did you draw near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from off the wall?
21 Who killed Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did not a woman throw a piece of a riding millstone on him from the wall, and he died in Thebez? Why did you draw near to the wall? Then you shall say, Also your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead.
22 And the messenger went and came and told David all that which Joab had sent him to tell,
23 and the messenger said to David, Surely the men have been mighty against us, and came out to us into the field. And we were on them to the entrance of the gate.
24 And those shooting shot at your servants from off the wall, and some of the servants of the king are dead. And also your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead.
25 And David said to the messenger, You shall say to Joab, Do not let this thing be evil in your eyes. For the sword devours one as well as another. Make your battle stronger against the city, and overthrow it. And make him strong.
26 And Uriah's wife heard that her husband Uriah was dead. And she mourned for her husband.
27 And the mourning time passed by. And David sent and gathered her to his house; and she became his wife, and bore a son to him. And the thing which David had done was evil in the eyes of YAHWEH.

Chapter 12

1 And YAHWEH sent Nathan to David. And he came to him and said to him, There were two men in one city, the one rich, and the other poor.
2 The rich one had flocks and very many herds.
3 But the poor one had nothing except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished. And it grew up with him, and with his sons together, and it ate of his morsel, and it drank from his cup, and it lay in his bosom. And it was like a daughter to him.
4 And a traveler came to the rich one, and he spared to take of his own flock, and of his own herd, to prepare for the traveler who had come to him. And he took the ewe lamb of the poor man, and prepared it for the man who had come to him.
5 And David's anger glowed greatly against the man. And he said to Nathan, As YAHWEH lives, surely the man who did this is a son of death.
6 And he shall repay fourfold for the ewe lamb, because he has done this thing, and because he had no pity.
7 And Nathan said to David, You are the man! So says YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, I anointed you as king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul.
8 And I gave you the house of your master, and your master's wives into your bosom. And I gave you the house of Israel and of Judah. And if that were too little, then I would have added to you these and those things.
9 Why have you despised the Word of YAHWEH, to do the evil in His eyes? You have stricken Uriah the Hittite by the sword, and you have taken his wife to yourself for a wife. And you have killed him by the sword of the sons of Ammon.

10 And now the sword shall not turn aside from your house continually, because you have despised Me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be a wife to you.

11 So says YAHWEH, Behold, I shall raise up evil against you out of your house, and shall take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor. And he shall lie with your wives in the sight of the sun. (2 Sam 1621-22)

12 For you acted in secret, but I will do this thing before all Israel and before the sun.

13 And David said to Nathan, I have sinned against YAHWEH. And Nathan said to David, YAHWEH also has put away your sin; you shall not die.

14 Only, because you have caused to scorn the enemies of YAHWEH by this thing, also the son who shall be born to you dying shall die.

15 And Nathan went to his house, and YAHWEH struck the boy whom the wife of Uriah had borne to David. And it became sick.

16 And David sought the Elohim for the child. And David fasted a fast, and went in and stayed the night, and lay on the earth.

17 And the elders of his house rose up toward him, to raise him up from the earth. But he was not willing; and he ate no bread with them.

18 And it happened on the seventh day, the boy died. And David's servants feared to tell him that the boy was dead, for they said, Behold, while the boy was alive, we spoke to him, and he would not listen to our voice. And how shall we say to him, The boy is dead? Then he may do harm.

19 And David saw that his servants were whispering among themselves. And David understood that the boy was dead. And David said to his servants, Is the boy dead? And they said, He is dead.

20 And David rose up from the earth, and bathed, and anointed. And he changed his clothing, and came into the house of YAHWEH, and worshiped. And he came to his house, and commanded, and they brought bread for him; and he ate.

21 And his servants said to him, What is this thing you have done? You fasted and wept because of the living boy, yet when the boy is dead, you have risen up and have eaten food?

22 And he said, While the boy was alive, I fasted and wept. For I said, Who knows? YAHWEH may pity me and the boy may stay alive.

23 And now he has died. Why this, that I should fast? Am I able to bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

24 And David comforted his wife Bathsheba. And he went in to her, and lay with her. And she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. And YAHWEH loved him,

25 and sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet, and called his name Jedidiah[1], because of YAHWEH.

26 And Joab fought against Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, and captured the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and I have captured the city of waters.

28 And now gather the rest of the people, and encamp against the city, and take it; that I not take the city, and my name be called over it.

29 And David gathered all the people and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.

30 And he took the crown of the kingdom off his head. And its weight was a talent of gold, and a precious stone was in it. And it was set on David's head. And he brought out the plunder of the city in great abundance.

---

31 And he brought out the people in it, and put them to the saw, and to sharp tools of iron, and to axes of iron.
And he caused them to go over into the brick kiln. And so he did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Chapter 13

1 And afterward it happened that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, and her name was Tamar. And Amnon the son of David loved her.
2 And Amnon was distressed, even to becoming sick, because of his sister Tamar. For she was a virgin, and it was hard in the eyes of Amnon to do anything to her.
3 And Amnon had a friend, and his name was Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother. And Jonadab was a very shrewd man.
4 And he said to him, Why are you, the king's son, so lean morning by morning? Will you not tell me? And Amnon said to him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.
5 And Jonadab said to him, Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill. And your father will come in to see you, and you shall say to him, Please let my sister Tamar come in and give me food to eat. And she shall make the food before my eyes, so that I may see and may eat from her hand.
6 And Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill. And the king came to see him. And Amnon said to the king, Please let my sister Tamar come, and she shall make two cakes before my eyes, and I shall eat from her hand.
7 And David sent home to Tamar, saying, Please go to the house of your brother Amnon and make food for
him.
8 And Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house. And he was lying down. And she took the dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes before his eyes, and baked the cakes.
9 And she took the baking pan and poured out before him. But he refused to eat, and Amnon said, Cause every man to go out from me. And every one of them went out from him.
10 And Amnon said to Tamar, Bring the food into the inner room, and I shall eat from your hand. And Tamar took the cakes that she had made and brought them in to her brother
Amnon, into the inner room.
11 And she brought near to him to eat. And he lay hold on her, and said to her, Come lie with me, my sister.
12 And she said to him, No, my brother, do not humble me, for it is not done so in Israel. Do not do this foolishness.
13 And I, where should I cause my disgrace to go? And you, you shall be as one of the fools in Israel. But now, please speak to the king; for he shall not withhold me from you.
14 But he was not willing to listen to her voice. And he was stronger than she, and humbled her, and lay with her.
15 And Amnon hated her with a very great hatred, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her.
And Amnon said to her, Get up and go!
16 And she said to him, No, for this evil is greater than the other that you have done to me, to send me away. But he was not willing to listen to her.
17 And he called his young man who attended him, and said, Now put this one out from me, and bolt the door after her.

18 And a long tunic was on her, for so the virgin daughters of the king usually dressed. And his attendant brought her robes outside, and bolted the door after her.

19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore the long tunic on her, and put her hand on her head, and left; going on and crying out.

20 And her brother Absalom said to her, Has your brother Amnon been with you? But now, my sister, keep silent. He is your brother. Do not set your heart on this thing. And Tamar lived in the house of her brother Absalom, but she was desolate.

21 And King David heard all these things, and it angered him very much.

22 But Absalom did not speak either good or evil with Amnon, for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had humbled his sister Tamar.

23 And after two years it happened that Absalom had shearers in Baal-Hazor, which is beside Ephraim. And Absalom called to all the sons of the king.

24 And Absalom came to the king and said, Behold, your servant now has shearers. Please let the king and his servants go with your servant.

25 And the king said to Absalom, No, my son, let us not all go now, and we shall not be too burdensome on you. But he urged him, and he was not willing to go, but he blessed him.

26 And Absalom said, If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said to him, Why should he go with you?

27 And Absalom urged him, and he sent Amnon with him, and all the king's sons.

28 And Absalom commanded his young men, saying, Now watch when Amnon's heart is glad with wine, and when I say to you, Strike Amnon, you shall kill him. Do not fear. Did not I command you? Be strong, and be valiant.

29 And the young men of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom commanded. And all the king's sons rose up, and they each rode on his mule, and fled.

30 And it happened while they were in the highway, even the report had come to David, saying, Absalom has stricken all the sons of the king, and not one of them is left.

31 And the king rose up and tore his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants were standing by with torn garments.

32 And Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered and said, Do not let my master say, They have killed all of the young men, the king's sons; for only Amnon is dead. For it has been settled by Absalom's command from the day of his humbling of his sister Tamar.

33 And now, do not let my master the king lay the word to heart, saying, All the king's sons have died; for only Amnon has died.

34 And Absalom fled. And the young man who was watching lifted up his eyes and looked. And, behold! Many people were coming by the highway behind him, by the side of the hill.

35 And Jonadab said to the king, See, the sons of the king have come; as the word of your servant, so it has been.

36 And it happened as he finished speaking, behold, the king's sons came. And they lifted up their voice and wept. And also the king and all his servants wept with a very great weeping.

37 And Absalom fled, and went to Talmai the son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son all the time.

38 And Absalom had fled, and had gone to Geshur, and was there three years.

39 And King David determined to go out to Absalom, for he had been comforted for Amnon, for he had died.

Chapter 14

1 And Joab the son of Zeruiah knew that the king's heart was on Absalom.

2 And Joab sent to Tekoah and took a wise woman from there, and said to her, Pretend yourself to be a mourner now, and please put on garments of mourning. And do not anoint yourself with oil, and you shall be a woman mourning for one who died these many days.

3 And you shall go to the king and speak with him according to this word. And Joab put the words into her mouth.

4 And the woman of Tekoah spoke to the king, and fell on her face to the earth, and bowed and said, Save, O king!

5 And the king said to her, What shall be to you? And she said, Truly I am a widow woman, and my husband died.

6 And your servant had two sons. And the two of them fought in the field, and there was no deliverer between them. And the one struck the other, and killed him.

7 And, behold, the whole family has risen against your servant, and said, Give up him who struck his brother, and we shall kill him for the life of his brother whom he has slain. And we shall also destroy the heir. And they shall quench my coal which is left, so as not to set to my husband a name and remnant on the face of the earth.

8 And the king said to the woman, Go to your house, and I will give command concerning you.

9 And the woman of Tekoah said to the king, My master, O king, let the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house; and the king and his throne shall be guiltless.

10 And the king said, Whoever speaks to you, you also shall bring him to me, then he shall not touch you any more.

11 And she said, Please let the king remember YAHWEH your Elohim, that the avenger of blood not destroy any more, and that they may not destroy my son. And he said, As YAHWEH lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the earth.

12 And the woman said, Please let your servant speak a word to my master the king. And he said, Speak.

13 And the woman said, And why have you thought in this way about the people of Elohim? Yea, the king is speaking this thing as a guilty one, in that the king has not brought back his outcast one.

14 For surely we do die and are as water which is spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up. And Elohim does not take a life, but has devised plans so that the outcast is not cast out from Him.

15 And now that I have come to speak this word to my master the king, because the people made me afraid; and your servant said, Please let me speak to the king; it may be the king shall do the word of his servant.

16 For the king has listened, to deliver his servant out of the hand of the man seeking to destroy me and my son together, out of the inheritance of Elohim.

17 And your servant said, Please let the word of my master the king be comforting. For as a messenger of Elohim, so is my master the king, to understand the good and the evil. And YAHWEH your Elohim shall be with you.

18 And the king answered and said to the woman, Please do not hide from me the thing that I am asking you. And the woman said, Then let my master the king speak.

19 And the king said, Is the hand of Joab with you in all this? And the woman answered and said, As your soul lives, my master, O king, none shall turn to the right or to the left from all that my master the king has spoken. For your servant Joab commanded me, and he put all these words in your servant's mouth.

20 Your servant Joab has done this thing to turn about the face of the matter, and my master is wise according to the wisdom of a messenger of Elohim, to know all that is in the land.

21 And the king said to Joab, Behold, now, I have done this thing. Then go, bring back the young man Absalom.

22 And Joab fell on his face to the earth, and bowed, and blessed the king. And Joab said, Today your servant has known that I have found grace in your eyes, my master, O king, in that the king has done the word of his servant.

23 And Joab rose up and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his house, and he shall not see my face. And Absalom turned to his house, and he did not see the king's face.

25 And no man was handsome like Absalom in all Israel, to be so greatly praised. From the sole of his foot to his crown, there was not a blemish in him.

26 And when he sheared his head (for it was at the end of days of days that he sheared it, because the hair was heavy on him, and he sheared it), he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels by the king's weight.

27 And three sons were born to Absalom, and one daughter. And her name was Tamar; she was a woman of a beautiful form.

28 And Absalom lived in Jerusalem two years, and had not seen the king's face.

29 And Absalom sent to Joab, to send him to the king. But he was not willing to come to him. And he sent again a second time, and he was not willing to come.

30 And he said to his servants, Behold, Joab's allotment is beside mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the allotment on fire.

31 And Joab rose up and came to Absalom, to the house, and said to him, Why have your servants set my allotment on fire?

32 And Absalom said to Joab, Behold, I sent to you, saying, Come here, and I will send you to the king to say, Why have I come from Geshur? It was good for me to be there still. And now, let me see the king's face, and if there is guilt in me, then you shall cause me to die.

33 And Joab came to the king and told him. And he called to Absalom; and he came to the king, and bowed to him on his face to the earth before the king. And the king gave a kiss to Absalom.

Chapter 15

1 And it happened afterward that Absalom prepared a chariot for himself, and horses, and fifty men running before him.

2 And Absalom rose up and stood by the side of the way of the gate. And it happened that every man who had a cause to come to the king for judgment, Absalom called to him and said, Of what city are you? And he said, Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel.

3 And Absalom said to him, Behold, your matters are good and right. And there is no listener to you from the king.

4 And Absalom said, Who shall make me a judge in the land, that every man who has a dispute, I will then declare him right, even with justice?

5 And it happened, when a man drew near to bow himself to him, he put out his hand and laid hold on him, and gave him a kiss.

6 And Absalom acted this way to all Israel who came in to the king for judgment. And Absalom stole the heart of the men of Israel.

7 And at the end of forty years[1], it happened, Absalom said to the king, Please let me go and I shall pay my vow that I have vowed to YAHWEH, in Hebron.

8 For your servant has vowed a vow when I lived in Geshur in Syria, saying, If YAHWEH bringing shall bring me back to Jerusalem, then I shall serve YAHWEH.

9 And the king said to him, Go in peace. And he rose up and went to Hebron.

10 And Absalom sent spies among all the tribes of Israel, saying, When you hear the sound of the ram's horn, then you shall say, Absalom is king in Hebron.

11 And two hundred men went out of Jerusalem with Absalom, invited ones. And they went out in their simplicity and did not know anything.

12 And Absalom sent Ahithophel a Gilonite, a counselor of David, out of his city, out of Giloh, as he offered the sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong. And the people were going on and increasing with Absalom.

13 And a messenger came to David, saying, The hearts of the men of Israel have gone after Absalom.

14 And David said to all his servants who were with him in Jerusalem, Rise up, and we will flee; for we have no escape from the face of Absalom. Hurry to leave, that he not overtake us and bring evil down on us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said to the king, According to all that my master the king desires, behold, your servants will do.

16 And the king went out, and all his household at his feet. And the king left ten women, concubines, to keep the house.

17 And the king went out, and all the people at his feet. And they stood still at the house farthest away.

18 And all his servants were passing on by his side, and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who came at his feet from Gath. These were passing on before the king.

19 And the king said to Ittai the Gittite, Why do you go, even you with us? Turn back and remain with the king, for you are an alien, and also you are an exile. Go to your place.

20 You came in yesterday and today. Should I make you roam with us, to go while I go, where I go? Turn back, and turn your brothers to go with you in kindness and truth.

21 And Ittai replied to the king and said, As YAHWEH lives, and my master the king lives, surely in the place where my master the king is, there your servant shall be, whether for death or for life.

22 And David said to Ittai, Go on and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones with him.

23 And all the land was weeping with a loud voice. And all the people were passing over. And the king was passing over through the torrent Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.
24 And, behold, Zadok also came, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of Elohim. And they set the ark of Elohim down. And Abiathar went up until all the people finished passing on out of the city.
25 And the king said to Zadok, Take the ark of Elohim back to the city. If I find grace in the eyes of YAHWEH, then He will bring me back and make me see it and His dwelling place.
26 And if He says this, I have not delighted in you, behold, I am here. He shall do to me as seems good in His eyes.
27 And the king said to Zadok the priest, Are you a seer? Return to the city in peace, and your two sons with you, your son Ahimaaz, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.
28 Behold, I will wait in the plain of the wilderness until word comes from you to report to me.
29 And Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of Elohim back to Jerusalem. And they remained there.
30 And David was going up in the ascent of the olives, going up and weeping. And his head was covered, and he was going barefooted.[1] And all the people who were with him each had covered his head, and had gone up, going up and weeping.
31 And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O YAHWEH, I pray You, make the counsel of Ahithophel foolish.
32 And it happened as David had come to the top, there where he bowed to Elohim. And, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him, his tunic torn, and earth on his head.
33 And David said to him, If you pass on with me, then you shall be a burden to me.
34 But if you return to the city, and shall say to Absalom, I also will be your servant, O king; I was servant of your father before now; and now I am also your servant. Then you can break down the counsel of Ahithophel for me.
35 And do you not have there with you Zadok and Abiathar, the priests? And it shall be, you shall declare everything that you hear from the house of the king; you shall report to Zadok and to Abiathar, the priests.
36 Behold, there are with them their two sons, Ahimaaz to Zadok, and Jonathan to Abiathar. And you shall send to me by their hand anything that you hear.
37 And David's friend Hushai came into the city. And Absalom came into Jerusalem.

Chapter 16

1 And David had passed on a little from the top. And behold, Ziba, the servant of Mephibosheth, came to meet him with a couple of saddled donkeys, and on them two hundred loaves and a hundred bunches of raisins, and a hundred of summer fruit, and a skin of wine.
2 And the king said to Ziba, What are these to you? And Ziba said, The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, and the bread and the summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine for the wearied to drink in the wilderness.

[1] These were signs of mourning and humility as it is a shame for a man to cover his head (1 Cor 11:14).

3 And the king said, And where is the son of your master? And Ziba said to the king, Behold, he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, Today the house of Israel will give back to me the kingdom of my father.

4 And the king said to Ziba, Behold, all that Mephibosheth has is yours. And Ziba said, I bow myself; may I find favor in your eyes, my master, O king.

5 And King David came to Bahurim. And, behold, a man was coming out from there, of the family of the house of Saul; and his name was Shimei, the son of Gera. He came out, and he came cursing.

6 And he stoned David with stones and all the servants of King David, and all the people, and all the mighty men on his right and on his left.

7 And Shimei said this in his cursing, Go out! Go out, O man of blood, O worthless man!

8 YAHWEH has turned back on you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. And YAHWEH shall give the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom. And, behold, you are taken in your evil, for you are a man of blood.

9 And Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, Why does this dead dog curse my master the king? Please let me pass over, and I will take off his head.

10 And the king said, What have I to do with you, sons of Zeruiah? For let him curse, even because YAHWEH has said to him, Curse David. And who shall say, Why have you done so?

11 And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son who came out of my loins is seeking my life, and surely now also the Benjamite. Leave him alone, and let him curse, for YAHWEH has spoken to him.

12 Perhaps YAHWEH will look on my affliction, and YAHWEH will return good to me for his cursing this day. (Is 37:4, Deut 23:5)

13 And David went with his men in the highway, and Shimei was going along at the side of the hill across from him. As he went, he cursed, and stoned with stones across from him, and dusted with dust.

14 And the king came in wearied, and all the people with him; and he was refreshed there.

15 And Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, had come into Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16 And it happened, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, had come to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, Let the king live! Let the king live!

17 And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this your kindness with your friend? Why have you not gone with your friend?

18 And Hushai said to Absalom, No, for he whom YAHWEH and this people have chosen, even all the men of Israel, his I shall be, and I shall remain with him.

19 And a second time, Whom should I serve? Should I not serve before the face of his son. As I served before the face of your father, so shall I be before your face.

20 And Absalom said to Ahithophel, Give your counsel, what we shall do.

21 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, Go in to your father's concubines, those he left to keep the house. And all Israel shall hear that you have become odious with your father. And the hands of all who are with you will be strong.

22 And they spread out a tent for Absalom on the roof. And Absalom went in to his father's concubines before the eyes of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel which he counseled in those days was as one who had inquired at the Word of the Elohim. So was all the counsel of Ahithophel, both to David and to Absalom.[1] (2 Sam 17:14)

Chapter 17

1 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, Please let me choose twelve thousand men, and I shall rise up and pursue David tonight.

2 And I shall come on him, and he shall be weary and feeble handed. And I will make him tremble, and the people with him shall flee. And I shall strike the king by himself.

3 And I shall bring all the people back to you when all return, except the man whom you are seeking. All the people shall be in peace.

4 And the thing was pleasing in Absalom's eyes, and in the eyes of all the elders of Israel.

5 And Absalom said, Please call for Hushai the Archite also. And we shall hear what is in his mouth, also he.

6 And Hushai came in to Absalom. And Absalom spoke to him, saying, Ahithophel has spoken according to this word. Shall we do this word? If not, you speak.

7 And Hushai said to Absalom, The counsel Ahithophel counseled is not good at this time.

8 And Hushai said, You have known your father and his men, that they are mighty men. And they are bitter of soul, like a bear bereaved of cubs in the field. And your father is a man of war, and shall not stay the night with the people.

9 Behold, now he is hidden in one of the pits, or in one of the places. And it shall be, at the falling among them at the beginning, that whoever hears even shall say, There has been a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.

10 And also he, the son of valor, whose heart is as the heart of the lion, shall utterly melt. For all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those with him sons of valor.

11 So I counsel this: Gathering, let all Israel be gathered to you, from Dan even to Beer-Sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude. And you in person shall go into battle.

12 And we shall come in to him, in one of the places, there where he shall be found. And we shall fall on him as the dew falls on the ground. And of all the men who are with him, not even one shall be left.

13 And if he is taken into a city, then all Israel shall bear ropes to that city. And we shall draw it into the torrent bed, until there shall not be found even a pebble.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. And YAHWEH had ordained to break down the good counsel of Ahithophel, for the sake of bringing the evil of YAHWEH to Absalom.

15 And Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar, the priests, Ahithophel has counseled this and this to Absalom and the elders of Israel. And I have counseled this and this.

16 And now send quickly and tell David, saying, Do not stay in the fords of the wilderness tonight. And, also, crossing, pass over, that there not be a swallowing up of the king and of all the people with him.

[1] Counsel to a king was extremely important, as was discerning the counsel. Without discernment a leader will enter much trouble for many.

17 And Jonathan and Ahimaaz were standing at En-Rogel, for they were not able to be seen going into the city. And a slave-girl went and told them. And they went and told it to King David.

18 And a youth saw them, and told Absalom. And they went on, both of them in haste, and came into the house of a man in Bahurim. And he had a well in his court, and they went down there.

19 And the woman took and spread the covering over the well, and spread ground grain on it. And the thing was not known.

20 And the servants of Absalom came in to the woman, to the house, and said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said to them, They passed over the river of water. And they looked and did not find them. And they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it happened after they left, they came up out of the well and went and told King David. And they said to David, Rise up and quickly pass over the waters, for Ahithophel has counseled this against you.

22 And David and all the people with him rose up, and they passed over the Jordan until the light of the morning, until there was not one lacking who had not crossed the Jordan.

23 And Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not done. And he saddled the donkey and rose up and went to his house, to his city. And he gave command to his household, then hanged himself, and died. And he was buried in the burying place of his father.

24 And David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom had set Amasa over the army instead of Joab. And Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Ithra the Israelite, who had gone in to Abigail, the daughter of Nahash, the sister of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab.

26 And Israel camped with Absalom in the land of Gilead.

27 And it happened as David came into Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash, from Rabbah of the sons of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo-Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite, from Rogelim,

28 brought beds, and basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and roasted grain, and beans, and lentils, and roasted grain,

29 and honey, and curds and sheep, and cheese from the herd, for David, and for the people who were with him to eat. For they said, The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness.

Chapter 18

1 And David mustered the people who were with him, and he set over them commanders of hundreds.

2 And David sent one third of the people by the hand of Joab, and one third by the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third by Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people. Going out I will go with you, I also.

3 And the people said, You shall not go out, for if we flee they will not set their heart on us even if half of us die; for now you are like ten thousand to us. And now it is good that you be a helper for us from the city.

4 And the king said to them, I will do that which is good in your eyes. And the king stood at the side of the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.[1]

5 And the king commanded Joab, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, For my sake deal gently with the young man, with Absalom. And all the people heard as the king commanded the commanders concerning Absalom.

6 And the people went into the field to meet Israel. And the battle was in the forest of Ephraim.

7 And the people of Israel were stricken before David's servants. And there was a great destruction on that day of twenty thousand.

8 And the battle was scattered over the face of all the land, and the forest devoured among the people more than the sword had devoured in that day.

9 And Absalom came before David's servants. And Absalom was riding on a mule, and the mule came in under the thick branches of a great oak. And his head caught hold in the oak, and he was lifted up between the heavens and the earth. And the mule under him passed on.

10 And a man saw and told Joab, and said, Behold! I saw Absalom hanging in the oak;

11 and Joab said to the man who told him, And behold, you have seen. And why did you not strike him to the earth there and call on me to give you ten silver pieces and a girdle?

12 And the man said to Joab, Yes, though I weighed a thousand silver pieces in my hand, I would not put forth my hand to the king's son. For in our ears the king commanded you, and Abishai, and Ittai saying, Take heed, whoever goes against the young man, against Absalom.

13 Or I would have dealt falsely against my soul. For no matter is hidden from the king, and you, you yourself would have set against me.

14 And Joab said, I will not wait this before you. And he took three darts in his hand and struck them into Absalom's heart while he was alive, in the midst of the oak.

15 And they went around, ten young men bearing Joab's weapons, and struck Absalom, and killed him.

16 And Joab blew the ram's horn, and the people returned from pursuing Israel, for Joab had held the people back.

17 And they took Absalom and threw him into a great pit in the forest, and set up a very great heap of stones over him. And all Israel fled, each one to his tent.

18 And during his lifetime Absalom had taken and set up for himself a standing-pillar, which is in the King's Valley. For he said, I have no son to cause my name to be remembered. And he called the standing pillar by his name and it is called Absalom's Monument to this day.

19 And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, Please let me run, and I will bear news to the king. For YAHWEH has vindicated him from the hand of his enemies.

20 And Joab said to him, You are not a man of tidings today. But you shall bear tidings another day. And today you shall not bear tidings, because the king's son is dead.

21 And Joab said to Cushi, Go, tell the king that which you have seen. And Cushi bowed to Joab, and ran.

22 And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said yet again to Joab, Yet whatever may be, please let me run after the Cushite, I also. And Joab said, Why is this that you are running, my son?

1 Due to David's great leadership ability his life was worth 10,000 others, as without him all the army would be discouraged and fall. This truly shows how important true leadership really is.

Also for you there are no tidings found.

23 And he said, Yet whatever it may be, let me run. And he said to him, Run. And Ahimaaz ran the way of the circuit and passed by the Cushite.

24 And David was sitting between the two gates. And the watchman went to the roof of the gate and lifted up his eyes, and looked. And, behold, a man running by himself!

25 And the watchman called and told the king. And the king said, If he is by himself, tidings are in his mouth. And he came, coming on, and drawing near.

26 And the watchman saw another man running. And the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, Behold, a man running by himself! And the king said, Also this one is bearing tidings.

27 And the watchman said, I see the running of the first as the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, This is a good man and he comes with good news.

28 And Ahimaaz called and said to the king, Peace! And he bowed on his face to the earth to the king and said, Blessed be YAHWEH your Elohim who has shut up the men who lifted up their hand against my master the king.

29 And the king said, Peace to the young man, to Absalom? And Ahimaaz said, I saw the great tumult, at the sending away of the servant of the king, even your servant sent by Joab, but I do not know what.

30 And the king said, Turn aside, stand here. And he turned aside and stood.

31 And, behold, the Cushite had come. And the Cushite said, News is borne, my master, O king! For YAHWEH has vindicated you today out of the hand of those rising up against you.

32 And the king said to the Cushite, Peace to the young man, to Absalom? And the Cushite said, Let them be as the young man, the enemies of my master the king, and all who have risen up against you for evil.

33 And the king trembled. And he went up to the upper room of the gate and wept. And he said this as he went, My son! My son Absalom! My son Absalom! Oh that I had died instead of you, my son Absalom, my son!

Chapter 19

1 And it was announced to Joab, Behold, the king is weeping and mourning over Absalom.

2 And the deliverance on that day became mourning to all the people, for the people had heard on that day, saying, The king is grieving for his son.

3 And the people stole away on that day to go into the city, as the people steal away who are ashamed as they flee in battle.

4 And the king had covered his face. Yea, the king cried with a loud voice, My son Absalom! Absalom my son, my son!

5 And Joab came in to the king to the house, and said, You have put to shame today the faces of all your servants, those delivering your life today, and the life of your sons, and of your daughters, and the life of your wives, and the life of your concubines,

6 by loving those who hate you, and by hating those who love you, for you have declared today that there are no leaders nor servants to you. For I know today that if Absalom were alive and all of us dead today, that it would be right in your eyes.

7 And now rise up; go out and speak to the heart of your servants. For I have sworn by YAHWEH that if you do not go out, not a man shall remain with you tonight. And this would be worse for you than all the evil that has come on you from your youth until now.

8 And the king rose up and sat in the gate. And they announced it to all the people, saying, Behold, the king is sitting in the gate. And all the people came in before the king. And Israel had fled, each one to his tents.
9 And it happened, all the people were quarreling through all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies. Yea, he himself delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines. And now he has fled out of the land because of Absalom.
10 And Absalom whom we anointed over us is dead in battle. And now why are you silent as to bringing back the king?
11 And King David sent to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, Why are you the last to bring back the king to his house? For the word of all Israel had come to the king, to his house.
12 You are my brother; you are my bone and my flesh. And why are you the last to bring back the king?
13 And say to Amasa, Are you not my bone and my flesh? So shall Elohim do to me, and more so He shall do, if you are not commander of the army before me all the days, instead of Joab.
14 And he inclined the heart of all the men of Judah as one man, and they sent to the king, Return, you and all your servants.
15 And the king returned and came in to the Jordan. And Judah had come to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to bring the king over the Jordan.
16 And Shimei, the son of Gera, the Benjamite, from Bahurim, hastened and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David.
17 And a thousand men were with him from Benjamin; also Ziba, the servant of the house of Saul, and his thirteen sons and his twenty servants with him. And they had rushed over the Jordan before the king.
18 And they had crossed over the ford to carry over the king's household, and to do the good in his eyes. And Shimei the son of Gera had fallen before the face of the king as he crossed over the Jordan.
19 And he said to the king, Do not let my master charge iniquity to me, nor shall you remember that which your servant perversely did in the day that my master the king went out from Jerusalem, for the king to take it to his heart.
20 For your servant knows that I have sinned; and behold, I come today, the first of the house of Joseph, to go down to meet my master the king.
21 And Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the messiah of YAHWEH?
22 And David said, What have I to do with you, O sons of Zeruiah, that you are as my foe today? Shall any man be executed today in Israel? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?
23 And the king said to Shimei, You shall not die. And the king swore to him.
24 And Mephibosheth the son of Saul had come down to meet the king. And he had not dressed his feet, nor had shaved his upper lip. Yea, he had not washed his garment, even from the day that he went away till the day that he came in peace.
25 And it happened when he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?
26 And he said, My master, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, I will saddle the donkey for myself and ride on it and go with the king, for your servant is lame.

27 And he spoke slander against your servant to my master the king. And my master the king is as a messenger of the Elohim; yet you do that which is good in your eyes.
28 For all the house of my father would be nothing except men of death before my master the king, and you have set your servant among those eating at your table. And what right is there to me any more, even to cry any more to the king?
29 And the king said to him, Why do you speak any more of your matters? I have said, You and Ziba share the land.
30 And Mephibosheth said to the king, Yes, let him take all, since my master the king has come in peace to his house.
31 And Barzillai the Gileadite had gone down from Rogelim and had crossed over the Jordan with the king, to send him away over the Jordan.
32 And Barzillai was very old, a son of eighty years, and he had sustained the king as he abode in Mahanaim, for he was a very great man.
33 And the king said to Barzillai, You pass over with me and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem.
34 And Barzillai said to the king, How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?
35 I am a son of eighty years today. Can I distinguish between good and evil? Can your servant taste that which I am eating, and that which I drink? Can I any more listen to the voice of singing men and singing women? And why should your servant be any more as a burden to my master the king?
36 Just a little way your servant shall cross over the Jordan with the king. And why should the king repay me with this reward?
37 Please let your servant return, and I shall die in my own city, near the burying place of my father and my mother. And, behold your servant Chimham! Let him cross over with my master the king, and you do to him the good in your eyes.
38 And the king said, Chimham shall go over with me, and I shall do to him that which is good in your eyes. Yea, all that you shall choose of me I will do for you.
39 And all the people crossed over the Jordan, and the king crossed over. And the king gave a kiss to Barzillai and blessed him. And he returned to his place.
40 And the king crossed over to Gilgal. And Chimham crossed over with him, and all the people of Judah. And they brought the king over, and also half of the people of Israel.
41 And, behold, all the men of Israel were coming to the king. And they said to the king, Why have they, our brothers, the men of Judah, stolen you away? For they brought the king and his household over the Jordan, and all the men of David with him.
42 And, behold, all the men of Judah answered against the men of Israel, Because the king is near to us. And why is this that you are angry about this matter? Have we at all eaten from the king, or has he given a gift to us?
43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, We have ten hands in the king, and we also have more in David than you. Why then did you despise us, that our word was not first to bring back our king? And the word of the men of Judah was more fierce than the word of the men of Israel.

Chapter 20

1 And a man of worthlessness happened to be there, and his name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a man of Benjamin. And he blew the ram's horn and said, We have no part in David, and we have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Each man to his tents, O Israel.

2 And every man of Israel went up from following David, going after Sheba the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah clung to their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 And David came into his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women, the concubines whom he had left to guard the house, and fed them. But he did not go in to them, and they were shut up to the day of their death in widowhood.

4 And the king said to Amasa, Call for me the men of Judah within three days; and you stand here.

5 And Amasa went to call Judah, but delayed beyond the set time which he had set for him.

6 And David said to Abishai, Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do more evil to us than Absalom. You take the servants of your master and pursue him, that he not find fortified cities for himself, and deliver himself from our eye.

7 And the men of Joab went out after him, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men. And they went out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 They were near the great stone in Gibeon, and Amasa had gone before them. And Joab was girded with his war coat as his clothing; and over it was a belt with a sword fastened on his loins in its sheath. And as he went out, it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Is it well with you, my brother? And Joab's right hand took hold of Amasa's beard to give a kiss to him.

10 And Amasa was not on guard against the sword in Joab's hand. And he struck him with it in the fifth rib, and poured out his bowels to the ground, and did not strike him again. And he died. And Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And a man stood beside him, of the young men of Joab; and he said, Whoever delights in Joab, and whoever is for David follow after Joab!

12 And Amasa was wallowing in blood in the middle of the highway. And the man saw that all the people stood still. And he turned Amasa away from the highway to the field, and threw a garment over him, when he saw that all who came beside him stood still.

13 When he was taken from the highway, every man passed on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 And he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, and to Beth-Maachah, and to all the Berites. And they were gathered, and went after him also.

15 And they went in and lay siege against him in Abel-Beth-Maachah, and mounded up a siege-mound against the city. And it stood against the outermost wall, and all the people with Joab were undermining, to cause the wall to fall.

16 And a wise woman called out of the city, Hear! Hear! Please say to Joab, Come near here and I will speak to you.

17 And he came near to her. And the woman said, Are you Joab? And he said, I am. And she said to him, Hear the words of your handmaid. And he said, I am hearing.

18 And she spoke, saying, They spoke often in days gone by, saying, Asking they will ask at Abel, and so they ended all dispute.

19 I am of the peaceful, faithful ones of Israel. You are seeking to destroy a city, and a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up the inheritance of YAHWEH?

20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it! Far be it from me that I should swallow up or destroy.

21 The case is not such. For a man of the hills of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri is his name, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. If you will give him up by himself, then I will go away from the city. And the woman said to Joab, Behold, his head will be thrown over the wall to you.

22 And the woman came to all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri and threw it to Joab. And he blew the ram's horn, and they were dispersed from the city, each man to his tents. And Joab went back to Jerusalem to the king.

23 And Joab was over all the army of Israel, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites.

24 And Adoram was over the forced labor, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder.

25 And Sheva was the scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

26 And also Ira the Jairite was a priest to David.

Chapter 21

1 And there was a famine in the days of David, three years, year after year. And David sought the face of YAHWEH. And YAHWEH said, It is for Saul and for his bloody house, because he killed the Gibeonites.

2 And the king called for the Gibeonites and said to them (as to the Gibeonites, they were not of the sons of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites, and the sons of Israel had sworn to them) and Saul sought to strike them in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah.

3 And David said to the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? And with what shall I atone, and you bless the inheritance of YAHWEH?

4 And the Gibeonites said to him, We will have neither silver nor gold by Saul and by his house. Also, we will have no man in Israel put to death. And he said, What you say, I will do for you.

5 And they said to the king, The man who destroyed us and schemed against us that we be wasted from standing in all the border of Israel was Saul.

6 Let be given to us seven men of his sons to us. And we will expose them to YAHWEH in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of YAHWEH. And the king said, I will deliver them.

7 But the king spared Jonathan's son Mephibosheth the son of Saul because of the oath of YAHWEH that was between them, between David and Jonathan, the son of Saul.

8 And the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth. And he took the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite.[1]

9 And he gave them into the hands of

[1] Michal is the sister of Merab who was married to Adriel. (1 Sam 18:19). Apparently, Merab died and Michal raised her 5 sons. Michal had no children of her own due to the curse for despising David for his worship of YHWH when they brought up the ark of the covenant, 2Sam 6:16, 20-23.

the Gibeonites. And they exposed them in the mountain before YAHWEH. And the seven fell together. And they were executed in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.
10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and stretched it out for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water poured on them out of the heavens. And she did not allow a bird of the heavens to rest on them by day nor the beast of the field by night.[1] 11 And that which Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, Saul's concubine, had done was told to David.
12 And David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of his son Jonathan from the rulers of Jabesh-Gilead, who had stolen them from the plaza of Beth-Shean, there where the Philistines hanged them in the day the Philistines struck Saul in Gilboa.
13 And he brought up the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan from there, and they gathered up the bones of those hanged.
14 And they buried the bones of Saul and of his son Jonathan in the land of Benjamin, in Zelah, in the burying place of his father Kish, and did all that the king had commanded. And afterward Elohim heard prayer for the land.
15 And again the Philistines warred with Israel. And David went down, and his servants with him. And they fought with the Philistines. And David was weary.
16 And Ishbibenob, who was of the sons of Rapha the giant, the weight of his spear being three hundred copper shekels in weight, and was girded with a new sword, even he said to strike David.
17 And Abishai the son of Zeruiah helped him, and struck the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, You shall not again go out with us to battle, that you not cause the lamp of Israel to go out.
18 And it happened after this that the battle was again in Gob of the Philistines. Then Sibbechai the Hushathite struck Saph, who was among the sons of Rapha.
19 And again the battle was in Gob with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jaare-Oregim the Bethlehemite struck one of Goliath the Gittite[2], and the wood of his spear was like a weaver's beam.
20 And again the battle was in Gath, and there was a man of stature, and the fingers of his hands were six, and the fingers of his feet six, twenty four in number. And he also had been born to Rapha.
21 And he cursed Israel; and Jonathan, the son of David's brother Shimeah, struck him.
22 These four here born to the giant in Gath. And they fell by the hand of David, by the hand of his servants.

Chapter 22

1 And David spoke to YAHWEH the words of this song in the day YAHWEH delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.
2 And he said: YAHWEH is my rock and my fortress, and my Deliverer.
3 My Elohim is my rock; I shall take refuge in Him; my shield, and the horn of my Y'shua*, my high tower, and my refuge! My Savior, You shall save me from violence (Hamas).

[1] This is April at the beginning of the harvest and she defended the corpses until Nov-Dec when the first real rain would fall.

[2] The one struck was Lahmi, the brother of Goliath, 1 Chron 20:5.

4 I call on YAHWEH, the One to be praised; and I shall be saved from my enemies.
5 When the waves of death surround me, the floods of wickedness terrify
me,
6 the cords of Sheol are all around me, the snares of death confronted
me.
7 In my distress I called on YAHWEH, and I called to my Elohim.
And He heard my voice from His sanctuary, and my cry was in His ears.
8 And the earth shook and trembled, the foundations of the heavens were troubled, and were shaken; for He was angry.
9 Smoke rose up in His nostrils, and fire devoured out of His mouth; coals were kindled by it.
10 And He bowed the heavens and came down, and thick darkness was under His feet.
11 And He rode on a cherub, and did fly, and was seen on the wings of the wind.
12 And He made darkness pavilions all around Him, the gathering of waters, thick clouds of the skies.
13 From the brightness before Him were kindled coals of fire!
14 YAHWEH thundered from the heavens, and the Most High gave forth His voice.
15 And He sent forth arrows and scattered them; lightning, and troubled them;
16 and the channels of the sea were seen; the world's foundations were revealed by the rebuke of YAHWEH, from the blast of the breath of His nostrils.
17 He sent from above; He took me;
He drew me out of many waters.
18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me; for they were stronger than me.
19 They confronted me in the day of my calamity, and YAHWEH was my support;
20 and He brought me out to a large place; He delivered me, for He delighted in me.
21 YAHWEH rewarded me
according to my righteousness;
according to the cleanness of my hands, He has repaid me.
22 For I have kept the ways of YAHWEH, and have not acted wickedly against my Elohim.
23 For all His judgments were before me. As to His statutes, I did not turn away from them.
24 And I was blameless before Him, and I kept myself from my iniquity.
25 And YAHWEH returned to me
according to my righteousness,
according to my cleanness in His eyes.
26 With the faithful You show Yourself kind. With the upright man,
You will show Yourself upright.
27 With the pure, You will show Yourself pure, and with the perverted
You will appear perverse.
28 And You shall save the afflicted people, and Your eyes are on the haughty, whom You bring low.
29 For You are my lamp, O YAHWEH; and YAHWEH shall light up my darkness.
30 For by You I have run through a troop; by my Elohim I have leaped over a wall.
31 The El, blameless is His way; the Word of YAHWEH is tested; He is a shield to all those who seek refuge in
Him.
32 For who is El except YAHWEH?
And who is a rock except our Elohim?
33 The El is my strong fortress; and
He sets the blameless free in his way, 34 making my feet like hinds' feet, even causing me to stand on my high places;
35 teaching my hands for battle, so that my hands may bend a bow of copper.

36 And You have given to me the shield of Your Y'Shua*; and Your lowliness has made me great.
37 You have enlarged my steps under me, and my feet have not slipped.
38 I have pursued my enemies and destroyed them; and I did not turn until they were consumed.
39 And I consumed them, and struck them, and they did not rise; but fell under my feet.
40 Yea, You girded me with might for battle; You caused those rising against me to bow under me.
41 And You gave to me the necks of my enemies; those hating me I silenced.
42 They looked, and there was none to save; to YAHWEH, and He did not answer them.
43 And I beat them as the dust of the earth; I crushed them small as the mire of the streets; I spread them out.
44 And You delivered me from the quarrels of my people; You kept me as the head of the nations; a people I have not known served me.
45 The sons of strangers submit to me; at the hearing of the ear they listen to me.
46 The sons of strangers wither, and shall come trembling out of their dungeons.
47 YAHWEH lives! And blessed be my Rock, and is exalted the Elohim of the Rock of my Y'shua*.
48The Elohim who gives vengeance for me, and brings down peoples under me, 49 and brings me forth from my enemies; yea, You raise me up above those rising up against me; You deliver me from the men of violence.
50 On account of this I will confess You, YAHWEH, among nations; and I will sing praise to Your name.
51 A tower to Y'shua* His King; even doing mercy to His Messiah; to David and to his seed, until forever!

Chapter 23

1 And these are the last words of David, the saying of David the son of Jesse, and the saying of the man raised on high, the Messiah of the Elohim of Jacob, and the sweet singer of Israel:
2 The Spirit of YAHWEH has spoken by me, and His Word is on my tongue.
3 The Elohim of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spoke to me: One ruling over man righteously, who rules in the fear of Elohim,
4 is as the light of the morning, as the sun shines; a morning without clouds; through shining after rain the tender grass sprouts from the earth.
5 For is not my house so with El? For He has made an everlasting covenant with me, ordered in all things, and sure; for all my salvation, and all my desire, will He not make it grow?
6 As to the wicked, all of them shall be as a thorn driven away; for they cannot be taken by the hand; (Is 27:4) 7 but the man who shall touch them must be armed with iron and the shaft of a spear; they shall be utterly burned with fire in their place.
8 These are the names of the mighty ones who were called to David: He who sits in the seat of the Tachmonite, chief of the captains; He was called Adino the Eznite, because of the eight hundred he killed at one time.
9 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the son of the Ahohite. He was of the three mighty men with David when they taunted the Philistines, when they were gathered there to battle; and the men of Israel went up;

10 he rose up and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clung to the sword. And YAHWEH worked a great salvation on that day, and the people returned after him only to plunder.
11 And next was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines had gathered into a company, and there was a plot of the field full of lentils, and the people had fled before the Philistines.
12 And he set himself in the midst of the plot, and delivered it, and struck the Philistines. And YAHWEH worked out a great salvation.
13 And three of the thirty commanders went down and came to the harvest, to David, to the cave of Adullam. And the company of the Philistines was camping in the Valley of the Giants.
14 And David was then in a stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.
15 And David longed, and said, Who shall give me drink from the water of the well of Bethlehem beside the gate?
16 And the three mighty ones cut through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem beside the gate, and took it up, and brought it to David. But he was not willing to drink it, and poured it out to YAHWEH;
17 and said, Far be it from me, O YAHWEH, to do this; is it not the blood of the men who went with their lives? And he was not willing to drink it. The three mighty ones did these things.
18 And Abishai the son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab, was the commander of three. And he raised up his spear against three hundred, and killed them. And to him was a name among the three.
19 With honor he was honored more than the three. And he was the commander to them, but he did not come to the first three.
20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada from Kabzeel, a son of a mighty man, great in deeds; he killed two lion like men of Moab. And he went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit in a day of snow.
21 And he killed an Egyptian, a man of form; and a spear was in the Egyptian's hand; and he went down to him with a staff and tore away the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.
22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did these things, and had a name among three mighty ones.
23 He was more honored than the thirty, but he did not come to the first three. And David set him over his guard.
24 Asahel the brother of Joab was of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem;
25 Shammah the Harodite; Elika the Harodite;
26 Helez the Paltite; Ira the son of Ikkesh, the Tekoite;
27 Abiezer the Anathothite;
Mebunnai the Hushathite;
28 Zalmon the Ahohite; Maharai the Netophathite;
29 Heleb the son of Baanah, a Netophathite; Ittai the son of Ribai out of Gibeah, of the sons of Benjamin;
30 Benaiah the Pirathonite; Hiddai of the torrents of Gaash; 31 Abialbon the Arbathite; Azmaveth
the Barhumite; 32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite, of the sons of Jashen; Jonathan; 33 Shammah the Hararite; Ahiam
the son of Sharar, the Hararite; 34 Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maachathite; Eliam the son of Ahithophel, the Gilonite; 35 Hezrai the Carmelite; Paarai the Arbite;

36 Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah; Bani of Gad;
37 Zelek of Ammon; Naharai the Beerothite, armor-bearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah;
38 Ira the Ithrite; Gareb, an Ithrite;
39 Uriah the Hittite; thirty seven in all.

Chapter 24

1 And again the anger of YAHWEH glowed against Israel, and moved David against them, to say, Go, number Israel and Judah.
2 And the king said to Joab, the commander of the army with him, Go now to and fro through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-Sheba, and number the people, that I may know the number of the people.
3 And Joab said to the king, Yea, may YAHWEH your Elohim add to the people, however many they may be, a hundredfold. And may the eyes of my master the king see it. But why does my master the king delight in this thing?
4 But the word of the king prevailed against Joab, and against the army commanders. And Joab and the army commanders went out from the presence of the king to number the people of Israel.
5 And they crossed over the Jordan and camped in Aroer, on the right of the city, in the middle of the Valley of Gad, and to Jazer.
6 And they came into Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-Hodshi. And they came to Dan-Jaan, and around to Sidon.
7 And they came into the fortress of Tyre, and all the cities of the Hivite, and of the Canaanite. And they went out to the south of Judah, to Beer-Sheba.
8 And they went to and fro through all the land, and came in to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.
9 And Joab gave the count from the numbering of the people to the king. And Israel was eight hundred thousand mighty men drawing sword; and the men of Judah five hundred thousand men.
10 And after he had numbered the people, the heart of David struck him. And David said to YAHWEH, I have sinned greatly in that which I have done. And now, O YAHWEH, I pray, take away the iniquity of your servant, for I have acted very foolishly.
11 And David rose up in the morning; and the Word of YAHWEH came to Gad the prophet, David's seer, saying,
12 Go and you shall speak to David, So says YAHWEH, I am setting up three things for you; you choose one of them and I will do it for you.
13 And Gad came in to David and told him, and said to him, Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or shall you flee before your adversary three months, and they pursue you? Or shall three days' plague come into your land? Now consider, and see what I shall take back to Him who sent word to me.
14 And David said, Because of this it is great distressing to me. Let us fall now into the hand of YAHWEH, for many are His mercies; and do not let me fall into the hand of man.
15 And YAHWEH sent a plague on Israel from the morning even to the time appointed. And from Dan even to Beer-Sheba seventy thousand of the people died.
16 And the Messenger of YAHWEH

put forth his hand to Jerusalem, to destroy it. And YAHWEH had pity as to the evil, and said to the Messenger who was destroying among the people, Enough! Now drop your hand. And the Messenger of YAHWEH was near the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

17 And when he saw the Messenger who was striking among the people, David spoke to YAHWEH and said, Behold, I have sinned. Yea, I have acted perversely. And these, the flock, what have they done? Now let your hand be on me, and on my father's house.

18 And Gad came in to David on that day and said to him, Go up, raise up an altar to YAHWEH in the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

19 And David went up according to Gad's word, as YAHWEH commanded.

20 And Araunah looked and saw the king and his servants crossing over to him. And Araunah went out and bowed himself to the king, his nose to the earth.

21 And Araunah said, Why has my master the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshing-floor from you, in order to build an altar to YAHWEH; and the plague will be stayed from the people.

22 And Araunah said to David, Let my master the king take and offer up that which is good in his eyes. Behold, the oxen for a burnt offering, and the threshing instruments, and the yokes of the oxen for wood.

23 O king, all these Araunah gives to the king. And Araunah said to the king, May YAHWEH your Elohim accept you.

24 And the king said to Araunah, No, for buying I will buy from you for a price, and I will not offer to YAHWEH my Elohim burnt offerings for nothing. And David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

25 And David built an altar there to YAHWEH, and offered burnt offering and peace offerings. And YAHWEH was entreated for the land; and the plague was stayed from Israel.

Book of 1 Kings

Chapter 1

1 And King David was old, going into days. And they covered him with garments, for he had no heat.

2 And his servants said to him, Let them seek out a young woman for my master the king, a virgin, and she shall stand before the king, and be a nurse to him, and lie in your bosom, and my master the king shall have heat.

3 And they sought out a beautiful young woman in all the border of Israel. And they found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her in to the king.

4 And the young woman was exceedingly beautiful, and she was a nurse to the king and served him. But the king did not know her.

5 And Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will reign. And he prepared a chariot for himself, and horsemen, and fifty men running before his face.

6 And his father had not troubled him all his days, saying, Why have you done so? And he also was very good of form, and one had borne him after Absalom.

7 And his words were with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest. And they helped, going after Adonijah.

8 But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men who were to David, were not with Adonijah.

9 And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fatlings near the Stone of Serpents which is near En-Rogel. And he called all his brothers, the sons of the king, and all the men of Judah, the servants of the king.

10 But he did not call Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and his brother Solomon.

11 And Nathan spoke to Bathsheba, the mother of Solomon, saying, Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith reigns, and our master David does not know?

12 And now, come, please let me counsel you with counsel, and save your life, and the life of your son Solomon.

13 Go up and go in to King David. And you shall say to him, My master, O king, have you not sworn to your handmaid, saying, Surely your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne? And why does Adonijah reign?

14 Behold, while you are speaking with the king, then I will come in after you and will confirm your words.

15 And Bathsheba came in to the king, to the inner room. And the king was old, and Abishag the Shunammite was serving the king.

16 And Bathsheba bowed and knelt before the king. And the king said, What shall I do for you?

17 And she said to him, My master, you have sworn to your handmaid by YAHWEH your Elohim, saying, Surely your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.

18 And now, behold, Adonijah reigns. And now, my master O king, you have not known.

19 And he sacrifices oxen, and fatlings, and sheep in abundance, and has called all the king's sons, and Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the army. But he has not called to your servant Solomon.

20 And you, my master O king, the eyes of Israel are on you, to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my master the king after him.

21 And it will be, when my master the king lies with his fathers, my son Solomon and I, shall be offenders.

22 And, behold, she was speaking with the king, and Nathan the prophet came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, Behold, Nathan the prophet! And he came in before the king and bowed to the king, his nose to the earth.

24 And Nathan said, My master O king, have you said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne?

25 For he has gone down today and sacrificed oxen, and fatlings, and sheep in abundance, and has called all the king's sons, and the army commanders, and Abiathar the priest. And behold, they are eating and drinking before him, and they are saying, Let King Adonijah live!

26 But as for me, I, your servant, and for Zadok the priest, and for Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and for your servant Solomon, he has not called.

27 If this thing is to come about from my master the king, then you have not caused your servant to know who shall sit on the throne of my master the king after him.

28 And King David replied and said, Call Bathsheba for me. And she came in before the king, and stood before the king.

29 And the king swore and said, As YAHWEH lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all distress,

30 surely as I swore to you by YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, saying, Surely your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place; surely so I will do this day.

31 And Bathsheba bowed her face to the earth, even bowing to the king, and said, Let my master King David live forever.

32 And King David said, Call Zadok the priest for me and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came in before the king.

33 And the king said to them, Take with you the servants of your master, and you shall cause my son Solomon to ride on my mule, and cause him to go down to Gihon.

34 And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet shall anoint him there as king over Israel. And you shall blow with the ram's horn and shout, Let King Solomon live!

35 And you shall come up after him, and let him come and sit on my throne, for he shall reign in my place. For I have appointed him ruler over Israel, and over Judah.

36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, Amen! So says YAHWEH the Elohim of my master the king.

37 As YAHWEH has been with my master the king, so shall He be with Solomon, and shall make his throne greater than the throne of my master King David.

38 And Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites went out and caused Solomon to ride on King David's mule, and caused him to go to Gihon.

39 And Zadok the priest took the horn of oil out of the Tabernacle and anointed Solomon. And they blew with the ram's horn, and all the people shouted, Let King Solomon live!

40 And all the people came up after him. And the people were piping with pipes, and rejoicing with great joy. And the earth was torn with their sound.

41 And Adonijah heard, and all those invited, who were with him. And they stopped eating. And Joab heard the sound of the ram's horn, and said, What is this noise roaring from the city?

42 And he was still speaking, and, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came in. And Adonijah said, Come in, for you are a mighty man and bear good news.
43 And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Truly our master, King David, has caused Solomon to reign.
44 And the king sent Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet with him, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites.
And they caused him to ride on the king's mule.
45 And they anointed him, Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet, as king in Gihon. And they have come up from there rejoicing. And the city was roaring. It is the noise that you heard.
46 And also Solomon has sat on the throne of the kingdom.
47 And also the king's servants have come in to bless our master, King David, saying, Your Elohim shall make the name of Solomon better than your name, and his throne greater than your throne. And the king bowed himself on the bed.
48 And also the king has said,
Blessed is YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel who has today given one sitting on my throne, and my eyes seeing it.
49 And they trembled and rose up, all those who were invited by Adonijah, and left, each to his way.
50 And Adonijah was afraid because of Solomon, and he rose up and went and lay hold on the horns of the altar.
51 And it was told to Solomon, saying, Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon. And, behold, he has laid hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let King Solomon swear to me as of today that he will not put his servant to death by the sword.
52 And Solomon said, If he becomes a son of virtue, not a hair of his head shall fall to the earth. But if evil is found in him, then he shall die.
53 And King Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came in and bowed to King Solomon. And Solomon said to him,
Go to your house.

Chapter 2

1 And the days of David drew near for him to die. And he commanded his son Solomon, saying, 2 I am going in the way of all the earth. And you be strong, and be a man,
3 and keep the charge of YAHWEH your Elohim, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commands, and His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the Torah of Moses,
so that you may do wisely all that you do, and there wherever you may turn,
4 so that YAHWEH may establish His Word which He spoke to me, saying, If your sons take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth, with all their heart, and with all their soul, saying, There shall not be a man to you cut off from the throne of Israel.[1] 5 And also, you know that which Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, that which he did to the two army commanders of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa the son of Jether, that he murdered them, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war on his girdle, on his loins and in his sandals on his feet; 6 and you shall do according to your wisdom, and shall not let his gray hair go down to Sheol in peace.
7 You shall be merciful to the sons of

1 The promise to have a son be on the throne of Israel for eternity was conditional on obedience to the Torah. Solomon failed, but Yahshua, the eternal king did not fail, Math 5:17.

Barzillai the Gileadite, and they shall be among those eating at your table, for so they drew near to me when I fled from the face of your brother Absalom.

8 And, behold, with you is Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite of Bahurim. And he cursed me with a grievous cursing in the day I went to Mahanaim. And he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by YAHWEH, saying, I will not cause you to die by the sword.

9 And now, do not acquit him, for you are a wise man, and you know that which you shall do to him and shall bring his old age down with blood to Sheol.

10 And David lay with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11 And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years. He reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty three years in Jerusalem.

12 And Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his kingdom was firmly established.

13 And Adonijah the son of Haggith came in to Bathsheba, the mother of Solomon. And she said, Do you come in peace? And he said, Peace.

14 And he said, may a word be to you and to me? And she said, Speak.

15 And he said, You know that the kingdom was mine, and all Israel had set their faces toward me to reign. Yet the kingdom has been turned around and is my brother's, because it was his from YAHWEH.

16 And now I am asking one petition of you. Do not turn away your face. And she said to him, Speak.

17 And he said, Please speak to King Solomon, for he will not turn away your face, that he give to me Abishag the Shunammite for a wife.

18 And Bathsheba said, Well! I will speak to the king for you.

19 And Bathsheba came in to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed to her, and sat on his throne, and placed a throne for the king's mother. And she sat at his right hand.

20 And she said, I ask one small petition of you. Do not turn away my face. And the king said to her, Ask, my mother, for I will not turn away your face.

21 And she said, let Abishag the Shunammite be given to your brother Adonijah for a wife.

22 And King Solomon answered and said to his mother, And why are you asking Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Will you also ask the kingdom for him, for he is my older brother; yea, for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

23 And King Solomon swore by YAHWEH, saying, So shall Elohim do to me, and so shall He do more, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his life.

24 And now, as YAHWEH lives, who has established me and caused me to sit on the throne of my father David, and who has made a house for me, as He spoke, surely today Adonijah shall be made to die.

25 And King Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he fell on him, and he died.

26 And the king said to Abiathar the priest, Go to Anathoth, to your fields. For you are a man of death. But I will not at this time cause you to die, because you have borne the ark of Adonai YAHWEH before my father David, and because you were afflicted in all the things with which my father was afflicted.

27 And Solomon drove Abiathar from being priest to YAHWEH, to fulfill the Word of YAHWEH which He spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 And the report came to Joab, for Joab had turned aside after Adonijah though he did not turn aside after Absalom. And Joab fled to the tent of YAHWEH, and lay hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told to King Solomon that Joab had fled to the tabernacle of YAHWEH, and, behold, he was by the altar. And Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall on him.

30 And Benaiah came into the tabernacle of YAHWEH and said to him, So says the king, Come out. And he said, No, but I will die here. And Benaiah brought back word to the king, saying, So says Joab. Yea, so he answered me.

31 And the king said to him, Do as he has said, and fall on him, and bury him, and turn aside the innocent blood which Joab shed, off of me and off of my father's house.

32 And YAHWEH shall turn back his blood on his own head, who has fallen on two men more righteous and better than he, and murdered them with the sword; and my father David not knowing: Abner the son of Ner, the commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, the commander of the army of Judah.

33 Yea, He shall turn back their blood on the head of Joab, and on the head of his seed forever. And as for David and for his seed, and for his house, and for his throne, there shall be peace forever from YAHWEH.

34 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and fell on him, and caused him to die. And he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army. And the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar.

36 And the king sent and called Shimei and said to him, Build a house for yourself in Jerusalem and live there, and do not go out from there anywhere.

37 And it shall be, in the day you go out and cross the torrent Kidron, surely you shall know that surely you shall die; your blood shall be on your head.

38 And Shimei said to the king, The word is good. As my master the king has spoken, so your servant shall do. And Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.[1]

39 And it happened at the end of three years, two of Shimei's servants fled to Achish the son of Maachah, the king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, your servants are in Gath.

40 And Shimei rose up and saddled his donkey and went to Gath, to Achish, to seek his servants. And Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told to Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had returned.

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, Did I not cause you to swear by YAHWEH, and testify to you, saying, In the day you go out, and you have gone anywhere, surely you shall know that certainly you shall die. And you said to me, The word I have heard is good.

43 And why have you not kept the oath of YAHWEH, and the charge that I commanded you?

44 And the king said to Shimei, You shall know all the evil that your heart has known, that which you did to my father David. Now YAHWEH has turned back your evil on your head.

45 And King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before YAHWEH forever.

46 And the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and fell on him, and he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

Chapter 3

1 And Solomon made an alliance by marriage with Pharaoh the king of Egypt. And he took Pharaoh's daughter and brought her into the city of David, until he finished building his own house, and the house of YAHWEH, and the wall of Jerusalem all around.

2 Only, the people were sacrificing in high places, for a house for the name of YAHWEH had not been built until those days.

3 And Solomon loved YAHWEH, to walk in the statutes of his father David. Only, he was sacrificing in high places and burning incense.

4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for it was the great high place. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

5 YAHWEH appeared to Solomon in Gibeon in a dream of the night. And Elohim said, Ask. What shall I give to you?

6 And Solomon said, You have done great kindness to Your servant, my father David, as he walked before You in truth and in righteousness and in uprightness of heart with You. And You have kept for him this great kindness, and have given to him a son sitting on his throne, as today.

7 And now, O YAHWEH my Elohim, You have caused Your servant to reign instead of my father David. And I am but a young boy; I do not know to go out and to come in.

8 And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a numerous people that cannot be numbered or counted for multitude.

9 Therefore, give to Your servant an understanding heart, to judge Your people to discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this, Your great people?

10 And the word was good in the eyes of YAHWEH, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 And Elohim said to him, Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself many days, nor asked riches for yourself, nor asked the life of your enemies, and have asked for discernment for yourself, to understand judgment,

12 behold, I have done according to your words. Behold, I have given to you a wise and understanding heart, so that there was none like you before you, and after you none shall rise up like you.

13 And also, I have given you that which you have not asked, both riches and honor, that there shall not be a man like you among the kings all your days.

14 And if you walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commands, as your father David walked, then I will prolong your days.

15 And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream! And he came into Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH, and offered burnt offerings, and made peace offerings. And he made a banquet for all his servants.

16 Then two women, harlots, came in to the king and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, O my master, this woman and I were living in one house. And I gave birth, with her in the house.
18 And it happened on the third day after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth. And we were together; no stranger was with us in the house, only we two in the house.
19 And the son of this woman died at night, because she laid on it.
20 And she rose up in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me and laid it in her bosom; and your handmaid was asleep. And she laid her dead son in my bosom.
21 And I rose up in the morning to suckle my son; and behold! It was dead. And I looked at it in the morning; and, behold, it was not my son whom I had borne.
22 And the other woman said, No, but my son is the living, and your son the dead. And this one said, No, but your son is dead, and my son the living. And they spoke before the king.
23 And the king said, This one says, This is my son, the living one, and your son the dead. And that one says, No, but your son is the dead, and my son the living.
24 And the king said, Bring a sword to me. And they brought the sword before the king.
25 And the king said, Divide the living child into two, and give the half to the one, and the half to the other.
26 And the woman whose son was the living one said to the king (for her womb yearned over her son) yea, she said, O my master, give her the living child, and do not at all put it to death. And this one said, Let it be neither yours or mine, divide it.
27 And the king answered and said, Give to her the living child, and do not put it to death at all; she is its mother.
28 And all Israel heard of the judgment that the king had judged, and feared from the face of the king; for they saw that the wisdom of Elohim was in him to do judgment.

Chapter 4

1 And King Solomon was king over all Israel.
2 And these were the rulers he had: Azariah the son of Zadok was the priest.
3 Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha, were the scribes, Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud the recorder.
4 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the army. And Zadok and Abiathar were priests.
5 And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers. And Zabud the son of Nathan was the minister and friend of the king.
6 And Ahishar was over the household. And Adoniram the son of Abda was over the forced labor.
7 And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel. And they sustained the king and his household. Each man had one month in the year to provide.
8 And these are their names: Ben-Hur in the hills of Ephraim;
9 the son of Dekar in Makaz and in Shaalbim, and Beth-Shemesh, and Elon-Beth-Hanan;
10 the son of Hesed, in Aruboth (to him was Sochoh and all the land of Hepher);
11 the son of Abinadab in all the height of Dor, Taphath the daughter of Solomon was his wife;
12 Baana the son of Ahilud to whom was Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-Shean (which is by Zartanah below Jezreel, from Beth-Shean to Abel-Meholah, to the place that is beyond Jokneam);
13 the son of Geber in Ramoth-Gilead (to him were the towns of Jair, Manasseh's son, which are in Gilead; and to him was the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and copper bars);

14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo had Mahanaim;
15 Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon for a wife;
16 Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth;
17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah was in Issachar;
18 Shimei the son of Elah was in Benjamin;
19 Geber the son of Uri was in the land of Gilead, the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan; and there was one officer who was in the land;
20 Judah and Israel were many, as the sand by the sea in multitude; eating and drinking and rejoicing.
21 And Solomon reigned over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. They brought presents and served Solomon all the days of his life.
22 And Solomon's food for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and sixty measures of meal,
23 ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and a hundred sheep, besides deer and gazelles, and roebucks, and fattened fowl.
24 For he had the rule over all on this side of the River, from Tiphsah even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side of the River. And he had peace on all sides from around him.
25 And Judah and Israel lived securely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree; from Dan even to Beer-Sheba all the days of Solomon[1]. (Mic 4:4, Zech 3:10)
26 And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.
27 And those officers provided food for King Solomon, and for all who came to King Solomon's table, a man in his month: they did not lack anything.
28 They also brought barley and straw for the horses and mules to the place where the officers were, each man according to his charge.
29 And Elohim gave Solomon exceeding great wisdom and understanding, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the lip of the sea.
30 And Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the sons of the east, and than all the wisdom of Egypt.
31 For he was wiser than all men; wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his name was in all nations all around.
32 And he spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs were a thousand and five.
33 And he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree in Lebanon, even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall. He spoke also of beasts and of birds, and of creeping things, and of fish.
34 And there came some from all the people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

Chapter 5

1 And Hiram the king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, for he heard that they had anointed him king instead of his father. For Hiram was a lover of David all his days.

2 And Solomon sent to Hiram,
saying,
3 You knew my father David, that he was not able to build a house to the name of YAHWEH his Elohim because of the warfare that was around him, until YAHWEH had put them under the soles of his feet.
4 And now YAHWEH my Elohim has given me rest all around; there is no adversary nor evil happening.
5 And, behold, I am commanding a house to be built to the name of YAHWEH my Elohim, as YAHWEH spoke to my father David, saying, Your son, whom I will appoint in your place on your throne, he shall build the house for My name.[1] (1 Chron 3:5) 6 And now, command and they shall cut down for me cedars out of Lebanon. And my servants shall be with your servants. And I will give you hire for your servants according to all that you say. For you know that there is not a man among us knowing to cut timber like the Sidonians.
7 And it happened, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced exceedingly, and said, Blessed be YAHWEH today, who has given to David a wise son over this great people.
8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have heard that for which you have sent to me. I will do all your will as to cedar wood and fir wood.
9 My servants will bring it down from Lebanon to the sea. And I will make floats for them in the sea to go to the place that you tell me. And I will spread them out there; and you shall take them up. And you shall do what I desire, to give food for my house.
10 And Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees, all his desire.
11 And Solomon gave to Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat, food for his house; and twenty measures of beaten oil. This Solomon gave to Hiram year by year.
12 And YAHWEH gave wisdom to Solomon, as He had spoken to him.
And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they cut a covenant, the two of them.
13 And King Solomon caused a labor force to go out of all Israel; and the labor force was thirty thousand men.
14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses. They were a month in Lebanon, two months in their own house. And Adoniram was over the labor force.
15 And Solomon had seventy thousand bearing burdens, and eighty thousand hewing in the mountain; 16 besides the rulers of Solomon's overseers who were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, those ruling over the people who were working in the work.
17 And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, quarried stones, to lay the foundation of the house.
18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders, and the Giblites, cut and prepared the wood and the stones to build the house.

Chapter 6

1 And it happened in the four hundred and eightieth year from the going out of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt, in the fourth year, in the month of Zif, it is the second month, in the reigning of Solomon over Israel he built the house for YAHWEH.

[1] The Hebrew word for "appoint" is "Nathan" and this is a prophecy showing that the Messiah will be born from the lineage of Nathan NOT Solomon, Luk 3:31.

2 As to the house that King Solomon built for YAHWEH, its length was sixty cubits, its breadth twenty, and its height thirty cubits.

3 As to the porch on the front of the temple of the house, its length was twenty cubits according to the breadth of the house; its breadth on the front of the house was ten cubits.

4 And he made windows of narrowing frames for the house.

5 And he built a side-structure on the wall of the house all around, against the walls of the house all around; to the Sanctuary and to the Inner Sanctuary. And he made side sections all around.

6 The lowest side-structure was five cubits wide; and the middle was six cubits wide; and the third story side-structure was seven cubits wide. For outside of the house he made narrowed ledges for the house all around, so as not to lay hold of the walls of the house.

7 And when it was being built, the house was built of finished stone made ready beforehand. And there was not heard in the house a hammer or an axe, or any iron tool, while it was being built.

8 The door for the middle side section was in the right side of the house. And they went up with winding stairs into the middle one; and from the middle one into the third.

9 And he built the house and finished it, and covered the house with beams and rows of cedars.

10 And he built the side-stories on all the house, each five cubits in height; and they held to the house with cedar wood.

11 And the Word of YAHWEH came to Solomon, saying,

12 As to this house that you are building, if you shall walk in My statutes, and shall do My judgments, and shall do all My commandments, to walk in them, then I shall lift up My word with you which I spoke to your father David.

13 And I shall dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel, and shall not forsake My people Israel.[1]

14 And Solomon built the house, and finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the house inside with beams of cedar, from the floor of the house to the walls of the ceiling. He overlaid the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with boards of fir.

16 And he built the twenty cubits on the back part of the house with boards of cedar, from the floor to the walls. And he built for it inside, for the sanctuary, for the Holy of Holies.[2]

17 And the house was forty cubits, that is, the Sanctuary before it.

18 And the cedar for the house inside was with carvings of gourds and flowers spread out; the whole was cedar; not a stone was seen.

19 And he prepared the Holy of Holies in the midst of the house, to place the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH there.

20 And the face of the Holy of Holies was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in height. And he overlaid it with refined gold, and overlaid the altar with cedar.

21 And Solomon overlaid the house inside with refined gold, and caused it to pass over in chains of gold to the face of the Holy of Holies, and overlaid it with gold.

[1] Verses 12-13- Shows that the covenant of YHWH was conditional on obedience to the Torah and still is today. In any biblical covenant the three elements that never change are the people being Israel, the land always being the land of Israel, and the Torah as a protective agent to safeguard the people in the covenant.

22 And he overlaid all of the house with gold, until all of the house was complete. And he overlaid with gold all of the altar that belonged to the Holy of Holies.
23 And inside the Holy of Holies he made two cherubs of the olive tree;
their height was ten cubits. (Rev 11:4) 24 And one wing of the cherub was five cubits; and the second wing of the cherub five cubits; ten cubits from the ends of its wings even to the ends of its wings.
25 And the second cherub was ten cubits; one measure and one form to the two cherubs.
26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the second cherub.
27 And he set the cherubs in the middle of the inner house. And they spread out the wings of the cherubs.
And the wing of the one touched the wall; and the wing of the second touched the second wall; and their wings were to the middle of the house, coming wing against wing.
28 And he overlaid the cherubs with gold.
29 And all the walls of the house all around he carved with figures of cherubs and palm trees, and spread out flowers inside and out.
30 And he overlaid the floor of the house with gold, inside and out.
31 As to the entrance of the Holy of Holies, he made doors of the olive tree; the lintel, the side posts, being a fifty part.
32 And the two doors were of olive wood. And he carved on them carvings of cherubs, and palm trees, and spread out flowers; and he overlaid them with gold. And he caused the gold to go down on the cherubs and on the palm trees.
33 So also he made side posts for the entrance of the sanctuary from the olive tree, a fourth part.
34 And the two doors were of fir wood; the two sides of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.
35 And he carved cherubs, and palm trees, and spread out flowers, and overlaid them with gold fitted on the carved work.
36 And he built the inner court, three rows of hewn stone, and a row of cedar beams.
37 The house of YAHWEH was founded in the fourth year, in the month of Zif.
38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, the eighth month, the house was finished as to all its parts, and according to all its plans. So he built it for seven years.

Chapter 7

1 And Solomon built his own house for thirteen years. And he finished all his house.
2 And he built the house of the forest of Lebanon. Its length was a hundred cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits on four rows of cedar pillars, and cedar beams on the pillars.
3 And it was covered with cedar above, on the sides that lay on forty-five pillars, fifteen in a row.
4 And windows were in three rows, and light was against light in three rows.
5 And all the doors and the side posts were square along with the windows; and the front of a window was against a window in three rows.
6 And he made the porch of the pillars, its length fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits. And the porch was before them; and the pillars and the roof were over them.

7 And he made the porch of the throne where he judged, the porch of judgment. And it was covered with cedar from floor to floor.

8 As to his house where he lived, the other court was within the porch, as this work was. Solomon also made a house for Pharaoh's daughter whom he had taken, like this porch.

9 And these were of costly stones according to the measures of hewn stones, sawed with a saw, inside and out, even from the foundation to the coping, and from the outside, to the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, huge stones, stones of ten cubits and stones of eight cubits.

11 And above were costly stones, according to the measures of hewn stone and cedar.

12 And the great court all around was three rows of hewn stone and a row of cedar beams, even for the inner court of the house of YAHWEH, and for the porch of the house.

13 And King Solomon sent and brought Hiram out of Tyre.

14 He was the son of a widow woman of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father a man of Tyre, an engraver in copper. And he was filled with the wisdom and understanding and knowledge to do all work in copper. And he came to King Solomon and did all his work.

15 And he formed the two pillars of copper; eighteen cubits was the height of the one pillar, and a line of twelve cubits went around the second pillar.

16 And he made two capitals to put on the tops of the pillars, cast in copper; five cubits was the height of the one capital, and five cubits the height of the second capital.

17 He made gratings of network with twisted threads of chain-work, for the capitals on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital.

18 And he made the pillars. And two rows were all around on the one grating, to cover the capitals on the top with the pomegranates. And so he did for the other capital.

19 And the capitals on the top of the pillars in the porch were lily-work, four cubits.

20 And the capitals were on the two pillars, also above, over against the belly which was by the grating; and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows all around on the other capital.

21 And he set up the pillars in the porch of the sanctuary. And he set up the right pillar and called its name Jachin. And he set up the left pillar, and called its name of Boaz.

22 And on the top of the pillars was lily-work. So the work of the pillars was finished.

23 And he made a cast sea of ten cubits from brim to brim; it was round all about. And its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits went around it all about.

24 And gourds were below its brim all around, going around it, ten by the cubit, circling the sea all around; the gourds were cast in two rows when it was cast.

25 It stood on twelve oxen: Three facing the north, and three facing the west, and three facing the south, and three facing the east. And the sea was above on them; and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 And its thickness was one hand wide; and its brim was fashioned like the brim of a cup, with a bud of a lily. It contained two thousand baths.

27 And he made ten bases of copper; four cubits the length of the one base, and four cubits the breadth, and three cubits the height.

28 And this was the work of the base: They had borders; and there were borders between the stays.

29 And on the borders that were between the stays were lions, oxen, and cherubs. And a pedestal was on the stays above. And below the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work.

30 And the one base had four wheels of copper, and axles of copper. And its four feet were supports to them; under the basin were cast supports with wreaths at each side.

31 And its mouth within and above the capital was a cubit; and its mouth was round like the work of a pedestal, a cubit and half of the cubit. And also on its mouth were carvings; and their borders were square, not round.

32 And the four wheels were under the borders. And the hands of the wheels were in the base; and the height of the one wheel was a cubit and a half.

33 And the work of the wheels was as the work of a chariot wheel, their hands, and their rims, and their spokes, and their hubs were all cast.

34 And there were four supports to the four corners of one base; the supports were of the base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was a round compass of half a cubit high. And on the top of the base its sides and its borders were from it.

36 And he engraved cherubs, lions, and palm trees on the plates of its sides, and on its borders, as the place of each, with wreaths all around.

37 So he made the ten bases, one casting, one measure, one form was to them all.

38 And he made ten basins of copper; the one basin contained forty baths. The one basin was four cubits, one basin on the one base, to the ten bases.

39 And he put the five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house. And he put the sea on the right side of the house, eastward, across from the south.

40 And Hiram made the basins, and the shovels, and the bowls. And Hiram finished all the work that he made for King Solomon for the house of YAHWEH:

41 Two pillars, and two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; and the two gratings to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars;

42 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two gratings, two rows of pomegranates for each grating, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars;

43 and ten bases, and ten basins on the bases;

44 and one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea;

45 and the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. And all these vessels which Hiram made for King Solomon for the house of YAHWEH were of burnished copper.

46 The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the thick soil of the ground between Succoth and Zarethan.

47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed because they were very, very many; the weight of the copper was not searched out.

48 And Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of YAHWEH: The altar of gold; and the table of gold on which was the Bread of the Presence;

49 and the menorahs, five on the right and five on the left before the Holy of Holies, of refined gold, and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs were of gold;

50 and the basins, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and the firepans were of refined gold; and the hinges for the doors of the inner house, for the Holy of Holies, for the doors of the house of the sanctuary were of gold.
51 And it was complete, all the work that King Solomon had made for the house of YAHWEH. And Solomon brought in the sanctified things of his father David: The silver, and the gold, and the vessels he had put into the treasuries of the house of YAHWEH.

Chapter 8

1 Then Solomon gathered the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the sons of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH out of the city of David, which is Zion.
2 And all the men of Israel were gathered to King Solomon, in the month of Ethanim, at the feast, which is the seventh month.
3 And all the elders of Israel came in, and the priests lifted up the ark,
4 and brought up the ark of YAHWEH, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those the priests and the Levites brought.
5 And King Solomon and all the company of Israel who had assembled to him were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.
6 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of YAHWEH to its place, to the holy place of the house, into the Holy of Holies, to the place of the wings of the cherubs;
7 for the cherubs were spreading forth their wings to the place of the ark, and the cherubs covered over the ark, and over its staves from above.
8 And they lengthened the staves, and the heads of the staves were seen from the holy place on the front of the Holy of Holies, and were not seen outside; and they are there to this day.
9 Nothing was in the ark, only the two tables of stone which Moses put there in Horeb, when YAHWEH cut a covenant with the sons of Israel as they went out of the land of Egypt.
10 And it happened as the priests went out from the Holy of Holies, that the cloud filled the house of YAHWEH, 11 and the priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of YAHWEH had filled the house of YAHWEH.
12 And Solomon said, YAHWEH has said that He would dwell in the thick darkness.
13 Building I have built a house of loftiness for You, a settled place for You to abide in forever.
14 And the king turned around his face and blessed the whole assembly of Israel; and all the assembly of Israel was standing.
15 And he said, Blessed be YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel, who spoke by His mouth with my father David, and by his hand has fulfilled it, saying,
16 From the day that I brought out My people, even Israel, from Egypt, I have not chosen a city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house for My name to be there; but I chose David to be over My people Israel.
17 And it was in the heart of my father David to build a house for the name of YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel;
18 and YAHWEH said to my father David, Because it has been in your heart to build a house for My name, you have done well that it has been in your heart;

19 only, you shall not build the house, but your son who shall come out from your loins, he shall build the house for My name.
20 And YAHWEH has lifted up His Word that He spoke; for I have risen up instead of my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, as YAHWEH spoke, and have built the house for the name of YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel;
21 and set there a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of YAHWEH which He made with our fathers when He brought them out from the land of Egypt.
22 And Solomon stood before the altar of YAHWEH, across from the assembly of Israel, and spread his hands toward the heavens;(1 Tim 2:8)
23 and said, YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel, there is no Elohim like You in the heavens above or on the earth beneath; who keeps covenant and mercy with Your servants that walk before You with all their heart;
24 who have kept for Your servant
David, my father, that which You spoke to him; yea, You spoke with Your mouth, and with Your hand have fulfilled it as it is this day.
25 And now, YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel, keep for Your servant David, my father, that which You spoke to him, saying, There shall not be cut off from you a man from before Me, sitting on the throne of Israel; only, if your sons watch their way, to walk before Me as you have walked before Me.
26 And now, O Elohim of Israel, let it be established, I beseech You, Your Word which You have spoken to Your servant, my father David.
27 But will Elohim dwell in truth on the earth? Behold, the heavens and Heaven of the heavens cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have built!
28 Yet You have turned toward the prayer of Your servant, and to his supplication, O YAHWEH my Elohim, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant is praying before You today;
29 for Your eyes are open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which You have said, My name shall be there; to listen to the prayer which Your servant prays toward this place.
30 And You shall listen to the supplication of Your servant, and of Your people Israel when they shall pray toward this place; yea, You shall listen in Your dwelling-place, in Heaven; and You shall hear and shall forgive.
31 If any man sins against his neighbor, and an oath be exacted of him to cause him to swear, and the oath has come before Your altar in this house,
32 then You shall hear in Heaven, and shall act, and shall judge Your servants, to declare the wicked to be wicked, to put his way on his head, and to declare the righteous to be righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.
33 When Your people Israel are stricken before the enemy, when they sin against You, if they turn again to You, and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication to You in this house;
34 then You shall hear in Heaven,
and shall forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and shall bring them back to the land that You gave to their fathers.
35 When the heavens are restrained, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against You, and they have prayed toward this place, and confess Your name, and have turned from their sin because You have afflicted them,

36 then You shall hear in Heaven, and shall forgive the sin of Your servants, and of Your people Israel, for You shall teach them the good way in which they shall go, and shall give rain on Your land which You have given to Your people for an inheritance.[1]

37 When there is famine in the land; when there is pestilence, blasting, mildew, locusts; when there is the stripping locust; when its enemy has distressed it in the land in its gates; any plague, any sickness,

38 any prayer, any supplication that shall come from any man of all of Your people Israel, who shall each know the plague of his own heart, and shall spread his hands toward this house,

39 then You shall hear in Heaven Your dwelling place and shall forgive and shall act, and shall give to each according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You have known, You alone, the heart of all the sons of Adam),

40 so that they shall fear You all the days that they are living on the face of the land that You have given to our fathers.

41 And also, to the stranger who is not of Your people Israel, and has come from a land afar off for Your name's sake,

42 (for they shall hear of Your great name, and of Your strong hand, and of Your stretched out arm, and he shall have come in and prayed toward this house,)

43 You shall hear in Heaven, Your dwelling place, and shall do according to all that the stranger calls to You for, so that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name, to fear You like Your people Israel, and to know that Your name has been called on this house which I have built.[2]

44 If Your people shall go out to battle against its enemy, in the way that You have sent them, and they have prayed to YAHWEH the way of the city which You have chosen, and of the house which I have built for Your name,

45 then hear their prayer and their supplication in Heaven, and perform their cause.

46 When they sin against You (for there is not a man who does not sin) and You have been angry with them, and have given them up before an enemy, and they have been led away into captivity to the land of the enemy, far off or near;

47 and they have turned their heart back in the land where they have been taken captive, and have repented, and made supplication to You in the land of their captors, saying, We have sinned and done perversely; we have done wickedly;

48 and, they have turned back to You with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies who have taken them captive, and have prayed to You the way of their land which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your name,

1 Verse 29, 33, 36. The sanctuary of YHWH had to do with drawing close to Him through sacrificing animals, where in the NT it is through believe in His Son (Joh 4:21-24). This has nothing to do with the command of going up to Jerusalem at feast time to receive the reward for obedience throughout the year. Appearing in Jerusalem for the feast had to do with the blessing of obedience and bringing the harvest fruits for celebration.

2 Verses 41-43- YHWH also hears the voice of the stranger if he is pure-hearted and sincere.

49 then You shall hear their prayer and their supplication in Heaven Your dwelling place, and shall perform their cause, 50 and shall forgive Your people who have sinned against You, even all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You, and shall give them mercy before their captors, and they shall have mercy on them.
51 For they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out of Egypt, out of the midst of the furnace of iron;
52 for Your eyes shall be open to the supplication of Your servant, and to the supplication of Your people Israel, to listen to them in all that they call to You for;
53 for You have separated them to Yourself for an inheritance out of all the peoples of the earth, as You spoke by the hand of Your servant Moses when You brought out our fathers from Egypt, O Adonai YAHWEH.
(Amos 3:2, Deut 9:29)
54 And it happened as Solomon finished praying to YAHWEH all this prayer and supplication, he arose from before the altar of YAHWEH, from bending on his knees, and his hands spread out to Heaven; 55 and he stood and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, 56 Blessed be YAHWEH who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He has spoken;
not one word of all His good Word has fallen, which He spoke by the hand of His servant Moses.
57 YAHWEH our Elohim is with us as He has been with our fathers; He shall not forsake us or leave us, 58 to incline our heart to Himself, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments, and His statutes, and His judgments, which He commanded our fathers;
59 and these words of mine which I have prayed before YAHWEH be near to YAHWEH our Elohim by day and by night, to perform the cause of His servant, and the cause of His people Israel, the matter of each day in its
day;
60 for all the peoples of the earth know that YAHWEH, He is the Elohim; there is no other;
61 let your heart therefore be perfect with YAHWEH our Elohim, to walk in His statutes, and to keep His commandments, as at this day.
62 And the king and all Israel with him were offering a sacrifice before
YAHWEH;
63 and Solomon offered the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he had offered to YAHWEH: Twenty two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep; and the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of YAHWEH.
64 On that day the king sanctified the middle of the court that was before the house of YAHWEH, for he had made the burnt offering there, and the food offering, and the fat of the peace offerings; because the copper altar that was before YAHWEH was too small to contain the burnt offering, and the food offering, and the fat of
the peace offerings.
65 And at that time Solomon made a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath to the river of Egypt, before YAHWEH our Elohim, seven days and seven days, fourteen days.
66 On the eighth day he sent the people away, and they blessed the king, and went to their tents rejoicing and joyous of heart for all the good that YAHWEH had done to His servant David, and to His people Israel.

Chapter 9

1 And it happened, as Solomon finished building the house of YAHWEH, and the house of the king, and all the desire of Solomon that he delighted to do,
2 that YAHWEH appeared to Solomon a second time, as He appeared to him in Gibeon.
3 And YAHWEH said to him, I have heard your prayer and your supplication with which you have made supplication before Me; I have sanctified this house that you have built to put My name there forever; and My eyes and My heart shall be there forever.
4 And you, if you walk before me as your father David walked, in singleness of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you; you shall keep My statutes and My judgments;
5 then I shall lift up the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I spoke to your father David, saying, there shall not fail you a man on the throne of Israel.
6 If you at all turn back, you and your sons, from following me, and do not keep My commandments, My statutes which I have set before you, and you shall go and serve other gods
and bow yourselves to them, 7 then I shall cut off Israel from the face of the land that I have given to them, and the house that I have hallowed for My name I shall send away from My face, and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all peoples.
8 As to this house, which is high, everyone passing by it shall be astonished and shall hiss, and they shall say, Why has YAHWEH done this to this land and to this house?
9 And they shall say, Because they have forsaken YAHWEH their Elohim, who brought their fathers out from the land of Egypt, and they laid hold on other gods and bowed themselves to them and served them.
On account of this YAHWEH has brought in upon them all this evil.
10 And it happened, at the end of twenty years Solomon had built the two houses, the house of YAHWEH and the house of the king.
11 Hiram the king of Tyre had lifted Solomon with cedar trees and with fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire; then King Solomon gave to Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.
12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities that Solomon had given to him, and they were not right in his eyes.
13 And he said, What are these cities that you have given to me, my brother? And one called them the land of Cabul[1] to this day.
14 And Hiram sent to the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold.
15 And this is the reason of the labor force that King Solomon raised, to build the house of YAHWEH, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.
16 (Pharaoh the king of Egypt had gone up and had captured Gezer, and had burned it with fire. And he killed the Canaanites who lived in the city, and gave it as a dowry to his daughter,
the wife of Solomon.)
17 and Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-Horon the lower, 18 and Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land;
19 and all the store cities which

[1] Cabul- means good for nothing

Solomon had, and the cities for his chariots, and the cities of the horsemen, and the desire of Solomon that he desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 All the people that were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites who were not of the sons of Israel,

21 their sons left behind them in the land, whom the sons of Israel had not been able to exterminate, Solomon even caused to go on them a burden of forced labor to this day.

22 But Solomon did not give as a slave out of the sons of Israel, for they were the men of war, and his servants, and his rulers, and his commanders, and the commanders of his chariots, and his horsemen.

23 These were the commanders of the officers who were over the work of Solomon: Five hundred and fifty, those ruling among the people who were working in the work.

24 But the daughter of Pharaoh went up out of the city of David to her house that he built for her; then he built Millo.

25 And three times in a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar that he built to YAHWEH, and he burned incense on the altar before YAHWEH, and finished the house.

26 And King Solomon built a navy in Ezion-Geber, which is beside Eloth, on the lip of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.[1] (Deut 1:1, Ex 13:18)

27 And Hiram sent his servants in the navy, shipmen who knew the sea, with the servants of Solomon;

28 and they came to Ophir and took gold from there, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it in to King Solomon.

[1] This is at the Gulf of Aqaba.

Chapter 10

1 And the queen of Sheba[2] heard of the fame of Solomon as to the name of YAHWEH, and she came to test him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great company, camels bearing spices, and very much gold, and precious stones. And she came to Solomon and spoke with him all that had been in her heart.

3 And Solomon told her all her matters; there was not one thing hidden from the king that he did not declare to her.

4 And the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he built,

5 and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the standing of his ministers, and their clothing, and his cupbearers and his burnt offering that he offered in the house of YAHWEH; and there was no more spirit in her.

6 And she said to the king, The word that I heard in my land was true as to your matters and your wisdom.

7 And I did not believe the words until I had come and my eyes had seen; and behold, the half was not told to me. You have wisdom and prosperity exceeding the fame which I heard.

8 Oh the happiness of your men! Oh the happiness of your servants, these who stand before you continually, who hear your wisdom!

9 Blessed be YAHWEH your Elohim who delighted in you, putting your person on the throne of Israel, because YAHWEH loved Israel forever, therefore He appointed you king, to do judgment and righteousness.

[2] She was most likely from east of Arabia in Yemen.

10 And she gave to the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and very many spices, and precious stones; no spice like that came any more for abundance, that the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.
11 And also, the navy of Hiram that bore gold from Ophir brought in from Ophir almug trees, a great many, and precious stones;
12 and the king made the almug trees a support for the house of YAHWEH, and for the king's house, and harps and lyres for singers; no such almug trees have come, nor have there been seen such to this day.
13 And King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire that she asked, apart from that which he gave to her as a memorial of King Solomon. And she turned and went to her land, she and her servants.
14 And the weight of the gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty six talents of gold[1], 15 apart from the merchant men, and from the traffic of the traders, and from all the Arabian kings, and from the governors of the lands.
16 And King Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of gold went to one target;
17 and three hundred shields of beaten gold: Three minas of gold went to one shield; and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.
18 And the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with refined gold.
19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind; and stays were on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays;
20 and twelve lions were standing on the six steps, on this side and on that; there was not the like made in any kingdom.
21 And all the drinking vessels of King Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of refined gold; there was none of silver; it was not counted for anything in the days of Solomon;
22 For the king had a navy of Tarshish at sea with a navy of Hiram; once in three years the navy of Tarshish would come bearing gold, and silver, and ivory, and apes, and peacocks.
23 And King Solomon was greater than any of the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom;
24 and all the earth was seeking the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom that Elohim had put into his heart;
25 and they were each one bringing his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a year by year matter.
26 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen, and he had a thousand, four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; and he placed them in the cities of the chariots, and with the king in Jerusalem.
27 And the king made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as the sycamores that are in the Shefalah (low-country), for abundance.
28 And the horses that King Solomon had were brought from Egypt, and from Kue; the king's merchants received them from Kue at a price;
29 and a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria they brought them out by their means.

Chapter 11

1 And King Solomon loved many foreign women, even the daughter of Pharaoh, Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, Hittites;

2 of the nations which YAHWEH said to the sons of Israel, You shall not go in to them, and they shall not go in to you; they shall turn aside your heart after their elohim; Solomon clung to these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart.

4 And it happened, at the time Solomon was old, his wives turned away his heart after other elohims, and his heart was not perfect with YAHWEH his Elohim, like the heart of his father David.

5 And Solomon went after Ashtoreth, goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom, the abomination of the Ammonites;[1]

6 and Solomon did evil in the sight of YAHWEH, and did not go fully after YAHWEH like his father David.

7 Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the sons of Ammon;

8 and so he did for all his foreign wives, who burnt incense and sacrificed to their elohims.

9 And YAHWEH was angry with Solomon, for his heart had bent away from YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel who had appeared to him twice,

10 and had given a charge to him concerning this thing, not to go after other elohim; and he did not keep that which YAHWEH commanded.[2]

11 And YAHWEH said to Solomon, Because this has been done by you, and you have not kept My covenant and My statutes that I charged on you, I shall surely tear the kingdom from you and shall give it to your servant.

12 Only, I will not do it in your days, for the sake of your father David; I shall tear it out of your son's hand.

13 Only I will not tear away all the kingdom; I will give one tribe to your son for my servant David's sake, and for the sake of Jerusalem that I have chosen. (1 Kgs 11:32,36, 1Kgs 14:21)

14 And it happened, YAHWEH raised an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the seed of the king in Edom.

15 And it happened when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the ones who died, after he had stricken every male in Edom;

16 Joab and all Israel remained there six months until every male in Edom was cut off.

17 And Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; and Hadad was a little child.

18 And they rose up out of Midian and came to Paran, and they took men with them out of Paran and came into Egypt, to Pharaoh the king of Egypt. And he gave him a house and commanded bread for him, and gave land to him.

19 And Hadad found much favor in the eyes of Pharaoh, and he gave him a wife, the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.

1 Solomon worshiped false deities. Ashtoreth is the same goddess as "Istar" or "Easter".

2 Yahweh gave Solomon a great opportunity but it was conditional on his obedience and due to his failure the kingdom would be taken from him and divided 1 Chron 28:1-9.

20 And the sister of Tahpenes bore him a son, Genubath, and Tahpenes weaned him in Pharaoh's house among Pharaoh's sons.
21 And Hadad had heard in Egypt that David had slept with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army was dead. And Hadad said to Pharaoh, Send me away and I will go to my land.
22 And Pharaoh said to him, But what are you lacking with me, that, lo, you are seeking to go to your land?
And he said, Nothing. However, you shall certainly send me away.
23 And Elohim raised up an adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliadah, who fled from his master
Hadadezer the king of Zobah.
24 And he gathered men to himself, and was head of a troop when David killed them. And they went to Damascus and lived in it, and reigned in Damascus.
25 And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the evil that Hadad did; and he despised Israel and reigned over Syria.
26 And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zereda, a servant of Solomon (and his mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman) he also lifted up a hand against the king.
27 And this was the thing for which he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and closed up the breaks of the city of his father David.
28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty warrior. And Solomon saw the young man, that he was doing work.
And he appointed him to all the burden of the house of Joseph.
29 And at that time it happened that Jeroboam had gone out from Jerusalem, and Ahijah the Shilonite, the prophet, found him in the way.
And he covered himself with a new garment, and both of them were by themselves in a field.
30 And Ahijah laid hold on the new garment on him and tore it into twelve pieces.
31 And he said to Jeroboam, Take ten pieces for yourself. For so says YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel, Behold, I am tearing the kingdom from the hand of Solomon and giving to you the ten tribes.
32 And he shall have the one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel.
33 Because they have forsaken Me, and bow themselves to Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, to Chemosh the god of Moab, to Milcom the god of the sons of Ammon; and have not walked in My ways, to do the right in My eyes, and My statutes and My judgments, as his father David did.
34 But I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, but I will make him ruler all the days of his life, for My servant David's sake, whom I chose, because he kept My commandments and My statutes.
35 But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it to you, ten tribes.
36 And I will give one tribe to his son, that there may be a lamp to My servant David before Me all the days in Jerusalem, the city that I have chosen to Myself, to put My name there.
37 And I will take you, and you shall reign according to all that your soul desires, and shall be king over Israel.
38 And it shall be, if you shall hear all that I command you, and shall walk in My ways, and do that which is right in My eyes, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as My servant
David did, then I shall be with you and shall build a sure house for you, as I built for David, and shall give Israel to you.

39 And for this I will afflict the seed of David; but not forever.

40 And Solomon sought to put Jeroboam to death, and Jeroboam rose up and fled to Egypt, to Shishak the king of Egypt; and he was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 And the rest of the matters of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the Book of the Acts of Solomon?

42 And the days that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel were forty years;

43 and Solomon lay with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David; and his son Rehoboam reigned in his place.

Chapter 12

1 And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And it happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard (and he was still in Egypt where he had fled from the face of Solomon the king, and Jeroboam lived in Egypt)

3 that they sent and called for him; and they came, Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel, and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Your father made our yoke hard; and now you should lighten some of the hard service of your father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve you.

5 And he said to them, Go; yet in three days come back to me. And the people went.

6 And King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had been standing before the face of his father Solomon while he was alive, saying, How do you advise in order to answer this people?

7 And they spoke to him, saying, If you are servant to this people today, and will serve them, and answer them and speak to them good words, then they will be servants to you forever.

8 But he forsook the counsel of the elders which they advised him, and consulted with the young men who had grown up with him, who were standing before him.

9 And he said to them, What do you advise, and we shall answer the people who have spoken to me, saying, Lighten some of the yoke that your father put upon us?

10 And they spoke to him, the young men who had grown up with him, saying, So you shall say to this people who have spoken to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, and you make it light on us; so you shall speak to them, My little finger is thicker than the loins of my father,

11 and now my father laid a heavy yoke on you, and I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, and I will surely chastise you with scorpions.

12 And they came, Jeroboam and all the people, to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had spoken, saying, Come back to me on the third day.

13 And the king replied to the people harshly, and forsook the counsel of the elders which they advised him,

14 and spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I shall add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, and I will surely chastise you with scorpions.

15 And the king did not listen to the people, for the turn of events was from YAHWEH, in order to lift up His Word that YAHWEH spoke by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, and the people sent the king back word, saying, What portion do we have in David? Yea, there is no inheritance in the son of Jesse; to your tents, O Israel; now see to your house, O David! And Israel went to its tents. (1 Kgs 12:28) 17 As to the sons of Israel, those living in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 And King Rehoboam sent Adoram who was over the tribute, and all Israel threw stones at him, and he died. And King Rehoboam made haste to go up into a chariot to flee to Jerusalem.
19 And Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day.
20 And it happened when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, that they sent and called him to the company, and caused him to reign over all Israel; none followed after the house of David except the tribe of Judah only.
21 And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, and gathered all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen makers of war to fight with the house of Israel, to bring back the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, 22 then the Word of Elohim came to Shemaiah a man of Elohim, saying, 23 Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon the king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah, and Benjamin, and the rest of the people, saying, 24 So says YAHWEH, You shall not go up nor fight with your brothers the sons of Israel. Each turn back to his house, for this thing has been from Me. And they heard the Word of YAHWEH, and turned to go back, according to the Word of YAHWEH.
25 And Jeroboam built Shechem in the hills of Ephraim and lived in it, and went out from there and built Penuel.
26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now the kingdom shall turn back to the house of David;
27 if this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of YAHWEH at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people shall turn again to their master, to Rehoboam the king of Judah, and they will kill me and go again to Rehoboam the king of Judah.
28 And the king took counsel and made two calves of gold. And he said to them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Behold your gods, O Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt!
29 And he set the one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan.[1] 30 And this thing became a sin, for the people went before the one, to Dan.
31 And he made a house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of people, who were not of the sons of Levi.
32 And Jeroboam made a feast in the eighth month, in the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah; and he offered on the altar, so he did in Bethel, to sacrifice to the calves which he made; and he made stand in Bethel the priests of the high places that he made.
33 And he offered up on the altar that he made in Bethel, on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in [1] Verses 28-29- Jeroboam tried to prevent the Northern tribes from going back to Jerusalem and maybe turning on him. So he set 2 places of worship one at the southern border in Bethel and one at the northern border in Dan. He then went on to change the feast to the 8th month from the 7th month thinking it would be more convenient for those in the north as in northern Israel the harvest can be a little later than in the south. He thought this might appeal to the people who may rather have a later feast and be able to care for their harvest first.

the month that he devised out of his own heart; and he made a feast for the sons of Israel, and offered on the altar, to burn incense.[1]

Chapter 13

1 And, behold, a man of Elohim had come from Judah to Bethel, by the Word of YAHWEH, and Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense.
2 And he cried against the altar, by the Word of YAHWEH, and said, Altar! Altar! So says YAHWEH, Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, his name Josiah, and he shall sacrifice on you the priests of the high places who are burning incense on you, and they shall burn the bones of man on you.[2]
3 And on that day he gave a sign, saying, This is the sign that YAHWEH has spoken, Behold, the altar is torn, and the ashes that are on it poured out.
4 And it happened when the king heard the saying of the man of Elohim which he had cried against the altar in Bethel, Jereboam put out his hand from the altar, saying, Seize him. And his hand which he put out against him withered, and he was not able to bring it back to him.
5 And the altar was torn, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign that the man of Elohim had given by the Word of YAHWEH.
6 And the king answered and said to the man of Elohim, Please entreat the face of YAHWEH your Elohim, and pray for me, and my hand shall come back to me. And the man of Elohim entreated the face of YAHWEH, and the hand of the king came back to him, and it was as at the beginning.
7 And the king spoke to the man of Elohim, Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a gift.
8 And the man of Elohim said to the king, If you would give me the half of your house, I would not go in with you, nor will I eat bread, nor will I drink water in this place.
9 For so He commanded me by the Word of YAHWEH, saying, You shall not eat bread nor drink water, nor turn back in the way that you have come.
10 And he went on another way, and did not turn back in the way in which he came into Bethel.
11 And a certain aged prophet was living in Bethel, and his son came and told him all the deeds that the man of Elohim had done that day in Bethel, the words that he had spoken to the king; yea, they told them to their father.
12 And their father said to them, Where is this man, what way did he go? And his sons saw the way that the man of Elohim from Judah had gone.
13 And he said to his sons, Saddle the donkey for me. And they saddled the donkey for him, and he rode on it, 14 and went after the man of Elohim, and found him sitting under an oak tree. And he said to him, are you the man of Elohim who has come from Judah? And he said, I am. (Ps 108:8)
15 Then he said to him, Come home with me and eat bread.
16 And he said, I am not able to go back with you, and to go in with you,

[1] Yahweh's calendar is set in the heaven's (Gen 1:14) by the moon and the sun and stars. It is a grave sin to purposely change the set apart time of YHWH.

[2] This most amazing prophecy was fulfilled exactly according to the word of YAHWEH almost 300 years later, even naming the king Josiah who would fulfill it, 2 Kgs 23:15-16.

nor may I eat bread or drink water with you in this place;
17 for a word came to me by the Word of YAHWEH, You shall not eat bread nor drink water there; you shall not turn back to go in the way in which you came.
18 And he said to him, I also am a prophet like yourself, and a cherub spoke to me by the Word of YAHWEH, saying, Bring him back with you into your house, and he shall eat bread and water (he lied to him).[1]
19 And he turned back with him and ate bread in his house and drank water.
20 And it happened as they were sitting at the table, and a Word of YAHWEH came to the prophet who brought him back;
21 and he cried to the man of Elohim who came from Judah, saying, So says YAHWEH, Because you have resisted the mouth of YAHWEH, and have not kept the command that YAHWEH your Elohim charged you,
22 and turned back and ate bread and drank water in the place of which He said to you, You shall not eat bread nor drink water; your carcass shall not come to the burying place of your fathers.
23 And after he ate bread and after he drank, it happened that he saddled the donkey for him, for the prophet whom he had brought back.
24 And he left, and a lion found him in the way and killed him; and his carcass was thrown down in the way, and the donkey was standing near it, and the lion was standing near the carcass.
25 And behold, men were passing by and saw the carcass thrown in the way, and the lion standing near the carcass; and they came and spoke of it in the city in which the old prophet lived.
26 And the prophet who brought him back out of the way heard and said, It is the man of Elohim who provoked the mouth of YAHWEH, and YAHWEH gave him to the lion, and it tore him apart and killed him, according to the Word of YAHWEH that He spoke to him.
27 And he spoke to his sons, saying, Saddle the donkey for me. And they saddled.
28 And he went and found the carcass thrown down in the way, and the donkey and the lion were standing near the carcass; the lion had not eaten the carcass nor had he torn apart the donkey.
29 And the prophet took up the carcass of the man of Elohim and placed it on the donkey, and brought it back; and the old prophet came into the city to mourn and to bury him.
30 And he placed his carcass in his own grave, and they mourned for him, O my brother!
31 And it happened, after he buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, At my death, you shall bury me in the burying place in which the man of Elohim is buried; place my bones beside his bones;
32 for the word that he cried by the Word of YAHWEH concerning the altar in Bethel, and concerning all the houses of the high places that are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely occur.
33 After this thing Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but turned again and made from the lowest of the people priests of high places; he who desired, he consecrated him, and he

[1] It is not fully apparent why the man would have lied to the prophet of YHWH, but the prophet should have realized that YHWH is not double-minded and once given a direct command YHWH wouldn't have changed His mind (Ja 1:8, Mal 3:6).

became one of the priests of the high places.[1]

34 And in this thing is the sin of the house of Jeroboam, even to blot it from off the face of the earth. [2]

Chapter 14

1 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam was sick.

2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, Please rise up and disguise yourself, that you may not be known to be the wife of Jeroboam. And you shall go to Shiloh. Behold, Ahijah the prophet is there. He spoke to me of being king over this people.

3 And you shall take ten loaves in your hand, and biscuits, and a flask of honey, and come to him. He will tell you what shall become of the boy.

4 And Jeroboam's wife did so, and rose up and went to Shiloh and entered the house of Ahijah. And Ahijah was not able to see, for his eyes were set because of his age.

5 And YAHWEH said to Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to ask a thing of you for her son, for he is sick. You shall say this and this to her, and it shall be when she comes in, she will act as a foreigner.

6 And it happened when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in the door, he said, Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why are you acting as a foreigner? And I am sent to you with a hard thing.

7 Go, say to Jeroboam, So says YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel, Because I have exalted you from among the people, and have appointed you leader over My people Israel;

8 and have torn the kingdom from the house of David, and have given it to you, and you have not been as My servant David who kept My commandments, and who walked after Me with all his heart, to do only that which is right in My eyes;

9 and you did evil above all who have been before you, and went and made for yourself other Elohim and cast images to provoke Me to anger; and you have cast Me behind your back

10 therefore, behold, I am bringing evil to the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam him who urinates against the wall, bound and free in Israel; and will sweep away the rest of the house of Jeroboam as a man sweeps away the dung, until it is all gone.

11 The dogs shall eat those of Jeroboam who die in the city. And the birds of the heavens shall eat those who die in a field; for YAHWEH has spoken.

12 And you, rise up, go to your house. When your feet enter the city, the boy shall die.

13 And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him, for only this one of Jeroboam shall come to the grave because there has been found in him a good thing toward YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam.

14 And YAHWEH shall raise up a king over Israel for Himself, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam this day. And what? Even now!

1 YHWH consecrated the tribe of Levi to be the priests, as He also consecrates His ministers in the New Covenant through the laying on of hands and a very strict criteria (1 Tim 3:1-6). Someone cannot consecrate himself to be a priest or minister of YHWH and it is wickedness for one to try to do so and fully outside of judicial order and will only bring chaos and confusion.

2 This was a great sin in the eyes of YHWH. When someone takes the role of leadership over others in Yahweh's congregation there is a great responsibility to follow YHWH's judicial order and grave consequences not to (1 Kgs 15:28-30).

15 And YAHWEH shall strike Israel as the reed waves in the water, and shall pluck up Israel from off this good land that He gave to their fathers. And He shall scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their Asherahs, provoking YAHWEH to anger.

16 And He shall give up Israel because of the sins of Jeroboam that he sinned, and that he caused Israel to sin.

17 And Jeroboam's wife rose up and left, and came to Tirzah. She came in to the threshold of the house, and the boy died.

18 And they buried him, and all Israel mourned for him, according to the Word of YAHWEH that He spoke by the hand of his servant Ahijah the prophet.

19 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he fought, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel.

20 And the days that Jeroboam reigned were twenty two years. And he lay with his fathers, and his son Nadab reigned in his place.

21 And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty one years old when he began to reign. And he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which YAHWEH chose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. (2 Chron 12:13)

22 And Judah did evil in the sight of YAHWEH, and they provoked Him to jealousy above all their fathers did by their sins that they had sinned.

23 And they also built high places for themselves, and standing pillars, and Asherahs on every high hill, and under every green tree.

24 And also the sodomite was in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations that YAHWEH dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

25 And it happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak the king of Egypt went up against Jerusalem.

26 And he took the treasures of the house of YAHWEH, and the treasures of the king's house; yea, he took all. And he took all the golden shields that Solomon had made.

27 And King Rehoboam made in their place copper shields. And he gave them into the hand of the commander of the runners, who kept the door of the king's house.

28 And it happened, when the king went to the house of YAHWEH, the runners bore them, and brought them back to the room of the runners.

29 And the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?

30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

31 And Rehoboam lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. And his son Abijam reigned in his place.

Chapter 15

1 And in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam reigned over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Maachah the daughter of Abishalom.

3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, those that he did before him, and his heart was not perfect with YAHWEH his Elohim, as was the heart of his father David.

4 But for David's sake YAHWEH his Elohim gave to him a lamp in Jerusalem, to raise up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem.
5 For David did that which is right in the eyes of YAHWEH, and did not turn aside from all that He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.
6 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.
7 And the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.
8 And Abijam lay with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And his son Asa reigned in his place.
9 And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam the king of Israel Asa reigned over Judah.
10 And he reigned forty one years in Jerusalem, and his grandmother's name was Maachah the daughter of Abishalom.
11 And Asa did that which was right in the eyes of YAHWEH, like his father David.
12 And he removed the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers made.
13 And he also removed his mother Maachah from being queen, in that she made a horrid thing for Asherah.
And Asa cut down her horrid thing and burned it by the torrent Kidron.
14 But they did not remove the high places. Only the heart of Asa was perfect with YAHWEH all the days.
15 And he brought in the things which his father had dedicated and his holy things, into the house of YAHWEH, silver and gold and vessels.
16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.
17 And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, to keep anyone from going out and coming in to Asa the king of Judah.
18 And Asa took all the silver and gold that remained in the treasures of the house of YAHWEH, and the treasures of the king's house, and gave them into his servants' hand; and King Asa sent them to Ben-Hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, the king of Syria, who lived at Damascus,
saying,
19 A treaty between you and me, between my father and your father!
Behold, I have sent you a present of silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha the king of Israel, that he go up from me.
20 And Ben-Hadad listened to King Asa, and sent his army commanders against the cities of Israel. And he struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-Beth-Maachah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.
21 And it happened, when Baasha heard, he ceased building Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.
22 And King Asa proclaimed to all Judah (no one was exempt) and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and its timber with which Baasha had built. And King Asa built with it Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.
23 And the rest of all the acts of Asa,
and all his might, and all that he did,
and the cities he built, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah? Only, at the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.
24 And Asa lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David. And his son Jehoshaphat reigned in his place.

25 And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa the king of Judah. And he reigned over Israel two years.
26 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.
27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him And Baasha struck him at Gibbethon which belonged to the Philistines. For Nadab and all Israel had laid siege to Gibbethon.
28 And in the third year of Asa the king of Judah, Baasha[1] killed him, and reigned in his place.
29 And it happened when he reigned, he struck all the house of Jeroboam; he did not leave Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him according to the saying of YAHWEH which He spoke by His servant Ahijah the man of Shiloh;
30 because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and that he caused Israel to sin by his provocation with which he provoked YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel to anger. (1Kgs 14:6-11)
31 And the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?
32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha the king of Israel all their days.
33 In the third year of Asa the king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah reigned over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty four years.
34 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin that he caused Israel to sin.

Chapter 16

1 And the Word of YAHWEH came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,
2 Since I have raised you up out of the dust, and made you ruler over My people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and caused My people Israel to sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins;
3 behold, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house; and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
4 He who dies of Baasha in the city, the dogs shall eat; and whoever of his dies in the field, the birds of the heavens shall eat.
5 And the rest of the acts of Baasha, and that which he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?
6 And Baasha lay with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah. And his son Elah reigned in his place.
7 And also by the hand of Jehu the son of Hanani the prophet, the Word of YAHWEH came against Baasha, and against his house, and against all the evil that he did in the eyes of YAHWEH to provoke Him to anger with the work of his hands, to be like the house of Jeroboam, and because he killed him.
8 In the twenty sixth year of Asa the king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years.
9 And his servant Zimri, the captain of half of the chariots, conspired against him. And he was in Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the house of Tirzah.
10 And Zimri came in and struck

[1] Baasha was from Issachar.

him, and killed him in the twenty seventh year of Asa the king of Judah, and reigned in his place.
11 And it happened, when he began to reign, as he sat on his throne, that he struck all the house of Baasha; he did not leave him one who urinated against the wall, nor of his kinsmen, nor of his friends.
12 And Zimri destroyed the whole house of Baasha, according to the Word of YAHWEH that He spoke as to Baasha, by the hand of Jehu the prophet;
13 concerning all the sins of Baasha and the sins of his son Elah that they sinned, and that they caused Israel to sin, to provoke to anger YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel with their vanities.
14 And the rest of the acts of Elah,
and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?
15 In the twenty seventh year of Asa the king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. And the people were camped against Gibbethon, which was the Philistines'.
16 And the people who were encamped heard, saying, Zimri has conspired and has struck the king. And all Israel made Omri the commander of the army to rule over Israel on that day in the camp.
17 And Omri went up, and all Israel with him from Gibbethon, and they laid siege to Tirzah.
18 And it happened when Zimri saw that the city would be captured he came into a high place of the king and burned the house of the king with fire over him, and died, 19 for his sins that he sinned, to do the evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, to walk in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin that he did, to cause Israel to sin.
20 And the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his conspiracy that he made, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?
21 Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: Half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath to cause him to reign, and the other half after Omri.
22 And the people that followed Omri were stronger than the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath;
and Tibni died, and Omri reigned.
23 In the thirty first year of Asa the king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel, twelve years. He reigned six years in Tirzah;
24 then he bought the hill Samaria from Shemer with two talents of silver, and built the hill, and called the name of the city that he built by the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill, that is Samaria.
25 And Omri did that which was evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, and did evil above all who were before him, 26 and walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin that he caused Israel to sin, to provoke to anger YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel with their vanities.
27 And the rest of the acts of Omri that he did, and his might that he attained, are they not written in the book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?
28 And Omri lay down with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria.
And his son Ahab reigned in his place.
29 And in the thirty eighth year of Asa the king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel. And Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty two years;
30 and Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH above all who were before him.
31 And it happened as if it were a light thing, that he walked in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took a wife, Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, the king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and bowed himself to it.

32 And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.
33 And Ahab made an Asherah, and Ahab did still more to provoke to anger YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel than all the kings of Israel that were before him.
34 In his days Hiel the man of Bethel built Jericho; he laid its foundation in his first-born Abiram, and he set up its doors in Segub his youngest, according to the Word of YAHWEH that He spoke by the hand of Yahoshua the son of Nun.

Chapter 17

1 And Elijah the Tishbite, of the sojourners of Gilead, said to Ahab, As YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall be no dew nor rain these years, except according to my word.
2 And the Word of YAHWEH came
to him, saying,
3 Go away from here; and you shall turn eastward and shall hide by the torrent Cherith, that is before Jordan.
4 And it shall be, you shall drink of the torrent; and I shall command the ravens to feed you there.
5 And he went and did according to the Word of YAHWEH; for he went and lived by the torrent Cherith, that is before Jordan.
6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the torrent.
7 And it happened after a while, that the torrent dried up, because there was no rain in the land.
8 And the Word of YAHWEH came
to him, saying,
9 Rise up, go to Zarephath that belongs to Sidon; and you shall live there. Behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain you.
10 And he rose up and went to Zarephath, and came in to the entrance of the city; and, behold, a widow woman was gathering sticks.
And he called to her and said, Please bring to me a little water in a vessel, and I shall drink.
11 And she went to bring it. And he called to her and said, Please bring me a bit of bread in your hand.
12 And she said, As YAHWEH your Elohim lives, I do not have a cake, only a handful of meal in a pitcher, and a little oil in a jar; and behold, I am gathering two sticks and will go in and prepare for myself and for my son; and we shall eat it, and die.
13 And Elijah said to her, Do not fear, go, do according to your word, only first make me a little cake of it, and bring to me and afterward prepare for you and for your son.
14 For so says YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel, The pitcher of meal shall not be consumed, and the jar of oil shall not fail, until the day that YAHWEH sends rain on the land.
15 And she went and did according to the word of Elijah, and she ate, she and he and her household, many days; 16 the pitcher of meal was not consumed, and the jar of oil did not fail, according to the Word of YAHWEH that He spoke by the hand of Elijah. (Deut 29:5-6)
17 And it happened after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house became sick; and his illness was very severe until he had no breath left to him.

18 And she said to Elijah, What have I to do with you, O man of Elohim? Have you come to me to cause my iniquity to be remembered, and to cause my son to die?

19 And he said to her, Give me your son; and he took him out of her bosom, and caused him to go up into the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed.

20 And he cried to YAHWEH and said, YAHWEH my Elohim, have You also brought evil on the widow with whom I am staying by slaying her son?

21 And he stretched himself on the child three times, and called to YAHWEH and said, O YAHWEH my Elohim, I pray, let the soul of this boy return to him.

22 And YAHWEH listened to the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the boy returned to him, and he lived.

23 And Elijah took the boy and brought him down from the upper room of the house, and gave him to his mother; and Elijah said, See your son lives![1]

24 And the woman said to Elijah, Now I know this, that you are a man of Elohim, and the Word of YAHWEH that is in your mouth is truth.

Chapter 18

1 And it happened after many days the Word of YAHWEH came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, show yourself to Ahab, and I will give rain on the face of the ground.

2 And Elijah went to appear to Ahab. And the famine in Samaria was severe.

3 And Ahab called to Obadiah, who was over the house (and Obadiah greatly feared YAHWEH;

4 and it happened, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of YAHWEH, that Obadiah had taken a hundred prophets and had hidden them, fifty men in a cave, and had fed them with bread and water)

5 and Ahab said to Obadiah, Go through the land to all the fountains of water, and to all the torrents; perhaps we may find grass and keep alive horse and mule, and will not cut off any of the livestock.

6 And they divided the land to themselves, to pass over into it; Ahab went in one way by himself, and Obadiah went in another way by himself.

7 And Obadiah was in the highway; and behold, Elijah came to meet him. And he recognized him, and he fell on his face, and said, Are you this one, my master Elijah?

8 And he said to him, I am; Go, say to your master, Behold, Elijah!

9 And he said, What have I sinned, that you are giving your servant into the hand of Ahab to kill me?

10 As YAHWEH your Elohim lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent to seek you; and when they said, He is not here, then he caused the kingdom and the nation to swear that it did not find you.

11 And now, you are saying, Go, say to your master, Behold, Elijah.

12 And it shall be, I will go away from you, and the Spirit of YAHWEH will lift you up, where I do not know, and I will come to tell Ahab, and he will not find you, and he will kill me. And your servant has feared YAHWEH from my youth.[2]

13 Was it not told to my master that which I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of YAHWEH, that I hid a hundred men of the prophets, fifty by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now you are saying, Go, say to your master, Behold, Elijah, and he will kill me!

15 And Elijah said, As YAHWEH of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely today I will be seen by him.

16 And Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him: And Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 And it happened when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, Are you this one, the disturber of Israel?

18 And he answered, I have not disturbed Israel, but you and the house of your father, in that you have forsaken the commandments of YAHWEH, and you have gone after the Baals.

19 And now send, gather all Israel to me, to Mount Carmel and four hundred and fifty of the prophets of Baal, and four hundred of the prophets of the Asherah, who eat at the table of Jezebel.

20 And Ahab sent among all the sons of Israel and gathered the prophets to Mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came near all the people and said, Until when are you limping over two opinions? If YAHWEH is Elohim, follow Him; and if Baal, follow him. But the people did not answer him a word.[1]

22 Then Elijah said to the people, I, I am the only one of who remains a prophet of YAHWEH; but the prophets of Baal are four hundred and fifty men.

23 Then let them give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and place it on the wood, and place no fire. And I, I will prepare the other bull and will put it on the wood, and I will not place fire.

24 And you shall call on the name of your Elohim; and I, I will call on the name of YAHWEH; and it shall be, the Elohim who answers by fire, he is the Elohim. And all the people answered and said, The word is good.

25 And Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Choose the one bull for yourself, and prepare first, for you are many; and you call on the name of your Elohim, but place no fire.

26 And they took the bull that was given to them, and prepared, and called on the name of Baal from the morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, answer us! And there was no sound, and no one was answering; and they hopped about the altar that had been made.

27 And it happened at noon, that Elijah taunted them and said, Call with a loud voice, for he is a Elohim; for he is meditating, or he is relieving himself, or on a journey; it may be he is asleep and must be awakened.

28 And they called with a loud voice, and cut themselves, according to their custom, with swords and with spears until blood gushed out on them.[2]

29 And it happened as noon passed by, that they prophesied madly until the offering up of the offering; and no sound came, and no one was answering, and no one was paying attention.

30 And Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me. And all the people came near to him; and he healed the altar of YAHWEH that had been broken down.

1 A striking challenge by Elijah to the lukewarm people. It would be interesting to see what Elijah would say to people today who read their bibles but call Yahweh by the names of "god" and "lord"; names of false pagan deities.

2 This was a pagan ritual of self-mutilation and strictly forbidden in the Torah, Lev 19:28, Deut 14:1.

31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the Word of YAHWEH came, saying, Israel shall be your name.

32 And he built an altar with the stones in the name of YAHWEH[1], and made a trench as large as two seahs of seed [2]in space around the altar.

33 And he arranged the wood, and cut the bull in pieces, and placed it on the wood, and said, Fill four water jars of water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood.

34 And he said, Do it twice; and they did it twice; and he said, Do it a third time; and they did it a third time.

35 And the water went around the altar, and also he filled the trench with water.

36 And it happened at the offering of the sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, O YAHWEH, the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known today that You are Elohim in Israel, and I am Your servant, that by Your Word I have done all these things.

37 Answer me, O YAHWEH, answer me; and this people shall know that You are YAHWEH Elohim; and You shall turn their hearts back again.[3]

38 And fire fell from YAHWEH and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and the water that was in the trench it was licked up.

39 And all the people saw, and fell on their faces, and said, YAHWEH, He is the Elohim; YAHWEH, He is the Elohim![4]

40 And Elijah said to them, Seize the prophets of Baal; do not let a man of them escape. And they caught them, and Elijah brought them down to the torrent of the Kishon and killed them there.

41 And Elijah said to Ahab, Go up, eat and drink, because of the sound of abundance of rain.

42 And Ahab went up to eat, and to drink; and Elijah went up to the top of Carmel, and he stretched himself out on the earth, and he put his face between his knees;

43 and said to his young man, Now go up, look closely to the way of the sea. And he went up and looked closely, and said, There is nothing; and he said, Go back seven times.

44 And it happened at the seventh time, he said, Behold, a little cloud like the hand of a man is coming up out of the sea. And he said, Go up and say to Ahab, Bind up and go down, that the rain may not stop you.

45 And until this and this, it happened that the heavens became black with thick clouds and wind, and the rain was heavy; and Ahab rode and went to Jezreel;

46 and the hand of YAHWEH was on Elijah, and he girded up his loins and ran before Ahab until you come to enter Jezreel.[5]

Chapter 19

1 And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah did, and all, that he killed all the prophets by the sword.

2 And Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, So let the gods do, and more so, if at this time tomorrow I will

[1] The altar was arranged in the Hebrew letters of the name of YHWH to show which Elohim was the only true Elohim.

[2] This was about 15 liters

[3] It was part of the job of Elijah to turn the people's heart back to YAHWEH, the only true Elohim, (Mal 4:5-6).

[4] Elijah won the victory for YAHWEH.

not cause your life to be as the life of one of them.
3 And he saw, and rose up and went for his life, and came to Beer-Sheba of Judah, and left his young man there;[1] 4 and he himself went into the wilderness a day's journey, and came and sat under one broom tree. [2]And he begged for his life, that he might die, and said, Enough, now, O YAHWEH; take my life, for I am no better than my fathers.
5 And he lay down and slept under a certain broom tree; and behold, a Messenger from YAHWEH touched him and said to him, Get up, eat!
6 And he looked, and behold, at his head was a cake on burning stones, and a jar of water; and he ate and drank, and turned and lay down.
7 And the Messenger of YAHWEH returned a second time, and touched him, and said, Get up, eat, for the way is too great for you.
8 And he rose up and ate and drank, and went in the power of that food forty days and forty nights to the mount of The Elohim, Horeb.[3] 9 And he came there to the cave[4], and lodged there; and behold, the Word of YAHWEH came to him, and said to him, What are you doing here,
Elijah?[5]
10 And he said, zealously, I have been zealous for YAHWEH Elohim of Hosts, for the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant; they have thrown down Your altars, and they have killed Your prophets with the sword, and I am left, I alone, and they seek to take my life.
11 And he said, Go out and stand on the mountain before YAHWEH. And, behold, YAHWEH passed by, and a great and strong wind tearing the mountains and breaking the rocks in bits before YAHWEH! YAHWEH was not in the wind. And after the wind was an earthquake, but YAHWEH was not in the earthquake.
12 And after the earthquake was a fire, but YAHWEH was not in the fire; and after the fire came a voice which was a small whisper.[6] 13 And it happened when Elijah heard, he wrapped his face in his robe and went out and stood at the cave opening; and, behold, a voice came to him, and it said, What are you doing here, Elijah?[7] (Ex 34:30-33)
14 And he said, zealously, I have been zealous for YAHWEH, Elohim of Hosts for the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant; they have thrown down Your altars, and they have slain Your prophets by the sword; and I, I alone, am left; and they seek to take my life.
15 And YAHWEH said to him, Go,

1 It is quite striking that after just having such great courage to fight and defeat 450 priests of Baal that Elijah would be so afraid of the woman Jezebel.

2 This was a desert shrub that could grow up to 10 feet tall.

3 Mount Horeb was an alternate name for Mount Sinai, Ex 3:1.

4 Apparently, this was the same cave that Moses was in when YHWH showed him His backside, Ex 33:12-23.

5 It is evident by this question that YHWH did not call for Elijah but that he came on his own misguided instructions.

6 It is hard to hear the voice of YHWH when there is clutter in one's life, as one must listen very intently to hear a small still voice.

7 A second time the word of YHWH asked what Elijah was doing there as he just defeated the priests of Baal and the people were on his side chanting "Yahweh is Elohim", (1 Kgs 19:39). At this most pivotal moment when the people now needed Elijah's guidance in how to properly worship YHWH, he had ran away from his responsibility and was sulking in a sympathy party.

return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus, and you shall go in and anoint Hazael as king over Syria; 16 and you shall anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha the son of Shaphat, of Abel-Meholah, as prophet in your
place.[1]
17 And it shall be, he who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall kill; and he who escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill.
18 And I have left in Israel seven thousand, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him.[2] 19 And he left there and found Elisha the son of Shaphat; and he was plowing; twelve pairs were before him, and he was with the twelfth. And Elijah passed over to him, and threw his robe upon him.
20 And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you. And he said to him, Go back; for what have I done to you?
21 And he returned from following him, and took the pair of oxen, and sacrificed them, and boiled their flesh with the yoke of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and went after Elijah and ministered to him.

Chapter 20

1 And Ben-Hadad the king of Syria gathered all his army together; and there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots; and he went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it.
2 And he sent messengers to Ahab the king of Israel, to the city, and said to him, So says Ben-Hadad, 3 Your silver and your gold are mine, and your wives and your sons, the best, are mine.
4 And the king of Israel answered and said, According to your word, my master, O king, I am yours, and all that I have.
5 And the messengers came again and said, So says Ben-Hadad, saying, Surely I sent to you, saying, Your silver and your gold and your wives and your sons you shall give to me;
6 I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house, and your servants' houses; and it shall be that whatever is pleasing in your eyes, they will put it in their hand and take it away.
7 And the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Please note, and see the evil this one is seeking, for he sent to me for my wives, and for my sons, and for my silver, and for my gold, and I did not withhold from him.
8 And all the elders and all the people said to him, Do not listen nor consent.
9 And he said to the messengers of Ben-Hadad, Say to my master the king, All that you sent for to your servant at the first, I will do; but this thing I am not able to do; and the messengers went and took word back to him.
10 And Ben-Hadad sent to him, and

[1] Verses 14-16- Due to Elijah shirking his responsibility he lost his position as prophet to Elisha. A stark warning that when Yahweh gives someone a job they should be thankful and grateful and work as hard as possible to accomplish what Yahweh wants them to do.

[2] Many times a prideful person will think that they are the only one serving YHWH, when in reality YHWH always has others to replace someone who is not fit for their position. This should be quite humbling.

said, So shall the Elohim do to me and more also if the dust of Samaria shall be enough for handfuls for all the people that follow me.

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Do not let him that girds on his armor boast himself,, like one who loosens his armor.

12 And it happened when this word was heard, and he was drinking, he and the kings, in the booths, that he said to his servants, Set in order; and they set in order against the city.

13 And behold, a certain prophet came near to Ahab the king of Israel, and said, So says YAHWEH, Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold I am going to give it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am YAHWEH.

14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, So says YAHWEH, by the young men of the rulers of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall begin the battle? And he answered, You.

15 Then he called up the young men of the rulers of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two; and after them he called up all the people, even all the sons of Israel, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon, and Ben-Hadad was drinking himself drunk in the booths, he and the kings, the thirty two kings helping him.

17 And the young men of the rulers of the provinces went out at first; and Ben-Hadad sent, and they told him, saying, Men have come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, If they have come out for peace, seize them alive; and if they have come to battle, seize them alive.

19 And these went out of the city, the young men of the rulers of the provinces, and the army which followed them.

20 And each struck his man, and Syria fled, and Israel pursued them; and Ben-Hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse, also the horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went out and struck the horses, and the chariots, and struck the Syrians with a great blow.

22 And the prophet came to the king of Israel and said to him, Go, make yourself strong, and look and see what you do; for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against you.

23 And the king of Syria's servants said to him, Their Elohim is a Elohim of the hills; on account of this they were stronger than us; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely, we shall be stronger than them,

24 And do this thing: Take away the kings, each out of his place, and set commanders in their place.

25 And number to yourself an army like the army that was lost from you, even, horse for horse and chariot for chariot; and we shall fight with them in the plain. Are we not stronger than them? And he listened to their voice and did so.

26 And it happened at the turn of the year, Ben-Hadad called up the Syrians, and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

27 And the sons of Israel were called up, and were supplied. And they went to meet them. And the sons of Israel camped before them, like two flocks of goats. And the Syrians filled the land.

28 And a man of Elohim came near to the king of Israel and said, So says YAHWEH, Because the Syrians have said, YAHWEH is Elohim of the hills and not Elohim of the valleys, therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am YAHWEH.

29 And they pitched, these against those, seven days. And it happened in the seventh day, the battle came up.

And the sons of Israel struck Syria, a hundred thousand footmen in one day.
30 And those remaining fled to Aphek, to the city. And the wall fell on twenty seven thousand of those left.
And Ben-Hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner room.
31 And his servants said to him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let us put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes on our heads, and we shall go to the king of Israel. It may be he will keep alive your life.
32 And they girded sackcloth on their loins, and ropes on their heads.
And they came in to the king of Israel and said, Your servant Ben-Hadad has said, Please let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? He is my brother.
33 And the men keenly observed, and quickly caught it from him, and said, Your brother, Ben-Hadad. And he said, Go, bring him. And Ben-Hadad came out to him. And he took him up on the chariot.
34 And he said to him, The cities that my father took from your father, I give back. And you shall make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria. Then, I will let you go with a covenant. And he cut a covenant with him and sent him away.
35 And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor, By the Word of YAHWEH, please strike me. And the man refused to strike
him.
36 And he said to him, Because you have not listened to the voice of YAHWEH, behold, you shall go from me, and a lion shall kill you. And he left him, and a lion found him and killed him.
37 And he found another man and said, Please strike me. And the man struck him, striking and wounding.
38 And the prophet went and stood for the king on the highway, and disguised himself with ashes on his eyes.
39 And as the king passed by, it happened that he cried to the king, and said, Your servant went out into the middle of the battle, and behold, a man turned aside and brought a man to me, and said, Keep this man. If he is at all missing, then your life shall be for his life; or you shall weigh out a talent of silver.
40 And it happened, your servant was working here and there, and he was not there. And the king of Israel said to him, Your judgment is right.
You have decided it.
41 And he hurried and took the ashes from his eyes. And the king of Israel saw him, that he was of the prophets.
42 And he said to him, So says
YAHWEH, Because you have sent away the man I had devoted from your hand, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.
43 And the king of Israel went to his house sullen and angry, and came to Samaria.

Chapter 21

1 And it happened after these things,
Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel, close by the palace of Ahab
the king of Samaria.
2 And Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, Give me your vineyard, and it shall be a garden of green herbs for me, for it is near my house. And I will give to you in its place a better vineyard than it. If it is good in your eyes, I will give silver to you, the price of this one.
3 And Naboth said to Ahab, Far be it from me, by YAHWEH, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you.

4 And Ahab came into his house sullen and angry over the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken. For he had said, I will not give the inheritance of my fathers to you. And he lay on his bed and turned away his face, and would not eat food.
5 And his wife Jezebel came in to him, and said to him, Why is your spirit sullen that you are not eating food?
6 And he said to her, Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, Give me your vineyard for silver, or if you desire, I will give you a vineyard in its place. And he said, I will not give you my vineyard.
7 And his wife Jezebel said to him,
Do you now rule over Israel? Rise up, eat food and let your heart be good. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.
8 And she wrote letters in the name of Ahab, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles of his city, dwelling with Naboth.
9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth
at the head of the people.
10 And set two men, sons of worthlessness, across from him; and they shall testify of him, saying, You have cursed Elohim and the king. And they shall bring him out and stone him; and he shall die.
11 And the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, as was written in the letters that she sent to
them.
12 They proclaimed a fast, and made Naboth to sit at the head of the people.
13 And two men, sons of worthlessness, came in and sat across from him. And the men of worthlessness testified of Naboth before the people, even saying, Naboth has cursed Elohim and the king. And they took him out to the outside of the city, and stoned him with stones. And he died.
14 And they sent to Jezebel, saying,
Naboth has been stoned and is dead.
15 And it happened when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned, and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, Rise up, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, that he refused to give to you for silver. For Naboth is not alive, but dead.
16 And it happened, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab rose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.
17 And the Word of YAHWEH came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 18 Rise up, Go down to meet Ahab
the king of Israel, who is in Samaria.
Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to possess it.
19 And you shall speak to him, saying, So says YAHWEH, Have you murdered, and also taken possession?
And you shall speak to him, saying, So says YAHWEH, In the place where the dogs lick the blood of Naboth, so the dogs shall lick your blood, even yours.
20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Have you found me, O my enemy? And he said, I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do that which is evil in the eyes of YAHWEH.
21 Behold, I shall bring evil on you, and shall consume those after you, and cut off to Ahab him who urinates against a wall, both bond and free in Israel.
22 And I shall give up your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha

the son of Ahijah, because of the provocation with which you have provoked to anger, and have caused Israel to sin.

23 And also YAHWEH has spoken of Jezebel, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.

24 He who dies of Ahab in the city, the dogs shall eat. And the birds of the heaven shall eat him who dies in a field.

25 Surely, none has been like Ahab, who sold himself to do that which was evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, whom his wife Jezebel incited.

26 And he did abominably, to go after idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom YAHWEH expelled from before the sons of Israel.

27 And it happened, when Ahab heard these words, he tore his garments, and put sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

28 And the Word of YAHWEH came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

29 Have you seen that Ahab has been humbled before Me? Because he was humbled before Me, I will not bring the evil in his days. I will bring the evil on his house in the days of his son.

Chapter 22

1 And they continued three years; there was no war between Syria and Israel.

2 And it happened in the third year, Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

3 And the king of Israel said to his servants, Have you known that Ramoth-Gilead is ours? And we remain still from taking it from the king of Syria's hand.

4 And he said to Jehoshaphat, Will you go to battle with me, to Ramoth-Gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as you, my people as your people; my horses as your horses.

5 And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Please inquire at the Word of YAHWEH today.

6 And the king of Israel gathered the prophets, about four hundred men, and said to them, Shall I go to battle against Ramoth-Gilead, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up, that YAHWEH may give it into the hand of the king.

7 And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of YAHWEH besides, that we might inquire of him?

8 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Yet one man, to seek YAHWEH by him. But I hate him, for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil, Micaiah the son of Imlah. And Jehoshaphat said, let not the king say so.

9 And the king of Israel called to a certain eunuch and said, Cause Micaiah the son of Imlah to hurry here.

10 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah each was sitting on his throne having put on their robes, in a threshing-floor in the entrance of the gate of Samaria. And all the prophets prophesied before them.

11 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made horns of iron for himself. And he said, So says YAHWEH, With these you shall push the Syrians until you have consumed them.

12 And all the prophets were prophesying so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-Gilead, and prosper. For YAHWEH shall give it into the king's hand.

13 And the messenger that had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying,

Behold now, the words of the prophets with one mouth are good to the king. Please let your word be as the word of one of them, and speak good. (Is 30:10)

14 And Micaiah said, As YAHWEH lives, Surely that which YAHWEH says to me, that I will speak.

15 And he came in to the king. And the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go to battle to Ramoth-Gilead, or shall we forbear? And he said to him, Go up, and prosper, and YAHWEH shall give it into the king's hand.

16 And the king said to him, How many times have I adjured you that you shall speak nothing to me but truth in the name of YAHWEH?

17 And he said, I have seen all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep that have no shepherd. And YAHWEH said, These have no masters; they shall each return to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not say to you, He will not prophesy good of me, but evil?

19 And he said, Therefore, hear the Word of YAHWEH: I saw YAHWEH sitting on His throne, and all the host of Heaven were standing by Him, on His right and on His left.

20 And YAHWEH said, Who shall entice Ahab, and he shall go up and fall in Ramoth-Gilead? And this one said this, and this one said that.

21 And a spirit came forth and stood before YAHWEH, and said, I surely will entice him.

22 And YAHWEH said to him, By what means? And he said, I will go out and shall be a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all his prophets. And He said, You shall entice him, and also you are able. Go out and do so.

23 And now, behold, YAHWEH has put a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all these prophets of yours; and YAHWEH has spoken evil as to you!

24 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Where did the Spirit of YAHWEH pass over from me to speak with you?

25 And Micaiah said, Behold, You shall see on that day when you go into the innermost room to be hidden.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the ruler of the city, and to Joash the king's son,

27 and say, So says the king, Put this one in the prison house, and cause him to eat the bread of oppression, and the water of oppression, until I come in peace.

28 And Micaiah said, If you at all return in peace, YAHWEH has not spoken by me. And he said, Hear, O people, all of them.

29 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-Gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself and enter into the battle. But you put on your robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle.

31 And the king of Syria commanded the thirty two captains of the chariots, saying, You shall not fight with small or great, but with the king of Israel.

32 And it happened when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, Surely he is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight with him. And Jehoshaphat cried out.

33 And it happened when the captains of the chariots saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from following him.

34 And a man drew a bow in his simplicity, and he struck the king of Israel between the joints and the breastplate. And he said to his charioteer, Turn your hand and take me out from the host, for I have been wounded.

35 And on that day the battle went on, and the king was caused to stand up in the chariot against Syria. And he died in the evening, and the blood of the wound poured out into the middle of the chariot.
36 And the cry passed through the camp when the sun went, saying, Each to his city, and each to his land.
37 And the king died, and came to Samaria. And they buried the king in Samaria.
38 And they rinsed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood when they had washed the armor, according to the Word of YAHWEH that He spoke.
39 And the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the house of ivory that he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?
40 And Ahab lay with his fathers.
And his son Ahaziah reigned in his place.
41 And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa reigned over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab the king of Israel.
42 He was a son of thirty five years when he began to reign. And he reigned twenty five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.
43 And he walked in all the ways of his father Asa. He did not turn aside from it, doing right in the eyes of YAHWEH. But the high places were not taken away; the people offered and burned incense yet in the high places.
44 And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.
45 And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed, and how he warred, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?
46 And the rest of the sodomites which remained in the days of his father Asa he consumed out of the land.
47 No king was in Edom; a deputy was king.
48 Jehoshaphat had ten ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold. But they did not go, for the ships were broken at Ezion -Geber.
49 Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with your servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat was not willing.
50 And Jehoshaphat lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David.
And his son Jehoram reigned in his place.
51 Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel.
52 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.
53 For he served Baal, and bowed to it, and provoked to anger YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel, according to all his father had done.

Book of 2 Kings

Chapter 1

1 And Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.
2 And Ahaziah fell through the lattice-work in his upper room in Samaria, and was sick. And he sent messengers and said to them, Go, ask of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron if I will recover from this sickness.
3 And the Messenger of YAHWEH spoke to Elijah the Tishbite, Rise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, Is it because there is not an Elohim in Israel that you are going to ask of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron?
4 And so YAHWEH says this, You shall not come down from that bed on which you have gone up, but dying you shall die. And Elijah departed.
5 And the messengers returned to him. And he said to them, What is this,
that you have turned back?
6 And they said to him, A man came up to meet us, and said to us, Go, return to the king who sent you. And you shall say to him, So says YAHWEH, Is it because there is not an Elohim in Israel that you are sending to ask of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron? Therefore, you shall not come down from the bed on which you have gone up, for surely, you shall die.
7 And he said to them, What was the fashion of the man who came up to meet you and spoke these words to
you?
8 And they said to him, A hairy man, and a girdle of leather was girded about his loins. And he said, He is Elijah the Tishbite.
9 And the king sent to him the commander of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him. And behold, he was sitting on the top of the hill. And he spoke to him, O man of Elohim, the king has said, Come down.
10 And Elijah answered and said to the commander of fifty, And if I am a man of Elohim, fire will come down from the heavens and consume you and your fifty. And fire came down from the heavens and consumed him and his fifty.
11 And he turned and sent another commander of fifty and his fifty to him. And he answered and said to him, O man of Elohim, so says the king, Hurry, come down.
12 And Elijah answered and said to them, If I am a man of Elohim, fire will come down from the heavens and will consume you and your fifty. And fire from Elohim came down from the heavens and consumed him and his fifty.
13 And he turned and sent a third commander of fifty and his fifty. And the third commander of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, and said to him, O man of Elohim, please let my life and the life of your servants, these fifty, be precious in your eyes.
14 Behold, fire has come down from the heavens and has consumed the two commanders of the former fifties and their fifties. And now let my life be precious in your eyes.
15 And the Messenger of YAHWEH spoke to Elijah, Go down with him. Do not be afraid of him. And he rose up and went down with him to the king.
16 And he said to the king, So says
YAHWEH, Because you have sent messengers to ask of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron, is it because there is not an Elohim in Israel to inquire of His Word? Therefore, you shall not come down from the bed on which you have gone up, for surely, you shall die.
17 And he died, according to the Word of YAHWEH that Elijah spoke.
And Jehoram reigned in his place, in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, for he had no son.

18 And the rest of the acts of Ahaziah that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?

Chapter 2

1 And it happened, when YAHWEH was to cause Elijah to go up to the skies in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha went from Gilgal.

2 And Elijah said to Elisha, Please stay here, for YAHWEH has sent me to Bethel. And Elisha said, As YAHWEH lives, and your soul lives, I will not leave you. And they went down to Bethel.

3 And the sons of the prophets in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, Do you know that today YAHWEH will take your master from over your head? And he said, Yes, I know. Keep silent.

4 And Elijah said to him, Elisha, please stay here, for YAHWEH has sent me to Jericho. And he said, As YAHWEH lives, and your soul lives, I will not leave you. And they came into Jericho.

5 And the sons of the prophets in Jericho came near to Elisha, and said to him, Do you know that today YAHWEH will take away your master from over your head? And he said, Yes, I know. Keep silent.

6 And Elijah said to him, Please stay here, for YAHWEH has sent me to the Jordan. And he said, As YAHWEH lives, and your soul lives, I will not leave you. And they went on, both of them.

7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went on and stood afar off, across from them. And they both stood by the Jordan.

8 And Elijah took his mantle, and rolled it up, and struck the waters. And they were divided here and there, so that they both went over on dry ground.

9 And it happened, when they were crossing, Elijah said to Elisha, Ask what I shall do for you before I am taken from you. And Elisha said, Then let there now be a double mouth of your spirit on me.

10 And he said, You have asked a hard thing. If you shall see me taken from you, it shall be so to you. And if not, it shall not be.

11 And it happened, as they were going on and speaking, behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire came. And they separated between them both, and Elijah went up in a whirlwind to the skies.[1] (2Chron 21:12)

12 And Elisha was watching, and he was crying, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen! And he did not see him again. And he took hold on his garments and tore them into two pieces.

13 And he lifted up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and turned back and stood on the lip of the Jordan.

14 And he took Elijah's mantle that had fallen from him, and struck the waters, and said, Where is YAHWEH the Elohim of Elijah, even He? And he struck the waters; and they were split in two here and there, and Elisha crossed over.

1 The word for "translated" in most bibles means to "take from one place to another". Elijah did not go to the third heaven, which is the throne of YAHWEH, which no man has ever gone (Joh 3:13), but he was taken across the sky to another mountain somewhere as he had on other occasions (1 Kgs 18:11-12, 2 Kgs 2:16). He later wrote to King Jerhoram (2 Chron 21:12), which proved he was still on the earth and not in heaven.

15 And when they saw him, the sons of the prophets across in Jericho, then they said, The spirit of Elijah has rested on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed to the earth to
him.
16 And they said to him, Behold, now, there are with your servants fifty men, mighty sons. Please let them go, and they shall seek your master, lest the Spirit of YAHWEH has taken him up and has cast him on one of the mountains, or into one of the valleys.
And he said, You shall not send. (1 Kg 18:12)
17 And they urged him until he was ashamed. And he said, Send. And they sent fifty men, and they sought three days and did not find him.
18 And they returned to him, and he was staying in Jericho. And he said to them, Did I not say to you, Do not go?
19 And the men of the city said to Elisha, Behold, now, the site of the city is good, as my master sees, but the waters are bad; and the ground causes barrenness.
20 And he said, Bring a new dish to me, and put salt there. And they took it to him.
21 And he went out to the source of the waters and threw salt there, and said, So says YAHWEH, I have given healing to these waters; there shall not be death and barrenness there any more.
22 And the waters were healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha that he spoke.
23 And he went up from there to Bethel. And he was going up in the highway. And little boys came out from the city and mocked him, and said to him, Go up, bald head! Go up, bald head!
24 And he turned behind him and saw them, and cursed them in the name of YAHWEH. And two bears came out of the forest and tore forty two boys of them.
25 And he went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

Chapter 3

1 And Jehoram the son of Ahab reigned over Israel in Samaria, in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah; and he reigned twelve years.
2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of YAHWEH; only not like his father and his mother. For he put away the pillar of Baal that his father had made.
3 But he clung to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. He did not turn aside from it.
4 And Mesha the king of Moab was a sheep-breeder. And he paid a hundred thousand lambs to the king of Israel and a hundred thousand rams with wool.
5 And it happened when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.
6 And King Jehoram went out in that day from Samaria, and called up all Israel.
7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying,
The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up. I am as you; my people as your people; my horses as your horses.
8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom.
9 And the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom. And they made a circuit of seven days' journey. And there was no water for the army, and for the livestock that were at their feet.

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas, that YAHWEH has called these three kings to deliver them into the hand of Moab!
11 And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of YAHWEH, that we may inquire of YAHWEH by him?
And one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, who poured water on the hands of Elijah.
12 And Jehoshaphat said, The Word of YAHWEH is with him. And the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him.
13 And Elisha said to the king of Israel, What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father, and to the prophets of your mother. And the king of Israel said to him, No, for YAHWEH has called these three kings in order to give them into the hand of Moab.
14 And Elisha said, As YAHWEH of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely, if I did not regard the face of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah I would not look toward you, nor see you.
15 And now, bring a minstrel to me.
And it happened when the minstrel played, the hand of YAHWEH was on
him.
16 And he said, So says YAHWEH,
Make this valley full of ditches.
17 For so says YAHWEH, You shall not see wind nor shall you see rain. Yet that stream bed shall be filled with water, so that you may drink, both you and your livestock, and your animals.
18 But this is a light thing in the eyes of YAHWEH; He also has given Moab
into your hand.
19 And you shall strike every fortified city, and every choice city.
And you shall fell every good tree, and you shall stop all the fountains of water. And every good piece you shall ruin with stones.
20 And it happened in the morning, when the food offering was caused to go up, behold, water came by the way of Edom; and the country was filled with water.
21 And all Moab had heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. And they were called together, everyone able to gird on a girdle, and upward. And they stood by the border.
22 And they rose up early in the morning. And the sun was shining on the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the opposite side as red as blood.
23 And they said, This is blood. The kings fighting have fought one another, and they each man struck his neighbor. And now to the spoil, Moab!
24 And they came to the camp of Israel. And the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites. And they fled from before them. And striking they struck Moab.
25 And they broke down the cities;
and they each man cast his stone on every good piece of land, and filled it.
And they stopped every fountain of water. And they felled every good tree, until there was left only Kir-Haraseth with its stones. But the slingers surrounded it and struck it.
26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too strong for him, then he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords to break through to the king of Edom. And they were not able.
27 And he took his son, the firstborn who would reign in his place and caused him to go up for a burnt offering on the wall. And there was great wrath against Israel. And they left him and returned to the land.

Chapter 4

1 And a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets had cried to Elisha, saying, My husband, your servant, is dead. And you know that your servant has seen YAHWEH. And the lender has come to take my two children to himself for slaves.

2 And Elisha said to her, What shall I do for you? Tell me. What do you have in the house? And she said, Your handmaid has nothing in the house except a pot of oil.

3 And he said, Go, beg vessels for yourself from outside, from your neighbors, empty vessels. Do not let them be few.

4 And you shall go in and shut the door on you, and on your sons, and shall pour out into all these vessels. And you shall set aside the full ones.

5 And she left him, and shut the door on her and on her sons. They carried to her, and she poured out.

6 And it happened when the vessels were full, she said to her son, Bring another vessel to me. And he said to her, There is no other vessel; and the oil stopped.

7 And she came and told the man of Elohim. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and repay your loan. And you and your sons shall live from the rest.

8 And the day came that Elisha crossed over to Shunem. And a great woman was there. And she lay hold on him to eat bread. And it happened, as often as he passed by, he turned aside there to eat bread.

9 And she said to her husband, Behold now, I know that he is a holy man of Elohim who passes by us continually.

10 Now let us make a little walled roof room, and let us set a bed for him there, and a table, and a chair, and a lampstand. And it shall be, when he comes to us, he shall turn in there.

11 And the day came when he came in there and turned into the roof room, and lay there.

12 And he said to his young man Gehazi, Call this Shunammite. And he called her, and she stood before him.

13 And he said to him, Now say to her, Behold, you have trembled with all this care for us. What shall I do for you? Shall I speak to the king for you, or to the army commander? And she said, I live among my people.

14 And he said, What then shall I do for her? And Gehazi said, Truly there is no son to her. And her husband is old.

15 And he said, Call for her. And he called for her. And she stood at the door.

16 And he said, At this season, according to the time of life you shall embrace a son. And she said, No, my master, O man of Elohim, do not lie to your handmaid.

17 And the woman conceived and bore a son, at this season, according to the time of life that Elisha spoke of to her.[1]

18 And the boy grew, and the day came that he went out to his father, to the reapers.

19 And he said to his father, My head! My head! And he said to the young man, Carry him to his mother.

20 And he carried him, and brought him to his mother. And he sat on her knees until noon, and died.

21 And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of Elohim, and shut the door on him, and went out.

22 And she called to her husband, and said, Please send to me one of the young men, and one of the donkeys, and I shall run to the man of Elohim, and return.

[1] Verses 16-17- This is Aviv-Spring

23 And he said, Why are you going to him today; it is neither new moon nor Sabbath? And she said, Peace.

24 And she saddled the donkey and said to her young man, Lead on, and go. Do not hold back riding for me except I speak to you.

25 And she went, and came to the man of Elohim, to Mount Carmel. And it happened, when the man of Elohim saw her from afar, he said to his young man Gehazi, Behold, The Shunammite!

26 Now please run to meet her, and say to her, Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the boy? And she said, Well.

27 And she came to the mountain to the man of Elohim, and lay hold on his feet. And Gehazi came near to thrust her away. But the man of Elohim said, Let her alone, for her soul is bitter in her, and YAHWEH has hidden it from me, and has not told me.[1]

28 And she said, Did I ask a son from my master? Did I not say, Do not deceive me?

29 And he said to Gehazi, Gird up your loins and take my staff in your hand, and go. When you meet a man, you shall not greet him. And when a man shall greet you, you shall not answer him. And you shall lay my staff on the face of the boy.

30 And the mother of the boy said, As YAHWEH lives, and your soul lives, I will not leave you. And he rose up and went after her.

31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff on the face of the boy. But there was no voice, and there was no hearing. And he turned back to meet him, and told him, saying, The boy has not awakened.

32 And Elisha came into the house. And, behold, the boy was dead, laid out on his bed.

33 And he went in and shut the door on both of them, and prayed to YAHWEH.

34 And he went up and lay down on the boy, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands, and stretched himself on him. And the flesh of the boy became warm.

35 And he returned, and walked in the house, once here and once there. And he went up and stretched himself on him. And the boy sneezed seven times, and the boy opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gehazi and said, Call this Shunammite. And he called her, and she came in to him. And he said, Take up your son.

37 And she went in and fell at his feet, and bowed to the earth, and took up her son, and went out.

38 And Elisha returned to Gilgal. And the famine was in the land. And the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. And he said to his young man, Set on the big pot and boil soup for the sons of the prophets.

39 And one went out to the field to gather herbs, and found a vine of the field, and gathered gourds from it in the field. And with the lap of his garment full, he came in and shredded them into the pot of soup; for they did not know.

40 And they poured out for the men to eat. And it happened, when they were eating the soup, they cried out and said, Death is in the pot O man of Elohim! And they were not able to eat.

41 And he said, Then bring meal. And he threw into the pot, and said, Pour out for the people and they shall eat. And there was no evil thing in the pot.

42 And a man came from Baal-Shalisha and brought the man of Elohim bread of the first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and ripe ears of grain

1 Joh 12:3, Luk 7:38, 44

in his sack. And he said, Give to the people, and they may eat.
43 And his servant said, What? Should I set this before a hundred men? And he said, Give to the people, and they shall eat. For so says YAHWEH, Eat and have some left.
44 And he set before them, and they ate, and left some of it, according to the Word of YAHWEH. (Joh 6:5-14)

Chapter 5

1 And Naaman the commander of the army of the king of Syria was a great and exalted man before his master, for YAHWEH had given deliverance to Syria by him. And he was a brave warrior, but leprous.
2 And the Syrians had gone out in bands, and they seized from the land of Israel a little girl. And she was before Naaman's wife.
3 And she said to her mistress, Oh that my master were before the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would recover him from his leprosy.
4 And one went in and told his master, saying, This and this she said, the girl who is from the land of Israel.
5 And the king of Syria said, Go, go in, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. And he went and took in his hand ten talents of silver, and six thousand of gold, and ten changes of garments.
6 And he came to the king of Israel with the letter, saying, And now when this letter comes to you, behold, I have sent to you my servant Naaman. And you shall remove from him his leprosy.
7 And it happened, when the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his garments and said, Am I the Elohim, to kill and to keep alive, that this one is sending to me to recover a man from his leprosy? For consider now, and see for he is seeking an occasion with me.
8 And it happened, when Elisha the man of The Elohim heard that the king of Israel had torn his garments, he sent to the king, saying, Why have you torn your garments? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.
9 And Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.
10 And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, Go, and you shall wash seven times in the Jordan. And your flesh shall return to you, and you shall be clean.
11 And Naaman was angry, and went on, and said, Behold, I said, He will certainly come out to me and will stand and call on the name of YAHWEH his Elohim, and will wave his hand over the place, and remove the leprosy.
12 Are not Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Shall I not wash in them and be clean? And he turned and went on in fury.
13 And his servants came near and spoke to him, and said, My father, if the prophet had spoken a great thing to you would you not do it? How much rather then when he says to you, Wash, and be clean?
14 And he went down and dipped in the Jordan seven times, according to the word of the man of The Elohim. And his flesh returned like the flesh of a little boy, and he was clean.
15 And he went back to the man of The Elohim, he and all his company, and came in and stood before him, and said, Behold, now I know that there is not an Elohim in all the earth except in Israel. And now, please take a blessing from your servant.
16 And he said, As YAHWEH lives, before whom I stand, I shall not take.

And he pressed on him to take, but he refused.[1] (Math 10:8, Pr 23:23)

17 And Naaman said, If not, please let a couple of mules' burden of earth be given to your servant. For your servant shall not make any more burnt offering and sacrifice to other Elohim, only to YAHWEH.

18 May YAHWEH pardon your servant for this thing, when my master goes to the house of Rimmon to bow there, and he is supported by my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon; when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, may YAHWEH pardon your servant in this thing.

19 And he said to him, Go in peace. And he went away a little way from him.

20 And Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of The Elohim, said, Behold, my master has spared this Syrian, Naaman, not to receive from his hand that which he has brought. As YAHWEH lives, surely I will run after him. Then I shall take something from him.

21 And Gehazi ran after Naaman. And Naaman saw one running after him, and got down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is there Peace?

22 And he said, Peace. My master has sent me, saying, Behold this now, two young men from the hills of Ephraim have come to me, of the sons of the prophets. Please give to them a talent of silver, and two changes of garments.

23 And Naaman said, Be pleased, take two talents. And he forced these on him, and bound two talents of silver and two purses, and two changes of garments, and gave to two of his young men, and they carried before him.

24 And he came into the hill, and took them out of their hand, and put them away in the house, and sent away the men. And they went.

25 And he went in and stood by his master. And Elisha said to him, Where from Gehazi? And he said, Your servant did not go here or there.

26 And he said to him, Did not my heart go out when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to take silver, and to take garments and olives, and vineyards, and flock, and herd, and male slaves, and slave-girls?[2] (Is 55:1-2, Math 10:8)

27 Yea, the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you, and to your seed forever. And he went out from him as leprous as snow.

Chapter 6

1 And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, See, now, the place where we are living with you is too narrow for us.

2 Please let us go to the Jordan, and we each one shall take a beam from there. And we shall make for ourselves a place there, to live there. And he said, Go.

3 And the one said, Please be willing, and go with your servants. And he said, I will surely go.

4 And he went with them. And they came to the Jordan, and cut down trees.

5 And it happened that one was felling the log, and the iron fell into the water. And he cried out and said, Alas, my master! For it was borrowed.

6 And the man of The Elohim said, Where did it fall? And he made him see the place. And he cut a stick and threw it in there, and made the iron float.

7 And he said, Take it up to you. And he put out his hand and took it.
8 And the king of Syria was fighting against Israel, and rose up with his servants, saying, At such and such a place shall be my camp.
9 And the man of The Elohim sent to the king of Israel, saying, Be on guard in passing by this place, for the Syrians are coming down there.
10 And the king of Israel sent to the place of which the man of The Elohim spoke to him and warned him. And he protected himself there not once nor twice.
11 And the heart of the king of Syria was enraged over this thing. And he called his servants and said to them, Will you not tell me who of us is for the king of Israel?
12 And one of his servants said, No, my master O king, For Elisha the prophet who is in Israel tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your sleeping room.
13 And he said, Go and see where he is, and I will send and seize him. And it was told him, Behold, he is in Dothan.
14 And he sent horses and chariots there, and a heavy army. And they came in by night and surrounded the city.
15 And the servant of the man of The Elohim rose up early and went out.
And, behold, an army was surrounding the city, and horses and chariots. And his young man said to him, Alas, my master! What shall we do?
16 And he said, Do not fear, for those with us are more than those with
them.
17 And Elisha prayed and said, I beg You, O YAHWEH, open his eyes so that he may see. And YAHWEH opened the eyes of the young man.
And he looked, and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.
18 And they came down to it, and Elisha prayed to YAHWEH and said, I beg You, strike this nation with blindness. And He struck them with blindness, according to the word of Elisha.
19 And Elisha said to them, This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man you seek. And he led them to Samaria.
20 And it happened, when they came to Samaria, Elisha said, Open the eyes of these, O YAHWEH, and they will see. And YAHWEH opened their eyes, and they looked; and, behold, they were in the middle of Samaria!
21 And when he saw them, the king of Israel said to Elisha, Shall I strike?
Shall I strike, my father?
22 And he said, You shall not strike.
Would you strike those whom you have captured with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them that they may eat and drink and go to their master. (Deut 20:11-16, Math 5:44-45, Ro 12:20)
23 And he prepared a great banquet for them, and they ate and drank. And he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the companies of Syria did not come into the land of Israel any more.
24 And afterwards it happened that Ben-Hadad the king of Syria gathered all his army and went up and laid siege to Samaria.
25 And there was a great famine in Samaria. And behold! They were laying siege to it until the head of a donkey was at eighty silver pieces, and a fourth of a cab of dove's dung at five silver pieces.
26 And it happened, the king of Israel was passing by on the wall. And a woman cried to him, saying, Save, my master, O king.

27 And he said, If YAHWEH does not save you, from where shall I save you? Out of the threshing floor, or out of the winevat?
28 And the king said to her, What ails you? And she said, This woman said to me, Give your son and we will eat him today; and tomorrow we will eat my son.
29 And we boiled my son and ate him, and I said to her on the next day,
Give your son, that we may eat him.
But she hid her son.
30 And it happened when the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his garments. And he was passing by on the wall, and the people looked.
And, behold, the sackcloth was inside on his flesh.
31 And he said, So may Elohim do to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall remain on him today.
32 And Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And the king sent a man from before him. Before the messenger came to him, even he himself said to the elders, Do you see that this son of the murderer has sent to take away my head? Behold, when the messenger comes in, shut the door, and you shall hold him fast at the door. Is not the sound of the feet of his master behind
him?
33 While he was speaking with them, then, behold, the messenger came down to him. And he said, Behold, this is the evil from YAHWEH. Why should I wait for YAHWEH any more?

Chapter 7

1 And Elisha said, Hear the Word of YAHWEH: So says YAHWEH, About this time tomorrow a measure of fine flour will be at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.
2 And the third officer on whose hand the king leaned replied to the man of The Elohim, and said, Behold, if YAHWEH would make windows in the heavens, could this thing be? And he said, Behold, you shall see with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it.
3 And four men, lepers, were at the gate entrance. And they said to one another, Why should we sit here until we die?
4 If we say, We shall go into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. If we sit here, then we shall die. Therefore now, come and we will fall into the camp of Syria. If they keep us alive, we shall live. And if they kill us, then we die.
5 And they rose up in the twilight to go to the Syrian camp. And they came to the edge of the Syrian camp. And, behold, there was not a man there!
6 For YAHWEH had caused the Syrian army to hear a sound of chariots, and a sound of horses, and a sound of a great army. And they said to one another, Behold, the king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites against us, and the kings of Egypt, to come against us.
7 And they rose up and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys, and the camp as it was. And they fled for their life.
8 And these lepers came to the edge of the camp, and came into one tent, and ate and drank, and took up from there silver and gold and garments, and went and hid them. And they returned and went into another tent, and took from there, and went and hid
them.
9 And they said to one another, We are not doing right this day. It is a day of good news, and we are keeping silent. And if we wait until the morning light, then punishment will find us. And now come and we will go and tell the house of the king.

10 And they came in and called to the gatekeeper of the city, and spoke for themselves, saying, We have come to the camp of Syria. And, behold, there is not a man there, nor voice of man, but horses tied, and donkeys tied, and the tents as they were.
11 And he called the gatekeepers, and they told the house of the king inside.
12 And the king rose up by night and said to his servants, Let me show you now that which the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are famished, and they have gone out from the camp to hide in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, then we will catch them alive and we shall come into the city.
13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let men take now five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city. Behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel who have been left in it. Behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel who have perished. And we will send and see.
14 And they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent after the Syrian army, saying, Go and see.
15 And they went after them to the Jordan. And, behold, all the way was full of garments and vessels that the Syrians had thrown away in their haste. And the messengers returned and told the king.
16 And the people went out and plundered the Syrian camp. And it happened, a measure of fine flour sold at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel, according to the Word of YAHWEH.
17 And the king appointed the third officer over the gate, he on whose hand he leaned. And the people trod him down in the gate, and he died, as the man of The Elohim spoke, which he spoke when the king came down to him.
18 And it happened according to the saying of the man of The Elohim to the king, saying, Two measures of barley at a shekel, and a measure of fine flour at a shekel; this shall be at this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria.
19 And the third officer had answered the man of The Elohim, and said, And behold, if YAHWEH should make windows in the heavens, could it be according to this word? And he said, Behold, you shall see with your eyes, but you shall not eat from there.
20 And it happened to him in this way; yea, the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

Chapter 8

1 And Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had revived, saying, Rise up and go, you and your household. And stay where you can stay, for YAHWEH has called for a famine. And also, it shall come on the land seven years.
2 And the woman rose up and did according to the word of the man of The Elohim. And she and her household went and stayed in the land of the Philistines seven years.
3 And it happened at the end of seven years that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, and went to cry to the king for her house, and for her field.
4 And the king was speaking to Gehazi, the servant of the man of The Elohim, saying, Please tell me all of the great things that Elisha has done.
5 And it happened as he was telling the king how he had revived the dead, then, behold, the woman whose son he had revived was crying to the king for her house and for her field. And Gehazi said, My master, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha revived.

6 And the king asked the woman, and she told him. And the king appointed to her a certain eunuch, saying, Give back all that she has, and all the increase of the field from the day she left the land even until now.

7 And Elisha came to Damascus. And Ben-Hadad the king of Syria was sick. And he was told, saying, The man of The Elohim has come here.

8 And the king said to Hazael, Take a present in your hand and go to meet the man of The Elohim. And you shall seek YAHWEH by him, saying, Shall I revive from this sickness?

9 And Hazael went to meet him and took a present in his hand, even of every good thing from Damascus, a burden of forty camels. And he came in and stood before him, and said, Your son Ben-Hadad, the king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, Shall I revive from this sickness?

10 And Elisha said to him, Go, say to him, surely, you shall live. But YAHWEH has shown me that surely, he shall die.

11 And he fixed his face; yea, he settled it until he was ashamed. And the man of The Elohim wept.

12 And Hazael said, Why is my master weeping? And he said, Because I know the evil that you will do to the sons of Israel. You will send their fortified places into fire and you will slay their young men with the sword. And you will dash their sucklings to pieces; and you will rip up their pregnant women.

13 And Hazael said, But what! Is your servant a dog that he should do this great thing? And Elisha said, YAHWEH has shown me that you will be king over Syria.

14 And he left Elisha and came to his master, and he said to him, What did Elisha say to you? And he said, He said to me, You shall surely recover.

15 And it happened on the next day, he took a plaited cloth and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, and he died. And Hazael reigned in his place.

16 And in the fifth year of Jehoram the son of Ahab the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat was king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, reigned.

17 And he was a son of thirty two years when he began his reign. And he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done, for a daughter of Ahab was his wife. And he did that which was evil in the eyes of YAHWEH.

19 And YAHWEH was not willing to destroy Judah, for His servant David's sake, as He had said to give him a lamp to his sons forever.

20 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and they caused a king to reign over them.

21 And Jehoram passed over to Zair, and all the chariots with him. And it happened, he rose up by night and struck Edom, who had encircled him, and the commanders of the chariots. And the people fled to their tents.

22 Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Jehoram, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?

24 And Jehoram lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Ahaziah began to reign in his place.

25 In the twelfth year of Jehoram the son of Ahab, the king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, began to reign.

26 Ahaziah was a son of twenty two years when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri, the king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did that which was evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, like the house of Ahab, for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Jehoram the son of Ahab to battle with Hazael the king of Syria in Ramoth-Gilead. And the Syrians struck Jehoram.

29 And Jehoram the king returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds with which the Syrians had struck him in Ramah, as he fought with Hazael the king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram the king of Judah had gone down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, for he was sick.

Chapter 9

1 And Elisha the prophet called to one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, Gird up your loins and take this vial of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-Gilead.

2 And you shall go there, and you shall see there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. And you shall go in and cause him to rise up from among his brothers. And you shall bring him to an inner room.

3 And take the vial of oil and pour on his head, and say, So says YAHWEH, I have anointed you as king to Israel. And you shall open the door and flee, and shall not wait.

4 And the young man went, the servant of the prophet, to Ramoth-Gilead.

5 And he came in; and, behold, the army commanders were sitting. And he said, I have a word to you, O commander. And Jehu said, To which of all of us? And he said, To you, O commander.

6 And he rose up and came into the house, and poured the oil on his head, and said to him, So says YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, I have anointed you as king to the people of YAHWEH, to Israel.

7 And you shall strike the house of your master Ahab, that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of YAHWEH from the hand of Jezebel.

8 And all the house of Ahab shall perish. Yea, I have cut off to Ahab those who urinate against the wall, both bound and free in Israel.

9 And I have given up the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.

10 And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel. And there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door and fled.

11 And Jehu went out to the servants of his master. And one said to him, is there peace? Why did this madman come to you? And he said to them, You know the man, and his message.

12 And they said, A lie! Tell us now. And he said, This and this he said to me, saying, So says YAHWEH, I have anointed you king over Israel.

13 And they hurried, and each man took his garment and put it under him on the bare steps, and blew with the ram's horn, and said, Jehu reigns!

14 And Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. And Joram was keeping watch at Ramoth-Gilead, he and all Israel before Hazael the king of Syria.

15 And King Jehoram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds with which the Syrians had smitten him as he fought with Hazael the king of Syria. And Jehu said, If it is in your minds, do not let one escapee leave the city to go to tell it in Jezreel.

16 And Jehu rode and went to Jezreel, for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah the king of Judah had gone down to see Joram.
17 And the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel. And he saw the troop of Jehu as he came. And he said, I see a troop. And Jehoram said, Take a rider, and send to meet them,
and let him say, is there peace?
18 And the rider on the horse went to meet him, and said, So says the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What have you to do with peace? Turn behind me. And the watchman spoke, saying, The messenger came to them,
and he has not returned.
19 And he sent a second rider on a horse. And he came to them, and said,
So says the king, is there to be peace?
And Jehu said, What have you to do with peace? Turn behind me.
20 And the watchman spoke, saying,
He came to them, and he has not returned. And the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives madly.
21 And Jehoram said, Harness up!
And his chariot was harnessed. And Jehoram the king of Israel and Ahaziah the king of Judah went out, each in his chariot. And they went out to meet Jehu, and found him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.
22 And it happened, when Jehoram saw Jehu, he said, is it peace, Jehu?
And he said, What peace, so long as the harlotries of your mother Jezebel and her sorceries are so many?
23 And Jehoram turned his hands and fled, and said to Ahaziah, Treachery, O Ahaziah!
24 And Jehu filled his hand with a bow and struck Jehoram between his arms. And the arrow went out from his heart. And he sank down in his chariot.
25 And Jehu said to his third officer, Bidkar, Take up, throw him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite. For, remember, you and I were riding together after his father Ahab, and YAHWEH laid this burden on him:
26 Surely yesterday I have seen the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, says YAHWEH. And I will repay you in this portion, says YAHWEH.
Now, then, take him up, throw him into the portion of Naboth, according to the Word of YAHWEH.
27 And Ahaziah the king of Judah saw, and he fled the way of the garden house. And Jehu pursued him, and said, Strike him, him also, in the chariot, in the ascent to Gur, that is, Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo and died there.
28 And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his burying place, with his fathers in the city of David.
29 And in the eleventh year of Jehoram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah
reigned over Judah.
30 And Jehu came to Jezreel. And Jezebel had heard, and had painted her eyes and adorned her head, and looked down through the window.
31 And Jehu came to the gate. And she said, Was it peace to Zimri the slayer of his master?
32 And he lifted his face to the window, and said, Who is with me?
Who? And two or three eunuchs looked down to him.
33 And he said, Throw her down!
And they threw her down. And some of her blood was splashed on the wall, and on the horses. And he trampled her.

34 And he came in and ate and drank, and said, Now look after this cursed woman and bury her, for she is a king's daughter.

35 And they went to bury her, but did not find any of her except the skull, and the feet, and the palms of the hands.

36 And they came back and told him. And he said, It is the Word of YAHWEH that He spoke by the hand of his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel, the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel.

37 And the carcass of Jezebel shall be as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

Chapter 10

1 And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, the elders, and to the supporters of Ahab, saying,

2 And now when this letter comes to you, and you have with you the sons of your master, and chariots and horses are with you, and a fortified city, and armor;

3 and you shall look out the best and the most upright of the sons of your master, and you shall set him on the throne of his father. And you shall fight for the house of your master.

4 And they were greatly afraid, and said, Behold, the two kings have not stood before him, and how shall we stand?

5 And he who was over the house, and he over the city, and the elders, and the supporters, sent to Jehu, saying, We are your servants, and all that you say to us we will do. We will not make anyone king. Do what is good in your eyes.

6 And he wrote a letter to them a second time, saying, If you are for me, and are listening to my voice, take the heads of the men, the sons of your master, and come to me about this time tomorrow, to Jezreel. And the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who reared them.

7 And it happened, when the letter came to them, they took the sons of the king and killed them, seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent to him in Jezreel.

8 And the messenger came and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Make them two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning.

9 And it happened in the morning, he went out and stood, and said to all the people, You are righteous. Behold, I have conspired against my master, and have killed him. But who struck all these?

10 Then know that nothing of the Word of YAHWEH shall fall to the earth, that which YAHWEH spoke against the house of Ahab. For YAHWEH has done that which He spoke by the hand of His servant Elijah.

11 And Jehu killed all those left to the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and his great men, and his friends, and his priests, until he did not leave a survivor to him.

12 And he rose up and came in, and went to Samaria. He was at the shepherds' shearing house in the way.

13 And Jehu met the brothers of Ahaziah the king of Judah, and said, Who are you? And they said, We are brothers of Ahaziah, and we are going down to ask the welfare of the sons of the king, and the sons of the queen.

14 And he said, Capture them alive! And they captured them alive, and killed them at the pit of the shearing house, forty men. And he did not leave a man of them.

15 And he left there and found Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him, and he blessed him. And he said to him, Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart? And Jehonadab said, It is. If it is, give your hand. And he gave his hand, and he made him come up to him into the chariot.

16 And he said, Come with me and see my zeal for YAHWEH. And they made him ride in the chariot.

17 And he came to Samaria and killed all those left of Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the Word of YAHWEH that He spoke to Elijah.

18 And Jehu gathered all the people and said to them, Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu shall serve him much.

19 And now call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests. Do not let a man be lacking, for I shall have a great sacrifice to Baal. Anyone who is lacking, he shall not live. And Jehu was acting with cunning in order to destroy the servants of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, consecrate an assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 And Jehu sent to all Israel, and all the servants of Baal came in. And there was not a man left who did not come in. And they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from mouth to mouth.

22 And he said to the one over the wardrobe, Bring out garments to all the servants of Baal. And he brought out the garments to them.

23 And Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab went in to the house of Baal and said to the servants of Baal, Search and see that there are none of the servants of YAHWEH here with you; but only the servants of Baal.

24 And they came in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. And Jehu had set for himself eighty men on the outside. And he said, The man who lets any of the men escape whom I am bringing into your hands, his life for the life of him.

25 And it happened, when he finished offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the runners and the third officers, Go in, strike them. Do not let any man come out. And they struck them by the edge of the sword. And the runners and the third officers threw them out. And they went into the city to the house of Baal,

26 and brought out the pillars of the house of Baal and burned them.

27 And they broke down the pillar of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it an outhouse to this day.

28 And Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 Only, from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin, Jehu did not turn from following them, the calves of gold at Bethel, and in Dan.

30 And YAHWEH said to Jehu, Because you have done well, to do what is right in my eyes, and you have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in My heart, the sons of the fourth generation shall sit for you on the throne of Israel.

31 And Jehu did not take heed to walk in the Torah of YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam, who caused Israel to sin.

32 In those days YAHWEH began to cut off in Israel, and Hazael struck them in all the border of Israel,

33 from the Jordan eastward, the whole land of Gilead, of the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer by the Arnon River, even Gilead and Bashan.
34 And the rest of the matters of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?
35 And Jehu lay with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And his son Jehoahaz reigned in his place.
36 And the days that Jehu reigned over Israel were twenty eight years, in Samaria.

Chapter 11

1 And Athaliah[1] was the mother of Ahaziah. And when she saw that her son was dead, then she rose up and destroyed all the seed of the kingdom.
2 But Jehosheba the daughter of King Jehoram, the sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the king's sons who were put to death, him and his nurse, in the sleeping room. And they hid him from the face of Athaliah, and he was not killed.
3 And he was with her in the house of YAHWEH, hiding himself six years.
And Athaliah reigned over the land.
4 And in the seventh year, Jehoiada sent and called the rulers of the hundreds, with the Carites[2] and the runners. And he brought them to him into the house of YAHWEH, and cut a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of YAHWEH.
And he revealed the king's son to
them.
5 And he commanded them, saying,
This is the thing that you shall do. A third of you shall go in on the Sabbath for keepers of the watch of the king's house.
6 A third shall be at the Sur Gate. A third shall be at the gate behind the runners. And you shall keep the watch of the house, alternately.
7 And two parts of you, all who go out on the Sabbath, they shall keep the watch of the house of YAHWEH about the king.
8 And you shall fully surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand. And he that comes within the ranks shall be put to death. And they shall be with the king as he goes in and comes out.
9 And the rulers of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each man took his men, going in on the Sabbath, with those going out on the Sabbath,
and came in to Jehoiada the priest.
10 And the priest gave to the rulers of the hundreds King David's spears and the shields, that were in the house
of YAHWEH.
11 And the runners stood, each with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, beside the altar and beside the house, by the king all around.
12 And he brought out the son of the king, and put the crown on him, and the testimony. And they made him king, and anointed him, and clapped their hands, and said, Let the king live!
13 And Athaliah heard the sound of the runners of the people. And she came to the people, to the house of
YAHWEH.
14 And she looked, and, behold, the king was standing by the pillar,

1 She was the daughter of Ahab and Jezebel and just like her mother was completely outside of YHWH's judicial order.

2 These were mercenary soldiers from Caria in southwest Asia minor, who served as royal bodyguards.

according to the custom.[3] And the rulers and the trumpeters were beside the king. And all the people of the land were rejoicing, and blowing with trumpets. And Athaliah tore her clothes, and cried, Treason! Treason!
15 And Jehoiada the priest commanded the commanders of the hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, Bring her out to the outside of the ranks; and he who comes after her put to death by the sword. For the priest had said, Do not let her be killed in the house of
YAHWEH.
16 And they laid hands on her, and she entered the way of the horse gate to the house of the king, and was executed there.
17 And Jehoiada cut a covenant between YAHWEH and the king and the people to be for a people to YAHWEH, and between the king and the people.
18 And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal and broke it down. They completely smashed its altars and its images. And they killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest set guards over the house of YAHWEH.
19 And he took the commanders over the hundreds, and the Carites, and the runners, and all the people of the land. And they brought the king down from the house of YAHWEH, and came by the way of the Runners' Gate to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.
20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. And they had slain Athaliah by the sword in the king's house.
21 Joash was a son of seven years when he began to reign.

Chapter 12

1 Joash reigned in the seventh year of Jehu. And he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Zibiah of Beer-Sheba.
2 And Joash did that which was good in the eyes of YAHWEH all his days in which Jehoiada the priest guided him; 3 only, the high places were not destroyed; the people still sacrificed and offered incense in high places.
4 And Joash said to the priests, All the silver of the devoted things that is brought into the house of YAHWEH, the silver coming over, each man the silver of his valuation, all the silver that comes upon any man's heart to bring into the house of YAHWEH, 5 even the priests shall take to themselves, each man from his friend;
and they shall repair the breach of the house, in all places where a breach may be found.
6 And it happened, in the twenty third year of King Joash, that the priests had not repaired the breach of the house.
7 And King Joash called to Jehoiada the priest, and the priests, and said to them, Why have you not repaired the breach of the house? And now, do not receive any silver from your friends, but give it for the breach of the house.
8 And the priests consented not to receive silver from the people, nor to strengthen the breach of the house.
9 And Jehoiada the priest took a chest and cut a hole in its lid, and put it near the altar, on the right side, as one comes into the house of YAHWEH, and the priests who kept

[3] The custom started with King Solomon being coronated at the stone pillars at the entrance to the sanctuary of YHWH at the Gihon spring in the southwestern tip of the city of David. This entrance with stone pillars has been excavated in recent times by archaeologists in Jerusalem.

the door put in it all the silver brought into the house of YAHWEH.

10 And it happened, when they saw that the silver in the chest was plentiful, that a scribe of the king, and the high priest went up, and they bound it up, and counted the silver found in the house of YAHWEH.

11 And they weighed silver into the hands of those doing the work, those overseeing the house of YAHWEH; and they gave it, weighed it out, to the craftsmen in wood, and to the builders who were working on the house of YAHWEH,

12 and to the masons, and the stone cutters, and to buy wood and cut stone to strengthen the breach of the house of YAHWEH; and for all that went out on the house, to make it strong.

13 However, there were not made for the house of YAHWEH basins of silver, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, any vessels of gold or vessels of silver, of the silver brought into the house of YAHWEH;

14 for they gave it to those doing the work, and they made strong the house of YAHWEH with it.

15 And they did not reckon with the men into whose hand they gave the silver, to give to those doing the work, for they were dealing with faithfulness.

16 And the guilt offering silver and the sin offering silver was not brought into the house of YAHWEH, for it was the priests'.

17 Then Hazael the king of Syria went up and fought against Gath, and captured it; and Hazael set his face to go up against Jerusalem.

18 And Joash the king of Judah took all the dedicated things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, the kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own dedicated things, and all the gold found in the treasures of the house of YAHWEH, and of the house of the king, and sent to Hazael the king of Syria; and he went away from Jerusalem.

19 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?

20 And his servants rose up and made a conspiracy and killed Joash in the house of Millo, which goes down to Silla.

21 For Jozachar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him; and he died. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Amaziah reigned in his place.

Chapter 13

1 In the twenty third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, the king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu reigned over Israel, in Samaria, seventeen years.

2 And he did the evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, and went after the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin; he did not turn aside from it.

3 And the anger of YAHWEH glowed against Israel, and He gave them into the hand of Hazael the king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael, all the days.

4 And Jehoahaz sought the face of YAHWEH, and YAHWEH listened to him, for He saw the oppression of Israel; for the king of Syria had oppressed them.

5 And YAHWEH gave a deliverer to Israel, and they went out from under the hand of Syria, and the sons of Israel lived in their tents as before.

6 Only, they did not turn aside from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who caused Israel to sin; he walked in it, and also the Asherah remained in Samaria.

7 For he did not leave to Jehoahaz any of the people except fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like dust by threshing.

8 And the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?

9 And Jehoahaz lay with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And his son Joash reigned in his place.

10 In the thirty seventh year of Joash the king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz reigned over Israel, in Samaria, sixteen years.

11 And he did the evil in the eyes of YAHWEH; he did not turn aside from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin; he walked in it.

12 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought with Amaziah the king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?

13 And Joash lay with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat on his throne; and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

14 And Elisha had become sick with his illness in which he died; and Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept on his face, and said, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and its horsemen!

15 And Elisha said to him, Take bow and arrows. And he took bow and arrows to himself.

16 And he said to the king of Israel, Cause your hand to ride on the bow. And he caused his hand to ride. And Elisha placed his hand on the hands of the king,

17 and said, Open the window eastward. And he opened. And Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of deliverance of YAHWEH, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria; for you shall strike the Syrians in Aphek, until it is finished.

18 And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them up. And he said to the king of Israel, Strike the earth. And he struck three times, and stopped.

19 And the man of The Elohim was angry with him, and said, By striking five or six times, then you would have smitten Syria until it was finished; but now, you shall strike Syria three times.

20 And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of Moab came into the land, at the beginning of the year;

21 and it happened, they were burying a man; and, behold, they saw the band, and threw the man into the grave of Elisha. And the man fell and touched the bones of Elisha, and came alive, and rose on his feet.

22 And Hazael the king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

23 And YAHWEH was gracious to them, and pitied them, and turned toward them, for the sake of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and was not willing to destroy them, nor to cast them out from His presence as yet.

24 And Hazael the king of Syria died, and his son Ben-Hadad reigned in his place.

25 And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz returned and took the cities out of the hand of Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael that he had taken out of the hand of his father Jehoahaz in battle. Jehoash struck him three times, and he brought back the cities of Israel.

Chapter 14

1 In the second year of Joash the son of Jehoahaz the king of Israel, Amaziah the son of Joash the king of Judah reigned.

2 He was a son of twenty five years when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

3 And he did right in the eyes of YAHWEH, but not like his father David; he did according to all that his father Joash did;

4 however, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and offered in the high places.

5 And it happened, when the kingdom was strong in his hand, he struck his servants, those who struck his father, the king.

6 But he did not cause to die the sons of those who struck him, as it is written in the book of the Law of Moses that YAHWEH commanded, saying, The fathers are not to be caused to die for the sons, and the sons are not to be caused to die for the fathers, but each shall be caused to die for his own sin.

7 He struck Edom in the Valley of Salt, ten thousand, and captured the Rock by war, and called its name Joktheel[1] to this day.

8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, the king of Israel, saying, Come, we shall look one another in the face.

9 And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah the king of Judah, saying, The thorn that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son as wife; and a beast of the field in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thorn.

10 You have certainly stricken Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Glory in it and stay in your house; and why should you stir yourself up to evil so that you may fall, you and Judah with you?

11 But Amaziah would not listen, and Jehoash the king of Israel went up; and they looked one another in the face, he and Amaziah the king of Judah, in Beth-Shemesh of Judah.

12 And Judah was stricken before Israel, and they each fled to his tent.

13 And Jehoash the king of Israel caught Amaziah the king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, in Beth-Shemesh. And they came in to Jerusalem, and he broke through the wall of Jerusalem at the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits.

14 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of YAHWEH, and in the treasures of the king's house, and the sons of the hostages, and returned to Samaria.

15 And the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah the king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?

16 And Jehoash lay with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. And his son Jeroboam reigned in his place.

17 And Amaziah the son of Joash the king of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz the king of Israel.

18 And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?

19 And they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; and they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there.[1]

20 And they lifted him up on the horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

21 And all the people of Judah took Azariah (and he was a son of sixteen years), and they made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

22 He built Elath and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers.

23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash the king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Jehoash the king of Israel reigned in Samaria, forty one years.

24 And he did the evil in the eyes of YAHWEH; he did not turn aside from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he caused Israel to sin.

25 He restored the border of Israel from the entering in of Hamath to the sea of the Arabah, according to the Word of YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel which He spoke by the hand of his servant Jonah the prophet, the son of Amittai of Gathhepher.

26 For YAHWEH had seen the affliction of Israel to be very bitter; and none was bound, and none free, and there was no helper for Israel.

27 And YAHWEH had not spoken that He would blot the name of Israel from under the heavens, but saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

28 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, all that he did, and his might with which he fought, and with which he recovered Damascus and Hamath of Judah for Israel, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?

29 And Jeroboam lay with his fathers, with the kings of Israel. And his son Zechariah reigned in his place.

Chapter 15

1 In the twenty seventh year of Jeroboam the king of Israel Azariah the son of Amaziah the king of Judah began to reign.

2 He was a son of sixteen years when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty two years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Jecholiah of Jerusalem.

3 And he did right in the eyes of YAHWEH, according to all that his father Amaziah did;

4 however, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.

5 And YAHWEH touched the king, and he was a leper to the day of his death; and he lived in a separate house, and Jotham the son of the king was over the house, judging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?

7 And Azariah lay with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Jotham reigned in his place.

8 In the thirty eighth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel, in Samaria, six months.

9 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, as his fathers did; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

10 And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him and struck him

[1] Lachish was about 25 miles southwest of Jerusalem and was the summer palace of several kings and a fortress city.

before the people, and killed him, and reigned in his place.

11 And the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel.

12 This was the Word of YAHWEH that He spoke to Jehu, saying, Your son of the fourth generation shall sit to you on the throne of Israel; and it was so.

13 Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty ninth year of Uzziah the king of Judah, and he reigned a full month in Samaria.

14 And Menahem the son of Gadi from Tirzah went up and came into Samaria and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and killed him, and reigned in his place.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy that he conspired, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel.

16 Then Menahem struck Tiphsah, and all who were in it, and its borders from Tirzah, for it did not open, and he struck it; he ripped up all its pregnant women.

17 In the thirty ninth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel, ten years in Samaria.

18 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin, all his days.

19 Pul the king of Assyria came against the land, and Menahem gave a thousand talents of silver to Pul, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand.

20 And Menahem brought out the silver from Israel, on all the mighty men of wealth, to give to the king of Assyria, fifty shekels of silver for each one; and the king of Assyria turned back and did not stay there in the land.

21 And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel?

22 And Menahem lay with his fathers. And his son Pekahiah reigned in his place.

23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem reigned over Israel two years in Samaria.

24 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

25 And Pekah the son of Remaliah, his general, conspired against him and struck him in Samaria, in the high place of the house of the king, with Argob and Arieh, and fifty men of the sons of the Gileadites with him; and he killed him and reigned in his place.

26 And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel.

27 In the fifty second year of Azariah the king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel, twenty years in Samaria.

28 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

29 In the days of Pekah the king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser the king of Assyria came and took Ijon, and Abel-Beth-Maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and removed them to Assyria.

30 And Hoshea the son of Elah conspired a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck him, and killed him, and reigned in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

31 And the rest of the acts of Pekah and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Israel.

32 In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah the king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah, the king of Judah, began to reign.

33 He was a son of twenty five years when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.

34 And he did right in the eyes of YAHWEH; he did according to all that his father Uzziah did.

35 Only, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense in high places; he built the Upper Gate of the house of YAHWEH.

36 And the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?

37 In those days YAHWEH began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah.

38 And Jotham lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David. And his son Ahaz reigned in his place.

Chapter 16

1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham the king of Judah began to reign.

2 Ahaz was a son of twenty years when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do right in the eyes of YAHWEH his Elohim, like his father David.

3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and also he caused his son to pass through the fire, according to the idolatries of the nations, whom YAHWEH had cast out from before the sons of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and offered incense in the high places, and on the heights, and under every green tree.

5 Then Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah the king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war. And they besieged Ahaz, but they were not able to fight.

6 At that time Rezin the king of Syria brought Elath back to Syria, and threw the Jews out of Elath; and the Syrians came to Elath and lived there to this day.

7 And Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser the king of Assyria, saying, I am your servant and your son; come up and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who have risen up against me.

8 And Ahaz took the silver and the gold which was found in the house of YAHWEH, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent to the king of Assyria a bribe.

9 And the king of Assyria listened to him. And the king of Assyria went up to Damascus and captured it, and removed it to Kir, and he killed Rezin.

10 And King Ahaz went to meet Tiglath-Pileser the king of Assyria at Damascus. And he saw the altar that was in Damascus. And King Ahaz sent the form of the altar to Urijah the priest, and its pattern, according to all its work.

11 And Urijah the priest built the altar according to all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus; so Urijah the priest did until King Ahaz came in from Damascus.

12 And the king came in from Damascus, and the king saw the altar;

and the king drew near to the altar and offered on it;
13 and offered his burnt offering, and his food offering, and poured out his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar.
14 But as to the copper altar that was before YAHWEH, he brought near from the forefront of the house, from between his altar and the house of YAHWEH, and put it on the north side of his altar.
15 And King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, On the great altar offer the burnt offering of the morning, and the evening food offering, and the king's burnt offering and his food offering with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their food offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice; but the copper altar shall be for me to inquire by.
16 And Urijah the priest did according to all that King Ahaz commanded.
17 And King Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from them; and took down the sea from off the copper oxen under it, and put it on a pavement of stones.
18 And the covered way that they had built in the house for the Sabbath, and the king's entry outside, he turned from the house of YAHWEH, because of the king of Assyria.
19 And the rest of the acts of Ahaz that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?
20 And Ahaz lay with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Hezekiah reigned in his place.

Chapter 17

1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz the king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah reigned in Samaria, nine years over Israel.
2 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, only not as the kings of Israel who were before him.
3 Shalmaneser[1] the king of Assyria came against him, and Hoshea was a servant to him, and paid him tribute.
4 And the king of Assyria found a conspiracy in Hoshea, in that he had sent messengers to So the king of Egypt, and had not offered tribute up to the king of Assyria, as year by year. And the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in a prison house.
5 And the king of Assyria went up into all the land, and he went up to Samaria and besieged it three years.
6 In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria, and removed Israel to Assyria, and made them live in Halah, and in Habor, by the river Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.[2]
7 And it was so because the sons of Israel had sinned against YAHWEH their Elohim, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under

1 Shalmaneser was son to and successor of Tiglash- Pileser and reined from 727-722B.C.

2 This area was south of the Caspian Sea and NE of the Tigris River. Sargon ll, the general under Shalmaneser takes credit for this battle in his annals. Interesting enough, although there were several million Israelites living in the attacked region, Sargon states he only took 27, 290 captive. The reason being that many Israelites had already fled before this battle ever took place to the south to the Carthage empire, to the west, to Europe, and also some went to Judah and assimilated into other areas around the globe and became known as "The lost tribes of Israel".

the hand of Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and feared other gods, 8 and walked in the statutes of the nations that YAHWEH had expelled from the face of the sons of Israel, and of the kings of Israel that they made.
9 And the sons of Israel secretly did the things which were not right against YAHWEH their Elohim, and built high places for themselves in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city,
10 and set up for themselves pillars and Asherahs on every high hill, and under every green tree;
11 and burned incense there in all high places, like the nations that YAHWEH had removed from their face; and did evil things to provoke YAHWEH,
12 and served the idols, of which YAHWEH had said to them, You shall not do this thing.
13 And YAHWEH testified against Israel, and against Judah, by the hand of all His prophets, and every seer, saying, Turn back from your evil ways, and keep My commandments, My statutes, according to all the Torah that I commanded your fathers, and that I sent to you by the hand of My servants the prophets.
14 And they did not listen, and hardened their necks, like the necks of their fathers, who did not remain faithful to YAHWEH their Elohim.
15 And they rejected His statutes and His covenant that He cut with their fathers, and His testimonies that He testified against them, and went after the vain thing, and became vain, and after the nations that were around them, of whom YAHWEH had commanded them not to do like them.
16 And they forsook all the commandments of YAHWEH their Elohim and made for themselves cast images, two calves, and made an Asherah, and bowed to all the host of the heavens, and served Baal,
17 and caused their sons and daughters to pass through the fire and divined divination, and used incantations, and sold themselves to do the evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, to provoke Him,
18 so that YAHWEH was very angry against Israel, and turned them away from His face; not one was left, only the tribe of Judah by itself.[1]
19 Also Judah did not keep the commands of YAHWEH their Elohim, and they walked in the statutes of Israel that they had made.
20 And YAHWEH rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and gave them into the hand of the plunderers, until He had cast them out from His presence.
21 For He tore Israel from the house of David, and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king; and Jeroboam lured Israel from following YAHWEH, and caused them to sin a great sin.
22 And the sons of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam that he did; they did not turn aside from them;
23 until YAHWEH turned away Israel from His face, as He spoke by the hand of all His servants the prophets; and Israel was exiled from off its land to Assyria to this day.
24 And the king of Assyria brought men in from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and made them live in the cities of Samaria instead of the sons of Israel; and they

[1] Verses 7-18- although YHWH has great patience and never-ending mercy and love, there is a point when people give themselves over to evil and sin that their hearts will be hardened and they will be unable to ever repent and only judgment for their pride and sin awaits, Heb 3:10-13.

possessed Samaria and lived in its cities.
25 And it happened at the beginning of their living there, they did not fear YAHWEH, and YAHWEH sent lions among them, and they were killing among them.
26 And they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations that you have exiled and have made to live in the cities of Samaria do not know the custom of the Elohim of the land, and He has sent the lions into their midst; and, behold, they are killing them, since they do not know the custom of the Elohim of the land.
27 And the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Cause one of the priests whom you removed from there to go there, and they shall go and live there; and he shall teach them the custom of the Elohim of the land.
28 And one of the priests whom they exiled from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and he taught them how they should fear YAHWEH.
29 yet was making nation by nation their own gods, and putting them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, nation by nation in their cities where they lived.
30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-Benoth; and the men of Cuth made Nergal; and the men of Hamath made Ashima;
31 and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burned their sons with fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech the Elohims of Sepharvaim. (2 Kgs 17:17)
32 So it was that they feared YAHWEH, and made for themselves, of the lowest of them, priests of the high places and they sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.
33 They feared YAHWEH, and served their own gods, according to the custom of the nations from where they exiled them.[1]
34 To this day they do according to the former custom; they do not fear YAHWEH, and do not do according to their statutes, and according to their ordinances, and according to the Torah, and according to the commandment that YAHWEH commanded the sons of Jacob, on whom He set His name, Israel.
35 And YAHWEH made a covenant with them, and commanded them, saying, You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them;
36 but YAHWEH who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a stretched out arm, you shall fear Him, and you shall bow yourselves to Him, and you shall sacrifice to Him;
37 and the statutes, and the judgments, and the Torah, and the commandments that He wrote for you, you shall observe to do forever, and you shall not fear other gods;
38 and the covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget, and you shall not fear other gods;
39 but you shall fear YAHWEH your Elohim, and He shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.[2]

1 Verses 26-33- Due to their fear of the lions, the people developed a mixture of pagan worship with some of YHWH's biblical statutes, which is a religious trend that continued through time and even today. They also had unqualified men as their priests whom YHWH did not ordain and without proper leadership the people will inevitably be led astray.

2 Verses 33-39- These verses show us how vitally important it is to obey YHWH's eternal Torah, which is His very character or else man will simply work every evil from the imagination of his own heart, Jer 17:9-10, Jud 21:25.

40 But they did not listen, but did according to their former custom.

41 And it happened, these nations feared YAHWEH, yet they served their graven images, both their sons and their sons' sons. As their fathers did, they are doing to this day.[1]

Chapter 18

1 And it happened in the third year of Hoshea the son of Elah the king of Israel, Hezekiah the son of Ahaz the king of Judah began to reign.

2 He was a son of twenty five years when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty nine years; and the name of his mother was Abi the daughter of Zechariah.

3 And he did right in the eyes of YAHWEH, according to all that his father David did;

4 he took away the high places, and broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherah, and beat to bits the copper serpent that Moses made (for in those days it was that the sons of Israel burned sacrifices to it) and called it Nehushtan.

5 He trusted in YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel, and after him there was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor who were before him;

6 and he clung to YAHWEH; he did not turn aside from following Him, and kept His commandments that YAHWEH commanded Moses.

7 And YAHWEH was with him. He acted prudently every place he went. And he rebelled against the king of Assyria and would not serve him.

8 He struck the Philistines to Gaza and its borders, from the Watch Tower to the fortified city.

9 And it happened, in the fourth year of King Hezekiah (it was the seventh year of Hoshea the son of Elah the king of Israel) Shalmaneser the king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it.

10 And they captured it at the end of three years; in the sixth year of Hezekiah (it was the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Israel) Samaria was conquered;

11 and the king of Assyria carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and in Habor by the river Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes,

12 because they did not listen to the voice of YAHWEH their Elohim, and transgressed His covenant, all that Moses the servant of YAHWEH commanded; yea, they did not listen nor obey them.[2] (Mal 4:4)

13 And in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib the king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and captured them.

14 And Hezekiah the king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria, to Lachish, saying, I have offended, turn back from me; that which you put on me I will bear. And the king of Assyria laid on Hezekiah the king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

[1] The fact that human beings are very quick to follow something that is purely evil, but will resist tooth and nail to something pure from Elohim is clear proof of the fallen nature of man and that redemption can only come through the transformation by the Ruach H'Chodesh of YHWH, after full repentance is admitted and made.

[2] In these end times, as YHWH is revealing who the tribes of Israel are today, it is a stark warning that disobedience to the Torah that Moses gave Israel from YHWH was the main avenue that caused their captivity, and returning to it is a per-requisite to returning to covenant relationship with YHWH, 2 Chron 6:36-39, Lev 26:40-46, Mal 4:4, Joel 2:12-27.

15 And Hezekiah gave all the silver that was found in the house of YAHWEH, and in the treasures of the house of the king.
16 At that time Hezekiah cut off the doors of the Sanctuary of YAHWEH, and the pillars that Hezekiah the king of Judah had overlaid, and gave them to the king of Assyria.
17 And the king of Assyria sent Tartan, and the chief of the eunuchs, and the chief of the cupbearers from Lachish, to King Hezekiah with a heavy force, to Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem, and they went up and came in and stood by the conduit of the upper pool that was in the highway of the Fuller's Field.
18 And they called to the king, and Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder went out to them.
19 And the chief of the cupbearers said to them, Now say to Hezekiah, So says the great king, the king of Assyria, What is this hope in which you have trusted?
20 Do you say that a mere word of the lips is counsel and strength for war; now, on whom have you trusted that you have rebelled against me?
21 Now, behold, you have trusted for yourself on the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt, which if a man lean on it, it will go into his hand and pierce it!
So is Pharaoh the king of Egypt to all those who trust in him.
22 And when you say to me, We have trusted to YAHWEH our Elohim, is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has removed, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Before this altar you shall bow yourselves in Jerusalem?
23 And, now, I ask you, exchange pledges for yourself to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give to you two thousand horses if you are able to give for yourself riders on them.
24 And how will you turn back the face of one prefect of the least of the servants of my master, that you trust for yourself upon Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?
25 Now, have I come up against this place to destroy it without YAHWEH?
YAHWEH said to me, Go up against this land, and you shall destroy it.[1] 26 And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah said to the chief of the cup-bearers, Please speak Aramaic to your servants, for we understand; and do not speak with us in Jewish, in the ears of the people on the wall.
27 And the chief of the cupbearers said to them, Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master, and to you, and not to the men that sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink the water of their feet with
you?
28 And the chief of the cupbearers stood and called with a great voice in Jewish, and spoke and said, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria;
29 So says the king, Do not let Hezekiah delude you, for he is not able to deliver you out of his hand; 30 and do not let Hezekiah make you trust to YAHWEH, saying, YAHWEH surely shall deliver us; and,
This city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.
31 Do not listen to Hezekiah, for so says the king of Assyria, Make with me a peace treaty and come out to me; and you each shall eat of his vine, and each of his fig tree, and you each shall drink of the waters of his own well, 32 until I come; and I will take you to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive oil, and honey; and live, and do not die; and do not listen to Hezekiah, when he persuades you, saying, YAHWEH shall deliver us.

33 Have the gods of the nations at all delivered each his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah, that they have delivered Samaria out of my hand?

35 Who among all the gods of the lands have delivered their land out of my hand, that YAHWEH should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

36 But the people kept silent and did not answer him a word, for the command of the king was, saying, Do not answer him.

37 And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, came in to Hezekiah, having torn their garments; and they told him the words of the chief of the cupbearers.

Chapter 19

1 And it happened, when King Hezekiah heard, that he tore his garments and covered himself with sackcloth and went in to the house of YAHWEH;

2 and he sent Eliakim, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covering themselves with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said to him, So says Hezekiah, it is a day of distress, and of rebuke, and of disgrace today; for the sons have come to the birth, and there is no power to bring forth.

4 It may be that YAHWEH your Elohim will hear all the words of the chief cupbearer, with which his master the king of Assyria has sent him to reproach the living Elohim, and will rebuke the words which YAHWEH your Elohim has heard; and you shall lift up prayer for the remnant that is found.

5 And the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said to them, You shall say this to your master: So says YAHWEH, Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have reviled Me.

7 Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he shall hear a rumor and shall turn back to his land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his land.

8 And the chief cupbearer returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that he had traveled from Lachish.

9 And when he heard it said of Tirhakah the king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is coming out to fight against you, he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying,

10 So you shall speak to Hezekiah the king of Judah, saying, Do not let your Elohim in whom you trust delude you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by utterly destroying them; and shall you be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the sons of Eden in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah?

14 And Hezekiah took the letters out of the hand of the messengers, and read them, and went up to the house of YAHWEH. And Hezekiah spread it before the face of YAHWEH.
15 And Hezekiah prayed before YAHWEH, and said, O YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel, who sits above the cherubs, You are He, The Elohim who all life comes from, to all the kingdoms of the earth; You have made the heavens and the earth.
16 O YAHWEH, incline Your ear and hear; O YAHWEH, open Your eyes and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib with which he has sent him to reproach the living Elohim.
17 Truly, O YAHWEH, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations, and their lands;
18 and have put their gods into the fire, for they were no Elohim, but the work of the hands of man, wood and stone, and have destroyed them.
19 And now, O YAHWEH our Elohim, we pray to You, save us out of his hand, and all the kingdoms of the earth shall know that You are YAHWEH Elohim, and life only comes from you.
20 And Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, So says YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, I have heard that which you have prayed to Me regarding Sennacherib
the king of Assyria;
21 this is the Word that YAHWEH spoke concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head behind
you.
22 Whom have you reproached and reviled? Against whom have you lifted up a voice? Yea, you have lifted up your eyes on high, even against the Holy One of Israel!
23 By the hand of your messengers, you have defamed YAHWEH, and have said, With the multitude of my chariots I have gone up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and I will cut down the height of its cedars, the best of its firs, and I will enter into the furthest dwelling, its densest forest; 24 I have dug and drunk strange waters, and I dried up with the sole of my feet all the rivers of Egypt.
25 Have you not heard from afar, I made it? From days of old I formed it.
Now I have caused it to come, that you should make fortified cities desolate ruin heaps.
26 And those living in them were short in hand; they were terrified and were ashamed; they were as the grass of the field, and the green herb, as the grass on the housetops and blasted grain before it was grown!
27 But I have known your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your rage against Me.
28 Because of your raging against Me, and because your arrogance has come up into My ears, even I will put My hook in your nose, and My bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way which you came.
29 And this shall be the sign for you:
you shall eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which is self produced; and in the third year you shall sow, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.
30 And the escaped ones of the house of Judah that is left shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.
31 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of Mount Zion they that shall escape; the zeal of YAHWEH of Hosts shall do this.
32 So YAHWEH says this concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor shall he pour out a siege mound against it.

33 By the way that he came in, in it he shall return; and he shall not come into this city, says YAHWEH.
34 For I will defend this city, to save it, for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake.
35 And it happened in that night, that the Messenger of YAHWEH went out and struck a hundred and eighty five thousand in the camp of Assyria;
and they rose up early in the morning,
and behold, all of them were dead bodies.
36 And Sennacherib the king of Assyria moved, and went and returned, and lived in Nineveh.
37 And it happened, as he was bowing himself in the house of his Elohim Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And his son Esarhaddon reigned in his place.

Chapter 20

1 In those days Hezekiah was sick to death, and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him and said to him, So says YAHWEH, Order your house,
for you are dying, and shall not live.
2 And he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to YAHWEH, saying,
3 I pray to You, O YAHWEH, please remember how I have walked always before your face in truth, and with a perfect heart, and I have done the good in Your eyes. And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping.
4 And it happened when Isaiah had not gone out to the middle court, the Word of YAHWEH came to him,
saying,
5 Return, and you shall say to Hezekiah the leader of My people, So says YAHWEH, the Elohim of your father David, I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears; behold, I will heal you; you shall go up to the house of YAHWEH the third day.
6 And I have added fifteen years to your days; and I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and shall defend this city for My own sake, and for My servant
David's sake.
7 And Isaiah said, Take a cake of figs;
and they took and laid it on the boil;
and he revived.
8 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, What will be the sign that YAHWEH will heal me, that I will go up on the third day to the house of YAHWEH? (Is 38:8)
9 And Isaiah said, This will be the sign to you from YAHWEH, that YAHWEH will do the thing that He has spoken: Shall the shadow advance ten steps, or shall it return ten steps?
10 And Hezekiah said, It would be a light thing for the shadow to go down ten steps; no, but let the shadow go back ten steps.
11 And Isaiah the prophet cried to YAHWEH; and He brought back the shadow by the steps the shadow had gone down on the sundial stairs of Ahaz, ten steps backward.
12 At that time Berodach-Baladan, the son of Baladan the king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been ill.
13 And Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all the house of his treasury, the silver and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his weapons, and all found in his treasure house; there was not a thing that Hezekiah did not show them in his house and in all his dominion.
14 And Isaiah the prophet came in to

King Hezekiah and said to him, What did these men say? And where did they come from to you? And Hezekiah said, They have come from a land afar off, from Babylon.
15 And he said, What did they see in your house? And Hezekiah said, They saw all that is in my house; there was not a thing that I did not show them from my storehouses.
16 And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the Word of YAHWEH:
17 Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and all that your fathers have treasured up until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; there shall not be a thing left, says YAHWEH.
18 And of your sons that shall go out from you, whom you shall father, they shall be taken away, and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.
19 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, The Word of YAHWEH that you have spoken is good. And he said, Is it not good if peace and truth are in my days?
20 And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool, and the conduit, and brought in the waters to the city, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?[1] 21 And Hezekiah lay with his fathers. And his son Manasseh reigned in his place.

Chapter 21

1 Manasseh was a son of twelve years when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty five years in Jerusalem, and the name of his mother was Hephzibah.
2 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, according to the abominable customs of the nations that YAHWEH expelled from before the sons of Israel. (2Kgs 23:26-17)
3 And he built again the high places that his father Hezekiah had destroyed, and raised up altars for Baal, and made an Asherah, as did Ahab the king of Israel, and worshiped all the host of the heavens, and served them.
4 And he built altars in the house of YAHWEH, of which YAHWEH had said, In Jerusalem I will put My name.
5 And he built altars for all the host of the heavens in the two courts of the house of YAHWEH.
6 And he made his son to pass through the fire, used magic, and used divination, and dealt with mediums and soothsayers. He expanded to work the evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, to provoke Him to anger.[2]
7 And he set a graven image of the Asherah that he had made in the house of which YAHWEH had said to David and to his son Solomon, In this house, and in Jerusalem, that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever.
8 And I will not again make the feet of Israel wander any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they observe to do all that I

[1] Hezekiah made a tunnel out of the rock to bring the water inside the city walls in case of a siege. This tunnel was found in the 1890's with the inscription from Hezekiah in Jerusalem near the pool of Shiloam.

[2] Verses 1-6- Manasseh was 12 yrs old and Hezekiah was granted 15 yrs after his prayer to YHWH for more time to live, so Manasseh would have never been born had Hezekiah not asked YHWH for more time and it would have saved the life and sorrow of untold thousands in Judah from his evil ways. Sometimes it is better to simply trust in YHWH's mercy than to dictate our desires to Him from our own selfish hearts.

commanded them, and to all the Torah that My servant Moses commanded them.
9 But they did not listen, and Manasseh caused them to be led astray above the nations that YAHWEH had destroyed from before the sons of Israel.
10 And YAHWEH spoke by His servants the prophets, saying, 11 Because Manasseh the king of Judah has done these abominations, doing more wickedly than all that the Amorites did before him, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols, 12 therefore so says YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, Behold, I am bringing evil on Jerusalem and Judah, so that whoever hears of it, his two ears shall tingle.
13 And I will stretch out over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab, and shall wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish (he wipes and turns it on its face).
14 And I will abandon the remnant of My inheritance, and give them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall be for a prey and for a spoil to all their enemies, 15 because they have done evil in My eyes, and have provoked Me to anger from the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day.
16 And also Manasseh has shed very much innocent blood, till he has filled Jerusalem from mouth to mouth;
apart from his sin that he caused Judah to sin, to do evil in the eyes of
YAHWEH.
17 And the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?
18 And Manasseh lay with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his house in the Garden of Uzza.
And his son Amon reigned in his place.
19 Amon was a son of twenty two years when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.
20 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH, as his father Manasseh
did,
21 and walked in all the way that his father walked, and served the idols that his father served, and bowed himself to them.
22 And he forsook YAHWEH, the Elohim of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of YAHWEH.
23 And the servants of Amon conspired against him and killed the king in his own house.
24 And the people of the land killed
all those who conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.
25 And the rest of the acts of Amon that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?
26 And they buried him in his grave in the garden of Uzza. And his son Josiah reigned in his place.

Chapter 22

1 Josiah was a son of eight years
when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty one years in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath.
2 And he did the good in the eyes of YAHWEH, and walked in all the way of his father David, and did not turn aside to the right or the left.
3 And it happened, in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of

Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of YAHWEH, saying,

4 Go to Hilkiah the high priest, and he shall count the silver that is brought into the house of YAHWEH that the keepers of the door have gathered from the people.

5 And they will give into the hand of the workers, those who oversee in the house of YAHWEH; and they shall give it to the doers of the work who are in the house of YAHWEH, to repair the breaks of the house;

6 to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons, and to buy wood and cut stone to strengthen the house;

7 only, the silver that is given into their hand shall not be reckoned with them, for they are acting in faithfulness.

8 And Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the Book of the Torah in the house of YAHWEH; and Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought back word to the king, and said, Your servants have poured out the silver that has been found in the house, and have given it into the hand of the doers of the work, those who oversee in the house of YAHWEH.

10 And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest has given a book to me; and Shaphan read it before the king.

11 And it happened when the king heard the Words of the Book of the Torah, he tore his garments.

12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah the king's servant, saying,

13 Go, inquire of YAHWEH for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, as to the Words of this Book that has been found; for great is the wrath of YAHWEH that burns against us, because our fathers have not listened to the Words of this Book, to do according to all that which is written concerning us.

14 And Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went to Huldah the prophetess the wife of Shallum, the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, the keeper of the wardrobe (and she lived in Jerusalem, in the second quarter). And they spoke with her.

15 And she said to them, So says YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 So says YAHWEH, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the Words of the Book which the king of Judah has read;

17 because they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore My wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18 And to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of YAHWEH, you shall say this to him, So says YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, the words that you have heard, 19 (because your heart was tender, and you have bowed before YAHWEH when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against those living in it, to become a desolation and a curse, and have torn your clothes, and have wept before Me;) even also I have heard, says YAHWEH.

20 Behold! Even so I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered into your grave in peace; and your eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring on this place. And they brought back this word to the king.

Chapter 23

1 And the king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And the king went up to the house of YAHWEH, and every man of Judah, and all the ones living in Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, from small to great; and he read in their ears all the Words of the Book of the covenant that was found in the house of YAHWEH. (1Kgs 13:1-2)

3 And the king stood by the pillar, and made the covenant before YAHWEH, to walk after YAHWEH, and to keep His commandments, and His testimonies, and His statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to lift up the Words of this covenant that were written in this Book. And all the people stood to the covenant.

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring out from the temple of YAHWEH all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for Asherah, and for all the host of the heavens. And he burned them at the outside of Jerusalem, in the fields of Kidron[1], and carried their ashes to Bethel.

5 And he caused to cease the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had given place to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places around Jerusalem, and those burning incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to constellations, and to all the host of the heavens.

6 And he brought out the sacred pole[2] from the house of YAHWEH to the outside of Jerusalem, to the torrent Kidron, and burned it at the torrent Kidron, and ground it to powder, and threw the powder of it on the graves of the sons of the people.

7 And he broke down the houses of the male prostitutes that were in the house of YAHWEH, where the women were weaving shelters for Asherah.

8 And he made all the priests come in out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests burned incense, from Geba to Beer-Sheba, and broke down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Yahoshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city.

9 However the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of YAHWEH in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers.

10 And he defiled Topheth in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, so that no man could cause his son and his daughter to pass through the fire of Molech. (Is 30:33, Lev 20:2)

11 And he caused to cease the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of YAHWEH, by the room of Nathan-Melech the eunuch, that was in the suburbs. And he burned with fire the chariots of the sun.

12 And the altars that were on the top of the upper room of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of YAHWEH, the king broke down, and ran from there and threw the dust of them into the torrent Kidron.

13 And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the Mount of Corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the idol of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the idol of the Moabites, and for Milcom the idol of the sons of Ammon, the king defiled.

14 And he broke the images in pieces, and cut down the Asherahs, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 And also the altar that was in Bethel, the high place that Jeroboam the son of Nebat had made by which he made Israel to sin, both that altar and the high place he broke down, and burned the high place; he ground it into powder, and burned the Asherah.

16 And Josiah turned and saw the graves that were there in the mount, and sent and took the bones out of the graves and burned them on the altar, and defiled it according to the Word of YAHWEH that the man of Elohim had proclaimed, who had proclaimed these things.

17 And he said, What is this monument that I see? And the men of the city said to him, The grave of the man of the true Elohim who came from Judah and proclaimed these things that you have done concerning the altar of Bethel.

18 And he said, Let him alone, let no one touch his bones. And they let his bones escape with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria.

19 And also all the houses of the high places in the cities of Samaria, that the kings of Israel had made to provoke to anger, Josiah took away, and he did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel.

20 And he slaughtered all the priests of the high places who were there by the altars, and burned the bones of man upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Perform a Passover to YAHWEH your Elohim, as it is written in this Book of the covenant.

22 Surely none has been performed like this Passover from the days of the Judges who judged Israel even to all the days of the kings of Israel, and of the kings of Judah;

23 but in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was prepared to YAHWEH in Jerusalem.

24 And also the mediums, and the spirit-knowers, and the family gods, and the idols, and all the detestable things that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, Josiah put away in order to fulfill the Words of the Torah that were written in the Book that Hilkiah the priest had found in the house of YAHWEH.

25 And there was no king before him like him, who turned to YAHWEH with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the Torah of Moses; and after him none rose up like him.

26 However, YAHWEH did not turn away from the fury of His great anger with which His anger glowed against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him.

27 And YAHWEH said, I will also turn away Judah from My face, as I turned Israel away, and I will reject this city that I have chosen, Jerusalem, and the house of which I have said, My name shall be there.

28 And the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?

29 In his days Pharaoh-Necho the king of Egypt came up against the king of Assyria by the river Euphrates; and King Josiah went out to meet him, and he killed him in Megiddo, when he saw him.

30 And his servants made him ride dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and they buried him in his own grave. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah and anointed him, and made him king in place of his father.

31 Jehoahaz was a son of twenty three years when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH according to all that his fathers did.

33 And Pharaoh-Necho bound him in Riblah, in the land of Hamath, from reigning in Jerusalem, and he put a fine on the land, a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

34 And Pharaoh-Necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah to reign instead of Josiah his father, and turned his name into Jehoiakim; and he took away Jehoahaz, and he came to Egypt and died there.

35 And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the silver by the mouth of Pharaoh. From each, according to his valuation, he exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, to give to Pharaoh-Necho.

36 Jehoiakim was a son of twenty five years when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years; and the name of his mother was Zebudah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

37 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH according to all that his fathers did.

Chapter 24

1 In his days Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim was a servant to him three years; and he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And YAHWEH sent against him the troops of the Chaldeans, and the troops of Syria, and the troops of Moab, and the troops of the Ammonites; and He sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the Word of YAHWEH that He spoke by the hand of His servants the prophets.

3 Only at the mouth of YAHWEH this came upon Judah, to remove them from His presence for the sins of Manasseh, according to all he did,

4 and also the innocent blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and YAHWEH was not willing to forgive.

5 And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Matters of the Days of the Kings of Judah?

6 And Jehoiakim lay with his fathers. And his son Jehoiachin reigned in his place.

7 And the king of Egypt did not come again out of his land; for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt to the Euphrates River, all owned by the king of Egypt.

8 Jehoiachin was a son of eighteen years when he began to reign and he reigned in Jerusalem three months; and the name of his mother was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

9 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH according to all that his fathers did.

10 At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and the city came under siege.

11 And Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants lay siege to it.

12 And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother, and his servants, and his leaders, and his eunuchs. And the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign.

13 And he brought out from there all the treasures of the house of YAHWEH, and the treasures of the house of the king, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold that Solomon the king of Israel had made in the temple of YAHWEH, as YAHWEH had spoken.

14 And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the leaders, and all the mighty men of valor, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained except the poorest sort of the people of the land.

15 And he exiled Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his eunuchs, and the mighty ones of the land; he caused a captivity to go from Jerusalem to Babylon.

16 And all the men of valor were seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths a thousand; all were mighty men, warriors; and the king of Babylon brought them in a captivity to Babylon.

17 And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, the brother of his father, to reign in his place, and turned his name into Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah was a son of twenty one years when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years; and the name of his mother was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19 And he did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH according to all that Jehoiakim did.

20 For through the anger of YAHWEH it happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until He had cast them out from His face, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Chapter 25

1 And it happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth of the month, Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and camped against it, and built a siege mound all around it.

2 And the city entered into siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah,

3 on the ninth of the month, when the famine was severe in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land,

4 then the city was broken into, and by night all the men of war went by way of the gate, between the two walls by the king's garden; and the Chaldeans were against the city all around; and the king went the way toward the Arabah.

5 And the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook him in the Arabah of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

6 And they seized the king and brought him to the king of Babylon, to Riblah; and they gave judgment on him.

7 And they killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and blinded Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with copper fetters and caused him to go to Babylon.

8 And in the fifth month, on the seventh of the month (it was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchad-nezzar, the king of Babylon) Nebuzaradan the chief of the executioners, the servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

9 And he burned the house of YAHWEH, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; yea, he burned every great house with fire.

10 And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the chief of the executioners broke down the wall of Jerusalem all around.

11 And the rest of the people, those left in the city, and those that had fallen away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude, Nebuzaradan the chief of the executioners exiled.

12 But the chief of the executioners left of the poorest of the land for vinedressers and farmers.

13 And the copper pillars in the house of YAHWEH, and the bases, and the copper sea in the house of YAHWEH, the Chaldeans broke in pieces and lifted up their copper to Babylon.

14 And they took the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of copper with which they ministered.

15 And the chief of the executioners took the firepans, and the sprinkling basins, all of gold and silver.

16 There was no weighing of the copper of all these vessels, the two pillars, the one sea, and the bases that Solomon had made for the house of YAHWEH.

17 Eighteen cubits was the height of the one pillar, and the capital on it was of copper, and the height of the capital was three cubits, and the grating and the pomegranates were on the capital all around; all was of copper. And the second pillar was like these with the grating.

18 And the chief of the executioners took Seraiah the head priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the gate;

19 and he took out of the city a certain eunuch who was appointed over the men of war, and five men of those who saw the king's face, found in the city, and the chief scribe of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land found in the city.

20 And Nebuzaradan chief of the executioners took them and made them go to the king of Babylon, to Riblah.

21 And the king of Babylon struck them, and killed them in Riblah, in the land of Hamath; and he exiled Judah from its land.

22 And the people that were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had left, he appointed over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan.

23 And all the commanders of the army, they and the men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah. And they came to Gedaliah, to Mizpeh, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

24 And Gedaliah swore to them, and to their men, and said to them, Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans; live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

25 And it happened in the seventh month Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama of the seed of the kingdom, and ten men with him came, and they struck Gedaliah, and he died, and the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him in Mizpah.

26 And all the people rose up, from the small even to the great, and the commanders of the armies, and came into Egypt, for they were afraid of the face of the Chaldeans.

27 And it happened in the thirty seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin the king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the twenty seventh of the month, Evil-Merodach the king of Babylon, in the year he began to reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin the king of Judah out of the prison,

28 and spoke good things with him, and put his throne above the throne of the kings with him in Babylon.

29 And he changed his prison garments, and he ate bread continually before him all the days of his life.

30 And his allowance, a continual allowance, was given to him from the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.

Book of Isaiah 740-680 BC

Chapter 1

1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, O heavens, and listen, O earth! For YAHWEH has spoken: I have enlarged and brought up sons, but they have rebelled against Me.

3 The ox knows his owner, the donkey his master's manger, but Israel does not know; My people have not understood.

4 Woe, sinful nation, a people heavy with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, sons who corrupt! They have forsaken YAHWEH; they have scorned the Holy One of Israel. They are estranged backward.

5 Why will you be beaten any more? Will you continue the revolt? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart is faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even to the head, no soundness is in it; only a wound and a stripe and a fresh blow; they have not been closed, nor bound up; nor softened with oil.

7 Your land is a desolation; your cities burned with fire. Foreigners devour your land before you; and behold, ruin, as overthrown by foreigners.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left like a booth in a vineyard, like a hut in a cucumber field, like a besieged city.

9 Except YAHWEH of Hosts had left a remnant for us, a few, we would be as Sodom; we would be as Gomorrah[1].

10 Hear the Word of YAHWEH, rulers of Sodom. Listen to the Torah of our Elohim, people of Gomorrah.

11 What good to Me are your many sacrifices, says YAHWEH? I am full with burnt offerings of rams, the fat of fattened cattle, and the blood of bulls; nor do I delight in the blood of lambs and he-goats.

12 When you come to see My face, who has required this at your hand, to trample My courts?

13 Do not add to bringing vain sacrifice; its incense is an abomination to Me. The new moon and Sabbath, the going to meeting, I cannot endure the evil assembly.

14 My soul hates your new moons and your appointed feasts. They are a burden to Me. I am disgusted of bearing them.

15 And when you spread out your hands, I will hide My eyes from you. Yea, when you multiply prayer, I will not hear. Your hands are full of blood.[2]

16 Wash yourselves, purify yourselves. Put away the evil of your doings from My sight; stop doing evil.

17 Learn to do good, seek justice, make straight the violent one, judge the orphan, contend for the widow.[3]

18 Come now and let us reason together, says YAHWEH: Though your sins are as scarlet, they shall be white as snow; though they are red as the crimson, they shall be like wool.

19 If you are willing and hear, you shall eat the good of the land.

20 But if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of YAHWEH has spoken.

21 Oh how the faithful city has become a harlot! She was full of justice; righteousness lodged in it. But now, murderers!

22 Your silver has become dross; your wine is diluted with water.[4]

[4] They were overtaken with a spirit of compromise.

23 Your princes are rebellious and companions of thieves. Everyone loves a bribe, and is pursuing rewards. They do not judge the orphan, nor does the cause of the widow come to them,

24 and says the Master, YAHWEH of Hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Alas! I will be eased of My foes, and avenge Myself of My enemies.

25 And I will return My hand on you, and refine your dross, as with lye, and turn aside all your alloy.

26 And I will return your judges as at the first; and your advisers, as at the beginning; then you shall be called the city of righteousness, a faithful city[1].

27 Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her returning ones with righteousness.[2]

28 And the ruin of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together. And those who forsake YAHWEH shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the trees which you lusted after; and you shall be ashamed of the gardens that you have chosen.[3]

30 For you shall be like a tree whose leaf fades, and like a garden that has no water in it.

31 And the strong shall be for tow, and his work for a spark; and they shall burn both together and no one shall quench them. (Math 3:12)

Chapter 2

1 The Word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

2 And it shall be in the last days, the mountain[4] of the house of YAHWEH shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow into it.

3 And many people shall go and say, Come and let us go up to the mount of YAHWEH, to the house of the Elohim of Jacob. And He will teach from His ways, and we will walk in His paths. For out of Zion the Torah will go forth, and the Word of YAHWEH from Jerusalem[5].

4 And He shall judge among the nations and shall rebuke many people. And they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, nor shall they learn war any more.

5 Oh house of Jacob, come and let us walk in the light of YAHWEH.

6 For You have forsaken Your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled from the east, and are fortunetellers like the Philistines. And they clap hands with children of foreigners.

7 And his land is filled with silver and gold. There is no end of his treasures. And his land is full of horses; his chariots also do not have an end.

8 And his land is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.

9 And man bowed down; and man

1 It was never the intention of YHWH to have a earthly king over Israel. The original system set up under Moses was for judges in each area and captains over 1,000's, over 100's and 50's and over 10's. YAHWEH would have been King over them. (1Sam 8:4-9) was humbled, but You do not lift them up.

10 Enter into the rock and hide in the dust from fear of YAHWEH, and from the glory of His majesty.
11 The lofty eyes of the proud man shall be humbled, and the pride of men shall be bowed down; but YAHWEH, He alone, will be exalted in that day.
12 For the day of YAHWEH of Hosts shall be on all the proud and lofty ones, and on all that is lifted up; and it will be abased;
13 and against all Lebanon's cedars, high and lifted up; and against all the oaks of Bashan[1];
14 and against all the high mountains; and against all the lifted up hills;
15 and against every tall tower; and against every fortified wall;
16 and against all the ships of Tarshish[2]; and on all desirable craft.
17 And the pride of man shall be humbled; and the loftiness of men shall be abased; and YAHWEH alone will be exalted in that day.
18 And the idols shall completely vanish.
19 And they shall go into the caves of the rocks, and into the holes of the earth, for dread of YAHWEH, and from the glory of His majesty; when He rises up to make the earth quake.
20 In that day a man shall throw his silver and his golden idols which they made for him to worship to the hole of the burrower and to bats;
21 To go into the crevices of the rocks, and into the clefts of the cliffs, from the dread of YAHWEH, and from the glory of His majesty, when He rises up to make the earth quake.
22 Cease yourself from man, whose breath is in his nostril; for in what is he to be esteemed?

Chapter 3

1 For, behold, the Master, YAHWEH of Hosts, takes away the stay and the staff from Jerusalem and from Judah; the whole stay of bread and the whole stay of water;
2 the mighty man and the man of war; the judge, the prophet and the one divining and the elder;
3 the commander of fifty and the exalted of face; the counselor and the skilled craftsman; and the expert enchanter.
4 And I will give young boys to be their rulers, and a tyrant shall rule over them.
5 And the people shall be crushed, man against man, and a man on his neighbor. The boy will be insolent against the elder, and the despised against the honorable.
6 When a man shall take hold of his brother, at his father's house, saying, A cloak! Come, you be a ruler for us; let this ruin be under your hand.
7 In that day he shall swear, saying, I will not be one who binds up; for there is no bread nor a cloak in my house; you shall not make me a ruler of the people.
8 For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen; because their tongue and their doings toward YAHWEH are to rebel against the eyes of His glory.
9 The expression of their faces witnesses against them; they have declared their sin like Sodom; they do not hide it. Woe to their soul! For they have dealt evil to themselves.

10 Say to the righteous that it is well;
for they shall eat of the fruit of their doings.
11 Woe to the wicked! For the evil, the doing of his hand will be done to
him.
12 As for My people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over him[1]. Oh My people, those leading you cause you to go astray, and they swallow the way of your paths.
13 YAHWEH stands up to plead His cause, and stands up to judge the peoples.
14 YAHWEH will enter into judgment with the elders of His people and their kings. For you have eaten up the vineyard, the plunder of the poor is in your houses.
15 What do you mean that you crush My people, and grind the faces of the poor, says Adonai YAHWEH of Hosts?
16 And YAHWEH says, Because the daughters of Zion are proud, and walk with stretched out necks and wanton[2] eyes, walking and mincing as they go,
and make a tinkling with their feet;
17 So YAHWEH will make the crown of the daughter of Zion scabby; and YAHWEH will lay their secret parts bare.
18 In that day YAHWEH will take away the beauty of the ankle bracelets, the headbands, and the crescents, 19 the pendants, the bracelets and the veils;
20 the turbans, the leg ornaments,
the sashes and the houses of the soul,
and the amulets;
21 the rings and nose jewels;
22 the festal apparel and the outer garments; and the mantles, and the purses[3]; 23 the mirrors and the fine linen;
and the turbans and the veils.
24 And it shall be, instead of a smell of perfume, there shall be an odor of decay. And instead of a sash, a rope.
And instead of well set hair, baldness.
And instead of a rich robe, a girding of sackcloth; a scar instead of beauty.
25 Your men shall fall by the sword and your mighty in the war.
26 And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she shall sit bare on the ground.

Chapter 4

1 And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothing, only let your name be called on us[4]; collect our shame.
2 In that day the Branch of YAHWEH will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth for pride and for glory for the survivors of Israel.
3 And it shall be, he remaining in Zion, and he who is left in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, every one who is written among the living in Jerusalem;
4 When YAHWEH shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and the blood of Jerusalem shall have been rinsed away from its midst by a spirit of judgment, and by a spirit of burning[1].

5 Then YAHWEH will create a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night, over all the site of Mount Zion, and over her assemblies; for over all the glory will be a canopy.

6 And there shall be a booth for a shade from the heat, and for a refuge, and for a hiding place from storm and rain[2].

Chapter 5

1 Now I will sing to my Beloved a song of my Beloved concerning His vineyard: My Beloved has a vineyard in a fruitful horn[3]. (Is 27:2)

2 And He dug it, and cleared it of stones, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in its midst, and also hewed out a wine vat in it. And He waited for it to produce grapes, but it produced rotten grapes.

3 And now, O people of Jerusalem and men of Judah, I ask you, judge between Me and My vineyard.

4 What more could have been done to My vineyard that I have not done in it? Who knows? I waited for it to yield grapes, but it yielded rotten grapes[4].

5 And now I will make known to you what I will do then to My vineyard. I will take away its hedge, and it will be burned. I will breach its wall, and it will become a trampling ground.

6 And I will lay it waste; it shall not be pruned nor hoed; but briers and thorns shall come up. And I will command the clouds from raining rain on it.

7 For the vineyard of YAHWEH of Hosts is the house of Israel, and the man of Judah is His delightful plant. And He waited for justice, but behold, bloodshed; for righteousness, but behold, a cry!

8 Woe to those touching house to house, bringing near field to field until the end of space, and you are made to dwell alone in the middle of the land[5]!

9 YAHWEH of Hosts has sworn in my ears, If not, many houses shall be a waste, large and beautiful ones without one living in them.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of a homer shall yield an ephah.

11 Woe to those who rise early in the morning to pursue fermented drink, tarrying in the twilight while wine inflames them!

12 And the lyre and the harp, the timbrel and flute, and wine are at their feasts; but they do not regard the work of YAHWEH; yea, they do not see the work of His hands.

13 For this My people go into exile without knowledge, and his men of glory into famine; and his multitude is parched with thirst.

14 So Sheol has enlarged its appetite, and opened its mouth without measure, and her glory and her multitude, and her uproar, he who exults in her, shall come down in it.

15 And man is bowed down, and man is humbled, and the eyes of the proud are humbled.

16 But YAHWEH of Hosts is exalted in judgment, and Elohim the Holy One is proven holy in righteousness.
17 Then the lambs shall feed as in their pasture, and strangers shall eat
the waste places of the fatlings.
18 Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as with ropes of a cart;
19 who say, Let Him hurry and hasten His work, so that we may see;
and let the purpose of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, so that we may know[1]!
20 Woe to those who say to evil, good; and to good, evil; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!
21 Woe to those wise in their own eyes, and discerning in their own sight!
22 Woe to those mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mix fermented drink;
23 who justify the wicked for a bribe, and turn aside the righteousness of the righteous from him!
24 So, as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and the flame burns up the chaff; their root shall be like rottenness, and their blossoms shall go up like dust, because they have rejected the Torah of YAHWEH of Hosts; and despised the Word of the Holy One of Israel.
25 On account of this the anger of YAHWEH is kindled on His people, and He has stretched out His hand against them, and has struck them;
and the mountains quaked, and their dead bodies were as filth in the midst of the streets. In all this His anger does not turn away, but His hand is stretched out still.
26 And He will lift up a banner to distant nations, and will hiss to them from the ends of the earth; and, behold, it shall come with swift speed!
27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none will slumber nor sleep; nor shall the waist cloth of their loins be opened, nor the thong of their sandals broken;
28 whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses' hooves shall appear as flint, and their wheels like a hurricane.
29 Their roaring shall be like a lion;
they shall roar like young lions. Yea, they roar and seize the prey and carry it away; and no one shall deliver.
30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea; when one looks to the land, and lo, darkness! Distress! And light shall be darkened by its clouds.

Chapter 6

1 In the year that King Uzziah died, then I saw YAHWEH sitting on a throne, high and lifted up. And His train filled the temple.
2 Above it stood the seraphim[2]. Each one had six wings; with two he covered his face; and with two he covered his feet; and with two he flew.
3 And one cried to the other and said, Holy, holy, holy is YAHWEH of Hosts; all the earth is full of His glory!
4 And the doorposts shook from the voice of the one who cried; and the house was filled with smoke.
5 Then I said, Woe is me! For I am cut off; for I am a man of unclean lips,

1 A curse on those who want prophecy to happen simply to see the excitement of it not knowing that there are grave times coming in the end of days (Amos 5:18-20)

2 Seraphim were angelic beings such as cherubs. The word seraph comes from the verb to burn and these were representatives of YHWH used for cleansing (Num 21:6).

and I live amongst a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King,
YAHWEH of Hosts.
6 Then one of the seraphs flew to me with a live coal in his hand, snatched with tongs from the altar.
7 And he touched it on my mouth, and said, See, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin is covered[1].
8 And I heard the voice of YAHWEH, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us? Then I said, Here I am. Send me!
9 And He said, Go and say to this people, Hearing you hear, but do not understand; and seeing you see, but do not know.
10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make his ears heavy, and shut his eyes, that he not see with his eyes, and hear with his ears, and understand with his heart, and turn back, and one heals him. (Math 13:13-15)
11 Then I said, Until when, O YAHWEH? And He said, Until cities lie desolate without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land is laid waste, a desolation; 12 and until YAHWEH has sent mankind far away, and the desolation in the midst of the land is great.
13 But yet a tenth[2] shall be in it, and it shall return and be burned like the terebinth and like the oak that in being felled yet has its stump, the holy seed is its stump. [3]

[1] The sin was covered as on Yom Kippur (kippur means to cover), but were not removed. They can only be removed when the penalty is paid. This was done when Messiah was crucified on the Mount of Olives right above the Mikphad altar where all ashes of every sin sacrifice was brought.

[2] It is a pattern in scripture of the set apart 10% always remaining.

[3] It will be purified by trial but the root will remain. Is 11:1, Gen 17:1, Gen 12:3

Chapter 7

1 And it happened in the days of Ahaz: the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but were not able to do battle against it.
2 And the house of David was told, saying, Syria is allied with Ephraim, and his heart and the heart of his people shook, as the trees of the forest shake from the wind.
3 And YAHWEH said to Isaiah, Go out to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-Jashub, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, to the highway of the Fuller's Field.
4 And say to him, Be on guard and be calm. Do not fear nor be timid of heart because of the two tails of these smoking firebrands, because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.
5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have plotted evil against you, saying, 6 Let us go up against Judah and make her to dread, and break her for ourselves, and set a king in her midst, the son of Tabeal[4].
7 So says Adonai YAHWEH, It shall not rise, nor shall it happen.
8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin;
and within sixty five years Ephraim shall be broken from being a people.
9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not believe, surely you will not be established.
10 And YAHWEH spoke again to Ahaz, saying,

[4] This is a play on words whereas Tabeal means "good for Elohim", he was going to be "good for nothing".

11 Ask a sign from YAHWEH your Elohim; make deep the request, or make it high above.
12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, nor will I tempt YAHWEH.
13 And He said, Hear now, O house of David, is it too little that you weary men, but will you also weary my Elohim?
14 So, YAHWEH Himself will give you a sign: Behold[1]! The virgin[2] will conceive and will bring forth a son; and she shall call His name ImmanuEl[3].
15 He shall eat curds and honey until He knows to refuse the evil and choose the good.
16 For before the boy shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that you hate will be forsaken before both her kings[4].
17 YAHWEH shall bring the king of Assyria on you, and on your people, and on your father's house, days which have not come since the days Ephraim turned aside from Judah.
18 And it shall be in that day YAHWEH shall hiss for the fly that is in the end of the rivers of Egypt and for the bee in the land of Assyria.
19 And they shall come, and they shall all rest in the steep ravines, and in the clefts of the rocks, and in all the thorn bushes, and in all the pastures.
20 In that day YAHWEH will shave with a razor that is hired, beyond the River, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet, and also it shall sweep away the beard.
21 And it shall be in that day, a man shall keep alive a heifer of the herd, and two sheep.
22 And it shall be, he shall eat curds from the plenty of milk making; for everyone who is left in the land shall eat curds and honey.[5]
23 And it shall be in that day, every place where there were a thousand vines worth a thousand pieces of silver, it shall be for briers and thorns.
24 With arrows and with the bow, he shall come there; because all the land shall be briers and thorns.
25 And all the hills which were hoed with the hoe, you shall not come there for fear of briers and thorns; but it shall be for the sending out of the ox, and for trampling of sheep.

Chapter 8

1 And YAHWEH said to me, Take a big tablet and write in it with a man's

1 Whereever the word behold "hineh" in the Hebrew appears with the present participle it always refers to a future event.

2 This word in Hebrew is "almah" and can only mean a women or young women who has never had sexual relations with a man.

3 Immanual means "Elohim is with us" and clearly shows that although the Messiah will be born from a virgin He will also be Elohim. The situation is that YHWH has already promised that the Messiah would come through the seed of David and now Syria is threatening to destroy Judah. Yahweh is giving a sign to show that Judah will not be destroyed before the Messiah will be born and to show He is the Messiah He will be born of a virgin. If this was simply a statement about a young woman having a baby where would be the sign? Also, in English the word "you" is ambiguous and can mean one person or multiple people. In Hebrew this is not the case and in verse 9, 11, 16 and 17 the "you" is in the singular speaking to Ahaz. However in verse 13 and 14, which are insertion prophetic verses about Messiah, the "you" is plural speaking to the nation.

4 This verse speaking about Ahaz son was fulfilled as within 12 yrs of this prophecy Damascus was captured by Assyria (732) and Israel had also fallen (721).

5 This is because of the devastation of the land by Assyria.

And she conceived, and bore a son.
Then YAHWEH said to me, Call his to the spoil[2]!

4 For before the boy knows to cry,
My father, or, My mother, the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria

Assyria.
5 YAHWEH also spoke to me again,
saying,
6 Because this people has refused the waters of Shiloah that flow softly, and rejoices in Rezin and Remaliah's son, 7 Behold, therefore YAHWEH also brings on them the waters of the River, mighty and many, the king of Assyria and all his glory. And he shall come up over all its channels and go over all its banks.
8 And he shall pass through Judah.
He shall overflow and go over. He shall reach to the neck; and his wings will be stretching out, filling the breadth of your land, O Immanuel.
9 O peoples, suffer evil, and be broken! And listen, all from the far places of the earth; gird yourselves, and be broken. Gird yourselves and be broken!
10 Counsel a plan, and it is frustrated; speak a word, and it shall not rise; for El is with us (ImmanuEl).
11 For so YAHWEH spoke to me with a strong hand, and taught me against walking in the way of this people, saying, 12 Do not say, A conspiracy, to everything of which this people says, A conspiracy! And do not fear its fear, and do not dread.
13 Sanctify YAHWEH of Hosts Himself, and let Him be your fear; and let Him be your dread.
14 And He shall be for a sanctuary, and for a stone of stumbling, and for a rock of falling to the two houses of Israel; for a trap and for a snare to the ones living in Jerusalem.
15 And many among them shall stumble and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.
16 Bind up the Testimony and seal
the Torah among My disciples[3].
17 And I will wait on YAHWEH, who hides His face from the house of Jacob; and I will look for Him.
18 Behold, I and the children whom YAHWEH has given to me are for signs and wonders in Israel from YAHWEH of Hosts, who dwells in Mount Zion.
19 And when they say to you, Seek to the mediums, and to fortunetellers who peep and mutter; should not a people seek to its Elohim, rather than for the living to seek to the dead?
20 To the Torah and to the Testimony! If they do not speak according to this Word, it is because there is no light to them[4]!
21 And they shall pass through it, hard pressed and hungry. And it shall be, they shall be hungry; he will rave and curse his king and his Elohim, and face upward.
22 And they shall look to the land.
And, behold, distress and darkness and gloom of anguish; and they are driven to darkness.

[1] The Hebrew word for this phrase to hurry the spoil and haste to plunder is "Maher-shalal-hash-baz". This was the name of Isaiah's second son.

[2] "Maher-shalal-hash-baz"

[3] The true disciples of YHWH would have the Torah written on their hearts Jer 31:33.

[4] Any true servant of YHWH will teach only what is scripturally sound according to the Torah.

Chapter 9

1 Yet there shall not be gloom for which anguish is to her; as in the former time when He degraded the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, so afterwards He will glorify the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the nations.
2 The people who walk in darkness have seen a great light. The ones who dwell in the land of the shadow of death, light has shone on them[1].
3 You have not multiplied the nation; You have not increased the joy.
They rejoice before You as in the joy of harvest, as men shout when they divide the plunder.
4 For You have broken his burdensome yoke and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his taskmaster, as in the day of Midian.
5 For every boot of the trampler is with shaking, and a coat rolled in blood shall be burning fuel for the fire.
6 For unto us a Child is born; to us a Son is given; and the government is on His shoulder; and His name is called Wonderful Counselor, The Mighty El,
The Prince of Peace, The one who Fathered Everlasting life[2].
7 There is no end to the increase of His government and of peace on the throne of David, and on His kingdom, to order it, and to sustain it with justice and with righteousness, from now and forever. The zeal of YAHWEH of Hosts will do this.
8 YAHWEH sent a Word into Jacob, and it has fallen into Israel.
9 And all the people shall know, Ephraim and the ones living in Samaria, who say in pride and greatness of heart, 10 Bricks have fallen, but we will build with cut stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we will substitute with cedars instead[3].
11 And YAHWEH will set up Rezin's foes against him, and join together his enemies;
12 Syrians in front, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with all the mouth. In all this His anger does not turn away, but His hand is still stretched out.
13 For the people do not turn to Him who strikes them, and they do not seek YAHWEH of Hosts.
14 And YAHWEH will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day.
15 The elder and the exalted of face;
he is the head. And the prophet who teaches lies, he is the tail.
16 For this people's leaders led them astray, and its guided ones are swallowed up.
17 For this, YAHWEH shall not rejoice over their young men, nor have pity on their orphans and widows; for everyone is a hypocrite and an evildoer; and every mouth speaks foolishness. In all this His anger does not turn away, but His hand is still stretched out.
18 For wickedness burns like a fire;
it shall devour the briers and thorns and shall kindle the thickets of the forest; and they shall roll upward, like the going up of smoke.
19 The land is scorched by the wrath of YAHWEH of Hosts, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire; no man shall spare his brother.
20 And he shall cut off on the right

1 Math 4:15-16

2 This scripture shows that the Messiah would be born as a human, but also 3 out of the 4 titles mentioned also show that He will be Elohim.

3 Instead of repenting for their sin and looking toward Elohim, the people are saying that they will merely rebuild and move on as if nothing has happened.

hand, yet be hungry. And he shall eat on the left, but not be satisfied. Each man shall eat the flesh of his own arm;
21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; together they are against Judah. In all this His anger does not turn away, but His hand is still stretched out.

Chapter 10

1 Woe to those who decree decrees of injustice, and writers who write toil; 2 to turn aside the poor from judgment, and to steal justice from the poor of My people; that widows may be their prey; that they may rob orphans.
3 And what will you do in the day of visitation and of destruction? It comes from far away. To whom will you flee for help? And where will you leave your glory?
4 Surely, he will grovel under the prisoners, and they will fall under the slain. In all this His anger does not turn away, but His hand is still stretched out.
5 Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger! And My fury is the staff in their hand.
6 I will send him against a profane nation, and against the people of My wrath. I will command him to plunder, and to strip off spoil, and to trample them like the mud of the streets.
7 Yet he does not purpose this, nor does his heart think so. For it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off not a few nations.
8 For he says, Are not my commanders all like kings?
9 Is not Calno like Carchemish? Is Hamath not like Arpad? Is Samaria not like Damascus?
10 As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols (for their carved images excelled those of Jerusalem and Samaria);
11 shall I not do to Jerusalem and her idols as I have done to Samaria and her idols?
12 And it will be, when YAHWEH has broken off all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will visit on the fruit of the proud heart of the king of Assyria, and on the glory of his lofty eyes.
13 For he says, I have worked by the strength of my hand and by my wisdom; for I am wise. And I take away the borders of peoples, and have robbed their treasures. And like a mighty one, I have subdued the inhabitants.
14 And my hand has found the riches of the people. Like a nest, I also have gathered all the earth, as forsaken eggs are gathered. And there was not one moving a wing, or opening a mouth, or one chirping.
15 Shall the axe glorify itself over him chopping with it? Or shall the saw magnify itself over him moving it? As if a rod could wave those who lift it. As if a staff could raise what is not wood!
16 Therefore the Master, YAHWEH of Hosts shall send leanness among his fat ones. And under His glory will kindle a burning like the burning of fire.
17 And the Light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame; and it shall burn and devour his thorns and briers in one day.
18 And He shall consume the glory of his forest and his fruitful field, even from soul to flesh; and it shall be as a sick man melts away.
19 And the rest of the trees of the forest shall be few, so that a boy might write them.
20 And it shall be in that day, the remnant of Israel, and the escaped ones from the house of Jacob, shall not any more lean on him who struck him. But they will truly lean on YAHWEH, the Holy One of Israel.

21 The remnant shall return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty El.
22 For though Your people Israel is like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of it shall return[1]; a decisive end, overflowing with righteousness.
23 For Adonai YAHWEH of Hosts is making a full end, even ordained, in the midst of all the land.
24 So Adonai YAHWEH of Hosts says this: Oh My people who dwell in Zion, do not fear Assyria. He shall strike you with the rod, and he shall lift up his staff against you in the way of Egypt.
25 But yet a little while, and the fury is finished; and My anger shall be over their destruction.
26 And YAHWEH of Hosts shall stir up a whip on him, according to the striking of Midian at the rock Oreb; and as His rod was on the sea, and He lifted it up in the way of Egypt.
27 And it shall be in that day, his burden shall turn away from on your shoulder, and his yoke from your neck;
and the yoke shall be destroyed
because of the anointing.
28 He has come to Aiath; he has passed to Migron; he has left his baggage at Michmash.
29 They have crossed the ford; they have bedded down at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul has fled.
30 Shriek with your voice, daughter of ruins; bow, Laish, afflicted of Anathoth.
31 Madmenah wanders; those living in Gebim take refuge.
32 Yet he remains in Nob today; he will shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.
33 Behold, the Master, YAHWEH of Hosts, shall lop the bough of terror!
And the lofty ones shall be cut down,
and the proud shall be humbled.
34 And He shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

Chapter 11

1 And a Shoot goes out from the stump of Jesse[2], and a Branch[3] will bear fruit out of his roots.
2 And the Spirit of YAHWEH shall rest on Him; He will have the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and power, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of
YAHWEH[4].
3 And He is made to breathe in the fear of YAHWEH. But He shall not judge by the sight of His eyes, nor decide by the hearing of His ears.
4 But He shall judge the poor in righteousness, and shall decide rightly for the meek of the earth. And He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, and He shall cause the wicked to die with the breath of His lip.
5 And righteousness shall be the encircler of His loins, and faithfulness
the encircler of His loins.
6 And the wolf shall live with the

[1] Ro 9:27-28 Although there would be millions upon millions of Israelites scattered abroad only a remnant will return.

[2] Jesse was the father of David and this shows that when the Messiah will appear David will not have a great dynasty as he did, but there will merely be a shoot coming from the stump of Jesse. When David was under his father Jesse he was still a shepherd before he was a king.

[3] The word in Hebrew for branch is "netzar" and this is the scripture referred to in Math 2:23, the whole chapter is Messianic.

[4] Where believers get a down payment of the Holy Spirit (2Cor 5:5), the Messiah has the fullness of the spirit of YHWH.

lamb; and the leopard shall lie with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little boy shall lead them.

7 The cow and the bear shall feed, their young shall lie together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the infant shall play on the hole of the asp; yea, the weaned child shall put his hand on the viper's den[1].

9 They shall not do evil, nor destroy in all My holy mountain[2]. For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of YAHWEH, as the waters cover the sea.

10 And it shall be in that day, the Root of Jesse stands as a banner[3] of His people; nations shall seek to Him; and His resting place shall be glorious.

11 And it shall be in that day, YAHWEH shall again set His hand, the second time, to recover the remnant of His people that remains[4], from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Ethiopia, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the coasts of the sea[5].

12 And He shall lift up a banner for the nations, and shall gather the outcasts of Israel, and gather those dispersed from Judah, from the four wings of the earth[6].

13 And the envy of Ephraim shall turn off; and Judah's foes shall be cut off. Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not trouble Ephraim[7].

14 But they shall fly onto the shoulder of the Philistines to the west; together they shall plunder the sons of the east, the stretching of the hand on Edom and Moab and the sons of Ammon; they will obey them.

15 And YAHWEH shall utterly destroy the tongue of the sea of Egypt; and with His scorching wind He shall wave His hand over the River, and shall strike it into seven torrents, and make one tread it with shoes[8].

16 And there shall be a highway for the remnant of His people, those left from Assyria, as it was to Israel in the day when he came up out of the land of Egypt.

Chapter 12

1 And in that day you shall say, O YAHWEH, I will thank You. Though You were angry with me, turn away Your anger and You shall comfort me.

2 Behold, El is Y'shua*[9] ! I will trust and not be afraid, for my strength and song is Yah YAHWEH[10]; yea, He has become to me Y'shua*[11].

1 Verse 6-9 is showing the peaceful nature during the millennial kingdom.

2 Speaking of Jerusalem (Is 2:3).

3 In ancient Israel there was a specific banner for each of the 12 tribes and this is a messianic phrase showing that when the messiah is here all 12 tribes will be restored once again.

4 “In that day”refers to the time period that the messiah will be returning, and at that time Yahweh will regather Israel 2 times. One has already happened with Judah getting a homeland in 1948, and their will be a second regathering of the rest of the remnant of the tribes of Israel in the future.

5 Many of these areas are where the northern tribes of Israel were dispersed in 721-718 B.C.

6 The Messiah is gathering both the House of Judah and the House of Israel (Ezek 37:15-28).

7 Since the days right after king Solomon there has been a vexation between the divided kingdom of Judah and Israel (Ephraim). This is indicating in the messianic age that vexation will be removed through the presence of messiah.

8 If you look at an aerial view of the Red Sea crossing it looks like a lip and this is stating Yahweh in that day will divide it into 7 channels for the returning exiles.

9 Y'shua = My salvation

3 And you shall draw waters out of the wells of salvation with joy[12].

4 And in that day you shall say, Praise YAHWEH! Call on His name; declare His doings among the peoples; make mention that His name is exalted[2].

5 Sing to YAHWEH[3], for He has done majestically; this is known in all the earth.

6 Cry and shout, O dweller of Zion! For great is the Holy One of Israel in your midst.

Chapter 13

1 The burden of Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw:

2 Lift up a banner[4] on a bare mountain; make the voice rise to them; wave the hand that they may enter the gates of nobles.

3 I have commanded My holy ones; I have also called My warriors for My anger, those who rejoice in My Majesty.

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, as of a great people! A noise of tumult of the kingdoms of nations gathered together; YAHWEH of Hosts is calling up an army for the battle.

5 They come from a distant land, from the end of the heavens, YAHWEH and the weapons of His wrath, to destroy all the land.

6 Howl! For the day of YAHWEH is at hand. It shall come as a destruction from the Almighty[5].

7 On account of this all hands shall droop, and every heart of man shall melt;

8 and they shall be afraid. Pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain like one giving birth; they shall be amazed, each man to his neighbor; faces of flames shall be their faces.

9 Behold, the day of YAHWEH comes, cruel and with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land waste. And He shall destroy its sinners out of it.

10 For the stars of the heavens and their constellations shall not give light; the sun shall be darkened in its going forth, and the moon shall not reflect its light. (Joel 2:10)

11 And I will visit evil on the world, and their iniquity on the wicked. And I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease; and I will humble the pride of tyrants.

12 I will make a man more rare than fine gold; even a man more than the carvings of Ophir.

13 So I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall move out of its place, in the wrath of YAHWEH of Hosts, and in the day of His fierce anger. (Is 24:1-6)

14 And it shall be as a gazelle driven away, and as a sheep no one gathers; each man shall look to his own people, and each one shall flee to his land.

15 Everyone who is found shall be pierced through; yea, everyone who is swept away shall fall by the sword.

10 Yahweh is a family name with the Father being Yah Yahweh and the Son Yahshua Yahweh.

11 Yahshua when He came to earth was the exact representation of Yahweh the Father (Col 1:15, Heb 1:3) although they are not the same being they have the same spirit.

12 Joh 7:38

2 In the millennial kingdom all people will honor the one true name of the Creator Yahweh.

3 It is commanded in scripture to exult the name of YHWH, to sing to His name, to praise His name, glorify His name etc. How could one do this without recognizing His true name Yahweh?

4 Is 11:12

5 This is the end time period of YHWH's wrath on mankind for their sin and rebellion.

16 And their children shall be dashed in pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be robbed, and their wives raped.
17 Behold! I stir up the Medes[1] against them, who shall not value silver. And they shall not delight in gold.
18 And bows shall also smash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare sons.
19 And Babylon, the glory of the kingdoms, the beauty of the pride of the Chaldeans, shall be as when Elohim overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. (Jer 50:40)
20 It shall not be lived in forever, nor shall it be lived in from generation to generation. And the dessert wanderer shall not pitch a tent there, nor shall the shepherds make flocks lie down there[2].
21 But the desert creatures shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of howling creatures; and daughters of ostriches shall dwell there; and he-goats shall skip there.
22 And hyenas shall cry along with his widows; and jackals in palaces of delight. Yea, her time to come is near, and her days shall not be prolonged.

Chapter 14

1 For YAHWEH will have pity on Jacob, and will yet choose among Israel, and set them in their own land. And the foreigner shall be joined to them; and they shall cling to the house of Jacob.
2 And the peoples shall take them and bring them to their own place. And the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of YAHWEH for slaves and slave girls. And they shall be captives of their captors; and they shall rule over their oppressors.
3 And it shall be, in the day that YAHWEH shall give you rest from your sorrow, and from your trouble, and from the hard bondage which was pressed on you,
4 you shall lift up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say: How the oppressor, the gold gatherer, has ceased!
5 YAHWEH has broken the rod of the wicked, the staff of rulers,
6 who struck the peoples in wrath, a blow without turning away, ruling the nations in anger, dealing out persecution without restraint.
7 All the earth is at rest, quiet; they break forth into singing.
8 Yea, the fir trees rejoice over you; the cedars of Lebanon say, Since you have lain down, no wood cutter will come up against us.
9 Sheol from below is stirred for you, to meet you at your coming; it stirs up the departed spirits for you, all the leaders of the people of the earth. It has raised all the kings of the nations from their thrones.
10 All of them shall answer and say to you, Are you also made as weak as we? Are you likened to us?
11 Your majesty is lowered into Sheol; the noise of your harps. The maggot is spread under you; yea, the worms cover you.
12 Oh Lucifer, son of the morning, how you have fallen from the heavens[3]! You weakening the nations, you are cut down to the ground.

[1] The Persians and the Medes are prophesied to destroy Babylon. These nations today are geographically Iran and Russia.

[2] End time Babylon is being destroyed right before the wrath of YHWH on the earth. These scriptures and others (Jer 50:3,8, 12, Rev 18:2, 4) show that end time Babylon is a physical land and not just a system.

[3] Showing the downfall of Satan.

13 For you have said In your heart, I will go up to the heavens; I will raise my throne above the stars of El, and I will sit in the mountain of appointment, in the sides of the north[1].

14 I will rise over the heights of the clouds; I will be compared to Elyone (The Most High)[2].

15 Yet you shall go down to Sheol, to the sides of the Pit.

16 They that see you shall stare and closely watch you, saying, Is this the man who made the earth tremble, shaking kingdoms[3], 17 making the world like a wilderness, and who tore down its cities; he did not open a house for his prisoners?

18 All kings of nations, all of them lie in glory, each man in his house.

19 But you are thrown from your grave like a despised branch[4], like the covering of the slain, those pierced by the sword, those who go down into the stones of the Pit, like a dead body trampled under foot.

20 You shall not be united with them in burial, because you ruined your land; you have slain your people; the seed of evildoers shall never be named.

21 Prepare for the slaughter of his sons, for the iniquity of their fathers; that they may not rise and possess the land and fill the face of the earth with cities.

22 For I will rise against them, says YAHWEH of Hosts, and I will cut off the name and remnant, the son and grandson, from Babylon, declares YAHWEH.

23 Also I will make it a possession of the hedgehog and pools of water; and I will sweep it with the broom of ruin, says YAHWEH of Hosts.

24 YAHWEH of Hosts has sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so it shall be; and as I have purposed, it shall rise up;

25 to break Assyria in My land, and trample him on My mountains. Then his yoke shall depart from them, and his burden shall depart from his shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed on all the earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out on all the nations.

27 For YAHWEH of Hosts has purposed. And who shall reverse it? And His hand is stretched out. Who shall turn it back?

28 This burden was in the year King Ahaz died:

29 Do not rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, for the rod of your striking is broken, because a viper comes forth from the root of a snake, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.[5]

30 And the first-born of the poor shall eat; and the needy shall lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine; and it shall kill your remnant.

31 Howl, O gate! Cry, O city! Philistia is melted away, all of you. For a smoke comes from the north, and not one is alone in his ranks.

32 What then shall one answer to the messengers of the nation? That YAHWEH has founded Zion, and the poor of His people shall trust in it.

1 Satan had a very high position to YHWH (Ezek 28;13-15) until pride and vanity destroyed him.

2 YHWH tells us to emulate Him in His character and likeness (Math 5:48) but not to try to usurp His position and authority.

3 In the end Satan will rule for 42 months over an evil world system (Rev 13:4-8).

4 A parallel to Messiah who is the true branch (Is 11:1, Zech 6:12).

5 The Hebrew word used here is Seraph.

Chapter 15

1 The burden of Moab: Because in a night Ar of Moab is laid waste; it is cut off; because in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste; it is cut off.

2 One goes up to the house, even to Dibon, to the high places, to weep. Moab shall howl over Nebo and over Medeba; all its heads shall be bald, every beard shorn.

3 They shall put on sackcloth in the streets; everyone shall howl on their housetops and in their plazas, melting in tears.

4 And Heshbon and Elealeh shall cry; their voice shall be heard as far as Jahaz; so the warriors of Moab shall shout; his life is broken to him.

5 My heart shall cry to Moab; her fugitives to Zoar, a heifer of three years; he goes up the ascent of Luhith with weeping, for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of ruin.

6 For Nimrim's waters are desolations; for the hay is dried up; the grass fails; there is not a green thing.

7 On account of this one made up the remainder, and their store; they shall carry them over the torrent of the willows.

8 For the cry has gone around Moab's borders; his howling even to Eglaim; and his howling even to the Well of Elim.

9 For Dimon's waters are full of blood; for I will put more on Dimon, a lion on him who escapes from Moab, and for the remnant of the land.

Chapter 16

1 Send a lamb to the ruler of the land, from the rock of the desert[1] (Sela) to the mountain of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it is as a fleeing bird cast out of the nest; the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.

3 Take counsel; do judgment; make your shadow as the night in midday; hide the outcasts; do not uncover the fugitive!

4 Let My outcasts from Moab stay with you[2]. Be a hiding place to them from the face of the destroyer. For the exacter has ceased, destruction has failed; the trampler is ended out of the land.

5 And in mercy the throne shall be founded; and he shall sit on it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging and seeking justice, and swift in righteousness.

6 We have heard of the pride of Moab, very proud; of his pride, his arrogance, and his rage; not so are his babblings.

7 So Moab shall howl for Moab; everyone shall howl; all of it shall howl for the foundations of Kir-Hareseth; surely they are stricken.

8 For the fields of Heshbon droop, the vine of Sibmah. The masters of the nations have crushed its choice plants. They have come to Jazer; they wander in the desert; her branches are spread out; they have crossed the sea.

9 On account of this I will weep with the weeping of Jazer, the vine of Sibmah; I will drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh; for shouting has fallen on your fruit and on your harvest.

10 And gladness and joy is gathered up from the fruitful field; and there is no singing and no shouting in the vineyards; the one treading shall not tread out wine in the presses. I have made the shout to cease.

[1] Sela is the city of Petra in modern day Jordan.

[2] The Moabites in Petra are asking Judah for refuge.

11 For this reason my belly shall sound like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir-Haresh.
12 And it shall be, when it is seen that Moab shall be wearied on the high place, then he shall come to his shrine to pray, and he shall not be able.
13 This is the Word that YAHWEH had spoken to Moab from that time.
14 But now YAHWEH has spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of a hireling, then the glory of Moab will be abased, with all the great host; and the remnant shall be few; small, not mighty.

Chapter 17

1 The burden of Damascus: Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruined heap.
2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken; now they are for flocks; they lie down and no one terrifies them.
3 And the fortress shall cease from Ephraim; and the kingdom from Damascus and the rest of Syria. They shall be as the glory of the sons of Israel, declares YAHWEH of Hosts.
4 And it shall be in that day, Jacob's glory shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall be made lean.
5 And it shall be as the reaping of the harvest grain, and his arm reaps the ears. And it shall be as he who gathers ears in the Valley of the Giants.
6 Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree; two or three ripe olives in the top of the uppermost branch; four or five in the fruit tree branches, declares YAHWEH Elohim of Israel.
7 In that day a man shall gaze to his Maker; and his eyes shall look to the Holy One of Israel.
8 And he shall not gaze to the altars, the work of his hands; and he will not see what his fingers have made, even the Asherahs, and the sun pillars.
9 In that day his fortified cities shall be as a thing left in the forest, or the branch that they leave, from before the sons of Israel. And it will become a desolation.
10 Because you have forgotten the Elohim of your salvation (Y'shua)*, and you did not remember the Rock of your strength. On account of this you shall plant pleasing plants, and shall sow it with profane shoots.
11 In the day of your planting you fence it in; in the morning you make your seed sprout; the harvest is a heap in the day of sickness and incurable pain.
12 Woe to the multitude of many peoples; they roar like the roar of seas; and the crash of nations, they crash like the crash of mighty waters!
13 The nations shall crash like the crashing of many waters, but He rebukes it, and it flees far away; yea, it is driven like the chaff of mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before a tempest.
14 At the time of evening, behold, terror! Before it is morning, it shall not be. This is the portion of those robbing us, and the lot of those plundering us.

Chapter 18

1 Woe to the land of whirring of wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia;
2 which sends ambassadors by the sea, even in ships of papyrus on the face of the waters. Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a dreadful people from it and onwards; and a nation mighty and trampling down, whose land the rivers have divided!
3 All you inhabitants of the world and those living on the earth, as one lifts a banner on the peaks, you will see. And you will hear as the blowing of a ram's horn.

4 For so YAHWEH said to me, I will rest, and I will watch My dwelling place; as the glowing heat on light; as the cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.
5 For before the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, then He will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and cut down and take away the branches.
6 They shall be left together to the birds of the hills, and to the beasts of the earth. And the birds shall summer on them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter on them.
7 Then shall be brought in that time to YAHWEH of Hosts a present from a tall and smooth people, and a terrifying people, from it and onward;
a mighty and trampling nation whose land the rivers have divided, to the place of the name of YAHWEH of Hosts: Mount Zion.

Chapter 19

1 The burden of Egypt: Behold!
YAHWEH rides on a light cloud and comes into Egypt. And the idols of Egypt shall tremble from before Him; and the heart of Egypt shall melt in its midst.
2 And I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians; and they each man shall fight against his brother; and each against his neighbor; city against city, kingdom against kingdom.
3 And the spirit of the Egyptians shall be empty in its midst; and I will swallow its counsel. And they shall seek to idols, and to the enchanters, and to the mediums, and to the fortune tellers.
4 And I will shut up the Egyptians into the hand of cruel masters (Adonim); and a fierce king shall rule them, declares Adonai YAHWEH of Hosts.
5 And the waters shall dry up from the sea, and the river shall fail and dry up.
6 And rivers shall be fouled; and the Nile of Egypt will languish and dry up;
the reed and the rush shall decay.
7 Bare places shall be at the Nile, by the mouth of the Nile, and everything sown by the Nile shall dry up, driven away, and be no more.
8 The fishermen shall mourn; and all who cast a hook into the Nile shall wail; and those who spread nets on the surface of the waters shall droop.
9 And the workers in fine flax, and the weavers of white cloth are ashamed.
10 And her supports shall be crushed; and all who make wages shall be sad of soul.
11 Surely the rulers of Zoan are fools;
the advice of Pharaoh's wise counselor has become stupid. How can you say to Pharaoh, I am the son of wise ones,
the son of kings of old?
12 Where are your wise ones now?
Yea, let them tell you now, that they may know what YAHWEH of Hosts has planned against Egypt.
13 The rulers of Zoan are fools; the rulers of Noph are deceived; they also have led Egypt astray, the cornerstone of her tribes.
14 YAHWEH has mixed a perverse spirit in her midst; and they led astray Egypt in all his work; as a drunkard strays in his vomit.
15 And Egypt shall have no work that the head or the tail, the branch or rush, may do.
16 In that day Egypt shall be like women; and it will tremble and dread from before the shaking of the hand of YAHWEH of Hosts, which He shakes over it.
17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror to Egypt; everyone who mentions it shall dread to it, from before the counsel of YAHWEH of Hosts, which He counsels against it.

18 In that day five cities in the land of Egypt shall speak the language of Canaan, and swear to YAHWEH of Hosts. One shall be called, City of Ruin.

19 Then an altar to YAHWEH shall be in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to YAHWEH at its border.

20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness to YAHWEH of Hosts in the land of Egypt. For they shall cry to YAHWEH because of the oppressors; and He shall send them a savior, even a great one, and will deliver them.

21 And YAHWEH shall be known to Egypt. Egypt shall know YAHWEH in that day. And they shall offer sacrifice and offering, and vow a vow to YAHWEH, and repay it.

22 And YAHWEH shall strike Egypt. He shall strike and heal. Then they shall return to YAHWEH, and He shall hear them and will heal them.

23 In that day there shall be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria. And Assyria shall come into Egypt; and Egypt into Assyria; and Egypt shall serve with Assyria[1].

24 In that day Israel shall be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth[2], 25 whom YAHWEH of Hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be My people Egypt, and Assyria, the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance.

Chapter 20

1 In the year Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and fought against Ashdod, and took it;

2 at that time YAHWEH spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loosen the sackcloth from your loins, and take your shoe off from your foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

3 And YAHWEH said, Just as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years (a sign and a wonder on Egypt and on Ethiopia)

4 so shall the king of Assyria lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old; naked and barefoot, and with uncovered buttocks; to the nakedness of Egypt.

5 And they shall be afraid and ashamed of their hope Ethiopia, and of their glory Egypt.

6 And he who lives in this coast shall say in that day, Behold, this has become our hope to which we fled for help there, to be delivered from before the king of Assyria; and, How shall we escape?

Chapter 21

1 The burden of the desert of the sea: As storms in the Negev pass, it comes from the desert from a terrifying land.

2 A harsh vision is revealed to me; the deceiver betrays, and the plunderer plunders. Go up, O Elam! Besiege, O Media! I have caused all her sighing to cease.

3 Because of this my loins are filled with pain; pangs have taken hold on me like the pangs of a travailing woman. I am bowed from hearing; I am troubled from seeing.

4 My heart wanders; terror

[1] Is 11:16 states that Yahweh will once again make the waters dry at the Red Sea in Sinai. This scripture seems to indicate that the drying of the water will be permanent and make a crossing for those coming from Assyria.

[2] In the millennial kingdom Egypt, Assyria and Israel all will be allies.

overwhelms me; He has made the twilight of my pleasure into a fear.
5 Arrange the table; watch in the watchtower; eat, drink; rise up, rulers, and anoint the shield.
6 For so YAHWEH has said to me: Go, set a watchman; he will declare what he sees.
7 And he sees a chariot, a couple of horsemen; a chariot of a donkey; a chariot of a camel; and let him give ear attentively, very attentively.
8 And he cried, A lion! YAHWEH, I always stand on my watchtower by day; and I am stationed at my post all the nights.
9 And, behold, here comes a chariot of a man, a pair of horses. And he answered and said, Babylon has fallen, has fallen! And He has smashed the graven images of her gods to the earth.
10 Oh my threshing, and the grain of my floor! That which I have heard of YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel, I have told to you.
11 The burden of Dumah: He calls to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?
12 The watchman says, The morning comes, and also night. If you would inquire, inquire. Come! Return!
13 The burden of Arabia: You shall stay in the forest of Arabia, travelers of Dedanites.
14 The people of the land of Tema bring water to him who is thirsty; they went to meet the fugitive with his bread.
15 For they fled from before swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the press of battle.
16 For so YAHWEH has said to me, Within a year, as the years of a hireling, all the glory of Kedar shall be ended, 17 and the rest of the number of the archers, the warriors of the sons of Kedar, shall be few. For YAHWEH Elohim of Israel has spoken.

Chapter 22

1 The burden of the valley of vision: What ails you now, that you have gone up to the housetops?
2 Crashings fill the noisy city, the joyous city. Your slain ones are not slain by the sword, nor died in battle.
3 All your rulers fled together; they were bound without the bow; all found in you were bound together; they have fled from afar.
4 On account of this I said, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly; do not hurry to comfort me over the ruin of the daughter of my people.
5 for it is a day of trouble, and of trampling down, and confusion, by Adonai YAHWEH of Hosts, in the valley of vision; digging down a wall, and crying to the mountain.
6 And Persia lifted the quiver with a chariot of a man and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield.
7 And it happened; your choicest valleys were full of chariots; and the horsemen surely set in order at the gate.
8 And he removed Judah's covering; and you looked in that day to the armor of the house of the forest.
9 You have also seen the breaks in the city of David, that they are many; and you gathered the waters of the lower pool.
10 And you have counted the houses of Jerusalem; and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall.
11 And you made a reservoir between the walls, for the water of the old pool. But you have not looked to its Maker, nor did you see its Former from long ago.
12 And in that day Adonai YAHWEH of Hosts called to weeping and mourning; and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth.

13 Then, lo, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and slaughtering sheep; eating flesh and drinking wine, saying, Eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!
14 And YAHWEH of Hosts revealed in my ears, Surely this iniquity shall not be atoned for you until you die, says Adonai YAHWEH of Hosts.
15 So says Adonai YAHWEH of Hosts, Go! Go to this treasurer, to Shebna who is over the house.
16 What is to you here? And who is here to you, that you have carved a tomb for yourself here, as one having cut out his tomb on high, having carved out a home for himself in the rock?
17 Behold, YAHWEH hurls you with a hurling, O man, and grasps you with a grasping.
18 Surely, He will violently whirl you like a ball, into a land wide of hands.
You shall die there, and there are the chariots of your glory, the shame of your master's house.
19 And I will drive you from your position, and he will pull you from your station.
20 And in that day it shall be, even I will call to My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah.
21 And I will clothe him with your robe and will fasten your sash on him.
And I will give your authority into his hand. And he shall be a father to the ones living in Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
22 And the key of the house of David I will lay on his shoulder, so that he opens, and no one shuts; and he shuts, and no one opens. (Rev 3:7) 23 And I will drive him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a throne of glory to his father's house.
24 And they shall hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the offshoots, all small vessels, from vessels of cups even to all vessels of jars.
25 In that day, says YAHWEH of Hosts, the nail that is driven in the sure place shall be removed, and be cut down, and fall. And the burden that was on it shall be cut off.
YAHWEH has spoken.

Chapter 23

1 The burden of Tyre: Howl, ships of Tarshish! For it is ruined, without house, without entrance. It is revealed to them from the land of Kittim[1].
2 Be silent, ones living in the coast, trader of Sidon crossing the sea; they have filled you.
3 And by great waters, the seed of Sihor and the harvest of the river Nile was her revenue; and she was the mart of nations.
4 Be ashamed, Sidon, for the sea has spoken, the strength of the sea, saying,
I have not travailed, nor brought forth,
I have not nourished young men nor raised up virgins.
5 As the report comes to Egypt, so they shall be grieved at the report of Tyre.
6 Pass over Tarshish; howl, people of the coast!
7 Is this your exulting city from days of her old age? Her own feet carry it far away to stay.
8 Who has counseled this against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are rulers, whose traders are the weighty of the earth?
9 YAHWEH of Hosts has counseled it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring all the honored of the earth into contempt.
10 Pass through your land as the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish; there is no more strength.

---

[1] Modern day Cyprus

11 He stretched His hand over the sea; He shook kingdoms. YAHWEH has made a decree against the merchant city, to destroy its forts.

12 And He said, You shall rejoice no more, oppressed one, virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, cross over to Cyprus, even there is no rest to you.

13 Behold, the land of the Chaldeans! This people did not exist! Assyria founded it for those who live in the desert. They set up their siege towers; they lay bare its palaces; they appointed it to be a ruin.

14 Howl, ships of Tarshish! For your fortress is ruined.

15 And it shall be in that day that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. At the end of seventy years, it will be as the song of a harlot to Tyre.

16 Take a harp; go about the city, O forgotten harlot. Do well to play; make many songs, that you may be remembered.

17 And it will be, after the end of seventy years, YAHWEH will visit Tyre; and she shall return to her hire, and will fornicate with all the kingdoms of the earth on the face of the earth.

18 And her goods and her wages shall be holiness to YAHWEH; it shall not be hoarded nor stored; for her goods shall be for those who dwell before YAHWEH, to eat enough, and for a choice covering.

Chapter 24

1 Lo, YAHWEH empties the earth and makes it bare, and distorts its face, and scatters those living in it[1].

2 And as it is with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with the master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the creditor, so with the debtor[2].

3 The earth shall completely be emptied and utterly stripped, for YAHWEH has spoken this Word.

4 The earth mourns and languishes; the world droops and languishes; the proud people of the earth droop.

5 And the earth is profaned under those living in it, because they transgress Torah and violate a statute, and break the everlasting covenant[3].

6 On account of this a curse has devoured the earth; and they who live in it are held guilty. For this those living in the earth are consumed, and few men are left[4].

7 The new wine has failed; the vine droops; all the merry-hearted sigh[5].

8 The exultation of timbrels ceases; the noise of those who revel ends; the exultation of the harp ceases.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; fermented drink shall be bitter to those who drink it.

10 The city of shame is broken down; every house is shut, that no one may enter.

11 A crying over the wine is in the streets; all joy is darkened; the gladness in the land is exiled.

12 Desolation is remaining in the city, and a ruin; the gate is battered.

13 For it is thus in the midst of the earth, among the peoples, it shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as

1 This is the wrath of YHWH on the earth called "The day of YHWH" in scripture

2 Ezek 7:12

3 This judgment coming on mankind that is still futuristic, is coming due to the breaking of the Torah, which conclusively proves the Torah could not be done away with.

4 This judgment will wipe off almost all people living on earth at the time.

5 A metaphoric phrase showing that all happiness has left the earth during this most troublesome time.

gleanings when the grape harvest is completed.

14 They lift up their voice; they sing for the majesty of YAHWEH; they cry aloud from the sea.

15 On account of this, glorify YAHWEH in the flames, the name of YAHWEH Elohim of Israel, in the coasts of the sea.

16 We have heard songs from the end of the earth, Honor to the Righteous. But I said, Leanness to me! Leanness to me! Woe to me! Traitors betray, even with treachery; traitors betray!

17 Dread, and the pit, and a snare are upon you, one living in the earth.

18 And it shall be, he who flees from the sound of dread shall fall into the pit. And he who comes up out of the middle of the pit shall be taken in the snare. For the windows from on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth quake.

19 The earth is breaking, breaking! The earth is crashing, crashing! The earth is tottering, tottering.

20 Like a drunkard, the earth is staggering, staggering! And it rocks to and fro like a hut[1]. And its trespass is heavy on it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

21 And it shall be in that day, YAHWEH shall punish the army of the high place on high, and on the kings of the land on the land.

22 And they will be gathered, a gathering of prisoners in a dungeon. And they shall be shut up in a prison; and after many days they will be visited.

23 Then the moon shall blush, and the sun shall be ashamed, when YAHWEH of Hosts shall reign in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem; and before His elders is His glory. (Joel 2:31)

Chapter 25

1 O YAHWEH, You are my Elohim. I will exalt You; I will thank Your name; for You have done a wonderful thing: counsels from afar; faithful faithfulness.

2 Because You have made a heap from a city, a fortified city into a ruin; a citadel of foreigners not to be a city, not to be built, to forever.

3 For this the mighty people glorify You, the city of the ruthless nations shall fear You.

4 For You are a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from storm, a shadow from heat; because the breath of the ruthless is like a storm against a wall.

5 You shall lay low the noise of foreigners, like the heat in a dry place, the heat with the shadow of cloud; the shouting of the terrifying ones shall be laid low.

6 And YAHWEH of Hosts shall make a feast of fat things for all the peoples in this mountain; a feast of wine on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, refined wine on the lees.

7 And He will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering which covers all people, and the veil that is woven over all nations.

8 He will swallow up death in victory[2]! And Adonai YAHWEH will wipe away tears from all faces[3]. And He shall reprove the reproach of His people from all the earth; for YAHWEH has spoken.

9 And one shall say in that day, Behold, this is our Elohim; we have waited for Him, and He will save us.

---

[1] This seems to indicate some sort of cosmic disturbance such as an asteroid or meteor hitting the earth.

[2] 1 Cor 15:54

[3] Rev 21:4

This is YAHWEH; we have waited for Him; we will be glad and rejoice in His Y'shua*.

10 For the hand of YAHWEH shall rest in this mountain; and Moab shall be trampled under Him, even as straw is trampled in the water of a dung pit.

11 And He shall spread His hands in his midst, as he who swims strokes to swim. And He shall lay low his pride with the skill of His hands.

12 And He shall bow down the fortress of the height of your walls; He will lay low, touch to the earth, even to the dust.

Chapter 26

1 In that day this song shall be sung in the land of Judah: Y'shua* is a strong city to us; He sets up our walls and rampart.

2 Open the gates so the righteous nation may come in, keeping faithfulness.

3 You will keep in perfect peace the mind stayed on You, for he trusts in You.

4 Trust in YAHWEH forever, for in Yah YAHWEH[1] is an everlasting rock.

5 For He bows the dwellers on high; He lays low the lofty city; He lays it low to the ground; He makes it touch even to the dust.

6 The foot shall trample it, the feet of the poor, steps of the weak.

7 The path for the just is uprightness. Upright One, level the track of the just.

8 Yea, YAHWEH, in the path of Your judgments we awaited You; for Your name and for Your memory is the desire of our soul.

9 With my soul I desire You in the night; yea, with my spirit within me I diligently seek You. For when Your judgments are in the earth, those living in the world learn righteousness.

10 The wicked finds favor; he does not learn righteousness; he deals perversely in the land of honesty, and does not see the majesty of YAHWEH.

11 YAHWEH, Your hand is high; they do not see; they see and are ashamed of the zeal of the people. Yea, the fire of Your foes devours them.

12 YAHWEH, You will ordain peace for us; for also You have worked all our works for us.

13 YAHWEH our Elohim, masters beside You have governed us; only in You we will mention Your name.

14 Dead ones do not live; departed spirits do not rise; because of this You visited and destroyed them, and caused all memory of them to perish.

15 You have added to the nation, YAHWEH; You have added to the nation, You are glorified; You have extended it to the ends of the earth.

16 YAHWEH, they visited You in distress; they poured out a whisper; Your chastening was to them.

17 As a woman with child draws near to bear, she writhes and cries out in her pangs. So are we before You, YAHWEH.

18 We conceived; we writhe; as it were, we gave birth to wind. We have not worked salvation for the earth; and those living in the world have not fallen.

19 Your dead ones shall live, my dead body, they shall rise up. Awake and sing, those that dwell in the dust[2]; for the dew of lights is your dew; and the earth shall cast out departed spirits.

20 Come, My people, go in your rooms and shut your doors behind

[1] The Father's name is Yah Yahweh. Yahweh being a family name.

you. Hide for a little moment, until the fury passes[1].
21 For, behold, YAHWEH comes out of His place to visit his iniquity on those dwelling on the earth. The earth shall also reveal her blood, and shall no more cover over her slain ones.

Chapter 27

1 In that day YAHWEH shall visit the sea monster, the fleeing serpent, with His great and fierce and strong sword; even on the sea monster, the twisting serpent; and He shall slay the monster that is in the sea.
2 In that day sing to it, A vineyard of desire;
3 I, YAHWEH, keep it; I will water it every moment, that no one punish it; I will guard it night and day.
4 Fury is not in Me. Who will give Me briers and thorns in the battle? I will step through it; I would burn it at once.
5 Or will he lay hold of My strength that he may make peace with Me? Let him make peace with Me.
6 Those coming in shall take root; Jacob shall blossom and Israel shall bud, and they will fill the face of the world with fruit.
7 As the striking of His striker, did He strike him? Or as the slaying of His slain, is he slain?
8 You will contend with her by driving her away, by sending her away.
He shall take away by His harsh wind,
in the day of the east wind.
9 By this, then, the iniquity of Jacob will be covered, and this is all the fruit, to take away his sin; when he makes all the stones of the altar as chalk-stones that are beaten in pieces;
Asherahs and sun pillars shall not rise.
10 For the fortified city shall be lonely, a forsaken pasture, and left like a wilderness. The calf shall feed there, and he shall lie there, and eat up its branches.
11 When its boughs dry up, they are broken off. Women shall come and kindle them, for it is a people with no understanding. On account of this His Maker shall not pity him, and His Former will not show him grace.
12 And it shall be in that day, YAHWEH shall thresh from the channel of the River to the torrent of Egypt; and you shall be gathered one by one, sons of Israel.
13 And it shall be in that day, the great ram's horn shall be blown; and those perishing in the land of Assyria and the outcasts in the land of Egypt shall come and shall worship YAHWEH in the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

Chapter 28

1 Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower on the head of the fat valley of those who are overcome with wine!
2 Behold, might and strength are to YAHWEH; like a hailstorm, a destroying storm; like a storm of mighty waters overflowing; He sets down to the earth with His hand.
3 The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim shall be trampled down by His feet.
4 And the glorious beauty which is on the head of the fat valley shall be a fading flower, like the first ripe fig before summer which the seeing one sees; while it is yet in his hand, he swallows it.
5 In that day YAHWEH of Hosts shall become a crown of splendor and a crown of beauty to the rest of His people,

[1] Speaking to the remnant during this time of tribulation to be hidden from the fury.

6 and a spirit of justice to him who sits on the judgment seat; and for might to those turning back the battle toward the gate.
7 But they also have gone astray by wine, and have erred through liquor; priest and prophet have erred through fermented drink; they have been swallowed by wine; they strayed from liquor; they err in vision; they stumble in judgment;
8 for all tables are full of vomit and filth, without a clean place.
9 To whom shall He teach knowledge? And to whom shall He explain the message? Those weaned from milk, those moving from breasts?
10 For precept must be on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little[1].
11 For with stammering lip and another language, He will speak to this people[2]; 12 to whom He said, This is the rest; cause the weary to rest. Also, This is the repose. But they willed not to hear.
13 Yet the Word of YAHWEH was to them, precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they might go, and stumble, and be broken, and snared, and taken.
14 Therefore hear the Word of YAHWEH, scornful men, rulers of this people in Jerusalem.
15 Because you have said, We have cut a covenant with death; and, We have made a vision with Sheol, when the overwhelming rod passes through it will not come to us for we have made the lie our refuge, and we have hidden in falsehood.
16 So, Adonai YAHWEH says this: Behold, I place in Zion a Stone for a foundation, a tried Stone, a precious Cornerstone, a sure Foundation; he who believes shall not hurry[3].
17 And I will lay justice for a line, and righteousness for a plummet; and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of the lie; and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.
18 And your covenant with death shall be atoned for; and your vision with Sheol shall not rise up. When the overwhelming whip passes through, then you shall be for a trampling to it.
19 As often as it passes, it shall take you; for morning by morning it shall pass; and by day and by night, it shall only be a terror to understand the message.
20 For the bed is shorter than one can stretch himself on; and the cover is narrower than one can wrap himself in.
21 For YAHWEH shall rise up, as at Mount Perazim; He shall be stirred as in the Gibeon Valley; to do His work, His strange work; and to perform His task, His foreign task.
22 So, then, do not be mockers, that your bonds not be made strong. For I have heard from Adonai YAHWEH of Hosts that a full end is decreed on all the earth[4].
23 Listen and hear My voice; pay attention and hear My Word:
24 Does the plowman plow all day to sow? Does he open and break the clods of his ground?

1 There is no private interpretation to scripture 2Pe 1:20, but you must go from scripture to scripture and let the bible interpret itself.

2 All throughout scripture Yahweh spoke to Israel through his servants who spoke Hebrew or Aramaic, a close dialect of Hebrew. However, this prophecy is saying to Ephraim they will be taught by non-Hebrew speaking people showing this is due to their Diaspora and the penalty of losing the language, due to their rejection of Torah and dispersion from the land.

3 Speaking of Messiah

4 Speaking of the "day of YHWH" and His wrath in the end time.

25 When he has leveled its surface, does he not strew black cummin, and scatter cummin, and place wheat in rows, and barley in its place, and spelt in its border?
26 And He instructs him for the right; his Elohim teaches him.
27 For black cummin is not threshed with the sledge; nor is a cartwheel turned on cummin. But black cummin is beaten out with the staff, and cummin with the rod.
28 Bread is crushed, but not always does one thresh it with threshing; and he drives the wheel of his cart; and his horses do not beat it small[1].
29 This also comes from YAHWEH of Hosts, doing wonders in counsel, making sound wisdom great.

Chapter 29

1 Woe to Ariel[2], to Ariel, the city where David camped. Add year on year; let the feasts run their circle[3].
2 Then I will compress Ariel, and there shall be mourning and sorrow; and it shall be to Me as Ariel.
3 And I will camp as a circle on you, and will lay siege work on you[4]; and I will raise up ramparts on you.
4 And you shall be brought low; you shall speak from the ground; and your speech shall be bowed down; and your voice shall be from the ground, like a fortuneteller; and your speech shall chirp out of the dust.
5 And the host of your strangers shall be as fine powder, and as chaff passing, the host of terrifying ones; and it will be suddenly, instantly;
6 you shall be visited from YAHWEH of Hosts; with thunder and earthquake, and great noise, tempest and storm, and flame of devouring fire.
7 And the multitude of all the nations who fight against Ariel[5], even all battling her and compressing her and her stronghold, shall be like a dream of a night vision.
8 It shall even be as when a hungry one dreams; and, behold, he is eating; but when he awakes, his soul is empty. Or it shall be as when a thirsty one dreams; and, behold, he is drinking, but when he awakes, he is faint, and his soul is longing. So shall be the multitude of all the nations who fight against Mount Zion.
9 Wait and wonder! Blind yourselves, and be blind! They are drunk, but not with wine! They stagger, but not with liquor!
10 For YAHWEH has poured out on you the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes. He has covered the prophets and your heads, the seers[6].
11 And the whole vision to you is like the words of a sealed book which they give to one knowing books, saying, Please read this. Then he says, I am not able, for it is sealed. (Dan 12:4)
12 And the book is given to one who does not know books, saying, Please read this. Then he says, I do not know books[7].
13 And YAHWEH says, Because this people draws near with its mouth, and they honor Me with its lip; but its

1 Vs 23-28, Just as a farmer uses different threshing instruments for each type of grain, YHWH intends to use different types of judgments to bring His people to repentance.
2 Speaking of Jerusalem
3 The feast run by the Hebrew lunar cycle, which is a 19 yr time cycle.
4 There is a play on words here to the circular pattern to the 19 yr time cycle to to allowing the enemy to encircle the camp of Jerusalem and building a rampart to attack her.

heart is far from Me, and their fear of Me is taught by the commands of men;
14 So, behold, I am adding to do wonderfully with this people, the wonder, even a wonder. For the wisdom of his wise ones shall perish, and the wit of his witty ones shall be hidden.
15 Woe to those who go deep to hide their purposes from YAHWEH; yea, their works are in the dark; and they say, Who sees us? And, Who knows us?
16 Oh your perversity! Shall the former be counted as the clay? For shall the work of its maker say, He did not make me? Or shall the thing formed say to him who formed it, He does not understand?
17 Is it not yet a little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field; and the fruitful field shall be counted for the forest?
18 And in that day[1] the deaf shall hear the words of a book; and the eyes of the blind shall see out of their gloom and out of darkness. (Is 35:5)
19 And the humble ones shall increase joy in YAHWEH, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.
20 For the terrible one is brought to nothing; and the scorner is ended; and all that watch for iniquity are cut off;
21 those who make a man sin by a word, even laying a trap for the reprover in the gate, and turn aside the just for a worthless thing.
22 So YAHWEH says this: He who redeemed (Aleph/Tav) Abraham, as to the house of Jacob: Jacob shall not be ashamed now, nor shall his face become pale now.
23 But when he sees his children in his midst, the work of My hands, they shall sanctify My name. They shall sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the Elohim of Israel.
24 Those who erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and those who murmured shall learn the teaching.

Chapter 30

1 Woe to rebellious sons, declares YAHWEH, to make counsel, but not from Me; and to weave a covering web, but not of My Spirit, in order to add sin on sin;
2 who are walking to go down to Egypt, but have not asked at My mouth, to take refuge in the stronghold of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt[2].
3 And the stronghold of Pharaoh shall become a shame to you; and relying on the shadow of Egypt shall be a disgrace.
4 For his rulers were in Zoan, and his ambassadors reached to Hanes.
5 Every one is ashamed over a people who do not profit them; they are not for a help, and not for profiting, but for a shame; yea, also for a reproach[3].
6 The burden of the beasts of the south: Into the land of trouble and constraint. The lioness and the lion are from them; the viper and fiery flying serpent. They carry their riches on the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to a people who cannot profit them.
7 And Egypt; vainly and emptily they help. So I have called to this: Their strength is to sit still.
8 Now come, write it before them on a tablet, and note it on a book, so that it may be for the latter day, until forever[1]; 9 that this is a rebellious people, lying sons; sons who are not willing to hear the Torah of YAHWEH;

[3] Egypt has never been a true ally of Israel and has never been their refuge, only a false security.

10 who say to the seers, Do not see; and to the prophets, Do not have a vision for right things to us; speak smooth things to us; have a vision of delusions.
11 Turn aside from the way; stretch from the path; cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.
12 For this reason, so says the Holy One of Israel, Because of your rejection of this Word, and your trust in oppression and perversity, even resting on it;
13 So this iniquity shall be to you as a broken section falling, like the bulging out of a high wall, the breaking of which comes suddenly, in an instant.
14 And its smashing is as the smashing of a potter's vessel; when broken in pieces, he has no pity; for in its breaking there is not found a shard to carry fire from the hearth, nor to skim water from a marsh.
15 For so says Adonai YAHWEH, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest you shall be saved; and in quietness and hope shall be your strength. But you were not willing.
16 For you said, No! For we will flee on horseback. On account of this you shall flee. Also, you say, We will ride on swift ones. On account of this, those who pursue you shall be swift.
17 One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one. You shall flee from the rebuke of five, until you are left like a pole on the top of the mountain, and like a sign on a hill.
18 And so YAHWEH waits to be gracious to you. And for this He is exalted to have mercy on you; for YAHWEH is an Elohim of justice. Blessed are all who wait for Him.
19 For the people shall live in Zion[2], at Jerusalem; you shall surely cry no more. He surely will be gracious to you at the sound of your cry. When He hears, He will answer you.
20 And YAHWEH gives you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction; but your teachers shall not be hidden any more; but your eyes shall be able to see your teachers.
21 And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, This is the way, walk in it, when you go right, or when you go left.
22 And you shall defile the covering of your carved images of silver; and the covering of your molten images of gold. You shall strew them as a menstruous cloth; you shall say to it, Go out!
23 Then He shall give rain for your seed, with which you sow the ground. And the bread of the produce of the earth also shall be fat and plentiful. In that day your livestock shall feed in a pasture made wide.
24 Also, the oxen and the young donkeys that till the ground shall eat seasoned fodder which one winnows with the shovel and with the fork[3].
25 And on every high mountain, and on every high hill, shall be rivulets lifted up, streams of water, in a day of great slaying, when towers fall.
26 And the moonlight shall be like the light of the sun. And the sun's light shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day of binding up, YAHWEH binding the break of His people, and healing the wound of His blow.

1 This message is for the end times.

2 Verses 18-26 go into millennial blessings

3 Showing fullness of bounty, as the harvest is plentiful, and even the chaff is used for food for the animals who worked turning the sled to crush the grain.

27 Behold, the name of YAHWEH comes from afar; His anger burns; and is heavy as the uplifting of smoke; His lips are full of fury, and His tongue like a devouring fire.

28 And like an overflowing torrent, His breath shall divide to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity, and a misleading bridle on the jaws of the peoples.

29 The song shall be to you, as the night when the feast is sanctified, and gladness of heart, as one going with the flute, to come into the mount of YAHWEH, to the Rock of Israel.

30 And YAHWEH shall make the majesty of His voice heard; and He causes His arm to be seen coming down with raging anger and a flame of consuming fire, cloudburst and storm, and hailstones.

31 For through the voice of YAHWEH, Assyria shall be crushed, the rod with which He strikes.

32 And every passage of the appointed staff that YAHWEH causes to rest on him will be with timbrels and with harps. And in brandishing battles He fights with her.

33 For Topheth[1] is ordained from yesterday. Also, it is prepared for the king; He deepened; He widened its pyre; He makes great with fire and wood. The breath of YAHWEH burns in it like a torrent of brimstone.

Chapter 31

1 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, and lean on horses, and trust on chariots, because they are great; and in horsemen because they are very strong! But they do not look to the Holy One of Israel, nor seek YAHWEH[2].

2 And He also is wise, and brings evil, and will not turn aside His Words, but will rise against the house of evildoers, and against the help of those who work iniquity.

3 And Egypt is a man, and not El. And their horses are flesh, and not spirit. And YAHWEH stretches out His hand, and both he who helps shall fall, and he who is helped shall fall; and they shall all cease together.

4 For so YAHWEH has said to me: As the lion roars, even the young lion on his prey when the multitude of shepherds are gathered against him, he will not fear their voice, nor fret himself because of their noise. So YAHWEH of Hosts shall go down to fight on Mount Zion, and on its hill[3].

5 As birds that fly, so YAHWEH of Hosts will shield over Jerusalem; shielding and delivering, and passing over, He will save it.

6 Turn back to Him against whom you have made a deep revolt, sons of Israel.

7 For in that day each shall despise his silver idols and his golden idols, which your hands have made for you; a sin.

8 Then Assyria shall fall by a sword, not of man; yea, a sword, not of man, shall devour him. For he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall become forced labor.

9 And his rock will pass away from fear; and his commanders shall tremble at the banner[4], declares YAHWEH, whose fire is in Zion, and His furnace in Jerusalem[5].

4 Sign of Messiah

5 Jerusalem is the eternal capital and headquarters of YHWH forever.

Chapter 32

1 Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and rulers shall rule in judgment[1].
2 And a man shall be a hiding place from the wind, a shelter from the storm, as streams of water in a dry place; like the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.
3 And the eyes of those that see shall not be dim, and the ears of those who hear shall listen.
4 And the heart of the rash one shall discern knowledge; and the tongue of those that stutter shall hurry to speak clear things.
5 The fool shall no more be called noble, and a miser will not be said to be generous.
6 For the fool speaks foolishness, and his heart works iniquity, to do wickedness; and to speak error against YAHWEH, to make the hungry soul empty; and he causes the drink of the thirsty to fail.
7 And the weapons of the miser are evil; he devises wicked plots to destroy the poor with lying words, even the needy when he speaks right.
8 But the noble one devises noble things; and he shall rise by noble things.
9 O women who are at ease, rise up. Hear my voice; confident daughters, listen to my word.
10 You will shake for days on a year, confident women; for the vintage fails; the gathering will not come.
11 Tremble, women at ease; shake, confident women; strip and make yourselves bare, and bind on sackcloth on your loins;
12 be wailing over breasts, over pleasant fields, over the fruitful vine.
13 Thorns and briers shall spring up on the land of My people; even over all the houses of joy in the jubilant city,
14 because the palace is forsaken; the crowd of the city is forsaken; mound and tower are instead caves, until forever; a joy of wild donkeys; pasture for flocks;
15 until is poured out on us the Spirit from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field; and the fruitful field is reckoned as a forest.
16 Then justice shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness shall dwell in the fruitful field.
17 And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the service of righteousness shall be quietness and hope forever.
18 And My people shall live in a peaceful home, and in safe dwellings, and in secure resting places.
19 Though it hails when the forest is going down, and the city is laid low, 20 blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send out the foot of the ox and the donkey[2].

Chapter 33

1 Woe to one destroying, and you not being destroyed, betraying and they did not betray you! When you finish destroying, you will be destroyed; when you stop betraying, they will betray you.
2 O YAHWEH, give us your grace. We have hoped in You; be their arm in the mornings, also, our salvation (Y'shua)* in time of distress.
3 At the sound of the tumult, peoples fled; at Your exaltation, nations scattered.
4 And Your prey shall be gathered as the stripping locust gathers; as locusts run to and fro, he also runs about on it.

5 YAHWEH is exalted, for He dwells on high; He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.
6 And He will be the security of your times, strength of salvation (Y'shua)*, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of YAHWEH is His treasure.
7 Behold, their heroes cry outside; the envoys of peace shall weep bitterly.
8 The highways are desolated; the path crosser ceases. He has broken the covenant; he has rejected cities; he has not respected man.
9 The land mourns and droops; Lebanon is ashamed; Sharon withers like a wilderness; Bashan is shaken out; also Carmel.
10 Now I will rise up, says YAHWEH. Now I will be exalted; now I will be lifted up.
11 You shall conceive chaff; you shall bear stubble[1]; your fiery breath shall devour you.
12 And peoples shall be as burnings of lime; as thorns cut away, they shall be burned in fire.
13 Distant ones, hear what I have done; and you near ones, know My might.
14 The sinners of Zion are afraid; terror has seized profane ones[2]; who of us shall tarry with consuming fire? Who of us shall tarry with everlasting burnings[3]?
15 He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly; he who despises the gain of oppressions, who shakes his hands free from taking the bribe, who stops his ear from hearing of blood, and shuts his eyes from looking at evil[4].
16 He shall live on high; strongholds of rocks will be his retreat; his bread shall be given; his waters are faithful.
17 Your eyes shall see the king in his beauty; they shall see a land that is very far off.
18 Your heart shall ponder terror: Where is he counting? Where is he weighing? Where is he counting the towers?
19 You shall not see the fierce people, from hearing a people of a deep lip, of a foreign tongue, that none understands.
20 Behold, Zion, the city of our Holy Day meetings! Your eyes shall see Jerusalem, a quiet home, a tent that shall not be moved; its stakes shall not be pulled up forever, nor shall any of its cords be pulled off.
21 But majestic YAHWEH will place there for us a place of rivers and streams, broad on both hands; a ship with oars shall not go in it, and a majestic boat shall not pass through it.
22 For YAHWEH is our judge; YAHWEH is our lawgiver; YAHWEH is our king; He will save us.
23 Your ropes are loosened; they do not hold the base of their mast; they could not spread the sail. Then the prey of much plunder shall be divided; the lame shall seize on the spoil.
24 And an inhabitant shall not say, I am sick; the people who live in it; iniquity is taken away.

Chapter 34

1 Nations, come near to hear; and peoples, listen! Let the earth hear, and its fullness, the world and all its offspring.

[4] Whatever you focus on is most real to you and a true believer is not to look upon evil. (Pr 20:8)

2 For the wrath of YAHWEH is on all the nations, and fury on all their army; He has devoted them; He gave them to slaughter.

3 And their slain shall be thrown out; and the stench from their carcasses shall go up; and the mountains shall be melted with their blood.

4 And all the host of the heavens shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together like a scroll. Then all their host shall droop, as a leaf drooping from the vine, and as the drooping from a fig tree.

5 For My sword is drenched in the heavens. Behold, it shall come down on Edom, and on the people of My curse, for judgment.

6 A sword is to YAHWEH; it is filled with blood; it is made fat with fatness, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For YAHWEH has a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom. (Is 63:1-6)

7 And wild oxen shall come down with them, and bulls with strong bulls; and their land is drenched with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

8 For the day of vengeance is to YAHWEH[1], the year of repayments for Zion's cause.

9 And its torrents shall be turned to pitch, and its dust to brimstone; and its land shall become burning pitch.

10 It shall not be put out night or day; its smoke shall go up forever. From generation to generation, it shall lie waste; no one shall pass through it forever and forever.

11 But the owl and the hedgehog shall possess it; and the eared owl and the raven shall live in it. And He shall stretch out on it the line of shame, and the stones of emptiness.

12 They shall call its nobles to a kingdom, but none shall be there; and all her rulers shall be nothing.

13 And thorns shall grow in her palaces, nettles and thistles in its fortresses; and it shall be a home for jackals, a court for daughters of ostriches.

14 The desert creatures shall also meet with the howlers; and the shaggy goat shall cry to his fellow. The screech owl shall also settle there, and find a place of rest for herself.

15 The snake shall nest there, and shall lay, and hatch, and shall gather in her shadow. Vultures shall also be gathered together, each with its mate.

16 Search and read from the Book of YAHWEH; not one of these misses, each not lacking her mate; for He has commanded my mouth, and by His Spirit He has assembled them.

17 And He has made fall a lot for them, and His hand divided it to them by line. They shall possess it until forever, from generation to generation they shall live in it.

Chapter 35

1 The wilderness and dry land shall rejoice for them; and the desert shall exult and bloom like the crocus.

2 Surely, it shall bloom and exult, even with joy and singing. Lebanon's glory shall be given to it, the honor of Carmel and Sharon; they shall see the glory of YAHWEH, the majesty of our Elohim[2].

3 Make the weak hands strong, and firm up the stumbling knees.

4 Say to those of a hasty heart, Be strong! Do not fear! Behold, your Elohim will come with vengeance; with the full dealing of Elohim, He will come (Y'shua)* and save you.

5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf opened.

6 Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing[1]. For waters shall break out in the wilderness, and streams in the desert[2].

7 And the mirage shall become a pool, and the thirsty land shall become springs of waters, in the home of jackals, in its lair, and a place for the reed and rush.

8 And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The Way of Holiness. The unclean shall not pass over it[3]. And it is for them, the one going in the way; yea, fools shall not go astray.

9 No lion shall be there; and no violent beast shall go up on it; it shall not be found there. But redeemed ones shall walk there.

10 And the ransomed of YAHWEH shall return and enter Zion, with singing and everlasting joy on their head; gladness and joy shall reach them; and sorrow and sighing shall flee. (Rev 21:4, Is 51:11)

Chapter 36

1 And it happened in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, came against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent the chief of the cupbearers from Lachish to Jerusalem, to King Hezekiah, with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool, in the highway of the Fuller's Field.

3 And Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Asaph's son Joah, the recorder, came out to him.

4 And the chief of the cupbearers said to them, Say now to Hezekiah, The great king says this, the king of Assyria, What trust is this in which you trust?

5 I say, Are only words of the lips counsel and strength for war? Now, in whom have you trusted that you rebelled against me?

6 Behold, you trust on the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt, which if a man leans on it, it goes into his hand and pierces it; so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him.

7 But if you say to me, We trust in YAHWEH our Elohim; is it not He whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed? And He said to Judah and Jerusalem, You shall worship before this altar. (2Kgs 18:1-5)

8 Now, then, please exchange pledges with my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to set riders on them for you.

9 How then will you turn away the face of one commander of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariotry and horsemen?

10 And now have I come up against this land to destroy it without YAHWEH? YAHWEH said to me, Go up to this land and destroy it.

11 And Eliakim and Shebna and Joah said to the chief of the cupbearers, Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we hear. But do not speak to us in Judean, in the ears of the people on the wall.

12 But the chief of the cupbearers said, Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words? Is it not on the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink the water of their feet with you?

13 And the chief of the cupbearers stood and cried with a loud voice in Judean, and said, Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 So says the king, Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to save you.

15 And let not Hezekiah make you trust in YAHWEH, saying, YAHWEH saving will save us; this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Do not listen to Hezekiah. For the king of Assyria says this, Make peace with me and come out to me. Then let each eat of his own vine, and each of his own fig tree, and each drink the waters of his own well, 17 until I come and take you to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Let not Hezekiah persuade you, saying, YAHWEH will deliver us. Have the gods of the nations delivered a man of his land from the king of Assyria's hand?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath, and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? And when have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who among all the gods of these lands has delivered their land out of my hand, that YAHWEH should keep Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they were silent, and did not answer him a word; for this was the king's order, saying, Do not answer him.

22 And Eliakim, Hilkiah's son who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Asaph's son Joah, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their garments torn. And they reported to him the words of the chief of cupbearers.

Chapter 37

1 And it happened when King Hezekiah heard, he tore his garments and was covered with sackcloth. And he went into the house of YAHWEH.

2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.

3 And they said to him, So says Hezekiah, This day is a day of distress, and reproach, and contempt. For sons have come to the breach and there is no strength to give birth.

4 It may be YAHWEH your Elohim will hear the words of the chief of the cupbearers whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to reproach the living Elohim, and rebuke against the words which YAHWEH your Elohim has heard. And you shall lift up prayer for the remnant that is found.

5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said to them, You shall say this to your master, So says YAHWEH: Do not fear the words which you have heard, with which the followers of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me

7 Behold, I am giving into him a spirit, and he shall hear a rumor, and return to his own land. And I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 So the chief of the cupbearers returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah[1]; for he had heard that he had pulled up stakes from Lachish.

9 And he heard about Tirhakah the king of Ethiopia, saying, He has come out to fight with you. And he heard and sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,
10 So you shall say to Hezekiah, king of Judah, saying, Do not let your Elohim in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the king of Assyria's hand.
11 Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, to destroy them utterly. And shall you be delivered?
12 Have the gods of the nations saved those whom my fathers have destroyed, Gozan and Haran, and Rezeph, and the sons of Eden in Telassar[1]?
13 Where is Hamath's king, and Arpad's king, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah[2]?
14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the couriers, and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the house of YAHWEH and spread it before YAHWEH.
15 And Hezekiah prayed to YAHWEH, saying,
16 O YAHWEH of Hosts, Elohim of Israel, who sits between the cherubs[3], You are He, Elohim, all the kingdoms of the earth come from you. You have made the heavens and the earth.
17 Bow down Your ear, O YAHWEH, and hear. Open Your eye, O YAHWEH, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib which he has sent, to reproach the living Elohim.
18 Truly, O YAHWEH, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the lands, and their land, 19 and have given their gods into the fire (for they were not Elohim, only the work of men's hands, wood and stone; so they have destroyed them).
20 And now, O YAHWEH our Elohim, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are YAHWEH, the only Elohim.
21 And Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, So says YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel, Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib the king of Assyria, 22 this is the Word YAHWEH has spoken about him: The virgin, the daughter of Zion, has despised you, laughing you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken the head behind you.
23 Whom have you mocked and reviled? And against whom have you lifted your voice, and lifted your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel!
24 By your servants, you have mocked YAHWEH, and said, By my many chariots I have come up to the tops of mountains, the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down its tall cedars, its choice fir trees; and I will go to its greatest height, the forest of its fruitful field. (2Kgs 19:24)
25 I have dug and drunk water; and I have dried up the streams of Egypt with the sole of my feet.
26 Have you not heard it from afar? I have made it from days of old, even I formed it. Now I have caused it to come, and you are to cause fortified cities to crash into heaps, ruins.
27 And those living in it were short of hand, dismayed and ashamed. They were as the field grass and the green herbs; like the grass of the housetops, even blasted before it has risen.
28 But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your raging against Me.

1 These cities were in Mesopotamia.
2 These cities were in Syria, Is 36:18-20.
3 Ex 25:21-22, Num 7:89, Ps 80:1, Ps 99:1.

29 Because of your raging against Me, and your arrogance has come up to My ears, even I will put My hook in your nose[1], and My bridle in your lips; and I will turn you back by the way you came in.

30 And this shall be the sign to you: You shall eat self-sown grain this year; and the second year, that which springs up; and in the third year you shall sow and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit[2].

31 The remnant of the house of Judah that has escaped shall again take root downward, and it produces fruit upward.

32 For a remnant shall go out of Jerusalem, and the escaped ones out of Mount Zion; the zeal of YAHWEH of Hosts shall do this.

33 So YAHWEH says this to the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with a shield, nor pour out a siege mound on it.

34 He shall return by the same way that he came in, and he shall not come into this city, says YAHWEH.

35 For I will defend over this city to save it, for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake.

36 Then the Messenger of YAHWEH went out and struck a hundred and eighty five thousand in the camp of Assyria. And they rose early in the morning; and, behold! They were all dead corpses.

37 And Sennacherib, king of Assyria, set out, and went and returned; and he lived at Nineveh.

38 And it happened as he was worshiping in the house of his god Nisroch, even his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him with the sword. And they escaped into the land of Ararat. And his son Esar-Haddon reigned in his place.

Chapter 38

1 In those days Hezekiah was sick to death. And Isaiah the son of Amoz, the prophet, came to him and said to him, So says YAHWEH, Command your house, for you are dying, and shall not live.

2 And Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to YAHWEH,

3 and said, O YAHWEH, I beg You to remember now that I have walked before You in truth and with a whole heart; and I have done the good in Your eyes. And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping.

4 Then the Word of YAHWEH was to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go and say to Hezekiah, So says YAHWEH the Elohim of your father David, I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add fifteen years to your days.

6 And I will deliver you and this city out of the king of Assyria's hand. And I will shield over this city.

7 So this shall be the sign to you from YAHWEH, that YAHWEH shall do this thing that He has spoken:

8 Behold, I will bring back the shadow of the steps which has gone down in the steps of Ahaz with the sun, backward ten steps. So the sun went back up ten steps, by which steps it had gone down[3]!

9 The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and had recovered from his illness:

[1] The Assyrians often led away their captives by tying ropes to rings placed in their noses.

[2] YHWH is promising that they would not be destroyed and His sign is that He would grow the grain for survival for 2 yrs and they would be there in the third year to plant.

[3] Some believe that this was a sun dial with literal steps that the sun would shade to know the time of day.

10 I said in the cessation of my days, I shall go to the gates of Sheol; I am called to account for the rest of my years.
11 I said, I shall not see Yah YAHWEH[1] in the land of the living; I shall no longer look on man with those dwelling in the death-rest.
12 My generation is plucked up and carried away from me, like a shepherd's tent; I have cut off my life like the weaver. He will cut me off from the threads; from day to night You will make an end of me.
13 I leveled my soul until morning. Like a lion, so He shatters all my bones. From day until night You make an end of me.
14 Like a swift or a crane, so I chatter. I moan as the dove; my eyes look weakly to the heights, O YAHWEH; I am oppressed; intervene for me!
15 What shall I say? For He speaks to me, and He has acted. I shall go softly all my years over the bitterness of my soul.
16 O YAHWEH, on them they live, and for all in them is the life of my spirit. And You heal me, and make me live.
17 Behold, for peace was bitter to me, most bitter; but You loved my soul from the pit of destruction; You have cast all my sins behind Your back.
18 For Sheol cannot thank You; death cannot praise You; the ones going down to the Pit cannot hope for Your truth.
19 The living, the living is the one thanking You; as I do today. The father makes known Your truth to his sons.
20 For YAHWEH will save me; and we will play my songs on stringed instruments all the days of our life, at the house of YAHWEH.
21 For Isaiah had said, Let them take a cake of figs[2] and rub it on the ulcer, and he will live.
22 And Hezekiah said, What is the sign that I will go up to the house of YAHWEH?

Chapter 39

1 At that time Merodach-Baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he had heard that he was ill, and was made strong.
2 And Hezekiah was glad because of them and let them see the house of his treasure[3], the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the good oil, and all his weapons, and all that was found in his treasuries; there was nothing in his house or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not let them see.
3 And Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, What did these men say? And from where did they come to you? And Hezekiah said, They have come from a distant land to me, from Babylon.
4 Then he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah said, They have seen all that is in my house; there is not a thing among my treasures that I have not made them see.
5 And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the Word of YAHWEH of Hosts:
6 Behold, days come when all that is in your house, even what your fathers have treasured up until now, shall be borne away to Babylon[4]; nothing shall be left, says YAHWEH.
7 And they shall take of your sons who shall come forth out from you, which you shall father; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, The Word of YAHWEH that you have said is good. And he said, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

Chapter 40

1 Comfort, O comfort My people, says your Elohim.

2 Speak lovingly to the heart of Jerusalem; yea, cry to her that her warfare is done, that her iniquity is pardoned; for she has taken from the hand of YAHWEH double for all her sins.

3 The voice of him who cries in the wilderness: Prepare the way of YAHWEH; make straight in the desert a highway for our Elohim. (Math 3:3)

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the knoll shall be a level place, and the rough places a plain.

5 And the glory of YAHWEH shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together, for the mouth of YAHWEH has spoken.

6 A voice said, Cry! And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all its grace as the flower of the field!

7 The grass withers, the flower fades because the Spirit of YAHWEH blows on it. Surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withers; the flower fades; but the Word of our Elohim shall rise forever.

9 Go up for yourself on the high mountain, one bearing good news to Zion; lift up your voice with strength, one bearing good news to Jerusalem. Lift up, do not fear. Say to the cities of Judah, Behold! Your Elohim! (Is 52:7)

10 Behold, Adonai YAHWEH will come with strength, and His arm rules for Him. Behold, His reward is with Him, and His wage before Him. (Is 62:11, Zech 14:1-4)

11 He shall feed His flock like a shepherd; He shall gather lambs with His arm; and carry them in His bosom; those with young He will lead;[1]

12 who has measured in His hand the waters and the heavens by a span meted out; and enclosed in the measure the dust of the earth, and weighed in the balance the mountains, and the hills in the scales,

13 who has meted out the Spirit of YAHWEH, or a man His counsel taught Him?

14 With whom did He take counsel, and who trained Him and taught Him in the path of justice; and taught Him knowledge, and made known to Him the way of discernment?

15 Lo, nations are as a drop from a bucket, and are reckoned as dust of the scales. Lo, He takes up coasts as a little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not enough to burn, nor are its beasts enough for a burnt offering.

17 All the nations are as nothing before Him; to Him they are reckoned less than nothing and emptiness.

18 And to whom will you liken El? Or what likeness will you array to Him?

19 The craftsman pours out the casted image, the smelter spreads it with gold; and he casts the chains of silver.

20 He too poor for that offering chooses a tree that will not rot; he seeks a skilled artisan for him, to prepare a carved image that will not be shaken.

21 Have you not known? Have you not heard? Was it not told to you from the beginning? Did you not discern from the foundations of the earth?

[1] This is referring to the captives returning from Babylon. Is 52:11-12

22 He who sits on the circle[1] of the earth, even those living in it are like grasshoppers; He who stretches the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to live in; (Zech 12:1)
23 who brings princes into nothing. He makes judges of the earth as nothing.
24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they are not sown; yea, their stem is not taking root in the earth. And He shall also blow on them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall lift them up like stubble and take them away.
25 To whom then will you compare Me, or am I equaled, says the Holy One?
26 Lift up your eyes on high and look: Who has created these? Who brings out their host by number? By greatness of vigor, and might of power, He calls them all by names; not one is lacking.
27 Why will you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel; My way is hidden from YAHWEH, and my judgment is passed over by my Elohim?
28 Have you not known? Have you not heard? YAHWEH, the everlasting Elohim, the Creator of the ends of the earth; He is not faint, nor does He grow weary; there is no searching to His understanding.
29 He gives power to the faint, and to him with no vigor He increases might.
30 Even youths are faint and fatigued, and young men stumbling shall stumble;
31 but the ones waiting for YAHWEH shall renew[2] power; they shall go up with wings as the eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not be faint!

Chapter 41

1 Be quiet before Me, O coasts; and let peoples renew their power. They come near; then they speak: Let us draw near together for judgment.
2 Who raised up the righteous one from the east? He called him to His foot; He gives nations before him, and subdues kings; He gives them as dust to his sword, as driven stubble to his bow;
3 He pursues them; he passes on in peace; he does not go by the way with his feet.
4 Who has planned and done it, calling forth the generations from the beginning? I YAHWEH am the first (Aleph/Tav) and the last; I am He[3].
5 The coasts have seen and fear; the ends of the earth tremble; they have drawn near; yea, they come.
6 Each man helps his neighbor, and says to his brother, Be strong.
7 So the carver strengthens the refiner; and he smoothing with the hammer, him who struck the anvil, saying of the soldering, It is good. And he made it strong with nails; it will not totter.
8 But you Israel are My servant, Jacob whom I have elected; the seed of My friend Abraham[4];
9 whom I have made strong from the ends of the earth, and called you from its sides; and I said to you, You are My servant. I chose you, and have not rejected you.
10 Do not fear, for I am with you; do not gaze about, for I am your Elohim; I will make you strong; yea, I will help you; yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of My righteousness.

11 Behold, they all shall be humiliated, all who are provoked with you; they shall be as nothing; men who contend with you shall perish.
12 You shall seek them and shall not find them; men of your strife shall be as nothing, even men of your battle as ceasing.
13 For I, YAHWEH your Elohim am strengthening your right hand, who says to you, Do not fear I will help you.
14 Fear not, worm of Jacob, men of Israel; I will help you, states YAHWEH, and your [1]Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.
15 Behold! I have made you a new sharp threshing sledge[2], a master of teeth; you shall thresh mountains and beat them small, and shall make hills like the chaff.
16 You shall winnow them, and the wind will carry them away, and the tempest will scatter them. And you shall rejoice in YAHWEH; you shall glory in the Holy One of Israel.
17 The poor and the needy seek water, and there is none; their tongue is parched for thirst. I, YAHWEH will hear them; the Elohim of Israel will not leave them.
18 I will open rivers in bare places, and fountains in the midst of valleys; I will make the desert for a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.
19 I will plant cedar in the wilderness, acacia, and myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set fir, pine and boxwood together in the desert; 20 so that they may see, and know,
and set up, and understand together, that the hand of YAHWEH has done this; and the Holy One of Israel has created it.
21 Bring your cause, says YAHWEH; let your strong reasons come near, says the King of Jacob.
22 Let them draw near and tell us what shall happen; the former things, let them reveal what they are, that we may set our heart and know their end;
or declare to us the coming things.
23 Reveal the near things hereafter, so that we may know that you are Elohim. Yea, do good, or do evil, that we may gaze and see together.
24 Behold, you are of nothing; and your work of nothing; he who chooses you is an abomination.
25 I have raised up one from the north; and he shall come from the east; he will call on My name. And he shall come upon rulers as on mortar, and as a potter tramples clay.
26 Who has declared from the beginning, that we may know; and before, that we may say, He is right?
Yea, no one declares; yea, no one proclaims; yea, there is no one who hears your words.
27 At first to Zion, I say, Behold!
Behold them! And I will give to Jerusalem one proclaiming good news.
28 But I saw, and there was not a man; and of these, there was not a counselor, that I may ask them, and they could return a word.
29 Behold, they are all evil; their works are nothing; their images are wind and vanity.

Chapter 42

1 Behold My Servant; I will support

---

1 'Redeemer' This word means someone who is an obligated family protectorate, who redeems lost land, and is showing that YHWH is the family leader and protectorate of Israel and the one who will restore their heritage.

2 A threshing sledge had sharp stones, and metal on the bottom to crush the grain. YHWH is metaphorically stating that they will have much new grain and food.

Him; My Elect in whom My soul delights[1]! I have put My Spirit on Him; He shall bring forth justice to the nations[2].

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause His voice to be heard in the street[3].

3 A bruised reed He shall not break, and a smoking wick He shall not quench[4]; He shall bring forth justice to truth.

4 He shall not fail nor be crushed until He has set justice in the earth; and the coasts shall wait for His Torah[5].

5 So says YAHWEH The El, creating the heavens and stretching them out; spreading out the earth and its offspring, giving breath to the people on it, and spirit to those walking in it.

6 I, YAHWEH, have called You in righteousness[6], and will hold Your hand, and will keep You, and give You for a covenant of the people, for a Light of the nations;

7 to open blind eyes, to lead out the prisoner from the prison; those who sit in darkness from the prison[7].

8 I am YAHWEH; that is My name; and I will not give My glory to another, nor My praise to engraved images[8].

9 Behold, the former things have come to pass, and I declare new things before they happen, I cause you to hear.

10 Sing a new song to YAHWEH; His praise from the end of the earth, you who go to sea, and all that is in it; the coasts and their people.

11 Let the wilderness and its cities lift up, the villages where Kedar lives. Let those dwelling in the rock sing; let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 They give glory to YAHWEH and declare His praise in the coastlands.

13 YAHWEH shall go out as a mighty warrior; and He shall stir up His zeal like a man of war; He shall shout, yea, roar; He shall act mightily on His enemies.

14 I have forever kept silence; I have been quiet and refrained Myself; I will groan like a woman in travail; I will pant and gasp at once.

15 I will make mountains and hills become a waste, and dry up all their plants. And I will make the rivers coastlands, and I will dry up pools.

16 And I will make the blind go by a way that they did not know. I will make them go in paths they never knew. I will make darkness go into light before them, and crooked places a level place. I do these things to them and do not forsake them;

17 they are turned back; they are ashamed with shame, those trusting in the carved image, who say to cast images, You are our gods.

1 From this point of Isaiah until the end of the book it becomes about the Messiah of Israel and the millennial rule of the Kingdom of YHWH.

2 Whereas before when speaking about the promised messiah it referred to the redemption of the nation, now it becomes broader that the Messiah would be the redeemer of all mankind.

3 The Messiah would not be a street preacher looking for followers but people would be coming to hear Him.

4 This shows the tenderness of the Messiah, as He is careful not to break or loss the littlest part (Joh 6:10-12).

5 The Messiah will uphold the Torah (Math 5:17).

6 Yahweh the Father had called His servant personally and clearly they are not the same being, although He will come in the authority of His Father.

7 Referring to the darkness that each human being sits in due to their sins.

8 The Creator (named Yahweh) will not give the glory of His name to pagan deities.

18 O deaf ones, hear! And O blind ones, look to see!
19 Who is blind but My servant? Or deaf, as My messenger whom I send?
Who is blind as he who is at peace, and blind as the servant of YAHWEH[1]?
20 You see many things, but do not observe; your ears are open, but not any hears[2].
21 YAHWEH is delighted for His righteousness' sake; He will magnify the Torah and make it honorable[3].
22 But it is a people robbed and spoiled; they shall all be snared in holes; they were hidden in prison houses. They were for spoil, and no one delivers; a prey, and no one says, Return!
23 Who among you will give ear to this, will listen and hear for the time to come?
24 Who gave Jacob to the plunderer, and Israel to the robbers? Did not YAHWEH, He against whom we have sinned? For they willed not to walk in His ways, and they did not obey His Torah.
25 And He poured on him the fury of His anger, and the strength of battle;
and it has set him on fire all around,
yet he did not know; and it burned him, yet he did not lay it on his heart.

Chapter 43

1 But now so says YAHWEH who formed you, O Jacob; and He who made you, O Israel[4]: Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I called you by your name; you are Mine.
2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow you.
When you walk in the fire, you shall not be burned, nor shall the flame kindle on you.
3 For I am YAHWEH your Elohim, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I gave Egypt for your atonement;
Ethiopia and Seba instead of you.
4 Since you were precious in My eyes, you are honored, and I love you; and I give men instead of you; and peoples instead of your soul.
5 Fear not, for I am with you; I will bring your seed from the east, and I will gather you from the west.
6 I will say to the north, Give up!
And to the south, Do not hold back!
Bring My sons from afar, and bring My daughters from the ends of the earth[5]; 7 everyone who is called by My name, and I have created him for My glory; I have formed him; yea, I have made him.
8 Bring out the blind people, yet there are eyes; and the deaf, yet there are ears to him.
9 Let all the nations be assembled, and let the peoples be gathered. Who among them can declare this and cause us to hear former things? Let them give their witnesses, that they may be justified. Or let them hear and say, It is true.
10 You are My witnesses, says YAHWEH; and My servant whom I have elected; that you may know and

1 He has one purpose and vision to serve YHWH and fulfill His will, but He has no vision to anything else, His only trust is in YHWH (Is 50:4, Ps 38:12-15, Jer 5:21).

2 Showing He is not speaking about physically being deaf and blind in verse 19.

3 Far be it from doing away with the Torah, the Messiah will bring the spiritual intent (Math 5:17-18).

4 Almost always in scripture when using the name Jacob, it is about fleshly Israel, but when using the term Israel, it is about the one who overcame with Elohim, which is the meaning of Israel.

5 Israel would go into captivity from their land, but it is the promise of YHWH that they would return.

believe Me, and understand that I am
He. Before Me there was no El formed;
nor shall any be after Me[1].
11 I, I am YAHWEH; and there is no Savior without Me[2].
12 I declared, and I saved, and I proclaimed; and there is not a foreign Elohim among you. And you are My witnesses, says YAHWEH, and I am El.
13 Yea, from this day I am He, and no one delivers from My hand. I will work, and who will reverse it?
14 So says YAHWEH, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought all of them down as ones fleeing, even the Chaldeans, whose shout is in the ships.
15 I am YAHWEH, your Holy One,
the Creator of Israel, your King.
16 So says YAHWEH, who makes a way in the sea, and a path in mighty waters;
17 who brings out chariot and horse, force and power. They shall lie down together; they shall not rise; they are put out; they are snuffed out like the wick.
18 Do not remember former things,
nor consider the things of old.
19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall sprout. Shall you not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, rivers in the desert.
20 The beast of the field shall honor
Me, jackals and daughters of ostriches;
because I give waters in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to My people, My chosen[3].
21 The people that I formed for Myself shall recount My praise.
22 But you have not called on Me,
Jacob; but you have been weary of Me,
Israel.
23 You have not brought Me the lamb of your burnt offerings; even your sacrifices have not honored Me. I have not caused you to serve with an offering, nor wearied you with incense.
24 You have not bought calamus for Me with silver, nor have you filled Me with fat of your sacrifices; but you made Me serve by your sins; you wearied Me by your iniquities.
25 I, even I, am He who blots out your trespasses for My sake; and I will not remember your sins.
26 Remind me; let us enter into judgment together; sum up for yourself, that you may be justified.
27 Your first father sinned, and your interpreters transgressed against Me.
28 And I will defile the rulers of the sanctuary, and will give Jacob to the curse, and Israel to blaspheming.

Chapter 44

1 And now listen, My servant Jacob, and Israel whom I have chosen.
2 So says YAHWEH, who made you and formed you from the womb. He helps you. Do not fear, My servant Jacob; and you, Jeshurun[4] whom I have chosen.
3 For I will pour water on a thirsty place, and floods on the dry ground. I will pour My Spirit on your seed, and My blessing on your offspring.
4 And they shall sprout as among grass, as willows by streams of water.
5 This one shall say, I belong to

[1] Yahweh is eternal. There was no El before Him and there will be none after Him. Yahweh is a family name and Elohim is plural as we see in Gen 1:1, and 26, and eternally there has been Yah Yahweh the Father and Yahshua Yahweh, who in the Tanach was called the Messenger of YHWH.

[2] Yahshua came in the name and authority of His Father and did the will of the Father perfectly (Joh 5:30, 37,43).

[3] Ex 15,:22-27, 17:1-7.

[4] Means upright one, a term of endearment

YAHWEH; and this one will call himself by the name of Jacob; and this one shall write with his hand, For YAHWEH, and be surnamed by the name of Israel.
6 So says YAHWEH, the King of Israel, and His Redeemer, YAHWEH of Hosts: I am the First, and I am the Last; and there is no Elohim except Me[1].
7 And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare this, and set it in order before Me, since I placed the people of old? And as to things to come, even which shall come, let them declare concerning them.
8 Do not dread, nor be afraid. Have I not declared and made you hear since then? So you are My witnesses: Is there a Eloah besides Me? Yea, there is none[2]. I have not known a Rock.
9 Those who form a carved image are all of them vanity. And their delights do not profit; and they are their own witnesses. They do not see, nor know, that they may be ashamed.
10 Who has formed an El, or poured out an image to no profit?
11 Behold, all his companions shall be ashamed; and the craftsmen, they are from men. They shall assemble, all of them shall stand; they shall dread; they shall be shamed together.
12 He carves iron with a tool; he works in the coals and forms it with hammers, and works it with his powerful arm; then he is hungry, and has no strength; he drinks no water and is weary[3].
13 The carpenter fashions the wood, and stretches a line; he marks it with a chisel; he shapes it with a carving tool, and he marks it with a compass. And he makes it according to the figure of a man, as the beauty of a man, to sit in the house.
14 He cuts down cedars and takes cypress and oak, and he makes the trees of the forest strong for him. He plants a tree, and rain makes it grow.
15 And it shall be for a man to burn; yea, he takes of them and is warmed; and he kindles it and bakes bread. Yea, he makes a god and worships; he makes a carved image and bows to it.
16 He burns half of it in the fire; he eats flesh on half of it; he roasts roast, and is satisfied. Then he warms himself and says, Ah, I am warm; I have seen the fire.
17 And he makes a god of the rest, his carved image; he bows to it and worships, and prays to it, and says, Deliver me, for you are my El.
18 They do not know nor discern; for He has smeared their eyes from seeing, their hearts from understanding.
19 And not one turns back to his heart, nor has knowledge nor discernment to say, I have burned half of it in the fire; and I also have baked bread on its coals. I have roasted flesh and have eaten it; and I have made the rest of it into an idol. Shall I bow to a product of a tree[4]?
20 Feeding on ashes, a deceived heart turns him aside, and he does not deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?
21 Remember these, O Jacob, and Israel. For you are My servant; I have formed you; you are My servant, O Israel; you shall not forget Me.
22 I have blotted out your transgressions like a thick cloud; and

1 There are 2 YHWH's here, one the King of Israel and His redeemer, Yahweh of Hosts. Elohim is plural, besides them (the one true YHWH family) there is no other Elohim.
2 As verses 9-20 will show YHWH is clearly speaking about false Elohim.
3 Showing how fruitless it is to make an idol.
4 If one would just think of the process in creating an idol it is most ridiculous.

your sins like a cloud. Return to Me, for I have redeemed you.

23 Sing, O heavens, for YAHWEH has done it. Shout, O lower parts of the earth; burst forth into praise, O mountains. O forest and every tree in it, sing praise, because YAHWEH has redeemed Jacob, and He glorifies Himself in Israel.

24 So says YAHWEH, your Redeemer and your Former from the womb; I am YAHWEH who makes all things; stretching out the heavens, Everything comes from me, even spreading out the earth. Who was with Me? (Is 48:16, Pr 30:4)

25 Frustrating the signs of liars; yea, He makes divining ones mad, turning wise ones backward, and making their knowledge foolish.

26 He confirms the word of His servant, and completes the counsel of His messengers. He says to Jerusalem, You will be filled; and to the cities of Judah, You shall be built; and, I will raise up its ruins.

27 He says to the deep, Be a waste! And I will dry up your rivers!

28 He says to Cyrus, You are My shepherd; and he shall complete all My pleasure, even for Me to say to Jerusalem, You are built; and to the temple, your foundation shall be laid[1].

Chapter 45

1 So says YAHWEH to His anointed, to Cyrus, whom I have seized by his right hand, to subdue nations before him. Yea, I will open the loins of kings, to open the two leaved doors before him, and the gates shall not be shut[2].

2 I will go before you and make hills level; I will tear apart the copper doors, and cut the iron bars in two.

3 And I will give you the treasures of darkness, even riches in secret places, that you may know that I am YAHWEH, who calls you by your name, the Elohim of Israel.

4 For My servant Jacob's sake, and for Israel My elect, I even call you by your name. I name you, but you do not know Me[3].

5 I am YAHWEH, and there is none else; there is no Elohim except Me. I will clothe you, though you do not know Me,

6 that they may know from the rising of the sun, and to its going down, that there is none besides Me; I am YAHWEH, and there is none else[4];

7 forming light, and creating

[1] This is a most amazing prophecy written about King Cyrus of Persia more than 200 years before his birth, stating that he would be servant of YHWH. It states that he would allow the rebuilding of Jerusalem after the destruction by the Babylonians exactly as he did. He was so amazed that the one true Elohim named him 200 yrs before his birth that he gave a royal degree to help with gold, money and even a royal escort to go back and rebuild the sanctuary of YHWH.

[2] When King Cyrus overtook Babylon they diverted the great River that ran under the wall and then went under the wall in the dry river bed and opened the 2 great doors of Babylon, exactly as the prophecy predicts. (Dan 4:7, Ez 1:1-7)

[3] Although YHWH named Cyrus by name before birth and Cyrus carried out the will of YHWH, according to scripture, Cyrus never turned to YHWH from his false, pagan, deities and never personally knew YHWH.

[4] In Hebrew, this verse means that all life comes from YHWH, there is no other source of life but Him, but does not mean that He is alone in the vast universe as we know that He had Yahshua with Him at creation (Gen 1:1, 26, Eccl 12:1, Is 48:16, Pr 30:4, Joh 1:1-5) and also there were cherubs and other elders in Heaven (Rev 4:4).

darkness; making peace, and creating evil. I, YAHWEH, do all these things[1].

8 Drop down from above, O heavens; and let the clouds pour down righteousness. Let the earth open and let Y'shua* bear fruit; and let righteousness spring up together. I, YAHWEH have created it.

9 Woe to him who fights with the One who formed him! A potsherd among the potsherds of the earth! Shall the clay say to its former, What are you making? Or does your work say, He has no hands?

10 Woe to him who says to a father, What are you fathering? Or to the woman, What are you laboring over?

11 So says YAHWEH, the Holy One of Israel, and the One who formed him, Do you ask Me of the things to come? Do you give command to Me about My sons, and about the work of My hands?

12 I have made the earth, and created man on it. I stretched out the heavens with My hands; and I have set all their host in order.

13 I raised him up in righteousness, and have made straight all his ways. He shall build My city, and he will release My captives; not for price, nor for reward, says YAHWEH of Hosts.

14 So says YAHWEH, The labor of Egypt, and the goods of Ethiopia, and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come to you; and they shall be yours. They shall come after you; they shall cross in chains; and they shall bow to you; they shall plead to you. Surely El is in you, and there is none else, no other Elohim.

15 Truly, You are a El who hides Himself, O Elohim of Israel, the Savior.

16 They shall be ashamed, and also are disgraced, all of them. Together they go into disgrace, carvers of images.

17 Israel is saved in YAHWEH with everlasting salvation (Y'shua)*. You shall not be ashamed nor disgraced to the forevers of eternity.

18 For so says YAHWEH, Creator of the heavens; He is The Elohim, forming the earth and making it; He makes it stand, not creating it empty, but forming it to be lived in. I am YAHWEH, and compared to Me there is none else.[2] (Deut 4:35)

19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth. I did not say to Jacob's seed, Seek Me in vain. I YAHWEH speak righteousness, declaring right things.

20 Gather yourselves and come; draw near together, escaped ones of the nations; the ones who set up the wood of their carved image, and the ones who pray to an El who is not Y'shua*; they know nothing.

21 Declare and bring near; yea, let them consult together. Who has revealed this of old; who has told it from then? Is it not I, YAHWEH? And there is no Elohim other than Me; a just El and a Savior; compared to Me they are nothing.

22 Turn to Me and be saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am El, and besides Me there is nothing else[3].

23 I have sworn by Myself, the Word has gone out of My mouth in

1 Darkness is simply the absence of light, so by creating light, you give the possibility for darkness. In the same way evil is simply the absence of peace, so by creating peace you give the ability for evil in its absence, but YHWH does not make the evil itself, it is simply a by product from the rejection of Him and His Torah.

2 Empty- This Hebrew word from Gen 1:2, does not mean that the original earth was not created void or empty as it states, but that it was made with the intent to be created and inhabited.

that to Me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear[1].
24 He shall say, Only in YAHWEH do I have righteousness and strength; to Him he comes; and they are ashamed, all who are angry with Him.
25 In YAHWEH all of the seed of Israel shall be justified, and shall glory.

Chapter 46

1 Bel has bowed; Nebo stoops; their idols are for the beast, and for the cattle; your things carried are loads; a burden for the weary.
2 They stoop; they bow together;
they are not able to deliver the burden;
and their soul has gone into captivity.
3 Listen to me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel; who are borne from the belly, who are lifted from the womb:
4 Even to old age I am He; and I will bear to gray hair; I made, and I will carry; and I will bear and deliver.
5 To whom will you compare and make Me equal; yea, compare Me, that we may be alike?
6 Those who lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver on the measuring rod; they hire a refiner and he makes it a El. They fall down; yea, they worship.
7 They carry it on the shoulder; they bear it and set it in its place, and it stands; it shall not move from its place. Yes, he cries to it, but it does not answer, it does not save him from his distress.
8 Remember this and be a man;
return it on your heart, transgressors.
9 Remember former things from forever, for I am El, and no other Elohim exist, even none like Me[2], 10 declaring the end from the beginning, and from the past those things which were not done, saying,
My counsel shall rise; and, I will do all My desire;
11 calling a bird of prey from the east, the man of My counsel from a far off land[3]. Yes, I have spoken; yes, I will cause it to come; I have formed; yes, I will do it.
12 Listen to Me, mighty ones of heart who are far from righteousness:
13 I bring near My righteousness; it shall not be far off, and My salvation shall not wait; I will place salvation (Y'shua*) in Zion, My glory for Israel.

Chapter 47

1 Go down and sit on the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the earth; a throne is not to the daughter of the Chaldeans; for they shall not again call you tender and delicate.
2 Take millstones and grind meal;
uncover your veil; strip off the skirt;
uncover the leg; pass over rivers.
3 Your nakedness shall be uncovered; yea, your shame shall be seen. I will take vengeance and I will not meet a man.
4 Our Redeemer; YAHWEH of Hosts is His name, the Holy One of Israel.
5 Sit in silence, and go into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans, for they shall no more call you the lady of kingdoms[4].
6 I was angry with My people; I defiled My inheritance and gave them

3 The comparisons are always to false deities not to His heavenly Kingdom nor His Son who reigns at His right hand under Him (Ps 110:1, 1 Pe 3:22, Heb 1:3, Heb 8:1, Heb 10:10-13, Heb 12:2 Acts 2:33 Acts 7:55-56).

into your hand. You gave them no mercy; you made your yoke on the aged very heavy.

7 And you said, I shall be a mistress forever, until you did not set these things on your heart, and did not remember its end.

8 Now, then, hear this, O pleasure seeker, who lives carelessly; who says in her heart, I am, and none else is; I shall not sit as a widow, nor shall I know the loss of children[1].

9 But these two things shall suddenly come to you, in one day: loss of children, and widowhood; according to completeness they come on you, for your many sorceries, for the power of your great spells.

10 For you trusted in your evil; you said, No one sees me. Your wisdom and your knowledge; it is turning you back, and you said in your heart, I am and none else is[2].

11 For this, evil shall come on you; you shall not know its origin. And mischief[3] shall fall on you; you shall not be able to cover it. And ruin shall come on you suddenly, you shall not know.

12 Stand now among your spells, and with your many sorceries, in which you have wearied yourself since your youth. Perhaps you will be able to profit; perhaps you may cause quaking.

13 You are exhausted by your many plans; let those dividing the heavens stand up now and save you, the stargazers, making known what is coming on you into the new moons.

14 Behold, they are as stubble; the fire burns them; they shall not save their soul from the flame's hand; there is no coal to warm them; nor fire, to sit before it.

15 So they are to you with whom you have labored, your traders from your youth; each one wanders to his own way; no one saves you.

Chapter 48

1 Hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and have been begotten from the waters of Judah, who swear by the name of YAHWEH and profess by the Elohim of Israel, but you mention not in truth or in righteousness.

2 For they are called of the holy city, and rest themselves on the Elohim of Israel; YAHWEH of Hosts is His name[4].

3 I have declared the former things from then; and they went out of My

4 Babylon is represented as a woman. In the archives found in Iraq it states that Istar the false goddess of Babylon was the mother of immigrants, and she had a 7 spike crown on her head and either a torch or a golden cup in her hand and the law book of Hammurabi in the other hand. She also had red and purple garments (Rev 17:4).

1 End time Babylon is a pleasure seeking nation who is living in relative luxury as most other live in poverty (Rev 18:7-8).

2 Babylon instead of giving glory to Elohim became a deity to themselves.

3 This Hebrew word is "hovah" and means ruin or mischief. It is where the name Jehovah comes from, which cannot be the Father's name as there is no letter 'J' in Hebrew, and Yahweh is not Elohim of mischief. Jehovah is a false combination of taking the four letters for the name Yahweh, Y H W H and putting in the vowels for Adonai. Jewish Rabbis started this tradition during second temple times as they began to think the sacred name YAHWEH was too holy to pronounce. So not to inadvertently pronounce the name they changed the vowel pointing in the Masoretic text with the vowels of Adonai.

4 As we see here YAHWEH is the only personal name that the Creator gives Himself (Ex 3:15). He has many titles but only one family name, YAHWEH.

mouth; and I made them hear; suddenly I acted, and they came about.
4 Because I knew that you are hard, and your neck is a sinew of iron, and your brow copper.
5 And I declared to you from then; before it came I made you hear, lest you should say, My idol did them; and my image and my cast image commanded them.
6 You heard; see it all; and will you not declare? I made you hear new things from now, even hidden things, and you did not know them.
7 They are created now, and not from then; even before today, but you did not hear them; lest you should say, See, I knew them.
8 Yea, you did not hear; yea, you did not know; yea, from then your ear was not opened; for I know that surely you will betray and revolt from the womb; it was called to you.
9 For My name's sake I will put off My anger; and for My praise I will hold back for you, so as not to cut you off.
10 Behold, I have refined you, but not with silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction.
11 For My sake, for My sake, I will act; for how is it defiled? And I will not give My glory to another. (Is 42:8)
12 Listen to Me, O Jacob, and Israel My called: I am He; I am the First; surely I am the Last.
13 My hand surely founded the earth, and My right hand has stretched out the heavens[1]; I called to them, they stood up together.
14 All of you gather and hear: Who among them has declared these things? YAHWEH has loved him[2]. He will do His pleasure on Babylon; yea, His arm shall be on the Chaldeans.
15 I, I have spoken; yea, I have called him, I brought him, and he causes his way to prosper[3].
16 Come near to Me; hear this: I have not spoken in secret from the beginning. From its existence, I was there; and now Adonai YAHWEH, and His Spirit, has sent Me[4].
17 So says YAHWEH, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, I am YAHWEH your Elohim, who teaches you to profit, who leads you in the way you should go.
18 Oh that you had listened to My commandments! Then your peace would have been like the river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.
19 And your seed would have been like the sand, and your offspring of your bowels like its grain; his name would not have been cut off nor destroyed from My presence.
20 Go out of Babylon; flee from the Chaldeans. Tell this with the voice of rejoicing; let this be heard, let it go out to the end of the earth; say, YAHWEH has redeemed His servant Jacob 21 And they did not thirst; He led them in the deserts; He made waters flow out of rock for them. And He cut open the rock and the water gushed out.
22 There is no peace, says YAHWEH, to the wicked.

Chapter 49

womb; He mentioned My name from My mother's belly[1].

2 And He made My mouth like a sharp sword; He hid Me in the shadow of His hand, and made Me a polished arrow; He hid Me in His quiver;

3 and said to Me, You are My servant to Israel, You in whom I shall be glorified.

4 Then I said, I have labored in vain; I have spent My strength for nothing, and in vain; yet surely My judgment is with YAHWEH, and My work with My Elohim.

5 And now, says YAHWEH who formed Me from the womb to be His servant, to bring Jacob back to Him: Though Israel is not gathered, yet I am honored in the eye of YAHWEH, and My Elohim is My strength[2].

6 And He said, It is too little that You should be My servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved ones of Israel; I will also give You, my Y'shua*, to be for a light of the nations, to the end of the earth[3].

7 So says YAHWEH, the Redeemer of Israel; His Holy One, to the despised of soul, to the hated of the nation[4], the servant of rulers, Kings shall see and rise up; and chiefs shall worship; because of YAHWEH who is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel; and He chose You.

8 So says YAHWEH: In a favorable time I have answered You, and in a day of salvation I have helped You. And I will preserve You, and give You for a covenant of the people; to establish the land, to cause to inherit the desolated inheritances;[5]

9 to say to the prisoners, Go out! To those who are in darkness, Reveal yourselves[6]. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall not hunger nor thirst; and the heat and sun shall not strike them. For He who has mercy on them shall lead them; and He shall guide them by the springs of water[7].

11 And I will make all My mountains a way, and My highways shall be set on high.

12 Behold, these shall come from afar; and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim[8].

13 Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; break out into singing, O mountains. For YAHWEH has comforted His people and will have pity on His afflicted.

14 But Zion said, YAHWEH has forsaken me, and, My Adonai has forgotten me.

[1] Just as YHWH named the pagan king Cyrus to fulfill His will with allowing Israel to return after the Babylonian exile, the Messiah is also called by name by YAHWEH and He will bring the Israelites back to the land a second time at His return (Is 11:13, Ezek 37:15-28, Ex 23:21, Math 1:21, Acts 4:12).

[2] Even though Israel would have to wait for their redemption till the latter days, the Servant of YHWH is still honored throughout the earth until that time.

[3] Here Yahshua Messiah is promised to be king over all the earth. This was never promised to king David. (Is 42:1-4) Simeon also prophesied of this verse in Luk 2:32.

[4] The Messiah will not be accepted by the nation at first, but will be at His second coming (Zech 12:10).

[5] This verse is referring to the Jubilee.

[6] Whereas physical Israel was led out of the darkness of slavery in Egypt, The Messiah will bring Israel out of spiritual darkness. (Is 61:1-2 Luk 4:18)

[7] As a good shepherd does, the Messiah will lead His followers to green pastures and watered oasis's. (Joh 10:11)

[8] "Sinim" is China, showing that King Messiah has scattered sheep from the House of Israel from the four corners of the earth and they will be gathered at His return.

15 Can a woman forget her suckling child, from pitying the son of her womb? Yes, these may forget, yet I will surely not forget you.

16 Behold, I have carved you on the palms of My hands; your walls are always before Me.

17 Your sons hurry; those destroying you and ruining you shall go out from you.

18 Lift up your eyes all around and see! They all gather and come to you. As I live, says YAHWEH, you shall surely wear all of them as an ornament, and bind them on as a bride.

19 For your wastes and your deserted places, and your land of ruins shall even now be too narrow to live there; and they who swallow you shall be far away.

20 The sons of your bereavement shall yet say in your ears, The place is too narrow for me; come near for me so that I may have place to live.

21 Then you shall say in your heart, Who has borne these to me, for I am bereaved and desolate, turned aside and an exile; who then has brought up these? Behold, I was left alone. From where do these come?

22 So says Adonai YAHWEH, Behold, I will lift up My hand to the nations, and will set up My banner to peoples. And they shall bring your sons in the bosom, and your daughters shall be carried on the shoulder.

23 And kings shall be supporting you, and their princesses your nurses. They shall bow to you, faces down to the earth, and lick up the dust of your feet. And you shall know that I am YAHWEH, by whom they who wait for Me shall not be ashamed.

24 Shall the plunder be taken from the warrior, or the righteous captive escape?

25 But so says YAHWEH, Even the captives of the warrior shall be taken, and the plunder of the terrifying ones shall be delivered. For I will strive with him who contends with you; and I will save your sons.

26 And those who oppress you, I will feed with their own flesh: and they shall be drunk by their own blood, as with fresh wine. And all flesh shall know that I am YAHWEH, and your Savior (Y'shua),* the Kinsman Redeemer[1], the Mighty One of Jacob.

Chapter 50

1 So says YAHWEH, Where is the writing of the severing of your mother's matrimonial bond, whom I have put away[2]? Or who of My creditors that I have sold you to him? Behold, you were sold for your iniquities, and your mother was put away for your trespasses.

2 Who knows why I have come, and no one is here? I called, and not one answered. Is My hand truly cut short from ransom? Or is there not power in Me to deliver? Behold, at My rebuke I dry up the sea; I make rivers a wilderness; their fish stink because of no water, and die in thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and sackcloth makes their covering.

4 Adonai YAHWEH has given to Me

1 Yahshua is the kinsman redeemer, who is in scripture the legal close relative who is able to redeem a relative from debt and to restore to them property that was lost. Messiah is showing that Israel had more than a physical debt to pay, but a spiritual debt for their sins that only He could pay as their kinsman redeemer. (Is 50:1, 53:6, 12)

2 This is a severing of the engagement agreement as when Moses went up to Mount Sinai to receive the contract of marriage, Israel greatly sinned with the golden calf and the marriage covenant agreement was broken.

the tongue of learned ones, to know to help the weary with a word. He awakens me in the morning; He wakens the ear to Me, to hear as the learned.

5 Adonai YAHWEH has opened My ear and I did not rebel; I did not turn away backwards.

6 I gave My back to strikers, and My cheeks to them that plucked off the hair; I did not hide My face from shame and spitting[1].

7 And Adonai YAHWEH will help Me. On account of this I was not ashamed. On account of this I set My face like flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 My Justifier is near. Who will contend with Me? Let us stand up together. Who is master of My judgment? Let him come near to Me.

9 Behold, Adonai YAHWEH will help Me; who is He who will condemn Me? Behold, like a garment they shall wear out; the moth shall eat them.

10 Who among you fears YAHWEH, obeying the voice of His Servant; who walks in darkness, and no light is in him? Let him trust in the name of YAHWEH, and lean on his Elohim.

11 Behold, all of you who kindle fire, who are surrounded by sparks; walk in the light of your fire and in the sparks you are burning. This shall be to you from My hand; you shall lie down in pain.

Chapter 51

1 Hear Me, pursuers of righteousness, seekers of YAHWEH: Look to the rock from which you were cut, and to the hollow of the pit from which you were dug[2].

2 Look to your father Abraham, and to Sarah who bore you. For he being but one, I called him and blessed him and increased him.

3 For YAHWEH comforts Zion. He comforts all her desolations, and He makes her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of YAHWEH[3]; joy and gladness shall be found in it, thanksgiving and the voice of singing praise.

4 Hear Me, My people; yea, give ear to Me, My nation. For the Torah shall go out from Me, and My justice I will make rest as light to peoples[4].

5 My righteousness is near; My salvation (Y'shua)* went out; and My arms shall judge peoples; coastlands shall wait on Me, and they shall hope on My arm.

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look to the earth beneath; for the heavens vanish like smoke, and the earth shall wear out like a garment; and those living in it shall die in the same way, but my Y'shua* shall be forever, and My righteousness shall not be broken.

7 Hear Me, those knowing righteousness, the people of My Torah in their heart; do not fear the reproach of man, and do not be bowed from their blaspheming.

8 For the moth shall eat them like a

1 Yahweh is completely with His Messiah and His Messiah has fully yielded to the call of YHWH even to be subject to physical torture and humiliation. The beard was a sign of respect and for someone to pluck it out on someone else was utterly contemptible. (Math 26:67, 27:30, Mk 15:19 Luk 22:63)

2 Telling them to go back to their beginnings and learn the wonderful lessons of the rewards of faith in YHWH.

3 Going back to the beginning would bring them to The Garden of Eden, which was in Jerusalem and will literally be restored in the millennial kingdom (Ezek 47:1-12, Rev 22:1-3, Joel 2:3).

4 At the core of peace and harmony in the millennial kingdom will be the obedience by all to the Torah (Mic 4:2, Jer 31:33).

garment; yea, the moth worm shall eat them[1] like wool. But My righteousness shall be forever, and my Y'shua* shall be from generation to generation.

9 Awake! Awake! Arm of YAHWEH, put on strength. Awake, as in days of old, everlasting generations. Was it not You cutting in pieces Rahab[2], and piercing the sea monster?

10 Was it not You drying up the sea, the waters of the great deep, who set the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass? (Ex 14:21)

11 Yea, the ransomed of YAHWEH shall return and come to Zion with singing, and everlasting joy shall be on their head; gladness and joy shall overtake them; sorrow and sighing shall flee[3].

12 I, I am He comforting you. Who are you, that you should fear from man? He shall die! And from the son of man? He is given as grass.

13 And you forget your Maker YAHWEH, who has stretched out the heavens and founded the earth. And you dread continually, every day, from the fury of the oppressor, since he was ready to destroy. And where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 Bowed down, he hurries to be freed, that he not die in the pit, nor that he lack his bread.

15 But I am YAHWEH your Elohim, stirring up the sea and making its waves roar; YAHWEH of Hosts is His name.

16 And I have put My Words in your mouth, and covered you in the shade of My hand, to plant the heavens and found the earth, and to say to Zion, You are My people. (Jer 31:33)

17 Awake! Awake! Rise up, O Jerusalem, who drank the cup of His fury from the hand of YAHWEH; you drank the bowl of the cup of reeling; you fully drained it. (Is 29:9-13)

18 No guide is for her among all the sons she has borne; and of all the sons she made to grow none makes strong her hand.

19 Those two things came to you; who shall grieve for you? Ruin and shattering and famine and the sword, who but I shall comfort you? (Is 40:2)

20 Your sons have fainted; they lie at the head of all the streets, like an antelope in a net, filled with the fury of YAHWEH, the rebuke of your Elohim.

21 So hear this now, afflicted one, and drunken, but not from wine:

22 So says your Master YAHWEH and your Elohim, He strives for His people. Behold, I have taken the cup of reeling out of your hand, the bowl of the cup of My fury; you shall not yet again drink it. (Is 60:14-21)

23 But I will put it into the hand of those oppressing you, who have said to your soul, Bow down that we may cross, and, Put your back to the ground, and as the street to those who cross. (Jos 10:24, Rev 18:20)

Chapter 52

1 Awake! Awake! Put on your strength, Zion; put on your beautiful robes, O Jerusalem, the holy city. For never again shall uncircumcised and unclean ones come to you.

2 Shake yourself from the dust; rise up! Sit, Jerusalem; free yourself from your neck bands, O captive daughter of Zion. (Zech 2:7)

3 For so says YAHWEH: You were

1 Is 50:9

2 In Is 30:7, the word for strength is 'rahab' and this may be a metaphor for how YHWH destroyed Egypt, or it could be a creature that this verse here indicated but otherwise is not mentioned in scripture (Ps 87:4, 89:9-10).

3 Speaking of the second exodus (Is 11:11-16, Jer 31:1-17).

sold for nothing, and you will not be redeemed with silver.

4 For so says Adonai YAHWEH: My people went down to Egypt at the first, to reside there, and without cause Assyria oppressed him.

5 So then what is to Me here, declares YAHWEH? For My people are taken for nothing; those ruling howl, declares YAHWEH. And My name is continually despised[1], every day.

6 So My people shall know My name thus in that day[2]; for I am He speaking. Behold Me!

7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him proclaiming good news, making peace heard, bearing tidings of good, making heard salvation (Y'shua),* saying to Zion, Your Elohim reigns. (Ro 10:15, Nah 1:15)

8 The voice of your watchmen, they lift the voice together, they sing aloud. For they shall see eye to eye when YAHWEH brings back Zion.

9 Break out, sing together, waste places of Jerusalem; for YAHWEH comforts His people; He has redeemed Jerusalem.

10 YAHWEH has bared His holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see (Aleph /Tav) Y'shua* from our Elohim[3].

11 Turn! Turn! Go out from there! Touch not the unclean! Go out of her midst, purify yourselves, bearers of the vessels of YAHWEH[4].

12 For you shall not go out with haste, nor will you go by flight; for YAHWEH is going before you, and the Elohim of Israel gathers you[5].

13 Behold, My Servant shall rule wisely; He shall be exalted and lifted up and be very high. (Joh 3:14)

14 Just as many were astonished over You, so much was the disfigurement from man, His appearance and His form from sons of mankind[6]. (Mk 14:65)

15 So He sprinkles from many nations. At Him kings shall shut their mouths; for they will see that which was not told to them; yea, what they had not heard, they will understand.

Chapter 53

1 Who has believed our report? And to whom is the arm of YAHWEH revealed[7]?

2 For He comes up as a shoot before Him, and as a root out of dry ground[8]. He has no form nor majesty that we should see Him; nor form that we should desire Him[9].

3 He is despised and abandoned of men, a Man of pains, and acquainted

---

1 Literally means to blaspheme.

2 Where as today the name of YHWH is not known or uttered in Israel, during the millennial reign of Yahshua everyone will know the name of YAHWEH.

3 When Yahshua returns on the Mount of Olives (Zech 14:1-5) all eyes will see Him, (Math 24:30).

4 This is addressed to those in Babylon and they are told that they must leave the immoral filth of Babylon and return to their homeland (Rev 18:4).

5 This is to those that take the early warning of leaving Babylon in faith. To those who wait for the last minute they are told to run in haste for their lives (Jer 51:6, 45).

6 Starting with this verse and going through all of chapter 53, the Messiah is pictured as a willing suffering servant that gave His life for exchange of the sins of the people. Is 53 is the only chapter of the entire Tanach that is not read in the Torah cycle of readings in the Synagogue. The disfigurement is from the scourging that He took (Math 27:26).

7 A prophecy showing that the nation would not accept the servant at this time.

with sickness[1]. And as it were hiding our faces from Him, He being despised, and we did not value Him[2].

4 Surely He has borne our sicknesses, and He carried our pain; yet we esteemed Him plagued, smitten by Elohim, and afflicted.[3]

5 But He was wounded for our transgressions; He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His wounds we ourselves are healed[4].

6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have each one turned to his own way; and YAHWEH made meet in Him the iniquity of all of us[5].

7 He was oppressed, and He was afflicted, but He did not open His mouth. He was led as a lamb to the slaughter; and as a ewe before her shearers is dumb, so He opened not His mouth. (Math 26:63-64, 27:12-14)

8 He was taken from prison and from justice; and who shall consider His generation? For He was cut off[6] out of the land of the living; for the transgression of My people, the stroke was to Him.

9 And He appointed Him His grave with the wicked, but He was with a rich man in His death; though He had done no violence, and deceit was not in His mouth. (Math 27:38, 57-60)

10 But YAHWEH pleased to crush Him, to make Him sick, so that If He should put His soul as a guilt offering[7], He shall see His seed[8]; He shall prolong His days; and the will of YAHWEH shall prosper in His hand[9].

11 He shall see the life of light, the fruit of the travail of His soul; He shall be fully satisfied. By His knowledge shall My righteous Servant justify for many, and He shall bear their iniquities. (Joh 8:12, Job 33:28)

12 Because of this I will divide to Him with the great, and with the strong He shall divide the spoil; because He poured out His soul to death; and He was counted with those transgressing; and He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for transgressors[10].

Chapter 54

1 Sing out, barren one who never bore; break out a song and shout, you who never travailed. For the sons of the desolate one are more than the sons of the married woman, says YAHWEH[11].

2 Make the place of your tent larger,

9 It is not physical beauty that attracts people to the Servant but His being filled with the spirit of Elohim.

1 Indicating the sufferings that the Servant went through early in His life to be able to have empathy on others.

2 At His first coming the nation would not truly understand the great blessing being brought to them by King Messiah.

3 Math 27:39-44

4 The substitutionary sacrifice that the Messiah will make for the people is due to their sin. 1 Pe 2:23-25

5 Every human being has sinned sins worthy of death and only by excepting the sacrifice of Yahshua to pay the penalty of those sins can someone have them paid for Ro 3:10-26.

6 This literally means that He was killed for the transgression of the people.

7 Ps 40:6-8

8 There has never been a human being born that has affected the lives of more people than Yahshua of Nazareth.

9 Clearly, showing a promise of resurrection (Ps 16:9-11).

10 Because of the great sacrifice that King Messiah made in paying the penalty for the sins of the covenant people, YHWH will give Him a great position for eternity, Phil 2:7-11.

11 An idiomatic poetic phrase speaking to the House of Israel who grew much larger in their Diaspora than Judah who never lost their identity.

and let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings. Do not spare, lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes[1].

3 For you shall break forth on the right hand and on the left. And your seed shall possess nations, and people will inhabit ruined cities.

4 Do not fear, for you shall not be shamed, nor shall you be disgraced, for you shall not be wounded. For you shall forget the shame of your youth, and you shall not remember the reproach of your widowhood any more.

5 For your Makers[2] are your husbands; YAHWEH of Hosts is Their name; and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel; He is called the Elohim of all the earth.

6 For YAHWEH has called you as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of young men when she is rejected, says your Elohim.

7 For a little moment I have left you, but I will gather you with great pitying.

8 In a flood of wrath I hid My face from you for a moment; but I will have pity on you with everlasting kindness, says YAHWEH your Redeemer.

9 For this is the waters of Noah to Me; for as I swore to refrain from passing over the waters of Noah over the earth again, so I have sworn from being angry with you and rebuking you.

10 For the mountains shall depart and the hills be removed, but My mercy shall not depart from you; nor shall the covenant of My peace be removed, says YAHWEH who has pity on you.

11 Afflicted one, storm tossed and not comforted! Behold, I am laying your stones with fair colors, and have founded you with sapphires.

12 And I will make your battlements of ruby, and your gates carbuncle stones, and all your borders stones of delight;

13 and all your sons will be taught of YAHWEH; and the peace of your sons will be great.

14 You shall be established in righteousness; you shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear; and from terror, for it shall not come near you.

15 Behold, gathering they shall gather, but not from Me. Who has gathered against you? By you he shall fall.

16 Behold, I have created the smith who blows the coal in the fire, and who brings out a weapon for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

17 Every weapon formed against you shall not prosper, and every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment, you shall condemn. This is the inheritance of the servants of YAHWEH, and their righteousness is from Me, says YAHWEH.

Chapter 55

1 Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the water; and he who has no money, come buy grain and eat. Yes, come buy grain, wine and milk without silver and with no price[3]. (Is 43:18-20,)

2 Why do you weigh out silver for that which is not bread, and your labor

1 In ancient times when a child would marry, the family would simply lengthen the tent they lived in for the new couple. This is stating to Judah that they need to do the same for the returning Ephraimites coming from Diaspora (Is 56:8).

2 This word is plural in Hebrew and shows 2 beings at creation (Ps 149:2, Eccl 12:1).

3 The word of YHWH has no price tag to it and one cannot buy or earn his/her salvation, it is a gift of YHWH paid for by the blood of Yahshua. (Math 10:8, 1 Pe 1:18-20, Math 5:6) for what never satisfies? Listen carefully to Me and eat the good; and let your soul delight itself in fatness[1].

3 Bend your ear[2] and come to Me; hear, and your soul shall live; and I will cut an everlasting covenant with you, the faithful mercies of David[3].
4 Behold, I gave Him a Witness to peoples, a Leader and Commander of peoples.
5 Behold, You shall call a nation You do not know; yea, a nation not knowing You shall run to You, because of YAHWEH Your Elohim, and for the Holy One of Israel; for He has glorified
You.
6 Seek YAHWEH while He may be found; call on Him while He is near[4].
7 Let the wicked forsake his way and the man of vanity his thoughts, and let him return to YAHWEH, and He will have mercy on him; and to our Elohim, for He will abundantly pardon[5].
8 For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways, says YAHWEH[6].
9 For as the heavens are high from the earth, so My ways are high from your ways, and My thoughts from your thoughts.
10 For as the rain and the snow comes down from the heavens and do not return there, except it waters the earth and make it bring forth and bud, and give seed to the sower and bread
to the eater, 11 so shall My Word be, which goes out of My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in what I sent it to do[7]!
12 For you shall go out with joy and be led out with peace. The mountains and the hills shall break out into song before you, and all the trees of the field shall clap the hand. (Ps 98:8-9) 13 Instead of the thorn bush, the fir tree shall come up; instead of the brier, the myrtle shall come up; and it shall be for a name to YAHWEH, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off[8]. (Is 32:13, Is 35:1-2)

Chapter 56

1 So says YAHWEH: Keep justice and do righteousness, for my Y'shua* is coming soon, and My righteousness will be revealed.
2 Blessed is the man who does this,
and the son of man who lays hold on it; keeping the Sabbath, from defiling it; and keeping his hand from doing every evil.
3 And do not let the son of the foreigner speak, he who joins himself to YAHWEH, saying, surely, YAHWEH separates me from His people; and do not let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dried tree[9].
4 For so says YAHWEH to the eunuchs who keep (Aleph/Tav) My Sabbaths and choose things I am pleased with, and take hold of My covenant:

9 Gentiles joining themselves to the covenant of Yahweh must keep the Torah as Israelites do, including the keeping of the blessing of the Sabbath day Num 15:15-16.

5 I, even I will give to them in My house and in My walls a hand and a name better than sons and than daughters; I will give them an everlasting name which shall not be cut off.

6 And the sons of the foreigner, who join themselves to YAHWEH to serve Him, and to love the name of YAHWEH, to be His servants, everyone who keeps from defiling the Sabbath, and takes hold of My covenant:

7 even them I will bring to My holy mount and make them joyful in My house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted on My altar, for My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the peoples,

8 states Adonai YAHWEH, who gathers the outcasts of Israel; I will yet gather others beside him to his gathered ones[1].

9 All beasts of the field come to devour, all beasts in the forest!

10 His watchmen are blind; they all do not know; they are all dumb dogs; they cannot bark, dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber;

11 yea, dogs greedy of soul; they do not know satisfaction. And they are shepherds; they do not know to discern; they all look to their own way, each one for his own gain, from his own end, saying:

12 Come, and let me bring wine, and let us gulp down fermented drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, great, exceedingly abundant.

Chapter 57

1 The righteous one perishes, and no one lays it to heart; yea, merciful men are gathered, with no one discerning that the righteous is gathered from the face of evil.

2 He shall enter peace; they shall rest on their couches, walking in his uprightness.

3 But you, draw near here, sons of the sorceress, seed of the adulterer and the harlot.

4 On whom are you making sport? On whom do you make a wide mouth and draw out the tongue? Are you not children of transgression, a lying seed,

5 being inflamed with idols under every green tree, slaughtering the children in the torrent beds, under the clefts of the rocks?

6 In the torrent's smoothness is your portion; they, they are your lot; even to them you have poured a drink offering; you have offered a food offering. Should I be consoled over these?

7 You have set your couch on a lofty and high mountain; yea, you went up there to sacrifice a sacrifice.

8 And you have set up your memorial behind the door and post. For you uncovered yourself from Me and went up; you enlarged your couch; and you cut covenant with them; you loved their couch; at a hand you looked.

9 And you went to the king with oil and multiplied your perfume. And you sent your messengers far away, and lowered yourself to Sheol.

10 You were wearied in the length of your way; you did not say, Despair! You found the life of your hand, so you were not sick.

11 And whom have you dreaded and feared? You have lied and have not remembered Me, not laying it on your heart. Have I not been silent, even from forever, and you have not feared Me?

12 I will reveal your righteousness and your works, and they will not benefit you.

13 When you cry, let your assembly deliver you; but the wind shall bear away all of them; vanity takes them. But he who takes refuge in Me shall inherit the land and possess My holy mountain[1].

14 And he shall say, Raise up! Raise up! Clear the way! Make the stumbling block rise from the way of My people.

15 For so says the high and lofty One who inhabits eternity, and His name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, even with the contrite and humble of spirit; to make live the spirit of the humble and to make live the heart of the contrite ones.

16 For I will not contend forever, nor will I always be angry, for the spirit would faint before Me, even the breaths I have made.

17 For I was angry and struck him for the iniquity of his gain; I hid Myself and was angry; yet he went, turning in his heart's way.

18 His ways I have seen, but I will heal him, and will lead him and complete comforts to him and to his mourners.

19 I create the fruit of the lips: peace, peace, to the ones far off and near, says YAHWEH, and I will heal him.

20 But the wicked are like the driven sea, which cannot be quiet, and its waves cast up mire and dirt.

21 There is no peace to the wicked, says my Elohim. (Is 48:22)

Chapter 58

1 Call out with the throat! Do not spare. Lift up your voice like the ram's horn! And declare to My people their rebellion, and their sins to the house of Jacob.

2 Yet they seek Me day by day, and desire knowledge of My ways. As a nation that has done right, and not forsaking the judgment of their Elohim, they ask Me about judgments of righteousness; they desire to draw near to Elohim.

3 They say, Why have we fasted, and You did not see? We have afflicted our soul, and You did not acknowledge. Behold, on the day of your fast you find pleasure; and you drive all your laborers hard.

4 Look! You fast for strife, and for debate, and to strike with the fist of wickedness. Do not fast as today, to sound your voice in the high place.

5 Is this like the fast I will choose, a day for a man to afflict his soul? To bow his head down like a bulrush, and he spreads sackcloth and ashes? Will you call to this as a fast and a day of delight to YAHWEH[2]?

6 Is this not the fast I have chosen: to open bands of wickedness, to undo thongs of the yoke, and to send out the oppressed ones free; even that you pull off every yoke[3]?

7 Is it not to break your bread to the hungry, that you should bring the wandering poor home? When will you see the naked and cover him, and you will not hide yourself from your flesh?

8 Then your light shall break as the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of YAHWEH shall gather you.

9 Then you shall call, and YAHWEH will answer; you shall cry, and He shall say, Here I am. If you put the yoke away from among you, the pointing of the finger, and the speaking of vanity[4];

[1] Must have total faith in YHWH to be blessed to possess the Holy Land.

[2] Unless someone is humbling himself and truly dedicating their fast to YHWH, they are simply going hungry.

[4] Pr 15:29, Joel 2;12-19

10 and if you let out your soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul;
then your light shall rise in the darkness, and your gloom shall be as the noonday[1].
11 And YAHWEH shall always guide you, and satisfy your soul in dry places, and make strong your bones.
And you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water whose waters do not fail. (Ps 1:3) 12 And those who come of you shall build the old ruins; you shall rear the foundations of many generations[2]; and you shall be called, The repairer of the breach, the restorer of paths to live in.
13 If you turn your foot away because of the Sabbath, from doing what you please on My holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight, to the holiness of YAHWEH, glorified; and shall glorify Him, to the holiness of not doing your own ways, from finding your own pleasure or speaking your own words[3]; 14 then you shall delight yourself in YAHWEH. And I will cause you to ride on the heights of the earth, and make you eat with the inheritance of your father Jacob. For the mouth of YAHWEH has spoken[4].

Chapter 59

1 Behold, the hand of YAHWEH is not shortened from saving, nor is His ear heavy from hearing. (Is 50:2) 2 But your iniquities are separating between you and your Elohim; and your sins have hidden His face from you, from hearing.
3 For your hands are defiled by blood; yea, your fingers with iniquity.
Your lips have spoken falsehood; your tongue murmurs perverseness.
4 No one calls for righteousness; and no one pleads with truth. Trusting emptiness, and speaking vanity, they conceive mischief, and give birth to iniquity.
5 They hatch adders' eggs, and weave the spider's web; he who eats their eggs dies; and that which is crushed hatches out a viper.
6 Their webs shall not become clothing, nor shall they cover themselves with their works. Their works are works of evil, and the act of violence[5] is in their hands.
7 Their feet run to evil, and they hurry to pour out innocent blood.
Thoughts of iniquity are their thoughts; wasting and ruin are in their ways. (Pr 6:17, Rom 3:15-17)
8 They do not know the way of peace; and no justice is in their tracks.
They have made crooked paths for themselves; everyone going in them does not know peace[6].
9 For this reason justice is far from us; and righteousness does not overtake us. We wait for light, but, behold, dimness; for brightness, but we walk in gloom.
10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes; we stumble at noonday as in the twilight, in deserted places like ones dying.
11 We all of us roar like bears, and moaning we moan like doves. We wait

[3] The Sabbath day is more than simply resting, but it is a day sanctified to YHWH and a covenant believer should refrain on the Sabbath from personal entertainment and self motivated pleasure seeking (Neh 13:15-22).
[4] There are great rewards involved with keeping the Sabbath day sanctified to YHWH.

[6] Although not the primary meaning of the verse, this defines Hamas exactly.

for justice, but there is none; for Y'shua*, but He is far from us.
12 For our rebellions are multiplied before You, and our sins testify against us. For our transgressions are with us, and we know our iniquities; (Is 58:1) 13 transgressing and lying against YAHWEH, and turning back from our Elohim, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and murmuring words of falsehood from the heart.
14 And justice is driven back; and righteousness stands far off; for truth stumbles in the plaza, and right is not able to enter.
15 And the truth is lacking; and whoever turns from evil makes himself a prey. And YAHWEH saw; and it was evil in His eyes, that there was no justice.
16 And He saw that there was no man, and He was astonished that there was no intercessor. And His own arm saved for Him; and His righteousness sustained Him[1].
17 For He put on righteousness like armor, and a helmet of Y'shua* He put on His head. And He put on robes of vengeance as clothing; and He put on zeal like a mantle[2].
18 According to works, so He will repay; fury to His foes; recompense to His foes; He will repay recompense to the coasts.
19 So they shall fear the name of YAHWEH from the west, and His glory from the rising of the sun. When the foe comes like a flood, the Spirit of YAHWEH shall cause him to flee.
20 And the Redeemer comes to Zion, and to those in Jacob who turn back from their rebellion, declares
YAHWEH[3].
21 As for Me, this is My covenant with them, says YAHWEH: My Spirit who is on you, and My Words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, or out of the mouth of your seed, or out of the mouth of your seed's seed, from now on and forever, says YAHWEH[4].

Chapter 60

1 Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of YAHWEH has risen on you[5]! (Eph 5:14)
2 For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples. But YAHWEH shall rise on you, and His glory shall be seen on
you. (Joel 2:1-2) 3 And nations shall walk to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawning. (Is 42:6, Is 52:15) 4 Lift up your eyes all around and see; they are all assembling; they are coming to you. Your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be supported on the side.[6] 5 Then you shall fear and be bright;
and your heart shall dread and swell.
For the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you; the wealth of nations shall come to you.

1 Since man was too corrupt, Yahweh needed His own right arm Yahshua (Is 62:8, Ps 110:1) to pay the penalty for sin. Is 63:5, Ezek 22:27-30, Jer 5:1, Ps 98:1, Is 40:10, Is 51:5, 8, 53:12

2 Rom 12:19

3 This is speaking about the kinsman redeemer, who has the legal right of redemption. When Yahshua came the first time He redeemed the sins of those who repented and accepted His substitutionary death for the penalty of their sins, and the second time He will redeem the land back to those in covenant with Him. Is 44:22, Heb 9:28 Lev 25:25-28.

4 Jer 31:31

5 This whole chapter is describing the glory of Jerusalem and Israel in the millennial kingdom.

6 Referring to Ephraim's return. Jer 31:1-14, Is 49:18, 22.

6 A host of camels shall cover you, young camels of Midian and Ephah. All of them shall come from Sheba[1], they shall bear gold and incense; and they shall proclaim the praises of YAHWEH.
7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to you; rams of Nebaioth shall serve you; they shall come up for acceptance on My altar; and the house of My beauty I will glorify[2].
8 Who are these who fly like a cloud, and with the doves to their windows?
9 For the coastlands shall wait for Me, and the ships of Tarshish at the first, to bring your sons from far away, their silver and their gold to them, to the name of YAHWEH your Elohim, and to the Holy One of Israel, because He has glorified you.
10 And the sons of the foreigner shall build your walls; and their kings shall serve you. For I struck you in My wrath, but I pitied you in My favor.
11 So your gates shall be always open; they shall not be shut day or night, so that men may bring to you the force of nations, and that their kings may be led. (Is 26:1-3)
12 For the nations and the kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; yea, the nations shall be utterly destroyed. (Zech 14:17-19)
13 The glory of Lebanon shall come to you: the juniper, the box tree, and the cypress together, to beautify the place of My sanctuary; yea, I will glorify the place of My feet. (Is 35:2-3)
14 Also the sons of ones afflicting you shall come bowing to you. And all who despised you shall fall at the soles of your feet. And they shall call you, The City of YAHWEH, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel. (Is 62:12)
15 Instead of your being forsaken and hated, so that no one passes through, I will make you for everlasting majesty, a joy of many generations.
16 You shall also suck the milk of nations, and you shall suck the breast of kings. And you shall know that I, YAHWEH, am your Savior and your Kinsman Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. (Is 54:5, Lev 25:25)
17 Instead of copper, I will bring gold; and instead of iron, I will bring silver. And instead of timber, copper; and instead of stones, iron. And I will make your governors peace, and your oppressors righteousness.
18 Violence shall not still be heard in your land, or wasting and ruin within your borders; but you shall call out[3] to Y'shua* by name as your wall of protection, and your gates, Praise[4].
19 The sun shall not still be your light by day, or the brightness of the moon give you light; but YAHWEH shall be for everlasting light to you, and your Elohim for your beauty.
(Rev 21:23)
20 Your sun shall not go in any more, and your moon shall not be removed; for YAHWEH will become your everlasting light; and the days of your mourning shall end.(Rev 22:5, Rev 21:4)
21 And your people shall all be righteous; they shall possess the earth forever, a branch of My planting, a work of My hands, to beautify Myself[5].
22 A little one shall become a thousand and a small one a strong nation. I, YAHWEH, will hasten it in its time[6].

Chapter 61

1 The Spirit of Adonai YAHWEH is on Me, because YAHWEH has anointed Me to preach the good news to the meek. He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, and complete opening to the bound ones;
2 to proclaim the acceptable year of YAHWEH[1], and the day of vengeance of our Elohim; to comfort all who mourn;
3 to appoint to those who mourn in Zion, to give them beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of the spirit of infirmity, so that one calls them trees of righteousness, the planting of YAHWEH, in order to beautify Himself.
4 And they shall build old ruins; they shall raise up former desolations; and they shall restore the waste cities, ruins of generations and generations.
5 And foreigners shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of strangers shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.
6 But you shall be called, Priests of YAHWEH; it will be said of you, Ministers of our Elohim[2]. You shall eat the wealth of the nations, and you shall revel in their glory.
7 Instead of your shame and disgrace, double. They rejoice in their portion; for they shall possess a second time in their land; everlasting joy shall be theirs.
8 For I, YAHWEH, love judgment, hating plunder in burnt offering. And I will give their work in truth; and I will cut an everlasting covenant to them[3].
9 And their seed shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed that YAHWEH has blessed.
10 Rejoicing I will rejoice in YAHWEH. My soul shall exult in my Elohim. For He clothed me with the wedding garments of Y'shua*; He put on me the robe of righteousness, even as a bridegroom, adorned as a priest with his fancy attire, and as a bride wears her wedding dress.[4]
11 For as the earth comes out with her buds, and as a garden causes that which is sown to grow, so Adonai YAHWEH will make righteousness and praise to grow before all the nations.[5]

Chapter 62

1 For Zion's sake, I will not be silent; and for Jerusalem's sake, I will not rest; until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and Y'shua* as a burning torch.
2 And nations shall see your righteousness, and all kings your glory. And you shall be called by a new name which the mouth of YAHWEH shall name[6].
3 You also shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of YAHWEH, and a royal head dress in the hand of your Elohim.
4 You no longer shall be called

[1] This is the Jubilee year when the kinsman redeemer will restore back to His own that which was lost (Lev 25:25-29). The very first time Yahshua read in the synagogue (Luk 4:16-20), He read verses 1 & 2, but stopped in the middle of verse two as verse 1 and part of 2 was about His first mission on earth and the rest of verse 2 and verse 3 is about judgment on the day of YHWH at His return.

Azubah[1]; nor shall your land any longer be called Shemamah[2]. But you shall be called, Hephzibah[3]; and your land, Beulah[4]. For YAHWEH delights in you, and your land is married[5].

5 For as a young man marries a virgin, so shall your sons marry you. And as a bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so your Elohim shall rejoice over you. (Rev 19:7-9)

6 I have set watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem. All the day and all the night they shall not always be silent; you who remember YAHWEH, keep not silent.

7 And give no rest to Him until He sets up and makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth. (Rev 21:2, Mic 4:1-2)

8 YAHWEH has sworn by His right hand[6], and by the might of His arm: Surely I will no longer give your grain as food for your enemies; and the sons of a stranger shall not drink your new wine for which you have labored.

9 But those who have gathered it shall eat it, and praise YAHWEH. And they who have collected it shall drink it in My holy courts. (Is 65:13, 21-23)

10 Pass! Pass through the gates; prepare the way of the people! Raise up! Raise up the highway; clear it from stones; lift up a banner[7] over the peoples.

11 Behold, YAHWEH has made it to be heard to the end of the earth; Tell the daughter of Zion, Behold! Y'shua* comes! Behold! His reward[8] is with Him, and His work before Him.

12 And they shall call them, The Holy People, the Redeemed[9] of YAHWEH. And to you it shall be called, Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken.

Chapter 63

1 Who is this who comes from Edom with crimson[10] garments from Bozrah, this One adorned in His clothing, inclining in His great power? It is I, to speak in righteousness the Great Y'shua*![11] (Jos 5:13-15, Mic 2:12-13)

2 Why is Your clothing red, and Your garments like one who treads in the winepress? (Rev 19:11-13)

3 I have trodden the winepress, I alone, and no man of the peoples was with Me. And I will tread them in My anger, and trample them in My fury; and their juice shall be spattered on My garments; and I will pollute all My clothes. (Rev 14:15-20)

4 For the day of vengeance is in My heart, and the year of My redeemed[12] has come.

5 And I looked, and no one was helping. And I was astonished that no

11 The Hebrew Reads 'Rab Yahshua'. In Aramaic Raboni means my great one and that is why Yahshua stated not to call any man Raboni, my great one, but Him (Math 23:8).

6 And I tread down peoples in My anger, and made them drunk in My fury. And I poured their juice to the earth. (Ps 75:8, Is 51:17, 21-22)

7 I will mention the mercies of YAHWEH, the praises[2] of YAHWEH, according to all that YAHWEH has benefited us, and the great good to the house of Israel, by which He benefited them according to His mercies, and according to the multitude of His loving-kindness.

8 For He said, Surely they are My people, sons that do not lie, and He became to them a Savior.

9 In all their affliction, He was not a foe; and the Messenger of his Face saved them[3]. In His love and in His pity He was their kinsman-redeemer. And He bore them up, and lifted them up all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and provoked His Holy Spirit, so He was turned to be their enemy; He fought against them. (Ps 78:40, Acts 7:51, Neh 9:20)

11 Then His people remembered the days past of Moses and His people, saying, Where is He who brought us up from the sea with the shepherd of His flock. Where is He who put His Holy Spirit within him;(Ps 106:44-46)

12 who led them by Moses' right hand, with His glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make for Him an everlasting name? (Ex 14:21-22)

13 He led them through the deeps; like the horse in the wilderness, they did not stumble.

14 As the cattle go down into the valley, so the Spirit of YAHWEH caused him to rest; so You led Your people, to make a glorious name for Yourself.

15 Look down from Heaven and peer from the place of Your holiness and Your glory. Where is Your zeal and Your might? The roaring of Your bowels and Your mercies toward me, are they held back?

16 For You are our Father, though Abraham does not know us, and Israel does not acknowledge us; You, YAHWEH, are our Father, our Kinsman-Redeemer[4]; Your name is from everlasting. (Jer 31:1-2)

17 O YAHWEH, why do You make us wander from Your ways? You harden our heart from Your fear. For Your servants' sake, return the tribes of Your inheritance[5].

18 For a little while Your holy people possessed it. Our enemies have trampled Your sanctuary.

19 We are of old; You never ruled over them. Your name was never called on them[6].

4 And from forever they have not heard; they did not give ear. Eye has not seen a Elohim except You, who works for him who waits for Him.
(1Cor 2:9)
5 You meet him who rejoices and works righteousness; they recall You in Your ways. Behold, You were angry, for we sinned. In them is eternity, we shall be saved.
6 But we are all as the unclean thing, and all our righteousness is as a menstruation cloth. And we all fade as a leaf, and like the wind our iniquities take us away.
7 And there is not one who calls on Your name[1], who stirs himself up to take hold of You. For You have hidden Your face from us, and have melted us away into the hand of our iniquities.
8 But now, YAHWEH, You are our Father. We are the clay, and You are our maker; yea, we all are Your handiwork. (Is 29:16)
9 Be not angry, YAHWEH, until extreme, and do not remember iniquity forever. Behold! look, please; all of us are Your people.
10 Your holy cities are a wilderness; Zion is a wilderness; Jerusalem is a desolation.
11 The house of our holiness and our beauty where our fathers praised You has become a burning of fire, and all our pleasant things have become a ruin. (2Chron 36:19) 12 Will You restrain Yourself over these things, YAHWEH? Will you be silent and vehemently afflict us?

Chapter 65

1 I have been sought, not by those who asked. I have been found, not by those who sought Me. To a nation not calling on My name, I said, Behold Me! Behold Me![2]
2 I have spread out My hands all the day long to a rebellious people who walk in the way not good, after their own thoughts; (Ro 10:21)
3 a people who continually provoke Me to My face; who sacrifice in gardens, and burn incense on the bricks;
4 who sit among the graves and lodge in the towers; who eat swine's flesh, and broth of unclean things in their pots[3];
5 who say, Keep to yourself! Do not come near me, for I am holier than you! These are a smoke in My nose, a fire burning all the day.
6 Behold! It is written before Me: I will not be silent, except I repay; yea, I will repay to their bosom, 7 your iniquities and the iniquities of your fathers together, says YAHWEH; they that burned incense on the mountains, and have blasphemed Me on the hills. And I will return their former work into their bosom.
8 So says YAHWEH: As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, Do not destroy it, for a blessing is

[1] There are almost ½ the people on this planet who read and accept the bible, but not even 1/100 of one percent of them acknowledge the Creator's one and only Sovereign name YAHWEH. Although it is recorded almost 7,000 times alone in the Tanach or Old Testament..

[2] Ro 10:19-20, Ro 11:11-15, Hos 1:10

in it; so I will do for the sake of My servants, not to destroy the whole.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah one to inherit My mountains[1]. And My elect shall inherit, and My servants shall live there.

10 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks; and the valley of Achor[2] a resting place of herds for My people who have sought Me.

11 But you are those who forsake YAHWEH, who forget My holy mountain; who array a table for Gawd[3] (The Babylonian Deity of fortune), and who fill mixed wine for Meni (The Deity of fate).

12 And I will number you to the sword; and you shall all bow down to the slaughter; because I called and you did not answer. I spoke, and you did not hear; and you did the evil in My eyes; and you chose that in which I had no pleasure.[4]

13 So Adonai YAHWEH says this: Behold, My servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry. Behold, My servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty. Behold, My servants shall rejoice, but you shall be ashamed.

14 Behold, My servants shall sing for joy of heart, but you shall cry from heartbreak, and howl from breaking of spirit.

15 And you shall leave your name for a curse to My elect. And Adonai YAHWEH shall kill you; and He shall call His servants by another name.

16 He who blesses himself in the earth shall bless himself in the Elohim of truth. And he who swears in the earth shall swear by the Elohim of truth; because the former distresses are forgotten; and because they are hidden from My eyes.

17 For, behold, I create new heavens and new earth. And the former things shall not be recalled, and they shall not go up on the heart.

18 However, be glad and rejoice forever in what I create. For, behold, I create in Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. (Zech 8:3-6)

19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in My people. And the voice of weeping and the voice of crying shall no longer be heard in her.

20 There shall not still be an infant of days, or an old man that has not filled his days. For the youth shall die the son of a hundred years, but the sinner the son of a hundred years shall be accursed.

21 And they shall build houses and live in them; and they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

22 They shall not build, and another live in them; they shall not plant, and another eat. For like the days of the tree are the days of My people; and My elect shall grow old to the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for terror. For they are the seed of the beloved ones of YAHWEH, and their offspring with them.

24 And it will be, before they call, I will answer. While they are speaking, then I will hear.

25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed

[1] The Messiah will be born from the seed of David (Mich 5:2).

[2] "Achor" means "trouble" and only through trouble will Israel find her restoration.

[3] Gawd or "god" is the name of the Babylonian deity of fortune and meni is the name of the deity of fate. Yahweh is rebuking the people for exchanging His exulted name YAHWEH with the name of the false deity "god". It is most ironic that on the US dollar, which is the reserve currency of the world, that it is written "in god we trust". Most are doing this today breaking the third commandment. as one; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. And dust is the food of the snake. They shall not do evil nor destroy in all My holy mountain, says YAHWEH (Is 11:6)

Chapter 66

1 So says YAHWEH: Heaven is My throne, and earth the footstool of My feet. Where then is the house that you build for Me? And where then is the place of My rest?

2 And My hand has made all these things, even all these things exist, declares YAHWEH. But I will look toward this one, to the humbled one, and to the contrite of spirit, even trembling at My Word.

3 He who slaughters an ox is as if he struck a man; he who sacrifices a lamb is as if he broke a dog's neck; he who offers a present is as if it were swine's blood; he making mention of incense is as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their way, and their soul delights in their abominations[1].

4 I also will choose their vexations; and I will bring their fears to them; because I called, and no one answered; I spoke, and they did not hear. But they did the evil in My eyes, and chose that in which I had no pleasure.

5 Hear the Word of YAHWEH, those who tremble at His Word. Your brothers who hate you, who drive you out for My name's sake, have said, YAHWEH is glorified. But He shall appear in your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A roaring sound from the city! A sound from the sanctuary! It is the sound of YAHWEH repaying retribution to His enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before pain came to her, she delivered a male child.

8 Who has heard a thing like this? Who has seen things like these? Shall the earth be brought forth in one day? Shall a nation be born in one step? For Zion travailed and also brought forth her sons.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? says YAHWEH. Surely I cause birth, and restrain, says your Elohim.

10 Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all who love her. Rejoice a rejoicing with her, all who mourn for her;

11 that you may suck and be satisfied with her comforting breasts; that you may milk out and delight yourselves with the fullness of her glory.

12 For so says YAHWEH: Behold, I stretch out peace to her like a river, and glory of nations like an overflowing torrent. And you shall suck; you shall be carried on the side and be dandled on knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you. And you shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And you will see, and your heart shall rejoice; and your bones shall flourish like the grass. And the hand of YAHWEH shall be known toward His servants, and He shall be indignant with His enemies.

15 For, behold, YAHWEH will come with fire, and His chariots like the whirl-wind, to return His wrath in fury, and His rebuke in flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by His sword YAHWEH will execute judgment with all flesh; and the slain of YAHWEH shall be many.

17 Those who sanctify themselves, and purify themselves to the gardens, each one in the midst, eaters of swine's flesh, and the hateful thing, and the mouse, these are cut off together, says YAHWEH.

18 For I know their works and their thoughts; it comes to gather all the nations and the tongues; and they shall come and see My glory.
19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those who escape from them to the nations of Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, drawers of the bow; to Tubal and Javan, to the far away coasts that have not heard (Aleph/Tav) My fame nor seen (Aleph/Tav) My glory. And they shall declare (Aleph/Tav) My glory among the nations.
20 And they shall bring all your brothers out of all nations, an offering to YAHWEH, on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on camels, to My holy mountain Jerusalem, says YAHWEH; as the sons of Israel bring the offering in a clean vessel to the house of YAHWEH.
21 And I will also take some of them for the priests, for the Levites, says YAHWEH.
22 For as the new heavens and the new earth which I make stand before Me, declares YAHWEH, so your seed and your name shall stand.
23 And it will be, from new moon to its new moon, and from Sabbath to its Sabbath, all flesh shall come to worship before Me, says YAHWEH.
24 And they shall go out and see the dead bodies of the men who have rebelled against Me; for their worm shall not die, nor shall their fire be put out; and they shall be an object of disgust to all flesh.

Book of Jeremiah 627-585 BC

Chapter 1

1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, one of the priests who resided in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin,
2 to whom the Word of YAHWEH came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.
3 It also came in the days of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the exile of Jerusalem in the fifth month.
4 Then the Word of YAHWEH was to me, saying,
5 I knew you before I formed you in the belly; and before you came out of the womb, I sanctified you. I appointed you a prophet to the nations.
6 Then I said, Ah, Adonai YAHWEH! Behold, I do not know how to speak for I am a boy.
7 But YAHWEH said to me, Do not say, I am a boy; for you shall go to all that I shall send you. And whatever I command you, you shall speak.
8 Do not be afraid of their faces, for I am with you to deliver you, says YAHWEH.
9 Then YAHWEH put out His hand and touched my mouth. And YAHWEH said to me, Behold, I have put My Words in your mouth.
10 Behold, I have today appointed you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to tear down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.
11 And the Word of YAHWEH was to me, saying, Jeremiah, what do you see? And I said, I see an almond rod.
12 Then YAHWEH said to me, You have seen well; for I will watch over My Word to perform it.[1] 13 And the Word of YAHWEH came to me the second time, saying, What do you see? And I said, I see a boiling pot; and its face is from the face of the north[2].
14 And YAHWEH said to me, Out of the north, evil will be set loose on all those living in the land.
15 For, behold, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, declares YAHWEH. And they shall come, and they will give to each his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against its walls all around, and against the cities of Judah.
16 And I will speak My judgments against them regarding all their evil, those who have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods, and have worshiped the works of their hands.
17 And you must gird up your loins, and rise up and speak to them all that I command you. Do not be terrified before their faces, that I not prostrate you before them.
18 For, behold, today I have made you a fortified city, and an iron pillar, and copper walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against her princes, against her priests, and to the people of the land.
19 And they shall fight against you; but they shall not overcome you. For I am with you to deliver you, declares YAHWEH.

1 Verse 11 and 12 are a play on words in the original Hebrew as the word for almond is "shaked" and the word for diligently watching is "s*hoked*".

2 The seething pot ready to boil over is an illustration of the imminent invasion by Babylon.

Chapter 2

1 And was the Word of YAHWEH to me, saying,

2 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, So says YAHWEH, I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your espousals, your going after Me in the wilderness, in a land not sown.

3 Israel was holy to YAHWEH, the first-fruits of His increase. All that devour him become guilty; evil shall come on them, declares YAHWEH.

4 Hear the Word of YAHWEH, O house of Jacob and all the families of the house of Israel.

5 So says YAHWEH, What iniquity have your fathers found in Me, that they went far from Me and have walked after vanity, and have become vain?

6 Nor did they say, Where is YAHWEH who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness, in a land of deserts and of pits, in a dry land and deep darkness, in a land that no man has passed through, and not a man has lived there?

7 And I brought you into a plentiful land to eat its fruit and its goodness. But when you went in, you defiled My land and made My inheritance an abomination.

8 The priests did not say, Where is YAHWEH? And they who handle the Torah did not know Me. And the shepherds rebelled against Me; and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and went after things not profitable.

9 Therefore, I will contend with you, says YAHWEH, and I will contend with your sons' sons.

10 For go to the isles of Kittim[1] and see, and send to Kedar[2], and carefully consider and see if there is any like this.

11 Has a nation changed its Elohim, and they were not Elohim? But My people have changed my Glory without profiting.

12 Be amazed at this, O heavens, and be horrified; be completely desolated, declares YAHWEH.

13 For My people have done two evils: they have forsaken Me, the Fountain of living waters[3], to hew out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns that can hold no water.

14 Is Israel a servant? Or is he a servant of the house? Why has he become a prey?

15 The young lions roared against him; they gave their voice. And they made his land a waste; his cities are ruined, without inhabitant.

16 Also the sons of Noph and Tahpanhes have fed on your crown.

17 Have you not done this to yourself by your forsaking YAHWEH your Elohim when He led you by the way?

18 And now what is for you toward the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? Or what for you toward Assyria, to drink the waters of the River Euphrates?

19 Your own wickedness shall correct you, and your apostasies shall reprove you. Know, then, and see that your forsaking YAHWEH your Elohim is evil and bitter; and My fear

[3] In the sanctuary of YHWH in Jerusalem there was an inexhaustible natural spring called Gihon under the throne of YHWH in the Holy of Holies. Ironically, today about 1/3 of a mile north of the original sanctuary is where the Roman fort Antonia was where today many believe the original sanctuary of YHWH stood. In this area there are many ancient broken cisterns underground that cannot hold water any longer (Jer 17:13).

is not in you, declares Adonai YAHWEH of Hosts.

20 For long ago you broke your yoke and tore up your bonds. And you said, I will not transgress, when on every high hill and under every green tree you lay down like a harlot.

21 Yet I planted you a choice vine, wholly a true seed. How then have you turned into the deteriorating shoots of a foreign vine to Me?

22 Though you wash yourself with potash, and multiply soap for yourself, your iniquity is stained before Me, declares Adonai YAHWEH.

23 How can you say, I am not defiled; I have not gone after Baals? See your way in the valley; know what you have done! You are a swift camel crisscrossing her ways;

24 a wild donkey used to the wilderness. In the passion of her desire she snuffs up the wind in her time. Who can turn her away? All those who seek her will not tire themselves; in her month they will find her[1].

25 Withhold your foot from being bare and your throat from thirst. But you said, It is hopeless! For I love strangers, and after them I will go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed. They, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets are

27 saying to a tree, You are my father; and to a stone, You gave us birth[2]. For they turned their back to Me, and not the face. But in the time of their evil, they will say, Arise, and save us!

28 But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves? Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your evil; for according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah.

29 Why do you contend with Me? All of you, you have rebelled against Me, says YAHWEH.

30 In vain I have stricken your sons; they received no correction. Your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 O generation, see the Word of YAHWEH. Have I been a wilderness to Israel, or a land of darkness? Why do My people say, We roam; we will come no more to You.

32 Can a virgin forget her ornaments, a bride her attire? Yet My people have forgotten Me days without number.

33 What? Do you trim your ways to seek love? For this reason you have even taught the evil women your ways.

34 Also on your skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents; I did not find them by breaking in, but on all these.

35 Yet you say, Because I am innocent, surely His anger shall turn from me. Behold, I will judge with you, because you say, I have not sinned.

36 Why do you go about so much to change your way? You also shall be ashamed of Egypt, as you were ashamed of Assyria.

37 Yes, you shall go out from this place, and your hands on your head. For YAHWEH has rejected those in whom you trust, and you will not prosper by them.

Chapter 3

1 They say, If a man lets go his wife, and she goes from him and will be for another man, will he return to her again? Would not that land be greatly defiled? But you play the harlot with many lovers; yet would you come back to Me, says YAHWEH. (Deut 24:1-4)

2 Lift up your eyes on the bare heights and see. Where have you not been lain with? By the highways you have sat for them, like an Arab in the desert. And you have defiled the land with your fornications and with your evil.

3 And the showers are withheld, and there has been no latter rain. And the forehead of a woman, a harlot, was to you; you refused to be ashamed.

4 Have you not just now called to Me, saying, My father, You are the friend of my youth?

5 Will He keep His anger forever? Or will He guard it to the end? Behold, you have spoken, and you have done all the evil things that you could.

6 YAHWEH also said to me in the days of Josiah the king, Have you seen what the apostate Israel has done? She has gone up on every high hill and under every green tree, and has fornicated there. (Jer 17:2-3)

7 And after she had done all these, I said, She will return to Me; but she did not return. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it.

8 And I watched. When for all the causes for which the apostate Israel committed adultery, I sent her away and I gave the writ of her divorce to her. Yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but she also went and fornicated.

9 And it happened, from the wantonness of her harlotry she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with pieces of wood.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah has not turned to Me with her whole heart, but with falsehood, says YAHWEH.

11 And YAHWEH said to me, The apostate Israel has justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 Go and cry these words toward the north, and say, Return, O apostate Israel, says YAHWEH. I will not cause My face to fall on you, for I am merciful, says YAHWEH; I will not keep anger forever.

13 Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have rebelled against YAHWEH your Elohim and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed My voice, says YAHWEH.

14 Return, O apostate sons, declares YAHWEH; for I am Adonai over you. And I will take you, one from a city, and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion[1].

15 And I will give you shepherds according to My heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding[2].

16 And it will be, when you multiply and increase in the land in those days, says YAHWEH, they will no longer say, The ark of the covenant of YAHWEH! Nor shall it come to the heart, nor shall they remember it, nor shall they miss it, nor shall it be made any more[3].

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of YAHWEH.

[1] There is always only a remnant being redeemed as the majority of the people will always continue in their sinful ways and refuse to repent.

[2] In the end time YHWH will give true shepherds that will teach His people properly according to His Torah Is 8:20, Eph 4:10-14)

[3] The ark of the covenant represented YHWH's presence with His people, but in the last days His spirit will be with His remnant and they will not even think about the ark of the covenant. The ark was only in the first sanctuary built by Solomon, but not in the Herodian sanctuary in the days of Yahshua. Yahshua's presence in person superseded the need for the ark of the covenant.

And all nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of YAHWEH, to Jerusalem[1]. And they shall not walk any more after the stubbornness of their evil heart.

18 In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north, to the land that I have given for an inheritance to your fathers[2].

19 But I said, How gladly would I put you among the sons, and give you a pleasant land, a beautiful inheritance among the multitudes of nations! And I said, You shall call Me, My Father; and you shall not turn away from Me.

20 Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her lover, so you have dealt treacherously with Me, O house of Israel, declares YAHWEH.

21 A voice was heard weeping on the bare heights, pleadings of the sons of Israel; for they have perverted their way; they have forgotten YAHWEH their Elohim.

22 Return, O apostate sons; I will heal your apostasies. Behold, we come to You, for You are YAHWEH our Elohim[3].

23 Truly, for delusion comes from the hills, tumult on the mountains. Truly, in YAHWEH our Elohim is the salvation of Israel.

24 For the shameful thing has eaten up the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covers us. For we have sinned against YAHWEH our Elohim, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day. And we have not obeyed the voice of YAHWEH our Elohim. (Jer 22:21)

Chapter 4

1 If you will return, O Israel, says YAHWEH, return to Me. And if you will turn away from your hateful idols out of My face and will not waver,

2 and you will swear, As YAHWEH lives, in truth, in justice, and in righteousness; even the nations shall bless themselves in Him, and in Him they will glory.

3 For so says YAHWEH to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and do not sow to the thorns. (Hos 10:12-13, Mat 13:22)

4 Circumcise yourselves to YAHWEH, and take away the foreskin of your heart[4], O men of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, that My fury not go forth like fire and burn, so that no one can put it out; because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare in Judah, and make it heard in Jerusalem, and say, Blow the ram's horn in the land[5]. Cry, the end and say, Assemble yourselves and go into the cities of defense.

6 Lift up a banner toward Zion[6]. Flee for safety and do not wait. For I will bring evil from the north and a great ruin[7]. (Jer 6:1)

7 The lion has come up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations has set out. He has left his place to make your land a waste. Your cities will fall into ruins without one living in them.

for this, wail and howl. For the fierce anger of YAHWEH has not turned back from us.

9 And it will be in that day, says YAHWEH, the king's heart and the heart of the rulers shall perish. And the priests shall be amazed; and the prophets shall be astounded.

10 Then I said, Ah, Adonai YAHWEH! Surely You have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, You shall have peace, but the sword reaches to the soul.

11 At that time it shall be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A hot wind from the bare hills in the desert toward the daughter of My people, not to sift nor to cleanse![1]

12 A wind more full than these shall come for Me. Now I also will speak judgments against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up like clouds, and his chariots like a windstorm. His horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us, for we are devastated!

14 O Jerusalem, cleanse your heart from evil so that you may be saved. Until when will your vain thoughts lodge within you?

15 For a voice announces from Dan, and proclaims evil from Mount Ephraim.[2]

16 Tell it to the nations: Behold, proclaim against Jerusalem, Besiegers are coming from a distant land and will set their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 Like the ones watching a field, they are against her all around because she has rebelled against Me, says YAHWEH.

18 Your way and your doings have done these things to you; this is your evil, because it is bitter, because it reaches to your heart.

19 My bowels! My bowels! I convulse in pain. O walls of my heart! My heart is restless within me. I cannot be silent, for I have heard, O my soul, the sound of the ram's horn, the alarm of war[3]!

20 Call Out, Ruin upon ruin; for the whole land is laid waste. Suddenly my tents are laid waste, my curtains in a moment.

21 How long must I see the banner and hear the sound of the ram's horn?

22 For My people are foolish. They do not know Me. They are stupid children, and they have no understanding. They are wise to do evil, but they do not know to do good.

23 I looked on the earth, and, behold! It was without form and void; and to the heavens, and they had no light. (Gen 1:2)

24 I looked on the mountains, and, behold! They quaked, and all the hills were shaken.

25 I looked, and, behold! There was no man, and all the birds of the skies had fled.

26 I looked, and, behold! The fruitful place was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down before the face of YAHWEH, before His glowing anger.

27 For so YAHWEH has said, The whole earth shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end.

28 The earth shall mourn for this, and the heavens above shall grow black, because I have seen, I have purposed and I will not repent, nor will I turn back from it.

29 Every city shall flee from the noise of the horsemen and shooters of the bow. They shall go into thickets and go up in the rocks. Every city shall be forsaken, and not a man shall live in them. (Jer 16:14-21)

30 And you, O desolate one, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with crimson, though you adorn yourself with ornaments of gold, though you make large your eyes with paint, you beautify yourself in vain. Lovers despise you; they will seek your life[1].

31 For I have heard a voice as of a sick woman, the anguish as one bearing her first child, the voice of Zion's daughter gasping and spreading her hands, saying, Woe is to me now, for my soul faints because of murderers.

Chapter 5

1 Roam around in Jerusalem's streets and see now, and know, and seek in her plazas if you can find a man, if there is one who does justice, who seeks truth; and I will pardon her[2].

2 And though they say, As YAHWEH lives, surely they swear falsely.(Is 48:1)

3 O YAHWEH, are not Your eyes for the truth? You struck them, but they felt no pain. You consumed them, yet they refused to take correction. They made their faces harder than rock; they have refused to return.

4 So I said, Surely they are poor; they are foolish, for they do not know the way of YAHWEH, the judgment of their Elohim.

5 I will go up for myself to the great men and will speak to them. For they have known the way of YAHWEH, the ordinances of their Elohim. Surely these have joined in breaking the yoke; they have torn off the bonds.

6 On account of this a lion out of the forest shall strike them; a wolf of the desert shall destroy them; a leopard is watching over their cities. Everyone who goes out from them shall be torn in pieces, because their transgressions are many; their rebellions are multiplied[3].

7 Why should I pardon you for this? Your sons have forsaken Me and have sworn by ones who are Not Elohim. When I fed them to the full, they then committed adultery and gathered themselves by troops in a harlot's house.

8 They were like lusty, well fed stallions in the morning, everyone neighing after the wife of his neighbor.

9 Shall I not judge for these things, says YAHWEH? And shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 Go up on her vine rows and destroy, but do not make a full end. Take away her branches, for they are not of YAHWEH.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have been very devious with Me, declares YAHWEH.

12 They have lied against YAHWEH and said, It is not He; and, No evil

1 The root of this word is only used elsewhere in Ezek 23, showing that the nations that Israel has aligned themselves with have only wanted to destroy her. The wearing of make -up is also equated with harlotry.

2 It is a sad state of affairs when there is not even one righteous man left in all Jerusalem, Gen 18:26-32.

shall come on us; and, We shall not see sword or famine.

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the Word is not in them; so it shall be done to them.

14 Therefore YAHWEH Elohim of Hosts says this: Because you spoke this word, behold! I will make My Words fire in your mouth, and these people wood; and it shall consume them.

15 Behold, I will bring a nation on you from far away, O house of Israel, declares YAHWEH. It is an enduring nation; it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, nor understand what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open grave; they are all mighty men.

17 And they will eat up your harvest and your food, and they will devour your sons and your daughters. They will eat up your flocks and your herds; they will eat up your vines and your fig trees. One shall beat down your fortified cities with the sword, those in which you trust.

18 Yet even in those days, declares YAHWEH, I will not make a full end with you[1].

19 And it will be when you shall say, Why does YAHWEH our Elohim do all these things to us? Then you shall answer them, Just as you have forsaken Me and served foreign Elohim in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob and cry it in Judah, saying,

21 Now hear this, O foolish people, even you without heart, who have eyes and do not see, who have ears and do not hear. (Is 6:10)

22 Do you not fear Me, declares YAHWEH? Will you not tremble before My face, that I have placed the sand as the limit for the sea by an eternal decree, so that it cannot cross over it? And though they toss themselves, yet they cannot prevail; though its waves roar, yet they cannot cross over it.

23 But to this people there is a revolting and a rebellious heart; they have turned and are gone[2].

24 And they do not say in their heart, Let us now fear YAHWEH our Elohim who gives both the former and the latter rain in its season; He keeps for us the appointed weeks of the harvest[3].

25 Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good from you. (Ps 84:11)

26 For among My people are found wicked ones. They lie in wait, as one who sets snares. They set a trap, they catch men.

27 Like a cage full of birds, so their houses are full of treachery. On account of this they have become great and grown rich.

28 They have become fat; they shine. Yes, they pass over the deeds of the evil; they do not judge the cause of the orphan, that they may prosper. And they do not vindicate the right of the needy.

29 Shall I not visit for these things, declares YAHWEH? Shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 There is an appalling and horrible thing that has happened in the land.

31 The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their hands; and My people love it so. And what will you do at the end of it[1]?

Chapter 6

1 O sons of Benjamin take refuge to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem. And blow the ram's horn in Tekoa[2]; and set up a signal over Beth-Haccerem. For evil appears out of the north, and great destruction.
2 I will destroy the daughter of Zion, the beautiful and tender one.
3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come to her; they shall pitch tents on her all around. They shall each one feed in his hand.
4 Consecrate war against her. Rise up and let us go up at noon. Woe to us, for the day wanes! For the shadows of the evening are stretched out.
5 Rise up and let us go up by night and destroy her palaces.
6 For so YAHWEH of Hosts has said, Cut down her trees and pour out a mound against Jerusalem. She is the city to be visited. In her midst is oppression, all of her.
7 As a cistern keeps fresh its waters, so she keeps fresh her evil. Violence and destruction are heard in her. Sickness and wounds are continually before My face.
8 O Jerusalem, take advice, that My soul not be alienated from you; that I not make you a ruin, a land with not one living in it.
9 So says YAHWEH of Hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine. Turn back your hand as a grape gatherer over the tendrils.
10 To whom shall I speak and give warning that they may hear? Behold, their ears are not circumcised, and they cannot listen. Behold, the Word of YAHWEH is a reproach to them. They have no delight in it.
11 And I am full of the fury of YAHWEH; I am weary with holding in. Pour it out on the child in the street and on the circle of the young men together. For even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the elder with fullness of days.
12 And their houses shall be turned to others, fields and wives together. For I will stretch out My hand on those living in the land, declares YAHWEH.
13 For everyone from the least of them even to the greatest of them cuts off a profit. And from the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely.
14 They have also healed the break of My people slightly, saying, Peace, peace, when there is no peace[3].
15 Were they ashamed when they made an abomination? They were not at all ashamed, nor did they know to blush. So they shall fall among those who fall. At the time I visit them, they shall be cast down, says YAHWEH.
16 So says YAHWEH, Stand by the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where the good way is, and walk in it; and you shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk in it[4].
17 Also I raised watchmen over you, saying, Listen to the sound of the ram's horn. But they said, We will not listen.

18 So hear, O nations, and know, O congregation, that which is coming on
them.
19 Hear, O earth, behold! I will bring evil on this people, the fruit of their thoughts. For they have not listened to My Words, and My Torah; they also rejected it[1].
20 Why is this to Me? Frankincense comes from Sheba, and the good cane from a far land? Your burnt offerings are not for acceptance, nor are your sacrifices sweet to Me[2].
21 So YAHWEH says this, Behold! I am giving stumbling blocks to this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall stumble on them; a neighbor and his friend shall perish.
22 So says YAHWEH, Behold! A people comes from the north country; and a great nation shall be stirred from the sides of the earth.
23 They shall lay hold on bow and javelin; they are cruel and have no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea; and they ride on horses, arrayed like a man for the battle against you, O daughter of Zion.
24 We have heard the rumor of it.
Our hands have dropped down; anguish has seized us, pain like one giving birth.
25 Do not go out into the field or walk by the way, because of the sword of the enemy and terror from every side.
26 O daughter of My people, put on sackcloth and roll in ashes. Make mourning for yourself, as for an only son, most bitter mourning; for the ravager shall suddenly come on us.
27 I have given you as a tower, a fortress among My people, that you may know and examine their way.
28 They are all rebellious revolters, walkers in slander. All of them are as copper and iron; they are corrupters.
29 The bellows blow, the lead is consumed from the fire, the refiner refines in vain; for the evil is not separated.
30 Men will call them reprobate silver, for YAHWEH has rejected
them.

Chapter 7

1 The Word that came to Jeremiah from YAHWEH, saying,
2 Stand in the gate of the house of YAHWEH and call out there this Word, and say, Hear the Word of YAHWEH all Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship YAHWEH.
3 So says YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will let you dwell in this place.
4 Do not trust yourself to lying words, saying, The sanctuary of YAHWEH! The sanctuary of YAHWEH! This is the sanctuary of
YAHWEH!
5 For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if you truly practice justice between a man and his neighbor;
6 if you do not oppress the stranger, the orphan, and the widow; and do not pour out innocent blood in this place, or walk after other Elohim to your evil;

8 Behold, you trust for yourself on lying words without being of use.

9 Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other Elohim whom you do not know?

10 And will you then come and stand before Me in this house on which My name is called[1], and say, We are delivered in order to do all those detestable things.

11 Has this house on which My name is called become a den of violent ones in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen, declares YAHWEH.

12 But go now to My place which was in Shiloh[2], where I made My name dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the evil of My people Israel.

13 And now, because you have done all these works, says YAHWEH, and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear. Yea, I called you, but you did not answer.

14 And I will do to the house on which My name is called, in which you are trusting, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out from My face as I cast out all your brothers, all the seed of Ephraim.

16 And you, do not pray for this people; do not lift up cry or prayer for them. Do not intercede with Me, for I do not hear you[3]. (Pr 28:9)

17 Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 The sons gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke Me.[4]

19 Do they provoke Me, says YAHWEH? Is it not themselves, to the shame of their own faces?

20 So Adonai YAHWEH says this: Behold, My anger and My fury will be poured out on this place, on man and on animal, and on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground. And it will burn and will not be put out.

21 So says YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel: Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat flesh.

22 For I did not speak to your fathers, nor command them in the day that I brought them out from the land of Egypt, concerning matters of burnt offerings and sacrifices[5].

23 But I commanded them this thing, saying, Obey My voice, and I will be your Elohim, and you shall be My people. Also, Walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, so that it may be well with you. (1Sam 15:22, Ps 51:17)

24 But they did not listen nor bow their ear. But they walked in their own plans, in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward and not forward. (1 Sam 15:23)

25 Since the day that your fathers

[5] When Israel first left Egypt YHWH had intended for them to be a kingdom of priests to Him Ex 19:5-6. However, due to the golden calf incident YHWH chose Levi to be a mediator for Israel (Ex 32:26-30) with the sacrifices and ceremonial law until Messiah would come and rightfully return the priesthood of Melchizedek.

came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have even sent to you all My servants, the prophets, daily rising up early and sending.

26 Yet they did not listen to Me nor bow their ear, but they stiffened their neck. They did more evil than their fathers. (Jer 11:8)

27 And you shall speak all these Words to them, but they will not listen to you. And you will call to them, but they will not answer you.

28 But you shall say to them, This is the nation that does not obey the voice of YAHWEH their Elohim, nor receive instruction. Truth has perished, and it is cut off from their mouth.

29 Cut off your crown[1] and throw it away, and lift up a dirge on the heights. For YAHWEH has rejected and forsaken the generation of His wrath.

30 For the sons of Judah have done evil in My eyes, says YAHWEH. They have set their idols in the house on which is called by My name, in order to defile it.

31 They have built the high places of Tophet in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, which I did not command, nor did it come into My heart.

32 So, behold, the days come, declares YAHWEH, when it shall no more be called Tophet[2], or the valley of the son of Hinnom[3], but the Valley of Slaughter. For they shall bury in Tophet from lack of a place.

33 And the bodies of this people shall be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth; and no one shall frighten them away.[4]

34 Then I will cause the voice of gladness to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem, even the voice of joy, and the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride. For the land shall become a waste.

Chapter 8

1 At that time, declares YAHWEH, they will bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of its rulers, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of those living in Jerusalem, out of their graves.

2 And they shall spread them before the sun and the moon and all the host of the heavens whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshiped. They shall not be gathered or buried; they shall be dung on the face of the ground[5].

3 And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the rest of those who remain of this evil family, who remain

1 Referring to the top of the head or hair. And this word originally referred to the crown that the high priest wore. The word is related to the Hebrew for Nazerite who cut off his hair if he was defiled. In like manner YHWH is telling them to shave their heads and repent and mourn.

there in all the places where I have driven them, says YAHWEH of Hosts.

4 And you shall say to them, So says YAHWEH, Shall they fall and not rise up? Or shall one turn away and not return?

5 Why has this people, Jerusalem, turned away to a never-ending apostasy? They hold fast to deceit. They refuse to return.

6 I listened and heard. They did not speak so. No man repented because of this evil, saying, What have I done? Everyone turned in their own courses, as a horse rushes into the battle.

7 Also the stork in the heavens knows her seasons, and the turtledove and the swallow and the thrush observe the time of their coming. But My people do not know the judgment of YAHWEH[1].

8 How do you say, We are wise, and the Torah of YAHWEH is with us[2]? Behold, the lying pen of the scribes has certainly worked deceit[3].

9 The wise are ashamed; they are terrified and are captured. Behold, they have rejected the Word of YAHWEH, and what wisdom is theirs?

10 So I will give their wives to others, their fields to those who shall inherit. For everyone from the least even to the greatest cuts off a profit. From the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely.

11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of My people slightly, saying, Peace, peace! And there is no peace.

12 Were they ashamed when they had done hateful things? They were not even at all ashamed, nor did they know how to blush. So they shall fall among those who fall. In the time of their punishment they will wither, says YAHWEH.

13 I will utterly consume them, says YAHWEH. No grapes will be on the vine, or figs on the fig tree; even the leaf withers. And I will give to them those who pass over them[4].

14 Why do we sit still? Gather yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities; and let us be silent there. For YAHWEH our Elohim has made us silent there, and He has made us drink poisonous water, because we have sinned against YAHWEH.

15 We looked for peace, but no good came; for a time of healing, but, behold, terror[5]!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan[6]; all the land trembles at the sound of the neighing of his stallions. For they come and devour the land and its fullness, the city and those who live in it.

17 For behold, I will send serpents among you, vipers for which there is no charm; and they will bite you, says YAHWEH. (Ps 58:3-5)

[1] The Hula valley in Northern Israel is a most amazing place where millions of birds instinctively stop there every year between moving north and south for summer and winter without ever a thought and yet Israel cannot see their sins even though YHWH gave them His Torah, sent His prophets and did great miracles continually before them.

[2] The Torah only profits if one is obedient.

[3] The religious leaders of the day had manipulated the Torah and lied to the people for personal gain and power.

[4] Sukkot was the most festive feast of the yr where all Israel would bring up their harvest fruits before YHWH and celebrate with great joy. However, YHWH is showing here that there would be no harvest to apostate Israel and that their enemies would eat anything that was left due to their being removed into Diaspora.

[5] Through the Oslo accords starting in 1993 modern Israel also sadly has seen the fulfillment of this verse.

[6] Dan was the most northern tribe up on the Northern border with Syria.

18 My refreshing is beyond grief; my heart is sick within me.
19 Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a distant land! Is not YAHWEH in Zion? Or is not her king in her? Why have they provoked Me with their carved images, with foreign vanities?
20 Harvest has passed; the summer has ended, and we are not delivered[1].
21 For the breaking of the daughter of my people, I am broken. I mourn; horror has taken hold on me.
22 Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no healer there? Why then has the healing of the daughter of my people not come?

Chapter 9

1 Oh, that my head were waters and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!
2 Oh, that I had a lodging place for travelers in the wilderness, that I might leave my people and go away from them! For they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous ones.
3 And they bend their tongues, their bow is a lie. And they are not mighty for the truth on the earth, for they go from evil to evil. They also do not know Me, says YAHWEH.
4 Let everyone be on guard against his neighbor, and do not trust any brother. For every brother will supplant, and every neighbor will walk as a slanderer.
5 And everyone will deceive his neighbor, and they will not speak the truth. They have taught their tongue to speak lies. They weary themselves to commit iniquity.
6 Your home is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know Me, says YAHWEH.
7 For this reason, so says YAHWEH of Hosts, Behold, I will refine them and test them. For what else can I do because of the daughter of My people?
8 Their tongue is a murdering arrow; it speaks deceit. One speaks peace with his neighbor with his mouth, but in his heart he sets his ambush[2].
9 Shall I not visit them for these things? says YAHWEH. Or shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation as this?
10 I will take up a weeping and a wailing for the mountains and a mourning for the pastures of the wilderness. For they are burned up, without a man passing through. Yea, they do not hear the voice of cattle. From the fowl of the heavens and to the beast, they have fled; they are gone.
11 And I will make Jerusalem ruins, a den of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without inhabitant.
12 Who is the wise man that can understand this? And he to whom the mouth of YAHWEH has spoken, that he may declare it? Why does the land perish? It is burned up like the wilderness, so that no one passes through.
13 And YAHWEH says, Because they have forsaken My Torah, which I set before them, and have not obeyed My voice, and have not walked in it[3];
14 but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them;
15 so YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel, says this: Behold, I

[1] Showing the circular feast cycle of YHWH has ended with no harvest festival for Sukkot, no planting for the next year, but only captivity awaits Judah.

will feed them, this people with wormwood, and make them drink poison waters. (Jer 23;15)
16 I will also scatter them among the nations which they have not known, nor their fathers. And I will send the sword after them until I have consumed them.
17 So says YAHWEH of Hosts, Consider and call for the wailers, that they may come. And send for the wise women, that they may come.
18 And let them make haste and take up a lament over us, so that our eyes may run down with tears, and waters flow from our eyelids.
19 For the voice of lament is heard from Zion. How we are ravaged! We are greatly ashamed because we have forsaken the land; because they have thrown down our dwellings.
20 Yet hear the Word of YAHWEH, women. And let your ear receive the Word of His mouth, and teach your daughters a lament, and each one her neighbor a lamentation.
21 For death has come into our windows, entering into our fortresses, to cut off the children from the street, the young men from the plazas.
22 Speak, So says YAHWEH, Even the bodies of men shall fall as dung on the open field, and as the swath after the reaper, and no one shall gather them.
23 So says YAHWEH, Do not let the wise glory in his wisdom, and do not let the mighty glory in his might. Do not let the rich glory in his riches.
24 But let him who glories glory in this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am YAHWEH, doing kindness, justice and righteousness in the earth; for I delight in these, says YAHWEH.
25 Behold, the days come, says YAHWEH, that I will punish all the circumcised with foreskin[1]:
26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the sons of Ammon, and Moab, and all those trimmed on the edges of their beards[2], who dwell in the wilderness. For all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel, those uncircumcised of heart[3].

Chapter 10

1 Hear the Word which YAHWEH speaks to you, O house of Israel.
2 So says YAHWEH, Do not learn the way of the nations[4]; and do not be terrified at the signs of the heavens; for the nations were terrified at them.
3 For the customs of the people are vanity. For one cuts a tree out of the forest with the axe, the work of the hands of the craftsman.
4 They adorn it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and hammers, so that it will not wobble.
5 They are upright as the palm tree, and they cannot speak; carrying they must be carried, because they cannot walk. Do not be afraid of them, for they cannot do evil, neither is it in them to do good[5].
6 There is none like You, O

[1] Circumcision was the sign of being in covenant relationship with YHWH. He is stating here that He will take these people who are disobedient and idol worshipers out of covenant relationship with Him. Possibly why also He changed the sign of the New Covenant to baptism from circumcision.

[2] YHWH commanded against trimming the edge of the beard (Lev 21:5) making what is called a goat tee beard, as it was a cultic practice, which some pagan deities looked like a devil goat and YHWH did not want His people to resemble a devil goat deity.

[3] Physical circumcision is meaningless if there is not circumcision of the heart (Rom 2:25-29)

[4] Deut 12:29-32

YAHWEH; You are great, and Your name is great in might[1].

7 Who would not fear You, O King of the nations? For it is fitting to You, because there is none like You among all the wise of the nations, and in all their kingdoms.

8 But they are all together foolish and stupid; their tree is an instruction of vanities.

9 Silver beaten into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the craftsman and the hands of the goldsmith. Violet and purple is their clothing; they are all the works of skillful ones.

10 But YAHWEH is the true Elohim, He is the living Elohim and the ever-lasting King. At His wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to stand His indignation.

11 So you shall say to them, The gods who have not made the heavens and the earth, they shall perish from the earth and from under these heavens[2].

12 It is He who made the earth by His power, who established the world by His wisdom, and who stretched out the heavens by His understanding.

13 When He utters His voice, there is a noise of waters in the heavens. He causes the vapors to go up from the ends of the earth; He makes lightnings for the rain and brings forth the wind out of His storehouses. (Ps 135:7)

14 Every man is stupid from lack of knowledge; every refiner is put to shame by the carved image. For his molten image is a lie and no breath is in them. (Ps 97:7)

15 They are vanity, the work of delusion. In the time of their judgment they shall perish.

16 The Portion of Jacob is not like these. For He is the Former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of His inheritance; YAHWEH of Hosts is His name.

17 Gather up your bundle from the ground, you who live under the siege.

18 For so says YAHWEH, Behold, I will sling out those living in the land at this time, and I will distress them so that they may find Me.

19 Woe to me for my breaking! My wound is grievous. But I said, Truly this is a malady, and I must bear it.

20 My tent is ravaged, and all my cords are broken. My sons went away from me and they are not. There is no stretching out my tent any more, or setting up my curtains.

21 For the shepherds have become stupid, and they have not sought YAHWEH. Therefore, they shall not be blessed, and all their flock shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the sound of report! It comes, and a great commotion from the land of the north, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a den of jackals.

23 O YAHWEH, I know that his way does not belong to man; it is not in man who walks to direct his steps.

24 O YAHWEH, correct me, only with judgment, not in Your anger, that You do not bring me to nothing.

25 Pour out Your fury on the nations who do not know You, and on the families who do not call on Your name.

5 Verse 3-5 is primarily speaking of making a wooden totem pole for pagan worship, but one can also easily equate these verses with the Christmas tree, which is a not a christian custom but also originated in paganism and was a phallic symbol to the ancient, pagan, people during the pagan Brumalia festival at the winter solstice (Dec 20-22).

1 There is great power in the name YAHWEH.

2 This is the only verse in Jeremiah that is written in Aramaic.

For they have eaten up Jacob[1]. Yea, they have devoured him and have destroyed him, and they have made his dwelling place desolate.(Ps 79:6-7)

Chapter 11

1 The Word that came to Jeremiah from YAHWEH, saying,
2 Hear the Words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to those living in Jerusalem,
3 and say to them, So says YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, Cursed is the man who does not obey the Words of this covenant, (Deut 27:26)
4 which I commanded your fathers in the day I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey My voice and do them according to all that I command you, so that you shall be My people, and I will be your Elohim; (Jer 31:32)
5 in order to establish the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then I answered and said, Amein, O YAHWEH.
6 And YAHWEH said to me, Declare all these Words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear the Words of this covenant and do them.
7 For I solemnly warned your fathers in the day I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, to this day rising early and warning, saying, Obey My voice[2].

[1] He is rebuking those pagans who have influenced Judah to use the names of pagan deities instead of the name YAHWEH. This verse is almost verbatim in Ps 79:6-7 and read at Passover time by Jews. Ps 79:1-5 shows it is not a prayer of vengeance, but an appeal for justice.

[2] Obedience is better than sacrifice (1 Sam 15:22 and our deeds are the evidence of our faith in YHWH.

8 Yet they did not obey nor stretch out their ear, but each one walked in the stubbornness of their evil heart. And I will bring on them all the Words of this covenant which I commanded them to do, but they did not do.
9 And YAHWEH said to me, A plot is found among the men of Judah, and among those living in Jerusalem.
10 They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear My Words. And they went after other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I cut with their fathers.
11 So YAHWEH says this: Behold, I will bring evil on them from which they shall not be able to escape. And though they cry to Me, I will not listen to them.
12 Then the cities of Judah and those living in Jerusalem shall go and cry to the gods to whom they burned incense. But they are not at all able to save them in the time of their trouble.
13 For according to the number of your cities were your Elohim, O Judah; yea, according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, altars to burn incense to Baal[3].
14 And you, do not pray for this people; and do not lift up a cry or prayer for them. For I will not hear in the time they cry to Me for their trouble[4].
15 What belongs to My beloved in My house, since she has committed her many evils? And has the holy flesh caused your evil to pass from you? How then do you exult?
16 YAHWEH called your name, a green olive tree, fair, with fine fruit. With the sound of a great roaring, He

[3] 2 Chron 28:24

[4] It is fruitless to pray for people who refuse to repent and are being judged by YHWH.

has set fire to it, and its branches are worthless.
17 And YAHWEH of Hosts, who planted you, has spoken evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah which they have done to themselves, to provoke Me to anger by burning incense to Baal.
18 And YAHWEH made me know.
And I knew. Then You made me know their doings.
19 And I was like a docile lamb being brought to the slaughter; and I did not know that they had plotted schemes against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with its fruit; and let us cut him off from the land of the living so that his name may be remembered no
more.
20 But, O YAHWEH of Hosts who judges with righteousness, who tries the reins and the heart, let me see Your vengeance on them. For to You I have laid open my cause.
21 For this reason, so says YAHWEH concerning the men of Anathoth who seek your life, saying,
Do not prophesy in the name of YAHWEH, that you do not die by our hand.
22 So YAHWEH of Hosts says this:
Behold, I will punish them. The young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine.
23 And there shall be no survivor of them, for I will bring evil on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their punishment.

Chapter 12

1 Righteous are You, O YAHWEH, when I might complain to You, yet let me speak with You of Your judgments.
Why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why are all those who deal treacherously at ease?
2 You planted them; yea, they take root, they grow, they even make fruit.
You are near in their mouth, and far from their reins.
3 But You know me, O YAHWEH.
You have seen me and tried my heart toward You. Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and devote them to the day of slaughter.
4 Until when shall the land mourn, and the plant of every field wither from the evil of those who dwell in it?
The beasts and the birds are swept away, because they said, He will not see our last end.
5 If you have run with footmen, and they wore you out, then how can you compete with the horses? And if you feel secure in the land of peace, then how will you do in the swelling of Jordan?
6 For even your brothers and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you; even they have fully called after you. Do not believe them, though they speak good things to you.
7 I have forsaken My house; I have left My inheritance. I have given the beloved of My soul into the hand of her enemies.
8 My inheritance has become as a lion in the forest to Me; she gave out her voice against Me; on account of this I hated her.
9 My inheritance is like a speckled bird to Me; the birds all around are against her. Come, gather all the beasts of the field, bring them to devour.
10 Many shepherds have destroyed
My vineyard; they have trampled My portion under foot; they have made My pleasant portion a desolate
wilderness.
11 One has made it desolate; it mourns to Me. The whole land is a desolation, but no man lays it to heart.

12 The ravagers have come on all bare heights through the wilderness, for the sword of YAHWEH devours from one end of the land even to the other end of the land. There is no peace for any flesh.

13 They have sown wheat, but they have reaped thorns. They are worn out, but they do not profit. And they shall be ashamed of your harvests, because of the glow of the anger of YAHWEH.

14 So says YAHWEH against all My evil neighbors who touch the inheritance which I have caused My people Israel to inherit: Behold, I will tear them from their land, and I will tear the house of Judah from among them.

15 And it shall be, after I have torn them out, I will return and have pity on them and will bring them again, each man to his inheritance and each man to his land.

16 And it shall be, if they will diligently learn the ways of My people, to swear by My name, As YAHWEH lives, as they taught My people to swear by Baal (Lord), then they will be built in the midst of My people.

17 But if they will not obey, then I will tear out that nation, I will tear and destroy it says YAHWEH.

Chapter 13

1 So says YAHWEH to me, Go and buy for yourself a linen girdle, and put it on your loins, and do not put it in water.

2 So I bought a girdle according to the Word of YAHWEH and put it on my loins.

3 And the Word of YAHWEH came to me a second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that you bought, which is on your loins, and rise up. Go to Euphrates[1] and hide it there in the cleft of the rock.

5 So I went and hid it by Euphrates, as YAHWEH commanded me.

6 And it happened at the end of many days, YAHWEH said to me, Rise up, go to Euphrates and take the girdle from there, which I commanded you to hide there.

7 And I went to Euphrates and dug, and I took the girdle from the place, there where I had hidden it. And behold, the girdle was rotted! It was not useful for anything.

8 Then the Word of YAHWEH came to me, saying,

9 So says YAHWEH, So I will spoil the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people who refuse to hear My Words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them and to worship them, shall even be like this girdle which is not useful for anything.

11 For as this girdle holds fast to the loins of a man, so I have caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling to Me, says YAHWEH, to be to Me for a people, and for a name, and for praise, and for glory; but they would not listen.

12 So you will speak to them this Word: So says YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel, Every skin shall be filled with wine. And they shall say to you, Do we not know full well that every skin shall be filled with wine?

13 Then you shall say to them, So says YAHWEH, Behold, I will fill all those living in this land, even the kings

[1] This could either refer to the Euphrates River or the city of Parah which is about 3 miles from Anathoth, in Hebrew the words are the same and probably referring to the latter as a sign to the Babylonian influence that Judah was under.

that sit on David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all those living in Jerusalem, with drunkenness.

14 And I will smash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, declares YAHWEH; I will not pity nor spare nor have compassion, to keep them from their destruction[1].

15 Hear and give ear; do not be proud, for YAHWEH has spoken.

16 Give glory to YAHWEH your Elohim before He brings darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains. Yea, while you look for light, He puts it into the shadow of death, setting up deep darkness.

17 But if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride. And my eye shall bitterly weep and run down with tears, because the flock of YAHWEH was captured.

18 Say to the king and to the queen mother, Humble yourselves, sit down. For the crown of your glory will come down from your head places.

19 The cities of the south have been shut up, and none are opening. Judah has been exiled; all of it has been peacefully exiled[2].

20 Lift up your eyes and see those who come from the north. Where is the flock that was given to you, your beautiful flock?

21 What will you say when He visits you? For you taught them to be rulers over you for a head. Will not birth pangs seize you like a woman bearing?

22 And if you say in your heart, Why do these things come upon me? It is because of the greatness of your iniquity. Your skirts are bared; your heels suffer violence.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard his spots? Then also may you do good who are accustomed to doing evil?

24 And I will scatter them as the stubble that passes away to the wilderness wind.

25 This is your lot, the share of your measure from Me, declares YAHWEH, because you have forgotten Me and have trusted in falsehood.

26 So I also have stripped off your skirts over your face, that your shame may appear.

27 I have seen your adulteries and your whinnying, the plot of your infidelity, your abominations on the hills, in the fields. Woe to you, O Jerusalem! Will you not be made clean? Until when will it still be?

Chapter 14

1 That which was the Word of YAHWEH to Jeremiah concerning the matter of droughts.

2 Judah mourns, and her gates droop. They put on mourning for the land, and the cry of Jerusalem has gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters. They came to the cisterns; they found no water. They returned with their vessels empty. They were ashamed and confounded and covered their head.

4 Because the ground was cracked, for there was no rain in the land; the plowmen were ashamed; they covered their head.

5 For even the doe calved in the field and forsook it because there was no grass.

6 And the wild donkeys stood in the

1 Although in the people's complacency they looked for prosperity (illustrated by the wine), in reality they would behave in the coming crisis as a drunkard unable to distinguish ally from enemy.

high places; they snuffed up the wind like jackals; their eyes failed because there was no grass[1].
7 O YAHWEH, though our iniquities testify against us, act for Your name's sake; for our apostasies are many; we have sinned against You.
8 O Hope of Israel, its Savior in time of trouble, why should You be as a stranger in the land, and as a traveler who turns aside to lodge[2]?
9 Why should You be as one who is stunned, as a mighty warrior who cannot save? Yet You, O YAHWEH, are in our midst, and Your name is called on us. Do not leave us.
10 So says YAHWEH to this people:
So they have loved to wander; they have not restrained their feet;
therefore, YAHWEH does not accept them. He will now recall their iniquity and punish their sins.
11 Then YAHWEH said to me, Do not pray for good for this people.
12 I will not listen to their cry when they fast; and when they offer burnt offering and food offering I will not accept them. But I will consume them by the sword, and by famine, and by the plague.
13 Then I said, Ah, O Adonai YAHWEH! Behold, the prophets are saying to them, You shall not see the sword, nor shall you have famine, but I will give you true peace in this place.
14 And YAHWEH said to me, The prophets prophesy lies in My name. I did not send them and I have not commanded them, nor did I speak to them. They prophesy to you a false vision, and a worthless divination, and the deceit of their heart.
15 So YAHWEH says this concerning the prophets who prophesy in My name, and I did not send them; yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land: By sword and famine those prophets shall be consumed.
16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword. And none will bury them, either them, their wives, or their sons, or their daughters. For I will pour evil on them.
17 And you shall speak this Word to them: Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and do not let them cease. For the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great break, with a very grievous blow.
18 If I go out into the field, then I see those pierced with the sword. And if I enter into the city, then, behold, diseases of famine! Yes, both the prophet and the priest have gone around into a land that they do not know.
19 Have You completely rejected Judah? Or has Your soul hated Zion?
Why have You stricken us and no healing is for us? We waited for peace, but nothing good came; and for a healing time, but, behold, terror!
20 We acknowledge our wickedness, O YAHWEH, the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against
You.
21 For Your name's sake, do not spurn us; do not dishonor the throne of Your glory. Remember, and do not break Your covenant with us.
22 Are there any among the vanities of the nations, who make rain fall? Or can the heavens give showers? Is it not

1 Water in ancient times meant life and YHWH's sanctuary was over the inexhaustible Gihon Spring. By showing the analogy that the water is dried up with the grass it is showing that Yahweh's presence is not with the people any longer due to their sin and rebellion.

2 Showing due to their rebellion that even the Messiah would be a stranger to the people in time of need.

You, O YAHWEH our Elohim? Then we will wait for You; for You do all these things.

Chapter 15

1 Then YAHWEH said to me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before Me, My soul could not be toward this people. Send them out from before My face; yea, let them go out.
2 And it will be, if they say to you, Where shall we go? Then you will tell them, So says YAHWEH, Those who are for death, go to death; and those for the sword, to the sword; and those for the famine, to the famine; and those for the captivity, to the captivity.
3 And I will set over them four kinds, says YAHWEH: the sword to kill, and the dogs to drag off, and the birds of the heaven and the beast of the earth to devour and destroy.
4 And I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah; for what he did in Jerusalem. (2Kgs 21:1-16)
5 For who shall have pity on you, O Jerusalem? Or who shall weep over you? Or who shall turn aside to ask your welfare?
6 You have forsaken Me, says YAHWEH. You have gone backward, so I will stretch out My hand against you and destroy you; I am weary of repenting.
7 And I will sift them with a fork in the gates of the land; I will bereave; I will destroy My people, for they do not turn from their ways.
8 Their widows are more numerous about Me than the sand of the seas. I have brought for them a ravager at noonday against the mother of a young man; I caused anguish and terror to fall on her suddenly.
9 She who bore seven now languishes; she has breathed out her life; her sun has gone down while it was still day. She has been ashamed and humiliated, and I will give the rest of them to the sword before their enemies, says YAHWEH.
10 Woe to me, my mother, that you have borne me[1], a man of strife, and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not loaned, nor have they loaned to me; yet everyone curses me.
11 YAHWEH said, Truly, I will not free you for good. Truly I will cause the enemy to entreat you in the time of evil and in the time of distress.
12 Can one break iron, iron or copper from the north?
13 Your wealth and your treasures I will give for prey, not for price, but for all your sins, even in all your borders.
14 And I will make you pass with your enemies into a land you do not know. For a fire has been kindled in My anger; it shall burn against you.
15 O YAHWEH, You know. Remember me and visit me, and take vengeance for me on those who seek to hurt me. Do not take me away in Your long-suffering; know that I bear reproach for You.
16 Your Words were found and I ate them; and Your Word was to me the joy and gladness of my heart. For I am called by Your name[2], O YAHWEH, Elohim of Hosts.
17 I did not sit in the circle of merrymakers, nor exult. I sat alone because of Your hand; for You have filled me with indignation.
18 Why has my pain been continual and my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? You surely are to me like a false stream, whose waters cannot be trusted.

19 So YAHWEH says this: If you return, then I will restore you again; you shall stand before Me. And if you take the precious from the worthless, you shall be as My mouth. Let them turn back to you, but do not return to them.

20 And I will make you a fortified wall of copper to this people. And they shall fight against you, but they shall not overcome you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says YAHWEH.

21 And I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the evil ones.

Chapter 16

1 The Word of YAHWEH came to me, saying,

2 You shall not take a wife for yourself, nor shall you have sons or daughters in this place[1].

3 For so says YAHWEH concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who fathered them in this land:

4 They shall die of deadly diseases; they shall not be mourned nor shall they be buried; they shall be as dung on the face of the earth. And they shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, and their bodies shall be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth. (Jer 19:7)

5 For so says YAHWEH, Do not enter into the house of mourning. Do not go to weep or moan for them. For I have removed My peace with loving-kindness and compassions from this people says YAHWEH[2].

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land. They shall not be buried, nor shall men mourn for them, nor cut himself, nor shave himself bald for them[3].

7 Nor shall anyone break bread[4] for them in mourning, to comfort him for ones who died. Nor shall they give them the cup of comfort to drink for one's father or one's mother[5].

8 Also you shall not go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and drink.

9 For so says YAHWEH of Hosts the Elohim of Israel: Behold I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes, and in your days, the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride[6].(Je 7:34 Je 25:10, Je 33:10-11)

10 And it shall be, when you declare to this people all these Words, they will say to you, Why has YAHWEH spoken all this great evil against us? Or what is our iniquity, or what is our sin that we have committed against YAHWEH our Elohim?

11 Then you shall say to them, Because your fathers have forsaken Me, says YAHWEH, and have walked

1 Due to the grave situation that was coming Jeremiah was restricted by YHWH in his own personal life.

2 Jeremiah was restricted from contact with those that Yahweh had cut off relationship with as a sign of loyalty to Him. (2Joh 1:9-11).

3 These acts were pagan and therefore forbidden in the Torah (Lev 19:28, 21:5, Deut 14:1-2). However, some Israelites were still practicing these pagan rituals (Jer 41:4-5).

4 Breaking bread was an ancient Semitic term for eating. Acts 2:46, Acts 20:11

5 Food and drink were customarily given to mourners (2 Sam 3:35). In later Judaism a special cup of drink was set out for the chief mourner.

after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken Me, and have not kept My Torah[1].

12 And you have done more evil than your fathers. For, behold, you each one walk after the stubbornness of his evil heart, without listening to Me.

13 And I will cast you out of this land into a land that you do not know, you nor your fathers. And there you shall serve other Elohim day and night, where I will not grant you favor. (Deut 28:64)

14 So, behold, the days come, says YAHWEH, that it shall no more be said, As YAHWEH lives who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

15 But rather, As YAHWEH lives who brought up the sons of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands, there where He had banished them to. And I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers[2].

16 Behold, I will send for many fishermen, says YAHWEH. And they shall fish them. And after this I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them, from every mountain and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks. (Is 7:19)

17 For My eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from My face; their iniquity is not hidden from My eyes.

18 And first I will repay double their iniquity and their sin, because they have defiled My land with the bodies of their hateful things. Yea, their hateful idols have filled My inheritance. (Is 40:2)

19 O YAHWEH, my strength and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the nations shall come to You from the ends of the earth and say, Our fathers have inherited only lies, vanity, and there is no profit in them[3].(Ps 18:11-2, Ps 28:7-9, Ps 91:1-2)

20 Can a man make gods to himself? But they are not Elohim!

21 Therefore, behold, I will make them know this time; I will cause them to know My hand and My might; and they shall know that My name is YAHWEH[4].

Chapter 17

1 The sin of Judah is engraved with an iron pen. It is carved on the tablet of their heart with the point of a diamond, and on the horns of your altars[5],

2 even while their sons remember their altars and their Asherahs by the green trees on the high hills.

3 O My mountain in the field! I will give your wealth, all your treasures, for prey, your high places for sin throughout all your borders.

4 And you, even through yourself, will let drop from your inheritance

[1] It is the breaking of the Torah that led to this grave attack and ultimate captivity. YHWH laid out in the precepts of the Torah how to serve and love Him and how to love our fellow man. When the Torah is ignored for mankind's own human nature, he will ultimately fail and bring his own misery.

[2] Jer 3:18, Jer 33:7, Is 11:11, Is 49:8, Is 61:4, Eze 36:24,28, Amos 9:14-15

[3] This is what the people will be saying at Messiah's return when they see all their pagan customs were not pleasing to YHWH and only brought curses.

[4] When Israel is returned no longer will Yahweh be referred to by pagan titles and names but all people will know that YAHWEH is the one redeeming them, Ex 3:15.

which I gave you. And I will cause you to serve your enemies in a land which you do not know. For you have kindled a fire in My anger; it will burn forever.

5 So says YAHWEH, Cursed is the man who trusts in man, and who makes flesh his arm, and who turns aside his heart from YAHWEH[1].

6 For he shall be like a juniper in the desert, and shall not see when good comes. But he shall live in dried places in the wilderness, in a salt land that is not inhabited[2].

7 Blessed is the man who trusts in YAHWEH, and YAHWEH is his refuge. (Ps 146:5, Ps 26:1, 34:8, 40:4)

8 For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters. It sends out its roots by the stream, and it will not fear when the heat comes; but its foliage will be green; and it is not anxious in the year of drought, nor will it cease from yielding fruit. (Ps 1;1-3)

9 The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is incurable; who can know it? (Eccl 9:3, Mk 7:21-22)

10 I, YAHWEH, search the heart, I try the reins, even to give to each man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings. (2 Chron 6:30 Rev 2:23)

11 As a partridge broods and does not hatch, so is he who makes riches, and not by right; it will leave him in the middle of his days, and in his end he will be a fool.

12 A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O YAHWEH, the Hope of Israel, all who forsake You shall be ashamed. Those who depart from Me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken YAHWEH, the Fountain of living waters[3]. (Jer 14:8)

14 Heal me, O YAHWEH, and I will be healed; save me, and I will be saved; for You are my praise.

15 Behold, they say to me, Where is the Word of YAHWEH? Let it come now.

16 And I have not hurried away from shepherding after You, nor have I desired the woeful day. You surely know that the utterance of my lips was before Your face.

17 Do not be a terror to me; You are my refuge in the day of evil.

18 Let those who persecute me be ashamed, but do not let me be ashamed. Let them be terrified, but do not let me be terrified. Bring on them the day of evil, and break them with double breaking.

19 So said YAHWEH to me, Go and stand in the gate of the sons of the people, that by which the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem[4].

20 And say to them, Hear the Word of YAHWEH, kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the residents of Jerusalem who enter in by these gates.

21 So says YAHWEH, Take heed for the sake of your lives, and do not carry a burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem.

22 And do not carry a burden from your houses on the Sabbath day, nor do any work, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers[5].

23 But they did not obey nor bow down their ear, but they made their neck stiff, not to hear, nor to receive instruction[6].

24 And it shall be, if you carefully listen to me, says YAHWEH, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but keep the Sabbath day holy, to do no work in it,

25 even kings and rulers sitting on the throne of David shall enter into the gates of this city, riding on chariots and on horses, they and their rulers, the men of Judah, and those living in Jerusalem. And this city will be inhabited forever. (Jer 22:2-4, Is 9:6)

26 And they will come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the Shephelah, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and grain offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving to the house of YAHWEH. (Jer 32:44, Jer 33:13)

27 But if you will not listen to Me to keep the Sabbath day holy, and to not carry a burden and enter at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in her gates. And it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem; yea, it shall not be put out. (1Kg 9:6-7)

[5] The Hebrew implies carrying a "load" as someone who was coming through the gates to trade and work, which would be violating the Sabbath command. Also, since most worked 6 days in the field, some were using the Sabbath day to gather in their fruit from the countryside. The ultra religious have wrongly interpreted this to not even carry a horn to blow on Yom Terruah, or a bible to synagogue. See Math 12:1.

[6] Sabbath breaking was one of the main violations why Yahweh allowed Israel to go into captivity Ezek 20:13, 16, 21, 24.

Chapter 18

1 The Word which was to Jeremiah from YAHWEH, saying,

2 Rise up and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My Words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, he was working a work on the wheel.

4 And the vessel that he made in clay was ruined in the hand of the potter. So repeating he made it, another vessel, as it seemed good in the potter's eyes to make it.

5 And the Word of YAHWEH was to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, can I not do to you as this potter? says YAHWEH. Behold, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel. (Is 29:16)

7 The instant I speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, or to break down, or to destroy;

8 if that nation against whom I have spoken will turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to it.

9 And the instant I speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;

10 if it does evil in My eye, not to obey My voice, then I will repent of the good which I had said to do good to it.

11 Now then, please speak to the men of Judah and to those living in Jerusalem, saying, So says YAHWEH, Behold, I am forming evil against you, and devising a plan against you. Now each one turn from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they say, It is hopeless. For we will walk after our own thoughts, and we will each one do according to the stubbornness of his evil heart.

13 Therefore YAHWEH says this:

Ask now among the nations, Who has heard things like these? The virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing.

14 Does the snow of Lebanon forsake from the rock of the field? Or are the cold flowing waters that come from another place uprooted[1]?

15 But My people have forgotten Me. They have burned incense to vain idols; and they have caused them to stumble in their ways, from the old paths, to walk in bypaths, not on the highway;

16 to make their land a desolation, a hissing forever. Everyone who passes by will be amazed and will shake his head.

17 I will scatter them like an east wind before the enemy; I will make them see the back, and not the face in the day of their calamity.

18 Then they said, Come and let us plot schemes against Jeremiah. For the Torah shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor word from the prophet. Come and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not attend to any of his words[2].

19 O YAHWEH, pay attention to me, and pay attention to the voice of my adversaries.

20 Should evil be repaid for good? For they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember, I stood before You to speak good concerning them, to turn Your wrath from them.

21 Therefore give their sons to the famine, and make them run onto the hand of the sword. And let their wives be bereaved, and be widows, and let their men be the slain of death, their young men be those struck by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses when You suddenly bring a raiding band on them. For they have dug a pit to seize me, and have hidden snares for my feet.

23 Yet, O YAHWEH, You know all their counsel to death against me. Do not atone for their iniquity, nor blot out their sin from Your face, but let them be those made to stumble before You; deal with them in the time of Your anger[3].

Chapter 19

1 So says YAHWEH, Go and buy a potter's earthen jar, and gather from the elders of the people, and from the elders of the priests.

2 And go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom by the entry of Potsherd Gate. And there declare the Words that I will speak to you.

3 And say, Hear the Word of YAHWEH, O kings of Judah, and those living in Jerusalem. So says YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel: Behold, I will bring evil on this place by which all who hear it will have tingling ears. (2 Kgs 21:12)

4 Because they have forsaken Me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents.

5 They have also built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings to Baal, which I never commanded nor spoke, nor did it come into My heart.

6 So, behold, the days come, says YAHWEH, that this place shall be no more called Tophet, or the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. (Jer 7:31, 2Kgs 23;10)

7 And I will make the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem come to nothing in this place. And I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life. And I will give their dead bodies for food to the birds of the heavens, and for the animals of the earth. (Jer 16:4)
8 And I will make this city a waste and a hissing. Everyone who passes by shall be amazed and shall hiss because of all its plagues. (Jer 18:16)
9 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters[1]. And they shall each one eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and distress with which their enemies and those who seek their life shall oppress them.
10 And you shall break the jar before the eyes of the men who go with you,
11 and shall say to them, So says YAHWEH of Hosts, Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks the potter's vessel that cannot be restored again. And they shall bury in Tophet, since no place is left to bury. (Ps 2:9, Is 30:14)
12 I will do this to this place, says YAHWEH, and to those living in it, and give this place to be as Tophet.
13 And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the roofs of the houses on which they have burned incense to all the host of the heavens, and have poured out drink offerings to other gods.
14 Then Jeremiah came from Tophet, where YAHWEH had sent him there to prophesy. And he stood in the court of the house of YAHWEH, and he said to all the people,
15 So says YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel: Behold, I will bring to this city, and on all its towns, all the evil that I have spoken against it, because they have stiffened their necks in order not to hear My Words.

Chapter 20

1 When Pashur the son of Immer, the priest (he also was chief officer in the house of YAHWEH), heard Jeremiah prophesying these things,
2 then Pashur struck Jeremiah the prophet and put him in the stocks in the upper Benjamin Gate, which was by the house of YAHWEH.
3 And it was on the next day that Pashur made Jeremiah go out from the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, YAHWEH has not called your name Pashur, but Terror[2] from All Around.
4 For so says YAHWEH, Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. And they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see. And I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall exile them into Babylon and kill them with the sword.
5 And I will give all the wealth of this city, and all its produce, and all its precious things, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah, even I will give them into the hand of their enemies who will strip them and take them, and carry them to Babylon.
6 And you, Pashur, and all who live in your house, shall go into captivity. And you shall come to Babylon; and you shall die there. And you shall be buried there, you and all those loving you to whom you have prophesied lies.

[1] One of the curses for disobedience to the covenant (Deut 28:53-57).

[2] In Hebrew the word is "magor- missabib" and means terror on all sides.

7 O YAHWEH, You have deceived[1] me; yea, I was deceived. You are stronger than I, and You have prevailed. I am a laughingstock all day long and everyone mocks me.

8 For whenever I speak, I cry out, I proclaim violence and ruin; for the Word of YAHWEH has been to me a reproach and mockery all day long.

9 And I said, I will not mention Him or speak any more in His name. But His Word was in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was grieved of holding in, and I was not able to[2].

10 For I heard the slanders of many, Terror is all around! Expose! Yea, let us expose him! Every man of my peace watched for my fall, saying, Perhaps he will be lured away, and we shall prevail against him; and we shall take revenge on him.

11 But YAHWEH is with me like a mighty, awesome one. On account of this my persecutors shall stumble and will not prevail. And they shall be greatly ashamed. For they have not acted wisely; they are an everlasting disgrace that will not be forgotten.

12 But, O YAHWEH of Hosts, who tries the righteous, who sees the reins and the heart, let me see Your vengeance on them; for I have revealed my cause to You.

13 Sing to YAHWEH. Praise YAHWEH. For He has delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers.

14 Cursed is the day in which I was born; let not the day in which my mother bore me be blessed. (Job 3:3)

15 Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying, A man child is born to you, making him very glad.

16 And let that man be as the cities which YAHWEH overthrew and did not repent. And let him hear a cry in the morning and the shouting at noontime;

17 because he did not kill me from the womb; and that my mother would have been my grave, and her womb always great with me.

18 Why did I come forth from the womb to see toil and sorrow, and my days consumed in shame?

Chapter 21

1 The Word which was to Jeremiah from YAHWEH, when King Zedekiah sent Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to him, saying,

2 Please inquire of YAHWEH for us. For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is warring against us. Perhaps YAHWEH will deal with us according to all His wonderful works, that he may go up from us.

3 Then Jeremiah said to them, You shall say this to Zedekiah,

4 So says YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel: Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war in your hand, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you outside the wall. And I will gather them together in the middle of the city.

5 And I Myself will fight against you with an outstretched arm and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will strike the people of this city, both man and beast. They shall die of a great plague.

7 And afterward, says YAHWEH, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and those who remain in this city from the plague, from the sword, and from the nezzar king of Babylon and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. And he shall strike them with the mouth of the sword; he shall not spare them, nor have pity, nor have compassion.

8 And you shall say to this people, So says YAHWEH, Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. (Deut 30:15) 9 He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the plague. But he who goes out and falls to the Chaldeans who are besieging you, he shall live, and his life shall be for a prize to him. (Jer 14:12)
10 For I have set My face against this city for evil, and not for good, says YAHWEH. It shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. (2Kgs 25:9) 11 And concerning the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear the Word of
YAHWEH,
12 O house of David, so says YAHWEH: Do justice in the morning, and deliver the plundered one out of the hand of the oppressor, that My fury not go out like fire and burn so that none can put it out, because of the evil of your doings.
13 Behold, I am against you, one dwelling in the valley, rock of the plain, says YAHWEH, those who say,
Who can come down against us? Or,
Who can enter our dwellings?
14 But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says YAHWEH. And I will kindle a fire in its forest, and it shall devour all things around it.

Chapter 22

1 So says YAHWEH, Go down to the house of the king of Judah and speak this Word there,
2 and say, Hear the Word of YAHWEH, O king of Judah who sits on the throne of David, you and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates.
3 So says YAHWEH, Do justice and righteousness, and deliver the one robbed from the oppressor's hand.
And do not oppress the foreigner, the widow, or the orphan, and do not do violence nor shed innocent blood in this place.
4 For if you indeed do this thing, then there shall enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he and his servants and his people. (Jer 17:25)
5 But if you will not hear these Words, I swear by Myself, says YAHWEH, that this house shall become a ruin.
6 For so says YAHWEH concerning the king of Judah's house, You are Gilead to Me, the head of Lebanon; yet surely I will make you a wilderness, cities not inhabited.
7 And I will consecrate destroyers against you, each one with his weapons; and they will cut down your choice cedars and make them fall into the fire.
8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall each say to one another, Why has YAHWEH done
this to this great city?
9 Then they will answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of YAHWEH their Elohim and worshiped other gods and served
them.
10 Weep not for the ones who died nor moan for him; weep bitterly for him who goes away, for he shall return
no more, nor see the land of his birth.
11 For so says YAHWEH concerning

Shallum[1] the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned in his father Josiah's place, who went forth from this place: he shall not return there any more.

12 But he shall die there in the place where they have exiled him, and he will see this land no more.

13 Woe to him who builds his house without righteousness, and his upper rooms without justice. His neighbor serves without pay, and he does not give him for his work;

14 who says, I will build myself a wide house and large upper rooms. And he cuts out windows for it and covers with cedar, and paints with vermilion.

15 Do you reign because you lust to excel in cedar? Did not your father eat and drink and do justice and righteousness? Then it was well for him.

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy, then it was well. Was this not to know Me, says YAHWEH?

17 But your eyes and your heart lust for nothing but your unjust gain, and to shed innocent blood, and oppression, and to do violence.

18 So YAHWEH says this concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, They shall not mourn for him, saying, Ah, my brother! Or, Ah, sister! They shall not mourn for him, saying, Ah, master! Or, Ah, his glory!

19 He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn beyond the gates of Jerusalem and thrown out.

20 Go up to Lebanon and cry. And lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry out from the other side of the Jordan; for all those loving you are destroyed.

21 I spoke to you in your prosperity, but you said, I will not hear. This has been your way from your youth, for you have not obeyed My voice.

22 Those feeding you shall feed the wind, and those loving you shall go into captivity. Surely then you will be ashamed and will blush for all your wickedness.

23 One dwelling in Lebanon, nested in the cedars, how you will groan when pangs come to you, the pain as of a woman in labor!

24 As I live, says YAHWEH, though Coniah (Jeconiah) the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah were the signet on My right hand, yet I would tear you out of there!

25 And I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of those whose face you fear, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 And I will cast you and your mother who bore you into another country, there where you were not born; and there you shall die.

27 But concerning the land which they lift up with their soul, to return there, they shall not return there.

28 Is this man Coniah (Jeconiah) a despised, broken jar, or a vessel in which is no pleasure? Why are they hurled, he and his seed, and are cast into the land which they do not know?

29 O earth, earth, earth! Hear the Word of YAHWEH!

30 So says YAHWEH, Write this man childless, a man who will not prosper in his days. For not one from his seed will succeed, a man sitting on the throne of David and ruling any more in Judah[1].

Chapter 23

1 Woe to shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture, says YAHWEH.

2 Because of this, so says YAHWEH the Elohim of Israel against the shepherds who shepherd My people: You have scattered My flock, and have driven them away, and have not visited them. Behold, I will visit on you the evil of your doings, says YAHWEH.

3 And I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all the lands where I have driven them there, and I will bring them again to their fold. And they shall be fruitful and multiply.

4 And I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them. And they will fear no more, nor be terrified; nor will they be missing anything, says YAHWEH.

5 Behold, the days come, says YAHWEH, that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and act wisely, and He shall do justice and righteousness in the earth.

6 In His days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely. And this is His name by which He shall be called, YAHWEH TZEDEKENU[2].

7 Behold, so the days come, says YAHWEH, that they shall no more say, As YAHWEH lives who brought the sons of Israel up out of the land of Egypt; (Jer 16:14)

8 but, As YAHWEH lives who brought up and led the seed of the house of Israel out of the land of the north, and from all the lands where I have driven them there. And they shall dwell on their own land. (Ezek 20:42)

9 My heart within me is broken concerning the prophets; all my bones shake. I am like a drunken man, and like a man overcome by wine, because of YAHWEH, and because of the Words of His holiness.

10 For the land is full of adulterers. For the land mourns because of a curse. The pastures of the wilderness are dried up. And their course is evil, and their might is not right.

11 For both prophet and priest are wicked; yea, I have found their evil in My house, says YAHWEH.

12 So their way shall be to them as slippery places in the darkness; they shall be driven out and fall by it. For I will bring evil on them, the year of their judgment, says YAHWEH.

13 And I have seen folly among the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal and led astray My people Israel.

14 I have also seen a horrible thing among the prophets of Jerusalem; they commit adultery and walk in falsehood. And they make the hands of evildoers strong, so that not a man returns from his evil. They are all of them like Sodom to Me, and those living in her like Gomorrah.

15 So YAHWEH of Hosts says this concerning the prophets: Behold, I will feed them wormwood, and make them drink poisonous water, for wickedness has gone forth from the prophets of Jerusalem into all the land.

16 So says YAHWEH of Hosts, Do not listen to the words of the prophets

---

[1] This prophecy does not mean that Jeconiah would not have physical children, but that he would never again have a son to sit on and prosper on the throne of King David. The lineage in the book of Matthew has Jeconiah in it (Math 1:11-12) and therefore shows that the lineage in Matthew is from Joseph (the step father of Yahshua) and Luke's genealogy is from Miriam, Yahshua's biological mother.

[2] Means YAHWEH our righteousness.

who prophesy to you; they make you vain; they speak a vision of their own heart, not out of the mouth of
YAHWEH.
17 They say to those who despise Me, YAHWEH has said, You shall have peace. And they say to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart, Evil shall not come on you.
18 For who has stood in the counsel of YAHWEH, and has seen and heard His Word? Who has listened to His Word and heard?
19 Behold, the whirlwind of YAHWEH has gone forth in fury, even a whirling storm. It will whirl on the head of the wicked.
20 The anger of YAHWEH shall not turn back until He has executed, and until He has set up the purposes of His heart. In latter days you shall understand it perfectly[1].
21 I have not sent the prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.
22 But if they had stood in My counsel and had caused My people to hear My Words, then they would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.
23 I Am an Elohim near by, says YAHWEH, and not a Elohim from afar.
24 Or can a man hide himself in secret places so that I do not see him, says YAHWEH? Do I not fill the heavens and the earth, says
YAHWEH?
25 I have heard what the prophets said, those who prophesy lies in My name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.
26 How long is this there in the heart of the prophets, the prophets of lies; yea, the prophets of the deceit of their own heart?
27 They plot to cause My people to forget My name by their dreams which they tell, each one to his neighbor, even as their fathers have forgotten
My name for Baal (Lord)[2].
28 The prophet who has a dream, let him tell his dream. And he who has My Word, let him speak My Word faithfully. What has the chaff to do with the wheat, says YAHWEH[3]?
29 Is not My Word thus like fire, says YAHWEH, and like a hammer which breaks a rock in pieces?
30 Therefore, Behold, says YAHWEH, I am against the prophets who steal My Words, each one from his neighbor.
31 YAHWEH says, Behold, I am against the prophets who use their tongues and say, He says.
32 YAHWEH says, Behold, I am against those who prophesy false dreams, and tell them, and cause My people to go astray by their lies, and by their foolishness. Yet I did not send them nor command them. And they will not profit this people at all, says
YAHWEH.
33 And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, What is the utterance of YAHWEH? You shall then say to them, What utterance? I will even abandon you, says YAHWEH.
34 And the prophet, and the priest,

1 The same deception that plagued Israel in ancient times by corrupt leadership would also be the same in the end time.

2 Baal means master or lord. It is a most striking parallel today that most Christians will share false visions and prophecies out of their own hearts and say "the lord" told me this. Every true prophet in scripture knew the Creator's true name Yahweh, and did not refer to Yahweh as Baal or lord.

3 Yahweh's litmus test is clearly His word and not dreams and visions, although He does speak to His people by dreams and visions at times.

and the people who shall say, The utterance of YAHWEH, I will even punish that man and his house.

35 And you shall say each one to his neighbor, and each one to his brother, What has YAHWEH answered? And what has YAHWEH spoken?

36 And you shall not mention the utterance of YAHWEH again, for each man's word shall be his burden. But you have perverted the Words of the living Elohim, of YAHWEH of Hosts, our Elohim[1].

37 So you shall say to the prophet, What has YAHWEH answered you? And what has YAHWEH spoken?

38 But if you say, The utterance of YAHWEH, therefore so says YAHWEH: Because you say this word, the utterance of YAHWEH; and I have sent to you saying, You shall not say, The utterance of YAHWEH;

39 therefore, behold! I, even I will utterly forget you and cast you off and the city that I gave to you and your fathers, away from My face.

40 And I will put on you an everlasting reproach and never-ending disgrace on you, which shall not be forgotten.

Chapter 24

1 YAHWEH caused me to see, and behold, two baskets of figs set before the sanctuary of YAHWEH, after Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babylon had exiled Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the rulers of Judah, and the craftsmen, and the smiths from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. (2Kgs 24:16)

2 One basket had very good figs, like first ripe figs. And the other basket had very bad figs which could not be eaten from their badness[2].

3 And YAHWEH said to me, What do you see, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs. The good figs are very good, and the bad are very bad, so that they cannot be eaten from their badness.

4 Again the Word of YAHWEH came to me, saying,

5 So says YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, Like these good figs, so I will acknowledge the exiles of Judah whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for good.

6 For I will set My eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land. And I will build them and not tear down; and I will plant them, and will not pluck up[3].

7 And I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am YAHWEH. And they shall be My people, and I will be their Elohim. For they shall return to Me with their whole heart. (Jer 31:33, Heb 8:10)

8 And like the bad figs which cannot be eaten from badness, so says YAHWEH: So I shall make Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his rulers, and the remnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt;

9 I will even make them a horror among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil, for a reproach, and a proverb, a gibe, and a curse, there in all places where I will drive them.

1 Verses 32-36 is stating that Yahweh gives us His will in His word and not by the false utterances of false prophets. The false prophecy will be the burden only to the false prophet and not to the people.

2 Israel is equated as a fig tree (Math 24:32) as there were good and bad figs; so was the nation with its inhabitants. The Hebrew word for first ripe fig is 'bekoorah', which is a special juicy early fig.

3 Is 10:22 and repeated in Ro 9:27 clearly shows that although Israel will grow into mighty numbers in their Diaspora that only a remnant would return.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the plague among them until they are consumed from being upon the land that I gave to them and to their fathers. (Jer 9:16, 15:2, 21:9)

Chapter 25

1 The Word that was to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah. It was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon[1].
2 This Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the residents of Jerusalem, saying,
3 From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, this twenty three years, the Word of YAHWEH has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but you have not listened[2].
4 And YAHWEH has sent to you all His servants the prophets, rising early and sending, but you have not listened nor bowed your ear to hear,
5 saying, Now turn each one from his evil way and from the evil of your doings, and live on the land which YAHWEH has given to you and to your fathers from forever even to forever.
6 And do not go after other gods to serve them and to worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no harm.
7 Yet you have not listened to Me, says YAHWEH, so that you might provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands, for evil to you.
8 So YAHWEH of Hosts says this: Because you have not obeyed My Words,
9 behold! I will send and take all the families of the north, says YAHWEH, and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant; and I will bring them against this land, and against those living in it, and against all these nations all around. And I will completely destroy them, and make them a horror, and a hissing, and everlasting ruins.
10 And I will take from them the voice of rejoicing, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp[3].
11 And this whole land shall be a waste and a horror; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.
12 And it shall be, when seventy years are fulfilled, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, and the land of the Chaldeans, for their iniquity, says YAHWEH; and I will make it everlasting ruins[4].
13 And I will bring on that land all My Words which I have spoken against it, all that is written in this book which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations[5].
14 For many nations and great kings will lay service on them, even they.

1 In Israel the accession yr is counted as yr one of the reign whereas in Babylon the next yr was considered the first yr of reigning. Daniel dates this from the Babylon way of recording (Dan 1:1).

2 Jeremiah prophesied about Judah's punishment and captivity for 23 yrs before the actual destruction happened. Yahweh in His mercy gives warning of repentance before the actual destruction will come.

3 See note on Rev 18:20 (Rev 18:23)

4 Whereas Judah and Jerusalem will be redeemed and restored (Zech 2:7-12) in the end time, Babylon will take Judah's punishment and be destroyed forever (Rev 18:20, Jer 50 :39-40)

And I will repay them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their own hands.
15 For so says YAHWEH, the Elohim of Israel, to me. Take the wine cup of this wrath from My hand and cause all the nations to whom I shall send you to drink it.
16 And they shall drink, and reel to and fro, and be maddened, because of the sword that I will send among
them.
17 Then I took the cup from the hand of YAHWEH and made all the nations drink, those to whom YAHWEH had sent me:
18 Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and their kings, and their rulers, to make them a ruin, a horror,
a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day;
19 Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and his servants, and his rulers, and all his people;
20 and all the mixed people, and all the kings of the land of Uz[1], and all the kings of the land of the Philistines[2], and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod, 21 Edom, and Moab, and the sons of Ammon,
22 and all the kings of Tyre[3], and all the kings of Sidon, and the coastal kings beyond the sea[4], 23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who cut the corners of their beards[5], 24 and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed people who dwell in the desert, 25 and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam [6], and all the kings of Media,
26 and all the kings of the north, far and near[7], each one to his brother, and all the kingdoms of the world which are on the face of the earth; and the king of Sheshach[8] shall drink after
them.
27 So you shall say to them, So says
YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel: Drink, and be drunk, and vomit, and fall, and do not rise up, because of the sword which I will send among you.
28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, then you shall say to them, So says YAHWEH of Hosts, surely you shall drink.
29 For, behold, I begin to bring evil on the city on which is called My name, and shall you be found entirely without guilt? You shall not be without guilt. For I will call for a sword on all those living in the earth, says
YAHWEH of Hosts.
30 And now you prophesy against them all these Words, and say to them, YAHWEH shall roar from on high and give forth His voice from His holy habitation[9]; He shall mightily roar over His dwelling place. He answers with a shout, like those who tread out the grapes, against all those living in the earth[10].
31 A roaring will go to the ends of [5] Jeremiah chapter 50 and 51 is solely on the destruction of end time Babylon. These chapters are not historical as none of the destruction spoke about in those chapters have ever happened historically in the past nor was there ever any great fleeing by Judah and Israel out of Babylon.

the earth, for YAHWEH has a controversy with the nations. He will enter into judgment with all flesh; He will give the wicked to the sword, says
YAHWEH.
32 So says YAHWEH of Hosts, Behold, evil is going from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be stirred up from the corners of the earth.
33 And the slain of YAHWEH shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth. They shall not be mourned, nor gathered, nor buried; they shall be as dung on the face of the earth.
34 Howl, O shepherds, and cry, and roll in ashes, O leaders of the flock!
For the days of your slaughter and of your scatterings are fulfilled, and you shall fall like a desirable vessel.
35 And refuge has perished from the shepherds, and escape from the leaders of the flock.
36 The sound of the cry of the shepherds, and the howling from the leaders of the flock will be heard. For YAHWEH is spoiling their pasture.
37 And the peaceful pastures are devastated, because of the glow of the anger of YAHWEH.
38 Like the young lion, He has left His den; for their land is a waste because of the glow of the oppressor, and because of His flowing anger.

[10] In the end time, first, YHWH is punishing Judah for not relying on Him and for their breaking of the Torah, and then He is punishing Babylon who caused Judah's destruction and then He is punishing all the earth who participated in these events due to global governance; verse 31-38 is describing this worldwide judgment called the day of YHWH. Cross reference this with Joel 2:1-11, Is 24:1-6. Even though there is worldwide calamity YHWH still allows people to repent and be saved, Joel 2:12-14, 18-32. Those who refuse will perish (Jer 38:2-6).

Chapter 26

1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this Word came from YAHWEH, saying,
2 So says YAHWEH, Stand in the court of the house of YAHWEH and speak to all the cities of Judah which come to worship in the house of YAHWEH, all the Words that I command you to speak to them. Do not keep back a word.
3 It may be that they will listen, and each man turn from his evil way, that I may repent of the evil which I plan to do to them because of the evil of their doings[1].
4 And you shall say to them, So says
YAHWEH, If you will not listen to Me, to walk in My Torah which I have set before you,
5 to listen to the words of My servants the prophets whom I am sending to you, even rising up early and sending (but you have not listened),
6 then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.
7 And the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of
YAHWEH.
8 And it happened when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that YAHWEH had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, Surely, you shall die.
9 Why have you prophesied in the name of YAHWEH, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city

[1] Yahweh's way is always redemption first, but due to free will, punishment will follow for the prideful of heart who don't repent.

shall be wasted, without one living in it? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of YAHWEH.
10 When the rulers of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house to the house of YAHWEH and sat down in the entrance of the New Gate of YAHWEH.
11 And the priests and the prophets spoke to the rulers, and to all the people, saying, Let a death sentence be for this man, for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears[1].
12 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the rulers and to all the people, saying, YAHWEH sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the Words that you have heard.
13 So now make good your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of YAHWEH your Elohim, and YAHWEH will repent toward the evil that He has spoken against you.
14 As for me, behold, I am in your hands; do with me as seems good and right to you.
15 But know for certain that if you put me to death, you shall surely bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on those living in it. For truly YAHWEH has sent me to you, to speak all these Words in your ears.
16 Then the rulers, and all the people, said to the priests and to the prophets, There is not a sentence of death for this man, for he has spoken to us in the name of YAHWEH our Elohim.
17 Then some of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying,
18 Micah of Moresheth[2] prophesied in the days of Hezekiah, king of Judah. And he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, So says YAHWEH of Hosts: Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house like the high places of a forest.
19 Did Hezekiah, king of Judah and all Judah indeed put him to death? Did he not fear YAHWEH and entreat the face of YAHWEH? And did not YAHWEH repent of the evil which He had spoken against them? So we are doing great evil against our souls.
20 And there was also a man who prophesied in the name of YAHWEH, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-Jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to the words of Jeremiah.
21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the rulers, heard his words, the king tried to put him to death. But Urijah heard, and he was afraid, and fled, and went to Egypt.
22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men to Egypt, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and men with him into Egypt.
23 And they brought Urijah out of Egypt and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who struck him with the sword, and threw his dead body into the graves of the sons of the people.
24 But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

[1] Human nature is to always strike the messenger instead of adhering to the message of repentance. When one rejects the messenger that Yahweh sent with His message they are rejecting Yahweh who gave the message (Ex 16:2-8, Joh 5:30)

[2] "Micah" The prophet with the book after his name.

Jehoiakim[1] the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this Word came to Jeremiah from YAHWEH, saying,

2 So says YAHWEH to me, Make bonds and yokes for yourself, and put them on your neck.

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the sons of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who came to Jerusalem to Zedekiah, king of Judah.

4 And command them to go to their masters, saying, So says YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel: So you shall say to your masters,

5 I have made the earth, the man, and the animals on the face of the earth by My great power and by My outstretched arm; and I have given it to whom it seemed right in My eyes.

6 And now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant. And I have also given him the beast of the field to serve him.

7 And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land comes; also it. And many nations and great kings shall serve him.

8 And it shall be, the nation and kingdom which will not serve him, Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put its neck in the yoke of the king of Babylon, I will punish that nation, says YAHWEH, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the plague, until I have destroyed them by his hand.

9 As for you, do not listen to your prophets, or to those divining to you, or to your dreams, or to your soothsayers, or to your sorcerers, those who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon.

10 For they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, that I should drive you out, and you should perish.

11 But the nation that will bring its neck into the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, says YAHWEH, I will leave it on its own land, and it may work it and live in it.

12 I also spoke to Zedekiah, king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks into the king of Babylon's yoke, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the plague, as YAHWEH has spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 So then do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon, for they prophesy a lie to you.

15 For I have not sent them, says YAHWEH. Yea, they prophesy a lie in My name, so that I might drive you out, and that you might perish, you and the prophets who prophesy to you.

16 Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, So says YAHWEH, Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the house of YAHWEH shall now be quickly brought again from Babylon. For they prophesy a lie to you.

17 Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon and live. Why should this city be a waste?

18 But if they are prophets, and if the Word of YAHWEH is with them, let them now intercede with YAHWEH of Hosts that the vessels which are left in the house of YAHWEH, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, may not go to Babylon.

19 For so says YAHWEH of Hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the rest of the vessels which remain in this city, 20 which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he exiled Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem.

21 For so says YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of YAHWEH, and the house of the king of Judah, and Jerusalem:
22 They shall be brought to Babylon, and they shall be there until the day I visit them, says YAHWEH. Then I will bring them up and restore them back to this place. (Ez 1:7-11 Ez 5:13-15)

Chapter 28

1 And it happened in that year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah, king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, Hananiah[1] the son of Azur the prophet, of Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of YAHWEH, for the eyes of the priests and all the people, saying,
2 So says YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.
3 Within two years I will again bring into this place all the vessels of the house of YAHWEH which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place and brought them to Babylon.
4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the exiles of Judah who went into Babylon, says YAHWEH. For I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.
5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of YAHWEH,
6 even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amein! May YAHWEH do so; may YAHWEH confirm your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the house of YAHWEH, and all the exiles, from Babylon into this place.
7 But hear now this word that I speak in your ears and in the ears of all the people:
8 The prophets who have been before me and before you from times past prophesied against many lands and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of plague.
9 As for the prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, the prophet shall be known as one whom YAHWEH has truly sent him.
10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from the prophet Jeremiah's neck and broke it[2].
11 And Hananiah spoke for the eyes of the people saying, So says YAHWEH, Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the time of two years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.
12 Then the Word of YAHWEH came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying,
13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, So says YAHWEH, You have broken yokes of wood, but you shall make instead of them yokes of iron.
14 For so says YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel: I have put a yoke

[1] He was a false prophet and YHWH took his life due to his arrogance.

[2] Notice Jeremiah is still wearing the yoke from Jer 27:2.

of iron on the neck of all these nations to serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And they shall serve him. And I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah, YAHWEH has not sent you, but you have made this people trust in a lie.

16 So YAHWEH says this, Behold, I send you away from the face of the earth. You shall die this year, because you have spoken apostasy against YAHWEH.

17 And Hananiah died the same year in the seventh month.

Chapter 29

1 And these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders of the exile, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon

2 after Jeconiah the king, and the queen mother, and the eunuchs, the rulers of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen, and the smiths, had gone out from Jerusalem.

3 He sent by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah, king of Judah, sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying,

4 So says YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have caused to be exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon:

5 Build houses and live, and plant gardens, and eat their fruit.

6 Take wives, and father sons and daughters. And take wives for your sons; and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters, and multiply there, and do not become few.

7 And seek the peace of the city, there where I have caused you to be exiled. And pray to YAHWEH for it; for in its peace you shall have peace.

8 For so says YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel: Do not let your prophets and your divining ones in your midst deceive you. And do not listen to your dreams which you dream.

9 For they prophesy falsely to you in My name. I have not sent them, says YAHWEH.

10 For so says YAHWEH, When according to My mouth seventy years have been fulfilled for Babylon[1], I will visit you and confirm My good Word to you, to bring you back to this place.

11 For I know the purposes which I am planning for you, says YAHWEH; purposes of peace, and not for evil; to give you a future and a hope.

12 Then you shall call on Me, and you shall go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you.

13 And you shall seek and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart.

14 And I will be found by you, says YAHWEH. And I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you, says YAHWEH. And I will bring you again into the place from which I sent you into exile, from there[2].

15 Because you have said, YAHWEH

[1] YHWH gave Babylon 70 yrs to rule the nations and then His judgment would come on them for their immorality, abuse of Yahweh's power to them and their causing Judah's downfall. This prophecy was fulfilled anciently in 539 BC when Persia overthrew Babylon and will also be fulfilled again to end time Babylon (Jer chapters 50 & 51, Rev chapters 17 & 18).

has raised up for us prophets in Babylon,

16 for so says YAHWEH to the king who sits on the throne of David, and to all the people who live in this city, your brothers who have not gone out with you into exile,

17 so says YAHWEH of Hosts, Behold, I am sending among them the sword, the famine, and the plague. And have given them up as figs that are vile, which cannot be eaten from badness. (Jer 24:2-5)

18 And I will pursue them with the sword, with the famine, and with the plague. And I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and a terror, and a hissing, and a reproach among all the nations, there where I have driven them.

19 For they have not listened to My Words, says YAHWEH, which I sent to them by My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending; but you would not hear, says YAHWEH.

20 And now you hear the Word of YAHWEH, all you exiles whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon.

21 So says YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in My name: Behold, I will give them into the hand of Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babylon, and he shall strike them before your eyes.

22 And a curse shall be taken up from them for all the exiles of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, May YAHWEH make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire,

23 because they have committed disgraceful folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbor's wives, and have spoken a lying word in My name, which I have not commanded them. For I am a witness and He who knows, says YAHWEH.

24 You shall also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying,

25 So says YAHWEH of Hosts, the Elohim of Israel, saying, Because you have sent letters in your name to all the people in Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

26 YAHWEH has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, to be officers in the house of YAHWEH, over every raving man who prophesies, that you should put him into the stocks and into the torture collar.

27 And now why have you not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, who prophesies to you?

28 On account of this he sent to us in Babylon, saying, This exile is long; build houses and live; and plant gardens and eat their fruit.

29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 Then the Word of YAHWEH came to Jeremiah, saying,

31 Send to all the exiles, saying, So says YAHWEH concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I did not send him; and he caused you to trust in a lie;

32 therefore so says YAHWEH, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his seed. There shall not be to him a man living among this people; nor shall he behold the good which I shall do for My people, says YAHWEH, because he has uttered rebellion against YAHWEH.

2 This prophecy has been fulfilled in modern times with the establishment of the modern state of Israel and the Aliyah of Jewish people from all over the globe.

Chapter 30

1 The Word that came to Jeremiah from YAHWEH, saying,
2 So speaks YAHWEH, Elohim of Israel, saying, Write for yourself all the Words that I have spoken to you in a book.
3 For, lo, the days come, says YAHWEH, that I will turn the captivity of My people Israel and Judah, says YAHWEH; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it[1].
4 And these are the Words that YAHWEH spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah:
5 For so says YAHWEH, We have heard a sound of trembling, of dread, and not of peace.
6 Ask now and see whether a male is giving birth? Why do I see every man with his hands on his loins, like a woman giving birth, and all faces are turned to paleness? (Jer 6:24, 22:23)
7 Alas! For that day is great, for none is like it. And it is a time of Jacob's trouble, but he will be saved out of it[2].
8 For it shall be in that day, says YAHWEH of Hosts, I will break his yoke from your neck, and I will burst your bonds. And strangers will not again enslave him[3];
9 but they shall serve YAHWEH their Elohim, and David their king, whom I will raise up to them[4].
10 And you, O My servant Jacob, do not fear, says YAHWEH. Do not be terrified, O Israel. For, lo, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity. And Jacob shall return, and have quiet, and be untroubled, and no one will make him afraid[5]. (Is 41:8-9 Hos 2:18)
11 For I am with you, says YAHWEH, to save you. Though I make a full end among all nations where I have scattered you, yet I will not make a full end with you. But I will correct you justly, and I will not leave you unpunished. (Jer 16:14-19)
12 For so says YAHWEH, Your break cannot be cured; your wound is grievous.
13 There is no one to judge your cause; for your ulcer there are no healing medicines for you.

1 Yahweh clearly states He will return both the captivity of Judah who went into Babylon from 609-573 BC, but also that He will return the House of Israel who went into captivity by Assyria in 734-718 BC. The latter has not happened yet, but just as Judah is back in their homeland today, Yahweh will also accomplish to bring back the Northern tribes of Israel.

2 This is the time in the end time that is called in Math 24:21, as the worst time that man will ever have in his existence. First, Satan is allowed to set up his earthly kingdom for 42 months in which he will try to destroy all true believers and Israel (Rev 13:5-7), this is the time of Jacob's trouble, and then the time called "the day of YHWH" (Joel 1-2, 11) will directly follow with YHWH's wrath over all the earth just preluding His Kingdom being set up.

3 The yoke that Israel has borne is that they have never fully surrendered to YHWH as a nation to fulfill His great blessings for them as they being His people and YHWH being their Elohim. Through antiquity and even today, Israel has depended on foreign powers for security and ultimately this has led to their captivity more than once.

4 Clearly, this is millennial. When Yahshua returns to set up the Kingdom of Yahweh (Zech 14:1-5, Acts 1:9-12) David will be a prince and ruler directly under Yahshua (Ezek 34:23-24Ezek 37:34) and Yahshua YHWH will literally be reigning on earth. YHWH the Father does not come to earth until the millennium is over (Rev 21:1-4)

5 Yahweh will redeem all 12 tribes back to Israel in end time (Jer 31:1, Jer 32:37-38, Jer 33:7-9, Ezek 34:25-28.

14 All those loving you have forgotten you; they do not seek you[1]. For I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, because of the greatness of your iniquity. Your sins are many.
15 Why do you cry out over your crushing? Your pain is incurable, for the greatness of your iniquity; your sins are many, so I have done these things to you.
16 Therefore, all those who devour you shall be devoured. And all your foes, every one of them, shall go into captivity. And those plundering you I will give up to plunder, and all preying on you I will give up for prey[2].
17 For I will give health back to you, and I will heal you of your wounds[3], says YAHWEH, because they called you, Outcast; saying, This is Zion; no one is seeking for her. (Is 56:8)
18 So says YAHWEH, Behold I will turn the captivity of Jacob's tents and will have mercy on his dwelling places. And the city shall be built on her ruin heap; and the palace shall remain on its own divine place[4].
19 And out of them shall come thanksgiving and the voice of those who are merry. And I will multiply them, and they shall not be few. I also will honor them, and they shall not be small. (Jer 33:11, Ps 126:1-2, Is 35:10)
20 Also, his sons shall be as before, and his congregation shall be established before Me; and I will punish all who oppress them.
21 And his leader shall be from him, and his ruler shall come from among him. And I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach Me. For who is he who pledged his heart to come near to Me, says YAHWEH?
22 And you shall be My people, and I will be your Elohim. (Jer 32:38)
23 Behold, the tempest of YAHWEH: fury goes forth, a sweeping whirlwind; it shall whirl on the head of the wicked.
24 The glow of the anger of YAHWEH will not turn back until He has executed, and until He has established the purposes of His heart. In latter days you will understand it[5].

Chapter 31

1 At that time, says YAHWEH, I will be the Elohim of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My people[6].
2 So says YAHWEH, Israel, the people, the survivors of the sword, have found grace in the wilderness, I will go to give rest to him[7].

1 All the nations who Israel looked for their security through instead of YHWH have ultimately forsaken her anyway.

2 Although Israel is getting her punishment during the time of Jacob's trouble, the nations that caused her demise, such as Babylon, will also be punished during the wrath of YHWH on earth.

3 Although Israel will go through a harsh chastisement for their sins, ultimately, their punishment is put on Babylon and Babylon is destroyed forever as where Jerusalem will be the eternal capital of the Kingdom of YHWH (Rev 18:20, 23, Jer 50:39-40, Mic 4:2)

4 The Hebrew word for ruin here is 'tel'. There are currently more than 30,000 such archaeological tels in Israel. The science of Archeology is only about 140 years old, which even makes this scripture more amazing (Is 58:12, Ps 102:14).

5 Most of this chapter as well as the next few are mostly about things that will take place in the end times. (Jer 3:18)

6 In the millennial setting all 12 tribes will be restored (Ro 11:26-27)

7 Yahweh always brings those to the wilderness who are being prepared and here YHWH Yahshua will meet this remnant in the wilderness (Eze 20:33-44).

3 YAHWEH has appeared to me from far away, saying, Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love! On account of this, with loving kindness I have drawn you.
4 Again I will build you, and you shall be built again, O virgin of Israel.
You will again put on your tambourines[1] and go forth in the dance of those making merry. (Jer 30:19) 5 You shall yet plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria, the planters shall plant and shall treat them as common[2].
6 For there shall be a day when the watchmen on the hills of Ephraim shall call out, Arise and let us go up to Zion, to YAHWEH our Elohim[3].
7 For so says YAHWEH, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the head of the nations. Cry out, give praise and say, O YAHWEH, save Your people[4], the remnant of Israel.
8 Behold! I will bring them from the North Country, and gather them from the recesses of the earth. Among them the blind, and the lame, the pregnant one, and the travailing one together, a great company shall return here[5].
9 They shall come with weeping, and I will lead them with prayers. I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a right way; they will not stumble in it. For I am a Father to Israel, and Ephraim is My first-born[6].
10 Hear the Word of YAHWEH, O nations, and declare in the coastlands far away, and say, He who scattered Israel will gather him and keep him, as a shepherd his flock.
11 For YAHWEH has redeemed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of the one stronger than him.
12 And they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and be radiant over the goodness of YAHWEH, for grain, and for wine, and for oil, and for the sons of the flock and the herd. And their life shall be as a watered garden;
and they shall not continue to languish any more[7].
13 Then the virgin shall rejoice in the dance, both young men and elders together. For I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them and make them rejoice from their sorrow.
14 And I will fill the soul of the
